REPUBLICAN PARTY FAVORS BONUS FOR AMERICAN SOLDIER

Party Caucus in Favor of Successful Passage of Issue in the House.

SECRETARY HOUSTON PRESENTS OPPOSITION

Asks If It Would Not be Advisable to Seek Out Additional Revenue.

Washington, May 19.—Republicans in congress 1 party caucus tonight declared for soldier legislation as advocated by the American Legion. Before deciding in favor of the legislation the Republicans refused, 141 to 49, to postpone indefinitely all action on relief legislation. Several Republican leaders including a majority of members of the steering committee, were said to have supported the motion, but there was no record vote.

When Republican members of the House went into caucus tonight on soldier relief legislation Chairman Fordney, of the Ways and Means Committee, laid before them a letter from Secretary Houston flatly opposing any bonus proposal in whatever manner financed.

Secretary Houston's letter, which resulted from an inquiry by Chairman Fordney as to the treasury's view on the "insurgent" Republican-Democratic proposal for a retroactive 80 per cent war profits tax, declared that congress instead of defining means of spending money, should concentrate its efforts on raising funds for current government expenses.

"I beg to submit to your committee for its serious consideration," the treasury secretary wrote, "the question whether, all things considered, it would not now be advisable to seek out additional sources of revenue to meet the current requirements of the government . . . in order to obviate the necessity of continuing in considerable measure to meet them by borrowing."

Mr. Houston said it was a matter of serious concern to have the government appear in the market every few months for loans, as this course would result in additional credit expansion with higher prices and a more difficult financial situation.

Discussing the alternative of a bond issue—increased taxes—Secretary Houston said:

"The very heavy burdens which will rest upon the treasury by reasons of laws already enacted, including particularly the recent railroad law, which, it is estimated, will entail an expenditure of approximately $1,000,000,000

THE REPUBLICAN LEADER,
MR. MANN OF ILLINOIS,
SAID OF ROBERT N. PAGE

"Mr. Speaker: We are in the House, having finished the consideration of the District of Columbia Appropriation Bill in committee. I think it is a duty that I owe to the House—and a very pleasant duty—to make a reference to the gentleman who has had charge of the district appropriation bill in the House.

"I do not recall how long Mr. Page has been a member of the House of Representatives, nor even how long he has had charge of the District of Columbia Appropriation bill, but I do recall that for many years in this house it has been a sincere pleasure to me personally, and I am sure to all the other members of the house, to meet with the pleasing personality of the gentleman from North Carolina. I make it a practice, and have done so for many years, of privately receiving advice, suggestions and information from members on the Democratic side, though I do not always give them credit in public. I have frequently had the honor and the pleasure of seeking the advice of the gentleman from North Carolina. The House has learned to rely very largely upon his judgment and to have the highest regard for his opinion."

APPALLING LOSSES CAUSED BY STRIKE FEVER OF COUNTRY

Cos. of Labor in Wages from Strikes Totaled Approximately $725,000,000

COUNTRY FACES GREAT DANGER THRU CREDITS

Francis Sisson Tells National Manufacturers of Danger to Be Combated.

New York, May 19.—An incomplete list of direct losses due to strikes in 1919, places the cost to labor in wages at nearly $725,000,000 and to industry at more than one and one-quarter billion dollars, Francis H. Sisson, vice-president of the Guaranty Trust Company of New York, told the silver jubilee convention of the National Association of manufacturers here today. The chief danger in the present situation, Mr. Sisson said, is that the desirability of low prices as an end in itself may be so exaggerated as to lead to the attempt to force prices down through harmful measures for the control of credit.

"The banker spoke at length on industrial unrest, analyzing its effect on the country's economic condition and blaming strike fevers for high living costs and increased rents. He urged the conservation of our natural resources as a means of maintaining our economic position in the world."

"We have heard much about rent profiteers," Mr. Sisson said, "but organized labor either does not realize or closes its eyes to the fact that every time men employed in the building trades go on a strike or shirk at their tasks they penalize society—which

TELLS AMERICANS THERE'S NO CAUSE FOR TALKING PANIC

"Quit Talking Panic and Go to Work," Extensive Traveler Advises.

New York, May 19.—"If the American people will stop talking panic and go to work they will forget about the panic that some of them imagine they see coming."

L. K. Liggett, head of the United Drug Corporation, who returned from Europe today on the Baltic, said that Europe was rapidly recovering and was industrious, and that America was doing too much worrying.

"Europe has gone further on the way to recovery than most Americans realize," he said. Belgium has recovered. France is coming forward rapidly. It is levying heavy taxes, but most of the money will go for rehabilitation of the devastated areas, and Germany will repay that ultimately. England is treating her business men liberally in the way of credits. The banking system there is getting along with a gold reserve about one-third of what we have in America.

"We are worrying too much over our gold and foreign credits. Credit should be extended without reserve for the European customers who would accept them. They are good and will ultimately pay. Our policy of cautiousness is costing us dearly in trade."

George J. Whelan, prominent American tobacco merchant, was practically of the same opinion as to conditions in Europe.

"Our allies in Europe are recovering rapidly financially and industrially and there is no justification for panic talk in the United States," he said. "I traveled extensively through England, France and Italy and found the people cheerful and everywhere hard at work. The agricultural classes are especially optimistic."

WILLARD PREDICTS GREAT FUTURE FOR NATION RAILROADS

President of B. & O. Presents Optimistic View Before Manufacturers.

PRIVATE OWNERSHIP TO PROVE UNUSUAL SUCCESS

If Private Ownership Fails, Then Government Control Is Advisable.

New York, May 20.—Confidence in the future successful operation of the railroads of the United States under private ownership control was expressed by Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio Company, in an address he delivered here today before the National Association of Manufacturers. If the new railroad law is applied as Congress intended and if the railway managers so operate the properties as to fairly meet the requirements and expectations of the public, he said, "we may reasonably expect that private ownership and operation of the railroads as an economic policy will continue in this country. If private ownership should fail the only alternative I am able to see is government ownership and operation, with all that the policy implies. Railway managers must for a time at least keep constantly in mind that private ownership is on trial and they must be determined that it shall win. They must study the needs of the public for transportation and make every possible effort to satisfy them. They must treat all alike and without discrimination."

