

GOV. COX ARRAIGNS HARDING'S RECORD IN TALK AT AKRON

Replies in Vigorous Terms to Harding's Statement of "Unpledged Party." PRESENTS SEVERAL PLAIN QUESTIONS TO REPUBLICAN PARTY Says Harding Statement of Not Being "Bossed" is Merely a Good Joke.

Akron, Ohio, Oct. 29.—Senator Harding's public record was flayed here tonight by Governor Cox, Democratic presidential candidate, in an address replying in vigorous terms to the Senator's speech here last night in which the Republican nominee declared that he was "unpledged, unowned and unbossed."

"If it were not a tragedy, this statement would be a joke," declared Governor Cox to a large audience at a factory auditorium. "Surely Senator Harding can expect no one to take him seriously—when in face of his public record, everyone knows that throughout the years of his public life he has been one in bondage to the big interests and the corporate interests of the county. His entire record has been one of turning his back on every proposal for progress."

Here and in other addresses at Youngstown and Kent, Ohio, Governor Cox attacked Senator Harding as a "reactionary," evasive upon the "League of Nations and other issues," and the Governor reiterated that he himself was the champion of progress.

Senator Harding's speech here last night was the special theme of the Governor reiterated that he himself most bitter personal arraignment of his adversary yet made in the campaign.

Senator Harding was chosen at Chicago, Governor Cox asserted, by a "nominating conspiracy of the Senatorial Oligarchy," in a Chicago hotel, and the Governor asked the following "plain questions" of the Republican candidate:

"What questions were asked you and what pledges were made before the Oligarchy decided to give you the nomination?"

"Did you promise George Harvey a place in the cabinet, as is generally stated?"

"Does your platform authorize you to make a pledge to George Vrebeck and to declare for a separate peace with Germany to secure, as he says, 6,000,000 votes of the Peace-German party in America?"

"Did your platform give you the right to promise to George Reynolds, the Chicago banker, who on the basis of a conference with you, assures his friends that you will permit amendments to the Federal Reserve Act so that none but bankers may sit upon the Federal Reserve Boards, and thus again retire the control of the money interests of America to a small group of bankers?"

IOWA MINISTER BOUND, GAGGED AND THROWN IN BURNING AUTOMOBILE

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Oct. 30.—Rude Cleveland, pastor of the Dodge Memorial church was slugged, bound and gagged by four thugs who threw him into a truck, soaked his clothes with oil and set fire to the car. He saved himself by rolling out of the car. His condition is critical. It is believed the attack resulted from the pastor's fight against crime in his locality.

RUMANIAN REFORM ACT BRINGS ABOUT NATIONAL CONTEST

Peasants Greatly Pleased with Outright Ownership of Farm Lands.

Jassy, Rumania, Oct. 30.—Rumania's Agrarian Reform Act giving 5,000,000 acres of state, institutional and private lands to the peasants, has been in operation a year and has brought about a degree of contentment and satisfaction among the population heretofore unknown. For the first time in Rumania's history the peasants have been given outright ownership of land. King Ferdinand was the first to give up a part of his large land holdings to the people.

The expropriation of large private estates by the government did not please the proprietor classes, but it has had a steady influence upon the temper and spirit of the people, who now have little sympathy for bolshevist doctrines. Nearly 85 percent of the people of Rumania are supporters of agriculture and under their ownership the land during the last year has yielded larger and better crops than ever before.

Five sixths of the population of Rumania consists of the peasantry, who combine thrift with industry. In fact the peasant class constitutes the real Rumania. The whole hope of the country is bound up in it. A large percentage of illiteracy prevails, but the people possess many good qualities. One sees the same hand-worked costumes that obtained in the middle ages, the same goodness of heart and simplicity of manner which always characterize highly stratified societies where people know their stations in life and act accordingly.

The bulk of the Rumanian nation still lives in dirt-floored huts made of woven branches and plastered with mud. These hovels usually are windowless and stoveless. The people sleep upon the floor or upon benches with their day clothes on, often six to ten of them in one miserable low-ceiled room ten feet square. In many cases the poultry, pigs and cattle occupy the same room.

While Rumanian cities have made decided progress during the last 25 years, the country—the real heart of Rumania—has been practically stationary. The ox-drawn wooden plough, the hand scythe, and the wheat flail used in biblical times are still to be seen.

Although producing enough wheat to supply all Europe with bread, the Rumanian peasant does not touch white bread. His diet consists almost entirely of a sort of corn-meal mush mamaliga boiled so stiff that when it cools it resembles corn bread of the Southern States. This meagre food, insufficiently supplemented with fats, is accountable for the large amount of pellagra in Rumania perhaps equalled nowhere else in the world.

SILENT VOTE WILL PUT LEAGUE OVER IN NEXT ELECTION

Democrats Looking to Rank and File to Elect Governor Cox Tuesday.

REPUBLICANS FAIL TO UNDERSTAND OPTIMISM OF DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Sanguine Spirit of Leading Men Source of Uncertainty to G. O. P's.

Washington, Oct. 29.—Republicans are greatly puzzled to know why the Democrats are confident of the success of Governor Cox and the Democratic ticket. They have learned that this confidence is not merely campaign assurance. Every surface indication at this moment is that Harding will win, but the best informed Democrats are not only saying publicly but privately "we are going to put the League over."

Why do they say this? Because of their confidence in the great silent vote of the country on next Tuesday. They hold that the Republicans show they are entirely ignorant of the existence of such a vote and that this vote is going to overthrow and crush them with defeat.

The Republicans more than two years ago organized their campaign against the President. It was made as personal and as venomous in character as possible with the bald assertion that the people desired a change in administration. The Republican press was trained for the assault. All the experience gained from organizing this country for the great war was utilized to complete this partisan political organization.

