ISSUES ORDER FOR IMMEDIATE STRIKE IN ALABAMA MINES

President Lewis Claims President's Award Has Not Been Made Effective

BITUMINOUS FIELDS SERIOUSLY AFFECTED BY SURPRISING ORDER

Convention of Miners in Eilkes Barre Votes to Take Time-ly Vacation.

Silkes, Barre, Sept. 2.—It is estimated that one hundred thousand of one hundred and seventy-five thousand anthracite coal miners failed to report for work today, and that more than half of colliers are idle. No disorder has been reported in ranks of miners who are taking vacation as protest against wage award.

Birmingham, Sept. 2.—President Kennamer of the Alabama division of United Mine Workers conferred other union officials on plans for carrying on the strike in local coal fields as ordered by President Lewis.

Indianapolis, Sept. 1.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, late today issued an order for a general strike in the bituminous coal fields in Alabama. The order followed a report by the organization committee of the international executive board.

The report declared the coal operators had failed to put into effect the awards of President Wilson's coal commission of last March. It said the miners were working for wages far less than those specified by the commission and declared every attempt to arrange a conference with the coal operators of Alabama had failed.

J. R. Kennamer, president of district No. 20 of the mine workers, with offices at Birmingham, was notified of the strike order by telegraph. Numerous mines in the Alabama field have been idle because of the alleged refusal of the operators to accept the findings of the coal commission.

NUMBER OF CASES HEARD IN CRIMINAL COURT YESTERDAY

From Sixteen to Eighteen Cases Disposed of in Morning and Evening Session.

THREE SUBMISSIONS FOR FAILURE TO DIP CATTLE CONCLUDED

Several Minor Matter Settled Without Any Unusual Loss of Time.

Yesterday proved another busy day in the criminal term of Pitt county superior court and by swinging from one case to another with astonishing regularity and frequency officials succeeded in disposing of from sixteen to eighteen cases during both the morning and evening sessions. There were quite a number of actions coming up for consideration that apparently would interrupt the incessant grind of legal machinery, but by skillfully removing interposing obstacles Judge Bond kept the wheel of the justice grinding, saving the court much time which otherwise would have been thrown away in futile controversy.

Practically every case appearing on the docket for the day were of a minor nature and quickly disposed of, with exception of a few which involved a number of technical points requiring some time in finally clarifying. Submissions in a number of instances helped speed up activity, and at the conclusion of the afternoon session the day's accomplishments were both pleasing and surprising in every way.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of cost in the case of Robert Taylor, charged with larceny. He was fined $50 and costs however, in another case charging him with carrying concealed weapon. He waived the bill, and pleaded guilty of the charge. Bristoe Holmes, indicted upon a charge of larceny, pleaded guilty, and was sentenced to four months on the county roads, the case against G. H. Hardee, for reckless driving, was continued. Not was proceedings were taken in the case against Henry King, charging him with maintaining an open privy. Maggie Sutton and Edward Sutton, charged with tearing down a fence, were adjudged not guilty. The case against Lizzie Braxton, charging her with conducting a house of prostitution was continued. Julius Bass, secret assault, pleaded guilty, sentence (Continued on page six.)

RECOMMENDS EARLY INSPECTION OF CITY CAFES-RESTAURANTS

Also Recommends that Register of Deeds be Relieved of Tax Book Work

To Honorable William Bond, Judge presiding at the August term 1920 of Pitt county criminal term of Superior Court:

We, the Grand Jury, beg leave to submit the following report:

First: That we visited the County Home by sending a committee of the body composed of six members, who report that they find the County Home in excellent condition, the inmates therein well cared for, and they desire to commend the keeper of the County Home for the manner in which he is making care of the county poor. All of the team and other property of the county we find in excellent condition.

Second: That we visited the convict camp and found the stable lot in a very bad condition and should be put in better shape. In other respects the camp was in good condition.

Third: That we visited the Clerks (Continued on page six.)

