

Cox Charges Republican Leaders With Perjury

Tobacco Warehousemen in Readiness for Opening On Tuesday

SAYS REPUBLICANS ARE NEWBERRYIZING THE ENTIRE NATION

Governor Cox Begins Whirlwind Campaign, With Half Dozen Speeches REITERATES CHARGES THAT G. O. P. COULD RAISE SLUSH FUND Governor Cites Newberry Case in Substantiating Charge Against Republicans.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 3.—Suggestion of perjury in the Chicago investigation by the Senate committee of the Republican campaign contributions was made here tonight by Governor Cox, Democratic Presidential candidate, in a speech closing the first day of his Western campaign.

Referring to denials by Republicans of his Pittsburg charges that a Republican quota list of $8,145,000 was made for fifty-one cities, Governor Cox said to his audience here:

"You know that when denial was made at Chicago of the existence of a quota, men were deliberately telling an untruth and telling it under oath."

The Governor's statement here closed a day in which he delivered sixteen addresses devoted largely to Republican finances and the League of Nations. At Battle Creek he discussed Article Ten of the League Covenant for the first time since his acceptance address, declaring its import was an international warning to "keep off the grass" of other nations' boundary line.

Republican contributions were discussed at length here.

"It first was denied by Mr. Hays, (Republican national chairman) that there was a quota," said Governor Cox, again presenting the "official bulletin" the Republican treasurer with its statements regarding alleged untruths under oath and over subscriptions.

DOUBLE SALES OPENING DAY FIRST SALE AT THE STAR

At a meeting of the board of trade this morning, it was decided to put on two sales instead of three as previously agreed upon. This change was made because two of the companies (Export and American) said they could not furnish more than two buyers. Our firm has always been in favor of three sales and regret the fact that the change had to be made. The action taken will nullify all sales cards and new ones are now being printed. The opening day, however, will be Tuesday, September 7th, with 1st sale at the STAR.

TWO COLORED MEN ON TRIAL FOR LIFE IN CRIMINAL COURT

David Scarborough and Anderson Moore Being Tried for Killing Lonnie Barnes

JURY'S VERDICT NOT EXPECTED UNTIL LATE HOUR DURING TONIGHT

The jury in the criminal term of Pitt county superior court this afternoon returned a verdict of second degree murder in the case of David Scarborough of the Fountain territory, who was being tried for his life charged with the murder of Lonnie Barnes several days ago. Anderson Moore who was indicted for complicity in the murder with Scarborough was acquitted by Judge Bond shortly before the case was turned over to the jury for final consideration. Scarborough's was sentenced to the state penitentiary for a term of twenty years. The verdict was rendered much sooner than was expected for it was at first thought that the case would consume the entire day's session.

The criminal term of Pitt county superior court which convened in this city last Monday morning was not brought to final conclusion yesterday evening as supposed for the heaviness of the docket and the number of important issues awaiting hearing were of such a pressing nature that officials decided to continue activity through today. So far there have been quite a number of unimportant cases continued until the next term, but the two murder cases taken up yesterday morning were not completed by adjournment hour and consequently the court will continue its operation until the last case has been completed.

The first degree murder case against David Scarborough and Anderson Moore, charged with the killing of Lonnie Barnes, near Fountain several days ago, was taken up by the court following the completion of the murder charge against Louis Forbes and Willis James, and it is expected that the case will consume the entire session. EXCLUSIVE EXPORT TAX IMPOSED UPON BRAZIL EXPORTERS Union Laborers Connected With Port Activity Demand Personal Rakeoff.

EXTENSIVE BOYCOTT CONTINUES IN FORCE AGAINST EXPORTERS

Dock Workers Refuse to Load Shipments Unless Given Contributions.

Honolulu, T. H., Sept. 4.—Dr. Syngman Rhee, president of the provisional government of Korea, who is spending some weeks in Honolulu, denounces Japan's recent announcement of proposed reforms in Korea as pretense to mislead the western world. Koreans, said Dr. Rhee, will not rest until they have attained their complete independence of Japan.

Dr. Rhee referred to announcement July 31 by the Governor-General of Korea, Banam Suho, of the imminence of local self-government in Korean communities.

"This official announcement," said Dr. Rhee, "is in harmony with Japanese policy in Korea for the past 10 years. Korea is covered with a screen of Japanese words. Japan shows one face to the western world and a different one to the East."

"To the Korean people it makes little difference what promises the Japanese make with regard to Korea," the Provisional President continued.

AMERICA SENDING SPECIAL PLANES TO FRENCH CLUB RACES

Latest Designed Airplanes to Participate in Bennett Races in Paris.

