

SAYS REPUBLICANS ATTEMPT TO LEVY ON COAL DEALERS

Governor Cox Asks Hays About $80,000 Assessment on Coal Men of Nation PRESENTS NAMES OF MEN COMMITTEE MAY CALL FOR HEARINGS

Democratic Nominee Interests Himself Further With Senate Investigation

Chicago, Sept. 5.—While spending Sunday here on his Western tour, Governor Cox interested himself in the Senate committee investigation of Republican campaign funds and tonight gave out a statement intended to furnish the committee with leads to substantiate his charge that a $15,000,000 fund is being raised by the Republican committee to "buy the Presidency."

In his statement, made after conferences with E. H. Moore, of Youngstown, Ohio, his pre-convention manager, and personal representative at the committee hearings, and other party leaders, Governor Cox charged that attempts had been made to levy a quota of $80,000 on Chicago coal dealers and suggested the names of persons whom the committee might call to substantiate his charge.

"Inasmuch as I could not stay to furnish the information," the governor said, "I thought I would leave a few leads for the committee."

The governor's statement was in the form of a question directed to Chairman Will Hays, of the Republican national committee, in which he asks Mr. Hays "whether he knows anything of a quota or assessment on Chicago coal men for $80,000 at a meeting here early in the summer. At this meeting, announcement of the quota was made by J. K. Dering and supplemented by C. M. Moderer."

"If the circumstance is not fresh in Mr. Hays' mind, he might call in George McArthur, E. E. Fyke, Robert H. Zoller, Jas. Forester, of Du Quoin, Ill., or Rice Miller, of Hillsboro, Ill."

The governor stated "some Democrats were in the meeting and they demurred." He asserted "that is just one group that was assessed. I thought I would just leave a lead with the committee."

Among others who conferred today with the governor were Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana, chairman of the Senatorial campaign committee, Representative Frank Dornus, of Michigan; Congressman Warren Gard, of Hamilton, Ohio, and Colonel E. Lester Jones, director of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. Colonel Jones gave the governor information about reclamation projects under way in the northwest, where he speaks the coming week.

FARMERS BANK MOVES INTO NEW QUARTERS

The Farmers Bank moved today from its old quarters on Dickinson avenue, into its new quarters on the corner of Dickinson avenue, and Pitt street. The new building is modern in every respect and is a credit to the city as well as a delight to its many patrons. The Farmers Bank has always done a splendid business, but it is expected that it will do a still better business now that it has moved. The building is two stories with the lower floor being used by the bank for business and the upper story is composed of the directors rooms and other smaller rooms.

The bank will open at its usual time tomorrow and although the moving is taking place, it will not interfere with business.

NEW YORK STORES ADOPT REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT PLAN

Employees in Stores Have Voice in All Matters Affecting Themselves.

WAGE SCALES FIXED BY BODY FROM BOTH HOUSE AND SENATES

Improvement in Service is Chief Aim of Employers in New Method.

New York, Sept. 6.—The Republican form of government for employes, introduced in certain industrial plants throughout the country, has been adopted by a large New York department store.

Employees of this store, numbering 1,700, have a voice in virtually all matters affecting their relations with the management, through elective bodies made after the bicameral system of representation prevailing in the government of the United States.

The employes elect members of their house of representatives and senate directly, while the executive department, consisting of a cabinet of five, is named by the corporation officials. The judicial functions are carried out by a (Continued on page four.)

CRIMINAL TERM OF PITT COUNTY COURT IN SESSION TODAY

One Week Term Convened With Heaviest Docket in Several Months.

UNUSUAL NUMBER OF LIQUOR CHARGES ARE ON DOCKET FOR WEEK

The regular September term of Pitt county court, for the trial of criminal cases, convened in this city this morning with Judge F. M. Wooten, presiding and Solicitor P. R. Hines, conducting the prosecution. The docket for this term is one of the heaviest and most unusual in several months, and cannot possibly be cleared completely during the one week session. There are about 155 cases on the calendar, including probably the greatest number of liquor charges in the annals of the court. The remainder of the cases are composed of the usual unimportant issues that generally come before the court each Monday morning for consideration, but many of them will require quite a while in disposing off.

While the docket is the heaviest in several months, it is believed that many of the important issues will be disposed of by the concluding session Friday afternoon, for it is the desire of the officials to relieve the congestion and be able to facilitate work in every way possible. Judge Wooten and Solicitor Hines have made mighty good time in past sessions, but so many cases have accumulated for the criminal session that it is natural to expect that only ordinary progress can be made considering the great number of issues now awaiting final hearing.

The work of the county court has been interesting and profitable to the country ever since its establishment, for it has directly relieved congestion in Superior court and also has given defendants in the lower court some recourse besides that afforded by the higher source of jurisdiction. Officials have proved themselves pleasingly diligent in the work from session to session, and it is believed that the present criminal term will prove one of the most eventful, if not the busiest, in a number of years. Every effort will be made to clear the docket, but it is hardly probable that other than the important actions will be reached.

