VERMONT BODY TO SOON TAKE ACTION IN SUFFRAGE ISSUE

Governor May Probably Call Special Session of Legislature Soon.

HARDING'S CONFERENCE PRODUCES QUICK ACTION

Immediate Convening of Vermont Legislature is Now Anticipated.

Washington, July 1.—Governor Clement, of Vermont, after a conference here tonight with Senator Harding, the Republican presidential nominee, indicated that he would immediately call the Vermont legislature in special session to act on the Federal suffrage amendment.

The Vermont governor, while not stating definitely his course in the suffrage matter, was quoted as saying in a statement from Senator Harding's office that he "frankly confessed there was a preponderance of Republican advice in favor of a special session called to consider ratification."

Statements were issued by both Senator Harding and Governor Clement regarding the conference, which took place at the former's home. There was no statement by either as to whether the governor came to Washington at the invitation of the Republican candidate or on his own volition.

Senator Harding had the following to say regarding the conference:

"It gave me an opportunity to say to Governor Clement that I was deeply interested in the final disposition of the question of ratification and I told the governor frankly that if my advice was wanted, I would be glad to see Vermont Republicans close the great franchise reform. The women throughout the Nation are deeply interested in the national campaign and the ratification must be closed soon if they are universally to participate in the Federal election. I would be gratified, of course, to have Republican Vermont close the gap, but Governor Clement understands I was not trespassing on his authority in giving him such an opinion in the course of our conference."

Governor Clement, in his statement, said:

"I have been calling on Senator Harding and we discussed the state of the union agreeably, you can be sure, and we discussed suffrage ratification by Vermont. Our State Republican convention asked me to call the extra session. Chairman Hays has urged it on behalf of the national committee and many requests came to me from delegates to the national convention.

Naturally, I wanted Senator Harding's views and he suggested an early call. My reluctance is due to a feeling that Vermont prefers to change the fundamental laws very deliberately. We can only change our State Constitution by one direct appeal to the people and the favorable action of two legislatures. We are reluctant, therefore, to ratify by a legislature which was elected at a time when suffrage was not an issue."

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

PICNIC AT AMUZU PARK

Yesterday afternoon the students of the Memorial Baptist Sunday school met at 3:30 o'clock at the church to go to the Amuzu Park on a picnic. Trucks and cars were obtained for the purpose of furnishing children loads of fun going and coming in this manner. They enjoyed the bathing and boating immensely for about three hours. The pupils having carried lunches ate about 7 o'clock. After this another hour of enjoyment then they returned home, getting here about 8 o'clock.

FOREIGN INTEREST MUST NOT HINDER SHIPPING PROGRAM

Admiral Benson Warns Foreigners Not to Interfere With U. S. Plans.

NATION DETERMINED TO BUILD UP GOOD SERVICE

Development of Merchant Marine Must Continue Without Interference

Washington, July 1.—Warning foreign interests not to attempt interference with the development of the American merchant marine, Chairman Benson, of the Shipping Board, declared today that the board was determined to build up an American merchant marine as contemplated by the Jones shipping act despite threats and propaganda by such interests to defeat the law.

"The United States," said Admiral Benson, "is in earnest in its efforts to place within the ownership by United States citizens the control of at least a part of its traffic in imports and exports. If it should, by any possible means, be held that the departments of the government lack such authority as will insure their being able to protect American interests in such control, additional authority will be asked by the administration and undoubtedly will be granted by congress."

"Foreign carriers and those in the United States interested more in foreign than American institutions will do well to let sleeping dogs lie."

Admiral Benson's warning was sounded in a talk to representatives of Pacific Coast chambers of commerce and trade bodies and American railroads, who have been disturbed by threats of foreign carriers to divert business from American ports on the Pacific Coast, because of the section of the merchant marine act permitting a preferential rate over carriers within the United States on merchandise moving in export and import in American vessels.

CONVENTION GIVES SENATOR SIMMONS SPLENDID OVATION

Placed in Nomination by Newland, Followed by California Women.

San Francisco, July 1.—On the eve of balloting for the Presidential nominee, McAdoo supporters claim to have the situation in hand so as to put him over, although a combination of big State like New York and Illinois have enough votes against him to prevent nomination unless a rift can be made in their front.

Mrs. McCann, of California, seconded the nomination of Senator Simmons today after W. C. Newland had presented his name. The convention gave Simmons an ovation and the fair Californian with her charming manner got a big hand. The steering committee for the McAdoo forces is composed of S. B. Amidon, Kansas; Charles Boeschelstein, Illinois; T. B. Love, Texas; Cone Johnson, Texas; Jonette Shoushe, Kansas; A. W. McLean, North Carolina; Stuart Giboney, Connecticut; R. S. Whaley, South Carolina.

There is a feeling of tenseness in the convention over the nomination with a hard fight indicated. The seconding speeches for McAdoo brought applause from all parts of the auditorium which was more general than that for any other candidate.

Mrs. Inetta Brown, of West Virginia, seconding Davis' nomination, thrilled the convention with a speech that equaled the best made on the convention floor. Mayor Matthew P. Snyder, for four terms Democratic mayor in the Republican city of Los Angeles, who was born and reared in North Carolina, today invited the Tar Heel delegates to visit his city.

