GERMAN OFFICERS REPORTED IDLE IN SEVERAL SECTIONS

Many of The 50,000 Former Officers Join Banks of Unemployed In Every Section TRYING TO MAKE SMALL PENSIONS PAY FOR REAL NECESSITIES OF LIVES

Berlin, Nov. 9.—Many of the 50,000 former German officers discharged since the signing of the armistice have joined the great army of the unemployed in Germany...

Officers belonging to old aristocratic, once wealthy families are in no better situation than their comrades who relied for a living upon their army pay.

Those who are doing hard labor must work half a day for the price of a pound of meat and all day for a pound of butter.

The wives and sisters of some of these men have gone into the shops where they earn 350 marks a month as a sum which a guest at any one of the international hotels frequently pay for a single meal.

Former soldiers, and particularly the wounded whose pensions are inadequate to supply them with food, have been hardhit.

GERMANS SUFFER FROM EFFECTS OF RUSSIAN WARFARE

Every Contingent of Prisoners Insane By Suffering From Stay in Prison Camps SOLDIERS EXHIBIT MOST INTENSE BITTERNESS FOR THE RUSSIAN GOVERNMENT

Stettin, Germany, Nov. 9.—Every contingent of German war prisoners arriving here from Russia contains a number of ragged, unshaven haggard men who have been made insane by suffering many months in Russian prison camps.

In three weeks the German government sent 200 of these men to insane asylums and sanitariums for treatment. A few who have spells of violence, and during these periods must be kept under guard, but the majority present a listless, woe-begone aspect.

The families and friends of the insane soldiers are allowed to greet them and to give them food and clothes before they are sent away for treatment.

Nearly all the prisoners exhibit the most intense bitterness not only toward Russia but toward the German government as well. One of them, who had lost a leg and an arm and who, it was learned had been taken prisoner early in the war and has been confined many Russian prison camps, shook his fist at a German flag when he arrived.

He then turned to the other prisoners and pointing to his wound said: "This is what Germany has done to me" (Continued on Page 8)

DECLARES ITALIAN SPENDS MILLIONS YEARLY FOR WINE

Former Secretary of Transportation Presents Deplorable Conditions

Rome Nov. 9.—Professor Ugo Anconia formerly, Under Secretary of Transportation in the Italian cabinet, has just made a public statement that while the Italian government has spent more than $10,000,000 a year for bread for the people, the Italian workers have spent $900,000,000 a year on wine.

The government's expenditure for bread has suited from its undertaking to pay the difference between the cost of producing wheat and the price of bread. In consequence of this the Italian workers have been able to buy bread at the rate of one lira for each kilogram of 2.20 pounds.

Professor Anconia says that while the workers refuse to pay more than this they have no objection to paying 4 to 5 lire for a quart of wine, which before the war cost but 12 cents a quart. He asks whether it is just that the Italian government should continue to supply over $1,000,000,000 annually for when the people do not grudge $900,000,000 a year for the luxurp of wine.

The Professor advocates that the Italians should eat less bread and pay what it costs and that they should drink less wine and support more of it so that the profit on wine should help to pay for importation of bread.

The amount of land given over to wheat production in Italy greatly decreased last year. The disastrous result is that the imports are increasing daily.

LOCAL POLICEMEN UNDER ARREST FOR CREATING DISORDER

R. H. Shelburne, also implicated in Disorder Started On Principal Streets of City

Officers J. H. Creech and I. H. Benton were given a preliminary hearing this morning as a result of a bench warrant issued by Judge Bond, for drunkenness, disorderly conduct and attempt to assault, and were bound over to court under a three hundred dollar bond each.

The trouble began yesterday afternoon when officer Creech, who was drinking at the time went down the street driving an automobile at a high rate of speed. Last night after returning from his ride he went into the pool room in the California Fruit Store and being in such a drunken state, he began using profane language and was raising quite a good bit of noise.

He failed to find the Mayor but found Chief of Police Jones instead, who went to look for Mayor Clark, but both failed to return. Creech in the meanwhile hearing that Mr. Shelburne had gone for the Mayor went out in search of him.