PROHIBITION PARTY TO MAKE ACT MAIN ISSUE IN CAMPAIGN

Prohibition Campaign Manager Says Federal Amendment Will be Keynote.

Chicago, Sept. 6.—Maintenance of the federal prohibition laws is the keynote of the Prohibition Party's presidential campaign, W. G. Calderwood, Prohibition campaign manager, said here today, discussing the issues as viewed by his party.

"The position of the party in this campaign," Mr. Calderwood said, "is that the Prohibition Party is needed in the failure of the major parties to take any stand on the prohibition question."

"Next to prohibition, our candidates will discuss the League of Nations. I think we take the best stand of any on this question. We urge immediate ratification of the league treaty together with the covenant. We believe the quickest and best way to obtain what changes are needed is to get into the league and fix it from inside, according as experience teaches, rather than to stand around theorizing to no effect on the outside and so blocking progress."

The speaking tour of the Prohibition Party's presidential nominee, Aaron S. Watkins of Germantown, O., will begin today September 6. The vice-presidential candidate, D. Leigh Colvin

SEA LION HUNTERS FIND GREAT GAME ON OREGON COAST

William Hunter, "King Hunter," Collected Bounty for Several Captures.

Astoria, Ore., Sept. 6.—William M. Hunter, known here as "king" of sea-lion hunters, recently collected $880 bounty from the state for 352 sea-lion scalps, paid at the rate of $2.50 each. Bounty is paid on the sea-lions because they are considered the Pacific Coast Salmon's worst enemy. They gather off the mouth of the Columbia River here to prey on fish bound upstream.

Sea-lion hunting is dangerous, Hunter says and he tells of narrow escapes from angry bulls. Seals, he asserts are not as awkward as they appear but can travel fast.

Recently one chased him over the rocks but was killed by Hunter's companion before it reached him.

Hunter works from a small launch while at sea. Much of his hunting is done on rocky beaches where seals congregate. He learned his trade as he terms it as a mountaineer hunting bear and deer in the Cascade Mountains.

Skins of the sea-lions are used extensively in glove manufacturing. Oils and fats are also products.

BIG PARADE OPENING DAY OF THE PITT COUNTY FAIR

Valuable Prizes Offered for Best Decorated Cars and Floats by Chief Marshal Kittrell.

Everybody in Eastern North Carolina as well as the whole state is looking forward to the opening day of the Pitt County Fair, September 21st. This is scheduled to be the biggest day Pitt County has ever had, and every citizen of the county is urged to give all the co-operation possible towards this end. The remaining three days, 22nd, 24th, will be big too, but we want the assistance of all towards a banner day for Tuesday 21st.

Arrangements are being made for an exceptionally big parade the opening day. The following is a partial list to be included, others to be added later: thirty-five marshals, all mounted, the 23rd Infantry Band; Krause's Carnival Band, several hundred of the school children, a large number of Pitt County's world war veterans, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and several decorated automobiles and floats. The following valuable prizes will be offered and should cause many to spend a little time decorating their cars, trucks, or fixing floats, first prize, $25.00, second prize $10.00, third prize, free admission to the Fair Grounds.

To make a success of anything we must have co-operation. We want this parade to be a big success, so let's all join in with some feature. If you can suggest a feature that will help it will be greatly appreciated. All those that wish to help us will please give notice as early as possible.

A CHANCE FOR THE BOYS TO WIN A GOOD PRIZE.
All the boys in town or the county that have ponies and want to ride in the Fair Parade Tuesday, September 21st, will come to see me at once. A prize will be offered for the best looking pony and rider

MAINE EXPECTS TO HAVE INTERESTING POLITICAL BATTLE

Political Interest for the Moment Is Centered on September Election.

PRESIDENTIAL FIGHT VIEWED WITH SPECIAL INTEREST EVERYWHERE

Gubernatorial Contest Expected to be Determined and Stubbornly Fought.

Portland, ME., Sept. 6.—Political interest for the moment is largely occupied in speculation on the outcome of the election in this state on September 13. A campaign that began in earnest on August 23 will be fought without let-up through the final week.

The usual predictions of success are being issued by both republicans and democrats.

Maine is unique in its constitutional provisions for state elections which are held in September instead of November and in presidential years the local contests are viewed as of special importance. On these years the fighting is no less for possession of state offices, representations in Congress and control of the state legislature than for the (Continued on Page 4)

HORNE & COMPANY TO STAGE FORMAL OPENING THURSDAY

New Store on Dickinson Avenue to Entertain Visitors from 5 to 10 O'clock.

