GODWIN READY TO BATTLE FOR SIXTH DISTRICT PRIMARY

Congressman Says Friends Have Just Begun to Fight for His Nomination.

Washington, D. C., June 11.—"The fight has just begun in the 'Bloody sixth,' Congressman Hannibal L. Godwin announced upon his return here today, declaring at the same time that he proposed 'to lay bare some of the shady political stunts that were pulled off in certain sections in the first primary.'"

"It reminds me of a repetition of the Wrights convention of 1910," he added. Everybody knows that the Wrightsville convention nominated Oscar L. Clark of Bladen and Godwin appealed to the state committee for a primary with the result that he walked away with the nomination.

"Many of my friends throughout the district were over confident," he explained, "and neglected my interest. They are now ready for the fight and from all sections of the district comes the news that questionable methods in politics will be rebuked and the people will nominate me in the second primary."

A Wilmington delegation consisting of members of the party who made the recent booster trip to the Middle Western cities, today called upon Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board, with a proposition to buy Liberty ship yards in the port city for use as a commercial dock.

The delegation consisting of Colonel Walker Taylor, James H. Cowan, secretary of the Wilmington chamber of commerce, and Roger Moore went to see the shipping board chairman in company with Representative Godwin.

Wilmington, they explained to the Admiral, lacks dockage facilities necessary for bidding for export trade because the water front property available is controlled by the Sprunt Cotton exporting firm. This has always been a drawback to Wilmington's export prospects, they said.

Admiral Benson was pleased with the committee's presentation of the case and agreed to take the proposition under consideration.

Difference in itself, hatred for Woodrow Wilson, fulsome praise for the Republican Senators and the bromide "we ain't got nothing against nobody" tune is about all that the Democrats in Washington see in the Republican party's platform adopted yesterday.

To the handful of Republicans left here it is a weak listless, vacillating innocuous document. As for proscribing or restricting any one of the candidates for the nomination, it does not. The only man who can run for President on it is Herbert Hoover if he proposes to stand by his original declaration that the party settled to had to stand for something.

As for straddling, it is undoubtedly a gem. A position on anything other than the quadrennial pat on the back for the embattled farmer is not taken by the framers. "The farmer is the backbone of the nation," says the platform.

And the dry plank! Insignificant little thing, not of enough importance to keep an eye on. So easy to lose that it "dropped" out of Senator Jim Watson's pocket somewhere between Penrose's Chicago bureau and the Coliseum. Mr. Watson couldn't imagine where it went to. Mr. Bryan had an idea what happened to it?

MR. EVERETT FOR SENATE.

Mr. Editor: Our next General Assembly will have to dispose of some very important questions and Pitt county should do its part by sending to the Senate the best available man. We volunteer the statement that Mr. S. J. Everett is well worthy in character, ability, experience and loyalty to the public interest, to the full confidence and support of the voters of Pitt county. We most heartily endorse his candidacy and commend him to the Democratic voters in the primary held on Saturday July 3rd.

AMERICAN ZIONIST TO BE AT MEETING IN LONDON JULY 4

First Group to Attend International Conference Left New York Today.

New York, June 12.—The first group of American delegates to the International Zionist Conference which convenes in London July 4 leaves here today for England on the steamer Lapland. In all there will be 39 American delegates to this conference, considered by American Zionists a most momentous gathering. The others will leave for England next Saturday.

In the party going today are Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of the United States supreme court, honorary president of the Zionist organization of America; Judge Julian W. Mack of the United States District Court, president of the organization; Nathan Straus, Mrs. Mary Fels, Jacob de Haas, Zionist executive secretary Louis Lipsky, organization secretary, Professor Felix Frankfurter, of Harvard, Captain Abraham Tulin and David Rosenboom.

The first world Zionist conference held in six years, since the outbreak of the war, the forthcoming convention is considered of importance because it will deal with the practical problem of the establishment of the Jewish National Homeland. Delegates will attend from every country in Europe, Palestine, Argentine, Australia, Canada and New Zealand.

In announcing the meeting, the Zionist Organization of America says: "Millions of Jews throughout the countries of Eastern Europe, waiting for the opportunity to leave for Palestine, will watch the proceedings of the conference with intense interest, for the manner and time of emigration will be one of the chief topics discussed at the conference."

HIDE DEALERS SAY MARKET BOTTOMS HAVE FALLEN OUT

Declare Wool and Hide Markets Predict $2.50 Shoes in Future.

Oklahoma City, Okla., June 12.—Hide dealers declare the bottom has fallen out of the hide and wool markets and are predicting $2.50 shoes within the near future.