GERMAN ELEMENT BEGINS AGITATION FOR AN ALLIANCE

Pan-German Faction Desire Immediate Alliance With English.

Berlin, Oct. 30.—Pan-German elements are agitating for an economic alliance with England as the only way in which Germany can regain her pre-war commercial prestige. The radical wing of the conservatives believe the European situation has made such a union not only practicable but probable, and are urging that ancient hates be forgotten and an understanding reached between the two nations. England and not America, is considered the chief factor with which Germany must reckon in international and European commerce.

Writers in the newspapers discuss at length the problem of allaying what they say is an unabating anti-German feeling among the English.

The Kreuz Zeitung, the old organ of the monarchists, says in an editorial: "If we have in mind any foreign alliance only England can be considered. I am fully aware that I will meet with the earnest opposition of many of my comrades when I suggest an alliance with England, which has done everything to destroy us. In spite of it I hazard to recommend an alliance with England on the following grounds: "Politics are not founded on sympathies. That is the first lesson that the honest German should learn from his English cousin. We should possess enough cleverness to put sympathy out of our politics and as a wise business travel with the partner who can make the going profitable.

TELLS HOW JAPAN MAY GAIN HELP OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

Viscount Kaneko Says Only by Proper Diplomacy Can This be Accomplished

DECLARES HIS NATION HARBORS NO ILL WILL AGAINST THIS COUNTRY

Says War Between Countries Will Not Accomplish Mission of Japan.

Tokio, Oct. 30.—Viscount Kaneko, president of the American-Japan Society asserts in a special article in the Japanese newspaper, Yomiuri, that not by war but by friendship and intelligent diplomacy can Japan accomplish the aims she seeks in connection with American problems.

The Viscount declares that because of gratitude for what Americans did for Japan in the days of Commodore Perry and Townsend Harris, Japan has harbored no grudge against the United States "although of recent years in the United States there has arisen an anti-Japanese agitation beginning with the San Francisco school incident; then the taking of the right of land ownership away from the Japanese, the restrictions on the leasehold of land, the restriction of photograph marriages and other incidents. Instead of resentment, Japan has of her own accord repealed the immigration of her laborers into the United States by the gentleman's agreement, Japan is now taking toward the United States an attitude similar to that by American toward Japan of years ago, an attitude of patience and forbearance."

Viscount Kaneko held that for the peace of Asia, Japanese American friendship was an absolute necessity, yet in spite of this some people talk of war. He went on: (Continued on page five.)

NUMBER OF WOMEN WILL FEATURE IN COMING ELECTION

Six Parties Have Ticket for President and Vice President of Nation.

New York, Oct. 30.—The national and state elections to be held next Tuesday, November 2, will be notable for the number of women nominees and the large number of parties which have nominated candidates.

Six parties have national tickets for President and Vice-President, though by no means in all the states. These tickets are Republican, Democratic, Socialist, Prohibition, Farmer-Labor and Single Tax. About 13 other parties have candidates either for state tickets or for representatives in congress, bringing the total of all parties in the field nearly to a score.

In the Presidential election there will be chosen 531 members of the Electoral College of which 266 will be necessary to the election of a candidate as President. In the last election President Wilson had 277.

The present membership of the United States Senate is 96, composed of 47 democrats, 48 republicans and one republican and progressive. This year 33 states are to elect 34 senators, the terms of 32 members of that body expiring on March 3, 1921, while the other two are being selected to fill unexpired terms up to March 4, 1925. Of the 32 senators whose terms expire next March, 17 are democrats and 15 republicans. The two additional vacancies were caused by the deaths of Senators Bankhead of Alabama and Martin of Virginia, both democrats. One senator is to be chosen in each of the 33 states except in Alabama which elects 2.

STUDENT BODY OF CITY HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTS COMEDY

The student body of the high school was hilariously entertained during the assembly period today by the Sophomore Class, who presented burlesque "The Rushing Sympathy Orchestra." Tom Foley as spokesman heralded each member of the illustrious troupe with a fitting introduction. The musical instruments were chairs skillfully tilted on one leg served as cellos, violins were improvised out of cigar boxes, and curtain poles of various sizes were flutes, piccolos, etc. There was an opening selection by the whole orchestra, successfully conducted by Prof. Pianino Fortessine. Humoresque whose shaggy hair and swallow-tailed coat also some special features: Miss Todsey Wootsey Mary and sang a dumb solo with Prof. Daddyrefkie, accompanying on a doll piano, which he brought on the stage under his arm. Prof. Perkinimo rendered an accordion solo "Come In Come Out," in Petro like fashion, having for his loved instrument a collapsible porch gate. A vocal quartette, Misery, Agony, Pain and Grief effected by pulling the plait of four girls, who emitted the desired sounds when so signalled, was fine.

The concert closed with "Come Back Again when you Can't Stay so long," and an announced encore, "What's Your Hurry." A number of the boys and girls were kept in after school for study each day last week. It is hoped that this will create a desire for better work. This places good work at a premium. Visitors are always welcome, come around and pay us at least one visit. We will be glad to have you with us. The boys are practicing every day for basket ball. CENSURES LEADING FIGURE PLANNING FOR ITS SUCCESS

Publisher Washington Paper Set Forth Facts Condemning Amendments

DECLARES ADOPTION OF NEW LEGISLATION WOULD BENEFIT FEW

Sees No Reason For Limiting Revenue of Towns and Cities of State.

(By Jas. L. Mayo.) On November 2nd, the voters of North Carolina will be called upon to pass judgment on the proposed Constitutional Amendments.