INTERESTING PROGRAM NOW BEING ARRANGED FOR THE OPENING DAY

Probably one of the most interesting occurrences in the business circles of the city is the announcement of the formal opening of the new store of John L. Horne & Company, located in the Long building on Dickinson avenue Thursday evening from five to ten o'clock. Music and refreshments will be served throughout the opening hours and a cordial invitation is extended to people of the entire county by the management in announcing the event.

The opening of the new store stands out prominently as one of the most interesting events in several months to people of this city for Mr. Horne has been associated in clothing business here for a number of years and has selected one of the most complete stocks of men's and boy's furnishings ever before presented to the public. The interior of the store is handsomely furnished in mahogany, appropriately matched with latest designed show cases, seats and display racks, and forms a splendid view for the shopper on entering the front door.

Mr. Horne says that conservation and good service will be the policy of the firm in its connection with the public, and that nothing will be left undone to make shopping conditions the very best in the city. The store is spacious, well ventilated and lighted, and comfortable seats have been provided for the shopper's comfort in every department. These features will stand out prominently in the firm's future business, and certainly will be appreciated the discriminating and observing man or boy looking for genuine service.

The public is cordially invited to make the store a visit during the formal opening as every provision is being made for the reception and entertainment of visitors. The management is particularly anxious to have everyone interested in the best which the market affords to make the store a visit, as the showing will be complete as well as entertaining.

LOCAL SCHOOLS TO OPEN FOR SESSION TUESDAY MORNING

First Grade Students Requested to be at Evans Street School Friday.

SLIGHT CHANGE MADE IN THE PROGRAM FOR HIGH SCHOOL CLASSES

All High School Students Must Report at School During Coming Monday

The City Schools will open for regular work on Tuesday September 14. However, there will be work in certain departments of the school on Friday and Monday preceding. On Friday, September 10th all children who are entering the first grade will present themselves at the Evans Street school at 9 o'clock. The principals of the Model School and Evans Street School, and the Superintendent will be there in order to advise with the parents regarding their children.

There has been a slight change in the program of the High School students. None of the High School students will be asked to report on Friday. But must report on Monday the 13th in the following order at the High School Building:

It is absolutely essential that all High School students be present at the time indicated above, and if not present, will be charged with an absence on their record. The purpose of this day's work will be to enroll, and to advise the students concerning their course for the coming year. The Greenville High School has been developed to the point that there is now a very wide range of subjects from which a student may choose. There is being in this year for the first time a Complete Commercial Course. This will consist of bookkeeping, shorthand and typewriting. In order that the best interests of the child may be served, the school authorities are very anxious to have the parents come with their children on Monday.

Regular work will begin in all the schools on Tuesday, September 14. Mr. T. J. Sachse, the principal of the High School is in his office at the High School building every day now and will be glad to talk with parents and students concerning their work for the coming year. Mr. Sachse comes from Missouri, and is a full graduate of the Missouri State Teachers College, and has had a number of years experience in school work. During the world war he served with the American army. He comes to Greenville with an excellent record of work in the state of Missouri. He is well equipped both to teach and to supervise.

WILL ELLISON KILLS CHARLIE VINES AND SERIOUSLY WOUNDS HENRY DUPREE

Will Ellison, Col., on yesterday afternoon, at Falkland, shot and killed Charlie Vines and seriously wounded Henry Dupree. Ellison's father was killed near Falkland sometime ago and this same negro has been giving trouble in this section quite awhile. He was to have appeared in court today for shooting Mr. Beach at the carnival last spring, but of course after his trouble yesterday he failed to appear. Up until the time of going to press he was still at large, and no information as to his whereabouts have been secured.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ELECTED TO ASSIST IN PITT COUNTY FAIR

At the regular monthly business meeting of the county commissioners which met in Greenville today several deputy sheriffs were elected to assist in keeping order and quiet in the large crowd who will come to attend the Pitt county fair. This is a wise step and will mean much to every one who attends.

Miss Marguerite Higgs left this morning for Raleigh.

Miss Georgia Pearsall, of Red Springs who has been visiting friends here, returned home this morning.

MONDAY, SEPT. 6, 1920.

Samuel Gompers has not advised labor to vote the Democratic ticket, but he has expressed himself favorably disposed towards the Democrats, believing they will do more for the laboring element than the Republican party.

It must be rather discouraging to Senator Harding to see Governor Cox meeting with such unmistakable favor in the sections which he has visited on the speech making campaign, for it is sure that no discerning person can but help realize that the Democrat is accomplishing more than the Republican in every way and will probably pole a considerably larger vote in November. Governor Cox has a way of impressing the people with the greatness of his mission, and by the time he completes his swing around the country it is believable that public sentiment will be solidly in his favor. He has many good talking points and every one is being used to a direct advantage, too.

