President Wilson Denies That He Promised Help To Two Nations

PRESIDENT BRANDS CHARGES MADE BY SENATOR SPENCER

Wilson Denies that He Promised Military Aid to Serbia and Roumania. CONFIRMS PREVIOUS STATEMENTS MADE BY SECRETARY TUMULTY Declares Missouri Senator's Charge Are Entire False and Unfounded.

Washington, Oct. 5.—President Wilson today wrote to Senator Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, that the statement recently made by the Senator that the President had promised American military aid to Roumania and Serbia in the event of the invasion of those countries was "false."

Senator Spencer's address was delivered in Missouri and when it was called to Secretary Tumulty's attention, Mr. Tumulty gave out a statement to correspondents of St. Louis newspapers declaring the Senator's statement was "absolutely and unqualifiedly false."

SPENCER MAKES REPLY TO DENIAL OF PRESIDENT St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 5.—United States Senator Selden P. Spencer late today replied to President Wilson's denial that he had promised American military assistance to Roumania and Serbia in event of invasion of those countries.

"I beg to acknowledge receipt of your telegram of October fifth in which you deny that you promised American military aid to Roumania and Serbia—and that previous denial which Mr. J. P. Tumulty had made was at your request."

TEACHERS SCHOOL CELEBRATES 11TH YEAR OF SERVICE

Anniversary of Opening Yesterday Morning Attended by Interesting Features

The eleventh anniversary of the opening of East Carolina Teachers Training School was celebrated yesterday morning, October 5th, appropriate talks were made by President Wright and Hon. F. C. Harding, a member of the executive committee of the board of trustees.

President Wright pictured the place as it was on the opening morning, Oct. 5, 1909, when everything was new, the campus, buildings, faculty and students.

A definite purpose, he said, characterized the first group and the school has held rigidly to that purpose ever since. Those first students went out and made a name for themselves and the institution, and their success has become the success of the school.

Mr. Harding was introduced by President Wright as a public spirited citizen of North Carolina, one who loves his town, his county his state and his nation.

With the privilege of citizenship have come duties and responsibilities (Continued on page six.)

DECLARES FRANCE SAVED POLES FROM BEING CONQUERED

Official of French Military Mission Tells of Conditions During Struggle. DECLARES FRANCE SAVED POLES FROM BEING CONQUERED Convinced that Well-Organized Units Would Have Fought Stubbornly.

Posen, Poland, Oct. 6.—An official of the French Military Mission in Poland has told The Associated Press correspondent that the Polish army would have been conquered by the bolshevik armies of Russia if the French had not supported the Poles.

The French officials based his statement upon his belief that the Russian army was superior to the Polish army as an effective fighting machine, with the exception of the German-trained troops of Posen.

The official said some Russian units were poorly equipped but it was not true the army was "a barefoot rabble." He was convinced the majority of the Russian divisions were "well-organized units of good-fighting men, much better officered than the Poles."

OFFICERS CAPTURE STILL AND ELEVEN GALLONS WHISKEY

William Wilson, Person County Man, Placed Under Arrest During Raid.

William Wilson, white man of Person county, is in the county jail in this city today awaiting preliminary court proceedings for the manufacture and sale of illicit whiskey.

Some over seven hundred gallons of beer were destroyed during activities around the still, but some little difficulty was incurred in removing it because the fires had not been extinguished and the entire outfit was too hot to handle easily.

The raid was undoubtedly one of the most dangerous which local officers

AMERICAN SUNDAY SCHOOL SECRETARY SPEAKS AT TOKIO

Advocates Officers' Training Course for Every Sunday School of Country. SAYS WORLD CONTAINS 33,000,000 STUDENTS 33,000,000 SUDENTS Marion Lawrice Tells International Conference of Conditions Everywhere.

Tokio, Oct. 6.—There are more than 300,000 Sunday schools in the world with a total enrollment of more than 33,000,000 pupils, said Marion Lawrice, of Chicago, general secretary of the International Sunday School Association in an address here today before the World's Sunday School Convention.

The speakers declared that the Sunday school as an institution was entering upon a new phase of development due to a "divine discontent" which had settled down upon the churches.

