

FUNDS NEEDED FOR IMPROVING PUBLIC LIBRARY OF TOWN

Present Monetary Support Inadequate to Demands of Growing

PAID LIBRARIAN TO BE INSTALLED IF PUBLIC RESPONDS TO DEMANDS

Permanent Home Is Being Considered Throughout Intensive Campaign Work

Facts lately presented for public information by persons associated in the improvement of the public library of Greenville, show conclusively that the institution is facing one of the gravest situations since its establishment...

The library has developed in a pleasing way through efforts of far-sighted, ambitious women of the city since its establishment about twelve years ago...

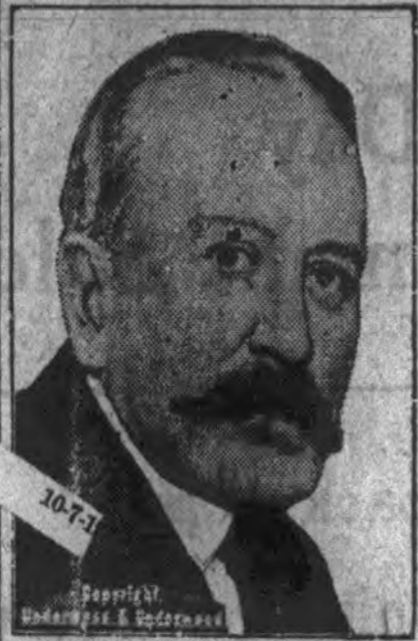

Mrs. W. A. Bowen, who has served as librarian for twelve years, without pay, has been forced to resign on account of ill health...

It is imperative upon a town the size of Greenville to provide a library fully measuring up to the requirements of its populations, but this cannot be accomplished until the public becomes sufficiently familiar and interested in conditions to take part in the campaign of the women's clubs for increasing the library's resources...

POLES CONTINUE TO REPORT PROGRESS ON NORTHWEST FRONTS

Warsaw, Sept. 30.—The capture of the city of Lida and further smashing of Bolshevik armies has been reported by Polish officials. Leon Trotsky, recently reported to have established new army of ninety thousand men near Lida, plans to start a new offensive.

LISBON GOVERNOR OFFERS TO SHOOT PRISONER AT BAR

Threatens to Shoot Murderer of Judge Horta in Interrogation Proceedings

Lisbon, Sept. 30.—The governor of Lisbon, Lieutenant Portella, threatened to shoot Manuel Vieira, the youthful syndicalist, who shot and wounded Judge Horta, a member of the Tribunal of Social Defence, when Vieira was taken before the Governor for interrogation after the crime.

The story of the shooting of the Judge has already been cabled to The Associated Press. As Judge Horta was passing through one of the principal streets of Lisbon, August 21, four shots were fired at him, one of the bullets passing through his neck, just missing the carotid artery. He was not mortally wounded.

The wounded man was conveyed to the hospital, he would be assassinated and protected, with great difficulty against the populace, who wanted to lynch him and followed him and his escort to the police headquarters. There, Vieira was brought before the Governor who asked him what he had to say for himself.

"I avenged my comrades, who were condemned by the Tribunal to which that man belonged, I have the right to do so," said Vieira.

Governor Portella suddenly rose and pointing a pistol at the syndicalist's head, exclaimed:

"Very well; now I am going to kill you.

The syndicalist, cowering, cried:

"Don't kill me."

"Why?" asked the governor. "According to your words, I have a right to do so."

"No," exclaimed Vieira, "because I have committed no crime against justice."

"Do you really believe, on your conscience, that you did nothing wrong?"

"Yes," was the answer.

"Very well," said Governor Portella,

"in that case I ought to give you back your liberty." Calling a policeman, he gave the order: "Set this man free. He is to leave by the door he came in by."

Outside the enraptured crowd was shouting "Death to the assassin" and Vieira, knowing the fate that awaited him, shook off the hands of the officer who was preparing to remove the handcuffs, and begged to remain under arrest.

"HARDBOILED" SMITH RELEASED FROM PEN UPON GOOD BEHAVIOR

New York, Sept. 30.—Frank "Hardboiled" Smith, army lieutenant convicted by court martial of brutal treatment of prisoners in France was paroled from Fort Jay prison March 20th, after he had served only half of the eighteen months sentence, it developed today. Order for his release was issued at Washington and approved by Secretary Baker. It was announced at the war department today that Smith's sentence was reduced because of good behavior and this had expired.

