

TELLS OF DEMAND FOR EQUIPMENT OF RAILWAY SYSTEMS

New York Central Manager Emphasizes Needs in Opening of Rate Hearing.

SAYS $600,000,000 NOW NEEDED FOR EQUIPMENT

Railroads Can be Operated Successfully With Proper Rolling Stock.

Washington, May 26.—With proper equipment, the railroads of the country can be operated as successful in the future under private management as they were before Federal control, Charles H. Markham, president of the Illinois Central Railroad declared today in opening the case of the Southern railroads for higher freight rates before the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Expenditures of at least $600,000,000 for new equipment for the nation's transportation system was advocated by Mr. Markham, who asserted that nothing was of greater importance than the immediate placing of orders for cars and engines. Railroad history, he said, shows continued progress in efficiency and accordingly the roads should operate as successfully in the future as in the past, if given equipment to work with.

For the Southern railroads, Mr. Markham asked an increase in freight rates to enable the carriers to earn $130,049,000 annually which he claimed would represent a return of six per cent on the aggregate value of those carriers, which he estimated at $2,297,484,847.

Southern territory like every portion of the country, Mr. Markham said is in need of substantial additions to its equipment. In general the same situation prevails in the South as in the East, he declared.

"I might mention, however," he continued, "that there are portions of the South in which it would be desirable that there should be an extension of railroad facilities as soon as the condition of the railroads and the financial condition of the country will permit. There are considerable stretches of valuable timber and agricultural territory in which the development is being retarded by the fact that no railroad lines penetrate.

Statistics for Southern territory, Mr. Markham declared, show that there are 31 class-one roads, 39 class-two roads, 49 class-three roads, and 28 switching and terminal companies, comprising a mile age of 38,901.15 out of a total mileage in Southern territory of about 43,000 miles.

It is obvious, therefore, Mr. Markham added, "that the statistics compiled represent 90 percent of the mileage and feel that the amount of mileage not represented is so small that the result would not be materially affected if all the railroads were included."

Mr. Markham presented exhibits to show that based on the constructive year ending October 31 1919, the net railroad operating income of the 142 roads would have been in round figures $16,000,000. On this basis he said the operating ratio would have been 92 percent and the return of property investment would have been seven-tenths of one per cent.

Since 1916 there has been only one general freight rate increase in Southern territory, he declared, this being the advance of 25 per cent in freight revenue under general order number 28 of the Railroad Administration in June 1918.

REUNION AT ST. ANDREWS ON NEXT SUNDAY.

On Sunday there will be a reunion of the Greenville, Kingston and Goldsboro Episcopal Missions at St. Andrews, the local Mission on Bonner's Lane. Several members from the Kingston and Goldsboro Missions will be here, and the general public is cordially invited. The Rev. W. J. Herritage of Edenton, will preach at 11 o'clock and administer the Holy Communion; Rev. C. H. Bascom, rector St. Paul's church at 3:30 P. M., and the minister in charge, Rev. Jas. E. Holder at 8 P. ## EDUCATIONAL FILM CONTAINS SEVERAL UNIQUE FEATURES

Picture to be Presented Merchants Here Tonight of Vital Interest.

RETAIL FAILURE GIVEN UNUSUAL CONSIDERATION

Lecturer Tells of Various Reasons for Failure in Business Houses.

One of the best things along educational lines that has come to our notice recently, and which has secured a great deal of commendable publicity from newspapers and letters of endorsement from business organizations in the largest cities, is the lecture and moving pictures on retail merchandising that is being sent out by the National Cash Register Co., of Dayton, Ohio. The Chamber of Commerce has been able to secure this entertainment for the benefit of the merchants and clerks of Greenville and will be presented at the High School auditorium this evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The title of the picture is "The Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them." The feature film is pronounced one of the cleverest pieces of work ever produced covering retail merchandising.

The wide-awake business man today is eager to keep pace with the latest ideas of storekeeping and merchandising, and these pictures and lecture come to our city at an opportune time. The lecture covers: Retail failure, causes, store organization; newspaper advertising; window display; clerks' efficiency; selling methods; credit, business, and system in retail business.