Mr. Willard repeated his recommendation made to the Council of National

BETTER HIGHWAYS RAPIDLY GAINING GOOD SUPPORTERS

Overwhelming Sentiment for Improved Roads Evident in the State.

Charlotte, N. C., May 20.—(Special)—Indicative of the overwhelming sentiment which has been developed in this state in favor of providing the funds for construction of a state-wide system of hard-surfaced highway is the fact that twenty-five organizations, professions or vocations have endorsed the movement, either by formal action in convention or through their leaders, according to announcement here today at headquarters of the Wilmington-Charlotte-Asheville highway association, which is co-operating with other organizations in the campaign for the $50,000,000 road bond issue.

Endorsement of the program, it was pointed out, has been given by the press of this state; the chambers of commerce and boards of trade; the Rotary clubs; the Kiwanis clubs, the State Merchants Association; the various city merchants associations; the state association of county commissioners, the State Federation of Labor; the North Carolina Medical Society; ministers of every religious denomination; various posts of the American Legion; various posts of the Travelers Protective association; bankers; farmers; the State Federation of Woman's clubs, mayors of towns; various chapters of the civil engineers association; superior court judges; senators and congressmen; a large number of county officials, several state officials; supreme court judges; candidates for governor of both the Democratic and Republican parties; both party organization in their political platforms; ninety-four members of the legislature in writing, in addition to numerous other verbal promises to support the bond issue bill, this number representing a majority

THOMAS DECLARES PEOPLE, NOT LAW MUST CURB PRICES

Senator Delivers Warm Address Against Profiteering Before Senate.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE EFFORTS HAVE FAILED

Says Expression Should be High Cost of Hoarding and Not Living.

Washington, May 19.—Frankly condemning to his colleagues that the clothes on his back were threadbare and patched, Senator Thomas, Democrat, of Colorado, joining today in another Senate broadside on profiteers, declared the people themselves and not legislation must break the sweeping wave of high prices.

"Lacking the overall movement, started as a protest against the cost of clothing, with widespread price reductions, reported from many cities, Senator Thomas said the public had found the remedy in its own hands."

The attack on profiteers was opened by Senator Kenyon, Republican, of Iowa, who urged social ostracism and criminal punishment for the offenders. Corporations principally and retailers were held up as prime profiteers. Some of them were characterized by the Iowa Senator as robbers and traitors.

In urging publicity as a means of sweeping dealers demanding excessive profits "to the junk heap of disrepute," Senator Kenyon declared department of justice prosecutions had failed to bring relief and that the people should elect a president who would break up the evil by naming an Attorney General "who cares more about

FIRST ACTIVITY IN GREAT CUP RACES TO OCCUR JULY 15

Yacht Race to be Staged Off Sandy Hook With Many Participants.

New York, May 20.—The first official activity in connection with the America's Cup races off Sandy Hook, July 15, will begin Friday on Long Island Sound when the prospective cup-defending yachts Resolute and Vanitie meet in the opening races of the 1920 elimination series. Weather permitting six races will be held off New Haven, Conn., between May 21 and 27 after which the yachts will proceed to Newport for a more extended series of races under open sea conditions. The Schedule calls for races off New Haven on May 21, 22, 24, 25, 26, and 27. The Newport races are set for June 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18 and 19.

The contests of New Haven are to be short practice events, probably twice round a short course and will not count materially in the selection of a defender. Their chief purpose will be to afford the crews practice and to stretch sails and rigging.

The real trial practice will be the ones off Newport. There will probably be twelve or fourteen of the brushes. The cup committee then will announce the defender. These races will be "for blood." The friendship that exists between the two crews will be forgotten, each striving to be the "cup boat." Once the defender is picked, the "brains" of the two yachts will again get together to plan the defense of the America's cup.

The regatta committee of the New York Yacht Club will have full charge of all the trial races. It is made up of H. B. Parsons, chairman; Joseph M. Macdonough and Frederic O. Spedden.

EQUAL JUSTICE TO ALL MEN GIVEN AS REMEDY IN UNREST

Marshall Tells Democratic Convention Why Social Unrest Prevails.

BELIEVES DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE WILL SUFFICE

Vice-President Expressed Hope that President and Senate Would Reconcile.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 20.—"Equal and exact justice to all men" as a remedy for unrest was prescribed by Vice President Marshall in his keynote address today before the State Democratic Convention. He also urged jail sentence for profiteers and increased production to relieve the high cost of living.

"I hold that the Democratic doctrine of equal and exact justice to all men and of special privileges to none will meet all the angry and irreconciled views of today," said Mr. Marshall.

The Vice President also expressed the hope that President Wilson and the Senate would reconcile their difference over the peace treaty and that it would be ratified; but said no man should be read out of the Democratic party because of his opinion on the League of Nations.

"This was, as I understand it," the Vice President said, "an American war. The peace should be an American peace. The war could not have been fought successfully as either a Democratic or Republican war. The peace cannot bring that real peace which the American people want if it be made either as a Democratic or a Republican peace."

"I still hope that the President and

STRIKING MEXICAN LABORERS RETURN TO WORK ON ROADS

Virtually Everyman Who Struck Tuesday Reported for Duty Yesterday.

CONSTRUCTION COMPANY FLATLY REFUSES RAISE

Three Ringleaders Forced to Leave City on Account of Dissatisfaction.

The spirit of social unrest that has prevailed with such demoralizing effect in practically every laboring class of the country was given a decided setback in this city yesterday afternoon when the Gill Construction Company, in charge of the building of the hard surfaced road from this city to Farmville, emphatically declined to consider a demand for higher wages from several Mexican laborers who struck last Tuesday evening following persuasion from ringleaders who, it is said, are accountable for the entire affair. The men demanded an increase from $3.50 to $4.50 per day, but the highway commission and construction company too absolutely refused to listen to further statements concerning the demand, and consequently every man has reported for duty with the exception of the ringleaders who have left the city.