I am quite sure there are but few people who have made for themselves an investigation of the Amendments and to those who read this article I would suggest that you make a careful study of them and ascertain for yourselves whether the statements I make are based on facts, then vote as you feel will best serve your interest. The special session of the Legislature proposed five amendments to be voted on; they are as follows:

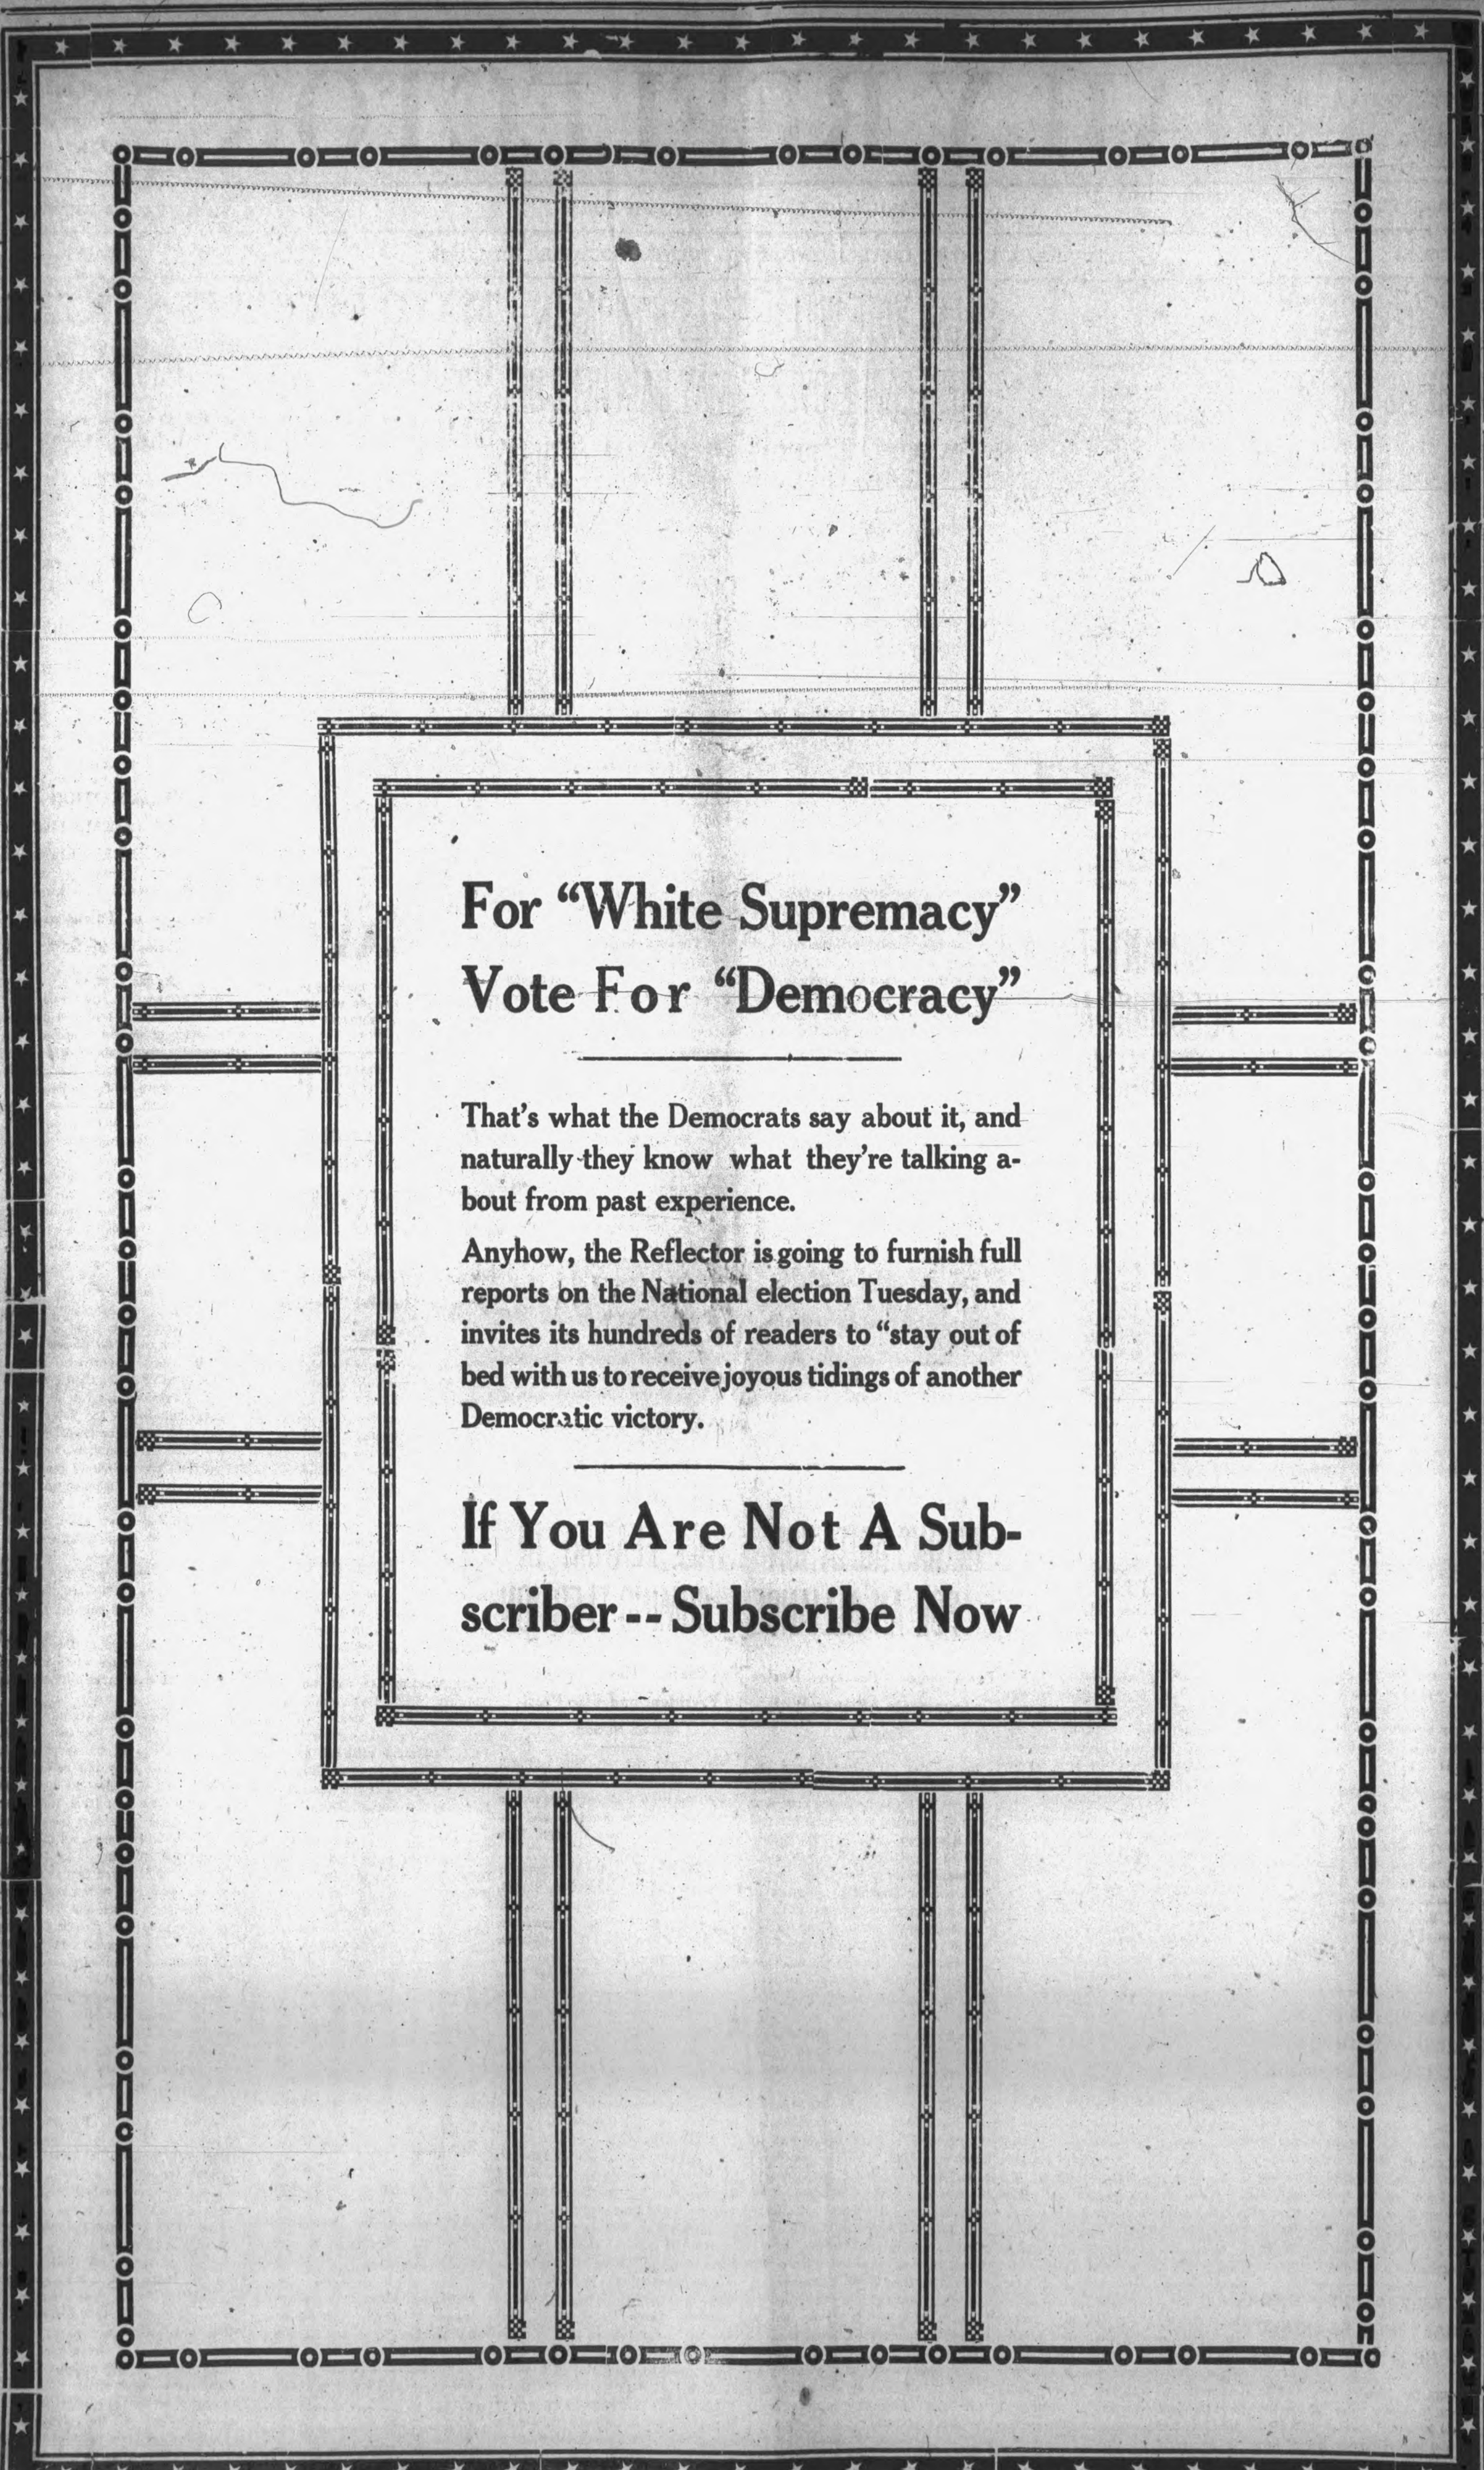

First Amendment. "Amend article five, section three, by repealing the proviso in said section, 'that no income shall be taxed where the property from which the income is derived is taxed.' And substituting in lieu thereof the following: 'Provided, the rate of tax on incomes shall not in any case exceed six per cent, and there shall be allowed the following exemptions, to be deducted from the amount of annual incomes, to-wit: for a married man with wife living with him, or to a widow or widower having minor child or children, natural or adoption, not less than $2,000, to all other persons not less than $1,000.00, and there may be allowed other deduction (not including living expenses) so that only net incomes are taxed."

