

PRESIDENT WOULD RATHER FOR VOTER TO DECIDE CHARGE

Wilson Prefers Truth Charges to be Determined by the American People. SENATOR REED BACKS UP SPENCER'S CHARGE OF AID TO FOREIGNERS Says That President Promised Military Aid In Address at Versailles.

Washington, Oct. 6.—President Wilson today telegraphed Senator Spencer, Republican, of Missouri, that he was content to let the voters of Missouri decide which of them was telling the truth.

The telegram, which was made public at the White House without comment or explanation, said:

"I am perfectly content to leave it to the voters of Missouri to determine which of us is telling the truth."

Replying to the President's letter of yesterday, Senator Spencer in a letter made public at St. Louis last night quoted in support of his original statement from what he said was the stenographic notes of the eighth plenary session of the peace conference.

The President's telegram today apparently was in reply to that letter.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 6.—Senator James A. Reed, in a telegram late today to United States Senator Spencer, asserted that President Wilson had promised military aid to Rumania and Serbia, in an address at the peace conference on May 31, 1919.

The text of the address did not pass censor until December 3, 1919, when it was brought to this country by a newspaper correspondent and published in the Washington Star on that date. The speech also appeared in full in the Congressional Record on December 4, 1919, the telegram added. Senator Reed's telegram was sent in response to one from Senator Spencer asking information on the subject.

Senator Reed's telegram urged the President to produce the stenographic records of the peace conference "to show just what was said."

Senator Reed's telegram declared the President's statement also was copyrighted by a newspaper syndicate and given wide circulation.

"On several occasions I challenged the attention of the Senate to this speech," the telegram continued. "My speeches by scores of thousands were circulated through the country. Numerous publicists and speakers have repeatedly referred to and commented upon this declaration of the President. Its authenticity was never disputed on the floor of the Senate or elsewhere to my knowledge until Mr. Tumulty recently denounced it as false."

HARDING DENOUNCES LEAGUE OF NATIONS IN ADDRESS TODAY

Des Moines, Iowa, Oct. 7.—Speaking here today Senator Harding came out flatly for rejection of the League of Nations covenant as now proposed thus accepting the Democratic challenge to make the league an issue of the campaign. Brushing aside problems for clarifying reservations Senator Harding declared that he would favor staying out of covenant as written at Versailles. "I do not want to clarify American obligation," he said: "I want to turn my back on them, for it's not interpretation but requesting I am seeking."

Complaining about candidates is a good way to make times appear harder.

DAVIS IS ARRESTED FOR COMPLICITY IN MURDER OF PORTER

Sold Murdered Man's Tobacco and Then Made Escape to New Bern.

Isiah Davis, colored, is confined in the county jail in Greenville today, charged with waylaid and murdering Harry Porter, colored man who was killed several days ago about two miles from Greenville while on his way to the local tobacco market with a load of tobacco. Davis was arrested in New Bern by special police officer, Patrick, who received intelligence of the negro's whereabouts several days ago.

William Smith, who was arrested, charged with complicity in the murder immediately following the finding of the man's body in a pasture in front of Smith's home, is still being held in the jail upon evidence produced in the finding of a gun loaded with similar shells to that with which Porter was killed. So far, no additional evidence has been produced regarding his guilt, and it is quite probable that his release will be effected when the case is brought up for final consideration, unless his complicity is further proven.

The arrest of Davis resulted from a thorough investigation of the murder by city and county officials, which brought out the fact that the tobacco in possession of the murdered man at the time of the killing had been sold by Davis a short time later at the Liberty warehouse in this city. Officers are unable to say whether or not he was assisted in killing Porter, but as yet Smith has been unable to prove that the gun found in his home was not the one used in the killing.

It will be remembered that Porter was found in a dying condition on the Whiterville road about two miles of this city. He was in such condition at the time that he was unable to give the slightest information regarding his assailant, and died in the county jail a short time later without even intimating why and by whom the crime was committed. Nothing of any definite nature was brought to light until the tobacco was located, and it is quite probable now that all facts will be produced in the court proceedings to take place probably at an early date.

PREDICTS DECLINE IN GOLD STANDARD OF UNITED STATES

Chairman MacFadden Says Lack of Gold Production Present Bad Conditions

CREDIT RESTRICTION AND DECLINING PRICES BRING ABOUT SITUATION

Depletion of Gold Stock and Exportation Will Impair Public Confidence.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Fear that the declining gold production in this country would make it difficult to retain the nation on a gold standard basis during a popular campaign for credit restriction, accompanied by declining prices, was expressed in a formal statement issued today by Chairman MacFadden, of the House Banking Committee.