Mr. Shelburne a short while later met Creech and Benton on Evans St. and Creech began cursing and using profane language. Benton at the same time informed Mr. Shelburne that he was under arrest. About this time officer Brewer appeared on the scene and Mr. Shelburne was released under a $100 bond.

Both Policemen were unable to give bond and were placed in jail. Subscribe to The Reflector.

AMERICANS ASKED TO FEED STARVING PEOPLE IN POLAND

Request For Relief Proved Outstanding Feature of End. of The Polish Soviet War. MORE THAN 1,250,000 PEOPLE MUST BE CARED FOR BY THE AMERICAN Officials. Believe They Will Be Able To Get In Working Order Sometimes Soon

LONDON, Nov. 9.—One of the aftermaths of the Polish Soviet war is that Americans will be called upon to feed and cloth more than 1,250,000 Polish children this winter through the American Relief Administration. Up to the time of the latest outbreak of hostilities, destitute had been so reduced that the Relief Administration officials believed that Poland, with the organization the Americans had perfected, would be able to carry on the work after this autumn.

This decision came after receipt in London of reports of a complete survey of the country begun immediately after the bolsheviks were driven back. Trained observer report that the Poles themselves have not painted the pictures black enough. After two armies had fought over the ground there was little left for the children, they report, and each requested immediate shipment of food and clothing.

The organization by which about $19,000,000 worth of food and clothing was distributed in Poland in 16 months at a cost of approximately $80,000, is virtually intact. It includes between 15,000 and 18,000 Poles whose services are paid for by Poland but who worked under the direction of a few American administrative officers.

Although the distributing organization was considerably disarranged during the recent fighting, officials here say they can get into working order again very quickly after railroad repairs have been completed.

The Hague, Nov. 8.—The often repeated and often denied statement that the former German Emperor William came to Holland with the pre-arranged consent of the Dutch Queen Wilhelmina is now made by one of the German officers, Lieutenant Count Detlef Moltke, who said he himself accompanied the Emperor from Spa to Armerongen.

Moltke's articles in the Journal of the National Bund of German soldiers reprinted in the Dutch press says that the Dutch Consul in Brussels, warned his government on the night of Nov. 10 1918, of William's plan and the Emperor, by telegraph asked permission of the Queen to enter her country.

On arrival in Holland William was informed that the Queen had put Bentincks castle at his disposal, asserts Moltke.

Reductions In Sale of Cigars Now Effective

Introduction of Budget Brings Marked Charge in Champagne Sales

London, Nov. 9.—Since Chancellor Austen Chamberlain introduced his last budget there has been a marked reduction in the retail sale of champagne and cigars in England.

Cigar merchants say that during the recent months clearances from bond and importations from Cuba have practically been suspended. The public, it is stated, refuse to buy at the high prices necessitated by the heavy duty and the inflated cost of the tobacco.

In 1914 a really good Havana cigar could be bought at 40 shillings to 50 shillings a hundred but today the cost is more than five pounds a hundred.

Wine merchants are a little surprised at the decline in the sale of champagne, as prices have not been substantially increased. In many cases growers have shouldered a part of the duty imposed by the budget in the hope of maintaining the English demand.

MONDAY, NOV. 8, 1920

No consumer is going to cry over the prospect of the price of coal coming down.

The election is almost a week past now. Time to forget it and push along your work.

When Thanksgiving Day gets by the whirl will be on for Christmas just a month later.

Automobile accidents are going to continue until people get some sense about driving their cars.

Germany is expressing much pleasure over the result of the recent election in America. What else could be expected from that quarter?

Four billion dollars a year the tax budget on which to run this year's budget on which to run the government is a bigger pile of money than the small mind can comprehend.

The man who thinks the world could not run without him gets his conceit pulled down a few pegs when he sees how rapidly somebody else fills his place.

Of course it is good to see the price on clothing, shoes, hats, dresses, blankets, and furniture coming lower, but what a longing there is to see the prices of cats taking the same slant.

As Senator Harding has been elected president prognostications as to his cabinet might as well be left off and leave him to make his own selections.

As there will be at least five or more candidates for every place to be filled by the Republican administration, a horde of pie hunters had just as well be practicing on how it feels to get disappointed.

