Cold Blooded Misrepresentation Without Parallel in This Territory. GIGANTIC CONSPIRACY TO SUPPRESS FACTS IN SWAY THRUOUT AMERICA

Washington, Oct. 10.—It is believed that in cold blooded misrepresentation, vilification, distortion and suppression of truth the present campaign is without a parallel in the entire history of American politics.

President Wilson denied ever having made such a statement as soon as he saw the report in the press. The Republican Senator from Missouri being branded by the President of the United States with having told a falsehood, retorted that he got the statement from Senator Reed's speech on the floor of the Senate.

But it now appears that the official American stenographer, who made a copy of the President's speech on that occasion saw the report of the speech of Senator Spencer. The stenographer's name is F. A. Carlson, and he resides at 1101 Ashland Block, Chicago.

OPPOSES SEIZURE OF NATION'S COAL FIELD BY GERMANY

Socialization Committee Definitely Refuses Immediate Seizing Fields. COMMISSION DECIDES TO ELIMINATE CAPITAL ISSUES IN EVERY PART

Berlin, Oct. 11.—The Socialization committee appointed by the government comprising 21 leaders of the industrial labor world and economic experts has reported by a majority of one, that it is opposed to the immediate seizure of the nation's coal fields.

The commission was divided into two groups the smaller of which demanded the nationalization of the entire production and distribution of coal. This group supports the findings of the first commission which has since been disbanded, but whose majority recommended immediate confiscation.

Eleven members of the newly organized commission endorsed Walter Rathenau's proposal to give the state absolute control over every ounce of coal produced, thus depriving the operators of any voice in determining the method of disposing of their product or fixing its price.

The commission was unanimous in (Continued on page ten.)

SENATOR OWEN FOR PROGRESSIVE MAN IN NEXT ELECTION

Oklahoma Statesman Believes Governor Cox Measures Up Fully.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 10.—"He thinks in terms of human life first; in terms property, and the safe-guarding of service to men, to women and to children first; and the accumulation of city as an incident to human life of great value but no of such value as to have priority over life itself."

Senator Owen, editor and lawyer, is one of the best known authorities on banking in the entire country. It was he who engineered the passage of the Federal Reserve Act and the Farm Loan Act by the United States Senate.

"It is not by the pledges of a man immediately before election that the country may gauge a candidate. It is only by his previous conduct, persisted in, that you can gauge a man justly and fairly, and on this basis, judging the future by the past, Cox is entitled to the support of all the progressive elements in America, and Harding is entitled to the support of all the reactionary and ultra-conservative elements in America.

"The contest between Cox and Harding," stated the Senator, "is a contest between the progressive elements of the Nation and the ultra-conservative and reactionary elements.

"Cox is a constructive progressive, and Senator Harding is his antithesis, whatever Cox believes in, Harding will be found opposed to.

"If Cox is in favor of the League on any basis, Harding is against it; if Cox believes in preserving the principle of the League of Nations and respecting the sovereignty of Mexico; Harding will be found against it.

NAMES OF OFFICERS TO BE ENROLLED IN PROMINENT CLUBS

Names of 4,500 Officers to be National Memorial in New York City

New York, Oct. 11.—The names of more than 4,500 commissioned officers who paid the supreme sacrifice in the world war will be enrolled in the national memorial clubhouse to be erected here for living officers.

The club, of which Rear-Admiral Bradley A. Fiske is president, used the casualty report of the American Expeditionary Force as a nucleus for compilation of the list of officers dead but through correspondence with governors, state adjutant generals, clubs, lodges, business concerns and next of kin the list of 3,500 officer dead as officially announced in Washington in December 1919 has been supplemented by approximately 1,000 names.

Believing that other names are missing and desiring to make the club list the most complete and authentic on record Rear-Admiral Fiske has requested relatives and friends of officers, 261 Madison Avenue.