CANADA SOON WILL SEND MINISTER TO NATION'S CAPITAL

Old Diplomatic Secret Brought to Light Through Recent Announcement.

Philadelphia, May 27.—A musty American diplomatic secret has been disclosed here through announcement that Canada soon will send its own minister to Washington. It is that for the last ten years a specially made chair, carved with the Canadian coat of arms, has been waiting in Washington for use of this envoy.

Elihu Root, then Secretary of State, ordered the chair, one of many specially designed for the Pan-American Union Building at the Capitol, Andrew Carnegie's memorial to cement more firmly the relation of the Americas. The story is told by Albert Kelsey, of this city, one of the architects of the Pan-American building, who said:

"Once a month the ambassadors and ministers of all American republics meet and are presided over by our Secretary of State in the Pan-American building and each representative has a chair of his own, with the arms of his country carved on the back.

"Now when these chairs were decided on, Secretary Root asked me to have an additional one made with the Canadian arms on it, which was done, and which has been hidden for the past ten years, for Secretary Root cautioned me—to use his exact words—to be a little reticent about the matter."

FEMININE BANKER BELIEVES MEN CAN BE FULLY TRUSTED

Only Woman Bank President Tells Convention of Her Experiences.

WOULD TRUST MEN IN PREFERENCE TO WOMEN

First Class Security Preferred in Loans to Either Sex Though.

Memphis, Tenn., May 27.—Tennessee's woman banker, the only woman bank president in the country, while here attending the Tennessee State Bankers' convention declared she would lend to men in preference to some women but first-class security was an essential.

She is Mrs. F. J. Runyon, wife of a physician, whose financial institution is located at Clarksville, in north central Tennessee. She and the cashier, the wife of the state's attorney for the county, are the only officers. All the directors are women.

"Men come to me, tell me their business and borrow money," she said. "Our bank is only seven months old. Its purpose is to aid young people who want to save and that was the prime motive for its foundation. The idea was carried out solely by women; but a man suggested it."

The bank has a capital of $15,000 and its first six months' deposits aggregated $53,000.

When called upon to address the convention Mrs. Runyon declined with thanks, saying she never had talked to so many men.

GENERAL WOOD TO INVADE THE STATE AT EARLY PERIOD

Presidential Candidate Will Spend Two Days in Campaign Interest.

Lexington, May 26.—General Wood, Republican candidate for the Presidential nomination, wired today from Boston to his state manager, Zeb V. Walsler, of Lexington, that he would come in person to North Carolina this week to lead in the fight for the Republican Presidential preference in the State-wide primary of June 5.—It was expected here tonight General Wood will come into the State on No. 35 on the Southern Friday afternoon and make a brief address at Reidsville coming on to Greensboro for an address at night. He will make whirlwind drives Saturday and Saturday night and his manager hopes to have him make addresses at Winston-Salem, Charlotte and Asheville and short speeches at intermediate points. General Wood will remain in the state until Sunday night.

Telegrams were also received here today from Chicago that Lieutenant Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will spend four days in North Carolina speaking in the interest of General Wood's candidacy. It is probable that Roosevelt will come into the state with General Wood Friday, but will remain longer than his favorite.

Members of General Wood's party will include Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, his Southern manager Montford Flowers, noted chautauqua tourer, Thomas Miller, former Congressman from Delaware, assistant Eastern manager and several others.

State Manager Walsler stated tonight that it is General Wood's purpose to make a strenuous fight in North Carolina for the primary preference and a strong effort will be made to get a full Republican vote to the polls. He predicted that from now on the Wood-Johnson campaign would divide the spotlight with the gubernatorial race.

GERMANS MARVEL AT AMERICAN WAY OF GOOD PUBLICITY

Magazines From This Country Produce Surprise in Hun Territory.

BERLIN WRITER TELLS OF FEASTING ON ADS

Ham Advertisements Causes Writer to Compare Conditions With Germany

Berlin, May 27.—Germans marvel at American magazines especially at the advertisements. A writer in a Berlin paper tells of feasting his eyes on the pictures of food in a popular American weekly.