Members of the highway commission are confident that the strike came about as a result of discussion created by the three ringleaders for the past several days, for immediately after the demand for an increase in wages was refused by the company several of the Mexicans became dissatisfied over the affair and resented the position taken by the leaders in precipitating the issue. The spirit of discontent became so accentuated that the idea of continuing the strike was completely abandoned and one by one the men returned to work. The leaders were compelled to leave the city as they were treated coldly and with indifference on every side, and no doubt anticipated possible violence from a number of followers who participated in strike proceedings.

Mr. G. W. B. Hadley, of the highway commission and Mr. Gill, of the construction company are to be commended for the splendid way in which the strike was handled, for it is believed that if the matter had been nipped in the bud it would have assumed more serious proportions from which the highway work would have suffered to no little extent. Both men heard the proposal from the Mexican leaders and declined so plainly and decidedly to grant the increase in wages that the participants were convinced of the futility of going further.

According to reports from the highway commission today practically all of the strikers appear more happy and contented than ever now that they have returned to usual labors, and there is every indication that services will possibly be more efficient and diligent than ever. The leaders, who were employed in this state sometime ago and became too wise in business even for themselves, have left the city, as first reports indicated, so there is little fear of future trouble among the men remaining.

Business Men Endorse J. Loyd Horton For Judge of 5th District.

WE NEED A YOUNG MAN FOR JUDGE

(Editorial from the Farmville Enterprise dated May 11th).

The people of the 5th Judicial District are peculiarly fortunate in having the opportunity of nominating and electing an active, energetic, successful young business man and lawyer for judge of the district in the primary on June 5th. It has been our pleasure to know intimately J. Loyd Horton for several years and we know him to be a young man of sterling character, energetic, active, progressive, yet possessing a disposition of that nature usually termed "Judicial Temperment."

Mr. Horton passed the bar examination nearly six months before he reached the age of twenty-one, and though his license was not issued until he was twenty-one he immediately by permission of the Judge, then riding this circuit, opened his office for the practice of law. On Wednesday after he stood the examination in Raleigh on Monday, he singly, and successfully defended a man charged with a felony in the Superior Court of this county, and continually since that time he has worked hard in his profession, and has built up a large and lucrative law practice. At the age of twenty-four he was elected solicitor of the 5th District, and his record as Solicitor has satisfied the people of the district of his ability and qualifications for the office of Judge.

In addition to his law practice Mr. Horton has taken an active interest in the business life of his community, being at one time on the Board of directors of five corporations, Secretary and Treasurer of three of them, a partner in an automobile business and in The North American Land Co., a large real estate company of this city. He is regarded by all his business associates as being a man of unusually sound business judgment and integrity.

This is an era of prosperity, yet an era of reconstruction. We are rebuilding our civilization to conform with the ideals promulgated by the late World's War. Modern Business and this century requires business men in all the offices of the State. We are getting away from the old rule of going by precedents, and this age is too busy to spend half of life in getting some litigation tried in court. Our courts are several years behind in the trial of cases, and we believe that this is caused by the inactivity of some of our officers. We need young active men for judges as in other offices, which have for the major part of their duties the adjustment of business affairs.

Lloyd Horton has been tried and not found wanting. His record, zeal, ability, character and youth, which carries with it strength and vigor, should and will be rewarded in the primary by a large and overwhelming majority against his opponents.

What Hon. Jno. T. Thorne, President of the Citizens Bank, says

"When he was four and a half years old, I took J. Loyd Horton on my knee and taught him his A. B. C.'s, and have known him continually since that time. Since reaching the age of 21, he has been actively and successfully engaged in business, besides enjoying a large and lucrative law practice. It has been my privilege to serve with him as a Director in four corporations and I have always found him quick to see a point in business, careful to weigh a proposition on both sides, and possessing that indefinable thing called "Judicial Temperment." The district will make no mistake in electing him to the high office of Superior Court Judge."

(Signed) JOHN T. THORNE.

What Mr. D. E. Oglesby, Cashier of the Bank of Farmville, says

"Mr. Morton has been attorney for the Bank of Farmville since I have been its cashier, and I have had occasion to consult him many times upon propositions of law and of business. I have always found him safe in his advice, and that he possessed unusual acumen in these matters."

(Signed) D. E. OGLESBY.

Mr. T. C. Turnage, Vice-Pres. Citizens Bank and Large Farmer, Endorses Him

"I have known Lloyd Horton all his life. He is a hard worker, tends strictly to his business, enjoys a large and lucrative practice, and is a very successful business man. I believe we need young, energetic, and vigorous men for judges, and knowing him as I do I believe that the district will make no mistake in electing him judge."

(Signed) T. C. TURNAGE.

Mr. Jno. R. Davis, Vice-Pres. of the Bank of Farmville and One of the State's Largest Merchants, Endorses Him

"It has been my pleasure to know Lloyd Horton all his life, and I know him to be a young man of sterling character, an able lawyer, and unusually good business man. We should have young, active, vigorous business judges, who will expedite matters that come before them. Lloyd Horton will fill the bill."

(Signed) J. R. DAVIS.

One of His Partners Says of Him

J. Loyd Horton has been my attorney since he began the practice of law and for the past two years has been one of my partners in The North American Land Company. During that time the company has been interested in transactions involving over three million dollars. He is sound safe, conservative and an exceptionally good business man, and a good lawyer. He can do more work in the shortest time than any man I know. He will make a good judge, and one that will expedite matters coming before him."

(Signed) H. L. HUMPHREY.

Mr. A. C. Monk, Prominent Tobaccoconist, and Owner of Several Factories, says

"I have known J. Loyd Horton for about twelve years, and know him to be an active, vigorous, able lawyer and a good business man. This age requires active, vigorous young men for judges, and the district should elect him Judge of the Superior Court."

(Signed) A.C. MONK.

Mr. W. R. Willis, Cashier of Citizens' Bank, Says

"During the time that I have been Cashier of The Citizens Bank, I have known J. Loyd Horton, both social and in business. He is a man of character, an able lawyer, an unusually good business man. He will successfully meet the demands of modern business, for active, vigorous judges."

(Signed) W. R. WILLIS.

The voters of the 5th Judicial District know him and will by their vote on June 5th encourage efficiency and ability. Never keep a young man down.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District:

I have entered the Primary for the office of Judge in this District.