The main feature of the building will be a memorial court or hall with bronze paneled walls where the names of the dead will be engraved. Records of those who won the Distinguished Service Medal for exceptional acts of bravery will be engraved directly under their names "in order that future generations may find inspiration in the valiant deeds of the past."

While the building will stand as an enduring monument to the heroic dead the club has determined that the memorial can best serve the interest of the nation by its usefulness as a home for officers and as a "rallying center" for all forms of patriotic activity.

Four committees sponsoring the movement to build the memorial are headed by Major General Leonard Wood, Rear-Admiral William S. Sims, Henry P. Davison, former head of the American Red Cross and Mrs. Cora-Ann Vanderbilt, wife of Brigadier General Vanderbilt.

The design of the building will be selected from competitive drawings submitted by leading architects of the country. The committee on design includes Charles Dana Gibson, Edwin Howland Blasfield, Benjamin Morris and Henry Bacon, the latter being designer of the Lincoln Memorial at Washington, D. C.

Nichi Nichi Asks Where Are Countrymen Going to Live in the Future.

SIBERIAN POLICY NOT APPROVED IN SEVERAL PARTS OF THE COUNTRY

United State's Protest Received With Indecision in Many Districts.

Tokio, Oct. 11.—Japan is not likely to subscribe to the idea that the naval strength of nations which are members of the League of Nations, shall be cut down or their increase stopped, in the opinion of the leading daily, the Nichi Nichi.

"All powers are agreed on that proposition on principle," observes the Nichi Nichi in its political news column "But the United States, which was the power that proposed curtailment of naval expansion, has not as yet joined the League and she is fast increasing her naval strength. Even if other powers should strictly and faithfully adhere to the principle of reduction, the peace of the world will just the same be menaced by the powerful naval power of America.

"Thus, the general conference of the League of Nations will not accomplish anything, except that each of the members present will search into the heart of another." (The first meeting of the Assembly of the League of Nations has been called at Geneva for November 15. The Nichi Nichi therefore observed that the Japanese navy would consider the (Continued on page ten.)

STATEMENTS SHOW WILSON FACED ALL PARIS OPPOSITION

Governor Cox Says President Met Republican Objection in Framing Covenant

INDICATES TAFT ACTED AS SPOKESMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN FACTIONS

Democratic Nominee Gives Out Statements Regarding True Situation.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 10.—Cable correspondence between President Wilson and former President Taft in 1919, during drafting of the League of Nations covenant at Paris, was made public after last night's address by Governor Cox of Ohio, Democratic Presidential candidate, together with a statement by the candidate criticizing severely Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and other League opponents.

Mr. Taft, the correspondence detailed, sought and had cable communication with President Wilson, submitting numerous suggestions for changes in the tentative League draft and advising the President regarding its presentation to the senate.

Governor Cox, who is scheduled to make addresses here and at East St. Louis, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo., tomorrow, said he published the Taft-Wilson correspondence—a White House memorandum because of the "equivocal position of ex-President Taft and other friends of the League now occupy in their support of the candidate of the League destructionists.

The correspondence, said Gov. was initiated by (Mr. Taft as a result of his study of the draft agreement." And quoted Mr. Taft's "own words when sincerity of mind and intelligence were not belittled by the partisan prejudice of a political campaign."

The White House memorandum, containing some of the cables exchanged by President Wilson and Mr. Taft stated that in "every instance" the President followed Mr. Taft's suggestions, Governor Cox's statement declared that "every suggestion of Mr. Taft was followed literally". The correspondence indicated that Mr. Taft's suggestions dealt principally with the protecting the Monroe Doctrine and dealing with American domestic questions, withdrawal from League, unanimous League decisions and disarmament. The correspondence made public contained two cablegrams from the President to Mr. Taft and several from Mr. Taft to the executive, including one in which A. Lawrence Lowell, president of Harvard University, joined.

The White House memorandum quoted at length League amendments to show adoption of Mr. Taft's suggestions.

