SEVERAL ARRESTS FOLLOW THE RACE CLASH AT CHICAGO

Investigating Negro Order Said to be Responsible for Rioting.

POLICE CONTINUE TO FOLLOW LATEST CLUES

Investigations Probably May Result in Arrest of Other Promoters.

Chicago, June 21.—With R. D. Jones, said by the police to be the white leader of an organization advocating the return of negroes to Abyssinia, Edward Redding, and seven negroes under arrest in connection with a riot last night in the Chicago "Black Belt" that resulted in the killing of two white men and the wounding of several negroes, police and Federal officers began an investigation of the "Star Order of Ethiopia," whose members were reported to have participated in the attack.

The police were still searching for Joseph Fernon, who is said to call himself the "Great Abyssinian," and his son. According to reports, they garbed in fantastic raiment, also were leaders of the parade.

Jones said that he had warned Federal officers last week of the proposed parade of the cult, and that they should be on the watch for trouble, but declared that no attention had been paid to his statement.

Packages of pamphlets explaining "Egyptian secrets" were taken from Redding. He had concealed them under his clothing. They were held as evidence of his alleged activities among negroes in spreading the cult.

The inquest into the deaths of Chas. Hoyt, a cigar store clerk, and Robert L. Rose, a sailor, victims of the riot, was postponed until June 26 at the request of police Captain Caughlin, of the Cottage Grove Police Station, who declared that he had three of the men believed to be implicated in the shooting under arrest and wanted more time to search for a fourth, said to be a negro former soldier.

While the police were quizzing the alleged leaders of the Abyssinian cult, Edward J. Brennan, chief investigator for the department of justice, started an inquiry on behalf of the government. He said a searching investigation would be made to determine just how far the Abyssinian movement has spread and what individuals are behind it. Resolutions denouncing Jones as a white leader responsible for creating unrest among the negro population were passed today by several negro organizations. They said that the riot was not caused by racial feeling, but was the result of radical propaganda and that reputable negroes had no part in the movement.

Jones was said to have been the chief speaker at a meeting to urge mayor Wm. H. Thompson to become a candidate for president on a third party ticket backed by the "solid Irish and negro vote."

Thousands of pieces of literature relating to the Abyssinian movement were confiscated by the police in a raid on a garage on the Southside. According to the police, one leaflet boasted that a standing army of four million was in readiness in Ethiopia. Applications for admission to the order were among the papers. They were captioned "Star Order of Ethiopia," and bore Bible quotations. Jones is said to have claimed to be from Norfolk, Va.

The police said tonight that two negro witnesses to the affray identified Redding as the man who killed Rose and Hoyt. The witnesses are employees of the cafe, in front of which the shooting took place.

LEAGUE SCHEDULE RECEIVES REVISION HERE LAST NIGHT

Eastern Carolina League Directors Also Arrange for Hiring Umpires.

FIRST SALARIED UMPIRE TO APPEAR HERE TODAY

Revised Schedule for Association to Become Effective Next Monday.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Eastern Carolina baseball association conducted in the chamber of commerce rooms in this city last night definite arrangements were made for hiring umpires to appear in league games during the remainder of the season, the present schedule re-arranged, and several other matters of direct importance to the association given consideration after these matters had been completely threshed out.

The decision to secure the services of paid umpires for the rest of the season was recently brought about by some dissatisfaction created by decisions of local umpires, in which it was claimed that "favoritism" featured many of the decisions, and that the visiting clubs were unable to get favorable decisions at the best of times. The home town umpire, it was claimed, invariably renders decisions to the advantage of his town club, while in many instances such decisions were unintentional, it was held; umpires from other cities, working on a salary, would be more directly satisfactory to all clubs concerned. The first umpire (Continued on page four.)

LEWIS DISAGREES WITH PRESIDENT'S CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Thinks League of Nations Should Not be Made Issue Coming Campaign

Chicago, June 21.—James Hamilton Lewis, former United States Senator for Illinois and candidate for the democratic vice-presidential nomination, announced today the platform he will advocate. He said he could not agree with President Wilson's statement in a recent interview that the league of nations was to be the supreme issue. Measures for "the relief of the United States" must be proposed leaving Europe and foreign countries to be taken up in due time.

