DANIELS LOCATES SIMS' SORE PLACE IN SENATE ACTION

Declares Appointment to British Admiralty Turned Down as Un-American.

THIS ACTION BLASTED SIMS' OLD AMBITIONS

Secretary Points to Remarkable Similarity of Sims' and Penrose Charges.

Washington, May 19.—Appointment of Rear Admiral Sims as honorary member of the British Admiralty was declined by the Navy Department as "un-American" despite the fact that it was professed by King George himself, Secretary Daniels testified today before a Senate committee investigating the navy. Mr. Daniels charged that this incident probably furnished some of the animus behind the Admiral's attack on the department.

Admiral Sims' "dearest and highest ambition," Mr. Daniels said, was "blasted by the department's refusal to permit the appointment. Pointing to the similarity between Admiral Sims' charges and statements made by Senator Penrose in the Senate in August, 1918, Mr. Daniels expressed the belief that the two were not unconnected.

"Either Admiral Sims is a plagiarist or is some new science of mental telepathy the views of the Senators were communicated to the Admiral," the Secretary declared.

Mr. Daniels announced at today's session that he would conclude his direct statement Thursday afternoon. Chairman Hale said the committee would attempt to conclude the cross-examination by Saturday night and then adjourn for a few days to enable Rear Admiral Sims to study the testimony before he was called to testify in rebuttal.

There will be no session of the committee tomorrow.

The words used by Senator Penrose were almost identical with those used by Admiral Sims more than a year later Mr. Daniels said. Either Admiral Sims is a plagiarist and appropriated his views on charges from Sen. Penrose by the new science of mental telepathy the views of the Senator were communicated to Admiral Sims," declared Mr. Daniels. "Penrose comes from Pennsylvania and Sims was appointed to the naval academy from that state. Did they collaborate or exchange mental telegrams.

The committee might have "saved thousands of reams of paper and hundreds of thousands of words" by investigating Senator Penrose's charges the witness added. Senator Penrose was "imposed upon by some informant almost as reckless in his figures as Admiral Sims was in his accusations," Mr. Daniels continued. "Its almost worthy of note," he said "that at the very time Penrose was making his speech, Sims was writing to Captain Pratt threatening an investigation of the conduct of the war.

Mr. Daniels said he would not answer the Penrose charges at length, even though he had just learned of them, because his answer to Admiral Sims covered the matter fully.

HON. CLAUDE KITCHIN SAID OF ROBERT N. PAGE

"If I had to select the ten ablest and wisest members of the House, Bob Page would easily be one of the ten. I have often said that if I had a grave, important matter before congress I would rather have Page to handle it than any man in the house, for I would know it would be managed with pre-eminent tact, judgment, ability and wisdom, and he would bring to it as large a support as any man in congress could. He measures up, in the fullest, to every requirement of a man and Representative in courage, integrity, patriotism and ability. He is one of the ablest men and wisest legislators that has sat in congress in the last quarter of a century."

SEVERAL MEXICAN HIGHWAY WORKERS GO OUT ON STRIKE

Members of Road Construction Forces Demand Higher Wages and Quit.

FEW STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK DURING TODAY

Officials Refuse to Grant Raise, but Men Expected to Return Soon.

Twenty-five Mexican laborers employed by the Gill Construction company in the building of hard surfaced roads from this city to Farmville, struck for higher wages yesterday afternoon, and although officials of the company failed to comply with the demand up until a late hour last night, several of the men reported for work this morning and it is believed the strike will be completely abandoned when the remainder of the men return to work during the next several hours.

The strike was precipitated, so it is said, by a proposal from leaders of the gang that $3.50 per day was insufficient for services rendered, and consequently the demand for an increase to $4.50 per day was presented to officials of the company in this city. The demand for higher wages was emphatically refused, and almost immediately about twenty-five, or practically every Mexican laborer in the employ of the company in this district, left their work and discussed the situation among themselves until an interpreter was located to reason the matter over in a comprehensible way.

Augmented by the interpreter the little band of workmen gathered in different parts of the western section of the city and discussed their action until a late hour last night, and although (Continued on page two.)