I have practiced law for the past 18 years, during which time I have assisted in the prosecution of the Federal docket for about 7 years. Since entering my name for the judgeship I have resigned the office of Assistant U. S. attorney.

Before beginning the practice of the law I had fourteen years experience in business, beginning life as bank book-keeper at the age of 16 years.

I shall not make a canvass of the district for the judgeship. My conception of the duties and responsibilities of the high office of judge is such that in my view a canvass, and the methods of the political campaign, usual and perfectly proper for other offices—purely political, tend to cheapen and lower its tone. I would rather lose the nomination and never hold the office than lower it a hair's breadth from the high plane of honor and dignity on which our fathers have placed and kept it in North Carolina.

I shall appreciate the support of all democrats in the district; and if by their suffrages I should be elevated to the Superior Court bench, I assure them that its high traditions shall be upheld, and in the administration of the office justice shall be meted out to all men alike.

This April 28th, 1920.

SIMS' SORE PLACE IN SENATE ACTION DANIELS LOCATES

Declares Appointment to British Admiralty Turned Down as Un-American.

THIS ACTION BLASTED
SIMS' OLD AMBITIONS

Secretary Points to Remarkable Similarity of Sims' and Penrose Charges.

Washington, May 19.—Appointment of Rear Admiral Sims as honorary member of the British Admiralty was declined by the Navy Department as "un-American" despite the fact that it was proffered by King George himself, Secretary Daniels testified today before a Senate committee investigating the navy. Mr. Daniels charged that this incident probably furnished some of the animus behind the Admiral's attack on the department.

Admiral Sim's "dearest and highest ambition," Mr. Daniels said, was "blasted by the department's refusal to permit the appointment. Pointing to the similarity between Admiral Sims' charges and statements made by Senator Penrose in the Senate in August, 1918, Mr. Daniels expressed the belief that the two were not unconnected.

"Either Admiral Sims is a plagiarist or by some new science of mental telepathy the views of the Senators were communicated to the Admiral," the Secretary declared.

Mr. Daniels announced at today's session that he would conclude his direct statement Thursday afternoon. Chairman Hale said the committee would attempt to conclude the cross examination by Saturday night and then adjourn for a few days to enable Rear Admiral Sims to study the testimony before he was called to testify in rebuttal.

There will be no session of the committee tomorrow.

The words used by Senator Penrose were almost identical with those used by Admiral Sim more than a year later Mr. Daniels said. Either Admiral Sim is a plagiarist and appropriated his views on charges from Sen. Penrose by the new science of mental telepathy the views of the Senator were communicated to Admiral Sims," declared Mr. Daniels. "Penrose comes from Pennsylvania and Sims was appointed to the naval academy from that state. Did they collaborate or exchange mental telegrams.

The committee might have "saved thousands of reams of paper and hundreds of thousands of words" by investigating Senator Penrose's charges the witness added. Senator Penrose was "imposed upon by some informant almost as reckless in his figures as Admiral Sims was in his accusations," Mr. Daniels continued: "It's almost worthy of note," he said "that at the very time Penrose was making his speech, Sims was writing to Captain Pratt threatening an investigation of the conduct of the war.

Mr. Daniels said he would not answer the Penrose charges at length, even though he had just learned of them, he cause his answer to Admiral Sims covered the matter fully.

Pugilist Creates Much Animation After Beating Champion in Boston.

New York, May 19.—When the news was flashed from the Boston ringside that Johnny Wilson had won the world's middleweight championship from Mike O'Dowd, of St. Paul, a few night's ago very few followers of pugilism could identify the new title holder. In a few hours, however, it was learned that the new champion was born in New York 27 years ago but had made this home in Boston for some five or six years past.

Wilson, whose real name is Giovanni Panica, was born on East 106th street, New York City, next door to the birthplace of Willie Jackson, the promising contender for lightweight honors on March 23, 1893. During the time that boxing was legalized in New York under the Frawley law, Panica took part in several preliminary bouts at local clubs and assumed the ring name of Johnny Wilson. At Philadelphia, about six years ago, Wilson lost to Young McGovern but three months later outpointed McGovern at a New York Club. Wilson then went to Boston where he signed a contract to box under the management of Marty Kelleher a partnership which still remains intact.

THURSDAY, MAY 20, 1920.

If that Black Sea port just taken over by the Reds should prove a "white elephant" the entire situation might assume a different hue.

Senator Penrose may have started the attack against the navy department, but it looks like the secretary of the navy is going to put on the finishing touches, judging by activities now in progress.

Wage demands are being considered by different bodies throughout the country, and it is a conceded fact that everybody seems to like the idea of seeing more money come in, although high prices are still very objectionable.

A noted artist of Hungary, in reproducing a painting of Adam, omitted the beard, declaring that the original never had any such adornment upon his face when in the Garden of Eden. Maybe he is right, but the incident was so long ago we cannot say with authority whether he shaved before entering the garden or not.

What's the use of the boys talking about a wet plank being slipped in the Republican platform when prohibition appears to be having such splendid effect in various sections of the country. The adoption of such a plank wouldn't mean anything at all in the long run. In fact, it could do nothing more than strengthen suffrage ties around the house.

When Secretary Daniels gets through flaying him for disparaging remarks against the navy department Admiral Sims will probably feel more than ever like joining the British navy, although present indications appear very much against such action. Anyway, facts just produced go to show that he cherished such ambitions not so very long ago and would have gladly favored Britain had it not been for detection on the part of the country which he served so zealously, yet so poorly.

Senator Walsh has seen fit to severely criticize congress for not taking more direct action against profiteering in this country, and declares that high prices are the result of exorbitant prices and not shortage of commodities as some suspect. If other senators should take the same position it is possible we would hear of prices tumbling to a greater extent than ever before, and instead of listening to clothing dealers predicting uninterrupted advances, we would be soled by comforting evidence of really seeing things become normal. The senate may conduct investigation such as those of the past, but nothing of any benefit to the country will ever be accomplished until action becomes more determined. The situation demands it now more than ever before, and it is hoped other men like Senator Walsh will pile claim after claim at the senate chamber's door until desired results are visible throughout the entire country.

