

PRESIDENT URGES EARLY DECISION BY LABOR COMMITTEE

Text of Message Not Given Out but Said to be of Forceful Nature.

LEADER OF TRAINMEN WARNS AGAINST DELAY

Secretary of Labor Department Also Urges Immediate Consideration.

Washington, June 23.—The railroad labor board at Chicago has been urgently requested by President Wilson to expedite its wage decision.

The President's message resulted from the general unrest among railroad workers over the wage question and the walk out of yardmen and other employes at Philadelphia, Baltimore and other cities. Its text was not made public, but unofficially it was described as being of a "forceful character."

Soon after the White House announcement of the President's action, W. N. Doak, vice president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, issued a warning that unless there was a settlement of the new year old controversy by the end of the week, the situation would be much worse than at present.

The Railroad Labor Board, Mr. Doak said, "is wholly responsible for the present bad situation." He added that the chiefs of the railroad brotherhoods desired the public to know "that this much heralded and advocated method of adjustment is a rank and hopeless failure."

At the same time Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Labor, declared in a formal statement that while the labor board had had a big task to perform, it could "render no better public service in the existing situation than by coming to a speedier determination of the questions at issue before it."

The labor secretary said the railroad workers had been "extremely patient under manifold difficulties" and that it would be a great victory for them and their official spokesmen "if they continue to exercise the same patience and the same courage until the Railroad Labor Board has reached a decision, which everybody hopes will be at an early date."

Mr. Doak, in his statement, said the railroad labor organizations had done everything reasonable to keep transportation moving and that they were now considering means to assist in every manner in preventing workmen from leaving the railroads, but that they knew well that the men must be given substantial pay increases before their efforts could be successful.

The Railroad Labor Board, he continued, had been told of the seriousness of the situation and urged and pleaded with to meet the wage question, but "they apparently are not alive to their duties and responsibilities."

Secretary Wilson, in making public his statement, denied that the railroad strike had been discussed at the meeting of the cabinet with President Wilson yesterday, or that action on the strike was delayed after he had declared that the situation was so improved that steps by the government were unnecessary.

After the cabinet meeting, Secretary Payne, who now is head of the Railroad Administration, stated in the presence of Secretary Wilson that he had made a report to the President on the strike situation, but that no action was taken after Secretary Wilson had stated that the situation was improving.

WILSON URGES SPECIAL SESSION IN TENNESSEE

Washington, June 23.—President Wilson tonight sent a telegram to Governor Roberts, of Tennessee, urging that a special session of the Tennessee legislature be called to act on the Federal suffrage amendment.

The President in his telegram said: "It would be a real service to the party and to the nation if it is possible for you under the peculiar provision of your State constitution, having in mind the recent decision of the Supreme Court in the Ohio case, to call a special session of the legislature of Tennessee to consider the suffrage amendment. Allow me to urge this very earnestly."

The State constitution of Tennessee has a provision prohibiting action by the State legislature on a Federal constitutional amendment except when the legislature is in session.

Legal authorities have been quoted as holding that such a provision was invalidated by the Supreme Court's recent decision in the Ohio referendum case.

MANAGERS FOR GARDNER AND MORRISON TO MEET BICKETT

Raleigh, N. C., June 24.—E. Crawford Biggs, manager for Max Gardner and Heriot Clarkson, manager for Cameron Morrison, will meet Governor Bickett in the executive office at eight tonight, to consider the advisability of calling off the joint debate scheduled to be held here Monday night.

The governor and numerous party leaders have urged the cancellation of the debate to preserve party harmony.

A severe hail storm visited the section of county between LeGrange and Ayden last night, and approximately 22,000 acres of tobacco were destroyed.

AUTHORITIES STILL INVESTIGATING THE KILLING OF DWYER

Police Conducting Search in Downtown Section of Detroit for Clues.

Detroit, June 23.—Authorities investigating the killing of August Dwyer, of Middlesboro, Ky., a traveling auditor of the United Mine Workers of America, in a downtown law office last night, today were questioning further the party of lawyers who met in the office during the evening.

Meanwhile Frank H. Dohany, prominent attorney and bank director, aid to have been left alone with the union official when the party broke up, was in the psychopathic ward of a local hospital with a guard of detectives stationed at his bedside. Dohany was taken into custody at his summer home at Pine Lake, near here, a few hours after the crime was discovered.

He told the police he had found Dwyer on the floor of the office and lifted him into a chair. Dwyer was still in the chair, Dohany said, when he left the office. When discovered last night the body was stretched upon the floor.

An examination performed at the morgue this morning showed death was caused by concussion of the brain and not by strangulation, as at first reported.

Among the persons questioned by the authorities today was Mrs. Margaret Zink, a janitress. She told the police last night she had heard men quarreling in the law office and when she looked into the room she saw two men struggling on the floor, one of them brandishing a bottle over the other's head.

PERSONAL LIBERTY TO BE DRY SLOGAN IN SAN FRANCISCO

Compromise Prohibition Plank Receives Interest of Leading Men.

LIVELY TIME EXPECTED IN OPENING SESSIONS

Prohibition Forces Will Cling to Position Persistently It Is Said.