TOWN MERCHANTS IN MONTHLY MEET HERE LAST NIGHT

Plans for Getting State Association Members Given Consideration.

A goodly number of the merchants attended the regular business meeting of the Merchant Association which was held last night. The members of the local association are much interested in helping to get individual members for the State association and in organizing locals so that there may be more links in the chain and that they may be closer together. During the past year most of the larger towns have organized their merchants and the merchants association is getting to be one of the strongest powers in the state. Much good work is being done everywhere that a local association exists. The Greenville folk will devote one day next week to organization work in Ayden, Grimesland, Grifton, Winterville and Bethel.

At this meeting the annual election of officers took place and the old officers were unanimously re-elected and the members gave them a rising vote of thanks for the splendid work which they have done during the past year. The officers are R. L. Crow, president; W. L. Best and C. D. Tunstall, vice-presidents; C. Heber Forbes, treasurer and Miss Maude Lee, secretary.

Bulletins and letters concerning the eighteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Merchants Association were read and discussed with much interest. The local merchants voted to send the president and secretary of the Greenville association to Asheville to attend this convention which will be held on June 15th to 18th.

LAWSON ASKS MEN TO MAKE OLYMPIC GAME THEIR IDEAL

University of Pennsylvania Coach Urges Greater Aspirations.

SEVERAL FACTS GIVEN IN ANNOUNCING RULES

Says Every Man Has Highest Honor Obtainable Within Easy Grasp.

Philadelphia, May 19.—Lawson Roberson, coach of the University of Pennsylvania track team, in announcing his training rules for the present season, urges his athletes to make the Olympic Games the goal of their athletic aspirations.

"Every man has the highest obtainable athletic honor before him," he says. "This is to represent the United States in the Olympics. It means no little sacrifice, but the men who are willing to forego the pleasures of social life and attend strictly to the tasks imposed by the coaches have 75 percent of success in their grasp. The other 25 percent is athletic ability.

"Every man must train himself and the 'Honor System' will be used. Smoking is prohibited for athletes and for visiting friends. Every athlete must be in bed at 10:45 P. M., and there is to be no unnecessary noise after 10:15.

"Eat slowly and chew your food well. A small portion of food well chewed is worth double the amount bolted. Don't drink water after exercising or before meals. Two days before and on the day of competition, the rations will be cut in half. Try to go to sleep at a definite hour and lie in bed ten minutes after awakening before arising.

BOARD OF HEALTH TO BATTLE DEATH RATE OF TYPHOID

Plans for Strenuous Campaign Is Now Under Way in Many Territories.

Raleigh, May 19.—With a typhoid death rate that has been steadily reduced during each of the past five years the State Board of Health is preparing for another intensive effort against all the preventable diseases that annually take the lives of North Carolinians. Through its field men this summer the State Board of Health will strive for vaccination of a minimum of fifty thousand people.

As in previous years, a proposition is being made to a number of countries that will mean the opportunity for the anti-typhoid treatment free of charge to the individual citizen. Physicians employed by the State will hold dispensaries in easily accessible points in the countries taking advantage of the offer and administer the typhoid vaccine, which will be manufactured in the State Laboratory. A careful record of all persons receiving the full treatment of three doses of vaccine will be kept, and the county commissioners will pay at the rate of twenty five cents for each citizen who is thus rendered immune to typhoid fever.

Already the proposition has been accepted by the counties of Mecklenburg, Gaston, Alamance, Franklin and Person. A large number of other counties are expected to take favorable action at the monthly meetings of the commissioners in June.

The work will be directed by Dr. Charles S. Mangum of the medical faculty of the University of North Carolina, and Dr. Luther T. Buchanan of the medical faculty of Wake Forest College. A number of other physicians will be employed to assist in the work.

WILSON RECEIVES RAPID PROMOTION BY UNITED STATES

W. B. Wilson, Jr., Sent on Inspection of Many World Ports of Government.

ELEVEN MONTHS TO BE SPENT IN LONG VOYAGE

Recent Promotion to Shipping Board Receives Attention of Officials.