YOUR LIBERTY BOND.

The United States government borrowed money from you to finance the war. You hold the government's promise to pay you back. This promise is called a Liberty Bond or Victory Note. On this bond is stated the conditions under which the government borrowed the money from you.

For instance: If you hold a bond of the Third Liberty Loan, it states that on April 15th and October 15th of each year until maturity, you will receive interest on the amount you paid for the bond. Other issues bear other rates of interest and other maturity dates, all of which are clearly stated on the bond.

Now, if you keep your bond until the date when the government pays you in full for it, you do not need to worry if, in the meantime, the price is low one day or high the next. You and Uncle Sam are living up to your agreement with each other, and neither will lose by it.

On the other hand, if you sell your Liberty Bond now, you will find that the man you sell it to will not give you a dollar for every dollar you paid for it. The price has been brought down because so many people are offering to sell their bonds. If the market is flooded with tomatoes, you can buy them cheap, but if everyone is clamoring for tomatoes and there are few to be had, the price goes up. The same is true of Liberty bonds. Short-sighted people are dumping them on the market, and wise ones are buying them.

The best advice that can be given to the owner of a Liberty Bond is this: Hold the bond you bought the war. It is as safe and sound as the United States government itself.

But as many more at the present low rate as you can afford. If you hold them to maturity, you are bound to make the difference between what they sell at now and their face value. You will also receive good interest on your investment.

Hold on to your Liberty Bonds and buy more.

The recent consolidation of three school districts in this county is further evidence that people are becoming more appreciative of the new method of making schools more efficient throughout every section of the country where an awakening has been realized. Pitt county school authorities are realizing more and more every day that country schools cannot be made the success which they should be unless each school is efficient and well provided for. It is almost impossible to make satisfactory provisions for every district with the present shortage of teachers, and for that reason the idea of consolidating several districts into two or three well equipped institutions is not only considered advisable, but absolutely necessary to uninterrupted development of education in the county. In a few short years it is very probable that several splendid buildings will be located in various parts of the county and the one and two teacher schools completely abandoned, for in this way and this way alone will the educational standard of the county be lifted upon an equal plane with other territories that have taken advantage of the idea of consolidating and made their school districts desirable in every way.

The senate sub-committee which has been investigating the print paper situation has completed its hearings and will not examine further witnesses regarding the situation. Recommendation to the main committee will be made within the next several days, and this part of the proceedings will be of more than ordinary interest to members of the press who have been intensely interested in developments ever since the investigation was begun. The paper shortage is becoming of more than general seriousness and if the senate can't do anything, then it is up to publishers to do the best they can.

If President Wilson can publicly acknowledge the splendid activities of the Salvation Army so unreservedly it looks like a lot of the boys who derived direct benefit over in France might to their part in making the present campaign the great success which it deserves to be. People should give freely, for when they give in this way it is safe to say that every cent finds a mission of its own in the ranks of suffering humanity. Do your part in making Pitt county's subscriptions go beyond the quota mark, for in this way the true greatness of the organization will be more directly appreciated.

The Greenville base ball club has announced the acquisition of several promising young college players, so it is expected the exhibition game to be staged here next Monday during the races will be one of more than usual interest. The league season will open June 7th, but it is expected that all players will have been chosen by that time and everything in readiness for initial games. Greenville no doubt will put out one of the fastest teams of the league, and in event it is given good financial support it is certain the season will be successful in every way.

SALVATION ARMY WORK.

"Whenever you find an ex-service man you find a friend of the Salvation Army," says Franklin O'Oliver, national commander of the American Legion, in a statement in which he endorses the Salvation Army's work and urges support of the organization in its second home service fund appeal set for May 10 to 20.

Mr. D'Oliver saw active service as an officer in the world war and went through some of the hottest fighting in which the American troops engaged.

Speaking from the viewpoint of the former service man Mr. D'Oliver says: "The American people owe a great debt of gratitude to the Salvation Army."

Just how great this debt is they have only to ask their sons, brothers and husbands who faced death in the trenches on the battlefields of France. Every man who wore the American uniform is fully aware of the manner in which the soldiers of the Salvation Army suffered all sorts of privations, faced the dangers of battle and entirely forgot themselves in order to care for the soldiers fighting for the cause of liberty and humanity.

"There is not an ex-service man who is not glad to do whatever he can to help the Salvation Army and I feel safe in saying the people of this country will be satisfied to take the word of those who fought in France that the Salvation Army is an organization that reserves the support of the American people.

"The service of the Salvation Army during the war is but an example of the noble work these men and women have been doing for years among those who needed their services, and today they are carrying on a great work among suffering humanity throughout the world, just as they have in years gone by and just as they will in years to come.

"All that I am saying is my personal opinion in the matter, and is not official for the American Legion. An official statement would have to be made by the executive committee, but I am delighted at all times to do or say anything personally that may in any way help the Salvation Army. The campaign the Army is to put on at an early date is one that I am sure everyone will support.

"You may rest assured that whenever you find an ex-service man you find a friend of the Salvation Army. There were several organizations that did great work with the troops, but none of them excited the Salvation Army, and none of them occupy a warmer place in the hearts of the American ex-service man than the Salvation Army."

SUDAN TEMPLE MEETS IN GOLDSBORO TODAY

Goldsboro, N. C., May 20.—The keys to the City of Goldsboro have been turned over to the members of Sudan Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, who are holding their spring ceremonial here today. The streets of the city, bedecked in gay colors, were crowded today with visiting Shriners, who have taken complete possession of Goldsboro. An elaborate program of entertainment has been arranged for the visiting Nobles and their friends.

A short business session was held this morning which was followed by a mammoth parade of the Shriners through the principal streets of the city at noon. A luncheon was served at 12:30 and at 2:30 this afternoon the ceremonial was held, at which a large class of candidates "crossed the hot sands" into the mysteries of the Shrine. Immediately following the ceremonial exercises, the Nobles were given an automobile ride to points of interest in the city.

MEMBER OF OLD FAMILY DIES.

Natchez, Miss., May 19.—With the death of James Surget the last male descendant of one of the famous indigo kings of the South has passed away.