Somebody who gets up statistics gives out that 1,000,000 marriages took place in this country last year, while only 70,000 dwelling houses were built. At this rate it looks like a poor chance of sheltering the families that will grow out of those marriages. A house ought to be built for every wedding that takes place.

"Cyclone Mack" the evangelist comes to the services today with renewed vigor after taking a rest yesterday. Go out to hear him tonight. If you fail to get a blessing out of this campaign it will be because of your indifference to the truth. If "Mack" gets on your sins and induces you to forsake them, so much the better for you.

—LETS OBSERVE THE DAY.

Thursday, 11th will be Armistice Day, the second anniversary of the ending of the world war two years ago. The day has been proclaimed a legal holiday in North Carolina, and in nearly every town where there is a post of the American Legion preparation have been made for appropriate celebration on the day. So far we have heard of no steps being taken by the Pitt county post for such observance. Surely the boys of Pitt county are no less patriotic than those of other counties who participated in the great conflict overseas, and they should in some way celebrate the day which memorializes this victory in the conquests. The day should at least be observed by a suspension of business and bringing together both soldiers and civilians in honor of the occasion. It is not yet too late for some thing to be done to this end, we believe the business people stand ready to cooperate in observing the day.

INSISTS ON VERSAILLES TERMS

It is reported from both Paris and Warsaw that Poland will not sign the treaty with Danzig as it is now written even though the text has been approved by the Council of the League of Nation. The poles have come to this conclusion because the proposed Polish-Danzig agreement is a direct violation of the rights guaranteed Poland by the Treaty of Versailles.

Poland demands that Danzig remain a Free City. The sponsors of the proposed treaty would make of Danzig a Free State. The indifference between these plans is far more real than is apparent from titles. As a Free City Danzig would still be included in the Polish customs frontier, Poland would conduct the city's foreign affairs, and the inhabitants of the city would be under the diplomatic protection of Poland when abroad. As a Free State, Danzig would be in an entirely different situation.

Poland insists also upon the free use of the waterways and docks within the city Free City and the control of the telephonic, telegraphic and railroad communication between Poland and Danzig. The Versailles Treaty specifically guarantees all these rights to Poland.

The present difficulty has grown out of the effort to draw up a commercial and political treaty between Danzig and Poland. The hitch in the proceeding is due to the fact that the Danzig treaty writers have apparently ignored the rights granted Poland at Paris, and have included in the new treaty only those sections of the Peace Treaty which define the guarantee. Poland must give Danzig in the way of supplying food and other commodity necessities.

Three proposals for the Danzig Polish treaty were made. One was by the Germans in Danzig, another by the Poles and the third by Sir Reginald Tower. It was the latter which the Council accepted, assuming at that time that the Commissioner was unbiased, a fact since disproved.

Majority wins, ask the men the best medium price car today, at least 8 will say Dodge.

IMPORTANT SCHOOL NOTICE

Parents or guardians, a monthly report will be given each boy and girl of the High School Wednesday afternoon kindly examine the report carefully and note the following:

If a pupil receives a 5 on any subject, it should be made a matter of immediate inquiry. Possibly it is to be attributed to lack of study, too many outside engagements, to irregularities in attendance or to some cause which may be removed.

Special attention is called to the serious consequences of irregular attendance. It is important to remember that the loss of even a portion of a school session often proves to be a serious interruption to progress and tend to produce a lack of interest in the school work. Excuses showing good cause for the absence of tardiness should always be sent promptly to the school on return of the person to school. Neglect of this may cause the person to be sent home after the excuse.

We suggest that you talk over this report with your child each time it is received, and if it has any peculiar needs which are indicated to you by the marks on the card, that you confer with the teacher, principal or superintendent regarding it.

If the parents could show their interest in the child and school by occasional visits to the school, it would prove a great source of inspiration and help to both the pupil and teacher.

Your hearty co-operation is solicited in the endeavor to secure the best development of your child.

SIX FIREMEN RESIGN WHEN TRUCK DRIVER IS DISCHARGED

At a business meeting of the Hope Fire company last evening arriving to a dissatisfaction which was caused by an action of the board of Aldermen in discharging Mr. Jimmie Summerlin, the driver of the fire truck and employing Mr. W. J. Turnage in his place, several of best firemen in the Company tendered their resignation to become effective at once. Those resigning were messars. C. E. Rountree, D. C. Beach, Guy Caton, George Cherry, James White, and L. E. Evans.