Mr. MacFadden is the author of a bill pending before congress under which a tax of $10 a ounce would be levied on gold used in the industrial arts. This tax in turn would be paid to producers to stimulate their efforts. In his statement Mr. MacFadden declared that unless some relief was furnished the American gold mining industry would be compelled to shut down soon because the legally fixed price of $20.67 an ounce for gold was less than current production costs.

"The continued depletion of the gold stock by excess exportation and industrial use," Mr. MacFadden said, "will seriously impair the public confidence in the nation's finance and currency unless a normal gold output is insured."

MUTT AND JEFF TO SHOW IN CITY NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Musical Comedy Co. Scheduled for One Night at White's Theatre.

Gus Hill, who is responsible for bringing Mutt and Jeff into prominence as stage favorites has apparently outdone himself in this seasons' offering. He has supplied Mutt and Jeff with a musical comedy in three acts in which they go through a series of adventures that are uproariously funny. The title of the brand new musical comedy is "Mutt and Jeff at the Races" and this attraction will be seen at White's Theatre Wednesday, Oct. 13th. From all accounts this seasons production eclipses all previous achievements. Delightful melodies, a carload of picturesque scenery, lighting effects, novel features, and other essential ingredients to provoke mirth have been supplied. As usual Mutt is trying to make a "goal" out of his faithful and susceptible pal, Jeff. However, little Jeff manages to extract himself with flying colors, but not without distributing an avalanche of fun, hilarity and joy in behalf of his many friends and well wishers. Above all it is a vehicle of movable comedy, action, color and entertainment, an entertainment that pleases and delights both young and old. A Mutt and Jeff production is synonymous with all that is good in the way of pretty girls, infectious music and resplendent costuming. One of the noteworthy features of the performance is a comedy chorus of young misses who know how to sing and dance with rare and infinite charm and skill. Twenty tuneful numbers have been written by Edward Hutchison and Richard F. Carroll, and the book is by Nat Leroy. A large and capable cast of well known musical comedy favorites are promised. There are said to be some gorgeous creations in the way of dress, which are the delight of mere man and the envy of the women.

The new men could not be provided with the ordinary police uniform, and have had to be content with a uniform partly police and partly military. This has earned them the nick-name of "The Black and Tans." The Weekly Summary has special encouragement for them. Extracts from it have been published in the Dublin newspapers, one of which says that "The Black and Tans will go on with their job—the job of making Ireland once again for the law-abiding and an appropriate hell for those whose trade is agitation and whose method is murder." This exhortation is denounced in the Nationalist Press as an encouragement to the reprisals which provoked the condemnation of General Macready.

MILLIONS CLAMOR FOR ADMISSION TO PORTS OF AMERICA

Ellis Island Boiling With Immigrants, and Millions Want to Come.

AMERICAN CONGRESS PRESSED TO ENLARGE ISLAND'S RESOURCES

Between Three and four Million Italians Seeking Citizenship Here.

New York, Oct. 7.—Ellis Island, melting pot of the world, is boiling as never before, with the greatest flood of immigrants in history pouring into it. Millions more are clamoring at Europe's exits, anxious to come to America and congress will be pressed to quickly enlarge both the physical plant and working force on the Island to more than double its present size, according to Immigration Commissioner Frederick A. Wallis.

Since early last summer, aliens have been entering America's front door in unprecedented numbers. The problem of housing them until they can be admitted to the country has become painful to all parties concerned. Recently, hundreds of immigrants detained for investigation had to sleep standing up, as the floors, benches and chairs already were filled with the backwash from the congested dormitories.

The tide is certain to become greater with each passing month, Commissioner Wallis felt assured. Steamship operators informed him their accommodations are booked to capacity for 12 months ahead. Government officials announced 207,000 applications had been made for passports in Poland (Continued on page eight.)

Brooklyn Dodgers Take Third Game Of World's Series

Smith Pitches Wonderful Game for National League Club, Defeating Cleveland Indians by Score 2 to 1--Indians Use Three Pitchers in Effort to Stem Steady Tide of Victory.

JAMES C. CANTRILL

Representative James C. Cantrill of Kentucky has taken over a large part of the campaign management of Governor Cox under the title of "national campaign manager."

(Special to The Reflector.)