"Who has to advertise ham in order to get rid of it in Germany?" he facetiously asks. "But the unfortunate American who has a ham to sell must first buy, for a dreadful lot of money, a whole page in a magazine and, at another terrible price, hire an artist to paint a picture of his ham."

The writer rhapsodizes over that picture, however. He tells his readers what the ham looked like:

"A cross section. White layers of fat, salmon pink flesh, with streaks of fat like the rays of the sun."

It amazed him to find that, in addition to the picture, the owner of the ham "finally has to sing its praises in sweet words."

"How we pity," he exclaims, "the American who possesses a ham."

Turning over the pages, the writer came upon an advertisement of rubber soles. Evidently he thought they were used for the purpose the Germans make of their "sole-sparers."

"Don't imagine," he goes on, "that these American sole-sparers are the kind we have in Germany, made of iron. Not a bit of it. They are made of rubber!"

An idea of how scarce and dear rubber is in Germany may be gathered from the writer's statement that "the cost of these American sole-sparers, commuted in our valuta, would be as great as that of a trip in a railway train from Berlin to Hamburg, with one day in a hotel besides."

GRIMESLAND BANK ORGANIZED LATELY BY TOWN PEOPLE

New Bank With $25,000 Paid in Capital Organized by Local Interests.

The branch bank of the Greenville Banking and Trust Company, which is located in Grimesland, has changed hands and will in the future be known as the Bank of Grimesland with a capital stock of $25,000 paid in.

The stockholders of the bank met in the school house in Grimesland and elected the following directors: Messrs. W. E. Proctor, W. C. Faucett, J. H. Edwards, J. C. Galloway, J. B. James, C. M. Jones, F. A. Elks, R. L. Little, W. S. Galloway, J. J. Elks, A. O. Clark. Immediately after the stockholders met the directors met and elected J. C. Galloway, President, W. E. Proctor, vice president, J. H. Brooks, cashier.

The Greenville Banking and Trust Co., will withdraw their interest and the Bank of Grimesland will be operated in the same building, having purchased the building and fixtures from the Banking and Trust Company.

HITCHCOCK OFFERS GREAT OPPOSITION TO MANDATE ISSUE

Mandate With Armenia Opposed in Senate by Democratic Members.

MANDATE PROBABLY TO BE TABLED DURING DAY

Republicans of the Senate Greatly Opposed to Accepting Responsibility

Washington, May 26.—Democratic opposition developed today to President Wilson's request to congress for authority to accept a mandate over Armenia.

Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, administration leader in the peace treaty fight, joined Republicans opposing the measure, and there were indications that other Democrats would stand with him. Announcement of Senator Hitchcock's purpose not to support the administration in this instance was made while Republican leaders of the House were trying to agree upon the speediest method of disposing of the whole question.

The meeting of the foreign affairs committee, called to obtain the views of Secretary Colby, was postponed because of the Secretary's inability to attend, but there were many informal conferences by both parties, at which members expressed strong objection to any proposal which would send American troops to Europe or Asia. Chairman Porter indicated that the President's message would be considered briefly and then laid on the table, which would end it. Inasmuch as the Senate has failed to ratify the treaty with its League of Nations covenant, Republican members of the House committee declared there were legal objections to the President's proposal. They contended that to accept a mandate would be like doing indirectly what congress had not permitted to be done directly.

Y. M. C. A. TRUCK WINS APPROVAL IN GRIMESLAND VISIT

Truck Recently in This City Pleases Many People Throughout County

The Y. M. C. A. Truck or moving college, as it is sometimes called, which has been in our county for several days giving lectures and showing pictures on health, went to Grimesland Monday and for the past three days has been giving exhibitions in that city. The truck met with a wonderful success in Grimesland. The people responded splendidly and went out in large crowds to see the pictures and hear the lectures, and left feeling greatly benefited. The truck left Grimesland today and went to Arthurs where it will remain for two days, after visiting Arthurs, it will leave the county and go to the western part of the state. Other states are watching the success of this branch of service of the Y. M. C. A. in this state, and if it proves of much benefit, they are going to ask for the service. If it has the same success in other counties as it has in Pitt, and if other counties will give it a ready response like Pitt, it is a certainty that in a short while every state will be receiving the services of the Y. M. C. A. in this branch of their work. It has proved of invaluable service in this county.