CONVENTION OPENS TODAY FOR IMPORTANT WORK FAR BEHIND REGULAR SCHEDULE

San Francisco, July 2.—A day behind schedule and the hardest and most important work still ahead, the Democratic convention resumed work today at ten o'clock to hear the report of the platform committee and face the inevitable floor fight over prohibition as well as fights over the league of nations and the Irish questions. Efforts to compose differences over wet and dry issues by the platform committee failed after hours of argument. It was announced finally that all proposals would be brought to open floor of the convention.

Under the program agreed upon Bryan will present his side in a speech limited to thirty minutes and Secretary Colby will present to committee managers his side in another thirty minutes. Arrangements, however, do not confine discussion to one hour for any one recognized by the chairman may speak thirty minutes.

The convention today faced the possibility of a program that might carry it far into night session and probably a brief recess for dinner. Whether the floor battles will be ended in time to take up balloting for nominee before the convention is forced to quit from sheer exhaustion, was question.

CHANCES GOOD FOR REDUCING TYPHOID FEVER DEATH RATE

Discoveries by Rockefeller Foundation to Decrease Mortality, It Is Said

New York, July 2.—Discoveries in connection with the origin and treatment of yellow fever, made by scientists of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research during 1919, indicate that "the chances are good of materially reducing the mortality of the disease," according to a partial review of the year's work of the institute, made public here today by its president, George E. Vincent.

Research work was conducted at Guayaquil, Ecuador, by Dr. Hideyo Noguchi, bacteriologist of the institute. He succeeded, by experiments with guinea pigs, the review stated, in cultivating from the blood, a minute organism, which he named "Leptospira icteroides—slim spiral, the jaundice maker." By means of this organism he was able to prepare a serum for treatment of the disease.

"This has been administered in a number of cases with apparently favorable effect," Mr. Vincent's report said. "It seems more than likely that a means of identifying yellow fever has been found, and that the chances are good of materially reducing the mortality of the disease which now ranges between 40 and 65 percent, and, furthermore, that vaccine can be made which apparently protects non-immunes against infection."

Citing the results accomplished in eliminating the disease, from Guayaquil which averaged 250 cases annually from 1812 to 1918, with 400 in 1918, the report added that no cases have appeared there since June 1, 1919.

"It is too early to affirm that yellow fever has been completely eradicated from Guayaquil," the review said. "Vigilance will not be relaxed for a year at least. Nevertheless, the possibilities of control have been convincingly demonstrated. Guayaquil, the chief seed-bed of yellow fever, has been free from the disease for months. The public has proclaimed its deliverance from a menace which had never been absent since 1842. General Gorgas' ambition to write 'The Last Chapter of Yellow Fever' seems no utopian dream."

The commissions created in Central American countries to regulate control measures will be continued through this year and concerted efforts will be made, the review declared, to guard against another outbreak.

CITY ALDERMEN IN MONTHLY MEETING HERE LAST NIGHT

Special Session Held Yesterday Morning for Installation of Aldermen.

LESTER JONES ELECTED CITY CHIEF OF POLICE

Chief Brewer to Act in Capacity of Assistant Chief in the Future.

A number of important matters were taken up at a double session of the board of aldermen conducted in this city yesterday morning and last night, the first session featuring in the installation of the new board of aldermen, and the last session consisting principally in the appointment of J. C. Tyson as town clerk, the appointment of Lester Jones as chief of police, and W. L. Brewer and J. L. Whitchard, assistant chiefs.

The following aldermen were installed to constitute the board for the year: C. W. Hearne, J. L. Hassell, W. A. Bowen, C. D. Tunstall, W. L. Hall, Z. P. Vandye, B. F. Tyson and G. W. B. Hadley. J. L. Hassell was appointed mayor pro-tem at a salary of $50 per year and A. H. Taft as treasurer at $50 per month. Mr. E. B. Higgs was elected a member of the Water & Light commission to succeed himself.

The installation of aldermen consumed the entire morning session, but last night the new board got down to business and succeeded in accomplishing a number of changes in the interest of the city.

It was decided that a town ditch should be dug from Eighth street to Evans street. Reports of city officers were read and approved. Will Cherry was allowed to move his house from its present location to Third street.

The fifth of July was resolved upon as a legal holiday, and for that reason adjourned on page four.

COMMITTEE DRAFT OF PLATFORM LAID BEFORE CONVENTION

Conflict Over Issue Regarded as Certain in Convention Session Today.

San Francisco, July 2.—The committee draft of the platform was laid before the convention today for adoption. Conflict in the convention is regarded as certain. Irish sympathizers among the delegates served notice that they would seek to have their platform re-written to include a plat declaration for the diplomatic recognition of the Irish Republic. Decisively defeated in efforts to force a bone dry declaration into the committee of structure, Bryan announced the purpose of renewing a battle on the floor. He also had several amendments to the committee planks to be presented to the convention, he added, but did not disclose them. It was a long document of more than seven thousand words. Efforts to produce a brief, emphatic statement of principles were balked at the outset. A wide range of subjects were treated, including agricultural, labor, soldier, relief and a score of domestic questions. The foremost plank was endorsing the league of nations, and condemning the Republican senate for having stood in the way of world peace.

The Irish plank merely renewed previous expressions of the Democratic party's sympathy with Irish aspirations for self-government. The Mexican plank urged that the New Mexican government be recognized when it proved its ability of maintaining order and signified a willingness to meet international obligations of protected foreigners. Claims of Republican economy were branded false pretense as another plank discussed "shocking disclosure lavish use of money" by candidates for presidential nomination.