Brooklyn, Oct. 7.—The Brooklyn Dodgers won the third game of the world's series from Cleveland here this afternoon by the score of 2 to 1. The contest was in many respects similar that of yesterday, with the exception of the Indians' inability to hit opportunity, particularly at moments when hits would have resulted in runs. The Dodgers did their only scoring in the first inning, when by bunching hits in a fast and effective way the only two runners of the game were sent romping across the rubber.

There was little change in attendance from that of yesterday. Every available nook in Ebbett's field was crowded to its utmost capacity while hundreds were turned away from the gates regardless of the chill wind which held supremacy throughout the entire day. The game was reverted into a veritable battle from the very first inning until the last Cleveland man had taken his turn with the willow, but Smith proved equal to the occasion and retired man after man in a way that drew constant applause from thousands of fans in every section of the field.

Caldwell started out on the mound for the Indians, but proved absolutely unable to stem the work of the Dodgers with the willow, being relieved in latter part of the first frame by Smith, who pitched wonfully until the last half of the eighth inning when he was relieved by Uble, who with Wanamaker receiving in the place of O'Neil succeeded in holding the slugging National Leaguers in a determined, interesting way. The Dodgers several times threatened to increase the definite lead piled up in the first inning, but by exceptional work in the field Cleveland held them close to the bases and positively refused to yield anything further in the shape of a tally.

Smith for the Dodgers probably pitched one of the most brilliant games of the entire season, allowing the Indians only three hits which resulted in one score in the fourth inning. He apparently had the visitors at his mercy and at no time permitted home plate be seriously threatened. Both clubs showed superior forms to that displayed in the game of yesterday, and the inability of the Indians to hit when hits meant runs was more responsible for their loss than any other single feature connected with the contest.

The score by innings: R. H. E. Cleveland.....000 100 000-1 3 1 Brooklyn.....200 000 000-2 6 1 Batteries: Caldwell, Mails, Uble and O'Neil, Wanamaker; Smith and Miller. Umpires: O'Day and Connelly.

PENNANT CONTENDERS GO INTO CONTEST ON EVEN FOOTING AGAIN

Brooklyn, Oct. 7.—Cleveland and Brooklyn went into the third game of the world's series today on even terms as a result of Brooklyn's victory yesterday. Managers of both clubs are anxious for victory because they figured it would give them an advantage for the series. After today's battle the series will be resumed in Cleveland.

AIRPLANE PATROLS DOING GOOD WORK IN MANY SECTIONS

California Patrols Reported to be Exerting Effort Protecting Forest.

Washington, Oct. 7.—Airplane forest patrols in California were able recently to reach the scene of a fire forty-five hours sooner than had they proceeded by train and pack mule, a report to the army air service shows. An aerial observer spotted its blaze in Lassen forest while all foresters were engaged in fighting another fire in the Merced forest. Plans picked up the fire-fighters in the Merced zone and rushed them to the Lassen fire.

"In three hours," says the report, "The fire fighting personnel was on the job lighting the flames, whereas, had they proceeded by train and pack mule, 38 hours would have been consumed."

The day will come when men and equipment will be carried by airships to the scene of fire, both men and equipment dropped by parachute, while the airship will rain down fire extinguishing chemicals from above."

FOR WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Washington, Oct. 6.—An appropriation of $10,000 to provide medical care and treatment for wounded World war veterans under training by the Federal Board for Vocational Education has been made by the American Red Cross.

Through decisions of the Comptroller of the Treasury, the funds of the Federal Board can not be expended to provide for these men medical attention for diseases or injury not directly traceable to military or naval service. Great hardship has been worked on those in training who are financially unable to provide the necessary care and treatment for themselves in the event of illness or injury and the Board asked the Red Cross for assistance until Congressional action can re-have the situation. Specific instances of the need for medical care among these men are brought to the attention of the Federal Board from all its districts. From one district comes the report of the injury of a student who was being taught saddlery. While at his machine his hand was pierced by the needle and other wise bruised by the heavy machine. The ruling of the Comptroller, however prohibited the use of funds for medical attention necessary in this case as in many others.