In 1782 Pierre Surget obtained a plantation by Spanish grant and planted indigo. Indigo was being grown extensively in Louisiana at that time and found ready market. The Surget fortune soon was made and many years afterwards the little town of Cherry Grove came into existence on a part of the plantation. It was there that James Surget was born and died. He left a daughter.

Although 84 years old James Surget never rode in an automobile nor used a telephone. A breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a devotee of racing, he boasted that he never bet a dollar.

The casket containing his body was, at his request, borne to the family burying ground by old negroes, former slaves to the family.

SPANISH SWORDSMEN ANXIOUS FOR BATTLE

Madrid, May 18.—Spanish swordsmen are eager to accept the invitation forwarded through the Spanish Ambassador to the United States suggesting that they visit America next fall to contest in a fencing tournament. Although the government has not yet decided whether the invitation shall be accepted, preparations are being made for competitions to be held throughout the country to select a team worthy to uphold Spanish traditions of swordsmanship. Some of the fencers in the Spanish army are noted for their prowess. Majors Macapiluae and Laso and Captain Coronte are experts with the foil, Majors Vacas, Rodrigue and Belza and Mico with the sabre; while with the sword the first three also excel.

BOARD OF HEALTH RATE OF TYPHOID

Plans for Strenuous Campaign
Is Now Under Way in Many Territories.

Raleigh, May 19.—With a typhoid death rate that has been steadily reduced during each of the past five years the State Board of Health is preparing for another intensive effort against all the preventable diseases that annually take the lives of North Carolinians. Through its field men this summer the State Board of Health will strive for vaccination of a minimum of fifty thousand people.

As in previous years, a proposition is being made to a number of countries that will mean the opportunity for the anti-typhoid treatment free of charge to the individual citizen. Physicians employed by the State will hold dispensaries in easily accessible points in the countries taking advantage of the offer and administer the typhoid vaccine, which will be manufactured in the State Laboratory. A careful record of all persons receiving the full treatment of three doses of vaccine will be kept, and the county commissioners will pay at the rate of twenty five cents for each citizen who is thus rendered immune to typhoid fever.

Already the proposition has been accepted by the counties of Mecklenburg, Gaston, Alamance, Franklin and Person. A large number of other counties are expected to take favorable action at the monthly meetings of the commissioners in June.

The work will be directed by Dr. Charles S. Mangum of the medical faculty of the University of North Carolina, and Dr. Luther T. Buchanan of the medical faculty of Wake Forest College. A number of other physicians will be employed to assist in the work.

STATE FULL ABLE TO BUILD ROAD SYSTEM

Charlotte, N. C., May 19.—Special offering positive evidence that the people of North Carolina are really able to meet with ease the case of constructing a state-wide system of hard-surfaced highways is the fact that in 1919 the number of automobiles in this state increased fifty-one percent over 1918 as compared with an increase of twenty two percent for the nation as a whole during that period.

In a letter to Col. T. L. Mirkpatrick, president of the Wilmington-Charlotte-Asheville highway association, which is closely co-operating with the North Carolina good roads association in the effort to put over the $50,000,000 good roads bond issue, Dr. Lucius B. Morse, of Hendersonville, a leading good road enthusiast, referred to these figures and added that "it certainly does seem that they 'the people of this state' would cheerfully subscribe to highway bonds for roads on which to operate their cars. It has been demonstrated that the life of an automobile is more than doubled by hard-surfaced roads."

The tremendous wealth of this state also is shown by the fact that the value of agricultural products for 1919 was $401,000,000, an increase of twenty percent over the previous year and an increase of one hundred sixty percent over the five year average for the years 1913-1917, inclusive. This latter increase is shown to be the largest during a similar period of any state in the union.

In the same connection, Dr. Morse pointed out that in good roads building about sixty three percent of the money spent remains at home. "In other words," said Dr. Morse, "if North Carolina spends the sum of $50,000,000 for durable roads, something like $31,500,000 will be paid for local material, labor and other construction costs. The sum which would leave the state, about $18,500,000, would represent the cost of cement, asphalt and machinery."

Other figures compiled by the Wilmington-Charlotte-Asheville highway association show that approximately $30,000,000 is the annual cost to the people of this state chargeable to the depreciating effect of bad roads on vehicles, including automobiles, motor trucks, buggies and wagons. Such a sum would represent the largest single general tax item the North Carolinians have to pay."

17,500,000 WOMEN WILL CAST VOTE FOR PRESIDENT THIS YEAR

REGARDLESS OF RATIFICATION

Only 4,000,000 Voted in 1916.
Women's Votes Gave Election to the Democrats in 1916.
What About 1920?

How can a Democratic state refuse to help women to vote for President this year? asks former State Senator Frank P. Hobgood of Greensboro, N. C. In 1916 it was frequently said that it was the women voters of the west who re-elected Woodrow Wilson. At that time there were less than 4,000,000 women of voting age living in the states which had enfranchised women. Now there are 17,500,000.

Even if the Federal Suffrage Amendment to the United States Constitution is not passed by 26 states, all these women can vote for President because they have gained either complete suffrage or presidential suffrage, or in the case of Arkansas and Texas, full primary suffrage. If one looks on the suffrage ratification map, he will see that except for two little states, Vermont and Connecticut, all the states of the north, northeast, northwest and southwest have already ratified. The only states standing out against ratification are those of the southeast.

It is the men of the south who are blocking women's freedom. And what are they doing? They cannot keep the women of Wyoming, Colorado, Idaho, Utah, Washington, California, Arizona, Kansas, Oregon, Montana, Nevada, New York, Oklahoma, Michigan, South Dakota, Illinois, North Dakota, Nebraska, Rhode Island, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Maine, Minnesota, Missouri, Tennessee, Wisconsin, Ohio, Arkansas and Texas from voting for President.

They are holding back the vote from Democratic North Carolina women and letting the Republican women of Maine walk away with it. Is this good politics?

The states where women vote control 339 of the total 531 electoral votes. This means that North Carolina's twelve might be wiped out by California's 13, if the California women should this year feel that the Republican party, which has given the suffrage amendment 29 ratifications, is a better party for women than the Democratic party, which has rejected the amendment in six states.