The league of nations and peace treaty should not be treated as a sacred document but treated as "subject to such amendment as the needs of our country and justice to the victorious and defeated people demand," Mr. Lewis declared.

Mr. Lewis' platform declared in favor of the government taking the railways, waterways, telegraph lines, oil and coal lands from private monopoly and assuming control for the people, the method of operation to be by private or public agency as the conditions of each concern may warrant.

Other planks demanded protection for Americans in foreign lands, and for Ireland "the fullest aid our institutions permit."

STRANDED SHIP REFLOATED

Pensacola, Fla., June 21.—The United States shipping board steamer John Adams, which went ashore when it became unmanageable late Saturday night, was refloated and berthed today at the city dock for survey. It was said the vessel was only slightly injured but the damage caused when it crashed through the Gulf, Florida and Alabama railroad pier was estimated at more than $200,000.

CONTEST PROBABLE OVER SEATING REED AT THE CONVENTION

San Francisco, June 21.—A contest over the seating of United States Senator James A. Reed, of Missouri, as delegate, and recommendations for a complete change in party laws, so as to stabilize definitely the status of women in the party organization, probably will come before the Democratic National Committee at its meeting here next Friday preparatory to the national convention party executive said today.

It also was announced that Attorney General Palmer would leave Washington for San Francisco tomorrow and that United States Senator Carter Glass, prospective chairman of the convention resolutions committee, will be here Wednesday. Governor Edward I. Edwards, of New Jersey, is expected to arrive Friday or Saturday.

The Reed contest possibility developed today when it was learned that the Senator had been restored as a delegate at a convention of the Fifth Missouri Congressional district delegates yesterday after his name had been thrown out and his place declared vacant by a State convention. The question is one of jurisdiction between the State and district conventions.

Senator Reed's antagonism to certain policies of the administration will make any contest in his case one of tremendous importance, according to leaders here. There are 36 delegates from Missouri.

SIX KILLED; OTHERS HURT IN BLAZE AT VANCOUVER

Vancouver, B. C., June 21.—Six persons were killed and several injured in a fire that destroyed the Balmoral apartments in a fashionable part of the city at midnight last night.

SAYS RUSSIA WILL NOT BE REUNITED IN SEVERAL YEARS

Veteran Russian Reformer Discouraged at Prospects of the Future.

Constantinople, June 21.—Nikolai Tschalkowski, the veteran Russian reformer, has arrived in Constantinople from the Crimea much discouraged as to the immediate prospect for a reunited Russia. He was a member of General Denikine's Council of ministers which was precipitately thrown out when General Denikine surrendered the command of the South Russian forces to Baron Wrangel and believes the group now in control in Crimea is too reactionary to rally the reform forces of Russia which was opposing Bolshevism.

Before joining the Denikine government at Ekaterinodar six months ago, M. Tschalkowski was a member of the committee in Paris which was working for the perpetuation of Russia and numbered Prince Lvov, Sazonoff, Maklakoff, Savinkoff and Bakmetieff among its membership. M. Tschalkowski also was president of the ill-fated Archange Republic which was set up by the Entente to oppose the northward sweep of Bolshevism. For over 50 years M. Tschalkowski has been a Russian reformer. He was banished several times.

In the seventies he went to America with his wife and was one of twenty Russians who started a new religion and established a colony near Independence, Kans. That experiment lasted for only two years.

"I had my lesson in communism then," declared M. Tschalkowski. "After we settled up our colony's finances I had about $200. I went to Philadelphia where I got as a carpenter in a shipyard. I was there for more than a year and went back to Russia. But I have been in America many times since and have lectured in nearly all parts of the country." M. Tschalkowski wears a long white beard and bears such a striking resemblance to the late Count Leo Tolstol that he attracts much attention in any crowd.

AMERICAN JURIST TO HELP PLAN FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

Elihu Root Named as One of Twelve Jurists for International Court.