Green salted hides which were selling for 18 cents a pound recently dropped to 12. N. B. LaBryer, manager of a hide company here, says the price will go lower, adding that the same condition exists in all the markets of the country. Calf hides which six months ago brought a dollar a pound have been offered lately at 25 cents, Mr. LaBryer continued, and then can get no buyer.

The decline in prices is due to the inability of tanners to ship their goods because of railway congestion and because of the fear of a credit stringency, Mr. LaBryer declared. Big stocks of high priced leather purchased several months ago are still on hand and they want to get rid of it before buying more. Mr. LaBryer also asserted that many tanneries have closed down entirely and others running half time.

The wool market shows an even worse state of demoralization according to Mr. LaBryer. Wool which a year ago ranged from fifty to fifty-five cents a pound now is virtually impossible to get twenty-five cents for, he states. The demand for wool is so slight, he said, that no dealers are making purchases except where they get an opportunity to buy at such low prices that they are willing to take a chance.

The recent attempt of the Wool Growers' association to hold a wool sale at Enid, which was called off because there were no buyers, was cited by Mr. LaBryer as an illustration of the present day wool market situation. A single buyer offered 20 cents for the best grade of Shropshire wool if he could get a carload lot.

The following editorial from the Memphis Commercial Appeal will be of interest to the people of this city and county, as Gen. Lawrence D. Tyson, is a native of this county and has a number of relatives throughout this section of the state.

"Gen. Lawrence D. Tyson has been endorsed by the Democratic convention of Tennessee for vice president. Gen. Tyson would make an ideal candidate and an ideal presiding officer. He was once the speaker of the lower house of the Tennessee legislature. He is a graduate of West Point.

"In the world war Gen. Tyson was a brigade commander and led his brigade, which was part of the Thirtieth Division, and with it participated in the breaking of the Hindenburg line at the Tunnel.

There is not a finer gentleman in the whole south than Gen. Tyson. He would command the respect of the country in the event of his nomination."

ENLISTED MEN GOING TO NAVAL ACADEMY

Washington, June 11.—Eighty-one enlisted men of the navy and marine corps, a record number, passed the recent examination for entrance to the naval academy, it was announced today by the navy department. The highest number prior to this year was fifty-three in 1918. Ten of the eighty-one who passed this year were marines and the remainder were in the naval service.

LABOR FEDERATION READY TO SUPPORT DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Leaders at Recent Convention Prepare to Offer Support to the Party.

Montreal, June 11.—The American Federation of Labor, in convention here, made preparations tonight to offer the support of organized labor to the Democratic party in return for its acceptance of the labor platform demand, which leaders declare the Republican party has ignored. Labor leaders announced tonight that the subject would be placed before the federation's convention tomorrow. The first step, they said, would be a condemnation of the Republican party, to be followed by an appeal to the Democratic party for incorporation of labor's policy in its platform.

Samuel Gompers and other leaders were in session late tonight preparing a plan of action. They declined to divulge their decision, but indicated "drastic action against the Republican party would be proposed."

Delegates and labor officials showed considerable sentiment for the formation of a labor party.

Those close to Mr. Gompers, however, asserted tonight that the action of the Republican convention would have no effect on the non-partisan political program and there was "not the slightest possibility" of labor putting a party in the field this year.

The platform adopted by the Republican National convention was termed "an outrage and an affront to working people," in a statement tonight by Matthew Wolf, vice president of the Federation. He declared it is "a document with which Wall Street and the steel trust ought to be highly pleased."

KANSAS FARMERS DEMAND EFFICIENT LABOR THIS YEAR

College Students Must be Industrious to Hold Down Situation.

Kansas City, Mo., June 12.—College students must be industrious and husky to find employment in the harvest of grain in the middle west this season. They need not expect a vacation with pay, say the employment agents who want 60,000 men for work in Kansas and Oklahoma alone.

A. L. Barkman, zone clearance officer in charge of the whole belt, emphasizes the fact that workers must pay their own railroad fare, and should if possible be provided with a small surplus in case of delay in finding work due to rains. He also emphasizes the fact that able-bodied men are wanted; that the sun is hot, and that prospective workers should be sure of their endurance if they are to be of value either to themselves or to the farmers.

Wheat cutting in Oklahoma is beginning; it will begin in southern Kansas about June 20; in Nebraska July 12, in South Dakota July 26; and in North Dakota the first week in August.

Oklahoma, it is estimated, will need about 10,000 men from outside the state, and wakes from harvest hands will range from $4 to $7 a day in that state, with wages for stackers $6 to $10 a day, and for experienced engineers and separator men $8 to $10 a day.