The refusal of southern men to give a thirty-sixth ratification to the women of the country will not defeat woman suffrage; it will only defeat the loyal women of the Democratic south, and a few women in the smaller states of the north.

MOST POPULAR AMENDMENT IN THE HISTORY OF THE AMERICAN CONSTITUTION.

Nine states had ratified the Federal Suffrage Amendment within three weeks from the date it was signed in June, 1919. That was one-fourth of the total number required. Of those nine states seven were already in session and could make quick work of ratification. After that it was a question of calling special sessions for the special purpose of ratifying, as all the other 34 legislative sessions of 1919 had closed. Yet so widespread was the sentiment for ratification that within three months, in spite of expense, in spite of summer heat, in spite of everything, eight states had called special sessions. Before the end of 1919 five more had called special sessions and ratified. January, 1920, was ushered in by ratification in two states that held regular sessions. Another state, New Jersey, took advantage of its regular session to ratify in February.

But 1920 is not a "legislature year." Very few states are in regular session this year. So the main hope for a ratification, came right back to the special session. Six governors in all called special sessions during the brief month of February. Three more called special sessions in March. Of the three legislatures called in March, Delaware's is still in session, having not yet taken final action on ratification. Thirty-five states acted between June 5, 1919, and March 22, 1920.

Not one of the eighteen preceding amendments to the Federal Constitution has made such a time record in view of the number of ratifications needed in each case. A federal amendment today needs three times as many ratifications as were needed to ratify the twelfth, for instance, which has held the speed record up to now.

Not one of the preceding amendments has commanded such huge majorities in state legislatures as has the nineteenth.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE STRENGTHENS WHITE VOTE

White Population Shows Greater Increase Than Black.

"When the men of North Carolina make the excuse of keeping the vote from white women of the south, because they fear the negro women's vote," says Dr. Della Carroll Dixon of Raleigh, N. C., "do they think what they are doing?"

"Here is some arithmetic for them: In the fifteen states south of the Mason and Dixon line are:

10,661,926 white women
4,354,080 negro women

6,307,837 more white than negro women.

10,661,926 white women
8,643,640 total negro population

2,018,286 more white women than total negro population.

"These fifteen states are: Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, Kentucky, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Missouri, West Virginia.

"In four southern states, Texas, Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky, the number of white women exceeds the whole colored population. In Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, North Carolina, and Louisiana, woman suffrage would tremendously increase the preponderance of white votes; in Mississippi and South Carolina, where the colored population exceeds the white, equal suffrage would double the intelligent electorate, since in both these states there are educational qualifications limiting the franchise to those who can read.

"Equal suffrage in southern states would:

"1. Increase vastly the white vote.

"2. Raise the educational and moral standard of the electorate.

"Not only would woman suffrage give white control in these states a more permanent footing than now, but white supremacy will continue to grow, since the increase of white population is more rapid than the increase of colored population."

Says Every Man Has Highest Honor Obtainable Within Easy Grasp.

Philadelphia, May 19. — Lawson Roberson, coach of the University of Pennsylvania track team, in announcing his training rules for the present season, urges his athletes to make the Olympic Games the goal of their athletic aspirations.

"Every man has the highest obtainable athletic honor before him," he says. "This is to represent the United States in the Olympics. It means no little sacrifice, but the men who are willing to forego the pleasures of social life and attend strictly to the tasks imposed by the coaches have 75 percent of success in their grasp. The other 25 percent is athletic ability.

"Every man must train himself and the 'Honor System' will be used. Smoking is prohibited for athletes and for visiting friends. Every athlete must be in bed at 10:45 P. M., and there is to be no unnecessary noise after 10:15.

"Eat slowly and chew your food well. A small portion of food well chewed is worth double the amount eaten. Don't drink water after exercising or before meals. Two days before and on the day of competition, the rations will be cut in half. Try to go to sleep at a definite hour and lie in bed ten minutes after awakening before arising.

THOMAS DECLARES PEOPLE, NOT LAW MUST CURB PRICES

enforcing the laws than he does about running for president."

There was a shift toward the railing and the crowd in the gallery leaned forward to hear Senator Thomas appeal for a return of the old-time thrift.

"I have on a suit of clothes four years old, some what patched, but still serviceable," he said as he stroked the sleeves of his coat. "The shoes I have on were bought in 1918. I do not propose to buy any more clothes until prices go down to a reasonable level, if I subject myself to danger of arrest for not wearing enough clothes on the streets of Washington. I am willing to live on corned beef and hash and if corned beef goes too high I will go without meat to bring down costs."

Senator Thomas said he was not defending profiteers, that he believed they should be vigorously punished, but that he did not believe the extortions of profiteers represented five per cent of the high cost of living.

"All the people share the responsibility," he said. "When consider the number of people in this country who live without working, I am tempted to change the expression 'high cost of living' to 'high cost of loafing.'"

Defense in 1917 that "a nation should have a national transportation system and such a system should embrace and make proper use of all available and suitable agencies." He added that in his opinion this recommendation which he made as a war measure is equally pertinent and important in time of peace.

"We are fortunate in actually having in this country the essential elements of such a national system of transportation as I have in mind," said Mr. Willard, "there would, in the public interest, be the fullest co-operation between the several transportation agencies and in all cases that agency would be preferred which can render the required service at the lowest total economic cost. If this policy is followed I feel confident of the future success of private ownership and operator of the railroads."

EQUAL JUSTICE TO ALL MEN GIVEN AS REMEDY IN UNRESOLVED

the Senate will reach an accord upon de jure peace to be made with the government of Germany, but as I grant no man the right to read me out of the Democratic party nor say to me that I can not stand upon its platform, advocate the election of its candidates and vote for them, I, myself, will not say to any man that his views upon the him without the Democratic-fold."

Vice President Marshall said his comments on the treaty would be brief for he had no hope of lighting the "cimmerian darkness which now envelope it, but added:

"A life long advocate of a resort to courts and not to force, I gave my unqualified endorsement to the altruistic views of the President, in the defense of which views he has broken his body."

Any let up in the enforcement of national prohibition until legal change has been made in its provisions was opposed by Mr. Marshall who warned the Democratic party that it would "merit the contempt of the people if it ever stands for the flaunting of a law because certain citizens do not believe in it."