Outlining the Sunday school of the future, Mr. Lawrence said a school that represents a church thoroughly organized for its educational tasks would embody certain principles, perhaps, as follows:

"The school will be thoroughly organized and under the direct control of the church and carried on as system-

RUSSIAN ARRESTED FOR OVERCHARGING AMERICAN OFFICERS

Baggage man at Moscow Wanted Charge 100,000 Rubles For Unloading Baggage

London, Oct. 6.—The bearded baggage man on the platform of the Kaman railway station in Moscow demanded 100,000 rubles for unloading from a car the baggage of 15 British officers and The Associated Press correspondent when they arrived in Moscow in July after a journey from Siberia across Russia.

The British officers were prisoners. They had been members of the Allied railway organization in Siberia under John F. Stevens, the American engineer, and had been captured by the Reds at the same time as Colonel Blount and his party of American engineers at Novo Nikolaevsk, Siberia, in November 1919.

"One hundred thousand rubles for unloading luggage!" exclaimed Major R. E. Vimy, R. E., ranking officer. We can't pay it; we're prisoners, we haven't the money." And he appealed to his Bolshevik guard.

Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—The Brooklyn Dodgers won the second game of the world's series from the Cleveland Indians here this afternoon by the score of 3 to 0. The contest was one of the fastest ever staged in this city, the National leaguers asserting their supremacy by gaining a definite lead of one run in the first inning, which was increased by two runs in the third and fifth innings.

Weather conditions were considerably more favorable than in the opening game yesterday, and as a result thousands of visitors witnessed the game under favorable circumstances. Grimes pitched a masterful game for the Dodgers, keeping the hits well scattered and showing excellent form particularly in pinches.

Both clubs put up one of the most spectacular games witnessed in this city in a number of years, but by playing in airtight form Brooklyn was able to maintain its definite lead without being seriously threatened with having it overcome.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Cleveland.....000 000 000—0 7 1 Brooklyn.....101 010 000—3 7 0 Batteries: Bagby, Uhle and O'Neill; Grimes and Miller.

INDIAN BALL PARK HAS GREAT CAPACITY

Cleveland, Oct. 6.—League Park, the home of the Cleveland American League team, where the Indians' world's series game will be played, is centrally located at the northeast corner of Lexington Avenue and East 66th street, running northward to Linwood and eastward nearly to East 70th street.

The grounds were plotted in 1891 and the present grand stand and pavilions were constructed in 1913. The grounds are easily accessible from the heart of the city, being on two down town car lines and can be reached within fifteen minutes by either line and in ten minutes by automobile.

The grandstands form a semi-circle from first base to behind third base. On each side of the grandstands are pavilions. Adjoining the Linwood Avenue pavilion is the newly constructed concrete bleachers, seating approximately 3,000.

From the Lexington Avenue end of the old bleachers, partly inside the rightfield and extended over Lexington Avenue a new stand has been constructed for the world's series, which (Continued on page six.)

Yes, we are doing some very creditable growing in North Carolina, and Pitt county is getting her share of it.

Go right along, ladies, and get your names on the registration books, and put in a vote for the Democratic ticket when election day comes.

With cement dropping a third in price and lumber breaking from its high perch, there is prospect of it not costing altogether so much to build a house.

In the face of recent announcements the Candidate Harding was about to lose the support of Senator Borah, the candidate only last week tried to offset the effect of this on the minds of the voters by declaring that Senator Borah's speeches were very satisfactory to him.

With a boat line soon to be put in operation between New Bern and Baltimore, there is every reason in the world why Greenville should utilize the river for making connection with the line at Washington, which is to be one of the stopping points.

WILSON AN DHIS FOES.

A friend sends us a clipping from a California newspaper showing the Republicans whom the President entrusted with important war positions.