One of the finest examples of real patriotism with which we are familiar can be claimed for Greenville with the honor resting individually upon Mr. W. B. Wilson, Jr. He is the eldest of six brothers, sons of Mr. W. B. Wilson, all of whom in the midst of the war were prominently mentioned in the columns of this and other newspapers as being enlisted in the service of their country, the parallel of so many in the same family not being found anywhere else in the nation.

In his early years Mr. W. B. Wilson, Jr., was awarded an appointment to West Point, and while preparing for the entrance examination a test of his eyes by New York specialists disclosed that their condition was such that he could not pass the physical requirements. Though a keen disappointment at the time in having to forego this ambition, he turned his attention to other than military pursuit and entered Poughkeepsie Business College where he took a thorough course. After graduation from that institution he returned home and took a position in the broker's office of his father, later becoming associated with him in business and following this for several years.

In all this time the military spirit never died in him, especially as he saw several of his brothers when they reached the proper age going into the service of the regular army through West Point appointments, but the defect of his eyes held him back. By the time the United States entered the world war and made a draft on our young men for service, he had advanced beyond the draft age so that he could not be called, and the fear of being rejected because of the defect to (Continued on page four.)

JOHNNY WILSON IN LIMELIGHT AFTER WHIPPING O'DOWD

Pugilist Creates Much Animation After Beating Champion in Boston.

New York, May 19.—When the news was flashed from the Boston ringside that Johnny Wilson had won the world's middleweight championship from Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, a few night's ago very few followers of pugilism could identify the new title holder. In a few hours, however, it was learned that the new champion was born in New York 27 years ago but had made this home in Boston for some five or six years past.

Wilson, whose real name is Giovanni Panica, was born on East 106th street, New York City, next door to the birthplace of Willie Jackson, the promising contender for lightweight honors on March 23, 1893. During the time that boxing was legalized in New York under the Frawley law, Panica took part in several preliminary bouts at local clubs and assumed the ring name of Johnny Wilson. At Philadelphia, about six years ago, Wilson lost to Young McGovern but three months later outpointed McGovern at a New York Club. Wilson then went to Boston where he signed a contract to box under the management of Marty Kelleher a partnership which still remains intact.

SPLENDID MASQUE GIVEN BY CLASSES AT LOCAL SCHOOL

"The Forest Princess" Presented Yesterday by Training School Pupils.

PICNIC SUPPER SERVED TO SENIORS AFTER PLAY

Every Member of "B" Class Served in the Play and on Committees.

"The Forest Princess," a masque by Constance Makay, was presented yesterday afternoon, on the basketball court, by the last year academic, or "B" class, complimentary to the Senior class of the Training school. Picnic supper, with punch and ice-cream, was served to the seniors and faculty after the performance.

The beautiful masque, or pageant-play, had an ideal setting with the woods as background. The court procession led by a herald and pages, came through the trees, on to the woods stage, the actors kept their places in the background easing into the play naturally, and yet not attracting attention to themselves interfering with the main action of the story. The spirits of the trees acted as ushers and stage managers and their lovely green and brown costumes blended well with the setting. Type-written programs were distributed. Seats had been arranged and in front of these rugs, blankets, and sofa pillows were put on the ground for those who wished to get near.

Every one of the fifty members of the "B" class were in the play, and served on committees. The cast of characters was as follows: The King, Little Dawson; the queen, Elsie Wilson; the Forest Princess, Pauline Saunders; Prince Aladore, the disguised prince, Fannie Johnson, Prince Ulric, the proud prince, Jennie Hollowell; Dame Mora, a peasant woman, Vera Lunsford; her little son, Inol, William Wright, the class mascot; a herald, Beatrice Chauncey; a traveller, Flora Hughes; Spirits of the Trees, Inez Frazier, Myrtle Peel, Mae Osborne, Sallie Mae Jones, Attie Bray, Reba Satterfield, Eva Cooke, Inabelle (Continued on page two.)

LITTLE GIRLS ASK MUTT AND JEFF TO HAVE THE MUMPS

Greenville Children Write Bud Fisher and Receive Reply to Question.