DANIELS AND HALE IN VERBAL BATTLE IN NAVAL INQUIRY

Cross-Examination of Secretary Concluded After Long Drawn Out Issue.

SIMS TO GO ON STAND FOR REBUTTAL TODAY

Final Testimony Presented by Admiral Probably to Conclude Inquiry.

Washington, May 26.—Cross-examination of Secretary Daniels by the Senate naval investigating committee was concluded today at a session marked by heated clashes between the Naval Secretary and Senator Pittman, Democrat, of Nevada, on one hand and Chairman Hale on the other. Rear Admiral Sims, whose charges against the Navy Department brought about the investigation, will take the stand in rebuttal tomorrow. Chairman Hale indicated that the Admiral would be the last witness and that his statement would be brief.

In the course of a verbal tilt with Senator Hale today, Secretary Daniels threatened to carry to the full Senate naval committee to protest against the chairman's conduct of the inquiry. The secretary charged that a "steam roller" was being used on him and characterized as "unfair and unjust" and a "stigma on the navy" a long compilation of statistics Chairman Hale sought to read into the record.

The tabulation, Senator Hale said, was compiled in his office from figures submitted by Mr. Daniels and related to the state of preparedness of the major ships of the navy just prior to the declaration of war by the United States. Mr. Daniels retorted that the chairman misinterpreted the department's figures and that in the Hale compilation the dreadnaught Arizona was listed as having been "unfit to fight" on February 2, 1917.

"The Arizona unfit to fight," Mr. Daniels went on. "It is laughable. I decline to answer any questions based on such a tabulation and denounce it as unfair, unjust and a stigma on the American navy. I will carry my protest to the full naval affairs committee if necessary."

Chairman Hale said he would otherwise designate the columns marked "fit to fight" and "unfit to fight"; and then Secretary Daniels demanded that the Senator take the stand as a witness and take the oath before submitting evidence. This the chairman refused to do and Mr. Daniels then demanded that the person who made the compilation be sworn as a witness. Again he was overruled by the chairman. Senator Pittman at this point protested against the tabulation going into the record and left the room after the chairman had announced he would not yield in his stand.

Secretary Daniels thereupon made a point of no quorum. Chairman Hale polled the committee. He told Senator Keyes, Republican, of New Hampshire, voted and the chairman announced he was authorized to cast the vote of Senator Ball, Republican, Delaware.

GOVERNMENT ADVANCES PRICE ON STAMPED ENVELOPES

"Uncle Sam," like other folks in the printing business, has realized that the high cost of labor and material necessitates another advance in price of the output. Postmaster D. J. Whichard last night received an order from the Post Office Department to immediately increase the price of all stamped envelopes and wrappers, both plain and printed. The increase is in effect today and averages about 55 cents a thousand. For example, plain 2-cent envelopes that have been sold at $21.44 per thousand now $22.00, the price on the increasing proportion for printed envelopes but unfilled will all subsequent advance. The change is plain the

ANNOUNCEMENT.

To the Democratic voters of the Fifth Judicial District:

I have entered the Primary for the office of Judge in this District.

I have practiced law for the past 18 years, during which time I have assisted in the prosecution of the Federal docket for about 7 years. Since entering my name for the judgeship I have resigned the office of Assistant U. S. attorney.

Before beginning the practice of the law I had fourteen years experience in business, beginning life as bank book-keeper at the age of 16 years.

I shall not make a canvass of the district for the judgeship. My conception of the duties and responsibilities of the high office of judge is such that in my view a canvass, and the methods of the political campaign, usual and perfectly proper for other offices—purely political, tend to cheapen and lower its tone. I would rather lose the nomination and never hold the office than lower it; a hair's bread from the high plane of honor and dignity on which our fathers have played and kept it in North Carolina.

I shall appreciate the support of all democrats in the district; and if by their suffrages I should be elevated to the Superior Court bench, I assure them that its high traditions shall be upheld, and in the administration of the office justice shall be meted out to all men alike.