The final cablegram from Mr. Taft sent to Secretary Tumulty and forwarded the President, as given in published correspondence, was dated June 28, 1919, just before the President returned to present the treaty to the Senate. It read:

"I would like to send a return message and that is that the president agrees to the league and its necessity; the impossibility to secure peace without it, the dreadful unrest in Europe, the pressure of our allies to ratify and secure peace at once, the need of the League with the United States to stabilize and to resist bolshevism, the necessity for renewal of negotiation if an important amendment like striking out Article Ten is made, the absurdity of a congressional declaration of peace on one side, the giving up of all objects of the war in such a peace if Germany were to make a similar declaration. I hope sincerely he will not attack the Republican Senators. His appeal will be much more influential if he pleads his cause and does not attack the opposition."

MONDAY, OCT. 11TH, 1920.

Harding first got prized off his front porch, and now he is losing ground daily on his speaking tour.

Thirty thousand California women deserting candidate Harding for his rejection of the league of nations was enough to give him a jar. Election day is going to show a similar sentiment prevailing over the country.

Every day makes brighter the prophet of Democratic victory in the coming national election. At the same time these prospects should not cause any Democrat to relax for an instant his efforts to make success certain. The Republicans are a treacherous bunch and there is no telling what tricks they may try to turn in the remaining three weeks of the campaign.

THE PLACE FOR YOUR SAVINGS.

The Home Building & Loan Association is again offering stock for sale. Their next series opens Saturday, November 6th, and is the thirtieth since the Association started business in May, 1906. Curiosity prompted us to make inquiry of Secretary White as to the total value of shares matured to date. A quick reference to the books was made and he replied in a jiffy $402,200.00. Think of it, nearly one half million dollars paid back to subscribers and the Association now has in force shares that will when matured be worth one million three hundred and forty three thousand dollars. Every six months a series matures and a new series opens, so twice a year thousands of dollars are paid to holders of matured shares. We know people right here in Greenville who perhaps would never have saved a dollar, and others who would never have had a home of their own, but for the help of this association. It is a good place of investment for everybody, and the best savings bank imaginable for the small wage earner. To lay aside only the small sum of 25 cents a week will bring back $100.00 at the expiration of 333 weeks.

TRADE OF UNITED STATES.

The trade of the United States with the war-sequestered countries those which were cut off from international commerce as a result of the war will aggregate more than a billion dollars in the calendar year 1920. To the dozen countries, says a statement by The National City Bank of New York, with which our trade was necessarily suspended during the war period our exports in the calendar year 1920 will approximate $750,000,000 and our imports therefrom about $250,000,000. These dozen countries, as enumerated by the Bank's statement, are Germany, Russia, Finland, Belgium, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Jugo-Slavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, and Turkey.

In the eight months for which we have official figures the imports from Germany amounted to $58,000,000 against $1,000,000 in the corresponding months of the preceding year, and our exports to Germany $166,000,000 against $23,000,000 in the same months of the preceding year. From Belgium our imports in the eight months period amounted to $33,000,000 and our exports to that country $205,000,000. From Turkey in Europe the imports are $10,000,000 and the exports thereto $20,000,000; while from Turkey in Asia the imports are $20,000,000 and the exports thereto but about $5,000,000. To Poland and Danzig, which are combined in the official figures, the exports in the seven months ending with July, the latest figures available, are in round terms, $60,000,000, and the imports therefrom a little less than one-half million dollars. To Czechoslovakia the exports are 6 1-2 million dollars, and the imports therefrom 5 1-2 million dollars, to Jugo-Slavia the exports are a little over one-half million dollars, and the imports therefrom extremely small; Russia in Europe $100,000,000 against about $7,000,000 in the same months of last year, and the imports therefrom about 1 1-2 million dollars, while to Asiatic Russia the exports are $13,000,000 and the imports therefrom about $9,000,000. To Rumania the exports are, in round terms, $6,000,000 against 1 1-2 million dollars, but the imports therefrom are small, while to Bulgaria the exports are 1 1-2 million dollars and the imports over $1,000,000. To Finland the exports in the period in question are $15,000,000 and imports therefrom a little less than $2,000,000.