San Francisco, June 24.—A Volunteer construction corps of platform builders was busy today whittling out planks which they believed would meet the needs of the Democratic National Convention in expressing its views as to prohibition enforcement. Leaders, including Chairman Cummings, of the National Committee, were in agreement that this question would monopolize the center of the convention stage until it was settled, Mr. Cummings expressed the opinion that it would be the only issue to be carried to the convention floor.

Information discussion by delegates shows several schools of thought among the anti-bone dry advocates as to how the question should be approached. They vary from the States rights stand taken by Governor Edwards, of New Jersey, to proposals that complete prohibition be proceeded directly toward modifying the one half of the present alcoholic content restriction.

The most pronounced school of thought at the moment, however, is one which appeared today to have the most definite shape, was the one in Washington and designed to:

SAYS WILSON NEED NOT RECEIVE ONLY SLIGHT ATTENTION

Bryan Declares that McAdoo Is Handicapped for Presidential Nomination

BELIEVES PRESIDENT WON'T BE CONSIDERED

Thinks Nominee Will be Staunch Supporter of Woman Suffrage Movement

Lincoln, Neb., June 23.—Discussing possible democratic candidates for the presidency, Wm. J. Bryan, in an article in his newspaper, The Commoner, declares that Wm. G. McAdoo is handicapped as a candidate "by his close relationship with the president," while President Wilson himself, he says, "need not be considered."

Asserting that Mr. McAdoo is also handicapped by "his silence on the tariff treaty," Mr. Bryan declares Mr. McAdoo is unable to call to his support "those to whom the president's candidacy appealed with special force, and that he would 'furnish an easy target for all of the president's enemies' in the article says, however, that Mr. McAdoo has considerable strength among wage earners.

Referring to President Wilson, Mr. Bryan says that "while wage hints and suggestions have been thrown out by no one claiming to speak for the president or near enough to him to be deemed to express his wishes, he has not announced his candidacy."

Mr. Bryan is eliminated from the list of candidates whom Mr. Bryan considers "available" while Senator C. C. Chalmers, and Secretary of Agriculture Meredith are described as being "among the few available men thus far mentioned."

To be available this year, Mr. Bryan asserts, a candidate must be known to be for woman suffrage, for prohibition and "against Wall street."

ARMENIAN LEADER TAKES ISSUE WITH TURKISH PREMIER

Mosul as Part of Its Province as Stated.

TURKISH POPULATION MIXED WITH THE KURD

Vahan Cardashian Declares His Nation is Taking Care of Many Refugees.

New York, June 24.—Vahan Cardashian, of the American Committee for the Independence of Armenia takes issue with the recent statement of Damad Ferid Pasha, Premier of Turkey and brother-in-law of the Sultan, as cabled from Constantinople. The Turkish Premier stated that the provinces of Van, Bitlis and Mosul, said to be claimed by the Armenians have only five percent of Armenians and that the leaders of the Turkish Nationalist movement were not really Turks but adventurers from other countries. Concerning this Mr. Cardashian says:

"We do not claim Mosul. That is a part of Mesopotamia. In the provinces of Van, Bitlis and Erzerum there was in 1914, a Turk and Kurd population of 551,000 as against 581,000 Armenians. Today, there is a Turk and Kurd population of only 90,000 in those three provinces and possibly 4,000 or 5,000 Armenians. But there are 280,000 Armenians from these provinces who have taken refuge within the boundaries of the Armenian Republic. And also over 1,000,000 Armenians from these provinces have been found in other countries."

Mr. Cardashian, who is a Turk and his parents were Armenians, and were Deputies, the parents of David Rastem, whom he presented as a Moslem, was the director of Turkish propaganda during the Great War. "I do not know who he is. But, the majority of the Turks are of foreign extraction. Of the 33 Grand Viziers up to 1900 seventeen were of foreign extraction."

Senator from Virginia Arrives in San Francisco to Begin Activity.

San Francisco, June 23.—Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, choice of administration leaders for chairman of the Democratic convention's resolutions committee, arrived from Washington tonight and began a series of conferences with other delegates regarding the platform.

He declined to make any statement about his platform planks, over which there may be a contest, or to give any indication whether he brought any new message from the White House. By many of those here he is regarded as having been commissioned as the President's spokesman as far as the platform is concerned.

Soon after his arrival Senator Glass took dinner privately with Chairman Cummings, of the National Committee, and Representative Cordell Hull, of Tennessee. A long talk followed and it generally was assumed that every phase of the platform situation, including the threatened open fight on prohibition, was considered in detail.

Messrs J. B. James and J. S. Willard left this morning for Lenoir to attend the Home Building and Loan Association convention.

BICKETT APPEALS TO BOTH MANAGERS TO CANCEL DEBATE

Asks Clarkson and Biggs to Avoid Debate in Interest of Party Harmony.

JUDGE BIGGS DECLARES IT'S UP TO MORRISON

Shelby Man Did Not Seek Debate, But is Willing for Morrison to Withdraw

Raleigh, June 23.—In a letter addressed jointly to Judge J. Crawford Biggs, manager for O. Max Gardner, and to Heriot Clarkson, manager for Cameron Morrison, Governor T. W. Bickett appealed to both gubernatorial aspirants yesterday, in the interest of party harmony, to call off the joint debate between the candidates scheduled for next Monday night in the City Auditorium.