The Tennessee House apparently has been completely disrupted by the recent suffrage fight, for we are informed now that it has refused to consider its own action in expunging the suffrage record legal; and has voted to have the matter thrown out altogether. This fact goes to show that here has been too much haste and indecision in the final efforts to defeat that which was already law, and gives the public a pretty good idea of the real strength of suffrage in the state. The senate refused to have anything to do with action of the house in blotting ratification from its records, and politely told the members that the issue was simply a part of the nation's constitution, and therefore, unalterable. Tennessee gets the credit for ratification but it is no fault of the House that defeat was not certain. It used every influence possible, but has been finally forced to acknowledge the inevitable.

Southern cotton growers are urged to hold their cotton for forty cents, and as the advice comes from experts it is quite natural that it will be observed in many localities. The truth of the present situation cannot be mistaken. Declining prices may be expected to remain uncertain until the forces that determine them are fully aware of their position in a political way, and not until they have been impressed concerning the future will any change be noticeable. Cotton is by means an isolated contribution to the world's requirements, for the demand everywhere is as great as ever and certainly prices cannot remain below the average under such conditions. Experts have watched developments with interest and advice to the planter to hold his crop for better prices is timely and should be adhered to.

Twenty-six cents a pound for cotton may sound good to those not acquainted with cost of production, but to people of the South it is far below than what they desire to sell for. The bears will be compelled to act more kindly before the situation is relieved, for the farmer is determined to await the forty cent outlook, and not until then may the major crop be expected to be released to the world market.

Germans in this country are in hearty accord with Senator Harding's position on the League of Nations, but their support means very little when considering the general opinion of the public. It is true that the Republican's attitude is rather inducing to the German element who find very little for their county in the case the league becomes the powerful factor in international intercourse which supporters would have it, and in its defeat they realize that German's future activities will be conducted upon a more direct basis with the rest of the world. The nation is still stinging from defeat at the hands of the American government, and if ever a time should come for retaliation, it may be said with confidence that they will take advantage of the occasion. America's participation is essential to the League of Nations success, for President Wilson assisted in its drafting and naturally the other countries look to him more than to any other for its final success. Republicans crave supremacy and would sacrifice the greatest American principle to gratify this one ambition. German support, however, certainly will do little good, because the people themselves believe in the principles of the League of Nations and would not sacrifice the future by listening to the cunning schemes of opponents in bringing about its defeat.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH REQUESTS PASTOR NOT RESIGN

Early in July Rev. W. H. Moore, pastor of Memorial Baptist church, which he has served acceptably some over three years, gave the church notice that he would resign the first of October. Soon thereafter the pastor left on his vacation and returned last week, filling his pulpit at both services yesterday. At the conclusion of the service Sunday morning the church was called in conference by the deacons, and unanimously adopted recommendation from the board of deacons that the pastor be requested not to resign as he had announced to do. Mr. Moore, who had retired, was sent for and informed of the unanimous request of the church. He stated that this action of the church had touched his heart, that he would take it under prayerful consideration and give his answer next Sunday morning.

CLUB GIRLS BACK FROM A FOUR DAYS CAMPING TRIP

Miss Mabel Bradsher, Home Demonstration agent, of this county, accompanied by thirty-two club girls of the various school clubs throughout the county, and Miss Padgett, Home demonstration agent of Beaufort county, accompanied by thirty club girls of the Beaufort county schools, have just returned from a four days' camping trip at Bayside on Pamlico Sound.

Miss Bradsher and her club girls left Greenville last Wednesday and were joined in Washington by Miss Padgett and her girls, and fifteen invited guests. The trip to and from Bayside was made in a boat which was chartered by the Chamber of Commerce of Washington.

The four days were thoroughly enjoyed. The hour before breakfast was spent in bathing and swimming. After breakfast the girls went into the school house and a couple of hours were spent in sewing. Each one made a Tam and trimmed it in wool to wear to school this fall. After the sewing lesson the remainder of the day was spent in boating, swimming and games. At night the camp fires were built and an hour or two of conversation were enjoyed. On the last night the camp fires were built and a regular feast was enjoyed. After which watermelon were served. All the girls were club members and their ages ranged from ten to eighteen years. Schools from every section of the country were represented.

Since organizing the clubs throughout the county, Miss Bradsher has done a splendid work. Each club has several members and they are being taught to do things which will mean much to them after they leave the school rooms. The girls are interested and are striving to accomplish something really worth while.

With First Sale at the STAR

At a meeting of the Board of Trade Saturday morning, it was decided to put on two sales instead of three as previously agreed upon. This change was made because two of the companies (Export and American) said they could not furnish more than two buyers. Our firm has always been in favor of three sales and regret the fact that the change had to be made. The action taken will nullify all sales cards and new ones are now being printed. The opening day, however, will be Tuesday, September 7th, with 1st sale at the STAR.