GAILBRAITH NAMED HEAD OF AMERICAN LEGION FOR TERM

Cincinnati Man Chosen National Commander at Closing of Convention.

WORLD WAR VETERANS FAVOR EXCLUSIONS OF JAPANESE IMMIGRANT

Exclusion of Picture Brides and Neutrality in Politics Also Advocated.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 29.—F. W. Gailbraith, Jr., of Cincinnati, was unanimously elected national commander of the American Legion here today at the closing session of its second annual convention. Gailbraith received the majority necessary for choice on the second ballot, his closest opponent being Hanford McNider of Iowa, and J. F. J. Herbert of Massachusetts. Upon motion of McNider, seconded by Herbert, the election of Gailbraith then was declared unanimous.

The passing of a resolution which puts the American Legion on record as being in favor of the rigorous exclusion of Japanese as immigrants, cancellation of the so-called "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan, the exclusion of "picture brides," and the decision of the convention to continue its policy of "strict neutrality" in regard to politics (Continued on page eight.)

DANIELS DEFENDS LEAGUE COVENANT IN STRONG SPEECH

Secretary of Navy Heartily Welcomed by Splendid Audience in Asheville.

Asheville, Sept. 29.—Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, began his campaign tour of his own state for the Democratic party here tonight. He discussed National issues only, confining the major portion of his speech to an explanation of the League covenant.

A full courthouse heard him talk democracy in spite of a hail downpour of rain that began an hour before and continued for more than an hour after the speaking began.

The Secretary was presented by Ex-Governor Locke Craig, whose passing mention of Woodrow Wilson, brought a demonstration to vie with the storms that have beat about the convention hall of the soldiers for three days.

Governor Craig presented Mr. Daniels as the foremost figure in three great periods of progress in North Carolina, the restoration of a white man's government, the driving out of the saloon and the elimination of corporate influence in the state. The same noble ideals Governor Craig said, he carried with him to his post in the Wilson administration and his contributions to the glories of that reign have been so brilliant as to make him one of the foremost statesmen of America and one of the most trusted members of the Wilson cabinet.

FORECAST SLIGHTLY COLD WEATHER OVER SOUTHERN SECTIONS

Washington, Sept. 30.—Cool weather throughout the Gulf and South Middle Atlantic states tonight and tomorrow, with probably frost in West Virginia, Tennessee and a part of Georgia, was forecast today by the weather bureau. The bureau said that the tropical storm yesterday over the gulf had reached Florida coast near Apalachicola, moving north and probably unite with storm now forming off Virginia coast. The warning is general from Maine to the Gulf coast.

Electric lights could not stand the dampness last night and took several spells of going out.

CHARGES HUNGARY AND POLAND WITH CRUELTY TO JEWS

Morris Rothberg Tells Jewish Congress of Continued Bloodshed in Countries

ASSAULTS GRADUALLY BECOME MORE SEVERE IN MANY TERRITORIES

Jews Were Driven From Various Fronts After Polish Successes at Warsaw

New York, Sept. 30.—Continued persecution of Jews, with bloodshed and cruelty, in Poland and Hungary is reported by Morris Rothberg, chairman of the executive committee of the Provisional American Jewish congress, who returned here recently from the Jewish World Relief Conference in Carlsbad. Mr. Rothberg declares that attacks on Jews in Poland have ceased at no time since the armistice. He says that while anti-Semitic excesses in Poland were mitigated by the protest meetings held in America, "assaults upon persons and property in a smaller degree continued throughout Poland."

"Gradually these assaults assumed larger proportions," said Mr. Rothberg, "until within the last few months Jews have found it unsafe to walk in the streets. Conditions came to..." (Continued on page eight.)

MEDICAL EXPERTS FINALLY CONQUER DREADED LEPROSY

United States Public Health Service Reports Definite Cure by Experiment.

Washington, Sept. 30.—Leprosy, a scourge of humanity since early history apparently has been conquered by officers of the United States Public Health Service in the leper colony at Kalahe, Hawaii. Forty-eight sufferers of the dreaded malady, who have been subjected to a new method of treatment, have recovered to such extent as to warrant their release on parole and, after a year, not one has shown a symptom of recurrence.

