WEDNESDAY, JUNE 23, 1920

"Harding for president" sounds like the death knell to political activity on the Republican platform.

The Republican party may be pleased with its nomination of Senator Harding, but it is only a short time before they become displeased.

Tennessee and North Carolina may be vying for honors of ratifying the suffrage amendment, but even at that, they won't get so many smiles out of the race after all.

Statements indicate that state suffragists are in fine spirits. The same kind of spirits, however, won't go with the men, so it might be advisable to change the brand by time for the assembly's decision.

Ohio is going some when it presents Glass for president. Some mighty good material has been presented up to this time, it must be admitted that the mother of president has established a precedent that won't break into fragments before the convention concludes.

Herbert Hoover may be a progressive citizen of the United States, but from some of his samples, he has introduced a spirit that is just the opposite. He should talk a little more so the public may be better informed than at the present, and get a better idea of his progressiveness.

There may not be so very many people in Greenville, if we go by the recent census figures, but when they all get together one would naturally conclude that it is one of the liveliest towns in the state. And it is, too, for people live in Greenville because they like it, and best because there's something to boost for.

The whiskey traffic may be making progress in some communities but in Pitt county it has experienced an effective set back in the form of Sheriff Dudley and deputies. These officials have done some mighty fine work in curbing the sale and manufacture of illicit whiskey, and should the work continue it is safe to say Pitt county will be one of the first sections in the state to completely eliminate the traffic.

A conference of premiers are preparing to send a note to Germany, demanding that the country disarm, but it's not expected that the reply will be satisfactory. Germany is at peace with the world except America, and long as she fails to make any demands, the Hun may feel perfectly safe in arming to the teeth if necessary. The situation is extremely deplorable, and will continue so until this government finally realizes the necessity of ratifying the treaty.

The first primary failed to create more than ordinary interest, but judging by the way things are warming up now there is going to be some mighty intensive campaigning going on between now and election. The presidential issue will be one of the supreme considerations of the moment, but then gubernatorial contests are going to afford greater interest than some would probably expect. North Carolina will be one of the states to witness an active fight in the direction, and the sooner it's over the sooner the country will adjust itself to every day conditions.

COLBY AND THE LEAGUE.

Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby appears firm in his conviction that the treaty of Versailles will receive more than ordinary consideration at the convention of Democrats in San Francisco this month. In reply to questions of newspaper representatives, Mr. Colby said that the treaty should be ratified without reservations; that reservation are no essential in making it more forceful and desirable to the nation, for the document doesn't require any interpretative reservations to clarify it and should be received by the American people in its present form. Mr. Colby may be considered an authority upon questions of national and international importance, for he was chosen for his position by President Wilson because of his wide knowledge of international law and that pertaining to home government. Therefore, it may be easily seen that an assertion from him concerning a question of such magnitude and importance to the country is worthy of consideration, because he has learned the real success of life by speaking plainly, leaving no doubt as to proper interpretation.

If the peace treaty and the league of nations had many other supporters such as the secretary of state it is possible it would be ratified without hesitation, but as it is faced by opposition on every hand, particularly from the Republican party, its success is left in the hands of the public alone. President Wilson knew it would be like this, and that is why he requested that the treaty be made an issue in the approaching presidential campaign, believing as he does in the greatness and broad-mindedness of the people whom he has served so faithfully. It would be almost unreasonable to expect that they will not support him now that he is facing one of the most supreme moments in the annals of the country, for Americans are not made out of that kind of material and will back the president in this one instance to the very limit of their resources.

The Republicans are doing everything possible to deprive the treaty of its real significance, and if the proposed reservations should be incorporated as they desire the treaty would be deprived of its direct bearing upon the countries involved and place the United States in a position similar to that at the present time. There is only one way to avoid such a deplorable state of affairs, and that is for the masses to stand behind the president and back him to the utmost limit of their resources. The issue is in the hands of the Democratic party, and if it is successful it will be Democratic success without the stain of blighted Republican faith upon their hands.

William Jennings Bryan may go to the San Francisco convention and have a jolly good time, but the first time he opposes the treaty of peace ratification, if he should contemplate doing such, it's probable the convention will be minus of an old, old leader. Mr. Bryan has some mighty sound ideas about the American political situation, but he looks at the league out of the little end of the horn, causing people to believe he is falling behind the party. Like others, Mr. Bryan should go over the document again and pick up the points which he failed to comprehend in first perusal.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

I deeply appreciate the support of those who voted for me in the primary on June 6th. The office of county commissioner is one of responsibility and if nominated by you in the second primary, held on July 3rd, I will hold the office to the best of my ability. I ask all who voted for me to vote again on July 3rd and will appreciate the vote of others who voted for other candidates.