We append here a list of the most prominent appointments of Republicans, and suggest that you tack it up within the range of your vision, that you may rest your gaze thereon when the next cheap thing comes along with the charge that Wilson kept Republic-

Woodrow Wilson appointed General John J. Pershing, a Republican, the son-in-law of Senator Warren, a Republican enemy of the administration, in command of the American Expeditionary Forces. Admiral Sims, a life-long Republican, in high command of naval operations in the danger zone. Howard S. Coffin, Republican, in charge of aircraft production; E. R. Stettinius, Republican, in the War Department in charge of supplies. Major General Goethals, Republican, in charge of shipbuilding; Major General E. H. Crowder, Republican, in charge of the draft. Wilson made a Republican, General Peyton C. March, chief of staff of the United States army; turned control of the Emergency Fleet Corporation over to Charles M. Swab and Charles Plez, Republican. H. P. Davison, Republican, headed the Red Cross; Frank A. Vanderlip, Republican, was placed in charge of the War Savings Stamp campaign; Harry A. Garfield, Republican and son of a Republican President, was made Fuel Administrator; Herbert Hoover, Republican, was appointed Food Administrator. Of eight members of the War Trade Board Wilson appointed five Republicans, and gave five out of eight places in the Council of National Defense to Republicans.

SERVICES OF THE STOCK EXCHANGES.

The number and character of "wildcat" flotations over the country in the last two years serves to illustrate the public services rendered by well-governed stock exchanges. The stock exchanges are not responsible for speculation; the flotations that are carried on in unlisted stocks, in lands and all kinds of property, give evidence of that. The Exchange assumes no responsibility for the representations made to it, but it endeavors to obtain from each corporation whose securities it admits to the trading privilege authentic information as to property, liabilities and earnings which will enable the investor to form his own idea as to the values. It exercises the authority to strike a security from the trading list upon the occasion of any conduct on the part of the issuing corporation which justifies a loss of confidence in its intention to deal frankly with the public.

"THE SAME FOR LESS."
404 EVANS STREET

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:-

Anticipating fair prices for Tobacco and Cotton this Fall, Willard & Smith Company buyers this year bought one of the most representative stocks of merchandise that was ever shipped into Pitt county. These goods were bought in quantities that gave us the best possible prices that could be obtained on the market on which they were bought. Ordinarily, this would mean much in saving for Willard & Smith Company customers. But now, in the face of almost ruinous prices for cotton and tobacco prevailing, we desire to help all we can in this great loss to our customers, and we have reduced our prices on all merchandise 33 1-3 per cent at one stroke, which means a net loss of money on every article we have to offer in this store. This drastic cut in prices on all lines of merchandise will help in a measure the acute situation caused our people by the terrific slump in tobacco prices of last year.

Think what this means to you at this season of the year when the whole family must be outfitted for the winter. Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Underwear, Hosiery, Notions, Dry Goods, Ready-to-Wear for Men, Women and Children, and thousands of necessary household articles, of the newest and most up-to-date stock of goods in the city, reduced ONE THIRD from our already low prices. Remember, this is not merely a sale—IT'S A REDUCTION OF ONE THIRD IN PRICE OF EVERY ARTICLE SOLD IN OUR BIG STORE. It will pay you to come and look our stock and prices over at once. NO WHERE ELSE CAN YOU FIND SUCH GOODS AND SUCH PRICES! Come while assortments are full and complete.

Sincerely yours,

DUTY.

Could I but do one worthy deed,
Or write one living line
To fill the measure of my need—
Could I but sow one fruitful seed,
Then were contentment mine.
Could I but sing one living song
To banish mortal pain;
Could I but right one crying wrong
Or help one weaker soul along,
I had not lived in vain.

So vast the Universe, so cold
The peaks to which we climb,
So gray the skies, the stars so old,
So many sheep strayed from the fold
And so swift-fleeing Time!
Strive as I may, somehow it seems
That each succeeding sun
Finds me yet distant from my Dreams
On paths rock-strewn with swollen streams
And no day's Journey done!

Yet must I carry on the fight,
Still I must do my best
So, when I pass from out the Night
Into the Day, into the Light,
My weary Soul may rest!

"THE RESTLESS SEX"
BASED ON CHAMBERS
STORY COMING HERE

Marion Davies is Star in New Cosmopolitan Production Based on Novel

Robert W. Chambers' popular society novel, "The Restless Sex," has been pictured by Cosmopolitan Productions and will be the feature attraction at White's Theatre Thursday night. Marion Davies is the star and the supporting cast includes such prominent players as Carlyle Blackwell and Ralph Kellard. Robert Z. Leonard directed.