It is estimated that the $10,000 appropriation will enable the Board to provide care for the students until the matter is placed before Congress. The treatment has been costing approximately $2,000 monthly, according to the estimates of the Federal Board.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:-

Anticipating fair prices for Tobacco and Cotton this Fall, Willard & Smith Company bought this year one of the most representative stocks of merchandise that was ever shipped into Pitt county. These goods were bought in quantities that gave us the best possible prices that could be obtained on the market on which they were bought. Ordinarily, this would mean much in saving for Willard & Smith Company customers. But now, in the face of almost ruinous prices for cotton and tobacco prevailing, we desire to help all we can in this great loss to our customers, and we have reduced our prices on all merchandise 33 1-3 per cent at one stroke, which means a net loss of money on every article we have to offer in this store. This drastic cut in prices on all lines of merchandise will help in a measure the acute situation caused our people by the terrific slump in tobacco prices of last year.

Think what this means to you at this season of the year when the whole family must be outfitted for the winter. Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Underwear, Hosiery, Notions, Dry Goods, Ready-to-Wear for Men, Women and Children, and thousands of necessary household articles, of the newest and most up-to-date stock of goods in the city, reduced ONE THIRD from our already low prices. Remember, this is not merely a sale—IT'S A REDUCTION OF ONE THIRD IN PRICE OF EVERY ARTICLE SOLD IN OUR BIG STORE. It will pay you to come and look our stock and prices over at once. NO WHERE ELSE CAN YOU FIND SUCH GOODS AND SUCH PRICES! Come while assortments are full and complete.

Sincerely yours,

SOCIAL - PERSONAL

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

(Reported for The Reflector.)
 Tuesday evening last was very pleasantly spent by the little folks of Chocod, N. C., and adjoining neighborhoods as they assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Porter, for the purpose of celebrating with little Olivia Tripp her sixth birthday. Upon arrival the little guests were welcomed by Mrs. John S. Porter, the grandmother of the little hostess, and shown into the living room where they left their wraps and hats, and passed from there into the parlor. In this room the table for the presents was arranged and they were many and beautiful. In this room suspended from the ceiling were candy kisses and an enjoyable hour was spent in trying to catch the kisses without the use of the hands. Much laughter and merriment was caused by the contest. From the parlor the little guests passed into the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and wisteria. On a beautiful decorated table was arranged the birthday cake with its six candles, written on the cake in colors was Oct. 5th, 1920. The candles were green, red and yellow, which represented both the age of the little hostess and the season in which she was born. Before leaving the dining room they were served an ice course, with cherries by Mrs. J. B. Tucker. After this they were allowed to go where they pleased. They first went to the grape harbor where they were served grapes by Mrs. Leonard Tripp, mother of the little hostess, and Mesdames G. S. Porter, H. H. Porter, J. B. Tucker, Lela Everett. At five o'clock the little guests took their departure, each declaring that they had had a good time. The little folks who enjoyed the hospitality of Olivia were: Bertha Mills, Annie Ree Mills, Mary Lee Everette, Minnie May Cannon, Bernice Lee Cannon, Unice Porter, Annie Ruth Edwards, Dares Hardee, Mildred Porter, Abbie May Porter, Linnell Clark, of Grimesland, N. C., Gentry Porter, W. H. Porter, Wilbur Knight Tripp.

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Dr. W. P. Shamhart, Pastor. The Eighth Street Church of Christ invites all thoughtful people and public spirited citizens to study with us, in the spirit of Christian love, the following statement of the purpose we have in maintaining and building up the work of this church.

To exalt Christ above party and his word above all human creeds. To illustrate the practicability of Christian union on New Testament faith and practice. Every Sunday 9:45 and 11 A. M., 7:30 P. M.

To build a church of Christ without denominational name, creed or other barrier to Christian unity, whose terms of fellowship shall be as broad as the conditions of salvation and identical with them.

To lead sinners to Christ in the clear light of New Testament teaching and example.

To work with all Christian workers, as far as we can, in extending Christ's reign among men, while seeking to promote the unity for which our Savior prayed.

This church offers a hearty welcome to every stranger who may cross its portals. It invites every earnest soul to accept the privilege of prayer and praise and the spiritual good ever to be found in its worship. This church recognizes the wisdom and unifying force of the declaration "Where the Scriptures speak we speak; where the scriptures are silent we are silent" in hastening the answer of the prayer of our Lord "that they all may be one that the world may believe that thou didst send me."