UNREST IN MEXICO BECOMES SERIOUS IN MANY SECTIONS

Little Hope Entertained for Establishment of Stable Government.

ARMED OPPOSITION IN EVIDENCE IN SECTIONS

Revolutionists Contending for Supremacy of Provisional Government.

Washington, May 25.—Advices from Mexico indicate that the revolutionists have much to do before a stable government can be established. Military leaders are reported in various parts of the republic with small forces of men under arms, either still loyal to the Carranza regime, or for other reasons hostile to the de facto government.

These troops are recognized by Mexican observers here to be possible nuclei for the organization of new revolts. Representatives of the government, however, minimize their importance.

Francisco Villa, whose force of men is variously estimated at from a few hundred to several thousand, is reckoned the most important of the independent leaders. It is evident from news dispatches that Villa is not in accord with the new regime.

Gen. Candido Aguilar, the last president's son-in-law, still is in the field. He was last reported at Jalapilla, on the outskirts of Orizaba, with 300 men.

Gen. Domingo Arretes, Carranzista governor of Durango, is known to be still hostile to the revolutionists.

Governor Alfonso Cabrera has set up the state government of Puebla at San Miguel, Tefango, and there has been nothing in the news to indicate that he is not functioning as governor with troops at his command. The size of his force is reported at 2,000, all Puebla Indians. Luis Cabrera, known to be one of the most astute politicians of Mexico today, may join his brother if he has not already done so and aid in the struggle against the Obregon-Gonzales de facto government.

Trouble is reported to have arisen in Colima, where the Carranzista governor, Alvarez Garcia, impeached by the legislature, has had several deputies arrested and now is trying to secure assistance in Mexico City to force the legislature to restore him to power. The legislature, meanwhile, has effected the release of the imprisoned deputies and appointed an ad interim governor.

The senate has passed the annual pension bill and the army appropriation bill, but it is a safe bet that if President Wilson had proposed the passage of either issue the senate would be deadlocked right now.

The first carload of Georgia peaches has started north, we are informed, so regardless of the unforing spirit of the weather man, we are confident of receiving a good peach crop from that section if nothing more.

Seventeen, Georgia, shopman's last word sounds disagreeably farroted for a sympathetic strike. The liar, but the adjective expresses a meaning that doesn't correspond with public opinion in the least.

The committee investigating expenditures in campaigns of presidential aspirants has decided conclusively that there's really nothing to learn about McAdoo's participation, except that he appears to be gaining daily in feminine strength in various sections of the country. This fact alone should cause the retiring gentleman to have confidence in the future, for when the women line up for one there's really no use for monetary support, other than paying off the managers.

Secretary Daniels has accused the Senate Naval investigating committee with "digging up ancient history" and airing the grievances of disgruntled naval officers, and as he generally knows what he's talking about the public doesn't feel at all inquisitive about the charges. The secretary has practically exonerated the navy department of charges brought forward by Admiral Sims and colleagues, and there is little reason to believe that the committee isn't convinced that further investigations are futile. The navy has been efficient as it could be under the circumstances and such criticisms as presented by "disgruntled" individuals cannot have more weight than they already have, and this weight is not such to cause any serious anxiety about the future.

Attorney General Palmer has been forced to defend the present margins for the sugar trade as a result of complaints from wholesale house of the country desiring greater latitude for accomplishing the selfish motives that have been principally the cause of profiteering in every section of the country where prices continue to soar upward without limitations. The sugar situation is such that it not only requires the defense of one acquainted with the situation as Mr. Palmer, but also demands protection of public right through close margins such as those causing so much concern. Restrictions are imperative and the longer they continue the quicker the country will pass over the period of shortage that has been the cause of so much worry and concern to those who would take advantage of the people at every opportunity.

THE ARMENIAN MANDATE.

Judging by the position which Senator Lodge has taken in former matters coming before the senate for consideration it is only natural to infer that he will take a decided stand against the United States accepting the mandate over Armenia. President Wilson has asked congress to give the matter careful consideration, but as the senate is strangely at odds with the chief executive it can be easily surmised what the final conclusion of the issue will be.