SEVERAL COUNTRIES WELL REPRESENTED

Distinguished Men of International Legislation Constituted Body.

The Hague, June 22.—The twelve distinguished international jurists, among them Elihu Root, of the United States invited by the Executive Council of the Nations to plan the organization of the new Permanent Court of International Justice constitute an impressive array of the world's most competent authorities on questions of international legislation. Those who accepted the invitations gathered here in mid June to undertake the task. Those invited were:

Baron Descamps, Belgian Minister of State, Professor of International Law at Louvain University; Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration of the Hague; and Secretary-General, formerly president, of the Institute of International Law writer an international questions.

M. Drago, formerly Foreign Minister of the Argentine Republic. While holding that office, he sent to the Argentine Minister in Washington instructions known as the Drago Doctrine in 1902. He was formerly judge in Argentina; one of the arbitrators nominated by agreement between Great Britain and the United States in the North Atlantic Fisheries Arbitration The Hague 1910; one of the Argentine delegates to the Second Peace conference at The Hague and member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration of The Hague.

BATTLE EXPECTED OVER PROHIBITION WITHIN FEW DAYS

Talk of Platform Now on in Frisco and Everything Getting Ready.

San Francisco, June 21.—With the opening of the Democratic National Convention a week away, a stir of activity was noticeable about hotel headquarters today in addition to the preliminary work at the auditorium where the delegate will gather.

It took the form of informal discussion between national committee members and state leaders already on the ground, devoted chiefly to anticipate strategies with platform building. There was virtually no talk as to presidential candidates. A plain intimation ran through a current platform talk that proposals to modify the Federal prohibition enforcement act were expected by some of the Democratic war horses to share honors with, if not to eclipse the League of Nations issue.

Nobody had any direct statement to make nor would anybody talk for publication. Some of the men who will have a hand in shaping the party's declaration on principles, however, talked much privately of a popular demand that the doctrine of state rights should apply to restrictions.

Taken in connection with the announced purpose of William J. Bryan to resist any weakening of prohibition enforcement measures, talk brought to the surface the feeling of prominent Democrats already here that a fierce battle on the point in the resolutions committee was not to be avoided. They believed also that ultimately the question would be fought out on the convention floor.

M'COMBS ATTACKS DETERMINED SPIRIT OF THE PRESIDENT

Says Mr. Wilson Has No Right to Call Himself Leader of Democrats.

OPPOSES LEAGUE AS BROUGHT FROM PARIS

Former Chairman of Democratic Committee Thinks League is not Issue.

Chicago, June 21.—Wm. M. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee from 1912 to 1916, and manager of President Wilson's 1912 campaign, issued a statement here tonight before leaving for San Francisco attacking what he characterized as the President's autocratic assumption of authority.

President Wilson, he said, has no more right to call himself leader of the Democratic party, a "conception heretofore never entertained by any American," than has Chief Justice White, former Speaker Champ Clark, or Vice President Thomas R. Marshall. Mr. McCombs announced that arrangements had been made to obtain for him a seat in the New York delegation if he decides to take the floor at San Francisco. The New York delegation, he predicted, will throw its support to Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, after casting a complimentary vote for Governor Smith. He added that he believed a westerner, possibly from the Pacific slope, will be nominated for vice president.

His statement in part follows:

"They tell me that America has pledged its word to Europe and that this word must be redeemed in the process of a national campaign. In my belief America has pledged itself to nothing. One individual, speaking as such, permitted Europe to believe that he spoke for a nation, for in the last analysis he was nothing more than a self appointed (Continued on page four.)"

SAYS SINGLE FIRM SHOULD REPRESENT NATION IN BRAZIL

Consul Robertson Applauded When Expressing Opinion at Luncheon.

Buenos Aires, June 22.—Consul Robertson was applauded by the United States Exporters Association of Buenos Aires when at a luncheon recently, he declared that there should be but one authority in foreign countries to represent the United States in foreign trade relations.