New York, Sept. 4.—Original American design, high power, small size and greater speed than any recorded aeronautical performance of the past, are features which the designers say are possessed by three airplanes en route to Paris to represent America in the Gordon Bennett Cup races beginning September 27.

Wright, Curtiss and the United States Army, all pioneers in the conquest of the air, are the names which will be painted on the fuselages of the three American racers, each chosen for the promise it held out to bring back the trophy which has been in France since 1913.

Upon these three entrants America pins her hope of ever again possessing the coveted cup, which will become the permanent property of France if she wins again this year.

The race will be held at Etampes, near Paris, over a circular course of 300 kilometers (186.3 miles). The prizes include 10,000 francs offered by the French government and the Gordon Bennett Cup, valued at $2,500.

Two of the three American machines are monoplanes, while the army contestant, though of miniature proportions, is a biplane. All three have been especially designated for the race, including special motors and devices to increase speed and endurance. It is said to be the opinion of flying experts that the winners of this race must make over 200 miles an hour.

BANDS OF ROBBERS IN SYRIA DISTRICT HOLD UP AMERICANS

Robber Bands of Chetes Threaten Travelers and Make Situation Unsafe.

TURKISH NATIONALIST FACTION DECLARED TO BE SUPPORTING THEM

Dr. Lambert, Director of Relief in Syria, Gives View of Situation.

Constantinople, Sept. 4.—Robber bands of Chetes, who have for months made travel in Syria unsafe and have held up American relief workers twice within 10 days, are operating under the orders of Turkish nationalists and of the Arab government, according to information received by Dr. R. A. Lambert, director of Near East Relief activities at Aleppo. Dr. Lambert says he has received affidavits to support this charge. He believes it was one of these bands that last February murdered two American Young Men's Christian Association secretaries near Aintab.

The circumstances which lead to these conclusions are described by Near East Relief agents as follows:

The first holdup of Americans occurred in June when two motor trucks in charge of John O. Brian, a relief worker, that were carrying 19 Armenians was halted between Aintab and Killis.

TELLS HOW BRITAIN IS MEETING SEVERE HOUSE SHORTAGES

Juaranty Trust Gives Description of Work of Foreign Bureau.

New York, Sept. 3.—The acute housing shortage faced by many cities in the United States today brought from the Juaranty Trust Company a description of its foreign trade bureau of how Great Britain is meeting a similar situation.

"The program of the British Ministry of Health—complete rehousing in three years—is about one year behind and is costing more than double the original estimates," said the report.

"Local authorities in England are left in charge of the work unless they fail to show results, in which case the business is turned over to the office of works."

"What is keeping back housing at the present time is the fact that there are not enough skilled men to even a quarter of the work wanted. The trades unions will not allow the number to be increased from the outside."

"The government is using a sort of indirect compulsion by prohibiting 'luxury and unessential building,' so that if a man will not build cottages he is not allowed to build anything."

There are housing bond campaigns all over the country. In London, subscriptions to the six percent bonds are coming in at the rate of about $100,000 daily. While the local governments are borrowing in the ordinary way for housing schemes not financed by bonds is usually seven percent.

DENOUNCES JAPAN FOR PROPOSALS OF REFORM IN KOREA

Dr. Syngman Rhee, President of Provisional Government, Opposes Proposal.

SAYS ATTITUDE IS IN HARMONY WITH JAPAN'S POLICIES

Buenos Aires, Sept. 4.—Unions of laborers connected with port activities in Buenos Aires and other ports of Argentina have imposed upon exporters "their own private export tax" as a means of maintaining extensive boycott now in force against exporters and shipping companies, according to a complaint made by packing house establishments here to Minister of Finance Salaberry. At the present time there are more than 100 exporting firms under boycott, in addition to the powerful Mihanovich Company, owner of most of the river and coastwise shipping of the country.

A committee representing meat and hide exporters told the Finance Ministry that the dock laborers were refusing to load their overseas shipments unless the shippers made a contribution toward the support of the union of $7 for each 200 bales of wool and $3.50 for each 100 casks of tallow and like products.

The delegation pointed out that these contributions could be called "extra official export duties," and that some of them have been demanded since last May. It was stated that before any shipment can be made, application must be made to the labor union officials and that several days often elapse before the requisite "authority" is allowed for embarking. The Minister was told that in some cases the unions have demanded to see the exporter's books in order to make sure that none of the produce to be exported came from any firm under boycott.