As yet, no announcement of a "cure" has been made officially for some of the government medical experts are frankly skeptical of the results. It may be years before an official and final opinion is given.

The limit of the official claim is set forth in a joint report to the Public Health Service made by Dr. J. T. McDonald, Director of the leprosy investigation station and superintending physician at Kalahe hospital, and by President A. L. Dean, of the University of Hawaii, as follows:

HARDING BACK HOME AFTER SPEAKING IN CITIES FOUR STATES

Marion, Sept. 30.—Senator Harding was back at work at his home today after a trip through Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia and Kentucky where he made twenty speeches in three days. The candidate conferred today with Senator Fall on the Mexican situation. He will begin his next speaking tour October 6th, starting a swing in the middle west.

MISSIONARY UNION ELECTS OFFICERS FOR ENSUING YEAR

Mrs. J. R. Carroll, of Greenville Elected Associational Superintendent.

The evening session of the Woman's Missionary Union of the Roanoke Baptist Association which met with the Memorial Baptist church yesterday, was largely attended and proved as interesting as the morning session. The devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. J. R. McLean. Mrs. C. H. Anderson of Scotland Neck, gave a splendid talk on "The Importance of Prayer in the Life of the Individual and Society." Following her talk Mrs. S. L. Bridges and Mrs. Earl Carter sang a beautiful duet, "God is Love." An interesting lecture on "Collecting pledges of the Seventy-Five Million Campaign," was delivered by Mrs. W. H. Finch, of Rocky Mount. The pledges of the campaign are being collected in a splendid and encouraging manner. The Missionary Societies of the various churches, made large pledges, and are not falling in their purpose to raise them. Mrs. A. G. Carter, of Rosemary, gave a talk on the Junior Period "Training Our Young People." She brought out many interesting facts showing the relation of the church to the child, and how the children should be kept in close touch with the church, in Sunday school and the children's societies. Her talk was followed by several talks and songs.

Miss Briggs gave an interesting account of the Margaret Fund. The Training Schools at Louisville and Raleigh also received much attention and the wonderful work that these schools have accomplished was discussed.

The report of all the committees met with splendid approval and each report showed that the association has accomplished many understatements in the past year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. J. R. Carroll, of Greenville, associational superintendent; Miss Kate Boyette, of Scotland Neck, secretary and treasurer; Miss Ad. Shearin, of Rocky Mount, Y. W. A. leader; Mrs. George Parker, of Rocky Mount, R. A. leader; Miss Nina Collins, of Nashville, Sunbeam leader; Mrs. Leon T. Vaughn, of Nashville, chairman of the Roanoke Memorial.

The meeting closed with the evening session, and it was decided that the fourteenth session of the W. M. U., would meet with the New Hope church, four miles from Wilson, next year. The session which convened here this year, is considered one of the best ever held and every one who attended left feeling greatly benefitted for having been present.

MAYOR OF CORK OFF ON FORTY-NINTH DAY OF HUNGER STRIKING

London, Sept. 30.—Lord Mayor MacSweeney began his forty-ninth day of hunger strike today much refreshed after a night's sleep, it was announced at the prison. Physicians say the patient's condition is still unchanged.

LEAGUE OPPOSERS APPEAR UNCERTAIN OF HARDING PLANS

Johnson and Borah Fear Candidate Has Doubled Cross-ed Them on Issue.

PARTY ROW APPEARS MORE EVIDENT NOW THAN IN SOMETIME

Division of Sentiment Among Leaders Brings Issue to Boiling Point.

Washington, Sept. 29.—The chance of a fatal row in the G. O. P. has not been bright since the adjournment of the Chicago convention than it is now. On the very highest of Republican authority it has leaked out in Washington today that Senators Hiram Johnson and Borah are preparing a joint letter to be sent to Candidate Harding when he returns to Marion demanding that he state his position unequivocally on the League of Nations. These Senators and their irreconcilable friends throughout the country are reported to be very restive now over a number of events that have occurred within the last three or four days.

The report has gained wide currency that former President Taft has shown a letter to a number of his friends written to him a few weeks ago by Mr. Harding assuring him that with Republican victory the league in a form acceptable to all pro-league Republicans would be entered by the United States. This written pledge, it is stated, is the foundation of Mr. Taft's confident assertion that Harding will put the League of Nations through. Mr. Taft has had to show the letter to some of his distinguished Republican friends to keep them from openly opposing the election of Harding.