The chief objection of this amendment is the subterfuge which is being used to bring it in favor with the voters. The politicians who are advocating its passage will tell you that it will tax the incomes of the corporations, which is true. They fail however, to tell you that will also tax the rents and profits from your farm, from your business, from your investments and from every other source, all of which you are already being taxed for.

They do not tell you that this State now has the rights to tax the corporations as far as is just and right, since the corporations are creatures of the legislature. This amendment fixes or attempts to fix a limit of 6 per cent as the tax on incomes or 06.00 on the $100 when the property tax is being fixed at 15c on the $100. Why this distinction?

Would the adoption of the amendment have a tendency to lower rents and interest rates or would it increase them? Second Amendment. By striking out section one of article five and substituting therefor the following: "The General Assembly may levy a capitation tax on every male inhabitant of the state over 21 and under 50 years of age, which tax shall not exceed two dollars, and cities and towns may levy a capitation tax which shall not exceed one dollar. No other capitation tax shall be levied. The commissioners of the several counties and the cities and towns may exempt from the capitation tax any special cases on account of poverty or infirmity."

This amendment strikes out and abrogates section one of article five which provides that the poll tax shall be equal to the taxes on three hundred dollars worth of property, and does away with the equation between poll (Continued on page four.)

SAYS EXPANSION OF BRITISH EMPIRE IN ASIA IS AT AN END

Secretary of Foreign Affairs Tells of Conditions Prevailing in Country.

London, Oct. 20.—The expansion of the British Empire in Central Asia is at an end and rightly so, Earl Curzon, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, told the Central Asian Society in an address last night.

The function of Great Britain in the future, he added, was not to absorb territory there but to give security and to arrange that the evolution to a different and higher state of things should be easy.

The great bulk of Central Asia, he said, had been thrown into the vortex of European politics. The Russian Empire which Englishmen have regarded with apprehension had been, for the moment, obliterated from the scene. China was in the throes of a military crisis, the upshot of which no one could foresee. Afghanistan had acquired something like independence.

All India was seething with agitation and trying to establish some new form of government. In Tibet, the British had been welcomed as friends.

Lord Curzon expressed the hope that the Persian government and parliament would ratify the Anglo-Persian agreement and that this would assure the integrity and independence of that country.

He advocated setting up an Arab form of the administration in Mesopotamia and said Sir Percy Cox had gone out to assist in carrying on that work. He hoped for some form of Arabian unity which would gratify the ambitions of the Arabs.

In Afghanistan there was serious trouble and commotion. The Secretary said he knew of no country in Central Asia where the bolsheviks had greater hopes of causing trouble for Great Britain, yet he regarded the interests of Afghanistan as identical with those of Britain. It might take years before the commotion in Asia subsided and no one should suppose that the work of Englishmen in those countries was over.

REPUBLICANS GET IN PANICKY MOOD OVER PUBLIC VOTE

Party Leader Growing Uncomfortably Uncertain About Next Election.

Washington, Oct. 28.—Whatever happens on Tuesday, things are certainly going bad for the Republicans at this stage. The President's statement yesterday and the description of his pathetic condition given out by the pro-League Republicans who went to the White House struck a stunning blow to the enemies of the League. They instantly grabbed illusions like a drowning man at a straw. They say that the President did not mention Governor Cox's name, and that he urged the claim of Article X without referring to reservations. Instantly they threw these facts into streamer lines at the masthead of their press and above these black lines a flaming red line "the Democrats split asunder on the League."

Why they say Cox is trying to elect himself without a Senate to back up his party and Wilson is trying to elect a Senate to save the League without regard to who goes into the White House. Democrats smile at the absurd explanation.

How, it is asked, could a Democratic Senate secure the League without a Democrat in the White House. The Senate returned the treaty of Versailles unratified to the President. It is no longer before the Senate and Mr. Wilson will be out of the White House before the new Senate comes into existence.

SATURDAY, OCT. 30, 1920.

IS IT ECONOMICAL TO BUILD A STATE SYSTEM?

It will cost from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000 to build a State System of 5,500 miles connecting all county seats and principal towns. North Carolina, with her large territory and comparatively small population, cannot afford to finance this tremendous undertaking wholly through current revenue, as many of the richer states are doing; but by taking care of what we can now and spreading the balance over a number of years, it will work no hardship on this or the coming generation.

Wise economists tell us that such a type of investment should be borne partly through current expenses and partly with credit. In other words, we should use our credit for that portion of the investment which is permanent, including the location, grading and drainage of the road and the construction of the bridges. Out of current funds we should surface these high ways with such materials as traffic conditions over a particular link would justify.

The proposed State System of county seat to county seat and principal town of 5,500 miles will carry approximately 80 per cent of all the traffic and 90 per cent of the motor traffic, as very few motor vehicles confine their activities to the road or any one township or county, but are users of inter-county or State Highways.

Estimating the average value of all motor cars at $1,000 each, we now have invested approximately $130,000,000 in motor vehicles.

