SAYS YOUNG GREEK IS NOT CONNECTED IN TRIPPLE MURDER

Washington Detective Exonerates Odisceos After Investigation Here.

TREBLE GREEK MURDER STILL REMAINS MYSTERY

Phillip Odisceos and Uncle Return Home Today Heavy and Grief-Stricken.

Showing signs of weariness and grief from the great strain which he has undergone for the past several hours, Phillip Odisceos, one time suspected of being the fourth party in connection with the killing of his brother, Jean Odisceos, sister Katherine Odisceos and her lover, Thomas Apostolos, Norfolk Y. M. C. A. employe, returned to this city today in company with his uncle, J. D. Stefano from Washington City where they have been during the past several hours assisting the police of that city in solving the mysterious circumstances connected with the triple tragedy.

When questioned regarding the incident, Odisceos declared that the police so far are as absolutely in the dark concerning the mystery as ever, and that he was not able to give out the slightest information that would have a tendency of clearing up the mystery. "I am too tired to tell you anything now," he told the newspaperman questioning him for his opinion regarding the reason for his brother's act. "Probably I may be able to tell you something when I get rested."

Both he and his uncle showed plainly by their appearance that they had spent many sleepless hours since the tragedy, and friends that surrounded them after their arrival, stated that the two went directly to Washington after learning of the killing remaining there until the police were fully satisfied that the young Greek who was being earnestly sought for by the police Monday and Tuesday, knew absolutely nothing concerning the awful crime.

The affair, they say, was an absolute surprise to both the nephew and uncle, and that their absence in Lake City, S. C., was the result of pressing business matters requiring their attention.

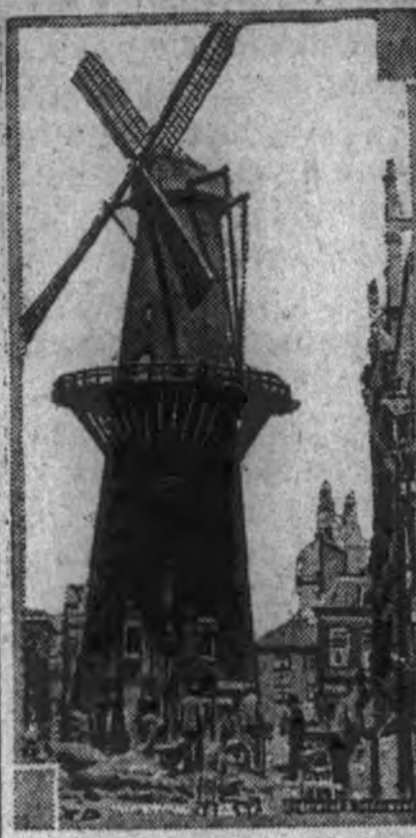

It is no longer thought that the young Greek was in any way connected with the crime as detectives and police immediately abandoned this theory following the report of detective Kelly after leaving Greenville. It is still believed, however, that Jean Odisceos did the killing and that the act resulted from the discovery of something existing about the love affair between his sister and Apostolos. The idea that he was after money has been abandoned completely as it is no longer thought that he was dominated by this desire.

That Phillip Odisceos, former Greek of this city, is absolutely innocent of being connected as the suspected "fourth party" in the murder of his brother, Jean Odisceos, sister Katherine Odisceos and her lover, Thomas Apostolos, Y. M. C. A. employe of Norfolk, was divulged here yesterday to the city police by Detective J. E. Kelly, of Washington, who has been here for the past several hours investigating the room and personal effects of the young Greek who left the city so mysteriously several days prior to the Washington tragedy.

Phillip Odisceos, the detective declared, did not leave this city with the intention of becoming an accomplice in the supposed plot of his brother to obtain possession of some $1800 which Thomas Apostolos was supposed to have had in his possession at the time of the murder, for the investigation here failed to reveal the slightest clue to this effect, and showed conclusively that the young Greek truly left here with the intention of going to the home of an uncle, J. D. Stefano, at Lake City, S. C. In fact, the detective received a message from Washington shortly before leaving here this morning stating that Odisceos and his uncle had made their appearance in Washington, professing absolute ignorance of the entire occurrence. This fact, he said, practically cleared up the probability of any "fourth party" being connected with the crime.