LEAGUE DIRECTORS DISCUSS PLANS IN SPECIAL MEETING

Conrad Lanier Elected President, Succeeding W. H. Dail, Resigned

ANOTHER GAME ORDERED TO STRAIGHTEN PROTEST

Williamston and Tarboro to Play Another Game July 12 to Settle Issue.

Mr. J. C. Lanier was elected president of the Eastern Carolina Baseball Association at a meeting of the board of directors conducted in the chamber of commerce rooms in this city last night. The election resulted from the recent resignation of Mr. Haywood Dail who found it impossible to continue active duties as an official on account of pressing personal business considerations.

There were several other matters taken up for consideration during the meeting, chief among them being the protested game between Tarboro and Williamston which was played in Tarboro June 14th. The game was ordered thrown out completely, necessitating the playing of another game between the two towns during the first half of the series. Representatives from both towns were present and presented their side of the question, but the directors decided that there was sufficient room for protest to justify a second game.

The schedule for the second series which opens July 12th was adopted following short discussion of the direct bearing upon club. Its provisions are entirely different from those now in effect, for it provides for three game series instead of two. The revision of old schedule which became effective the early part of this week has brought about much traveling by the teams for one game series were included.

JOHNSTON COUNTY MURDERER TAKEN TO PRISON TODAY

Nile Manning, Alleged Murderer of Deputy Sheriff, Arrested Last Night.

Nile Manning, alleged murderer of a Johnston county deputy sheriff who has been at liberty under an assumed name for the past two years, was arrested at the home of his parents near Grimesland by Deputy Sheriff Jackson at an early hour this morning, later being taken to Smithfield by Sheriff Dudley to answer to the charge. The arrest resulted from a telephone message to the sheriff at an early hour this morning, in which it was stated that the man had been seen in the district, and had been tracked by officials from Johnston county who have been on his trail for several days.

Manning, who is about 40 years of age, killed the Johnston county deputy in an embroilment of some kind about two years ago. He succeeded in eluding officers by an assumed name, and by leaving the country immediately. His presence has been reported in the Grimesland section one or two times since the murder, but officials were unable to gain any definite information concerning such visits, in fact nothing definite had been seen of him until he was arrested this morning.

It is stated that Manning's arrest resulted from some information regarding his movement that recently fell into the hands of Johnston county officials. The man's wife had been visiting in Johnston county at the time, so when she returned to Grimesland two officers secreted themselves in the baggage car of the same train, arriving in Grimesland yesterday evening. They followed her home, and later discovered that Manning was in the section too. Sheriff Dudley was immediately notified, and when deputies from this city arrived the arrest was made.

MORNING SESSION AT SAN FRANCISCO OF BRIEF NATURE

Delegates Listen to Last Nominating Speech and Recess for Platform

SENATOR SIMMONS AMONG THOSE IN NOMINATIONS

Convention Probably Will Take up Platform at Session During Night.

San Francisco, July 1.—One brief session early today brought the Democratic National Convention to the end of the tedious business of hearing nominating speeches.

With John W. Davis, ambassador to Great Britain, Senator Gless of Virginia, Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, and Francis Burton Harrison, governor general of the Philippines added to the list of those formally presented, the convention at the end of its mid-day session found itself run out of business.

The resolutions committee, framing the platform, was not ready to report and sent word it would not be ready before 8 o'clock tonight.

On motion of Wilbur W. Marsh, a delegate from Iowa, and treasurer of the National committee, an attempt was made to suspend the rules, which required the platform to be adopted prior to balloting, and go ahead with the voting for a nominee.

Such a suspension of the rules required a two-thirds vote of the delegates and it was quickly apparent from the shouts of disapproval coming from all corners of the hall that the prevailing wish was to dispose of the platform before proceeding to balloting.

Mr. Marsh, therefore, withdrew his motion and the convention recessed until 8 o'clock, while the platform committee continued to labor.

When it disposes of the platform, with the inevitable contests over prohibition, the league of nations and the Irish question, and goes on with the business of balloting, the convention will have before it a field of fourteen candidates, headed by a "big three"—McAdoo, Cox and Palmer—a scattering of lesser lights, and including a paddock of "dark horses" nearby.

Unless some of the expected platform fights fail to materialize there seemed little prospect of the convention getting to the business of nominating a candidate at the night session unless it proposed to remain at work until daylight. The movement to perfect a combination against McAdoo still was going on when the convention went into the night session but consideration of the candidates still was obscured in some measure by the platform fight and the question of whether William J. Bryan was going to win or lose on his prohibition plank.

The convention went the night session with a row on the floor brewing over the attempt of Irish sympathizers among delegates to force into the platform a plank declaring for recognition of the Irish republic. In a caucus of the pro-Irish factionists held in a room next to the resolutions committee room, plans to carry the drive to the floor were made after a caucus ultimatum had been ignored by the committee, which voted not to hear Frank P. Walsh, of Kansas City, in further presentation of the case of the Irish republic.

There was some question as to how convention rules would affect the proposed attempt to plunge the convention itself into the Irish fight.

UNUSUAL REUNION
FEATURES SESSION AT SAN FRANCISCO

Great Brotherly Reunion Features Nomination Day at Convention.

OLD-TIME SONGS TUG AT DELEGATE'S HEARTS

Great Demonstrations Mark Session in Which Ten Candidates Named.

San Francisco, June 30.—Lifted out of itself by hours of oratory, old songs that tugged at the heart-strings and the throbbing appeal of a mighty pipe organ, the Democratic National Convention brought "Nomination Day" to a tremendous emotional crisis that had nothing to do with candidates or platform issues.