J. B. HARDEE.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF PITT COUNTY.

I heartily appreciate the support given me by you in the primary on June the fifth and assure you, that voted for the other gentlemen that I have the very warmest feelings as I concede to every free man his right to cast his vote as he sees fit. From reports over the country since the last primary I feel that I will be nominated on July 3rd and will appreciate your help on that date.

Yours truly,
N. W. OUTLAW.

SEVERAL ARRESTS FOLLOW THE RACE CLASH AT CHICAGO

Investigating Negro Order Said to be Responsible for Rioting.

POLICE CONTINUE TO FOLLOW LATEST CLUES

Investigations Probably May Result in Arrest of Other Promoters.

Chicago, June 21.—With R. D. Jonas, said by the police to be the white leader of an organization advocating the return of negroes to Abyssinia, Edward Redding, and seven negroes under arrest in connection with a riot last night in the Chicago "Black Belt" that resulted in the killing of two white men and the wounding of several negroes, police and Federal officers began an investigation of the "Star Order of Ethiopia," whose members were reported to have participated in the affair.

The police were still searching for Joseph Fernon, who is said to call himself the "Great Abyssinian," and his son. According to reports, they garbed in fantastic raiment, also were leaders of the parade.

Jonas said that he had warned Federal officers last week of the proposed parade of the cult, and that they should be on the watch for trouble, but declared that no attention had been paid to his statement.

Packages of pamphlets explaining "Egyptian secrets" were taken from Redding. He had concealed them under his clothing. They were held as evidence of his alleged activities among negroes in spreading the cult.

The inquest into the deaths of Chas. Hoyt, a cigar store clerk, and Robert L. Rose, a sailor, victims of the riot, was postponed until June 26 at the request of police Captain Caughlin, of the Cottage Grove Police Station, who declared that he had three of the men believed to be implicated in the shooting under arrest and wanted more time to search for a fourth, said to be a negro former soldier.

While the police were quizzing the alleged leaders of the Abyssinian cult, Edward J. Brennan, chief investigator for the department of justice, started an inquiry in behalf of the government. He said a searching investigation would be made to determine just how far the Abyssinian movement has spread and what individuals are behind it. Resolutions denouncing Jonas as a white leader responsible for creating unrest among the negro population were passed today by several negro organizations. They said that the riot was not caused by racial feeling, but was the result of radical propaganda and that reputable negroes had no part in the movement.

Jonas was said to have been the chief speaker at a meeting to urge mayor Wm. H. Thompson to become a candidate for president on a third party ticket backed by the "solid Irish and negro vote."

Thousands of pieces of literature relating to the Abyssinian movement were confiscated by the police in a raid on a garage on the Southside. According to the police, one leaflet boasted that a standing army of four million was in readiness in Ethiopia. Applications for admission to the order were among the papers. They were captioned "Star Order of Ethiopia," and bore Bible quotations. Jonas is said to have claimed to be from Norfolk, Va.

The police said tonight that two negro witnesses to the affray identified Redding as the man who killed Rose and Hoyt. The witnesses are employees of the cafe, in front of which the shooting took place.

NIGHT SESSION TO FEATURE OPENING AT BIG CONVENTION

National Committee at Frisco Plans to Dispose of Contest Over Reed.

SENATOR WALSH TALKED OF AS PARTY CHAIRMAN

Other Matters Pertaining to Democratic Affairs May be Given Thought.

San Francisco, June 21.—A night session may follow the first session of the Democratic National Convention, which opens here next Monday, Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the National committee announced today.

Before that time, the National committee, which meets June 25, will have disposed of the prospective contest over the seating of United States Senator James A. Reed, of the fifth (Kansas City) district of Missouri, and the contest over the seating of the 28 delegates from Georgia. The committee will act upon these in connection with its work making up a temporary roll and contests may be carried to the credentials committee and even to the floor of the House.

Among the delegates here United States Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, was being mentioned for permanent chairman of the convention, a position in connection with which the name of Bainbridge Colby, Secretary of State, has been frequently heard.

"No documents have been filed in behalf of Senator Reed," said Mr. Cummings, "but a large number of telegrams of protest received from Missouri assure a contest in case credentials are filed for him."