Three Greene street little Misses—Elizabeth Andrews, Davie Burnette and Dorothy Curran—neighbors and chums, not long since were amusing themselves together over Mutt and Jeff. Having themselves been shining targets for the mumps, they concluded it would be very funny if Mutt and Jeff could have a good case. "Let's write Bud Fisher and tell him what we think about it," suggested one. This was agreed to and the letter was written and dispatched. The little misses were delighted a few days later to receive a letter from Mr. Fisher, addressed to Miss Elizabeth Andrews, whose name was first in signatures to the letter they had sent him. It read:

"New York, May 12, 1920.

"Your suggestion that it would be funny for Mutt and Jeff to have the mumps is amusing to me, but I am afraid I could not afford to accept it because they would be quarantined and could not perform regularly in the newspapers. However, if they are missing at any time you will realize that they have the mumps.

"With best wishes,

"Yours sincerely,
"BUD FISHER."

LOCAL BALL CLUB GETTING IN SHAPE FOR OPENING GAME

Exhibition Game to be Staged Here at Races Next Monday Evening.

PLAYERS EXPECTED TO BE SIGNED THIS WEEK

Virtually All Club Members Will Play in Exhibition Game Monday.

The Greenville baseball club is rapidly getting in shape for the opening of the league season in this city June 7th, and although players have not yet been signed up practice is being staged daily at the ball park at the Fair Grounds with many of the local aspirants getting in trim to vie for positions on the team. An exhibition game will be played here Monday, May 31st, between Greenville and Middlesex and it is expected that virtually every player to participate in league games throughout the season will be seen in action in this game.

Reports from all cities comprising the Eastern Carolina league go to show that active practice is now in progress, with a number of players already signed up, and while it is believed that every club will be in prime condition by the opening of the season it is however probably that a number of intelligent men will be eliminated on account of not being in the class provided for by provisions governing the clubs. Greenville, it is stated, will have all college and local players, as it is generally conceded that these men will be sufficiently trained to carry the club to victory without any additions from other sections.

Officials of the club are in direct correspondence with a number of players in various sections of the country, as they have adhered closely to provisions of the league for employing players only those eligible have been selected to appear here for training. These men will arrive here within the next several days and will be played in the exhibition game here next week so that every player to compose the regular club will be in good shape for the opening games.

The ball park at the Fair Grounds will be one of the best in this section of the country as it is admirably situated in the center of the race track and close to the large and spacious grandstand now in the course of erection, and which no doubt will be fully completed by the opening of the season here, or shortly after. The diamond is level, both infield and outfield being in splendid condition and there is everything in evidence of it becoming the choice ball park of the entire league. The infield has been graded and smoothed so thoroughly that nothing is left to impede playing and the course of the ball, and for that reason it is assured all games here will be played under auspicious circumstances.

The schedule for the season is being prepared and so arranged that all five clubs can play advantageously with each town having privilege of seeing its team in action on local grounds on special occasions. So far definite announcements concerning the schedule have not been made known but everything indicates early completion satisfactory to all clubs involved. Officials of the league have this matter under consideration, and each club is being given good representation in every way.

MONKEY RUM STILL TAKEN BY OFFICERS IN AYDEN

Deputy Sheriff Corbett brought back to this city last night a still captured in Ayden by officials of that place during yesterday. The still when captured, so it is said, was in full operation and had been doing extensive business in that section for sometime. It was located in town, but officials had been unable to discover its position until facts placed in their possession yesterday led to its capture.

FOREIGN MARKET DEMAND.