The articles forming this re-developing trade cannot at present be stated in great detail. On the import side, in which the present statements are especially meager, the principal articles include: $2,000,000 worth of tobacco from Turkey in Europe and $13,000,000 worth from Turkey in Asia, carpet wool from Russia in Europe $5250,000 worth and from Russia in Asia $461,000 worth. From the territory designated as German Oceania, which is now chiefly under control of Great Britain and Japan, the imports of copra amounted to over $1,000,000 in the seven months in question, most of it coming from the southern islands which are under control of Great Britain or her Australian and New Zealand colonies. Furs imported from Asiatic Russia amounted to $3,777,000 and from European Russia $102,000. No figures are available as to the articles forming the $50,000,000 worth of imports from Germany in the current year, though presumably they are chiefly chemicals, dyes, and miscellaneous manufactures. From Belgium the $32,000,000 worth of imports in the seventh tropical products drawn by her from 000, these figures relating to the seven months ending with July of the earlier African colony, the Belgian Congo, which figures are available include cotton goods, especially laces, manufactures of fiber, India rubber, and other

FARM INFORMATION.

For the fifty years, the State Estate Experiment Stations and the United States department of agriculture have been collecting valuable facts about farming that were never known before. This information put into practice will double the profit in farming in many different lines. Yet the greater portion of it is not being used by the farmers of the country. There may be several reasons why this information is not being used; but one very important one is that farmer has not been educated to read farming literature, and many class this information under the heading of "Book Farming," not suitable for the man who is after bigger crops more cheaply produced.

The Farm demonstration system has been developed to correct this misunderstanding among farmers and to scatter the information; but at best, the farm demonstrator can only help to correct a mistake in the farmers' education and must be classed as a "repair man." The High School Teacher of Agriculture strikes at the root of the trouble, and trains the farmer while yet a boy and a learner to select the information he wants and use it wisely.

We used to train printers, shoemakers, blacksmiths, tailors, etc., in the home shop; but now the most capable young workmen in these lines are first partly trained in the schools. Under modern conditions, it is essential that our future successful farmers learn something about farming in the schools while they are gaining other forms of learning necessary in our present stage of civilization. Every high school needs to do its part in preparing the young generation to produce food in a business like and economical way. This means that there should be two hundred or more high school teachers of agriculture in the state of North Carolina. At present there are about fifty because more cannot be had. These fifty agricultural teachers are receiving salaries of $1800.00 and up besides expense money for keeping a Ford to use in their work.

THE SLEEP SONG.

Over the river the breezes come stealing.
The willows nod drowsily there.
The days of the summer have oft been revealing.
Long hours of tempestuous care,
Where the afternoon sun loitered on with his smiling
The shadows all silently creep.
And the breeze softly murmurs in tender beguiling,
Singing the old world to sleep.

A blossom nearby, from a twig lightly shaken.
Midst the fallen leaves rustless and gleams;
It brings a caress that would soothe but not waken.
A weary one drifting to dreams,
The spell of the winter will soon be displaying
A loneliness silent and deep.
From the realms of the twilight the breezes come straying
And singing the old world to sleep.

TACKY PARTY

The member of the Epworth League of the Methodist church and some of their friends, had a merry time at the home of Mrs. Hortense Moyer last Friday night. The occasion was a "Tacky Party" and everyone came in costumes which smacked of years gone by, and showed much skill and ingenuity in their make-up.

Many kinds and colors were required in the invitations, and so well were the requirements met that it was difficult for the judges to impose fines enough to pay for the ice cream. After much debate the prize for the girls costume was awarded to Miss Annie Mae Edwards, and for the boys to Master Heber Forbes. Games and contests were indulged in and songs filled in the spaces, while peals of laughter resounded all the evening from this house of hospitality.