Neither had replied to the Governor late last night. Mr. Clarkson declined either to admit or deny that he had received any communication from Governor Bickett, but Judge Biggs stated that he had received the letter and took the position that Mr. Gardner was not the challenger in the debate, and could not ask that it be called off. The Gardner manager declined to make public the letter.

"Mr. Gardner did not seek the debate in the first place," said Judge Biggs when questioned, "and was reluctant to enter into a joint discussion with a brother Democrat. We are not running from a debate with Mr. Gardner. Morrison wishes to withdraw his name, he will and Mr. Gardner willing to call off the debate."

It was understood last night that both Mr. Clarkson and Judge Biggs would be asked to confer with the Governor upon his return from Louisville tonight. Mr. Clarkson, asked if he had been invited to attend a conference, and if he intended to attend, stated that he was always ready to attend any conference in the interest of party harmony. Judge Biggs said that no conference had been suggested to him, but that he would be glad to attend, if such a request was made of him.

"Spectacular but exceedingly unwise" is the way Robert N. Page, former congressman and recent gubernatorial candidate, characterizes the scheduled Morrison-Gardner debate. Mr. Page, who received the thirty thousand votes in the first primary that O. Max Gardner and Cameron Morrison are fighting over in the second, adds, in a telegram to The News and Observer, that "these gentlemen and their managers will be held to account by all Good more interested in good government than in personal differences of candidates."

Announcement of the arrangements for the debate yesterday morning brought an immediate reaction in Democratic circles. The majority opinion, expressed through State offices and local Democrats, was a frank opposition to the joint discussion. Several Democrats of wisdom and long political experience expressed the contrary opinion that the debate will serve to clear the air and offer an example in moderation for the more zealous friends of each candidate.

Governor Bickett, who has been agreed upon by the managers of the two candidates as the presiding officer had not been formally requested to serve. Governor Bickett, reached by telephone in Louisville last night declared he had no statement to make concerning the debate.

YAQUI INDIANS ARE GETTING READY FOR MEXICAN TROUBLE

Mexican Revolutionists Adds Thousand Indians to the Sonora Troops.

Mexico City, June 24.—Once again the monotonous but ominous "ton-ton-ton" of the Yaqui Indians is being heard outside the confines of Sonora.

General Plutarco Elias Calles, provisional secretary of war and marine for the new revolution, is taking with him more than a thousand of "Sonora's finest" on his 1,000-mile trip from Agua Prieta to Mexico City to assume the duties of his new office.

The strumming of the Yaqui drums long has been a cause of uneasiness among many of Mexico's other soldiers. Bearing the reputation of being a fearless and ferocious fighter, the Yaqui has frequently been said to be able to put his enemy to flight by the mere sound of his burro-skin "tambo"

There is another and less sinister side, however, to the life of a Yaqui soldier. He carries his home life with him to the battlefield. His wife, his children, his birds all form part of his impediments.

When not in action, the Yaqui warriors do not present formidable figures. They may be distinguished from other tribes chiefly by their peculiar copper hue and the band of bright red they wear around their hats. The routine of their camp life is quiet and orderly.

The Yaqui lad is reared in an atmosphere of war. Should his father fall in battle, the boy picks up the ancestral rifle and begins the realization of his martial destiny.

Mr. W. W. Lee, of Richmond, is visiting friends in the city.

GARDNER TO MEET CAM MORRISON IN POLITICAL DEBATE

Candidates for Governor to Speak at Raleigh Auditorium Monday Night.

GOVERNOR BICKETT TO BE ASKED TO PRESIDENT MANAGERS OF TWO GOVERNORIAL ASPIRANTS MEET AFTER EXCHANGE OF LETTERS.

Raleigh, June 23.—Cameron Morrison's challenge to O. Max Gardner to mount his oratorical artillery on the same platform with him brought results last night in a formal arrangement for a joint debate to be held in the city auditorium in Raleigh next Monday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Mr. Morrison will speak first, and under the arrangements, will be allowed one hour. Like time is allowed Mr. Gardner, and rejoinders are limited to 30 minutes each. Governor T. W. Bickett will be asked to preside.

Exchange of telegrams between candidate and manager, and of letters between Judge J. Crawford Biggs, manager of Mr. Gardner, and Heriot Clarkson, manager for Mr. Morrison, brought the two managers together in Judge Biggs' office last night, and after nearly two hours conference they emerged smilingly from the inner office and announced that a debate would be held here and that after Monday night each candidate would continue his announced schedule of speaking engagements, pursuing their ways apart until the primary next Saturday week.

Talk of a joint debate between the two gubernatorial aspirants began at Roxboro Saturday night when Mr. Morrison, speaking in behalf of his candidacy, and replying in part to the attack made upon him by Henry A. Page at Aberdeen earlier in the week, declared that he would be glad to meet Mr. Gardner on the platform and if the latter had personal attacks to make let them thresh the matter out there.

Monday night in Waynesville Mr. Gardner took up the cue and declared that he was ready to meet Mr. Morrison in joint debate at any time or in any place, but that he was loath to jeopardize party harmony by a debate with another candidate within the party. Upon reading reports of Mr. Gardner's Waynesville speech yesterday morning Mr. Morrison directed his manager to see Judge Biggs here and make arrangements with him for a "joint debate beginning next Monday."