Factional differences were forgotten; political jealousies were swept aside, and from the seething tumult on the floor to the singing, cheering thousands in the packed galleries, the vast assembly gave itself up at intervals without stint to a great brotherly reunion as unexpected as it was overwhelming.

The scene was unparalleled in the memory of the oldest convention observer.

There was no feature lacking to draw the thousands from their sober business into a riot of feeling and the convention surrendered, unconditionally.

Flooding silver light from the electric arcs high in the galleries bathed floor and platform in a strange, appealing glow; the crash and clamor of the military bands, the great impressive sweep of the arched roof of the auditorium and always the solemn elation in the voice of the great organ tuned to the melodies of other days were not to be resisted.

Even before the convention was called to order before noon, the hall was touched with the hint of what was to come. Boosters for Palmer and for Cox had come armed for great demonstrations. There was no mistaking that the crowd expected it.

High against the wall of the western gallery a red-coated band from Ohio was placed, fronted by a solid block of rooters who got into action before the delegates had filled more than half their seats. Across the hall in a perch above the organ loft, the convention band was at work with stirring melodies and the organist threw his great instrument into full, roaring accompaniment of any air the rooters raised.

When the first nominating orators had been heard and the name of Senator Owen, former Ambassador Gerard and Senator Hitchcock had been placed in the ballot amid liberal applause, Florida yielded to Pennsylvania and the name of A. Mitchell Palmer was presented to set the convention on its wild ecstasy of singing and cheering. The Palmer men were ready. No noise making devices had been overlooked, no device of rooters to stimulate the clamor left untried.

Up in front of the platform a long, slim, red-headed yell-leader waved frantic arms from a rickety perch on a chair, while a California woman in white drove the demonstration forward with almost equal vigor.

REGARDING THE TENT MEETING

In regard to the tent meeting on Ridgeway street and Dickinson avenue. Some of the people who live in town may think we should have erected our tent in the business part of town. We did not want any one to think that you were not welcome, or invited. We have the meeting here for the good of the people at large. Not for a certain sect but for all who may come, we want you to feel like this is your meeting. We trust your city will be blessed by this meeting. Our purpose for erecting the tent on this spot of ground is to give the mill people a chance as well as anyone else. I am sure everyone is worthy of a chance of salvation.

If I judge rightly the city of Greenville, N. C. is in a great spiritual famine, I am sure your town needs the good old time gospel. The world today is not looking for what they need, but for what they think they need and want.

There is something that slumbers within every person's soul desiring peace. I tell you that vacancy cannot be satisfied with this world's goods. You cannot satisfy your soul with silver and gold and a great name. We stand for the Bible doctrines of justification of faith, regeneration, and assurance of salvation. Sanctification by faith. We also believe that it is our privilege to receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit. We believe in Divine healing as in atonement. We believe in eternal heaven and eternal hell as described in the Bible. We believe it is possible, God being our helper, to live a life of victory over sin and the powers of darkness in this present world, according to the word of the Lord. We believe in the second coming of Jesus to this earth to abide and reign a thousand years, when Satan is bound for a thousand years in the bottomless pit. Then will follow universal peace and not before. There may be some who think we profess to be as good as Jesus, you are sadly mistaken. We do believe in Christian perfection as set forth in Matthew 23. Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God. We believe it is possible to be perfect in love, so as to love our enemy as Jesus demanded. We can't get so far along, but that we may lose our salvation by transgression, you may hear a false report but please come and see for yourself.

FRIDAY, JULY 2ND, 1920.

The "slightly moist" plank proposed for the Democratic platform sounds good in its tentative form, but there are thousands watching developments anxiously, hoping it will really become a part of the platform.

William Jennings Bryan has forgotten the prohibition question to ride some dark horse in the convention. But, before the end he may find prohibition much easier than playing with uncertainties.

That McAdoo boom at the convention is creating some opposition from the old line advocates, but, then, it must be remembered that it's the "new line" that will carry the day in the final windup.

That "brotherly re-union" at the convention reminds one of the old days when everybody felt good by everybody, and all were trying to do the best by the country. The Democrats are going about the thing right. They realize the importance of being friendly and doing good by everyone, and for that reason the convention is bound to be a great success.

The Philadelphia Record thinks that Senator Cumming's keynote speech at the convention was a bugle call and that Lodge's opening address at the Republican convention was of the keynote type. Comparison of the two speeches certainly affords much room for thought and if we are to consider them from the Record's point of view, Cummings is entitled to the bugle call in every way. In other words, his address inspired America to be at her best always, while Senator Lodge, merely stated certain conditions without giving one the slightest idea that he intended it for an exhortation to the people.

Herbert Hoover says he is "absolutely uninterested" concerning the political situation in this county, and to back up the statement he has gone off on a month's fishing trip. However, he will have lots of things to think about while waiting on the fish to bite, particularly the reason why the Republican party failed to nominate him for the presidency when apparently the entire nation was howling for him. This is a mighty big fact for anybody's consideration. No wonder Herbert desired a fishing trip.

It was expected that a big fight would occur at the convention over the league of nations, and for that reason the announcement yesterday failed to create more than usual interest. It has been plain and convincing all along that opponents of the league would put up a stiff fight to prevent a favorable plank becoming a part of the platform, and while of course this will hold up work on other matters it is safe to say that supporters are going to see that he league receives the attention which it deserves. Amendments to the document probably would be all right if they improved it in any way, but since they have failed to convey any constructive elements it is certain they will not be accepted. The league should go through as President Wilson desires it, and if it should the county will have no regrets.