It has been a current report in the press for more than a fortnight that Hiram Johnson had received a letter from Harding pledging the candidate's unalterable opposition to any sort of League of Nations, but this is now denied. The California Senator has only the plank in the Republican platform and the candidate's speech of acceptance and a few other vague statements to sustain his support for Harding. He is careful to remind his every audience in his speeches in California that he is working for the Republican ticket solely on the ground that Harding has agreed to scrap the league.

But what has made the Taft letter from Harding appear so ominous to the irreconcilable is both the sphinx-like silence of Elihu Root when passed for his views on the present political situation in this country and a side remark he dropped for the reporters and his reply on the league to a heckler at Baltimore.

OVERLAND AUTOMOBILE FACTORIES DISCHARGE OVER 12,000 EMPLOYEES

Toledo, Sept. 30.—The falling off of demand for automobiles throughout the country has resulted in a reduction in number of employees in the Willys-Knight company plant here from fourteen thousand to two thousand. The plant may close down entirely for awhile it was announced.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IN COTTON DESTROYED IN FIRE AT GALVESTON

Galveston, Sept. 30.—Fire on the waterfront this morning destroyed two big merchandise piers and destroyed or damaged a number of steamers as well as a large amount of cotton and other commodities. Damage is estimated into millions. Fire Chief Swan yesterday received a letter from Canada warning Galveston was to be destroyed. The letter was regarded as work of a crank.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1920.

After another quarter of a year we will be forgetting about this one and looking to another.

It is time Colonel Bryan was saying something in reply to Governor Cox's very graceful to him in a recent Nebraska speech.

If hard surfaced roads will reduce one third the consumption of gasoline by motor vehicles running over them, as is claimed, the thing to do is speed up the hard surfaced road building.

After the disclosure of that secret letter sent out from Greensboro to the colored women of the state, no further argument should be needed to induce every white woman in North Carolina to register and vote in the coming election.

SCHOOLS AND ROADS.

The matter of taxation gives the average person more concern than perhaps any other feature of our system of government. The number of cheerful tax payers is few, but there are two items of taxation especially that every citizen should be glad to pay. One of these is for schools and the other for good roads. Money put in schools means bringing the rising generation to a higher citizenship, and no better investment can be made than in the brains of our youth. Next to this in value is good roads, and without these two—good schools and good roads—no community, county nor state can make progress. No man should grudgingly pay what he is taxed for these two civilizing factors.

ANIMAL PROTECTION.

This country was aroused only a few weeks ago by a flood of protests against inhuman treatment of animals in motion picture films. From individuals and from clubs came letters asking for legislative action to prevent movie directors, in search of new thrills from using horses as cliff jumpers, cats as concrete objects on which to "register" rage, and similar pictorial devices to bring "Oh's" from audiences in the darkened filmhouses across the country.

These protests show where the men and women of this country stand today in regard to the treatment of animals. Yet it is only a matter of a few years back to the laws which were enacted in practically every state to make men considerate to animals. These laws had their beginning in the plan of Henry Bergh of New York City, lover of dumb brutes and founder of the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

In 1865, Henry Bergh, a member of All Souls' Unitarian Church, New York City, began his work to promote kindness to animals in that city. There was much scoffing and ridicule but a year later the society which he organized was incorporated and the famous letters "S. P. C. A." were sealed into the consciousness of the American public.

The work of Henry Bergh ultimately met with such response that in 1873 the founder of the S. P. C. A. proceeded to organize branch humane societies. As a result of this step most of the States have legislated for the humane care of animals.

Along this line, a similar work has begun by George T. Angell of Boston, also a Unitarian. Mr. Angell in 1868 founded the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. He was made president of the American Humane Education Society in 1880 and did much valuable work as the editor of "Dumb Animals."

CIVIL SERVICE PROGRESS.

Personal interest on the part of all taxpayers in the adoption of a National budget providing for a business regime in the operation of our National government dates back only a few years in the political history of this country. Yet the fact that 106,000,000 Americans are interested in how 3,301,774,416—to estimate 1919's disbursements—is to be spent annually, and its corollary, whether public employer fill their positions in an able manner, dates back to humble beginnings of civil service in this country.

What started civil service reform? During the Polk administration, the civil service, a phase of national service passively accepted as quite the correct thing today, had its origin. It was the brainchild of a Unitarian layman, and a practical demonstration of the Unitarian teachings of responsibility to God and to Law.