OLD TURKISH CITY AGAIN SWINGS INTO MUCH PROMINENCE

Ismid Again Heart of Great Activity Among Incoming Refugees.

Ismid, Turkey, June 31.—With the onrush of Turkish Nationalists toward the Gulf of Ismid this historic old city was filled to overflowing with Greek and American refugees, who were being shipped on to Constantinople as fast as transportation was available. Tales of the incoming refugees recalled the terrors through which the local Christians passed in 1917, when all the Armenian section was burned, thousands of Christians were slaughtered and others fled into the mountains.

This ancient city, which was called Nicomedia in biblical times, was the capital of Bithynia and under the Roman Empire became one of the chief cities of Asia Minor. Pliny described it in his letters to Trajan as having a senate house, an aqueduct, a forum and many temples and other public buildings. Diocletian made Ismid his residence and began the persecution of Christians which the Osmanli continued when they came into possession in the fourteenth century.

Now its population has been swelled by crowds fleeing before the Nationalist advance and by British troops camped among the ruins of the old Roman and Byzantine walls on the mountain side, which now bristle with barbed wire entanglements and are converted into machine gun shelters. Shabby Turkish soldiers, the remnants of the Sultan's forces which remained loyal to the Constantinople government, killed Scots and turbaned Sikhs drag ammunition carts through the streets and make ready for the forces of Mustafa Kemal which occupy the mountains which enclose the head of the Gulf of Ismid on three sides.

Many of the Armenian orphanages established by the Americans and British in interior cities have been evacuated through Ismid to points between here and Constantinople less liable to attack by the Nationalists, and Greek children. Many of them have been moved scores of times since they were rescued from the Moslems and the stories of their sufferings are almost incredible.

MILLION GALLONS OF BEER DESTROYED BY PROHIBITION FORCES

Richmond, Va., July 30.—Approximately 1,230,706 gallons of beer was seized and destroyed in the Southern division of Federal prohibition agents from December 1, 1919 to July 1, 1920, according to general report filed by S. R. Brame, supervising prohibition agent for the Southern division, comprising the states of Virginia, North and South Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky.

ENGLISH RAILWAYS ABSORBS SMALLER LINES OF COUNTRY

Nationalization Plan Groups All Roads Into Seven Great Lines.

NEW RATE PLANNED TO BE EFFECTIVE SOON

Wages and Working Conditions to be Considered from Every Standpoint.

London, July 31.—The government's railway program, intended as an alternative to nationalization of the roads, which are now subsidized, provides for the formation of the railways of England and Wales into six groups, the main groups to absorb all the smaller lines. Present shareholders are to form the majority of each board of management, but each board also is to include members elected from and by the workers on the railway. Direct competition between groups is to be eliminated.

The government financial guarantee ceases and rates and fares are to be fixed, with certain safeguards for the public, so as to produce a net revenue. (Continued page four.)

HARDING REQUESTS DEMOCRATIC STAND ON LEAGUE ISSUES

Charges International Interests Preparing to Finance Democrats.

Marion, Ohio, July 30.—Senator Harding prefaced his "front porch" campaign tonight with a public statement asking Governor Cox for specifications of the Democratic stand on the league of nations, and charging that "certain powerful international interests" concerned in President Wilson's foreign policy were preparing finance liberally the Democratic campaign.

The Republican nominee declared it had become apparent that the Democratic campaign managers hoped to keep the league in the background as a political issue, but he promised they would not be permitted to do so.

"The more the Democrats attempt to get away from the issue," he said, "the more insistent the country will be to know what they intend to do if they are entrusted with the administration."

Referring to the conference at Dayton yesterday between Governor Cox and Senator Walsh, of Massachusetts, a Democratic supporter of the Republican reservations to the peace treaty, Senator Harding said it was evident they had not agreed on Article ten, and that the Democratic nominee was squandering by the President ratification of the league without essential modifications.