Letters exchanged between managers yesterday brought the matter to a conference stage.

Dear Sir—I have received the following telegram from Hon. Cameron Morrison: "Troy, N. C., June 22, 1920. Hon. Heriot Clarkson, Harborborough Hotel, Raleigh, N. C. See Judge Biggs. Arrange joint discussion, beginning next Monday. (Signed) Cameron Morrison." I will be pleased to arrange joint discussion at once.

(Signed) HERIOT CLARKSON.
Biggs to Clarkson.
To this, Judge Biggs replied:
Hon. Heriot Clarkson, Mgr.,
Raleigh, N. C.
My dear Mr. Clarkson:—Replying to your letter of this date, handed to me in person this afternoon, I beg to say that I construe this to be a challenge from Mr. Morrison for a joint discussion with Mr. Gardner, and I am authorized by Mr. Gardner to accept the challenge for a joint discussion to be held in Raleigh next Monday night. I shall be pleased to meet you at 8:30 this evening either at my office or at your office to arrange the details.
Cordially yours,
(Signed) J. CRAWFORD BIGGS.

Practice of Polygamy Being Reduced Through Better Instruction.

Manila, P. I., June 23.—Practice of polygamy in the Philippine Islands is being reduced through education of girls of the leading families of the outlying provinces, according to Frank W. Carpenter, retiring governor of the department of Mindanao and Sulu. Mr. Carpenter is here to turn over administration of his office to the secretary of the Interior who will act through the Bureau of Non-Christian Tribes in accordance with a new territorial law. This law leaves in effect a treaty under which the Sultan of Sulu renounced all pretensions to temporal sovereignty but gained recognition as ecclesiastical head of the Mohammedan church in the Sulu archipelago. The treaty guarantees to the Sultan and his people "the same religious freedom had by all adherents of all other religious creeds, the practice of which is not in violation of the United States." basic principles of the laws of the State.

"It is important to note," said Carpenter in one of his messages written as governor, "that this includes a limitation as to religious practice which necessarily includes the abandonment of polygamy. There can be no question that it will disappear as the relative number of persons of the two sexes reach an approximate natural equality."
"An effort to impose upon the people of the Sultan at this time the invalidation of polygamous marriages heretofore contracted, the prohibition at this time of polygamy or the discontinuance of divorce, must unavoidably result in the active resistance of a people imbued with fanatic determination to die rather than submit to a privation of their religious liberty in matters they believe to be fundamental and sanctioned by divine authority."

BERLIN NO LONGER ATTRACTIVE TO VISITORS

Berlin, June 23.—As a center of attraction for visitors after from outside, Berlin is on the wane, said chairman Landau, of the City's Foreign Travel Bureau, which held its annual meeting here recently.

Landau stated that although in the year under review 1,380,000 strangers visited the capital they were on the whole not the class of visitors that were desired. Berlin, he added, had become hated in the provinces and no traveler came to Berlin for pleasure. More over there was an alarming exodus of industrial undertakings from Berlin. The authorities, he said, must wake up and offer favors and such like as an inducement for the desirable class of visitors to come to Berlin.

Cameron Morrison For Governor

Great Endorsement by the People of Richmond and Mecklenburg Counties—His Boyhood and Present Home.

We, the undersigned citizens of Mecklenburg county, where Cameron Morrison now lives, and Richmond county, his former home, urge his nomination for Governor of North Carolina in the Democratic primary. He is an able and fearless champion of constitutional government as interpreted by the Democratic party. For nearly thirty years he has served the party and the people of North Carolina with distinguished ability. His public utterances give proof of the soundness of his views on political and economic questions; and the boldness with which he speaks marks him for leadership of the sort so badly needed at the present time. We ask you to vote for Mr. Morrison's nomination on account of his party service, his sound statesmanship, his abilities as a debater and his wisdom as a political leader. Knowing him as we do, we believe he would make our State a great Governor, fair to capital, fair to labor; with his heart, soul and mind devoted to the happiness and prosperity of the whole people.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF NORTH CAROLINA:

I publish the above statement of leading citizens in all walks in life from Mecklenburg and Richmond counties showing the esteem in which Hon. Cameron Morrison, candidate for Governor is held by his home people. I have tried since I have been here to prevent any untruths from being circulated on any candidate. There went out from the city of Raleigh a mass of untruths about Hon. Cameron Morrison on Saturday, June 12, 1920, which have been circulated all over Eastern North Carolina and elsewhere. These untruths were all scattered at the same time, and I heard they were to be scattered, and immediately I received word from all over the East and elsewhere that they had been scattered. They were scattered far and wide for an unholy purpose. Besides these untruths that have been broadcast over the East another diabolical untruth has been scattered, which is that some of the supporters of Hon. Cameron Morrison had a cartoon of Mr. Gardner going to the polls between two negro women. I have investigated this matter thoroughly and denounce it as a base untruth. They have gone so far as to try to insinuate and state that Mr. Morrison has changed his personal views on woman suffrage. No man has ever fought this issue stronger than Mr. Morrison, and they are now trying to misrepresent his personal views on this subject by reason of the fact that he is a party Democrat and stands on the platform of his party.