A series of experiments has shown that it takes twice as much gasoline for a two-ton truck to go over a good earth road as it does over a good brick road, and three times as much as it does over a concrete or other smooth, hard surfaced road. The same proportion would hold for other motor vehicles. This means that a system of hard surfaced roads would reduce the gasoline bill of our motorists from three to five times. We have in North Carolina 130,000 motor vehicles, which is 1-58th of the total number of such vehicles in the United States. Last year the gasoline consumed by motor vehicles in this country amounted to 2,833,007,000 gallons, and our proportional part of that would be 49,191,155 gallons, which at 30c. per gallon would amount to $17,708,815. If the number of motor vehicles and the price of gasoline remained constant, and if by a State System of hard surfaced roads we decreased the amount of gasoline used by only one-third (a very conservative estimate), we would effect a saving of over $5,902,938 on gasoline alone. No tests have been made which show just what would be the possible saving repairs, tires or general depreciation of motors vehicles through the acquiring of such a State System of hard surfaced roads, but as such roads would prolong the life of the motor vehicle investment several times, it may be readily seen that there would be an annual saving of millions of dollars.

The Ohio State College has shown through some tractive resistance tests that a two-ton truck will maintain an average speed four times as great on hard surfaced roads as on dirt roads. According to these tests, we now spend four times as much time in making a trip by truck as we would if we had the hard roads. In other words, a truck can now do only one-fourth as much work as it could do on the hard surfaced roads, its efficiency being decreased 400 per cent by the dirt roads. Our farms are being depopulated and the products of the farm curtailed through inadequate transportation facilities. With well built and well maintained main highways, the truck could take care of much of the freight congestion, especially short hauls, thus enabling the farmer to readily market much material which would otherwise go to waste; save his time in marketing; and give more time to actual farm work.

DO YOUR PART, TOO.

Bear in mind that your dollar, even though it may be hard earned, is much increased in purchasing value by reason of the voluntarily reduction in prices the merchants are making on their goods. You only have to watch the advertising columns of this paper to see what the merchants are doing to help equalize conditions arising from the prices of farm products being lower than had been expected. The merchants taking this course should win the appreciation of purchasers, especially the farmers, and bring back to all the spirit of optimism and good feeling. Everybody lend a helping hand to the other fellow, brighten conditions by paying their obligations as fast as possible, keep cheerful with a deaf ear turned to the man who whines, spend your money carefully with those who give you the most for it, and you will find that conditions are not so bad as the grumbler makes out they are.

November will come Monday and the election Tuesday. Be sure that you vote the Democratic ticket.

Though you may forget or not want to vote Tuesday for some men on the ticket, let nothing persuade you not to vote for the income tax amendment to the constitution.

If you favor those most able to pay taxes bearing their just proportion and the burden made lighter on those least able to pay, you will vote for the income tax amendment Tuesday.

Since cold weather has come along the mosquito will be a back number. Likewise Candidate Harding will find the frost of ballots will nip him when the count is completed Tuesday night.

The Republicans have not had one real principle to base their campaign upon, and they will find out Tuesday that the people realize this.

Mayo Declares Income Tax Should Be Voted Down

and property tax, which we have had so long and which has worked so satisfactorily to the people, though probably not so satisfactorily to the tax gatherers.

But there is another reason why this amendment should not be adopted. It limits the poll or capitation tax to one dollar in towns and cities. This should not be done. There are so many citizens who do not and would not pay any other poll tax, yet they get all the rights and benefits of town and city life, why say to the towns and cities of the State, you shall not levy but one dollar poll tax, no matter what rights and benefits you give the citizens and residents within your corporate limits. The towns and cities must have revenue, why put this limitation upon them, they will have to replace it by additional levy on property.

We have grown under said section from a poor to a rich and prosperous State, why change that which has proven good for the people?

Third Amendment. By striking out section six of article five and substituting therefor the following: "The total of the State and county tax on property shall not exceed fifteen cents on the one hundred dollars value of property except when the county property tax is levied for a special purpose and with the special approval of the General Assembly, which may be done by special or general act: Provided, this limitation shall not apply to taxes levied for the maintenance of public schools of the State for the term required by article nine, section three, of the Constitution: Provided, further, the State tax shall not exceed five cents on the one hundred dollars value of property."

This amendment should not be ratified and should be defeated by the people, because it is called a limitation, when in fact it is no limitation on the counties. The right to exceed the limit by special or general act destroys the limitation. The first half of the first sentence builds up a limitation and the last half of the first sentence destroys or annuls it, there would be no limitation and the flood gates of taxation would be opened. This amendment would leave the people at the will of legislature and the board of commissioners of the several counties.

Any person with a fair knowledge of the English language can see that the proposed amendment puts practically no limitation on the several counties and only a partial limitation on the State.

Should you be in doubt as to how you should vote on this amendment, I am confident the questionnaire published in State papers under the authorship of Clarence Poe, J. M. Broughton, A. B. Andrews, W. B. Kligore, B. F. Beasley, W. T. Post and others will furnish sufficient information to convince any person that this amendment should be killed.

I quote some of the questions and answers published by the above named gentlemen:

Q. Does the proposed 15-cent limitation apply to rates that may be levied for the six months public schools?

A. No.

Q. To special taxes for schools, roads, or other purposes for which taxes are voted by the people?

A. No.

Q. To taxes levied for a special purpose of necessary expense, by special approval of the General Assembly?

Q. Does the present limitation of 66 2-3 cents apply to taxes levied for any of these purposes just mentioned?

A. No. The proposed limitation of fifteen cents applies to every purpose (which the present limitation of 66 2-3 cents applies. If adopted November 2nd, it will be as genuine and effective a plan for holding down normal taxes to 15 cents on each $100 hereafter as the present constitution is for holding taxes down to 66 2-3 cents on each $100. Both the present and proposed limitations simply cover rates that may be levied for any purpose by the State, except (1) the six months schools, and (2) rates that may be levied for general expenses by the counties.