"WATCHFUL WAITING."

The attitude of "watchful waiting" on the part of consumers in the Richmond and Atlanta Federal Reserve districts appears to have met with decided success in bringing down high prices, according to a recent statement of Federal Reserve agents of the southern district who have been watching interestedly developments in the situation from time to time. Regarding the pronounced tendency on part of consumers towards puncturing high prices the statement says: The breakdown of the traffic system and the wave of price cutting in retail stores were the outstanding features. The inability of the railroads to furnish cars, and the further freezing of credits have been the chief elements in keeping prices high. The widespread protest against high prices has had an unsettling effect in all lines of trade.

Generally, the bulleting says in reference to the situation: "The present price situation is unsettled and is being closely watched while some price reporting agencies show a reduction, others, including among them the Bureau of Labor statistics, show increases in prices due perhaps to the different classes of commodities used in making up index numbers and the methods of construction rather than in discrepancy in the prices themselves. Foodstuffs and essential commodities, except clothing and shoes, show little indication of reduction. Luxuries and unessentials have been in many lines distinctly cut. Business is passing through a period of readjustment and in many directions of depression. There is every indication, however, that the transition period will not last long, indeed, that the turn toward new conditions has already been taken."

This statement coming as it does from authorities on the price situation throughout the southern section of the country is of a most interesting nature. It gives in a plain, vivid way just what may be expected in the future and the position which consumers have taken in the past to bring about the great period of readjustment. The south at this time is faced by a serious situation, as far as high prices are concerned, but there is everything in evidence to give assurance that abnormality cannot continue as a permanent much longer, and that people eventually will be enjoying conditions brought about by the watchful consumer.

It is probable that the entire nation could be much better off if there were consumers "watchful and waiting" in every district, for such an attitude will have greater effect on prices than any other one thing. Disregard for conditions cannot bring prices, and it is up to the people to buy sparingly and leave luxuries off as long as possible. The situation will adjust itself in the course of time, and not until this happens can we anticipate any direct cut in the price of commodities.

If Glass has his way about the Democratic platform it is safe to say that the resolution of the Virginia Democratic convention regarding the league of nations will be a permanent fixture in the platform instead of the tentative draft. Glass represents President Wilson's ideas to the minute, and for that reason the public may be confident that he will do everything in getting the league through in its present form. If he does that, Virginia may well and truly feel proud of him.

Champ Clark, as a probable "dark horse" is receiving more than ordinary discussion at the convention just at this time. In fact, it is generally understood that his name will be placed for nomination immediately after a deadlock is found inevitable. Champ Clark, however, will mean very little when placed in the arena with McAdoo, Palmer, Glass and others, for sentiment is confined solely to the leading candidates and cannot be converted into other channels as long as there is the slightest prospect of success. There is opposition, of course, but this will mean very little when balloting gets in progress and delegates are ready to select the real leader of the party. This has been so in many such meetings when the idea of prospective "dark horses" were abandoned for something more definite.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH.

Friday—Litanies 8 P. M.

Old line leaders of the Democratic party who are planning McAdoo's defeat at the convention have voluntarily accepted a task that is going to be probably more difficult than they expect. Mr. McAdoo is as firmly fixed in the minds of convention delegates as he is with the public, and if the old guards expect the pick up a man chance to defeat Mr. McAdoo they certainly have something to think about.

That old "America first" stuff that Senator Harding is trying to put off on the country doesn't go very far, although it is possible a number of people may be misled to some extent. America first is an expression that should come from some member of the Democratic party who has done enough for the country to claim the right to use the expression. Mr. Harding, it is true, has been selected as one of the most distinguished men of his party but that fact doesn't give him the right to an expression commonly claimed by even the Average American. Harding represents America last, not first because his ideas are of such a nature that anyone can see the kind of stuff he is built of and the ideals of life which he represents so unmistakably. If he represents America first, it is difficult to say who represents it last.

THINKS SELF-RISING FLOURS MAKE PELLAGRA

State Pure Food Commissioner Against "Lazy Woman's Flour"

Wilbur F. Cannon, Colorado's pure food and drug commissioner, has prepared the following article for reproduction in several eastern magazines:

"It seems that it is the consensus of opinion now among authorities that pellagra, which has become so prevalent in the southern states, is caused by some error of diet. Some food is eaten in excess, that lacks the necessary constituents to promote good health, or some food is eaten which contains the desired elements extracted and destroyed. Scientists are groping blindly in the dark with as yet only a measure of success in determining what the trouble is.

They have about concluded that it is caused by the lack of an element called vitamins.

THEY ARE A MYSTERY

"Nobody knows exactly what vitamins is. No one has been able yet to catch one. I once saw an exhibit in the national museum. But, still, it is known that they exist.

"It is pretty definitely understood that vitamins do exist and that the lack of them produces pellagra. In endeavoring to ascertain what particular food is lacking peculiar substance we arrive at conclusions by eliminating one food after another, and then taking up another for consideration.

"At the present time, self-rising flour is under consideration. This flour is considerable of a fake. Its price is out of all proportion to its intrinsic value. It's a lazy woman's delight. Any woman who is fool enough to pay the flour trust 10 to 20 per cent. more for a bag of flour because she is too lazy to put a teaspoonful of baking powder in a quart of flour ought to have the pellagra. In fact, she ought never to be on speaking terms with vitamins.