I desire to state further that I have known the Hon. Cameron Morrison for thirty years. I desire to make a statement that is personal and I ask the indulgence of the public in doing this: My father was a brave Confederate soldier, was in Hoke's Division and was with Johnson's army when it surrendered at Greensboro, and commanded the Sharp Shooters in the defense of Fort Sumter in 1863. He served through the entire war, and was wounded several times, and I had six uncles in the war.

I was on the Democratic executive committee of the State for 1890 to 1901 and in the White Supremacy Legislature and voted and helped to save the East from negro domination, and know the great work Hon. Cameron Morrison did in redeeming the State. I have never scratched a Democratic ticket in my life, and have always voted and stood by the Democratic party, as my father did before me.

Before I volunteered to help my friend, Hon. Cameron Morrison, I knew his life work, record and character and his unselfish conduct in behalf of friends and even of foes, I was obsessed with the belief that he deserved this nomination and ought to be elected Governor of this great State.

I have been here nearly three months, working 17 hours a day, Sunday excepted, in his behalf and will be here until sunset July 3. The West, as between Mr. Gardner and Mr. Morrison, has said in unmistakable language by their vote that they want Mr. Morrison for Governor of North Carolina. I call upon the public. It was said by the opposition the night before the primary and numerous times before that they would win over Mr. Page and Mr. Morrison both in the first primary. It was scattered over the State that they had won by ten thousand majority, then the word came three thousand, then composed of both Democrats and Republicans, the chairman of which is Col. Wilson G. Lamb, a man of unimpeachable character, and showed that Mr. Morrison lead Mr. Gardner by 87 votes.

Mr. Gardner has requested a second primary. I shall continue this fight on a high plane. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison to denounce the untruths, do it with forbearance and judgment.

I think the general public will bear me out in saying that the predictions that I have heretofore made have been correct, and I desire to state now that 75 per cent at least of Hon. Robt. N. Page's supporters in North Carolina will vote for Mr. Morrison.

People of North Carolina want to campaign on a high plane, worthy of a great State. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison and Mr. Page, as there can be no victory for Mr. Morrison without the Page support, and it will be a joint victory of Page and Morrison supporters to actively get into this fight and work until sunset July 3, and I make a prediction, as I did before, that Mr. Morrison would lead in the first primary—that he will be the next Governor of North Carolina.

I call upon his followers over the State to quit their business and get into this fight, and be at the polls July 3, and see that this great Statesman and high-minded North Carolinian is elected Governor of this great Commonwealth.

THURSDAY, JUNE 24, 1920.

A wet plank is a political platform these days would come so near to the precedent mark that it would become warped from sheer surprise.

Tennessee may prant about what it's going to do for woman suffrage, but just watch North Carolina, and be convinced for one time that the old state has come into its own.

If Senator Harding possesses so many noble qualities of statesmanship and christian virtues, as Chairman Hays says, we can't see why in the world he is kicking up such a fuss about it. A good man never talks about how good he is for people generally find that out without investigations.

President Wilson may not be contemplating any third term participation but when that convention gets in session in San Francisco, he may change his mind. Precedents are in vogue these days, so electing a president for a third time won't be so much out of the ordinary after all, especially if the people want him like they do Mr. Wilson.

The Kinston Daily News says that "A farmer who heard Cameron Morrison, the candidate for governor speak at Pink Hill, said that he would not have missed that speech for a hundred acre crop of tobacco. Evidently liked "Cam." Judging by the way sentiment is swinging out in the rural district, they all like the way Morrison talks, and intend to back him to the limit at the polls.

The remarkable increase in tobacco acreage over that of last year is this county should inspire the farmer to greater activity in the future. The crop this year, regardless of early predictions, promises to be a good one, for recent rains have done wonders and given surprising life to plants. This year will be one of the banner years for the county, and while the yield may be curtailed to some extent there is little doubt but that prices will make up for the shortage in every way. Pitt county leads the state in the production of bright leaf and this fact alone is inspiring enough to make every planter think more seriously about future problems of development.

The present coal shortage should cause people in this section of the country to begin laying in a good supply of wood for the coming winter months. North Carolina is particularly blessed along this line, and no matter how severe the coal situation becomes, the dense forests will furnish adequate fuel for the homes in event factories can obtain a limited supply of coal to continue operation. However, no person is assured of obtaining large quantities of wood, for the menacing labor shortage will be equally as severe as during the present, and teams and men to do the hauling are not to be found at every road crossing. The situation will be serious at the best, so those who can get wood now will do the wise thing by placing it on the woodpile before the demand becomes pressing.

CONFUSING PHRASEOLOGY.