In those days, as early as December, 1847, Charles Sumner wrote a series of articles for a Boston newspaper. This series stamped him as the first advocate of the reform of the civil service. Years passed by, with rotation in partisan successes in the seat of government, but Sumner stood by his personal platform.

On April 30, 1864, just before the battles of the Wilderness and Spotsylvania, he brought this reform before congress for the first time, introducing a bill to provide a system of competitive examinations for admission to and promotion in the civil service which made merit and fitness the conditions of employment by the government and provided against removal without cause. This bill was drawn by Sumner without consultation with any other person but the time had not come when such radical change could be successfully advocated.

Civil service next won the service of Thomas A. Jenckes of Rhode Island. Mr. Jenckes, also a Unitarian, brought the merit system up again in 1867 in a bill "to regulate the civil service and to promote its efficiency." It was not until 1871, during Grant's administration, that action was secured. Then this "pioneer of the reform" drew the amendment to the bill of 1871 which became the law, and under which the first Civil Service Commission was appointed.

This origin of a great reform, dating back, comparatively, only a few years, is closely allied with the aims of some 8,000 Unitarian laymen today. Backed by the clergy of their denomination, whose very faith calls for responsibility to God and sees in Unitarianism liberty, democracy and law as essentials of human progress, these laymen are about to set before this country a religious and educational campaign to tell the story of Unitarianism and show it can be harnessed to the present day troubles of the world as a 100 percent American solution.

Registrar books are now open for the November election, all men not heretofore registered, and all women above twenty one years of age are entitled to register. It is best to attend to this right away. There is nothing to be gained by waiting until nearly time for the registration books to close.

TOO MUCH MIDDLE COST.

The difference in price between the points of production and consumption indicates too much profiteering in the middle ground. Getting these extremes on a more equalized basis and cutting out much of the country needs. The difference in the cost of coal at the mine and coal in the bin of cotton at the gin and cloth on the wearer, of tobacco at the barn and cigarettes to the smoker, of wheat at the elevators and flour in the pantry, of cattle and hogs at the stock yards and meat on the table, of fruits at the orchard and fruits in the home, is too great. Get the middle profit cut down and the cost of living will not be so high.

Since the year 1798, the corps of serenos has existed in Madrid. From 10 o'clock at night until seven in the morning in winter and until half-past six in summer the sereno is on duty around every block of houses in the city. Citizens arriving at their households after 10 in nearly all cases find them closed and as it is unusual to carry the key—generally of inconvenient size—they are compelled to call the watchman. This is done by clapping the hands, a call which brings him to the scene with his lantern hanging on a kind of lance and the keys of all the houses hanging in a bunch. In most instances he knows the occupant of the houses and he precedes them to their flats if they have not the apartment key in their pocket, or gives them a small taper lighted from his lantern to light them up the stairs if they do not need his masterkey.

The payment is small, usually two cents for a pedestrian, but double that amount for persons arriving in a carriage. Boarding-house keepers generally pay so much monthly to the sereno.

The custom of the sereno calling out the hour and weather throughout the night has died out in Madrid but continues in the country.

French Authorities Fail to Secure Further Evidence Against Woman Seducer

Paris, Sept. 29.—The "preliminary investigation" in the case of Henri Landru, whom the police refer to as the Gambais Bluebeard and hold responsible for the disappearance of eleven women to whom he had promised marriage, has just been concluded. It has lasted 18 months.

All the documents in the case, amounting to over five thousand, have been turned over to the Prosecutor General of the Republic by Judge Bonin, who conducted the preliminary investigation. The judge immediately left for a delayed vacation. He was accompanied by the good wishes of Landru, who told the Judge that it had been a great comfort to him to make his acquaintance and that he hoped the feeling was mutual.

Landru has consistently refused to answer the questions of Judge Bonin and has made the investigation as difficult as possible for the magistrate.

It is the feeling in courthouse circles that the case against Landru is weak and much doubt is being expressed as to the chances of conviction for murder against him. The 11 women have simply vanished into thin air. The "corpus delicti" is lacking in the case. Bones were found in the villa occupied by Landru at Gambais and the prosecution will contend they are human bones but the defense will call experts to swear they are rabbit, lamb

NORMALCY.

To be as others be,
To see as others see,
To be myopic on each topic,
But in language suave and tropic;
This is normalcy.