This is indeed a loss to the firemen force, as some of these men have been members for fourteen or fifteen years and have served the town without any compensation.

Pres. Wilson Urges Support Of Red Cross

Asks His Fellow Countrymen to Join Organization in Fourth Annual Roll Call

DESERVES APPROVAL OF AMERICAN PEOPLE WHO APPRECIATE ITS WORK Organization. is Still Governmental Agency to Relieve Suffering Humanity

Washington, Nov. 8.—President Wilson today urged his "fellow countrymen" to join the Red Cross "in impressive numbers during the fourth annual roll call to be held during the fortnight beginning Armistic Day. "The American Red Cross," said the President, "deserves a hearty response to its fourth invitation to annual membership, which will be issued during the fortnight beginning November 11th, Armistic Day.

"Under the stimulus of war and thru the cooperation of our people, this organization grew into immense size, enlarged its range of activity, served not only our fighting forces but also civilians involved in the hardships of war in our own nation and in the nations associated with us in a great common enterprise, and gave to the world an example of effective mercy through co-operation and individual effort.

"Since the cessation of hostilities the organization has faced a dual duty: First, to fulfill obligations created by the war, and secondly to adapt its experience and machinery to the needs of peace.

"It is today, still governmental agencies in the care of cheer of our disabled soldiers and sailors, and in counselling and aiding the families of former combatants; and it is still assisting, with diminished resources, the process of rehabilitation in some of the more prostrated countries of our former associate.

"While continuing these manifold obligations, the Red Cross has been accommodating methods and applying lessons learned in war to the normal need of our own people in time of peace, especially in regions where provisions for public health and welfare were imperfectly developed. It has placed public health nurses in many localities, and has endeavored to enlist greater numbers of young women in the nursing profession in order that the supply might more nearly equal the steadily increasing demand for community nurses. It has devised a scheme of "public health centers" for the relief of maladies and for instruction in hygiene, dietetics, and general principles of disease-prevention. With its nurses and nurses' aides its has rendered incalculable service in the serious epidemics of influenza.

Memorial Will Be Erected In Honor Pilgrim

Boston People Plan Erection of Tablet to Five Mayflower Passengers

Boston, Nov. 8.—The erection at Provincetown and Boston of memorials to the five Mayflower passengers who died at these places will be the contribution of the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants to the celebration of the tercentenary of the Pilgrims' landing. A tablet will be set in a boulder at Provincetown and another will be placed on the building in Spring Lane, Boston, now occupying the site of the home of Mary (Chilton) Winslow, who is said to have been the first girl passenger to land at Plymouth.

Four passengers died during the December days of 1620 while the Mayflower lay at anchor in Cape Cod Harbor, now Provincetown. Two days before the little ship set sail for the permanent settlement at Plymouth, James Chilton, who has been one of the signers of the famous Mayflower Compact in Cape Code Harbor, died. A day before the little band had lost Mrs. Dorothy Bradford, first wife of Governor William Bradford, by accidental drowning, and the death occurred also of Edward Thompson, a servant and Jasper Mofe, a child.

Mary Chilton, who was the daughter of James Chilton, sailed on for Plymouth with her mother, and struggled through the trying times of the colony's early days. She later married John Winslow and before 1690 they removed to Boston, where she died in 1679, having survived her husband by five years. She was the only Mayflower passenger

1. Hog cholera first made its appearance in the United States in 1833.
2. It first appeared in Ohio and since that time it has spread into every state of the union.

3. The average annual loss due to hog cholera in the U. S. for the last forty years has been thirty million dollars. This amounts to one billion two hundred million in the whole period of forty years.

4. Cholera is transmitted from one hog to another by a germ found in the blood and secretions of the hogs. These germs are so small until they cannot be seen with the most highly powered microscope.

5. Instantly surroundings or lack of feed will tend to lower the vitality of the hog and make him more susceptible to cholera, but such conditions cannot cause cholera.

6. During 1913-14 one-tenth of all the hogs in the U. S. died of hog cholera.

7. Up to the present time there is no drug, nor combination of drugs known that can be regarded as a preventative or cure for hog cholera.