The phraseology employed by certain members of the Republican party is becoming so directly evasive that not even members of the party can follow the expressions without getting confused in the haze of uncertainty surrounding the facts presented to the reading public. Senator Harding, the party nominee, Herbert Hoover and others, are dealing with the most dense expressions in their vocabulary, and instead of presenting the public with clear-cut, forcible assertions, they continue to discuss important conditions in a way that not even leaders of the party can comprehend. The league of nations and the peace treaty have been subject to many sarcastic remarks hardly capable of interpretation, and while naturally the public has given such assertions little credit there are some who have and who will continue to do so until campaign time. The Democrats are working on an entirely different plan. They have nothing to fear. The record is clear, so when they speak, conviction is at the bottom of every utterance, and there is no surreptitious ending to fear. Every assertion pertaining to campaign issues is clear and unmistakable, and no one is necessarily lost because interpretation of certain forms of phraseology are impossible. This is the way of the Democrats. When they fight, they fight, they fight in the open, on the square, without fear of public condemnation, and when they have anything of benefit to humanity they handle it with sincerity, believing in returning good for good. The approaching campaign is going to be hotly contested by the Republicans, but unless they avoid the equivocal and become more sincere it is certain people will fear the density and gloom of the political atmosphere and accept the open statements of the Democratic party. President Wilson has been an unerring guide of the party during his administration, and in the face of scathing criticism from opponents, he has held the banner above the dust and grime of unprincipled political endeavors. This fact is going to do more for Democratic success in the approaching campaign than any other one thing, and for that reason it is up to every party member to follow closely in the pathway blazed by the illustrious leader of the nation.

MISCONSTRUED CONDITIONS.

The following from yesterday's edition of the Kinston Daily News may sound pleasing to those not acquainted with conditions in Greenville, but to those who know of the city's development in the past ten years it holds an entirely different meaning: "The census man gave Greenville a population of 15,772, against 1,671 over the last figure. With this good news at hand and her baseball team tied for first place with Williamston and Scotland Neck, Greenville can afford to wear a smile." The News is right about the smile concerning the baseball situation but as to the census, it misses the mark. Greenville, like Kinston, has done some mighty enviable developing in the past several years, its population has increased in proportion, but the census department failed to make an accurate count and underestimated the population to no little extent. The town is one of the best in the state, filled with progressive, broad-minded, good-hearted people, and deserves the credit for what it has done and is doing. The News, we are sure, made the assertion in the very best of faith, but like other towns, if they were in our position, we desire to call attention to certain facts which have been too obscured to be comfortable.

SAYS WILSON NEED NOT RECEIVE ONLY SLIGHT ATTENTION

(Continued) As to Attorney General Palmer, Mr. Bryan says he entered the campaign in a position to "deal sternly with the profiteer and an expectant public stood ready to applaud, but the profiteer seems to have things all his own way and the attorney general is now suffering from the reaction." He adds the attorney general is "unfortunate, too, in having to espouse the ratification of the treaty without reservation."

MR. H. A. WILLIAMS

INVENTS HEEL FOR SHOES

Mr. H. A. Williams who lives on Route 6, in this county, has received from the government a right to make a heel attachment for shoes. Mr. Williams has been working on the heel for several years and on 27th of March 1919, he applied for the right to make it.

The heel is made into two parts, the part which fastens to the shoe is made of steel and the bottom part is made of hard metal, no tacks and screws are required. It is a spring heel and fastens on three sides of the shoe, locking in the middle of the front leaving the inside hollow. In 1872 Mr. Williams invented the goose neck hoe, and has made many improvements on farming instruments especially the Plow.

THE TENT THEATRE

Speak well of Melville's Comedians. That Melville's comedians, who open a tent theatre on the lot rear of the Post office June 28th, are good may be judged from the following review of their work given by the Athens, Ga., Herald, recently.

"The first performance of Melville's comedians pleased more than 2000 people last night in the big $10,000 tent on the high school campus. Between 500 and 1000 were turned away because the management feared the tent would be overcrowded. The title of the play was "The Broken Commandment," and that it pleased the audience was proven by the hearty applause that greeted every act. Best Melville comedian was the hit of the evening, but Miss Lillian D. Armond and Joe Haggerty and others of the company also received hearty approval. The company as a whole was good and the best that has ever shown in this city.

There were a variety of acts, displaying comedians, musicians and actors of much ability. While of course the play by the company of thirty is the headliner at each performance, the audience is cheered up and kept from a tiresome wait between acts by pleasing specialties.

GENERAL TYSON FOR THE PRESIDENCY

The following facts set forth by supporters of General Tyson will be of interest to people of this city who are acquainted with him, and who have followed with interest his gradual rise to pre-eminence in the state of Tennessee:

Brigadier General Lawrence D. Tyson—born and reared on a farm in North Carolina.

Educated in a country school. Worked on a farm and in a country store.

Won West Point appointment over eleven competitors.

Graduated from West Point in 1888. Saw 8 years' service among Indians in West.

Taught military science for three years at University of Tennessee, and studied law at the same time.

Resigned from U. S. Army in 1894 to practice law and engage in business.

Raised a regiment and served in Porto Rico in 1898-99 as Colonel 6th chairman board of directors, American Cotton Manufacturers' Association, and was President Appalachian Exposition 1911.

Speaker Tennessee House of Representatives, 190-4.

Came within four votes of election to U. S. Senate from Tennessee, 1913.

Brigadier and Inspector General, General, Tennessee National Guard, 1917. Commissioned Brigadier General National Army, commanding 50th Brigade 30th (Old Hickory) Division, September, 1917.

Served in Belgium and Northern France in the Ypres-Lys Canal sector, in Picardy in the Somme sector, and commanded his brigade in the great attack made by the 27th and 30th divisions when the Impregnable Hindenburg Line was first smashed on the Cambrai-St. Quentin Canal, September 29, 1918.

Won distinguished service medal for his heroic service.

Loved and admired by every man in his brigade, made up of soldiers from 42 states.