MYTHICAL WOMAN UP-TO-DATE

In the beginning, according to a Sanscrit writing the creator of man, exhausted his materials. So when he created woman, after much meditation, he took the rotundity of the moon, the curves of the creepers, the clinging of tendrils, the trembling of grass, the slenderness of the reed, the bloom of flowers, the lightness of leaves, the tenuity of the hare, the vanity of the peacock, the clustering of bees, the joyous gayety of sunbeams, the weeping of clouds, the fickleness of the winds, the softness of the parrot's bosom, and the hardness of adamant, the sweetness of honey, the cruelty of the tiger, the warm glow of fire, the coldness of snow, and the chattering of Jays and the cooing of doves and the fidelity of the faithful and compounding these together made woman. The above is a myth but the following is facts, attractive clothes, make attractive women, still more attractive, style is something that can't be described or explained yet we all know it and want it when we see it. In the beginning, it was a simple costume of a few fig leaves, now it embraces every color and is shown in every known fabric at prices to conform with every purse. We can't begin to describe the wonderful styles we have to show you, but they include the latest creations of Lady Duff Gordon, Maud Marion, Raven Hue, Beaux Arts and Simon Quality. Come in let us show you.

FIVE HOUSES DESTROYED BY FIRE EARLY TODAY

Four houses located in front of the fertilizer factory were completely destroyed by fire early this morning and the fifth one partially destroyed, before the fire could be checked. All the houses were occupied by colored people and belonged to Mr. S. J. Everett. Each house which cost about one thousand dollars was covered by insurance of six hundred dollars, making an estimated loss of nearly two thousand dollars. The fire originated in the middle house, which was occupied by a man, who went out to work early leaving a small fire in the stove. As the fire started in some clothing it is believed that a spark from the stove fell into the clothing, and no one being in the room, the fire gained such a headway that it was impossible for the fire company to check it. The firemen were slow in responding to the alarm on account of some trouble with the truck.

THURSDAY, OCT. 7, 1920.

Would it not be well for the Chamber of Commerce to get to functioning some more? There are several measures of importance that might be considered now, among them getting a Tar river freight line to connect at Washington with the new boat line between New Bern and Baltimore.

The business man who relaxes his efforts when conditions get harder than ordinarily, stands very much in his own light. When people are disposed not to trade much because money is tight is the time that business people should put forth their best efforts to restore confidence and stimulate trade. After every inducement possible that will help increase business.

THE PROCESS OF DEFLATION.

Despite the complaints made of injury done by credit curtailment the record shows that there has been no reduction of bank loans as yet. The loans of the reserve banks have averaged higher in the last month than in any other month since the banks were established, and the loans of member banks have also been at the top notch. On September 10, the loans of member banks reporting to the Federal Reserve board aggregated $16,923,467,000, against $15,457,705,000 on September 12, 1919, an increase of $1,465,900,000. There has been no increase of production to correspond with this. The effort to increase production by expanding credit in a period of rising prices is precisely like the efforts of a kitten to catch its own tail. The more credit is granted the higher prices will be. The efforts of the banks up to this time have accomplished no more than the prevention of further expansion. With the decline of prices however it should be possible to accomplish some degree of deflation. There should be no relinquishment of that purpose until the billholdings of the reserve banks are far below their present proportions. It cannot be too often repeated that the reserve banks were intended to hold reserve resources for use in emergencies and to meet seasonal requirements. They were not intended to be loaned up to the limit in normal times. It should be the purpose of every banker to reduce his requirements upon them to this basis.

GERMANY.

The dry weather which has prevailed in Germany for some time, and which has checked the growth of the beet crop to some extent, was relieved during the week ending August 28 by generous rains which have greatly improved crop prospects, states the Centralblatt of August 28, 1920. The tests of the beets show good results, both in weight and sugar content. The latter is very much higher than at the same time last year, so that with regular and uninterrupted operations we can count again on a normal yield of 15.50 per cent or over. On August 28 the weight of beets without leaves was 304 grams against 233 grams at the same time last year, and the sugar content 15.79 per cent against 15.63 per cent.

In factory circles the crop is expected to outturn between $900,000 and 1,100,000 tons, dependent largely on weather conditions and the securing of proper supplies of fuel, etc., to the factories. So far the deliveries of coal to the factories have been unsatisfactory and strong measures are required to guarantee the full supply of fuel. It should not be forgotten how many beets could not be worked into sugar last year because of lack of fuel. Another disadvantage which the factories face is a request from the Government that idle employees in their vicinity be employed in preference to old hands who are already employed elsewhere.