Now She's The Happiest Woman—Always Ready For Fun and Work

She was just like hundreds of thousands of women—prematurely aged from overwork. Her hands were red from scrubbing board. Her shoulders drooped from bending over a wash tub. She had rheumatism from getting wet while scrubbing clothes.

Now she is bright, happy and sparkling. Her hands are white and soft. Her shoulders are straight and confident looking. She seems years younger.

How did she do it? By washing in the easy Clean Easy way. No more miserable days for her. She lets Clean Easy Naphtholeine Wash Soap do all the work.

Why, just imagine the ease of this: She soaks the wash over night. In the morning she cuts up 1/2 bar of Clean Easy into 4 1/2 gallons of water and boils. As soon as the chips dissolve, the clothes are put in and stirred with a stick for ten minutes. She rinses, blues and dries, and the whole washing is done—for only a few cents! With no mean work at all. She is away on a happy day before her neighbor has scrubbed half her clothes.

Every woman can be as happy and contented as she is. Simply buy a bar of Clean Easy from your grocer. Use according to directions, and you'll find a new pleasure in clean things and a new world for yourself.

Note how different Clean Easy looks from other soaps—also how differently it works.

GOV. COOLIDGE SPEAKS ABOUT "LAW AND ORDER"

Washington, June 29.—Declaring the nation "requires no council of foreign powers to point the way of American duty," Senator Harding, Republican nominee for president, in his first campaign speech today, urged the preservation of Americanism as the first and highest endeavor of all citizens of the republic.

The candidate's first utterance of the campaign was heard by no audience today, being made for a phonographic record to be released on the Fourth of July and to be used throughout the campaign. A copy of the Senator's address was made public at his office and with it a speech made last week by Gov. Coolidge, of Massachusetts, the party's vice presidential nominee, for a similar purpose.

Senator Harding chose "Americanism" as his subject, while Gov. Coolidge spoke on "Law and Order."

America, Mr. Harding said, does not mean to hold aloof, chooses no isolation and shuns no duty, but, he continued, "we arrogate to ourselves the keeping of the American continent and every concept of our moral obligation." The presidential candidate added that "it is very practical to make sure our own house is in perfect order before we attempt the miracle of old world stabilization."

In urging maintenance of law and order, Gov. Coolidge defined the need of America as a "broader, firmer, deeper faith in people, a faith that men desire to do right, that the government is founded upon a righteousness which will endure."

"The first flaming torch of Americanism," said Senator Harding, "was lighted in framing the Federal constitution in 1787. The Pilgrims signed their simple and majestic covenant a full century and a half before, and set aflame their beacon of liberty on the coast of Massachusetts. Other pioneers of new world freedom were rearing their new standards of liberty from Jamestown and Plymouth for five generations before Lexington and Concord heralded a new era. It was all American in the result, yet all of it lacked the soul of nationality. In simple truth, there was no thought of nationality in the revolution for American independence. The Colonists were resisting a wrong, and freedom was their solace. Once it was achieved, nationality was the only agency suited to its preservation.

Americanism really began when, robbed in nationality, the American republic began the blazed trail of representative popular government.

Cameron Morrison For Governor

Great Endorsement by the People of Richmond and Mecklenburg Counties—His Boyhood and Present Home.

We, the undersigned citizens of Mecklenburg county, where Cameron Morrison now lives, and Richmond county, his former home, urge his nomination for Governor of North Carolina in the Democratic primary. He is an able and fearless champion of constitutional government as interpreted by the Democratic party. For nearly thirty years he has served the party and the people of North Carolina with distinguished ability. His public utterances give proof of the soundness of his views on political and economic questions; and the boldness with which he speaks marks him for leadership of the sort so badly needed at the present time.

We ask you to vote for Mr. Morrison's nomination on account of his party service, his sound statesmanship, his abilities as a debater and his wisdom as a political leader. Knowing him as we do, we believe he would make our State a great Governor, fair to capital, fair to labor; with his heart, soul and mind devoted to the happiness and prosperity of the whole people.

TO THE DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF NORTH CAROLINA:

I publish the above statement of leading citizens in all walks in life from Mecklenburg and Richmond counties showing the esteem in which Hon. Cameron Morrison, candidate for Governor is held by his home people. I have tried since I have been here to prevent any untruths from being circulated on any candidate. There went out from the city of Raleigh a mass of untruths about Hon. Cameron Morrison on Saturday, June 12, 1920, which have been circulated all over Eastern North Carolina and elsewhere. These untruths were all scattered at the same time, and I heard they were to be scattered, and immediately I received word from all over the East and elsewhere that they had been scattered. They were scattered far and wide for an unholy purpose. Besides these untruths that have been broadcast over the East another diabolical untruth has been scattered thoroughly and denounce it as a base untruth. They have gone so far as to try to insinuate and state that Mr. Morrison has changed his personal views on woman suffrage. No man has ever fought this issue stronger than Mr. Morrison, and they are now trying to misrepresent his personal views on this subject by reason of the fact that he is a party Democrat and stands on the platform of his party.

I desire to state further that I have known the Hon. Cameron Morrison for thirty years. I desire to make a statement that is personal and I ask the indulgence of the public in doing this: My father was a brave Confederate soldier, was in Hoke's Division and was with Johnson's army when it surrendered at Greensboro, and commanded the Sharpshooters in the defense of Fort Sumter in 1863. He served through the entire war, and was wounded several times, and I had six uncles of my name in the war.