The luncheon was given in honor of Dr. Julius Klein, United States commercial attaché, who is retiring from the service. He was asked by Mr. Robertson to urge on his return to the United States the necessity of placing the commercial and financial functions of consuls and commercial attaches under one head. The Consul General declared that they overlapped and were the cause of confusion and a detriment to efficient service.

"Business firms are frequently embarrassed by not knowing the functions of each official," he said, after paying tribute to Dr. Klein. "They do not know when to go to. You cannot conceive a great American business concern sending two representatives down here to perform the same duties. It would be a waste of effort and expense. The United States government should have a central organization for the performance of all duties in connection with foreign trade. I do not care whether the functions are taken away from the consulates and given to the commercial attaché or whether the commercial attaché is placed under the authority of the consulates. My only interest in this is that the work be done by a single authority and not two."

NIGHT SESSION TO FEATURE OPENING AT BIG CONVENTION

National Committee at Frisco Plans to Dispose of Contest Over Reed.

SENATOR WALSH TALKED OF AS PARTY CHAIRMAN

Other Matters Pertaining to Democratic Affairs May be Given Thought.

San Francisco, June 21.—A night session may follow the first session of the Democratic National Convention, which opens here next Monday, Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the National committee announced today.

Before that time, the National committee, which meets June 25, will have disposed of the prospective contest over the seating of United States Senator James A. Reed, of the fifth (Kansas City) district of Missouri, and the contest over the seating of five 28 delegates from Georgia. The committee will act upon these in connection with its work making up a temporary roll and contests may be carried to the credentials committee and even to the floor of the House.

Among the delegates here United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, was being mentioned for permanent chairman of the convention, a position in connection with which the name of Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State, has been frequently heard.

"No documents have been filed in behalf of Senator Reed," said Mr. Cummings, "but a large number of telegrams of protest received from Missouri assure a contest in case credentials are filed for him."

Party leaders assumed that Senator Reed's case will rest upon the contention that the Missouri State convention's action in referring the selection of Mr. Reed as a delegate back to the Fifth district convention makes the re-naming of Reed by the district convention mandatory. The Senator's opponents will hold, it is said, that the State convention's rejection of Reed by a decisive vote should govern and that the alternate named by the district and ratified by the State body should be seated.

There was a possibility of abandoning the requirement for a two-thirds majority in the convention to nominate a candidate and of the unit rule, by which a State's ballots are voted en bloc. Mr. Cummings said the two-thirds majority was an "ancient party custom" that could be overturned only by specific affirmative vote. The unit rule depends upon the instructions given each State delegation.

"The national committee's meeting will be open, to begin with, at least," Mr. Cummings said, "although the body may vote to go into executive session at any time."

Credentials and a demand for recognition of two delegates to the Democratic national convention were received here from the Canal zone. This, it is said, will present a new problem, in that the status of the zone differs from that of the States and of such territories as Hawaii, Porto Rico and others which are given representation in the convention.

TUESDAY, JUNE 22, 1920.

North Carolina may not be the dirtiest state in the Union, but judging by the complaints of the inebriate, it's too dry to be comfortable.

North Carolina and Tennessee may be slightly selfish about which one will ratify the suffrage amendment, but both should be careful and not fall over one another in the mad rush for honors from fair femininity.

Automobile speeding has decreased to such an extent in this city that it seems almost unnatural to walk along the streets without fear of being run down by some reckless driver. The motorcycle "cop" is doing his work splendidly and deserves to be commended.

Senator Harding has refused to answer prohibitionists query as to whether he is a "wet" or "dry," and continues to stick to evasive features of the Republican platform. Both the platform and the nominee harmonize splendidly, for both are dead issues very much alive to the deceptive side of life just at this stage of the game.

If Mr. AcAdoo's withdrawal from the presidential race has changed things as some people appear to think, we would like to know how and where. The old party apparently keeps "pegging" along, ready to do the best by everybody, and granting special liberties to none. The convention will show who's who better than any other one thing, and public will not be any better off for information until then.