In only a few isolated communities, where labor is abundant, is any one offering less than $6 a day for any sort of labor. In most sections only able-bodied, English-speaking white are desired. Oklahoma offices of the free employment service have been established in Oklahoma City, Enid, Tulsa, Muskogee and Ardmore. There (Continued on page four.)

GOOD BOOKS BEING GIVEN FREELY BY AMERICAN LIBRARY

Books for Guardians of the Sea and Others Provided Plentifully.

Books for the guardians of the sea and inland coasts of the United States men of the coast guard and keepers of lighthouses and their families—are being supplied by the American library association as part of the Enlarged program which has for its appeal, "Books for Everybody."

For these groups, whose contact with their fellow men and opportunities for entertainment are limited, library service is one of the most welcome events in their lives, offering not only means of amusement in the long hours of leisure, but also of self-education in any subject in which they may desire to become proficient. The service furnished by the association provides for supplying them with any technical works they request and gives them the best of fiction.

There are nearly 3,000 men in the guard in 273 stations along the approximately 10,000 miles of sea and inland coast lines and there are 728 light stations with resident keepers, and 118 vessels. To provide this population with reading and to carry on all the many provisions of the "Books for Everybody" movement for at least three years, a fund of $2,000,000 is now being obtained, not through an intensive drive, but by the individual efforts of librarians, library trustees and friends of libraries.

SHERIFF DUDLEY AND OFFICER JACKSON CAPTURE STILL

This morning at 10 o'clock, Sheriff Dudley accompanied by Officer Jackson went into the Chicago section of the county and captured a still, with a capacity of 60 gallons, with the exception of the worm. The still was located in the woods directly in front of the farm belonging to Mr. Hardee Stokes.

BORAH OPPOSED TO LOWDEN AND WOOD FOR PARTY CHOICE

Johnson's Followers Says Two Leaders Stand for Party Corruption.

Chicago, June 11.—Senator Borah of Idaho, one of Senator Johnson's most ardent supporters, announced tonight that he would not support either Lowden or Wood.

"If either of them is nominated," he declared, "the issue before the American people will not be on the platform of the party—it will be on the issue of the corruption of the American people."

Senator Borah expressed his views at a public meeting of Johnson delegates. "We have reached a time when it is necessary to talk frankly, not only with reference to the situation in the convention here," Senator Borah said, "but also with reference to what the situation will be when we leave here with a candidate nominated and our platform in our pocket. I'm not here to gratify personal feeling for or against any candidate."

"From my standpoint, the interests of the Republican party and of this country are superior to the right of any individual to hold office. Our first object is to nominate Hiram Johnson, because he holds the confidence of the American people."

"I do not pretend to say that there are not other men who could be elected, if nominated by the convention tomorrow."

"But I do say with all sincerity that either of the two candidates now leading before the convention will force us, if nominated, hundreds of thousands of Republican votes."

"I do not pretend to say that there are no other men in the party but Johnson who can be elected. If either of these two leading candidates is nominated, the issue will be corruption of the electorate. There is no way to avoid the issue. This cannot be blotting out or excused. I can take the records of these two men—and they (Continued on page four.)

MOTHER APPEALS FOR ASSISTANCE IN FINDING LOST BABY

Morristown Mother Sends Out Appeal to All Sections for Assistance.

Norristown, Pa., June 11.—Mothers and children throughout the country are appealed to by Mrs. George H. Coughlin, mother of 13-months old Blackeely Coughlin, who was kidnapped nine days ago, to help her find the baby. When she concluded writing the appeal, which was blotted with her tears, the mother collapsed.

"I appeal to every mother and child in the United States to help us find my baby," Mrs. Coughlin said, "Surely someone will see and know my boy."

"If there is a strange baby in your neighborhood, please, oh, please, find out who he is and where he came from, for he may be my child."

"Don't be afraid to send us information. I promise harm will come to no one. All we want is our boy."

"Even those who took my boy must and will release my anxiety, and they will feel sure that we will keep our promise if they will only give us proof that they have Blackeely safe and well."

Mrs. Coughlin appended a description of the stolen baby, which said he was 32 inches tall, weighs 30 pounds, has large blue eyes and light hair, and is stockily built for a child of his age. He had no defects, she said, and the only mark is a slight, almost invisible scar over the right eye-lid. He had four upper and four lower teeth when he was kidnapped, with two other teeth about to make their appearance. These may have come through since.

REPUBLICANS FAIL TO NOMINATE ANY PARTY CANDIDATE

Wood and Lowden Leading in Race for Presidential Nomination.