Party leaders assumed that Senator Reed's case will rest upon the contention that the Missouri State convention's action in referring the selection of Mr. Reed as a delegate back to the Fifth district convention makes the re-naming of Reed by the district convention mandatory. The Senator's opponents will hold, it is said, that the State convention's rejection of Reed by a decisive vote should govern and that the alternate named by the district and ratified by the State body should be seated.

What a Thing it is to be Fit!

To be not merely free from actual sickness, but to be well, abundantly well, exuberantly well—and to have the mental vim and stamina which go with physical robustness!

Wholesome food, regular habits, exercise—that is the way to keep fit.

Such health is out of the question for you as long as you are constipated. And laxative and cathartic pills only aggravate and confirm the constipation habit.

Nujol works on an entirely new principle.

Instead of forcing or irritating the system, it simply softens the food waste. This enables the many tiny muscles in the walls of the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along so that it passes naturally out of the system.

Nujol thus prevents constipation because it helps Nature maintain easy, thorough bowel evacuation at regular intervals—the healthiest habit in the world. Nujol is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take. Try it.

Nujol is sold by all druggists in sealed bottles only, bearing Nujol Trade Mark. Write Nujol Laboratories, Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), 50 Broadway, New York, for booklet "Thirty Feet of Danger".

CAR AND OCCUPANTS PLUNGE OFF FERRY INTO THE RIVER

A Studebaker automobile driven by an unknown travelling man with one occupant ran off the ferry and plunged in the river at temporary ferry landing at Tar river today. One man jumped from the car to the ferry just as the car precipitated down the steep embankment to the ferry into the river, the other remaining at the wheel, plunging into the river with the car.

The car was shortly afterwards pulled from the bottom of the river by members of the road force employed in construction work on the county bridge. The driver of the car was warned by the ferry keeper not to run down the embankment too fast. The driver admitted that his brakes were bad and wouldn't work, but said he would take a shot anyway. The brakes failed to work altogether, and the first thing the ferry driver knew the car and driver were plunging off the opposite end of the ferry into the river.

The highway commission is doing everything possible to avoid such instances and is doing everything to take care of legitimate traffic, but it cannot protect people who attempt to run down the hill to the ferry landing without adequate brakes. This is the first time such an incident has occurred, and while it is to be regretted, the county road force is exonerated and cannot assume the slightest responsibility any such accidents. Travelers are always warned by the ferry keeper, and if they make the trip across it is at their own responsibility.

Tallest Building In The World

(Outside of New York City)

The Home office Building of the Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, Ohio is the tallest Building in the world (outside of New York City).

The Union Central Life Insurance Company has been issuing Life Policies for more than fifty years, and has the lowest premium (participating) rate of that of any other American Company except one and that is the Mutual Benefit of Newark, N. J.

The Union Central is not the oldest Life Insurance Company, but old enough. Not the largest, but large enough.

This agency sold delivered and paid for TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE MONTH OF MAY. More than any individual agent has ever sold before in month since insurance has been in existence in North Carolina.

More than ONE HUNDRED PER CENT OF THIS AMOUNT was sold to old policy holders. Some who bought from the Union Central thirty years ago, some twenty years ago, and some ten years ago and still some who bought last year which shows satisfied policy holders. The largest policy in May was for $25,000.000 and the smallest was for $2500.00.

Besides of this large production for the Union Central I stand 54 for paid for business in the Philadelphia Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, for the month of May.

Get the rates on Union Central Policies and you will be convinced that they are cheaper.

RUMANIAN PEOPLE SEEKING BIG LOAN IN UNITED STATES

(also used most part of year) amount of paper money in circulation. The standard paper money of the country at present is that issued by the National Bank of Rumania.

In June, paper money printed in the United States will go into circulation and all other moneys will be withdrawn, it is believed, through the Rumanian government, since it has taken over the new provinces of Transylvania and Bukovina and Bessarabia, where crowns and rubles are in circulation, has not yet decided how it will solve note circulation problem or what value will be given to these old moneys.

Meanwhile the Rumanian government is making a determined effort to stamp out the new industries of running cheap moneys over her frontiers and trading it for lels. At times men have been arrested with four, five or six billion batches of Austria-Hungarian notes. Some of the men arrested have been Americans ostensibly on automobile tours from Hungary. Whenever captured these money runners are arrested and the money in their possession confiscated.

EVERY COMMITTEE NAMED TO CONDUCT HARDING CAMPAIGN

(Continued from page one.) Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's Party, in presenting their request, made veiled threats of throwing their support to a third party unless ratification of the suffrage amendment was completed through action of a Republican State legislature. Miss Paul, in a statement tonight, said her delegation was "deeply disappointed with Senator Harding's position."