Senator Lodge so far has not taken an active or determined stand against the mandate, but this does not assure us that he will not. His position in practically all matters of national importance are typical of his opposition against the peace treaty, and if he should fail in this one instance to offer an impediment in the pathway of the president's suggestion certainly he will be establishing a precedent that will be appreciated by the American people in all sections. Armenia is in sore plight, and unless some nation assumes responsibility of its future, subjugation in government will take place from which the little country will be years and years in recovering.

The acceptance of the mandate would involve great expenditure for the nation, including sending troops to that country for protection of its rights, and last but not least, the adjustment of social and economic conditions. The United States, however, can well afford to assume the responsibility, and it has more to lose by not accepting this one great opportunity of preserving humane principles than can possibly be found in leaving it alone. The senate has a question before it now that involves humane life, property and happiness and if it fails to live up to the greatness of the moment it will sacrifice the confidence which the general run of people have imposed in it under circumstances that have been anything but enviable.

TO ENCOURAGE POTATO GROWING.

In its campaign to encourage the growing of more sweet potatoes and of the building of storage warehouses for their preservation, the division of horticulture, state department of agriculture, has determined upon the novel scheme of carrying a specially prepared exhibit of storage houses to more than a score of towns and cities in eastern North Carolina.

A baggage car will be used in conveying the exhibit. The car will be equipped with posters, photographs, containers and a model storage house. Accompanying the exhibit will be experts of the department who will give expert advice as to methods of production and disease control and will furnish blue-print plans for construction of new storage buildings to those who desire them.

The exhibit will be in charge of Paul T. Schooley, extension horticulturist, who has the co-operation of the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line Railroads, and who has also enlisted the assistance of the North Carolina Landowners Association, an organization which is doing much in eastern North Carolina to promote better farming and the development in general of the coastal plain section of the state.

The train will leave Raleigh Monday morning, May 17, at 8:45 o'clock going south on the Seaboard. The itinerary includes more than a score of towns in Eastern Carolina, among them being: Sanford, Hamlet, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Bladenboro, Council, Wilmington, Whiteville, Chadbourne, Taber, Elrod, Fayetteville, Smithfield, Goldsboro, Mount Olive, Wilson, Rocky Mount, Tarboro, Parmele, Washington, Greenville, Kinston and LaGrange.

The car will be attached to regular trains and will be "dropped" at the various stations for a period of several hours, where the exhibits will be open to the public and the advice of experts received for the asking. The tour will be concluded on the afternoon of June 1.

William Jennings Bryan has stated conclusively and no doubt convincingly that he does not favor any mandate with Armenia, in fact, he considers a mandate with any bountry impossible just at this time although he must admit that the United States is in better condition to take over affairs of the little nation than any other power in the world today. His opposition, however, is no surprise to people, for realizing as they do the inevitable break that has occurred between the distinguished "Commoner" and Mr. Wilson, the majority of people are impressed with the impossibility of anything proposed by the president passing by without being contested or severely opposed from some faction. The Armenian situation is no precedent, its bearing upon the future is nothing unusual to the country, but it does deserve the humane consideration of any person or power capable of looking upon human suffering compassionately, desiring to preserve the principles of a people who have been faced by an inexorable fate ever since early stages of the war and which would rise to the higher planes of civilization with proper assistance and encouragement. If the United States is not capable of assuming the mandate for such a nation that it is not in a position to look towards the world squarely, and say that it is a nation of democracy and freedom. The shackles that bind the senate to selfishness and antagonism must be torn off link by link before the seriousness of the mandate is presented in its true significance, and then and then alone will it be able to understand why President Wilson asked that the nation which he serves lend its protection to a weak and defenseless people.

If reports from Mexico are true, and we have little reason to doubt them, the situation in that country continues to be of serious consequence to those who have been watching developments in the country for the past several weeks. The establishment of a stable government, it appears, seems almost impossible. This fact, however, should not unduly alarm anyone, for it is easily conceivable that nothing but a provisional government can act with due authority until the nation recovers from the present revolutionary movement and industry adjusts itself sufficiently for people to momentarily forget the disturbed state of affairs. It is true that everyone expected a sudden adjustment of affairs immediately following the deposition of Carranza, but such is much easier anticipated than effected, and for that reason time and time alone can bring about a natural change restoring the country to its normal state, if normal it can be called. The presidential election probably will have a tendency of stimulating interest in governmental reconstruction and when this takes place it is probable that something more definite and reliable can be counted on.