AMERICAN OWNERS CAN GET PROPERTY SEIZED BY BRITISH

Washington, July 30.—American owners of goods seized under British orders in council during the war as of enemy origin or destination may now obtain possession by filing necessary proof of ownership, according to formal notification of British prize court rulings in test cases transmitted today to the estate department. Under the decision, title will be determined on ownership at the time peace became effective in Great Britain.

The decision held that the claimants must pay the cost of detentions and insurance. The consul general at London reported that reimbursements should now be applied for by all American claimants who deposited funds against the property held by the British government. Applications, he said, should be forwarded to the British procurator general at London.

PRESIDENT URGES MINE WORKERS TO GO BACK TO WORK

Wilson Sends Urgent Message to Members of United Workers of America.

SAYS UNEQUAL WAGE SCALE MAY PREVAIL

Cannot Correct Inequality Until Illinois Miners Return to Labor.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 30.—In compliance with the wishes of President Wilson, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, will issue a mandatory order instructing all miners now on strike in Indiana and Illinois to immediately return to work so as to permit the normal operation of the mines, it was announced at miners' national headquarters here tonight.

The statement was issued after a conference had reported favorably on the President's telegram, which was received here tonight.

"I am profoundly impressed by the President's telegram," the statement said. "The suggestion of the President (Continued on page four.)"

M'ILHENNY WILL MAKE REPORT FOR FOREST INTEREST

Government Agent to Make Report of Bamboo Growth in Avery Island.

New Orleans, July 31.—Eight years ago Edward A. McIlhenny of Avery Island was commissioned by the United States Bureau of Plant Production to experiment in the growing of Chinese and Japanese bamboo so as to determine the best varieties that may be grown in the south. He is now about to make his report to the government regarding his forests. The bamboo, Mr. McIlhenny says, sometimes reach a height of 60 or 70 feet in three weeks.

According to the experimenter, one of the most satisfactory growths have been the phyllostachys pubescens, valuable as timber and particularly cherished for eating. The tender shoots when six or eight inches above ground may be eaten as a salad and are also used in other culinary ways. Another edible variety is the phyllostachys henryi.

Exclusively timber varieties include the phyllostachys puberula (Japanese hachiku) and phyllostachys quilloi (Japanese mandrake) both of which were found to thrive in Louisiana. They are said to be adapted for house timbers, telephone and telegraph poles and boat spars.

"The four varieties are hardy and do well in Louisiana and will stand a temperature of zero, growing rapidly to perfection in Southern alluvial soils," said Mr. McIlhenny.

SAYS LEAGUE ISSUE NOTHING MORE THAN A BANKER'S SOVIET

New York, July 30.—The league of nations is "nothing more than an attempt to establish an international bankers' soviet," according to Parley P. Christensen, Presidential nominee of the Third, or Farmer-Labor party, who discussed his views on national and international affairs here today.

"The league of nations is a dead issue," said Mr. Christensen. "If it were not, I should want to kill it."

Endorsement of Irish freedom was another point upon which the Third party candidate expressed himself in a formal statement.

"I am one of those who is sufficiently in love with the principles of human freedom to come out squarely for recognition of the Irish republic," he said.

MAY HEAD THIRD PARTY

SINN FEIN COURTS CONTINUE ACTIVITY ALONG MANY LINES

Institutions Extending Area and Nature of Work in Many Centers.

Dublin, July 31.—The Sinn Fein courts in Ireland continue to extend the area and nature of their operations. Among the cases lately tried have been cases of libel and slander, of judicial separation of the unhappily married and of seduction. These were on the civil side. On the criminal side all sorts of offences are tried. As a rule the persons charged think it safer to turn up and take their chance of punishment. But in most cases they do not get any option in the matter. In a recent case in County Clare the person charged was a local magistrate, accused of, trespass. He ignored the summons and refused to recognize the jurisdiction of the Sinn Fein court. The Volunteers captured him and carried him off to an unknown destination and the military were now guarding his house.