These gentlemen are all ardent supporters of the amendments and admit the proposed farce would be no limit to the amount the tax rate could be increased, they go further and tell you that our present limit of 66 2-3 cents on the $100 valuation is no limit, the Constitution is so worded as to enable the tax authorities to evade the intent of the law and thereby collect special taxes for almost any purpose they wish.

We all know what a no limit law is and what it leads to so lets not swallow all of the bait thrown out by the silver tongued politician orator. They will tell you that if these amendments are voted down you would be a seceder 66 2-3 cents under the old law. They do not remind you of the fact that the taxes for this year have already been assessed and that the legislature meets again next January and adjourns before rates will be fixed for next year's taxes.

The people are becoming weary of having some new tax legislation thrust upon them at each and every session of the legislature.

Vote down these amendments and say to your representative, if you will at the next session, pass and submit to us one amendment which will positively fix a rate beyond which no legislature nor county can levy, we will vote for it until you do this we will vote men in office who will give us a square deal in taxing our property under the present constitution.

Fourth Amendment. By striking out that part of the first sentence of section two of article six reading with the word "election" before the word "provided," and substituting therefor the following: "He shall reside in the State of North Carolina for one year and in the precinct, ward, or other election district in which he offers to vote for four months next preceding the election."

The Constitution requires a residence of two years in the State six months in the county and four months in township, precinct or ward. The main reason for the adoption of the present constitutional residential requirement was to prevent the transportation of floating voters from other states into North Carolina for election purposes and from transporting floating voters from one county to another for election purposes. Such was once a great evil in North Carolina and with an unlimited suffrage under the 19th amendment to the U. S. Constitution, the present residential requirements may operate as a great guard. Anyway it has worked well, so let us keep it.

Fifth Amendment. By abrogating the following requirement of section four of article five. "And before he shall be entitled to vote he shall have paid on or before the first day of May of the year in which he proposes to vote, his poll tax for the previous year, as prescribed by article five section one of the Constitution," and by abrogating the following proviso at the end of section four of article six: "Provided such person shall have paid his poll tax as above required."

This proposed amendment strikes out the requirement that a voter shall have paid his poll tax before he is entitled to vote. This is a very small requirement of a citizen who proposes to vote. Why should a person who does not care enough for his county and state to pay poll tax for the maintenance of the same, be allowed to cast his vote for the government of the same. If he demands representation by the ballot he should bear his part of the burden of taxation. If a citizen is not willing to bear his burden of taxation (poll tax) then he has no right to demand the ballot. It has worked well, it has been a good tax collector and it may be a great protection.

The proposed five amendments to five separate sections of the Constitution are proposed in blocks or masses, that is the first three above discussed are proposed together and the people must accept or reject them on one ballot, and the last two the fourth and fifth are proposed together and must be accepted or rejected on one ballot. The Constitution is the people's constitution. It is their charter of liberty and protection against sudden waves of sentiment which in the course of human events may sweep over the legislature, each section of said Constitution has its place and meaning, and each section if amended by the people should be by separate clear and distinct amendment. It is improper for the General Assembly to attach several tutions to several sections of the history?

Constitution, some of which might be desirable and some of which may be undesirable and say to the people you must ratify in bulk or reject in bulk, the people should have the chance to make their choice and amend section by section. The writer is of the opinion that the reason for attaching several amendments together is for the purpose of securing the adoption of ratification of some amendments that would not be adopted or ratified separately, and he believes, that was the reason for attaching the first three proposed amendments together and the last two proposed amendments together and the people should reject them all.

If the framers of these proposed amendments were satisfied that all of them are needed and are in the interests of the whole people why were they unwilling to risk the judgment of the voters on each one separately? Has the nigger in the woodpile been uncovered?

Remember, we are now passing through a period of re-adjustment, and any amendment adopted now may within a short time become obsolete. Is it wise to tamper with our Constitution at such a critical period of our history?

THINGS.

All day I've been a-wishing For things I haven't got;
A quaint old blue delt pitcher,
A rose-filled garden plot,
A dancing dress of silver,
A little gate that swings,
A gently curving highboy;
Ah me, the lovely things!

All day I've borne my wishing
A weight against my heart,
And all my thoughts were longings,
To burn and sting and smart;
But now that it is evening,
I sit me down to rest,
And watch the twilight soften
The hills low crest.

Are stars; the nights is still;
Deep are the inky shadows;
Grave is the distant hill,
My heart is hushed with beauty!
My spirit stirs and sings.
Tell me, what is wishing?
And what are things?

TELLS HOW JAPAN MAY GAIN HELP OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

"Even so-called intelligent classes fear a drift toward war in the near future. I am firmly convinced that such talk is indulged in merely to attract the attention of other people."
"Suppose that the two nations were at war with each other. America will have to base her operation in Hawaii and the Philippines. No matter how great the economic advantages and how great the military and naval strength which she may command, she will not be able to do more than hinder a portion of Japan's shipping from operation, or devastate the shores of Japan temporarily. She will not be able to deal decisive blows to Japan, not land a single man on the soil of Nippon. The Japanese nation will never permit such a thing to pass. Never has Japan been invaded by foreign hosts since history recorded her birth. Mongolian invasions were twice attempted, but in vain. Since that time, Japan's national strength has increased many fold.

"On the other hand, suppose that Japan should attack America and that she should be able to land marines from her powerful fleet in San Francisco. How will Japan transport the million soldiers needed to make the landing of marines effective? How will she send provisions? It is altogether an impossibility. Moreover, even if Japan's army should occupy a portion of the western coast of the American continent, the body of the United States will not be greatly hurt. Quite possibly, New York and Washington will pay no attention to such a trivial incident.

"This it is plain that a war between Japan and America cannot accomplish its final object and because of its very uselessness will never be waged."