The consumption of sugar during the eight months from September 1, 1919, to June 30, 1920, is reported as 786,532 tons, including 41,347 tons of imported sugar. This is an average consumption of about 100,000 tons per month. The visible stock of domestic sugar remaining on July 1 was 181,360 tons, while all the sugar on hand available for consumption in July August and September. Due to the high world prices, little outside sugar was probably secured during this period and the people of Germany have therefore been obliged to depend largely on their home supplies of sugar for consumption during September. An early opening of the new crop is urgently desired.

COLD IMPORTATION.

One explanation of the easier tone of the money market is to be found in moderate increase of reserves, due to importations of gold from Paris and London. The lawful reserves of the reserve banks on September 3 aggregated $2,117,957,000, and on September 24 they aggregated $2,151,504,000. That is not as large a gain as might be expected, because while we were receiving imports at the front door we were losing at the back door by exports to Japan.

It is expected that more gold will come from Paris in settlement of the Anglo-French loan, and we may continue to get some of the South African gold from London, but it is a mistake to count upon any of these receipts to ease the credit situation. It will be a mistake to allow loans to increase on the strength of such additions, because we are likely to lose all that we get and more, too, and if we allow loans to increase on such an unstable basis we probably will find ourselves compelled later on to reduce them. The payment of the Anglo-French loan is not a recurring event, and in the present state of world trade we are more likely to lose gold than acquire it. Under these conditions it is unsafe to increase credits. The country is taking the only practicable steps toward relief from tight money by lowering prices, and all the ground gained in that direction should be tenaciously held. What goes up must come down, as a rule, and the problem is to get down without disaster.

TO THE FARMERS.

Tobacco Board of Trade takes no action regarding the publication of market sales and averages at their meeting (Monthly) Monday night. The rules governing changing or making new laws requires unanimous vote or a ten days lay-over.

There were two warehousemen who expressed their disapproval of giving the markets average and total sales to the representatives of the papers, so it did not come to a vote. Forbes & Morton and Gentry & German were the only warehousemen who expressed their willingness that this information be made public.

In my opinion, this not making public the average and pounds sold each week so that the trade and outside public may compare what Greenville is doing with the other large markets is very short-sighted and will hurt Greenville. It certainly puts Greenville on the same footing as the small markets, as we get no reports in the tobacco Journals nor the daily papers until the monthly reports are sent out by the government.

I have spent my time and money in advertising Greenville's tobacco market and feel that when we are kept from giving out to the world the markets sales and averages in the Tobacco Journals and daily Sunday edition, when it costs nothing except the telegram. (This I have paid for myself) it is time to let Greenville's progressive citizens and the patrons of the market know who is responsible and why Greenville's sales and averages are not published in the local as well as the big dailies and Tobacco Journals.

In my writing to the Richmond Times Dispatch, I have never mentioned Gorman's warehouse, have always written for Greenville's tobacco market as a whole but in the local papers in my paid advertising, I have compared my sales with the markets' total and it is this that the warehousemen wish kept from the public and are willing to sacrifice the market in order that those patronizing the Greenville market may not know that one warehouse is selling over a third of the tobacco and that they are tail-enders.

THE SAN SOUCL BOOK CLUB MEETS.

The San Soucl Book Club held its first meeting Tuesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. B. B. Sugg on Fourth street, with a majority of members present.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mrs. V. E. Hooker.

After the roll call and minutes, Mrs. James Hines, hie secretary read the following committee's for the year.

Library committee—Mrs. G. B. Hadley, Mrs. W. L. Hall.

Emergency—Mrs. C. E. Warren, Mrs. W. L. Best; Librarian, Mrs. W. H. Dail.

Books—Mrs. B. B. Sugg, Mrs. S. T. White; Program—Mrs. F. M. Wooten, Mrs. J. K. Brown, Mrs. F. J. Forbes, Reporter, Mrs. W. L. Hall.

The book committee reported that the books had been ordered some time ago and were expected any day.

The report of the program committee was to the effect that each program was to be left to the hostess but that a number of subject had been assigned which were available if desired. The meetings until November are to be along the line of politics, as the members wish to be well informed on this subject, being earnest in their desire, to vote for that, which means the greatest good, to the greatest number.

This club with the other clubs of the city is contemplating having a speaker visit them at their next regular meeting in order to gain more information on the above mentioned subject.

A great deal of business was discussed, and many plans made for the ensuing year, which promises to be both profitable and interesting.

The question of most importance put before the club concerned the public library plan. The public library committee has asked that the clubs and organizations of the city co-operate and work to the end that the public library have a permanent home.

The discussion caused much lively discussion, but the members were unanimous in pledging their support to so worthy a cause.