8. Many so called cures have been tested by Federal and State Institutions, and one and all have been found worthless.

9. Farmers are therefore warned against investing their money or placing their faith in hog cholera medicines.

10. Only our thing known may be regarded as a reliable preventative (not a cure). That is Anti-Hog-Cholera Serum. Hogs may be immuned against cholera by vaccinating with this.

The most of the above was taken from Farmers Bulletin No. 834, which may be had free of charge by applying to county agent, W. B. Pace.

During the month of October 534 hogs were vaccinated in Pitt county, for twenty seven different Pitt county farmers.

Announce Program Teacher Assembly

City (N. Y.) public school. Mr. Franzen made a special investigation of the classification of school children, based on an unusually thorough series of psychological and educational tests. The entire school was re-classified, a system of cross-grading instituted, and the improvement after two years was quite remarkable—both in school standard and in individual attainment. A full report of this investigation will form this doctor's thesis, soon to be published, while a preliminary account will appear in the November number of the Teachers' College-Record. He has a particularly rich background for this work in his undergraduate work at Harvard, where he specialized in abnormal psychology and was graduated "cum laude." His main interests after graduation were along these lines. While studying for his master's degree at Columbia his interests were diverted to educational psychology. At the Columbia summer school last summer he addressed several classes on his work in classification, and the interest was so great that several afternoon overflow meetings were held. The attention of a group of North-Carolinians was aroused and through them Mr. Franzen was invited to North Carolina to work with the city Superintendents and high school workers at the Asheville meeting.

Mr. Franzen has refused a university position at a large salary to carry on this investigation on a larger scale, and is now Director of Research in the Des Moines public schools.

Other experts in their several lines will speak before the primary teachers, grammar grade teachers, county superintendents, music teachers, college teachers, and home economics workers, all of whom have departments in the Assembly. These departmental meetings will be held on Thursday afternoon and Friday morning, November 25 and 26.

Asheville is preparing to entertain the Assembly magnificently. A free organ recital will be given at Grove Park Inn. The Chamber of Commerce and other organizations will furnish a free trip over the famous Bltmore estate. Arrangements are being made so that teachers may visit places of interest with a minimum amount of time and at small cost. The hotels are ready to make reservations for all that desire them.

The railroads have granted a special rate of one and one-third fare for the round trip and have agreed to provide special cars so that there may be no traffic congestion. Every effort is being made to provide a comfortable trip for all who go.

The attendance is expected to break all records. The membership of the Assembly is made up of members of local units in the towns and cities, and in the county teachers' associations. Each of these local units will elect delegates to represent them in the business meetings. While only delegates may vote in the business meetings are open to all educational workers, and teachers are expected to attend in large numbers.

A party of Americans walking down Unter den Linden one night saw a former soldier stagger and fall to the pavement, unconscious. City physicians who examined him said he had fainted from hunger. Later it was learned that too proud to ask alms, he had gone for days without food.

me. This is what a kindly fatherland has permitted. Why didn't they exchange me? Because I have only one leg and one arm? I lost them fighting for Germany and all the thanks I've had for it were rotten years in Russian prison.

The prisoners generally agreed they had been unable to procure proper medical treatment in the Russian camps, and that their food had been very bad.

At the close of the war there were 280,000 war and civil prisoners in Russia, and 255,000 Russians in Germany. The German government estimates that not more than 5,000 Germans will remain in Russian camps this winter.

Before the Russo-Polish hostilities began the Russians were being returned rapidly but it is now estimated at least 200,000 Russians are still in Germany camps, 60,000 of whom are the troops interned when they crossed the East Prussian frontier during the Polish offensive.

The German government has expended 30,000,000 marks for transportation of Russians home, and 90,000,000 mark to bring German prisoners out of Russia.

PRACTICA WORK FOR HUMANITY.

In an abstract sort of way nearly every one knows that Red Cross performed a very necessary kind of work during the world war, and that since its inception, thirty-nine years ago, the society has been functioning in a highly efficient manner for the betterment of humanity. This surface acquaintance, for it is scarcely more than that to the major portion of its supporters, has shown itself to be enough to build a philanthropic institution greater than has been, with the added certainty that its power for good will expand with the coming of each day.