SILENT VOTE WILL PUT LEAGUE OVER IN NEXT ELECTION

In Europe to conquer the Germans know that the Republicans were then laying plans to defeat any program of peace and reconstruction the President might propose. They are doing this in the face of the notable appeal he had made to the country to lay aside all partisan politics and as good Americans win a just and honorable peace.

COX ANSWERS LATE ARGUMENT TOWARD MAKING A CHANGE

Fires Broadside of Questions to American Voter on Change of Administration.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 28.—Arguments addressed especially to voters favoring Senator Harding, Republican Presidential candidate, upon the broad, general ground of desiring "a change" in national affairs were emphasized here tonight by Governor Cox.

To a large audience in Tomlinson Hall and in a formal statement, the Democratic nominee fired a broadside of questions to the American people attacking Senator Harding and other Republican leaders for their League of Nations, legislative and political records.

"Republicans, when they are honest," Governor Cox declared, "have acknowl-ing for President. And yet they tell me that as partisans many expected to vote for him because they have been taught to believe that they wanted a change. The expression was preached as propaganda by reactionary leaders until it has become nauseating to the public."

Governor Cox's visit here was the occasion for a great rally of Hoosier Democracy.

With his fire against the argument "for a change" in government Governor Cox also preached the League of Nations and predicted victory next Tuesday.

"My opponents make their fight upon the league issue and upon me," he said. "They have failed in their attempt to divert the issues. They have been compelled to recognize that Cox is the candidate and no longer can they continue their assault upon President Wilson, whom they have pitilessly belabored for months, even though they knew he was sick and unable to defend himself as much a victim of the war as is any disabled soldier in the hospital."

In his assault upon sentiment for "a change," Governor Cox put these questions to voters:

"Do they want a change that will mean tax revision from a big business point of view? That is the change they would get from Senator Harding.

"Do cattle raisers want the change desired by the packers, so that the Kenyon-Kendrick bill will be killed, leaving the cattle men to obtain whatever prices the big live elect to give? All of Senator Harding's political associates are opposed to that bill.

"Do they desire a change back to normalcy relative to legislation? Will Johnson, Borah, Norris and the other Progressives in and out of congress deny they are hoping to prevent Penrose from writing the next tariff bill?

"Do they want a change that will mean success to the program of reactionary politicians, including Senator Harding, desirous of abolishing all direct primaries and thus eliminating the troublesome instructed delegation when the Old Guard leaders assemble at 2:11 A. M. for their quadrennial conference to pick the Presidential nominee for the Republican voters of America?"

"Do farmers want a change to the type of political control that brought about the agrarian revolt in North Dakota."

"Do the working men of America want a change to an administration headed by Senator Harding, who voted for the anti-strike sections of the Cummings bill, although in keeping with his general conduct he would pose now as a friend of labor?"

AMERICAN AIRMEN
 FOOLED BOLSHEVIK
 IN LEMBERG DRIVE

Moscow Offers Reward for Capture of Men Who Delayed Airplane Plans.

Warsaw, Oct. 29.—Polish army intelligence officers report that Moscow offered a reward of 1,000,000 rubles for the capture, dead or alive, of Major Cedric E. Fauntleroy, of Chicago, and McGhee, Ark., commander of the Polish air forces of the southern front. General Budenny's failure to take Lemberg, when the bolsheviki made the August drive upon Warsaw, is attributed by Lenine and Trotzky chiefly to the fight against the Cossacks from the air.

Major Fauntleroy was recently appointed chief of aviation of the Sixth Polish army. He has four squadrons under his command, one of which is the Kosciusko air organization composed chiefly of Americans. Aviators of that squadron, under the command of Captain George M. Crawford, of Wilmington, N.D., are known by bolsheviki soldiers of the southern front as "devils of the air," according to recently captured red soldiers.

During two days in August when General Budenny was striving with every force at his command to break the Polish southern front and dash into Lemberg, the bolsheviki in the north having virtually reached the outskirts of Warsaw, the four squadrons of the Sixth army made 129 flights, dropped 15,000 pounds of bombs and used 16,700 machine gun bullets in attacks.

General Rozwardowski, chief of staff of the Polish in a communication to the chief of aviation, says: "Activities of the squadrons of the Sixth army in battles with the cavalry of Budenny were directed with the greatest efficiency, this being acknowledged by statements of bolsheviki prisoners, and soviet wireless messages."

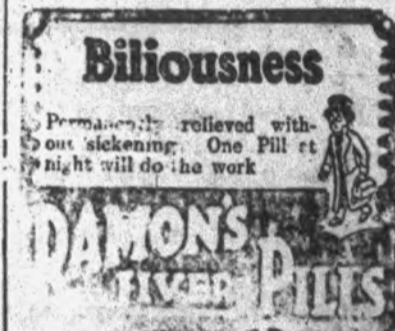

One wireless message signed by Budenny and intercepted by the Poles said: "In battles near Lemberg our cavalry troops sustained great losses from Polish airplanes which flew in squadrons of 12 planes bombing and covering the soldiers with machine gun fire."

Reviewing the work of aviators of the southern front General Rozwardowski wrote: "The extraordinary manoeuvres of the air squadrons of the Sixth army are due to the organizing ability and unlimited energy of the army's chief of aviation, Major Fauntleroy, to whom I convey the highest praise for the enthusiasm with which he has fought for Poland's cause."

Candidate Harding is likely to make up in a frost next Wednesday morning.

Gentry & Gorman

The market blocked Friday. We did not get to sell so we get first sale Monday. All tobacco coming in Monday will be sold before the buyers leave our house. Gorman's has sold to date 4,162,782 pounds. We sold this week with four sales 489,008 pounds. We look for continued strong prices the coming week and believe prices will hold firm the balance of the crop. Since it has turned cool tobacco will keep better and the sales will be lighter.