After partaking of delightful refreshments served by the hostess, the meeting adjourned.

NO ATTENDANCE RECORD EXPECTED THIS YEAR

New York, Oct. 6.—It has been pointed out that because of the capacity of the parks where the world's series games are to be played there is little likelihood of a new attendance record being made, but there is a possibility if the series goes to seven of eight games, of a new mark in total gate receipts. The record for receipts was established last year when nearly three quarters of a million dollars were paid by 236,928 fans to witness the games between Cincinnati and the Chicago White Sox.

With the prevailing prices for admission tickets this season and capacity crowds for seven or eight games there is a chance that the total receipts will exceed those of last year.

The sixteen world's series that have been played, including the one of 1903 not under the jurisdiction of the National Commission, have attracted a total attendance of 2,252,842, or an average of 23,467 for each of the 94 games that have been played.

The receipts have mounted up to a total of $4,202,135. Of this sum $2,122,918 represents the share of the club owners, but the owners have not pocketed the entire amount. For several years the regulations have required the owners to return a percentage of their share of the receipts to their respective league treasuries, the portion now being at least 50 percent.

The players who have taken part in the world's series games since 1903 have divided $1,063,177 and the National Commission has received from the big games $414,031. The governing body of major league baseball got nothing from the world's series of 1903, that series having been arranged entirely between the Boston Americans and the Pittsburgh Nation.

OLD CONFEDERATES IN ANNUAL REUNION IN HOUSTON TODAY

Houston, Oct. 6.—With greetings over their renewed friendship of many years ago, and amidst melodies that carried them back to ante-bellum days or to days when they marched in battle to some tunes, veterans of the Confederate reunion assembled here for business today. Chief interest centered in command to succeed General Vann and who will not stand for re-election. General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, North Carolina, is mentioned as his successor. Annual parade will be held Friday.

JUVENILE COURTS ABROAD.

The example set by the United States in establishing juvenile courts has now been followed by all the principal countries of Europe. Spain, the last to fall in line, has now adopted the modern viewpoint that delinquent children should not be treated as criminals, but rather as victims of adverse conditions and surroundings. In working out the details of the law Spanish authorities have followed America's experience, according to information received by the Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor.

Under the Spanish law the children's judge is not necessarily a member of the bench. He is assisted by two advisory members appointed by the commission for the protection of children. Privacy is guarded very closely in the Spanish juvenile courts; no one except probation officers is allowed in the court except by special permission, and the press is forbidden to publish any information about cases of juvenile delinquents.

Since Chicago established the first juvenile court in 1899 similar courts have been established in England, France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Switzerland, Italy, Germany, Russia, Austria and Hungary.

Camel CIGARETTES

Greetings, Pete!

Here I am tonight in Winston-Salem where more tobacco is manufactured than in any other place on the face of the earth! And, W-S is some speed city, as well as the largest in North Carolina! They're rushing up a million dollar hotel, got a corking league ball team, regular skyscraper buildings and as much action as you look for in New York!

When I knocked off for the day, I buzzed around like a hungry bee in a buckwheat field—up and down long streets of R.T. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories!

As the Reynolds enterprise proved out more and more gigantic and I talked with more men about it, I got the real and true answer as to why Camels are so good and so entirely different from any other cigarette! I'll spin for you, old-to—listen—