A list of 106 exporters under boycott was submitted to the government and it was pointed out that while there are more than 220,000,000 pounds of unsold wool in the country and more than 1,000,000 hides, most of the leading exporters of these products whose services are needed in relieving the congestion, are not allowed to do business on account of boycotts.

EVERYTHING READY FOR OPENING SALE ON LOCAL MARKET

Warehouse Have Complete Sales Forces, and Are Prepared for Activity.

EVERY HOUSE OFFERS EXCELLENT FACILITY TO COUNTY PLANTERS

Entire Floor Forces Composed of Men Fully Acquainted With Industry.

The tobacco warehouses of Greenville have selected the general floor forces and have everything in readiness for the opening of the market Tuesday, September 7th. Offices forces in practically all warehouses have been getting everything in readiness for the opening for the past several days, therefore, it is quite natural that every little detail will have been looked after by the opening day. There are seven warehouses in the city to cater to the farmer this season; and it is believed that congestion will be avoided even during the most strenuous part of the season. The warehouses are: Forbes & Morton, Gus E. Forbes and W. Z. Morton, proprietors. The Star, Messers, Smith and Sugg, proprietors; Liberty, S. T. Hooker, proprietor; Johnson and Foxhall, Brick Warehouse and Warehouse No. 2, F. V. Johnston and F. D. Foxhall, proprietors; Gentry and Gorman, J. J. Gentry and J. N. Gorman, proprietors; Centz Brick Warehouse, J. F. Brinkley and D. S. Spain, proprietors.

The warehouse forces consists of men well acquainted with the industry, and thoroughly familiar with details. The forces for the respective houses of the city are:

Center Brick Warehouse.
J. Frank Brinkley and D. S. Spain, proprietors. J. Frank Brinkley, sales manager, D. S. Spain, business manager.

GREENVILLE'S THIRD SALE

IS KILLED IN MEETING TODAY

At a called meeting of The Tobacco Board of Trade the much advertised Third Sale was killed today. The vote standing nine to seven, three warehousemen namely F. D. Foxhall & Johnston and S. T. Hooker, voting against the third sale. This meeting was called to discuss the matter as the Export Tobacco Co., had wired the Board of Trade that they were unwilling to give Greenville the third buyer, although up till Monday of this week they had three buyers employed for this market. They gave as their reason that they and the Imperial Tobacco Co., were having to buy the bulk of the South Carolina sales and that it looked like the same conditions would prevail in this section and if such conditions did exist they would be unable to care for the tobacco. They want to see this crop spread out, not sold at once as the past several crops have been sold, in order that they may be able to buy and handle it and have taken this step believing that it will delay marketing the Eastern Carolina crop. Some of the warehousemen have gone to much expense in flag force and advertising for this third sale and this change will be costly to them. From the writers viewpoint we have made a gross blunder, one that will cost the market to lose much tobacco needlessly for I feel that these same buyers will have to buy the tobacco wherever it is sold. SATURDAY, SEPT. 4, 1920.

They say the bottom has fallen out of the sugar market in New York. That's bad, of course, but it nevertheless sounds good to those who have been waiting so long for the announcement.

Senator Harding is preparing his Labor Day speech. It is to be hoped it will be based along the same line with former ones, for then the public will be as much in the dark about his ambition as ever.

If reports from Europe may be considered authentic, Bolshevik armies are about the most numerous things in the country. Polish statements have frequently mentioned the annihilation of armies, and it puts one to wondering how many soldiers the demoralizing element is capable of putting in the field. But, eventually, the report will come that the last destructive blow has been made, and not until then will the world begin to assume a peaceful appearance.

It is pleasing indeed to note that the Pitt county Memorial hospital is gradually assuming concrete form because it is something the county needs and has needed badly for several years. A more fitting memorial to those who lost their lives in the world-wide war could not be made, and Pitt county will be doing the right thing to recognize those who paid the supreme sacrifice in this way.

If that Lord Mayor of Cork who is on a hunger strike in London continues to feel the same way about his situation much longer he is going to find that starving is realistic when one keeps on refusing nourishment. He may flirt with nature for a certain length of time, but his bluff will be called eventually in a decidedly convincing way.

Harding takes up more time with baseball players than with the average working man. And just here is where he has made his greatest mistake. The American laborer feels about as important as any person and unless he is recognized certain instincts of a mule are inherited momentarily, in fact, just long enough to balk and absolutely refuse to go. The laboring element has done just that with Mr. Harding and his vote will show that it is sometimes best to get on good terms with the mule even though he may sometimes kick, but then keep going.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for the vice-presidency appears to be attracting favorable attention in every section of the country which he has visited recently, and indication apparently point to quite a successful campaign. He has not appeared in many public addresses since his nomination, but every time he has made a mighty pleasing impression, in fact, an impression that is likely to be enduring. Mr. Roosevelt is a firm supporter of the Cox and Wilson ideals of government, and as he supports to best which the country may ask for, it is quite likely his campaigning will be decidedly successful.