That foreign markets are taking an increased proportion of the manufactures produced in the United States is shown by a statement by Mr. O. P. Austin, Statistician of The National City Bank of New York, presented at the recent meeting in San Francisco of the National Foreign Trade Council. While it is impossible to state, Mr. Austin said, the exact proportion of our manufactures which finally enter the export trade, it is quite apparent from a comparison of the figures of production and exportation that foreign markets are now taking a larger share of the output of our factories than ever before. This is evidenced first, by the fact that our exportation of manufactures increased over 25 per cent in the period between 1914 and 1919, while the production of manufactures in the same period increased but about 100 per cent in stated value. While the census of manufactures produced in 1919 is not yet completed, the best estimates of exports are that the state value of the manufactures of 1919 will be between $40,000,000,000 and $50,000,000,000, as against $24,240,000,000 in 1914, making the increase in valuation probably a little less than 1000 per cent, while the official figures of manufactures exported in 1919 show an increase of 258 per cent over the exports of manufactures in 1914, thus clearly indicating that our manufacturers sent abroad in 1919 a large percentage of their output than they did in 1914 or in any earlier census year.

Just what proportion of the manufactures produced is actually exported cannot, however, be determined, says Mr. Austin's statement. The only record of manufactures produced is that of the census, which states the factory value at the place of production, while the only record of manufactures exported is that of the department of commerce, which states the market value at the port of exportation, and of course the "market valuation" of each article at the port of exportation is materially higher than that at the factory, hundreds and perhaps thousands of miles distant from the point at which it is exported.

BISHOP DARST DECLARES MEN MUST BE LOVED INTO KINGDOM OF GOD

Preaching last night in St. Paul's church on the text "Launch out into the deep" (Luke 5:4), the Bishop urged all Christian people to leave the shallows of negative Christianity and launch out into the deep of loving service for Christ. He declared that nominal Christianity is not Christianity at all. "You would not be willing to be called nominally honest or nominally pure. Then why be satisfied with being nominally Christian."
Yesterday morning the Rev. J. H. Garner, of Williamston made an earnest and heart-reaching appeal for individual witness for Christ. Preaching on the text "Ye also shall bear witness (John 15:27)." Mr. Garner said "Only a few have the power and opportunity to witness for Christ to the multitudes by writing or great preaching, but every Christian can bear witness for Christ in his daily contact with his fellow men."

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District:
I have entered the Primary for the office of Judge in this District.
I have practiced law for the past 18 years, during which time I have assisted in the prosecution of the Federal docket for about 7 years. Since entering my name for the Judgeship I have resigned the office of Assistant U. S. attorney.
Before beginning the practice of the law I had fourteen years experience in business, beginning life as bank bookkeeper at the age of 16 years.
I shall not make a canvass of the district for the Judgeship. My conception of the duties and responsibilities of the high office of judge is such that in my view a canvass, and the methods of the political campaign, usual and perfectly proper for other offices—purely political, tend to cheapen and lower its tone. I would rather lose the nomination and never hold the office than lower it a hair's breadth from the high plane of honor and dignity on which our fathers have played and kept it in North Carolina.

I shall appreciate the support of all democrats in the district; and if by their suffrages I should be elevated to the Superior Court bench, I assure them that its high traditions shall be upheld, and in the administration of the office justice shall be meted out to all men alike.

No information was given out as to what was decided upon during the night, the return to work of several laborers this morning evidenced the fact that some dissatisfaction was dominant, and that not all of the men were entirely satisfied with the strike. Officials of the company stated this morning that an advance in wages was absolutely out of reason and that under no circumstances would this decision be changed. It is believed that the return of the men this morning will influence others in doing likewise, and that practically every man who participated in the strike will report for work during the week since environments at that roads camp is all they could desire under circumstances.

All of the representatives from Greenville to the Southern Baptist convention in Washington City returned home yesterday.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or any other car using 30x3-, 30x3½-, or 31x4-inch tires, you can well take advantage of the high relative value built into all Goodyear Tires.

You can well do so because you can secure in the smaller Goodyear Tires the results of such skill and care as have made Goodyear Tires the preferred equipment on the highest priced automobiles of the day.

You can well do so because these smaller Goodyear Tires are easy to obtain, being produced at the rate of approximately 20,000 a day, and because their first cost usually is as low or lower than that of other tires in the same types and sizes.

Go to the nearest Goodyear Service Station Dealer for these tires, and for Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes. He supplies many other local owners of the smaller cars.