EDUCATIONAL FILM CONTAINS SEVERAL UNIQUE FEATURES

(Continued from page one.) Any one of these subjects would be of great interest to the merchants and clerks, and the one in particular which should receive favorable consideration from the business man is the value of newspaper advertising—judiciously and constantly used. The lecturer will give some useful hints along these lines, as well as other efficiency ideas that will be helpful to the merchant and clerk. There will also be run humorous cartoons, illustrated songs, and altogether the program will be one of the most pleasing entertainments ever offered to our business men. There will be no charge for admission.

MR. FICKLEN ARTHUR ENTERS TAINS.

On Tuesday evening from nine until twelve o'clock Mr. Ficklen Arthur was host to a dozen of his friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr., of Lynchburg, Va., who are visiting Mrs. Stokes' parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse.

Tables were set for bridge, partners being chosen by matching dainty bouquets of various colored sweet peas. At the conclusion of the games Mr. Stokes was presented a handsome piece of cut glass. A delicious ice course was served.

Those enjoying Mr. Arthur's hospitality were:

Misses Pattie Wooten, Nelle White; Alice Howison, Ernestine Forbes, Novella Meye, Messrs. Dave Moore, James Ficklen, Charles White, Herbert Waldrop and Mr. and Mrs. Stokes.

B. Y. P. U. ENTERTAINS.

The first of a series of socials to be given by the B. Y. P. U. of the Memorial Baptist church, was given last evening in the Sunday school rooms. All the rooms were thrown into one, and beautifully decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. Upon arrival the guests were shown to the punch bowl which was presided over by Misses Gladys Bagwell and Marguerite Manning. Several games such as an "Alphabet game progressive puzzles and ed in, and they brought forth much merriment.

Perhaps the most enjoyable game was blindfolding the men, and asking them to describe some young lady who had made an impression during the evening. Their descriptions were rich and varied and it was learned, before the game was over, that men were not color blind. The Sunday school orchestra furnished music throughout the entirety of the evening. Delightful refreshments were served. The social committee is to be congratulated for the splendid entertainment.

PIANO RECITAL AT HIGH SCHOOL NEXT MONDAY

PRINCIPAL PARTIES FOR FUTURE RULE

Three Parties Would Dominate
Political Issues After Election in June.

Berlin, May 26.—Leaders of the coalition of three parties now in control of the German government profess confidence that these parties, the Majority Socialists, German Democrats and Christian Peoples' Party or Clericals, will continue in control as a result of the general election to be held June 6. This election will choose members of the first regular National Assembly under the Republican constitution.

These leaders incur in saying that probably the Majority Socialists, who now have 165 seats, will lose 1-3 of these to the Independent Socialists who are expected to emerge from the balloting with 70 members of the Assembly, instead of 22 which they now have. The political leaders say the communists probably will have five representatives in the new parliament, as the German bolsheviks are well supplied with money, although their party organization is not wholly intact.

The ultra reds expect to benefit through the recent rioting in the Ruhr and Saxon districts, while the Democratic and Clerical leaders say they expect to retain their present representation.

There is a strong effort being made by the conservative Clericals in the direction of inducing the National Liberals to join the coalition bloc not only for the purpose of fortifying it numerically as set off to the losses expected to be incurred by the Majority Socialists, but also because the Clericals feel the need of moral support in new quarters for their church school policies, in defense of which they are virtually deserted by the Democrats and basically opposed by the Majority Socialists.

BRYAN OPPOSES WILSON IN MANDATE QUESTION

Washington, May 25.—William J. Bryan took flat issue today with President Wilson on the question of an American mandate over Armenia, declaring in a statement that "any mandate is impossible."

The United States, Mr. Bryan said, could do more toward making the world safe for democracy "even for democracy in Armenia," by recognizing the American republic and entering the league of nations "as the friend of all little countries."