APPALLING LOSSES CAUSED BY STRIKE FEVER OF COUNTY

cludes themselves—by increasing the cost of building, thus increasing rent and as a result make prices for goods and services higher."

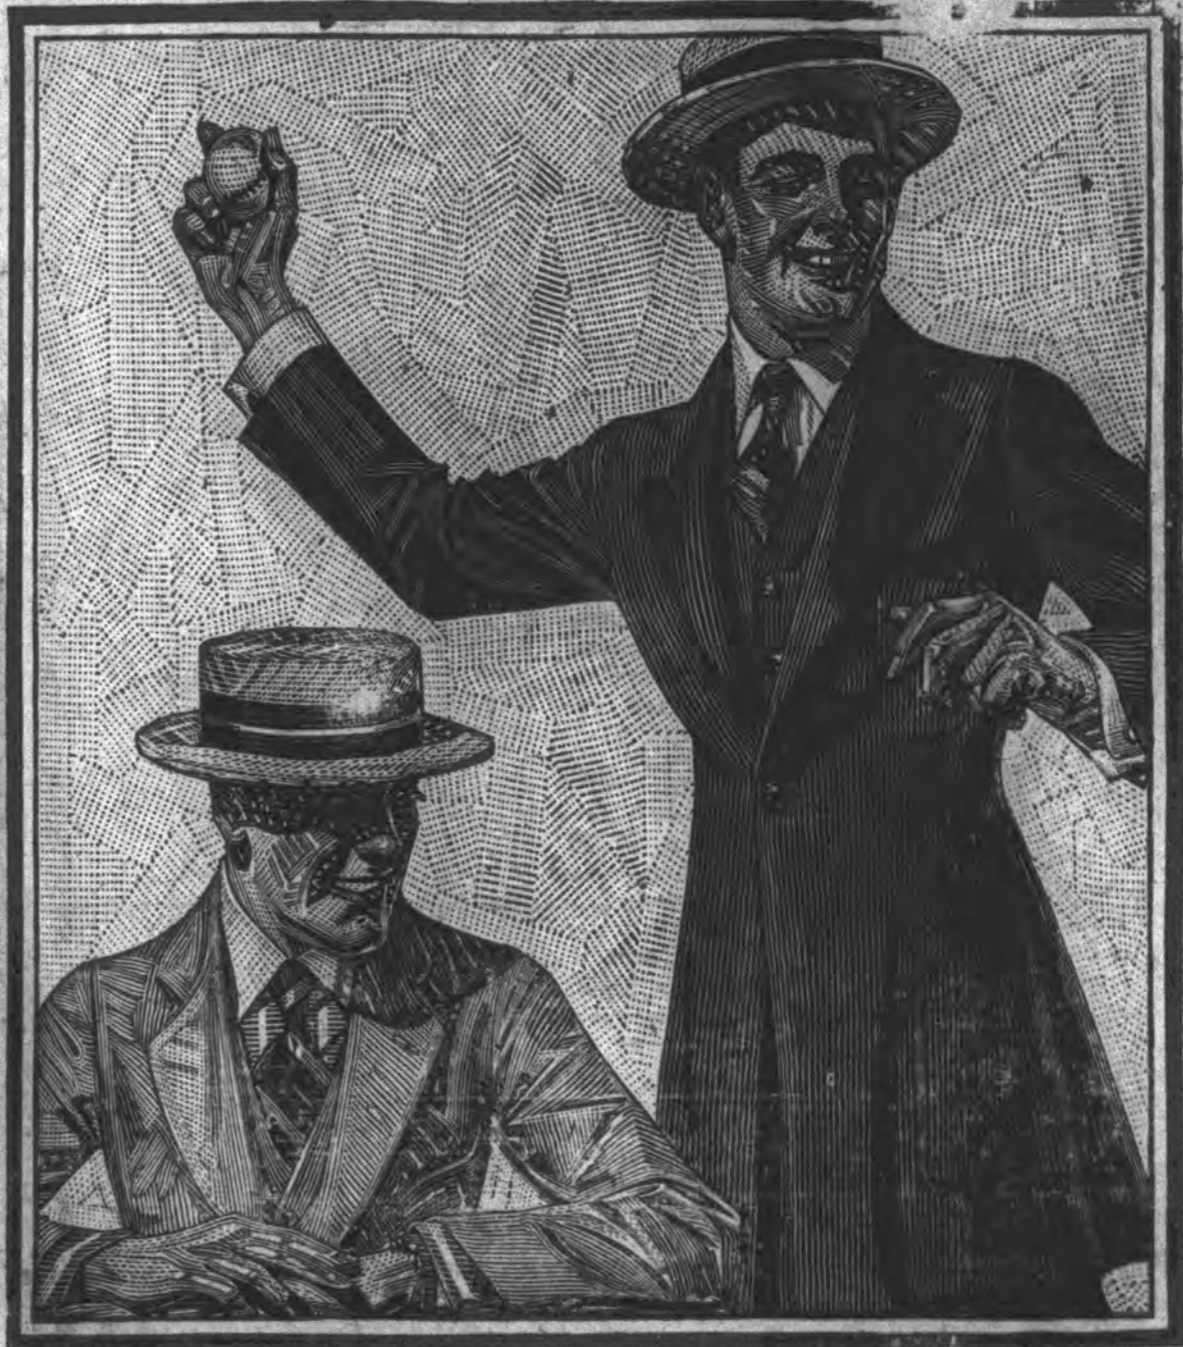

Declaring that the country is living beyond its means, he said: "The facts are such as should arouse us from our comatose state of smug contentment with our present position and future prospects. Unless we are aroused before it is too late we cannot hope to retain for long our vast store of gold or our renominously favorable trade balance or our unprecedented prosperity."

Mr. Sisson asked: "Are we a business people, or are we not? Have we the political intelligence to govern ourselves efficiency or not? We must provide our own answers."

"It is time, indeed, for another Joseph Choate to cry out to our people, 'America, wake up—and for God's sake hurry.'"

The agricultural population, says Cato, produces the bravest men, valiant soldiers, and a class of citizens the least given of all to evil designs.