30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure $23.50
Fabric, All-Weather Tread

30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure $21.50
Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes are thick, strong tubes that reinforce casings properly. Why risk a good casing with a cheap tube? Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost little more than tubes of less merit. 30x3½ size in waterproof $4.50 bag

ROBERT N. PAGE TO SPEAK

IN COURT HOUSE MONDAY
MAY 24, AT NOON

Robert N. Page, Democratic candidate for governor, on Monday began his swing through the east which is to consume two of his three remaining weeks in his fight for governor of North Carolina. He is accompanied by Mr. Byron Ford, editor of the Dunn Dispatch, as press agent. Mr. Page will arrive in this city Monday morning and at the noon hour will speak in the court house. He is a splendid speaker and non-supporters as well as his supporters are invited to hear him.

PARKER-COUNCIL.

Yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bynum, in Farmville, a most beautiful wedding was solemnized when Miss Mary Council, of Lake Waccama, became the bride of Mr. R. A. Parker, of Farmville. The house was beautifully decorated with potted plants and spring flowers. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Noe, of the Episcopal church, who used the impressive ring ceremony. The bride entered with the groom. She wore a going away suit of navy blue Tricotine with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and valley lilies. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Parker left for a trip to Asheville and other Western cities, after which they will be at home in Farmville.

Miss Council has for the past two years taught mathematics in the Farmville High School. She possesses a charming personality and since coming to this county has won a host of friends.

Mr. Parker is a successful planter and is also in the automobile business. He is well known throughout this county.

"No Experience Necessary"

It doesn't take an expert judge of materials to pilot you to safety in this grand big stock of Boys Suits.

Just show us the boy—instruct him to stand still, and then—leave the fit, fabric and fairness of the transaction to us.

Knowing and selling boy's clothes is our business. Keeping our boy's clothes customers smiling is our pleasure.

We mix business with pleasure in this case and as the result, we very often have to forego our afternoon tea.

MRS. LULA FLEMING ENTERTAINS

The End of the Century Club was delightfully entertained by Mrs. Lula Fleming on Tuesday afternoon, at her lovely home on Greene street. Sixteen of the twenty members were present. The invited guests were Mesdames W. L. Best, S. E. Gates E. B. Ferguson, Ada Cherry and Leon Tucker. The treasurer made a fine report, reporting the club as having paid all of its obligations and having money to its credit and that during the past two months the club had raised six hundred dollars which was ready to be turned over to the Pitt County Federation of Women's Clubs, to be added to the Loan Fund established by this federation at East Carolina Teachers Training School. At commencement this loan fund is to be made an endowment known as the Pitt County Club Woman's Endowment. Mrs. Fleming was assisted in serving refreshments by Misses Mary Harding and Margaret Fleming.

his eyes deterred him from volunteering. Still the desire could not be checked and, as he said, every time he saw a man in uniform it nettled him with himself because he was not giving himself in the service of his country. Several times he visited recruiting points with a view of ascertaining if there was any branch of the service he might enter.

As time passed and our war activities progressed, the Government Shipping Board was established as an auxiliary to the Merchant Marine to assist in providing transportation and shipping facilities between American and foreign ports. Mr. Wilson took advantage of this and the first opportunity enlisted as a private in this division. He was assigned aboard the ship Iowa where his record was such that successive promotions elevated him to the rank of assistant paymaster. Serving in this capacity to the close of the war, he saw an opportunity to stand an efficiency examination in Washington City which promised still higher service. He was among the winners in this examination and was given an appointment as personal representative of the Shipping Board, his duties being to travel from port to port, make investigation of shipping facilities and conditions, following this with recommendations tending to increase American shipping interests with the ports visited.

Already Mr. Wilson has made several trips to various countries in carrying out his duties, and has proven so expert in his work that he recently sailed from New York on a special trip around the world that will require a voyage, including stops, of eleven months.

All honor to this splendid son of Greenville for the career he is making. His patriotic ambition to be in the service of his country in time of war, even though having a physical hindrance that would have readily excused him, puts to shame some without defect, who might be singled out for draft dodging and who ought to be branded with a streak of yellow for shirking the patriotic call to duty in their country's service.