Chicago, June 12.—Hoping emerged today from an all night conference with Republican chieftains as they met last night with the intention of breaking imminent deadlock on presidential nominations. On him they plan to concentrate their strength should the convention fail to break through the blockade established yesterday by four ballots. The tentative plan of the new Harding boom was contingent upon failure of early votes today to result in nomination. Managers of the "Big Three" in no way relaxed their energy or lost confidence in their success. Backers of Harding compromised, contending that no nomination be reached as the situation now stands. Conferees between leaders of all factions are looking to nomination today, and remained at many hotels immediately after adjournment yesterday. The conference was still in progress at daylight today but few important changes are expected in today's first ballot, which will be the fifth of the convention.

Chicago, Ill., June 11.—Four ballots in the Republican National convention today failed to unite the necessary majority on a nominee. It was the first time since 1912 that more than three ballots found the party without a choice and the seventh time since the nomination of Lincoln that more than one ballot had been required.

Wood and Lowden were at their high water mark when the convention, after the fourth ballot, adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Johnson had received on the fourth seven and one-half votes less than he received on the third.

The contest then stood: Wood, 31 1/2; Lowden, 28 1/2; Johnson, 14 1/2; Hoover, 5; Harding, 6 1/2; Sprague, 7 1/2; Coolidge, 25; Butler, 20; Keex, 2; Poindexter, 15; Sutherland, 3; Borah, 1; Dupons, 2; LaFollette, 22; Watson, 4.

At the adjournment hour is still remained a three-cornered fight between Wood, Lowden and Johnson, for the remaining twelve contestants held only 240 scattering votes among them and most of them had been losing steadily since the first ballot, some one of the big three making accessions at their expense.

With these scattering votes Johnson still was holding the balance of power, his 140 1/2 votes alone, even if cast for either Wood or Lowden would not be sufficient to nominate either and there was not the slightest indication of Johnson delegates deserting their nominee.

The four ballots saw various shifts and changes with a general declining of the favorite son and complimentary vote. The vote for Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, of New York, steadily dwindled until on the closing ballot it stood at 20. Lowden forces took most of the accessions from New York.

Twenty-four votes from Wisconsin cast for LaFollette, on three successive ballots amid hisses and catcalls fell to 22 at the closing. It was the first convention in years at which LaFollette himself had not appeared as a candidate. Governor Sjroni's high mark was 83 1/2 on the first ballot.

It was difficult to understand the sudden adjournment after four ballots had been taken. At the end of the third ballot the Johnson forces moved an adjournment and insisted upon a roll-call after the motion had been defeated by a viva voce vote. The roll-call showed the delegates voting overwhelmingly to continue the balloting. Toward the close of the fourth ballot, it was seen that Wood and Lowden both had made small gains and that the Johnson vote would show its first loss.

JOHN BULL BABIES.

John Bull believes that healthy babies make strong men, and is willing to pay for them, according to reports recently received by the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor. In 1918 grants made by the national government in support of infant welfare work in England and Wales amounted to about $1,150,000, which represents one-half of approved expenditure for welfare centers, "health visitors," maternity care and similar work for mothers and children.

The number of health centers increased from 850 in 1917, to 1,550 in June 1919, over one-half of them supported entirely by public funds. Attendance at the centers has also shown a phenomenal increase. One center in Gloucester, which, in 1918 received 263 expected mothers, had 932 on its rolls in 1919.

As a result, it is thought, of public protection of maternity and infancy, the infant mortality rate for England and Wales for 1918 is 94. There was no increase over 1917 even under the adverse conditions of war and influenza.

The 1918 infant mortality rate for the U. S. birth registration area, just published, is 101.7 points higher than the rate for the preceding year.

Children's Bureau investigations have shown that Uncle Sam's babies die because they and their mothers do not have skilled care. Until such care is made available, as in England, for all women in all parts of the country, regardless of economic standing, no great decline in the infant mortality rate may be expected.

FEDERAL FUNDS AND VOCATION-AL TRAINING.

An important piece of legislation enacted at this session of congress, and approved by the President on the last day of the session, is an act providing for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry of otherwise, and for the return of such persons to some useful employment. Under the provisions of this act the Federal Government proposes to co-operate with the states in the work of restoring to occupational efficiency men and women who have been maimed by accident in any way whatever, or disabled by disease, or who may be congenitally crippled.

In anticipation of the passage of Federal legislation for this purpose more than a dozen states have already enacted laws providing for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled men and women, and providing in some cases in advance for acceptance of the requirements of the Federal act which has now been approved by the president.