SWEEPING CHANGE TO TAKE PLACE AT ELLIS ISLAND SOON

Immigration Commissioner Willis to Conduct Strenuous Campaign.

New York, Sept. 2.—Sweeping changes are being made at America's gateway—Ellis Island—by Immigration Commissioner Frederick A. Willis who proposes to make the big immigration station more comfortable for the newcomers to the United States.

Freedom and sunshine is being planned for the new arrivals by the commissioner who has just announced plans for improving conditions in general on the island. Larger buildings are to be asked he said, sanitary conditions improved, additional cots provided or those unable to get beds and many other conveniences for the immigrant to be installed.

Kind and decent treatment for all new arrivals has been demanded by Commissioner Willis who has already announced the discharge of some of the ceteran attendants for alleged harshness or inefficiency in receiving immigrants. Their places have been filled by more courteous, attentive and younger men.

MANY STUDENTS OF HARVARD COLLEGE TO VISIT ARGONNE

Will Continue Work of Reconstruction Started Some-time Recently.

Paris, Sept. 2.—The Harvard Reconstruction Group, made up of some 40 young student architects and engineers of the advanced grades at Harvard University, have left for their posts in the Argonne and Meuse regions to carry on their work of reconstruction in the devastated areas.

M. Ogier, Minister of the Liberated legions, received the group on its recent arrival here, and assured them the fullest facilities of the French government in carrying on their work. Five members of the mission were assigned to Rheims. Two of them are to work under the direction of M. Jenu, architect of the cathedral, in designing plans for the restoration of the famous basilica. Others are taking part in the gradual restoration of the old city back to its pre-war aspect. At Sulpe four of the Harvard group are under the direction of M. Lavigne, government architect, in the construction of standardized provisional houses of four and five rooms. At Somme-Py four others are drawing plans for the court house and school.

ORDERS REHEARING IN MURDER CHARGE AGAINST OFFICERS

Judge Bond Orders Criminal Court Jury to Reconsider Case Against Police

DECLARES TOO MANY REPORTS CURRENT TO STOP INVESTIGATION

Tells Jury Reports Say Officers Admit Part in Killing Two Negroes.

Members of the grand jury of the criminal term of Pitt county superior court who were yesterday afternoon ordered by Judge Bond to reconsider facts in connection with the case against Chief of Police Lester Jones and Officer Wooten for alleged complicity in the murder of Thad Gorham and Lewis Hopkins, colored, this afternoon reaffirmed the decision presented Tuesday afternoon, declaring that insufficient evidence prevented the finding of a true bill of murder. The policemen vigorously deny that any statements have been made on the streets as intimated by Judge Bond in ordering reconsideration, and it is quite probable that the issue has been closed definitely.

Judge Bond yesterday afternoon ordered the grand jury of the criminal term of Pitt county superior court to reconsider the murder charge against Chief of Police Jones and Officer C. F. Wooten, of the Greenville police department, who were Tuesday afternoon completely exonerated by failure of the grand jury to return a true bill in the case. The officers are charged with the killing of Thad Gorham and Lewis Hopkins, colored, who were found dead following a raid in the colored district of this city several weeks ago, but evidence produced by the grand jury in the initial investigation was not sufficient to justify further action by the court.

In his request to the jury for reconsideration of the case, Judge Bond stated that information had reached him relative to certain statements made publicly by the police, in which it was declared that they were directly instrumental for the death of the colored (Continued on page six.)

MARSH AND WHITE FAIL TO SUPPORT GOV. COX'S CLAIMS

Democratic Officials Tell Committee They Believe Charges Are True.

SUBSCRIPTION LISTS TO REPUBLICAN BOOK PRESENTED BY MARSH

Democratic Committee Treasurer Says Lists Indicate Violation Statutes.

Chicago, Sept. 2.—The senate investigating committee adjourned today without having heard E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's representative, and announced that it would meet again September 7th to hear Moore and others.