Poland has declined to jeopardize her military operations against the Bolsheviks by binding herself to regard the "artificial boundaries" laid down at the peace conference, and in doing so has probably done right. The little country has faced the danger alone, without aid from the Allies, without guarantee of more than moral aid, and if disregarding the boundaries laid down at the peace conference is going to give them victory over the hordes of Bolshevik soldiers, demoralizing and laying Europe in waste, it is probably better that the same attitude be continued. It seems unfair and partial that the conference should make such a demand of a country fighting such seemingly overwhelming odds, and it is to be hoped that Poland may come out of the carnage victorious, yet keeping the friendship and good will of the Allies. The situation is a most unusual one, and fair as far as the conference is concerned, but there are exceptions in all rules, and this time Poland should be given the big end of the bargain.

The opening of the Greenville tobacco market will mark another eventful era in the annals of Pitt county industry, and witness one of the most prosperous seasons in a number of years. It is quite gratifying to note the splendid improvements that have taken place among the factories and warehouses, for these assure rapid disposition of the farmers' products and open up way for more extensive handling of the leaf. The fact that the market can handle around 500,000 pounds of tobacco six days to the week justifies the belief that congestion will not occur frequently, and that the factories will be able to dispose of it as rapidly as it accumulates. Triple sales will speed up activity to no little extent and combining both it really looks like the market is prepared for one of the most successful seasons in many years. It is quite probable that prices will be all that can be expected. In fact, it seems assured that good tobacco will be in constant demand throughout the entire season, and in this case, it is reasonable to anticipate fairly good prices. The farmer deserves it, and it is to be hoped his ambition may be realized.

The invisible government such as has been suggested by the senatorial investigation of Governor Cox's change an enormous slush fund against the Republican party is something that should cause grave alarm in this country, for when it becomes so that any faction cannot work out in the open and on the level with the public to fall to recognize it as a national organization. It has been plainly evidenced all along that facts presented by the Republicans during the investigation were unreliable, for they only presented one side of the case, and failed completely to give "silent contributors" who could easily carry the campaign fund up to thirty or fifty millions if they would. The subscriptions from each state, as presented by the party adequate means for carrying on a legitimate campaign, but not being content with this, they have perverted the report of the secretary, would give probably increased the enormity of the charge if the public knew the situation as it really exists. The campaign is one of the most deplorable occurrences in the annals of the country, and gives the public a concrete example of surreptitious movements which would gain momentum in the case of party ascendency. It is up to the people to stand behind the Democrats from now until the November, and see to it that propaganda about Governor Cox is refuted with plain out commonsense argument of the fair against the unfair. The enough to see through the movement to buy up the vote of the nation by illegal procedures.

WHITE'S THEATRE

TUESDAY NIGHT
Ethel Clayton in "CROOKED STREETS"
An excellent attraction. It arouses intense interest and creates suspense. The story unfolds in Shanghai, China. The Chinese atmosphere is marvelous. One feels as being in China. Miss Clayton wears some very pretty sport dresses.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.
Bryant Washburn in "WHAT HAPPENED TO JONES"
A farce comedy. The story revolves around prohibition. Bryant Washburn turns bootlegger. Then impersonates a famous prohibitionist.

There are a lot of funny situations in this picture that will cause some good hearty laughs.
THURSDAY NIGHT
Dorothy Dalton in "GUILTY OF LOVE"
A lavish production. Miss Dalton wears some very beautiful gowns. The story is unlike any thing she has ever appeared in. It would spoil the picture to tell you any thing about it, other than its a picture we feel sure you don't want to miss.

BARNHILL-EVBRETT.

(Reported for The Reflector.)

The beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elector Mayo, near Bethel, N. C., was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday, September 1, at 9:30 A. M., when their sister, Miss Reba Mason Everette became the bride of Mr. William Gray Barnhill, from near Greenville, N. C.

The ceremony was impressively performed on the lawn by Rev. W. O. Biggs, pastor of the bride and groom. An improvised altar was erected over the walk, tastefully decorated in the color scheme of green and white, before which the contracting parties took their vows.