The Sligo Asylum Committee is a real radical on Sinn Fein. It has just decided that the Sinn Fein flag shall be permanently flown over the asylum. They have vested in the Irish Volunteers the task of conveying lunatics to the institution, and left the power of committing lunatics to the Sinn Fein arbitration assisted by a local doctor.

Kerry County Council has decided to refuse to insert advertisements in the local papers unless they agree to publish reports in the Irish language of the Council's proceedings.

BOLSHEVIKI CALVARY CONTINUES ADVANCES ALONG RUSSIAN FRONT

Paris, July 31.—The Bolsheviki calvary has advanced to the East Prussian frontier, the French war office has advised. The Bolsheviki have not actually crossed the frontier of Altenstein, or Marienwerder, but are fraternizing with the Germans. It is understood that the Germans and the Bolsheviki are negotiating with Sutwat. The allied troops in Altenstein and Marienwerder which, mostly are French, will be held there until the situation clears, although their plebiscite with the Dutch has been completed.

INDUSTRIAL PROBLEMS TO BE CONSIDERED IN COX ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

Dayton, July 1.—In addition to the League of Nations the American industrial problems will have a prominent place in Cox's acceptance address, according to information of those in close touch with the campaign. It is said that a large portion of the address might be expected to deal with industrial affairs. The governor today bent all efforts towards completing his address.

COX CONFIDENT HE WILL BE ELECTED DURING NOVEMBER

Dayton Stages Big Celebration in Honor of Presidential Choice.

GOVERNOR ADDRESSES SPLENDID AUDIENCES

Mammoth Parade Features as Principal Attraction of the Day's Events.

Dayton, Ohio, July 30.—Belief that he would be elected President was expressed by Governor Cox today in an address at the "home-coming" celebration here over his nomination by the Democratic party.

After he had stood two hours under a burning sun reviewing a parade of civic, fraternal, industrial and other organizations, variously estimated to contain between 8,000 and 12,000 marchers, crowds stormed the reviewing stand and insisted upon a brief address from the guest of honor.

Thanking his audience "for the testimonial from the men, women and children" with whom he had lived for 20 years, Governor Cox said:

"I just said to a gentleman from Washington that it would appear to be a reflection on one's judgment to desire to leave Dayton and live in any other place. Yet, somehow, I have a feeling that I am going to reside in the house which you, yourselves, own. As the future tenant of these premises, I promise to take good care of it."

To another crowd of admirers, who almost crushed the governor and Mrs. Cox as they left the reviewing stand and forced them to take shelter in the county jail building, Governor Cox said jocularly:

"I invite you all to come to see me in Washington."

The governor's brief addresses were not scheduled among the day's events. The Governor left his Trail's End Library to view the parade in the midst of completion of his addresses for August 7 accepting the Democratic nomination; the address he said, would go surely to the printers tomorrow for advance circulation to newspapers tomorrow night.

The parade today was the crowning event of the non-political demonstration by the governor's home town folks.

It was "Jimmy Cox Day" in Dayton, for the thousands who packed the parade route, released by the half holiday declared generally to hail their citizen honored with a presidential nomination.

"Hello Jimmie," was the salutation at the governor by hundreds of the paraders. "Three cheers for Jimmy," and "Jimmy I'm in the White House" were other greetings.

BEGINS SECOND LEG ON CROSS COUNTRY FLIGHT TO CHICAGO

Cleveland, July 30.—Monoplane No. 3 piloted by Lieutenant Mons, and carrying three passengers, left here at 3:15 p. m. for Chicago on the second leg of the trans-continental aerial mail trip. Bert Acosh, piloting plane No. 1, will leave here tomorrow morning. Machine No. 2, carrying Captain Bartney, pilot, met with an accident in landing after a practice flight this afternoon, breaking a wing tip and the under carriage, and will be out of the race until new parts or another plane can be sent from the East.