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Officials of the Democratic national committee testified today before the Senatorial committee investigating campaign expenses that they brought no evidence from Governor James M. Cox to sustain his charges of Republican corruption fund, but that they believed the charges were true.

George White, recently elected chairman of the Democratic organization and Wilbur Marsh, its treasurer, both backed their candidate's assertion, and in addition Mr. Marsh produced photographic copies of subscription lists to Republican book publisher by William Barnes, of the Albany, N. Y., Evening Journal, which he said indicated a violation of the Federal statutes forbidding political subscriptions by corporations.

Mr. Marsh told Senator Kenyon, chairman of the investigating committee, that the original lists were "either in the hands of Governor Cox or the Department of Justice. Asked why they had not been turned over at once to the attorney general's office as a basis for possible prosecutions, he replied:

"We considered them an excellent campaign document. Besides, we have had them only two weeks."
"Well," said Senator Kenyon, "if any of the signers of these lists have violated the law, they ought to be jailed no matter whether they are republicans or democrats."
Other witnesses today were Parley P. Christensen, nominee of the Farmer-Labor party; Guy T. Scott, treasurer of the Republican congressional and senatorial campaign committees, and W. D. Jamison, hold over financial director of the Democratic national organization.

FRIDAY EVENING AUGUST 2

There may be general apathy in evidence regarding the political situation, but by the first of November the situation will be decidedly more lively.

Harding favors a policy for development of the West, and quite naturally has reasons for such owing to his standing in that territory.

Senator Harding preserves unusual silence relative to the slush fund. He must have already gotten his proportionate part, that is, if divisions are to be made that way.

Bogus ten and twenty dollars bills are reported to be in circulation in various sections of the country, but they will hardly trouble the fellow whose pocket change has not yet reached that amount.

Prices have started out on the decline and will not be so sudden as to cause an unnecessary out, according to the United States Chamber of Commerce. The public has not anticipated any sudden drop, but the assurance that further climbing will not be in progress is comforting in every way of the word.

Action of the Tennessee House of Representatives in expunging woman suffrage from its records is not considered seriously by those fully informed concerning conditions as they really exist in the state. In fact, it is generally supposed the decision will not have the slightest effect if it should be tested before the supreme court for the simple reason that the document has been officially certified by both the Governor of Tennessee and Secretary of Colby. The issue is a part of the federal constitution now, and it is hardly probable that anything which the anti-suffragist forces see fit to do will be given more than ordinary consideration. Federal laws are not easily changed, and as ratification was legal in every way there is little reason to suppose that supreme court officials will be inclined to change an issue so vitally interesting to thirty-five states ratifying the amendment before Tennessee. Consensus of opinion in every community appears to accept the matter closed and inevitable, and the movement taken by the legislators certainly will not counteract sentiment that has gained so rapidly in the interest of woman's enfranchisement.

Greenville extends a hearty welcome to the Carolina Fertilizer Company planning the erection of a large fertilizer factory here, for there is not anything more acceptable than manufacturing enterprises of all kinds. There is no argument against the fertilizer factory not finding plenty of business, for the territory is large and offers quite an inducement to such a plant. Pitt county is indisputably one of the richest agricultural sections of the country, and the fact that its people are principally dependent upon the farm production means conclusively that they welcome anything which will have the slightest tendency of facilitating the farmer in his great endeavors. The fertilizer factory will do this in an effective way. It will prepare the fertilizer and deliver to the planter within a considerably shorter time than required to secure from supply houses. Long shipments will be avoided, and regardless of transportation conditions, the Pitt county farmer will be able to cultivate his crop without experiencing the usual work occasioned by insufficient material for the soil. Such an enterprise has been needed for a long time, and its acquisition is one of the most desirable in a number of years.