At the first strains of the wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Mary Adkins, came the ribbon girls Ida Magnolia Mayo and Sallie Josephine Mooring wearing dresses of white organdie. Next came the bride's maids, Misses Sibyl Hardison, of Washington, N. C., Callie Ruffin and Geneva Lancaster, of Rocky Mount, N. C., and Ollie Jones, of Bethel, N. C. They wore dresses and hats of organdie in rainbow colors, each carrying a arm bouquet of pink asters. The groomsmen were: Messrs. J. B. Bunting, Howard and Lester Keel, of Bethel, N. C., Jesse Barnhill of Greenville, N. C., Mrs. N. C. Everett, of Robersonville, N. C. dame of honor, a bride of two years, wore her wedding gown of white satin and lace and carried white asters. Miss Selma Everette, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a flesh georgette with picture hat to match and carried white asters. The ring bearer little Hildah Blair Barnhill, niece of the groom, carried the ring on a silver tray. She wore a dress of silver cloth and lace. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, T. E. Mayo, was dressed in a traveling suit of dark blue tricot with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of white asters. The groom had as his best man, his brother, Mr. Walter Barnhill. Truicuri was used during the ceremony. Preceding the ceremony Miss Blanche Allgood, of Washington, N. C., sang "I love you truly," and "At Dawning."

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Barnhill, accompanied by their bridal party, left amidst showers of rice and good wishes, for Rocky Mount, where they took the train for the western part of the state.

Mrs. Barnhill is a graduate of the Eastern Carolina Teachers Training School. Mr. Barnhill, a very progressive farmer of Pitt county is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Barnhill. They will be at home near Greenville N. C., after September 15th.

On last evening at the Amuzu Park Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Tunstall delightfully entertained at a garden party, complimentary to their house guests, Mesdames John Wilkerson and Macon Tulley, of Belhaven, Misses Ruth Credle, of Papago and Mary Chauncey, of Belhaven. The side of the park facing the water front was roped off and beautifully decorated with Japanese lanterns and many colored lights, and presented a scene which will long be remembered by all who attended.

Upon arrival the guests were welcomed by Dr. and Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse.

In passing from the main entrance into the park they were given a cordial welcome by Mrs. H. A. White and Miss Bess Purdy, and shown to the punch bowl, which was arranged in a beautiful nook, artistically decorated with cut flowers, weeping willow and potted plants. Here the guests were served delicious punch by Mesdames T. E. Hooker and R. E. Crow. From the punch bowl they were introduced to the receiving line in which were Mr. and Mrs. Tunstall and their guests. After passing from the receiving line they were welcomed by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Bowling, who showed them to the register, which was presided over by Mesdames S. T. White and James Hines. On the shore of the lake and amidst beautiful surrounding of foliage was arranged a booth from which an ice course was served by Mr. and H. L. Hodges and Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Anthony assisted by Misses Alice Lee Hooker, Frances Moseley, Nan Arthur, Bet Dixon, Blanche Davenport, Hannah Fulford, Rose Hadley, Clara Louise Moyer, Alice Critcher, Marie Thomas and Virginia King.

Music was furnished by Edmond's orchestra and both the married and single couples enjoyed the dancing. All the amusements of the park were thrown open to the guests and they were thoroughly enjoyed.

It was not only one of the most delightful parties of the season, but the most unique one ever given, and each and every guest reluctantly departed declaring they never enjoyed anything more than the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Tunstall.

tion today owing to the long string of witnesses to be examined and argument by attorneys before the case is turned over the jury for final consideration.

The jury in this case was picked from a special venire summoned before the court short before the noon hour, and as the entire day will probably be consumed in examination of witnesses and argument of legal representatives it is expected that it will be late tonight before a verdict will be rendered.

According to evidence disclosed in the case yesterday, Scarborough, Anderson and Moore were employed in curing a barn of tobacco at a farm several miles from Fountain. They had a dispute over the manner in which the tobacco had been placed in the barn, and a short time later Moore was found dead at the barn, having been hit over the head with some heavy instrument that produced almost instantaneous death. A white man by the name of Harris, also employed on the farm, returned to the barn and found Moore lying on the ground, but no one else in sight. Mr. Harris immediately went for assistance and found Moore sitting in a chair at another barn, asleep. They returned to the barn where the tragedy had occurred, but Scarborough who was at the place shortly before the murder, had fled.

In a preliminary hearing before a magistrate shortly after the murder, Scarborough admitted hitting Barnes, and declared that Moore hit him also. Moore emphatically denied the statement, declaring that he had nothing to do with occurrence. Evidence so far has failed to prove his complicity, and as both men are on trial for their lives examination of witnesses today will be thorough and long drawn out. Scarborough, a man about 35 years of age, is represented by K. A. Pittman of