PRESIDENT CARRANZA WAS PRIVATE CITIZEN WHEN SHOT BY TROOPS

Mexico City, July 0.—Carranza was a private citizen when killed because the Agua Prieta plan had deposed him, and as the plan was ratified by congress it was law, said Eduardo Neri, the attorney general, in the course of an interview today. Therefore, he contended, the courts of Puebla state and not the federal or military tribunals had jurisdiction over the investigation into the death of the late president.

SATURDAY, JULY 31, 1920.

As a successful tax gatherer "Uncle Sam" is proving right on the job.

Let us hope that Villa's surrender means an end to his devilry in Mexico.

Now that the Republican candidates have had their say, the country will turn to wait for some genuine Democratic talk on August 7th and 9th.

We used to say "watch Greenville grow," but the growing is so fast these days that it will keep you busy to watch all the improvements that are going on.

What Mr. Gompers said to candidate Harding will make that gentleman aware that Republican campaign tricks are being observed by the people who will do the voting.

Charleston, S. C., has several expert rat catchers making war on the rodents that infest that city. Considering the immense damage annually caused by rats, to say nothing of the disease they carry, it looks like every community might merely take steps to exterminate them.

"Treat him like a prisoner—not like a hotel guest," was the order of the judge to the keeper of the prison to which Jack Johnson, the negro pugilist, was removed. The change of place of Johnson's incarceration from one Illinois town to another, was due to the keeper of the prison who formerly had charge of him was taking him out to ride over the town and giving him other privileges to which prisoners are not entitled.

One county in South Carolina has thirteen candidates for the legislature. Verily the campaign promises some warm time in that province.

The town of Hickory had some municipal bonds for improvements to sell. The usual bond buyers in financial centers to whom the bonds were offered showed an indifference about bidding, the home folks stepped up and took the bonds at par. That is an example of town pride that other towns might note.

The governor of Lower California is in open rebellion with the Huerta government, and that means that the United States is also involved. Mexico has been a source of great concern to this country for many years, but it is safe to say future disturbances will not be considered in the same light as those were when the country was rife with deplorable conditions. The future is filled with promises of better government in Mexican provinces, but so far developments have been decidedly discouraging. American means to do by Mexico has it always has done, but it will be impossible to endure a continuance of repeated insults. The government will be faced with the fact in a convincing way if conditions do not improve, therefore, it is highly important that Mexican officials become more discreet in policy.

NEGRO VOTE AND SUFFRAGE.

While some of the arguments against Woman Suffrage may gain sympathy, very little patience should be accorded those who oppose it on the ground that the passage of the 19th Amendment will admit negro women to the polls on an equality with white women.

When the 19th Amendment is passed its effect will be to write the word "female" after "male" in Section 1, Article VI of our constitution, and in Section 4316 of the Revisal. Then, what will be the effect? Section 4316 of the Revisal provides as follows: "Subject to the exception contained in the preceding section (which provides that minors, idiots, lunatics and criminals shall not vote), every male (and female) who has been naturalized, 21 years of age, a citizen of the State of North Carolina, who shall have resided two years in the State and six months in the county, etc., shall be a qualified elector in the precinct, ward or township in which he (or she) resides."

But only such persons are allowed to vote who shall register in accordance with law. Section 4317 provides: "Only such persons as are registered shall be entitled to vote in any election held under this chapter."

Now we come to the crux of the matter. Section 4318 of the Revisal provides: "Every person presenting himself (or herself, after the passage of the Amendment), shall be able to read and write any section of the constitution in the English language, and shall show to the satisfaction of the registrar his ability to read and write any such section when he applies for registration and before he is registered."

It is well known that since the passage of this law, no negro has been allowed to register, unless the registrar, under the wide discretion given him, permitted him to do so. The registrar can refuse to be satisfied and generally does refuse to be satisfied with a negro man's ability to read and write the constitution to the registrar's satisfaction, when such negro applies for registration. When the Amendment is passed the negro women will be placed in the same status as the negro men. When she applies for registration, she will not be able to satisfy the registrar of her ability to read and write the constitution, certainly not to his "satisfaction."

The provisions of the law are well known to many of the able opponents of Woman Suffrage and it is therefore unfair to frighten the ignorant by the old cry of negro domination. The present law has kept the negro from the polls since its passage. It will apply with equal force to the negro woman.