No one has ever imagined that Governor Cox would be able to prove the existence of a $15,000,000 Republican campaign slush fund, for it has been apparent since the address in Pittsburgh that members of the Republican party have been too anxious about the charge for their own safety. It is mighty easy for such men as Chairman Hays to bring together certain facts relative to the campaign, and it has not been supposed at all that he or any other member of the party would admit Governor Cox was right. This would be improbable and certainly inadvisable for the simple reason that the indictment in itself has done the party great harm, but not near so much as a candid confession that the Democratic leader spoke the truth.

Taking the situation in its true light it seems that Governor Cox had decidedly greater force behind his Pittsburgh argument than anything which the Republicans have yet presented in defense. In fact, Chairman Hays's apportionments for each state are subject to great doubt simply because the sums coming through local organizations are beyond the comprehension of those unacquainted with the party's business, and certainly no one would expect Mr. Hays to divulge the real secrets of the campaign. Investigations in such an instance are useless, or the most vigorous quizzing by interested parties could not elicit the necessary information demanded by the public.

It is not meant, of course, that the versatile chairman would wilfully prevaricate about the matter, but it is safe to say he will find it to the interest of himself and party to keep several things secret which otherwise would do them no good if they were known. The situation from the first has been one in which the entire county has felt decidedly safe, for denials were expected, yet, the truth never has been.

There is no one disappointed in the investigation and it may be easily assumed that the general run of people is inclined to believe Governor's statement in preference to anything brought out at the investigation. The charge has done the party no good, but it has won the Democratic nominee hundreds of supporters admiring his decisive and aggressive way of conducting his campaign.

Germany is charged with dumping large quantities of inferior good into the United States and Great Britain, tamping those coming to this country "made in England" and those going to England "made in America." The practices so statements says, has been conducted upon an extensive scale for sometime, and it is believable therefore that there must have been numbers of people in both the United States and Great Britain familiar with the deceptive shipments. At is strange indeed that a country like Germany cannot learn the true meaning of peace from long years of warfare, and for a time at least show to the world that it really intends to live up to conditions upon which defeat was accepted. But, this it seems impossible, and the world must continue to endure surreptitious moments from those who have failed to learn in a national way that it is much better to deal honestly with the public, in the long run. The time is coming when the world will be afraid to accept things coming from the country cherishing malice and hatred for those who would lead them to the straight and narrow way of commercial intercourse, and if the present attitude does not undergo a decided change shortly trade will be injured considerably and the world will actually fear to recognize the rights of a civilized, but still barbarous country.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray. Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened our hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears; and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautiful dark, glossy and attractive.

EMPLOYMENT IN SELECTED INDUSTRIES IN JULY 1920

The Bureau of Labor Statistics of U. S. Department of Labor received and tabulated report concerning the volume of employment in July, 1920, from representative establishments in 13 manufacturing industries and coal mining. Comparing the figures of July 1920 with those of identical establishments for July, 1919, it appears that in 8 industries there was an increase in the number of persons employed, while in 6 there was a decrease. The largest increase, 32.8 percent, is shown in men's ready-made clothing, while paper making and cigar manufacturing shows percentage increase of 15.6 and 9.9, respectively. Decreases of 55.5 percent in woolen and 6.1 percent in boots and shoes are shown.

Thirteen of the 14 industries show an increase in the total amount of the payroll for July 1920, as compared with July, 1919 and one shows a decrease. The most important percentage increase 70.3 appears in men's ready-made clothing. The next largest increase are 51.0 percent in paper making, 47.0 percent automobile and 34.0 percent in cotton manufacturing. A decrease of 34.6 percent is shown in the woolen industry.

Cotton Convention at Montgomery Important to Every Business Interest in Carolina

There will be held in the City of Montgomery, Alabama, September 1st, 2nd, and 3rd, the most important cotton meeting ever held in the South. This meeting is for cotton growers, bankers, business men and all other allied interests. Every man in North Carolina whose business is affected by the price of cotton should attend this meeting.