I was on the Democratic executive committee of the State from 1890 to 1901 and in the White Supremacy Legislature and voted and helped to save the East from negro domination, and know the great work Hon. Cameron Morrison did in redeeming the State. I have never scratched a Democratic ticket in my life, and have always voted and stood by the Democratic party, as my father did before me.

Before I volunteered to help my friend, Hon. Cameron Morrison, I knew his life work, record and character and knew it was without reproach. Knowing his heroic life and his unselfish conduct in behalf of friends and even of foes, I was obsessed with the belief that he deserved this nomination and ought to be elected Governor of this great State.

I have been here nearly three months, working 17 hours a day, Sunday excepted, in his behalf and will be here until sunset July 3. The West, as between Mr. Gardner and Mr. Morrison, has said in unmistakable language by their vote that they want Mr. Morrison for Governor of North Carolina. I call upon the East to ratify what the West has done, as it is the western turn for governorship, and vote for Mr. Morrison. I have tried to be conservative in my statements to the public. It was said by the opposition the night before the primary and numerous times before that they would win over Mr. Page and Mr. Morrison both in the first primary, the county was made by that honest careful Election Board composed of both Democrats and Republicans, the chairman of which is Col. Wilson G. Lamb, a man of unimpeachable character, and showed that Mr. Morrison lead Mr. Gardner by 87 votes.

Mr. Gardner has requested a second primary. I shall continue this fight on a high plane. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison to denounce the untruths, do it with forbearance and judgment. I think the general public will bear me out in saying that the predictions that I have heretofore made have been correct, and I desire to state now that 75 per cent at least of Hon. Robt. N. Page's supporters in North Carolina will vote for Mr. Morrison.

People of North Carolina want a campaign on a high plane, worthy of a great State. I appeal to the supporters of Mr. Morrison and Mr. Page, as there can be no victory for Mr. Morrison without the Page support, and it will be a joint victory of Page and Morrison supporters to actively get into this fight and work until sunset July 3, and I make a prediction, as I did before, that Mr. Morrison would lead in the first primary—that he will be the next Governor of North Carolina.

I call upon his followers over the State to quit their business and get into this fight, and be at the polls July 3, and see that this great Statesman and high-minded North Carolinian is elected Governor of this great Commonwealth.

HERIOT CLARKSON, Manager.

HUMOROUS SIDE OF LIFE FEATURES IN MANY COVENTIONS

This Was So in Recent Republican Convention When Ohio Started Something

Chicago, Ill., July 1.—The long hours of oratory that mark every national political convention may bore the tired delegates and spectators nearly to the point of exhaustion, but never kill their sense of humor. Occasionally a witty sentence or a quick rejoinder has been credited with having had a greater effect on the final result than all the oratory of the picked spell-binders.

At the recent Republican gathering at Chicago, Frank B. Willis, former governor of Ohio, was nominating Senator Warren G. Harding for the presidency. Ohio was far down in the list. The 13,000 sweltering persons, who crowded the big Coliseum had listened with only half-interest to more than five hours of fervid oratory when Willis, closing his speech, said: "Well, boys and gals, let's nominate Harding!" The friendly humor brought a ready response.

The next day, when the landslide toward Harding began, an Ohio admirer of the senator who had inscribed the sentence on a huge sheet of cardboard dropped it from the gallery. It made an instantaneous hit.

Earlier in the contest, a negro delegate from Oklahoma, appearing before the credentials committee at 3 o'clock in the morning to press his claim for a seat, put new life into that body and won his point by a remark. Having told how the "lily white" side had held its convention in a hotel from which negroes were barred by the proprietor, he said:

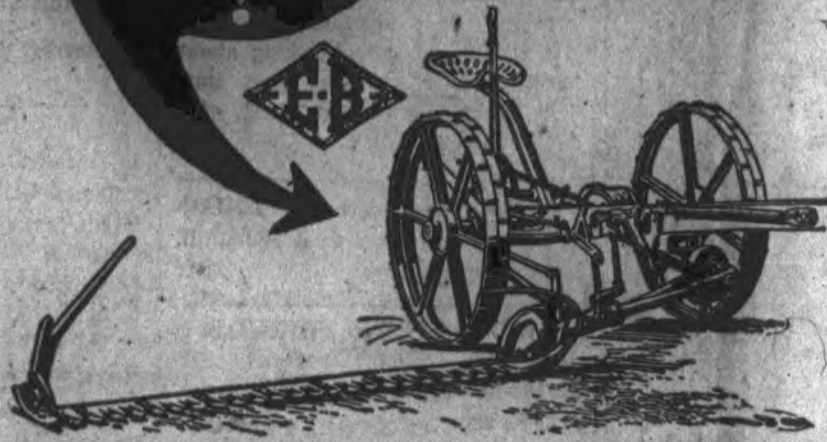

"Why, gentlemen, in Oklahoma there's 'Jim Crowism' from the henhouse to the hotel."

In the laugh that followed a motion to send the contestant was carried unanimously.

"JUST A WIFE."

A question of ethics with an intensely modern slant is given a clever treatment in the big Seiznek feature picture, "Just a Wife," soon to be shown at White's theatre tonight.

Who has the real right to a man's regard and affection—the woman who has been "The Power Behind the Throne," of his life, helping him to success—or the woman who married him for money and then discovered that she loved him?

Shall a woman who has sacrificed her brain power, her youth, and her good name for a man, step aside in favor of a girl who takes his name legally, enjoys his wealth, and gives nothing save a belated affection?