A TREE STORY.

North Carolina has come to bat with a denial that Long Island has the largest tree east of the Mississippi river. It was recently claimed by residents from Asheville, in a letter to the college measurements of the Long Island tree. Confirmation of this statement comes from A. J. Hutchins, principal of the Long Island that a black walnut on the island was the largest tree in the east. The New York State College of Forestry at Syracuse, in endeavoring to answer this question replied that it was entirely probable that there were poplars in the mountain region of the south which would exceed the size Asheville high school when he tells of two great trees in North Carolina. He says that a popular at the foot of Mt. Mitchell in Yancey county measures thirty-four feet in circumference, and takes six full grown men touching hands to girdle it. On Reems Creek, Buncombe county he told of another popular that measures twenty-nine feet in circumference, and adds that both trees, because of their great size, have been spared by the lumber companies owning the timber in their neighborhoods.

A man in the employ of the U. S. Government, whose two daughters have made telephone operating their profession, said: "If I had ten daughters, I would want all of them to be telephone operators. Aside from the fact that they work under the direct supervision of women only and that every provision is made for their comfort, the training they receive is a great developer of tact, resourcefulness and initiative."
Telephone operating is more than a job. It is a young woman's profession and the work is essentially a woman's work. At the present time it offers unusual opportunities for advancement.
In most young women's professions months of preliminary training are necessary at the learner's expense. But in telephone operating the beginner pays nothing for her training. On the contrary, she is placed on the pay-roll as soon as she begins the brief course of instruction. Her salary is increased at the completion of this course and thereafter at regular and frequent intervals.
Some of the features of the work are: Good salaries from the start; permanent positions; regular and frequent increases; special opportunities for promotion; high grade, cleanly work; congenial and carefully chosen associates; light and airy central offices; comfortable recreation rooms; annual vacations with pay; and sick benefits and pensions without cost.
If you have a daughter who would like to apply for a position as telephone operator, or know of another young woman who may be interested, we shall be glad to see her and talk the matter over in detail.

SAYS YOUNG GREEK IS NOT CONNECTED IN TRIPLE MURDER

ing connected with the issue and left the incident as completely shrouded in mystery as ever.

Detective Kelly left Washington shortly after the tragedy last Sunday evening to ascertain the probability of any "fourth party, and while he gained much information in Norfolk he failed to gain anything definite before reaching this city where he instituted a thorough investigation of the young Greek's career and reason for leaving here. He told the police last night after completing his investigation that he only solution left to the mystery now was to begin his search again in Norfolk and Washington in an attempt to find out exactly how the victims of the Washington tragedy came to their death without the knowledge of anyone intimately acquainted with them and who associated with them only a few hours prior to the incident.

He stated that facts gained in Norfolk led him to believe that Katherine Odiscos and her lover came to their death at the hands of her brother. The hatchet and pistol which he purchased before leaving Norfolk showed plainly that he either intended to kill or anticipated foul play at the hands of the infatuated Apostolos, who several times had been refused the girl's hand in marriage. The body of Apostolos was found lying in the room, head severely cut by blows from the hatchet lying by his side, while the girl's body was found lying in the hall several feet from that of the brother. The pistol was found lying under his body, four shots having been emptied in his body and that of his sister.

These facts, the detective declared proved that Jean Odiscos left Norfolk prepared for eventualities, but whether he actually did the killing could not be stated with any degree of definiteness. He appeared to believe, however, that some altercation occurred between the two men regarding the marriage of Apostolos to the sister, and that something was divulged that provoked a desire of murder in the heart of the young Greek who had been attempting to provide and protect the girl ever since her arrival from the old country. It was not believed that Odiscos murdered the girl and her lover for the purpose of robbing him of the money which he was supposed to have drawn from the bank before leaving Norfolk. The fact that he shot himself afterwards contradicted this opinion, and for that reason the affair remains surrounded by even greater mystery than before the possibility of a "fourth party" was eliminated.