"Any mandate is impossible," Mr. Bryan's statement said without other preface.

"The one proposed for Armenia if accepted would involve us in an enormous expenditure in a time when war taxation is still so grievous a burden that congress has difficulty in finding the money necessary to do justice to the men who served in the world war.

"It would involve us in the politics of Europe and would compel us to deal with implacable race hatreds.

"It would involve us in the fierce commercial rivalry of the big nations.

"But, worst of all, it would compel us to surrender a vital principle of democracy, namely, that all people are capable of self-government. Nearly 100 years ago Henry Clay set forth the American view in this subject in dealing with aspirations of South American republics. Referring to the old contention of monarchists that subject peoples were incapable of self-government, Clay declared it to be a reflection on the Almighty to assume that He would create peoples incapable of self-government and leave them to be the victims of kings and emperors.

"All the colonial exploitation of helpless peoples is defended on the theory of their incapacity for self-government. We cannot endorse this theory. It would be injurious to the Armenians instead of a kindness to affirm or admire them incapable of self-government. If it were once admitted, they would never be permitted to outgrow the presumption of incapacity because consent to their independence would encourage other subject peoples to ask for independence.

"Christianity does not require us to abandon our ideas of government or to adopt monarchial forms in rendering aid to suffering peoples. American ideas are entirely consistent with Christianity. We can recognize republic and send a minister to Armenia a man who has faith in democracy and who believes that government should rest upon consent of the governed. He can advise with Armenian officials when they desire advice and help them as a friend. We can be of much more service to them in this way than we can by exercising authority over them. Then, we will ratify the treaty and enter the league of nations as the friend of all the little countries and insist on universal disarmament we may be able to make the democracy in Armenia.

SAYS BRITAIN AND UNITED STATES TO CONTINUE FRIENDS

Sir Arthur Denn Tells Luncheon
Committee Nationals Will Pull Together.

Leeds, Eng., May 26.—Sir Arthur Shirley Benn, who was head of the British mission to the International Trade Conference at Atlantic City last fall, has just told the members of the Luncheon Club that he believed the United States and Great Britain would continue to "pull together." If so, he said, he thought they and their Allies would be able to reconstitute Europe and get back to former conditions of trade.

A great many people had said there was no chance of Great Britain and the United States pulling together, because they were too much alike—too impetuous and aggressive. He did not believe it. He had known America since 1877 and had never known a better feeling to exist between England and America than exists today among the people who counted.

There were in America, he said, pro-Germans, Sinn Feiners, and others—"wild men who were trying to uproot the whole American Constitution." There were people who were working, with pro-German and Sinn Feiners, to do all they could against England. But they would not succeed, he said. The class of people in America who were descended from Anglo-Saxon stock were not going to give up the government of the country to any "mixed cosmopolitan body of people like the Bolshevists and their class who were making the trouble in America today."

The bulk of the people of the United States, he declared, had the most absolute faith in the honesty, courage and determination of John Bull. Great Britain, he said, owned America a big debt, but the Allies owed this country a larger one.

Read What Judge Whedbee Says About SENATOR HARDING for Lieutenant-Governor

Judge H. W. Whedbee presents Hon. F. C. Harding to the Democratic Voters of North Carolina for Lieutenant-Governor.

The friends of Senator Harding in presenting his name for Lieutenant-Governor, subject to the will of the Democratic Primary on June 5th, 1920, call attention to his splendid qualifications for the office.

He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina, a man of ability, resource and experience.

He is a man of spotless integrity, high ideals and courage of convictions.

As a candidate his abilities as a debater and campaigner would uphold the records of his party against the certain vicious attacks of the enemy.

As a presiding officer, his dignity of bearing, knowledge of parliamentary law, clearness of thought and impartiality of judgment would maintain the highest standards of the office.

I have known Senator Harding intimately for thirty years. He is intellectually a strong man, of the highest character and integrity, and is an able and efficient presiding officer; no man in the state is better fitted than Senator Harding for the duties of the office of Lieutenant-Governor. For these reasons his friends commend him to the Democratic voters of North Carolina.