Which type of woman does a man truly care for—the intellectual, self-reliant kind who can help him build a fortune or the sweet, domestic woman who can surround him with beauty, make him comfortable, and demand protection?

Wife—or good comrade? Which woman finally wins in the eternal battle for love?

These are a few of the phases of an unusual situation which exists in the brilliant drama, "Just a Wife."

ANNOUNCES COST OF PRODUCING WHEAT

If Price Had Been $2.15—Average Cost of Producing—More Than Half of Farmers in Survey Would Have Lost Money.

The cost of producing wheat of the 1919 crop was low as one dollar a bushel on just two farms out of 481 included in a cost-of-production study just completed by the United States Department of Agriculture. On 20 farms it was $5 or over. The bulk of the farms produced wheat at a cost somewhat less than midway between these two extremes. The average cost per bushel for all farms was $2.15. At such a price, half the farmers in question would have lost money on their wheat.

Fourteen representative districts in the Wheat Belt were invited by the field men of the Office of Farm Management in making this investigation a preliminary report of which has just been issued. Nine winter wheat areas were surveyed in Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri, and five spring wheat areas in Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota. For winter wheat 284 records were taken, for spring wheat

GREENVILLE TAKES GREAT GAME FROM WILLIAMSTON CLUB

Williamston Completely Shut Out Here

Yesterday Evening by the Score of 2 to 0.

As retaliatory proceedings for the stinging defeat administered the day before Greenville completely shut out the strong Williamston aggregation at the fair grounds in this city yesterday evening by the score 2 to 0. The contest featured as one of the fastest and best played staged on the local diamond this season, Greenville being credited with an errorless game, while the visitors only had one checked against them. A fumble at third, base on balls, an error of a scorching drive to third coupled with a single by Stringfield in the sixth inning was responsible for Greenville's two runs, and while the visitors played hard in the remaining three innings to make up for the inauspicious sixth they were unable, however, to get a runner farther than the second base, the locals tightening up at such stages and making every play count.

The contest was undoubtedly one of the fastest and best played on the local diamond this season as both clubs contested every inning in an unmistakably determined way, and made every opportunity for scoring count. Greenville, however, played errorlessly throughout the entire game and fielded the sphere in such a fast way that runners were held too near the bases for comfort and were not permitted to do any out of the season stealing at all. The visitors also played splendidly, and only had one error credited against them for the entire game, and while this proved costly in the long run the excellent fielding during the latter part of the game made up easily for the bad play.

"Sacks" Barnes proved almost invincible to the visitors in every inning, allowing only three well scattered hits and making nine batters fan the air in a vain attempt to land the sphere for an opportune hit. He probably never showed up to better advantage as his curves and deceptive "slow balls" worked to perfection and kept the visitors in a constant state of perplexity and provocation. He used every moment to a direct advantage, and failed to yield the slightest kind of hit at critical stages of the game. Cox, for the visitors, also pitched an unusually good game, and held the locals to only one hit. He worked well in pinches, but the error and fumble by teammates was more responsible for loss of the game than any other single feature.

The entire Greenville club, from Wrenn behind the bat to Captain Duncan out of left field, worked probably better than any other game during the season, and fielded the sphere like veterans. "Mug" Massey covered everything getting in proximity to the first sack. He made two splendid stops of wild throws with assistance of milt and chin too, for those standing closest to the base confidentially assert that he swung his body to such a low position in handling one of the ground balls that it came in contact with his chin, which was lying squarely in the mit when the ball struck. Davis, a recent acquisition for the third corner, showed up in pretty good form, while Stringfield at short and Ellis at second played their usual good game.

WASHINGTON AND TARBORO

SPLIT UP IN DOUBLE-HEADER

Tarboro, July 1. — Tarboro and Washington divided honors in a double header staged on the local diamond here today. Tarboro taking the first game by the score of 7 to 0, Washington winning out in the last by the score of 6 to 3. Both games were fast and interesting in every way, but the inability of the visitors to hit favorably in the first game was more responsible for the shut out than any other feature. The last game was called at the expiration of the seventh inning by mutual agreement of both clubs.

PINETOPS WINS IN FAST GAME WITH SCOTLAND NECK

Scotland Neck, July 1.—The hefty aggregation from Pinetops defeated the Scotland Neck Hobgood club here this evening by the score of 6 to 5. The game was possibly one of the best that has been staged on the local diamond this season as both clubs played hard in every inning and did everything possible at the bat. Pinetops, however, was able to secure the winning tally by bunching hits effectively, and fielding in fast form when the home plate was seriously threatened by an additional runner. The locals threatened home plate several times, but were unable to hit favorably at such moments.

sixth inning error could have been avoided.

The hefty Pinetops aggregation plays here this evening, and as it comes from Scotland Neck covered with dust of victory from yesterday's game it is more than probable Greenville will find the contest of more than ordinary interest. The two clubs divided the two games during the earlier part of the week, and the one today will be cherished more than all others as it gives a decided lead to be appreciated.

outfield performed in their usual good style, and covered ground rapidly when there was necessity for such. In fact, destined for the marine corps training the entire team showed up to better station at Paris Island, S. C., was advantage than former games, and stolen from an express car on Charles showed plainly that the remainder of ton and Western North Carolina rail season will be quite interesting to road just outside of Augusta early to opposing clubs. The entire Williams-day after robbers gagged and bound ton aggregation played its usual fine the express messenger and armed game, and would have made the contest guard. Nearly sixty thousand dollars much more difficult for the locals if the is said to be missing.