"The Restless Sex" deals with the woman who is not satisfied to be just a wife, but wishes to attain a niche for herself in the world of art. Stephanie Cleland, a pretty New York society girl, is the central figure, and her ambitions and romance from the story. Lavish backgrounds, including a ball scene that is said to surpass anything of its kind ever filmed, are features. An automobile wreck forms one of the most thrilling scenes. More than six hundred persons were used in some of the episodes.

PLAYS

Successor to "Shore Acres" and "Way Down East," in the classical character of its theme and story, the Buffalo Motion Picture Corporation's production of "The Price of Innocence" with Stella Talbot, will be presented at White's Theatre.

Like the two famous plays of the dramatic stage, this screen story is based on the lives of "just home folks." Its locale is "Goose Island," a "squatter" settlement off the coast of Maine. Here, as in "Shore Acres" and "Way Down East," in the midst of a quiet and peaceful community of quaint characters, stalk drama and tragedy, tempered with the humor that springs from the reflex of their cynicism and narrowness.

Sella Talbot, in the role of Mary Aldron, gives herself in an unselfish attempt to save her "squatter" kin from homelessness and privation. When she returns again to the island, after ten days as the "guest" of Edward Greyson its owner, she finds its population unflinching in its horror over her action. Unwilling to yield to her sincerity and the realization that her sacrifice had been made for them, they drive her back to the mainland. There, in a resumption of her acquaintance with Greyson, she discovers that the island, to which he claims title, had been legally deeded to the "squatters" by his father, just before the elder Greyson had been killed in an accident.

Despite the unmerited disgrace and slander her kinsmen had heaped upon her, she returns again to "Goose Island" to tender them the document which would end forever the feud between the "squatters" and Greyson. In the tumble-down cabin of Sam Durkin, leader of the bigotry against her, occurs one of the sensational moments of the production. Infuriated by her return, unwilling to heed explanations, the islanders attempt to brand her with a red hot crucifix.

UNIQUE WINDOW SCHEME.

Claude Tunstall announces elsewhere in his ad today, a new window stunt. In one window he displays the latest creations from Lady Duff Gordon, Beaux Arts, Maid Marion and Simon Quality. Extreme styles that have appealed to the most select clientele of all the Fifth Avenue shops at prices from $35 to $120. The garments shown were bought in August after the market went to pieces. On these garments he offers only a 10 per cent cash discount. In other window he offers a heterogeneous conglomeration of values in coats, suits, dresses and shirts. Many of these items were originally priced from $20 to $75. Daily he puts in specials as low as $10 and on all the rest the prices are equal to the price of tobacco. None over half price. In order to buy at reduced prices they must be selected the day they are shown in the window. All sales strictly cash but no charge for alterations. New showings will be made daily.

MUTT AND JEFF TO APPEAR AT LOCAL THEATRE

What promises to provide merriment, entertainment and joy eternal is scheduled to appear at White's Theatre, Wednesday, Oct. 13th where those two famous comies of cartoon fame, Mutt and Jeff, will hold forth. This season Gus Hill has surrounded them with a brand new play, "Mutt and Jeff at the Races." A distinct plot runs throughout the three acts, which embraces a number of rollicking situations, infectious songs, smart ensembles and novel and surprising features. The music is said to be unusually tuneful and will be whistled and hummed long after the attraction has departed. One of the features of the performance is a beauty chorus of young misses who are well versed in the art of singing and dancing. The management promises a large and capable cast of well known musical comedy favorites.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Dr. W. F. Shamhart, Pastor.
The Eighth Street Church of Christ invites all thoughtful people and public spirited citizens to study with us, in the spirit of Christian love, the following statement of the purpose we have in maintaining and building up the work of this church.

"To exalt Christ above party and his word above all human creeds. To illustrate the practicability of Christian union on New Testament faith and practice. Every Sunday 9:45 and 11 A. M., 7:30 P. M.

To build a church of Christ without denominational name, creed or other barrier to Christian unity, whose terms of fellowship shall be as broad as the conditions of salvation and identical with them.

To lead sinners to Christ in the clear light of New Testament teaching and example.

To work with all Christian workers, as far as we can, in extending Christ's reign among men, while seeking to promote the unity for which our Savior prayed."

This church offers a hearty welcome to every stranger who may cross its portals. It invites every earnest soul to accept the privilege of prayer and praise and the spiritual good ever to be found in its worship. This church recognizes the wisdom and unifying force of the declaration "Where the Scriptures speak we speak; where the scriptures are silent we are silent" in hastening the answer of the prayer of our Lord "that they all may be one that the world may believe that thou didst send me."

will accommodate 6,500.