In the appointment of the executive committee, the sub-committee diverted from the usual practice of confining membership to the national organization and took in Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus, Ohio, Senator Harding's pre-convention campaign manager.

TYSON PRESENTED BY TENNESSEE FOR NEXT V-PRESIDENT

Spanish War Veteran. When the Spanish-American war came on, General Tyson volunteered for service and though a Democrat, was appointed a Colonel by President McKinley, because of his excellent military record. He raised a regiment, the Sixth U. S. Volunteers, from Kentucky, Tennessee and North Carolina, and was sent from Chicamagua to Porto Rico, where for six months he did splendid service in the rehabilitation of the island.

Returning to America with his command, after it was mustered out, General Tyson again took up law and business and soon established two large spinning mills in Knoxville. He has become widely recognized in the textile industry, and now is chairman of the board of directors of the American Cotton Manufacturers' Association. In addition, General Tyson is directing several other large enterprises, including coal, iron and other industries. In fact, no man in Tennessee is at the head of more varied interests than General Tyson.

In politics as in war and business, General Tyson has been a leader. Though a Democrat, he was sent to the Tennessee legislature in 1903 as a representative from a county ordinarily overwhelmingly Republican. Unsettling precedent, he was elected speaker of the House of Representatives the first week he was in the legislature, over four candidates who had served previous terms in the assembly and had spent months in campaigning for the speakership. In 1913 he came within four votes of election as United States Senator from Tennessee, having led the voting on several ballots.

When Secretary of War Garrison resigned, General Tyson was recommended to President Wilson by the Tennessee members of congress for appointment to that portfolio and President Wilson gave serious consideration to his name. Political conditions in the North, however, are said to have caused the selection of Secretary Newton D. Baker.

The men and women of the Tennessee delegation to the San Francisco convention are a unit of enthusiasm over the qualifications of their candidate and the desirability of having so distinguished a World War veteran on the Democratic ticket. General Tyson by experience is a practical farmer, merchant, cotton manufacturer, coal and iron operator, banker, realty developer, lawyer, forceful speaker, soldier, statesman—a big man of broad vision, a mixer among men; of and for the masses; the embodiment of every qualification for a successful party candidate. Having been deprived for sixty years of any recognition Tennessee believes the South is entitled to this representation, and she considers that in General Tyson she has a logical candidate whose wide experience, splendid ability and brilliant war record will justify his selection, and will be a fitting recognition of the great service rendered by our soldiers in the World War and insure victory for the Democratic party.

GREENVILLE DROPS YESTERDAY'S GAME TO SCOTLAND NECK

Failure of Locals to Hit at Opportune Moments Causes Loss of Game, 8 to 5

Failure of Locals to Hit at Opportune moments Causes Loss of Game, 8 to 5.

Failing to show up in excellent form of the day before Greenville dropped the second game of the series to the Scotland Neck-Hobgood aggregation at the fair grounds in this city yesterday evening by the score of 8 to 5. The contest was considerably less entertaining than the one Monday, for the locals played in hard luck, failing to support "Smokey" Smith in winning form. Both clubs played hard and consistently in the last part of the game, but the early lead gained by the visitors made it impossible for the locals to win in the last three innings, although they made a desperate effort by sending three men down the home circuit in the seventh frame.

The visitors in no way outclassed the locals as far as playing is concerned, for they did not show up any better than the day before, but by hitting the ball hard at favorable parts of the game and by costly errors of the locals they were enabled to pile up a sufficient number of tallies to win the game. Greenville landed the opposing mound artist for ten safe bingles but they were so widely scattered at time that putting additional runners over the rubber was apparently an impossibility. The visitors played closely at such times and gave Petway splendid support both in the infield and outfield. "Smokey" Smith, a recent acquisition to the Greenville club, appeared on the mound for the first time in the game yesterday, and while he pitched well in pinches, the visitors succeeded in getting twelve safe hits off his delivery. This was not responsible for loss of the game, however, for costly errors in the early stages of the game gave the visitors the decided lead. Smith pitched splendidly in pinches, and if he had received proper support and timely hitting by his teammates it is probable the tide of victory would have been changed.