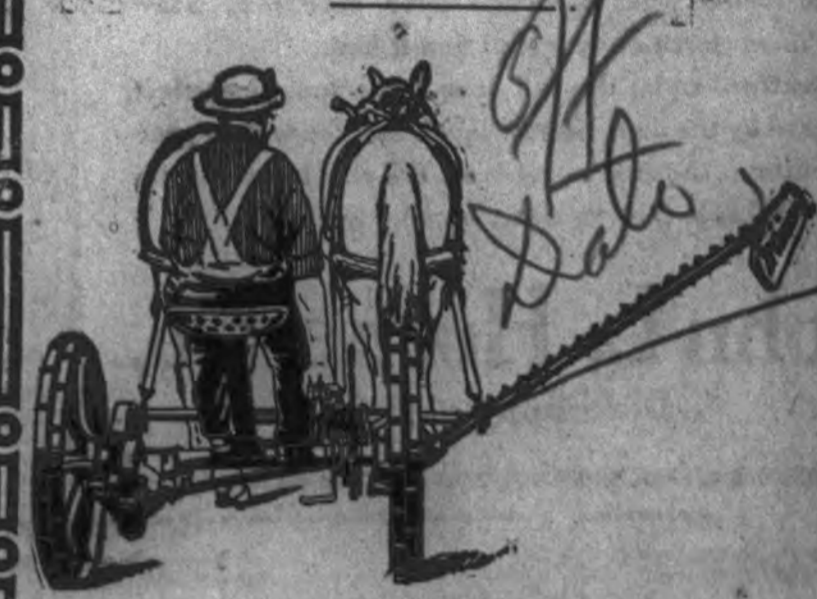

Every man I talked with made the one big point that the officials and the more than 350 Reynolds foremen have an obvious knowledge of the tobacco business; that (putting it into a North Carolina expression) they were virtually "born and raised in a tobacco patch"; that they know tobacco; how to grade it; blend it and how to manufacture and sell it!

And, what's most important of all, Pete, these Reynolds folks sure give men what they want—the best that can be produced! Why, Peter, it took months to perfect Camels, Turkish and Domestic blends—and that refreshing flavor—and wonderful mild, mellow body—before a single Camel Cigarette was sold! Guess that will repay your interest, old liberty bond!

Tomorrow, I'm going to meet some of the Reynolds folks. Got to see inside of those factories!

And, you know me!!
Shorty.

"THE RESTLESS SEX."

A Spirited and Appealing Story

John Cleland, millionaire, adopts a pretty little girl, Stephanie (Marion Davies), and she grows up with Cleland's son, Jim, whom she learns to love. Jim still regards her as a child. He goes abroad to study, and Stephanie, filled with a craving for excitement, plunges into New York's gay society life. Cleland's money affairs are in the hands of Chilsmer Grismer, a lawyer. Grismer's son, Oswald, a college chum of Jim's, is also a friend of Stephanie, or "Steve," as she is known. John Cleland dies, leaving funds for Steve in charge of Oswald's father. The elder Grismer absconds the money in order to satisfy his son's ambitions to be a sculptor.

An automobile in which Steve and Oswald are riding overturns a hundred miles from New York. They are unhurt, but are compelled to spend the night together in a questionable hotel. The place is raided, and to avoid scandal and arrest they are married.

When Jim, in Paris hears of the marriage, he realizes that he loves Steve and comes home at once. At a big society costume ball he meets her. He finally gets from her the story of her loveless marriage with Oswald. She tells him how Oswald's father, hearing that his son has married the girl whose money he has embezzled, committed suicide. Oswald, who is in despair because he cannot win Steve's love, overhears her declare her love for Jim. He quietly leaves, and later comes the news of his death in an "accident." Steve and Jim are married.

MILLIONS CLAMOR

FOR ADMISSION TO PORTS OF AMERICA

alone, mostly by Jews, while hundreds of thousands in other parts of Europe also were anxious to cross the seas to this country.

"Between 3,000,000 and 4,000,000 Italians are seeking domiciles and citizenship here and more than 3,000,000 Poles want to come over," said Commissioner Wallis, who attributed the exodus from Europe to the harsh post-war living conditions and the economic situation.

Frequently the commissioner asked the aliens why they left Europe. Most of them replied "no money, no eat," he said. Many Italian farmers declared they quit their native soil because of the danger from explosions when plowing in former battlegrounds.

Added to the prospective influx of immigrants from the countries of the war allies, will be millions in from Germany who, as soon as the way is clear, will seek passage to America, the immigration authorities have been informed by reliable and official sources.

PREDICTS DECLINE

IN GOLD STANDARD OF UNITED STATES

Industrial consumption during 1919 nearly $2,000,000 more gold than was produced from the mines of the United States, while this year the drain on the monetary stock will probably be $40,000,000. Since the industrial consumers of gold are the only ones in the country receiving material at the pre-war price, it is evident that they are being heavily subsidized.

Failure of the United States to act, Mr. McFadden asserted, will permit the British Empire to gain an unquestioned supremacy in the world's gold production. South African producers, who mine the bulk of the British gold, he added, have been receiving an exchange premium as high as 50 percent since July, 1919, and the French government, in addition to imposing an exchange discount on industrial gold, has levied a sumptuary tax of $3.73 an ounce for gold used in fabrication of articles other than money.

"This year the contribution of the United States to the gold production of the world," Mr. McFadden said, "will probably be not more than 12 percent, about half of that which it contributed in 1915, while the stimulating effect of the British-exchange premium will probably increase the quota which the British Empire will contribute to 75 per cent."