General Tyson is a soldier, a lawyer, a business man, and, above all, a true American and a Democrat—adhering to the time-honored principles of the Democratic party.

TROUSANDS PROCLAIM THE MERITS OF PE-RU-NA

Read Their Letters

Mrs. Martha C. Dale, R. F. D. 1, Cannon, Del., writes: "I am entirely cured of chronic catarrh of the stomach and bowels by PE-RU-NA."

Mr. J. Bayer, Glendale, Oregon: "There is no medicine like PE-RU-NA for catarrhal deafness."

Mrs. Kate Marquis, Middleburg, Ohio: "PE-RU-NA cured me of catarrh of the head and throat."

Mr. J. H. Collins, Wesson, Mississippi: "PE-RU-NA makes me feel vigorous and able to work without that tired, weak feeling I usually have otherwise."

Mrs. P. Ludvigsen, Austin, Minnesota: "I got rid of my liver trouble and can eat anything since taking PE-RU-NA."

Mrs. L. Hearing, 283 East 169th St., New York City: "For catarrh of the head and stomach, I have found PE-RU-NA better than any other medicine."

Mr. W. H. Edgar, 49 Cooper St., Atlanta, Georgia: "PE-RU-NA cured me after I had suffered fifteen years with rheumatism."

Mrs. Leona Dodd, R. No. 3, Medon, Tennessee: "PE-RU-NA is a grand medicine for coughs and colds."

So many diseases are due to catarrh and catarrhal conditions, makes PE-RU-NA the best medicine in the world to have on hand for emergencies and general health protection. Thousands of families are never without a bottle of PE-RU-NA or a box of PE-RU-NA Tablets in the medicine cabinet.

That is the safe way. You can buy PE-RU-NA anywhere in tablet or liquid form.

Tallest Building In The Wo

(Outside of New York City)

The Home office Building of the Union Central Life Insurance Company of Cincinnati, Ohio is the tallest Building in the world (outside of New York City).

The Union Central Life Insurance Company has been issuing Life Policies for more than fifty years, and has the lowest premium (participating) rate of that of any other American Company except one and that is the Mutual Benefit of Newark, N. J.

The Union Central is not the oldest Life Insurance Company, but old enough. Not the largest, but large enough.

This agency sold delivered and paid for TWO HUNDRED AND TWENTY FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR THE MONTH OF MAY. More than any individual agent has ever sold before in month since insurance has been in existence in North Carolina.

More than ONE HUNDRED PER CENT OF THIS AMOUNT was sold to old policy holders. Some who bought from the Union Central thirty years ago, some twenty years ago, and some ten years ago and still some who bought last year which shows satisfied policy holders. The largest policy in May was for $25,000.00 and the smallest was for $2500.00.

Besides of this large production for the Union Central I stand 54 for paid for business in the Philadelphia Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia, for the month of May.

Get the rates on Union Central Policies and you will be convinced that they are cheaper.

Do not worry about your life insurance, but see C. L. Wilkinson and let him explain the new forms which the Union Central are now issuing.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS SELECTED FOR GROUPS
Two Committees to Arrange for Notification Seremonies Immediately.

Washington, June 22.—Management of the national Republican campaign was entrusted today to an executive committee of 21 members, headed by Chairman Hays of the party's national committee. Seven women have places on the executive committee.

Announcement of the membership of the executive committee, together with the composition of two committees to arrange for the notification of Senator Harding, the party's presidential nominee, and of Governor Coolidge, the vice-presidential candidate, ended a two days' conference which Mr. Harding, Chairman Hays and a special sub-committee of the national committee participated.

While the sub-committee was concluding its conferences, Senator Harding received a group of suffragists and in reply to their request for a statement of his position on the suffrage question, declared that while he could not with propriety attempt to force any State to hasten action on the Federal suffrage amendment, he would recommend ratification should any State official seek his opinion.

TELEGRAPH HAS RAPID GROWTH

Government Report Shows 1, 888,793 Miles of Wire Used by 21 Companies.

BIG INCREASE IN MESSAGES

Last Five-Year Period Shows 45.7 Per Cent More Telegrams—Par Value of the Capital Stock is $106,360,237.

Washington.—According to a report just issued by Director Sam L. Rogers of the bureau of the census, department of commerce, the 21 commercial land telegraph systems in the United States in 1917 operated 241,012 miles of pole line, comprising 1,888,793 miles of wire; sent 151,725,238 messages, and employed 47,227 persons, to whom were paid salaries and wages amounting to $36,302,140.

This report, which is issued under the title, "Telegraphs and Municipal Electric Fire Alarm and Police Patrol Signaling Systems," was prepared under the supervision of Eugene F. Hartley, chief statistician for manufacturers, and is the fourth of a series of quinquennial reports on the telegraph systems of the country.

The pole-line mileage in 1917 was less by 2.6 per cent than in 1912, but was greater by six-tenths of 1 per cent than in 1907. The wire mileage, however, showed an increase of 4.1 per cent as compared with 1912 and of 19.7 per cent over 1907.

Big Increase in Messages.
The increase in the number of messages was much greater—45.7 per cent during the last five-year period and 53.1 per cent during the ten years from 1907 to 1917. The number of employees increased by 39.2 per cent between 1912 and 1917, and by 34.9 per cent during the period 1907-17 and the corresponding percentages of increase in their salaries and wages were 59.2 and 124.2.