They will consider the following matters, which are all vital to the continued prosperity of the South: Minimum price for cotton and cotton seed, plans to hold and market our cotton over a twelve months period and for financing the growers of cotton over this period to the extent of enabling them to do so without hurt or risk to any other interest.

This arrangement can only be made possible by standing together as one man, and by cooperating with each other. This can be accomplished only by organizing, pooling our interests into one big family. Until we do this, and not until we do it, can we hope for any change worthy of notice.

The speculators fear the American Cotton Association more than they have feared any other organization ever attempted in the South, and they will spare no means to break down its aims and purposes.

The 1919 crop of cotton and cotton seed cannot be sold at present prices being offered, only at a tremendous loss, as it has cost more to plant, cultivate and grow this crop of cotton than any crop ever grown in the history of planting cotton. Then will we be satisfied to sell it for less than we sold our 1919 crop?

Unless there is some concerted action in all Cotton States we will not be able to get more than they are now offering us and unless we are able to back up our actions in naming if we name a price we must be able to get it or we will become a laughing stock of the world.

CERTAINTIES.

Three hours I had to look Death in the face.
And gather up from life and old belief
Some courage, certainty, and ancient grace
To crush my cowardice and give relief.
(A clock ticked loudly in the dreary room.
The blanket over me was dark and rough.)
And yet I did not think, there, in the gloom,
On those high things: there was not time enough.
I thought intensely of four things I knew,
And clung to them—a poem and three friends.
And while I thought and loved, great faith I grew.
And so perhaps do all men meet their ends.
Now always in my soul those four I wear.
When I shall come to die they will be there.

SMITH-SUTTON.

A beautiful home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon, at three o'clock in Winterville at the home of Mr. David Sutton, when Miss Estella became the bride of Mr. John Smith, Jr., of Greenville. The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and flowers, and after the wedding march had been rendered by Mrs. Roy Davenport, the event was solemnized by Rev. P. S. Daniel of the Baptist church of Winterville.

Many gifts were received from their many friends from over the country. After the ceremony the happy couple left for Asheville and other points. On their return they will make Greenville their home.

"AWAY GOES PRUDENCE"

A Gripping Story.

Prudence Thorne, the fiancée of Hewitt Harland, is an aviation enthusiast. Forced by him to choose between flying and himself, she decides in favor of the aeroplane. To wheedle money for a new plane out of her father, she scatters torn clothing about her room to indicate that a fierce struggle had taken place, and leaving a "Black Hand" note announcing that she was held for $50,000 ransom, she flees to the home of Mrs. Ryan, a washerwoman.

Mrs. Ryan telephones the Thorne household that Prudence is safe with her and Hewitt decides to turn the tables on her. He hires Michael Ryan and a band of thieves to kidnap her. Disguised, Hewitt assists in the seizure of the girl but before he can reveal his identity to her, he is thrown out of the rendezvous and taken to a hospital. Prudence soon realizes her predicament and to throw them off the track joins the thieves. She becomes an adept in jimmying open windows and takes part in several house-breaking jobs.

Prudence writes to her father begging aid, but believing she is joking, he pays no attention to the matter. When he is surprised by the police at a burglary, Prudence manages to make her escape, and is followed to home by the police. She is arrested but released at the request of her amazed father. Hewitt, just discharged from the hospital, assures her that she may have as many airplanes as she wants and both are happy.

GREAT INTEREST IS CENTERED ON NEXT GOLF TOURNAMENT

United States Association Plans
Big Event in New York
This Month.

New York, Sept. 2. — International interest will be centered on this year's national amateur golf championship tournament which will begin next Monday September 6, at Roslyn, Long Island. The United States Golf Association officials have arranged that the qualifying round of 36 holes will be played over two courses, the new links of the Engineers' Club and the better known circuit of the North Shore Country Club which are scarcely a mile apart. The big field of entrants will be divided so that those playing the first half of the round on either golfing Phletrm hm hm hm mb course will play over the other links in the afternoon. The subsequent match play round consisting of 36 holes each day, will be contested over the Engineers' Club course which was laid out by Herbert Strong only three years ago.