"Persons disabled" are defined in the act to include "Any person who by reason of a physical defect, or infirmity, whether congenital or acquired by accident, injury, or disease, is, or may be expected to be, totally or partially incapacitated for remunerative occupation."

The Federal Board for Vocational Education, is the administrative Federal agency. A Federal appropriation of $750,000 is made for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1921, and of $1,000, 000 annually for three years following.

These appropriations are to be allocated to the states in proportion to their population, and every Federal dollar spent by the states in training disabled men and women must be matched by an equal amount of money provided in the states.

Thus, if the states provide for using the total amount of the Federal appropriation, a joint fund of Federal and local money will be available amounting to at least $1,500,000 in the year 1920-21 and to $2,000,000 each year for the three years ending June 30, 1922, 1923, 1924. Individual states, of course, may do better than merely match the Federal money, but on the other hand some states may, of course, fail to get the work started under approved plans in time to utilize the total amount available for the first year.

It is to be noted that the Federal act does not provide that money made available in the States to match the Federal appropriation shall be raised by taxation in the state. In other words, private funds may be made available for matching Federal money in any state. It is provided only that money expended under the Federal act shall be expended under the immediate administrative direction and control of the State Board for Vocational Education in each state. Each State Board is required to submit to the Federal Board for Vocational Education, for approval, the state plans for carrying out the provisions of the Federal act within the state, specifying the kinds of vocational rehabilitation to be provided, and the proposed schemes of placement after training, courses of study, methods of instruction, qualifications of teachers, and plans for training teachers.

EDWARDS-GALLUP.

The following clipping from the Fayetteville Observer will be of interest to the people of this city.

A marriage of widespread interest took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Gallup this morning at 11 o'clock, when their daughter, Mary Lee, became the bride of Clinton Hugh Edwards of Greenville, N. C.

The rooms were beautifully decorated in Southern smilax, potted palms, ferns and tall vases of cut flowers which carried out the color scheme of white and green while unshaded tapers cast a soft light over the scene.

Receiving the guest at the front door were Mrs. R. L. Holland, Jr., and Miss Nita Highsmith. While the guests were arriving Miss Maude Hall rendered a lovely musical program and just before the entrance of the bridal party. Mrs. N. E. Patton sang "At Dayning" and "Because." The wedding party entered to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin. Mrs. B. D. Moore, sister of the bride, was dame of honor, attired in flesh georgette and picture hat, carrying Russell roses. Next came the maid of honor, Miss Willie Wilson, attired in turquoise blue georgette and picture hat, carrying Russell roses.

The bride entered on the arm of her father. Her lovely gown was fashioned of white georgette embroidered in beads. The little midday veil of tulle, which was draped off the face, was fastened to the hair with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with valley lilies. Her only ornament was a pearl crescent, the gift of the groom.

The bridegroom entered from the rear with his best man, Cleveland Hardee of Greenville, and met the bride at the altar, where Rev. J. S. Snyder performed the ceremony. During the ceremony "To a Wild Rose" Miss Gallup is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Gallup, and is a charming and attractive young woman, who has a host of friends. She graduated from Greenville College and has been teaching the past year in Fayetteville graded schools.

Mr. Edwards is a well known business man of Greenville, connected with the firm of Perkins & Edwards.

After a wedding trip North, included was rendered.

After ceremony a reception was held, including Washington, Atlantic City and New York, the happy couple will reside in Greenville, N. C.

The out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. B. D. Moore of Mt. Holly, Miss Sadie Thompson of Lumberton, Miss Willie Wilson, Tarboro; Miss Alma Winslow, Elizabeth City; Messrs. Cleveland Hardee and Henry Clay Edwards of Greenville.

will be no free or reduced railroad fares.

In Kansas it is estimated there will be nearly 8,000,000 acres of wheat to harvest, and the state employment director has declared that during the height of the season employment can be furnished to $50,000 men from outside the state. Hutchinson and Wichita will be the principal clearance and distributing points for Kansas harvest labor, and there are branches of the federal state employment service in both places, as well in Kansas City, Kan., Salina, Parsons and Topeka.

Seventy cents an hour is the maximum harvest wage in Kansas, with no minimum fixed. This includes board and lodging. It is estimated that, starting in southern Kansas about June 20 the cutting will reach the northern border of the state July 1 to 5.

In Nebraska it is expected that about 3,000,000 acres of wheat will be harvested. A large amount of outside help is necessary. There will be two to three weeks work in Nebraska following the Kansas harvest.

The federal employment bulletin states that, beginning July 20 to 25 in South Dakota, the harvest will move northward, requiring many men from outside the state.