The number of telegraph offices in 1917 was 28,865, a decrease of 6.2 per cent as compared with 1912 and of seven-tenths of 1 per cent as compared with 1907. The total income from telegraph traffic was $91,312,567, an increase of 74.5 per cent over 1912 and of 140.8 per cent as compared with 1907; the income from all other sources was $1,641,933; the total expenses, including charges for depreciation and sinking funds, were $30,823,970, an increase of 52.9 per cent over 1912 and of 111.4 per cent over 1907, and the net income was $12,125,400, an increase of 253.4 per cent as compared with 1912 and of 113.7 per cent over 1907.

The par value of the outstanding capital stock of the companies was $106,360,237, a decrease of 1.7 per cent as compared with 1912, but an increase of 4 per cent over 1907.

Printing Telegraph Comes In.
The foregoing figures relate only to commercial telegraph companies, and thus exclude the wire and pole line wholly owned and operated by railroads, and also exclude the equipment and telegraph business of the various press associations which lease and operate wires for dispensing news.

During the five-year period 1912-1917 the printing telegraph came into extended use by telegraph companies, press associations and railroads. The printing telegraph consists essentially of a sending instrument equipped with a keyboard similar to that of a typewriter, electrically connected with a receiving instrument in such a manner that the latter automatically reproduces what is typewritten on the sending instrument. Without the printing telegraph it would have been difficult or impossible to handle the increased telegraph business during the great war.

TARBORO LOSES TO GREENVILLE TEAM IN SPLENDID GAME

Home Run by Sheppard and Two Other Hits in Ninth Decides in Visitors' Favor.

In probably one of the hardest fought contests of the season Greenville yesterday evening defeated Tarboro at the fair grounds in that city by the score of 3 to 2. Tarboro had the lead on Greenville until the ninth inning, when with two men down and two strikes Sheppard tapped one of Champion's speedy offerings into center field for a home run, tying the score 2 to 2. Kittrell, the next man up for the visitors hit for one base, stealing second and third, and scored when Wilkins slipped a hot liner through first base. This almost marvelous performance on the part of the visiting team immediately produced a state of confusion on the entire diamond and in the grandstand too, for visiting fans began a deafening clamor which continued for several minutes without interruption. The two runs were sent around the home circuit in such quick succession that Greenville had snatched the victory from Tarboro before the amazed crowd could realize what had happened, but when the victory loomed forth in its reality, cheers burst from a thousand throats almost simultaneously, and continued frantically for several moments.

The contest was one of the greatest since the league opened. Both clubs have been up against practically every other club in the league and when they met for the second time yesterday it was generally understood that the victorious team would find the victory one of the most difficult of the season. Barnes, for Greenville, probably never appeared better in the mound than in this game, for his under-handed curves foiled the best batters on the Tarboro team, and at no time permitted them to seriously threaten sending additional runners across the home plate. Both pitchers showed up in splendid form, Champion holding the visitors easily until the ninth frame when Sheppard, Kittrell and Wilkins landed on the sphere for the winning runs. Both clubs played fast and consistently in the field, and held runners uncomfortably close to the bases in every frame.

Greenville will play Tarboro again this evening, and it is expected that the contest will be equally as good as the one yesterday. Tarboro will put forth every effort to take this game and split even with Greenville, and Greenville in return will do everything to win the game and take first place in the standing of clubs, that is, if Scotland Nec-Hobgood loses out to Williamston. A good attendance is expected from this town, as the game yesterday caused the fever to spread more rapidly than any other time during the season.

APPLYING VANCE'S ADVICE: OTHER REASONS

Durham, N. C., June 16, 1920.
Editor The Daily Reflector:

I see that my old friend, Mr. James P. Cook, of Concord, is a candidate for State Auditor. If there is any virtue in Zeb Vance's saying that "the horse that pulled the plow should have some of the fodder," then it should be applied in this instance. If long faithful and unselfish service to the party, when he was in editorial harness with a paper that led Democrats to victory in the past, without reward, or the hope of reward, can be counted as a recommendation, then James P. Cook has some claim on those who he has helped into office. He has always been working for others. His greatest achievement was the idea, the planning and the establishment of the Jackson Training School for wayward boys. The State knows that work.

He is fully competent to fill the position to which he aspires—that of State Auditor. He is clean morally and mentally. He is thorough, painstaking and conscientious. He has the required ability to a marked degree, being thoroughly familiar with financial matters. He is the soul of honor and a friend to the friendless. In all matters affecting the best interest of the best interests of the State, socially morally an materially he has been deeply interested, lending encouragement and support, without stint. I give this as a tribute to a fellow worker in the field of State journalism, by one who knows what he has wrought with his pen and the unselfish service he has performed, and hope it will be the means of increasing his vote in the primary Saturday, July 3rd.

JAMES A. ROBINSON.

General Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina: "Friends having brought forward my friend, Mr. Jas. P. Cook, of Cabarrus, for the Democratic nomination to the office of State Auditor, I most heartily endorse his candidacy and commend this most worthy and splendidly-equipped gentleman to the enthusiastic support of my friends in North Carolina."