Scotland Neck scored its first two runs in the first inning when Powers hit through shortstop, later going to second on sacrifice; Wood hit through pitcher, Powers going to third; Leftwich hit to third, Powers being put out at home plate, Wood going to third; Minton hit for one base, scoring Wood and Leftwich. More runs were added in the fifth inning when Powers bunted safely; Kuyk bunted and on a series of bingles and wild throwing, beat it out to first, Powers going to third; Wood hit for one base, scoring Powers and Kuyk, later going to second; Leftwich hit to third and by error Wood scored. Leftwich going to second Minton hit for one base, scoring Leftwich.

The visitors also added one run in the sixth inning when Depew hit for two bases; Powers bunted safely, Depew going to third, and later scoring on drive to center field by Leftwich. The last run was made in the ninth inning, Leftwich hit for two bases; Minton lined the ball out for two bases, scoring Leftwich.

Greenville scored two runs in the first and second innings when Stringfield got safe by errors of his drive to third; Wrenn sacrificed Stringfield to 2; Ellis hit for one base, Stringfield going to third, Ellis stole second; Duncan hit to first, Stringfield scoring. In the second frame Moore hit for one base; Smith hit for one base, Moore going to second; Wrenn hit to left field and on error got safe, Moore scoring.

In a batting rally in the seventh inning Greenville succeeded in sending three runners home. Stringfield hit for one base, later going to second on wild throw; Wrenn hit for one base, scoring Stringfield; Ellis got safe on a

PINETOPS WINS FROM WILLIAMSTON CLUB 7 TO 1

Pinetops, June 22. — Pinetops won from Williamston here this evening by the score of 7 to 1, in probably one of the fastest games that has been staged on the local diamond this season. The locals were able to hit when hits meant runs, and played closely and consistently in every part of the game. Webb held the visitors to six well scattered hits and pitched superb ball in pinches. Both clubs played well in the field and tightened up considerably during the latter part of the game. Score: R. H. E. Pinetops.....210 000 400-7 13 2 Williamston.....000 101 000-1 6 2 Batteries—Webb, Gardner; Shafer, Carson. "Paragraph."

TARBORO WINS TWO STRAIGHT FROM THE WASHINGTON CLUB

made it two straight from Washington at the local ball park here today by the score of 11 to 3. The contest was slow and uninteresting in every frame, as the visitors gained a decided lead in the first part of the game and continued to send additional runners down the home circuit by hitting at will. Three pitchers were used by the locals before the batting spirit of the visitors could be curbed, while Tarboro was forced to play closely at time in order to hold the lead gained at early stages of the contest. Both clubs played fairly clean ball, but both hit hard at times, the locals however being unable to bunt hits effectively when hits would have meant runs. Score: R. H. E. Tarboro.....202 130 102-11 15 4 Washington.....101 000 1000-3 8 2 Batteries—Luelen, Tyndall, Shipley, Atwell, Jones, Austin, Floyd.

Vote For J. P. COOK Concord, N. C. FOR STAT AUDITOR In Second Primary Saturday July 3rd 1920

APPLYING VANCE'S ADVICE; OTHER REASONS

Durham, N. C., June 16, 1920. Editor The Daily Relector: I see that my old friend, Mr. James P. Cook, of Concord, is a candidate for State Auditor. If there is any virtue in Zeb Vance's saying that "the horse that pulled the plow should have some of the fodder," then it should be applied in this instance. If long faithful and unselfish service to the party, when he was ineditorial harness with a paper that led Democrats to victory in the past, without reward, or the hope of reward, can be counted as a recommendation, then James P. Cook has some claim on those he has helped into office. He has always been working for others. His greatest achievement was the idea, the planning and the establishment of the Jackson Training School for wayward boys. The State knows that work. He is fully competent to fill the position to which he aspires—that of State Auditor. He is clean morally and mentally. He is thorough, painstaking and conscientious. He has the required ability to a marked degree, being thoroughly familiar with financial matters. He is the soul of honor and a friend to the friendless. In all matters affecting the best interest of the best interests of the State, socially morally as materially he has been deeply interested, lending encouragement and support, without stint. I give this as a tribute to a fellow worker in the field of State journalism, by one who knows what he has wrought with his pen and the unselfish service he has performed, and hope it will be the means of increasing his vote in the primary Saturday, July 3rd. JAMES A. ROBINSON.

General Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina: "Friends having brought forward my friend, Mr. Jas. P. Cook, of Cabarrus, for the Democratic nomination to the office of State Auditor, I most heartily endorse his candidacy and commend this most worthy and splendidly equipped gentleman to the enthusiastic support of my friends in North Carolina."