On Saturday September 4 a team match between the United States and Canada will be played over the Engineers' links and on Sunday there will be the annual competition for the American Golfer trophy. All of the Canadian players who take part in this international match will be eligible to compete for the national championship. Among the Dominion representatives will be the veteran golfer George S. Lynn, who came close to winning the title many years ago.

PICNIC AT AMUZU PARK.

The members of the Presbyterian church and Sunday school, of Fountain, are picnicking at Amuzu Park today. They couldn't have selected a better place, and it shows that Pitt county fully appreciates the Park.

NUMBER OF CASES HEARD IN CRIMINAL COURT YESTERDAY

being withheld. David Hathaway, charged with failing to abide by the government's regulations for the dipping of cattle in this territory, pleaded guilty, entering prayer of judgment which was continued upon payment of costs.

M. W. Stancill, recently indicted for failure to comply with laws governing the dipping of cattle, pleaded guilty and entered a prayer for judgment which was continued upon payment of costs. C. C. Little, also charged with failure to dip cattle, entered prayer for judgment, which was continued upon payment of costs. Eddie Barrett, charged with assault with deadly weapon, submitted to a charge of trespass, and was fined $25 and costs. There are quite a number of cases on the calendar still, and while it is probable that a greater number of these will be disposed of during the present term, the docket will not be cleared completely, it is believed.

men. Such statements, said the judge, have gained rapid circulation on the streets, and that it was only fair and just that the matter be taken up for final decision. The jury objected to giving the matter a rehearing, but Judge Bond impressed upon them that duty demanded it, and that they should proceed without further delay.

It is quite probable that the matter will be taken up for further investigation today, as Solicitor Horton, who was ordered to continue his investigation of the case, will probably have all necessary facts compiled in time for reconsideration during the afternoon session. Evidence was meagre and insufficient at first, and it is a matter of considerable speculation just what will be brought out when the jury takes up the issue again today.

The case has created more than a general interest in this city owing to the number of unconfirmed reports which have been in constant circulation since the killing occurred, and the fact that Chief Jones and his assistant are two of the most conservative and efficient men of the department causes the public to decide to have the issue clarified to such an extent that the statements may be refuted completely.

GRAND JURY SAYS COUNTY OFFICES IN EXCELLENT SHAPE

office and find the same in good condition, the books and records apparently neatly and well kept and everything in apparent good order. We also visited the Register of Deeds' office and find the same well kept. The books and other documents appearing to be well and neatly kept and the office in good order. We visited the county jail and find the same in good condition, but the sanitary conditions only fair, the inmates well care for and humanely treated. We also visited and inspected the Court House and grounds and find the same in good condition. We also visited the office of the All-time Superintendent of Health of the county, and find the same in excellent condition. We would recommend to the people of Pitt county that they take advantage of this institution, as we are of the opinion that they will derive very great benefit therefrom. We also visited the Auditor's office and found the books and other documents well and neatly kept.

Fourth: That we have passed upon all bills submitted to us, except those in which we were unable to obtain witnesses, and acted upon the same and returned them into court.

Recommendations: Due to the increased volume of business in the office of the Register of Deeds during the recent years we recommend that he be relieved of the tax books, as the regular business of this office is enough for any one office. We further recommend that the tax books be handled in the office of the Auditor in the same manner that has been adopted by other progressive counties of North Carolina. We also recommend that the proper authorities investigate and remedy the sanitary condition of the cafes and barbecue stands before the opening of the tobacco market in Greenville.

It is the unanimous desire of the Grand Jury to extend its appreciation to the Judge and the officers of the court for the kindness and courtesy shown this body during this term of court.

Very respectfully submitted,
C. D. TUNSTALL,

Foreman Grand Jury.