GREENVILLE TAKES FOUR OUT OF FIVE FROM THE HYPHENS

Locals Take Splendid Game at Scotland Neck by the Score of Four to One.

Greenville made it four games out of five with Scotland Neck yesterday by taking the evening's exhibition by the score of 4 to 1. Fans who have followed the local club around the circuit throughout the season unanimously agree that the contest was decidedly fluster and just a little better than any game played by the Greenville aggregation this season, as the acquisition of two new players apparently stimulated renewed interest and the sphere was handled in a highly satisfactory way.

In fact, consensus of opinion is centered upon the fact that Greenville completely had the hyphenated aggregation outclassed from the first inning until the last, for field work was considered beyond the average and work with the willow was all that could be desired. Scotland Neck found the life and energy of the visitors irresistible, and while they several times attempted to keep pace with the spirit of the evening, this was an apparent impossibility, for every inning seemed to produce renewed energy and determination, and the entire game as an consequence was featured by exceptionally fine work of both organizations.

The renewed life in the Greenville team is the result of the acquisition of a catcher by the name of Frazier, so fans from the game yesterday tell. And he really appears to live up to the wonderful stories told about him in the score book too, for besides playing everywhere between third base, first, the pitcher's box and his own territory, this much talked of individual found time to use the willow so effective that his efforts resulted in a home run and one single. This feature gives additional strength to animated stories told by those last night who had just returned to the game, and produced a feeling of optimism in the ranks here at home that will result with an unusual attendance at the next games played in this city.

However, as the story goes, the entire Greenville club participated so actively in the contest that the hyphens only had a peep in on the run getting during the evening, for after the one run was scored they failed to get runners any further than second base during the remainder of the game. Massey, Stringfield, Behrie, Ellis Frazier and Sheppard used the willow freely for Greenville, Stringfield being credited with a double and two singles out of five times at bat; Frazier with a home run and single, Massey and Sheppard with a double each, the remainder with singles.

Sheppard pitched his usual good game for the visitors, and had the situation well in hand after the fourth inning. With the the capable assistance of Frazier, he found the heavy hitting Hyphens unusually easy, allowing six hits that were so well scattered they flailed to be productive of anything profitable. Shields pitched a good game for the Hyphenated club, but failed completely to curb the batting spirit of the visitors when hits resulted in runs. The game is conceded to be everything that could be expected, and more, for the energetic, persistent way in which the locals contested every inning has produced a spirit of confidence for victory of the last half of the series that will be undoubted throughout the rest of the season.

Greenville will play at Tarboro Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, and Pinetops will be here for the last three days of the week. The Tarboro games are looked forward to with expectancy as the way the club has walloped the strong Washington organization for the past two days produces some uncertainty for the outcome of the series with Greenville. However, it is believed that Greenville is capable of giving them all a pretty good time. The attendance from this city will be unusually large.

TARBORO WINS GOOD GAME FROM WASHINGTON

Tarboro, July 30.—Tarboro defeated Washington here today by the score of 3 to 2 in possibly one of the hardest fought games of the series. Both clubs showed splendid form and fielded so perfectly that runners found it unusually difficult in getting around the home circuit.

PINETOPS OUTCLASSES WILLIAMSTON CLUB

Pinetops, July 30.—Pinetops completely walked over Williamston here today by the score of 9 to 1. The game was an entire change from that of the day before, for the hefty club showed up particularly fast and interesting and succeeded in holding the visitors to the one run without any great difficulty. Williamston appeared listless, and found it impossible to bunch hits at any stage of the contest.

will be approved by every right thinking and loyal member of the United Mine Workers of America."
President Wilson, through the United Mine Workers of America, tonight appealed to striking mine laborers in Illinois and Indiana to return to work. Inequalities in the existing wage scale—held by the strike leaders to be the cause of the walkout which has closed most of the bituminous mines in the two States—may exist the President said. He added that he could not recommend correction of any inequalities until the strikers returned to their jobs, but that when they did so, he would invite the joint scale committee of operators and miners to meet for the purpose of adjusting any such inequalities.