Miss Dora Kendall is superintendent of the Epworth League and had charge of the entertainment.

Mr. Editor:
Everybody is advising the planter to "sell his tobacco slowly, to avoid rushing it on the market." How is he to know what the market is selling when the number of pounds sold are not made public even once a week? No house in Greenville except Gorman's publishes what is sold. What reason do you suppose causes the veil to be kept on what the market is selling?
J. N. GORMAN.

GAMBLER SHOOTS NEGRO WITNESS IN THRILLING MURDER TRIAL SCENE

Spectators Leap Out of Windows to Escape Shots as Officers Grapple and Handcuff Criminal

There is a dramatic court room scene in "The Family Honor," King W. Vidor's first picture for First National, when a gambler shoots a negro witness at the close of a murder trial. The picture will be shown at White's theatre tonight.

Circumstantial evidence points to the guilt of the wayward son of a fine old Southern family. Hanging stares him in the face until an old negro retainer of the gambler gets on the stand. At first he insists that the boy has done the shooting, but badgered by a grueling cross-examination and a guilty conscience, he finally breaks down and confesses.

He tells the court that the gambler had shot the officer who was raiding his place and had told him that if he told he would kill him. In a frenzy of terror and hate the gambler whips out a revolver and fires at the negro. The whole court room is thrown into an uproar of intense excitement, women screaming and fainting and the men scrambling to get out of range. The boy prisoner and many others leap out of windows.

Officers seize the gambler and there is a terrific struggle in which he attempts to shoot them. The pistol is finally knocked out of his hand and he is overpowered and handcuffed.

Quiet is finally restored, the jury instructed to free the defendant, and the gambler is placed in jail to await trial.

This is but one of the thrilling incidents in the romantic story of a young Southern belle, whose family fortunes are dissipated. This girl struggles to educate her brother, to find that his college career is wasted and he has turned out to be a wastrel. But the great climax in which he nearly suffers death for crime wakes him up and come happier days.

Seventh-Tenths of People of the World Have Bibles in Own Language.

Tokio, Oct. 9.—The Bible is not only the "best seller" in the United States and England but has now become the "best seller" in Japan, according to the Rev. Dr. Charles E. I., who, in an address here today before the World's Sunday School congress, declared that seven-tenths of the people of the world now have Bibles in their own language. A century ago, he said, only one-fifth of the people were so provided and now each year nearly 20,000,000 Bibles are published in 500 or more languages and dialects.

Bishop Locke, declared "The Bible is the greatest civilizing force in the world's history. It contains a perfect standard of faith, morals and character and presents the only correct solution of the mystery of life. From Caedmon to Kipling," he said, "English literature is permeated by Bible thought and Bible diction." The enemies of the Bible, the Bishop said, had "done their worst to destroy it and when they imagined they had overturned it they found the Bible was a cube and is always right side up." He told of the case of a Japanese scholar of great mental vigor who had been reared as a Confucianist and who commented thus upon a translation of the Bible which had been given by an American missionary:

to the 13th chapter of St. Paul's First Epistle to the Corinthians, beginning: "If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels but have not love I am become as sounding brass or a tinkling cymbal." "I read the whole chapter. I Larger Sales in town today. There is a possibility of a block. There is nothing in the rumor that the market will shut down after selling two days. The factories are now all caught up and even should we have heavy sales all the week they can keep up with what will be sold. Prices are much better today on all grades. Liggett & Myers and the A. T. Co., having come in on new grades, giving more competition together with the factories which were congested having caught up is the reason of the better prices. We believe prices will continue to improve provided the tobacco is not rushed on the market too fast. However with the fine weather we are now having for cotton picking we do not look for heavy sales after Wednesday.

Drive to Gorman's and you will get the top of the market. We "DADDY" all tobacco sold on our floor.

Monday, Oct. 11th, 3rd sale; Tuesday, Oct. 12th, 2nd sale; Wednesday, Oct. 13th, 1st sale.