The grandstands, pavillions and the new bleachers are of steel and concrete construction. Both the grandstands and the pavillions are double-decked, and will have about 17,000 reserved seats.

The normal seating capacity of League Park is between 20,000 and 21,000, but it is estimated that accommodations will be made to take care of 30,000 spectators for the world's series.

The grandstand will seat about 8,000, the reserved sections of the pavillions about 2,000. For these 17,000 seats the management has more than 40,000 applications for each game.

The grandstand and first base pavillion have been reserved as has the entire lower third base pavillion and four western sections of the upper tier of the same pavillion.

The only seats to be allowed on the field will be about one hundred field boxes, located back of the catcher and extending towards third and first base.

There will be 9,000 general admission tickets and the management will not be allowed to sell as many standing room tickets as during the regular season. The general admission entrance will be located at Linwood Avenue, at the northwest corner of U grounds. All holders of reserved tickets will be admitted through the six gates at the main entrance, East 66th Street and Lexington Avenue.

The 9,000 general admission tickets will be sold each day at $1.10 each.

that outweigh, in his judgment, the privileges. He said he would not discuss politics, he asked not whether they were Democrats or Republicans, Catholics or Protestants, but he did ask them to know politics, to think, to know civil government and the facts and factors that make government stand the test; it is their duty to know the factions and factors that go to make up life. Whatever ticket you vote, it is your duty to know why you vote; you should know principles on which each candidate stands, have an honest opinion and vote accordingly.

He pictured the dangers that are threatening the world today. Never has there been as strong a spirit of lawlessness and never such a need for a strong broad-minded citizenship to save the civilization of the world. America stands out as the one civilized powerful country, able to save the world.

Unless public integrity is restored a loosening of faith in the powers of government will rule the world and civilization will topple as it did in the fall of Rome. Individuals must be reached and made to think. He gave as the two classes whose influence he considered as most potent in shaping the individual the teachers and the preachers and with all reverence, he placed teachers first because of their close contact with the citizens in the making, the children. He thus placed the final responsibility on the teachers.

The new age calls for a new womanhood, he believes! He told the students that there will be no more "gardens of roses" for them to enter when they graduated from here, the day of protected womanhood is past, and declared that he, as many others, had done what he could to shield and protect womanhood, and there are perhaps many women who do not wish for the new privileges and responsibilities but they are here and must be assumed.

A deep impression was made upon the young women by Mr. Harding's earnest appeal to their sense of duty. President Wright, at the close, promised a number of talks on citizenship during the year.

He said he could not let the day go by without calling attention to the great man whose patriot was facing the students, Governor Jarvis, a man who loved his people in North Carolina as few men have ever loved a people.

The celebration of the eleventh birthday of the school helped the new students to catch the spirit of the school and to get a vision of the life they are being prepared to meet. It was a most fitting manner of celebrating the occasion.

have participated in for sometime, as they were confronted with the unpleasant knowledge of having their movements watched by the armed distillers scattered in various parts of the woods. The actual danger of the situation was not realized however until the search for liquor was begun. The officers had proceeded only about 150 yards from the still when they were suddenly espied a man, carrying in one hand a doubled-barreled shotgun and in the other a five gallon jug of whiskey. The distiller discovered their presence almost instantly, and attempted to bring the gun into play, but found himself covered by two business-like revolvers before this could be accomplished. The man proved to be Wilson, who told the officers he was from Person county and had only been in this section for a short time. The other men were identified as they left the still,

The market will not have sales Thursday and Friday, owing to the Export Tobacco Factory being crowded and they being virtually off the market. It was decided by the Board of Trade at a called meeting this morning to not sell Thursday and Friday.

The market will open Monday. The prices Tuesday were not so good as Monday, owing to the congestion in Export Factory. They state this will enable them to catch up and keep them buying, which at this time is very essential to the market. We believe all prices will be higher and advise against trying to get rid of the crop by Thanksgiving. Sell slowly.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 3rd sale; Tuesday, Oct. 12th, 2nd sale; Wednesday, Oct. 13th, 1st sale.