To be and not to be
For prohibitioncy;
To aspire than Bryan higher,
Being wet, to seem still dryer;
This is normalcy.

To be—if others be—
For woman's suffragecy,
And, to get her, of course let her
Think 'tis you have burst her fetter;
This is normalcy.

From age to age to be
Stanch for protectioncy;
Nothing newer, nothing truer,
Same old stuff stuck on a skewer,
This is normalcy.

Whatever it may be,
To loathe all Wilsoncy,
His affirmations or negations,
Because it's his, the League of Nations
This is normalcy.

GAILBRAITH NAMED

HEAD OF AMERICAN LEGION FOR TERM

WANTS

 litical questions were the predominant questions acted upon.
 The Japanese question came up in the morning session when the committee on Americanization presented its report.

The resolution on the Japanese question was adopted, but it created the stormiest debate of the session, it being necessary for the sergeant-at-arms and his assistants to quell the delegates several times. It was explained by Leonard Withington of Hawaii, chairman of the committee, that this report was only a reiteration of the 1919 convention for the "abrogation of the so-called gentlemen's agreement, the exclusion of picture brides and the exclusion of all Japanese," but that the question of a constitutional amendment which might strip citizenship from persons of Oriental descent already citizens or prospective citizens, on account of America birth, with all other phases of the problems, should go to a committee which would report to the 1921 convention.

CHARGES HUNGARY AND POLAND WITH CRUELTY TO JEWS

 such a state that the Jewish deputies in the Polish parliament appealed to the Minister of War and Minister President Witos, who promised that they would take steps to stop these outrages but nothing was done.

Mr. Rothenberg said that during the advance of the soviet armies on Warsaw the Jews readily enlisted in the Polish armies, but that they were attacked and persecuted by the Poles and were given the "most filthy and menial work to perform." The Jews complained to the military authorities but the persecution was not mitigated, he charged.

"Immediately after the first victories all Jewish soldiers were driven from the various fronts," Mr. Rothenberg asserted, "their ammunition was taken away, their uniforms removed and they were put under guard as though they were offenders. The Polish soldiers began to regard the Jewish soldiers as criminals. Every time the Poles took a city they killed Jews who came their way, and numbers of old Jews were shot without trial. The officers in charge afterward said that they killed bolsheviks."

Mrs. O. B. Baines, of Spring Hope, who has been visiting Mrs. L. W. Tucker has returned home.

Morning to you, Pete!

Kansas City, Mo.
 — late at night!

Who crossed my trail in the hotel this afternoon but "Long Sam" Weaver! Last time I saw Sam to chin to was that night of July 15th when our old 35th clinched the "Rock of the Marne" title! And, I guess you won't forget that night, old glue pot—for everybody was certainly stuck on you!

Sam and I fought the war all over again and dug into our Camel supplies like it was "free commissary." Saw never will get all done talking about that session when we couldn't move a hair without getting a close shave—and no eats or smokes! Sam was clear as a bell as to how you located a fresh deck of Camels and passed em to our bunch after we had been relieved!

Sam has some song about how good Camels were to him in France—and ever since! That bird has the warble! Why—Camel talk trickles off his tongue like water flows over Pa Smith's mill dam! Pete, old carpet tack, Sam has a head, all right!

"Camels certainly are friendly" was the way Sam put it in his old vigor-vim style! "You know as well as I do," he added, "that no other cigarette has such a mild, mellow body. And, there's no harshness or tiredness of taste in a million Camels. No objectionable odor, no lingering unpleasant aftertaste! So, sum it all up, Shorty, I'll say Camels are the greatest cigarette in the world at any price!"

Headed southeast tonight with Winston-Salem, N.C. my first port of call. Some jump from K.C! Pete, it's Winston-Salem where Camels are made!!! GET ME!

Sincerely Shorty.

CIGARETTES

Gentry & Gorman

Gormans sold Wednesday 192018 pounds. Prices were some stronger. We had lots of very common tobacco in this sale. As we have before advertised common tobacco and the thin medium tobacco is much neglected and we believe this tobacco will do lots better later on.

The meaty clean tobacco, also the fine tobaccos are doing fairly well and we advise selling some of these if you are compelled to have money. We are doing our best for all our customers and know no one can do any more for you.

Drive to Gormans and we will send you home with the top of the market.