The league of nations is the only direct medium through which the nations of the world will be united, and it is up to the American people to back up President Wilson in the position which he has taken in the matter. He believes, as all intelligent, broad-visioned men, that the league is necessary to unite the world, and in it all countries will find freedom from war and devastation. It is to be hoped Republican propaganda against the league will not be given consideration, for it is the result of efforts of the greatest statesmen today, and surpasses the comprehension of narrow-minded statesmen not capable of fully dividing its real meaning.

The states whose legislatures found it advisable to reject woman suffrage don't want North Carolina to put suffrage upon them, but North Carolina feels about suffrage as it did about prohibition and will do everything to make its amendment a part of the national constitution. Suffrage will do even more for the country than prohibition for women will be the deciding power in choosing the right men for office instead of the wrong ones. Their enfranchisement will be a turning point in the political history of the American people, and will be one of the most direct steps toward making the political issues of the country of vital consideration to everyone. The moment for change in politics has come, and as North Carolina will be one of the states to decide success of the issue, it is safe to say it will do its part whether Tennessee does or not.

THE GREENVILLE CENSUS.

Greenville's population as presented by the Census department yesterday evening is far behind what people have been expecting, although it may be considered preliminary and subject to correction. Greenville has made splendid progress in an industrial way for the past ten years, and it is only natural to expect that its population has been in proportion to development along all lines of improvements. The enumeration only gives the city something over 1,671 increase during the ten year period, but if the cotton mill district and other suburban sections had been included in the count, it is safe to say the figures would have easily reached the 7,000 or 8,000 mark.

The census was not complete even in the city, so it is understood, for several people were missed who would be considered inhabitants of Greenville year out. The department should consider the preliminary figures immediately, and if they do not go above those already presented, then there is cause for more serious attention. Greenville has developed almost marvelously within the past two years alone, and if we would consider the official city directory that gave the town something over five thousand in 1916, it is easy to see that there is something wrong somewhere.

It might be wise for the department to check up closely on its figures, compare the enumeration of various districts, and see just what has been missed. We are confident that an error will be found somewhere, although it is not expected that the count will vary very much from that presented yesterday. Greenville deserves to be given more than ordinary consideration, because it is developing daily into one of the most progressive and thriving towns in Eastern North Carolina, and at least should be accorded an accurate enumeration of its population, as far as this becomes possible.

It is said that the presidential campaign in this country does not interest Europe half so much as prohibition, for that country as several others is really anxious to get rid of the demoralizing influence of strong drink. Prohibition eventually will be recognized in every country, for people are getting tired of degeneracy brought about by Old John Barleycorn and are preparing his grave daily, ready for the funeral services to occur in the future.

From the time of its inception, generations ago, the piano pianoforte has ever been the principal medium for the expression of music. Nothing else can equal its artistic possibilities, its refining influences. Other forms of music may have their vogue, but the piano has its supremacy in the homes and hearts of the general public.

LEAGUE SCHEDULE RECEIVE REVISION HERE LAST NIGHT

will arrive in Greenville today in time for the evening's game, and it is expected that every game will have the services of a new umpire before the week comes to a close.

The present schedule received a slight revision so that all cities will receive an equal number of games during the remainder of the season. The present schedule will be effective until next Monday when the new one will be put into effect, and it is safe to say that every town get everything coming to it in the way of baseball. The schedule for the season so far has been of a preliminary form, and gave some towns a greater number of games than others, but the re-arrangement as effected last night treats every club alike and gives every member of the league an opportunity of keeping in close touch with developments.

Many of the clubs, it was stated during the meeting, are endeavoring to get in touch with better players, and while some have made a number of desirable acquisitions, there are others however that have changed too often for their good. Greenville has just received a new pitcher to appear in the game this evening, and if reports are true he is a good one. "Smoky" Smith is his name, and they say he makes smokey-sounding title good. He has just recently been released from the army, and puts fighting spirit in the game.

was accepted in good faith by all the European people as absolute.

"The President negotiates a treaty,

ticular instance there has been no concurrence.

But we do not want to commit ourselves to the League of nations as it was brought back from Paris. It is an international issue, but it is a highly debatable question as to what importance it should have in a national campaign.
Ultimately it is a question for the President and the Senate to settle."

The statement then declares for reconstruction at home, rehabilitation of railway and internal waterway transportation and for solution of the high cost of living, "wholly apart from any international affiliations." The state-

GREENVILLE WINS BY SCOTLAND NECK IN MONDAY'S GAME

Locals Win Out Over Visiting Team in Yesterday's Game by the Score of 7 to 1.

Greenville came back in old-style form yesterday evening and defeated the Scotland Neck-Hobgood aggregation at the fair grounds in this city by the score of 7 to 1. The contest was fast and interesting in practically every frame with exception of the eighth and ninth when the locals gained such lead that it would have been almost impossible for the visitors to even seriously threaten the home circuit after that time.

Both clubs started the game off in a fast and snappy way, in fact, the game was contested determinedly in every frame, but the ability of Manager Lannier's crew to hit freely, particularly at favorable moments, was more responsible for the game falling their way than any other single feature.
They landed the sphere for seventeen safe hits, six of them proving to be doubles, the remainder purely clean, everyday kind of bingles necessary to a winning club. Scotland Neck was unable to hit opportunely, except in the first inning when the only tally was sent across the rubber. Three hits were gotten off Sheppard's delivery for the entire game, but they were well scattered and failed to be productive of desired results.

Greenville did its scoring in the second, third, sixth and eighth innings, but hitting hard and plying down the home circuit at nearly every opportunity. Several times men reached second and third bases but were unable to score on account of the visitors tightening up in the field, failing to permit even the difficult grounders and skyscrapers get past them. Greenville failed to hit to an advantage at such moments except when the winning runs were sent down the "pleasant path to home," but in such instances they banged Johnson's speedy side offerings unmercifully and apparently hit almost at will.

Sheppard for the locals pitched one of the finest games that has been witnessed on the home diamond this season and held the visiting club to the bench so tightly that it was difficult indeed for a player to get away long at the time except when in the field chasing the sphere from the opposing team's ready willow. Sheppard himself tried to break up the game by knocking the ball over the pace track, but unable to accomplish this feat and pitch the game too, he momentarily contented himself by banging out two doubles as his part. Barnes, Stringfield, Ellis, Ragsdale, Kittrell, Moore, in fact the whole team, did their share of the stick work, dividing honors as best they could, not by the longest drive, but the greatest number of hits for the game.

Johnson, for the visitors, started off the game in mighty fine form, and did pitch good ball in some parts of the game, but his curves failed to evade the Greenville club's willow for long at the time, and the sphere was kept continuously flying from one end of the lot to the other. This continued uninterruptedly for several innings, and while many of the hits failed to bring runs, the club evidently derived great pleasure from the diversion and just because the ball hit good.

Greenville started its scoring in the second inning when Kittrell hit for one run, being later sacrificed to second by Barnes. Sheppard hit for two bases, and Stringfield. Another tally was scored around the circuit in the third, when Ellis beat out an infield hit; Duncan hit for one base, Ellis going to second. On a wild throw to first to catcher, Duncan and Ellis scored. Two runners were sent over the rubber in sixth frame when Moore got safe on error of an infield drive; Ragsdale hit for one base, Moore going to second. Sheppard hit for two bases, scoring Moore, Ragsdale being called out

WASHINGTON WINS

FROM TARBORO CLUB

Washington, June 21.—Washington defeated Tarboro here this evening in possibly one of the best games of the season by the score of 4 to 2. The game was fast and well played in every inning, but the ability of the locals to bunch hits at favorable stages of the game was accountable for the victory falling their way. Both clubs contested every inning in an effective, assuring way, but the visitors were unable to hit when hits would have sent runners across the home circuit.

WILLIAMSTON DEFEATED BY PINETOPS YESTERDAY

Pinetops, June 21.—Pinetops defeated Williamston here this afternoon by the score of 11 to 8. The game was feared by heavy hitting by both clubs, but the ability of the locals to hit favorably, especially at critical stages, was accountable for their victory. The outstanding feature of the game was the hitting of Mark Webb who landed the sphere for a home run and two doubles. Both clubs changed pitchers, before the hitting could be terminated effectively.
