

HIGH PRICES HOLD COMPLETE SWAY IN CUBAN TERRITORY

Cost of Living Said to Be About Double That in Largest American Cities Today UNPRECEDENTED PORT CONGESTION GIVEN AS CAUSE FOR INFLATION Conditions in Havana Are of Concern to Wealthy People Who Find Things Easy

Havana, Nov. 12.—American women, disturbed by the mounting cost of living, ought to come to Cuba. The trip would make them satisfied with conditions at home.

Broadly speaking, prices in Havana are just about double the high mark in top notch American cities. One cause, according to dealers, is the unprecedented port congestion, apparently with little hope of early clearing and which was resulted in the ruin of hundreds of tons of necessary products.

Whatever the cause, the island is going through a period of high cost described by papers here as more burdensome than that found elsewhere on the face of the earth. Even here where it is produced in sufficient bulk to supply millions elsewhere, sugar retails on the Havana market around 24 cents a pound. Grape fruit, going to waste a few miles from town, sells at New York quotations.

Financial depression, the demand for ready and available cash, and the moratorium, under which banks limit withdrawals to ten per cent, have failed to start price reductions in the hope of unloading luxuries to meet weekly pay rolls. Until the moratorium ends December 1, hotels will not permit patrons to sign bar and cafe checks, a time honored custom here. Cash is needed and a man pays when he eats.

Conditions in Havana are of little concern to the wealthy element from the states that will be coming here soon by the thousands for the winter and racing season. But for folk of ordinary means, with two weeks for recreation, a big bank roll is needed. About the lowest hotel rate is $7.00 a day for room and bath. And this is not at the best places for there rates are much higher, and along toward the middle of November the $7 rooms will fetch $15.

Americans living in Havana pour out a tale of woe to friends from the States. The women seem to be hit the hardest. Price tags in stores selling men's wear show that a good pair of men's low shoes costs as high as $28. The rainy season is not ended, and $8 for cotton umbrella is a "bargain." Flannel trousers are there for $25 and silk shirts for $30. A lot of odds and ends that a man needs cost more than twice the mark at home. The correspondent saw a panama hat valued at $450 and the dealer declared that sugar men pay it without blinking.

Cigarettes selling for twenty cents a package at home cost 60 here, and for a $2 box of American candy they ask $7. Two cent American papers three days old, cost 12 cents. You may get a reasonably fair suit of clothes out of stock for $100. In most cases women's shirt waists, it was explained, cost three times the home figure. The only exception in the upward trend is the straw hat, the cost of which is about on the American scale.

The only paper money in circulation here is American. The bills are so worn and utterly filthy that a man parts with them rather gladly.

CLAIMS EXPLOSION WAS DUE TO GRAFT OF BUILDING TRADE

New York Evening World Traces Wall Street Tragedy to Graft

LABORING FACTIONS

New York, Nov. 12.—Responsibility for the disastrous Wall Street explosion last September, the who of which was heard around the world in denunciations of "Reds" and anarchists today was charged to individual laboring men or labor sympathizers by the New York Evening World. The paper however admitted it could not explain the presence of threats signed "Anarchist fiends" found in a mail bag near the scene of the explosion.

In a three page story, the paper announced that the mystery of the blast that killed nearly 40 persons and injured 150 more had been solved. The theory advanced was that the death wagon in which the bomb had exploded had not been sent into the financial district to terrorize the capitalist class, but that it had been intended as a reprisal against Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trade council and 85 Brindell workers "employed in demolishing the Stock Exchange building annex. Held up on the way, the bomb was believed by the paper to have exploded before it reached its destined destination.

Seeking to link the explosion with the "building trust" graft now being investigated by a joint legislative committee the paper naming a house wreckers union said:

"The Evening World here presents proof that 1,800 men, nearly all for eign born, sober, industrious, efficient and well disciplined, have within a space of eighteen months been subjected to an amazing conspiracy of greed and injustice and the explosion was the culmination of this tyranny. The building trades graft was responsible for the crime. The Evening World does not charge the union, as a union with responsibility. It was the work of individuals, possibly inside the union possibly the work of sympathizers.

Further proofs are presented that the wrath and resentment of these working men and their fellows who knew of their tragic losing fight to avert vagrancy and starvation in day of overflowing labor opportunity was no toly on their arch oppressor, Robert Brindell dictator of the Building Trades Council, but upon house wrecked contractors.

IRISH PARLIAMENT TO BE SET UP FOR EASTERN SECTIONS

Institution at Belfast to Begin Action Immediately After Home Rule Bill Passes AGITATION IN EVIDENCE FOR AMENDMENT OF FEW SECTIONS OF HOME BILL Belfast Citizens Desire $1,000,000 Expended in New Home For Nation Parliament

Dublin, Nov. 12.—The Irish parliament at Belfast for the six northeast countries is expected to be set up immediately, once the Home Rule Bill is passed by the Imperial government. It was pointed out that this would serve as an example for all the rest of Ireland and have a "leading effect" by showing the Sinn Feiners that Dublin and the other 20 counties could have the same machinery of self-government as Belfast will have for its six counties.

There is some agitation for amendments to the financial terms of the Home Rule Bill. Ulstermen are opposed to handing over to any Irish body the control of customs and exercise. They do not want this privilege for themselves and are determined that it shall not be made available for the rest of Ireland, fearing that it might be used to the detriment of industry in the northern section of the country.

Belfast men want more than the $1,000,000 to be granted for setting up its proposed new parliament. They also say that the sum of $18,000,000 which Ireland is to contribute annually to the support of the Empire is to be reduced by about 3,000,000 a year by the annuities now payable to the Imperial treasury by Irish far

DECLARES FATE OF LEAGUE IS PLACED UPON THE PEOPLES

Italian Minister Says True Sense of Justice of World Must Be Deciding Factor GREAT SCEPTICISM NOW HOLDING SUPREMACY IN NUMBER OF TERRITORIES Italian Ministers Abroad Have Been Informed That It Is Their Duty To Support Issue

London, Nov. 12.—The fate of the League of Nations depends upon the moral cooperation of those peoples who, inspired by a true sense of justice, are conscious of the necessity for solidarity in international relations. Count Sforza, Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, has written in a circular letter to Italian diplomatic agents abroad.

In his instructions to Italian diplomatic agents, Count Sforza expressed his faith in the League, speaking of the organization of its imperfection by the states which contributed to its formation and of the necessity for the admission of states not yet members in order that the league's authority can be assured and its structure perfected.

As a result of bitter criticism and loud abuse of the league, there has been considerable scepticism of the new organization, wrote Count Sforza, therefore making the diffusion of exact knowledge of what the League of Nations really is the more valuable for restraining different and sceptical conceptions as well as superficial and irresponsible opinions. He continued:

It is necessary to instill the firm conviction that the new institution, which has been invoked for centuries by the Italian philosophical and legal

ASSERTS EASTERN REPUBLICS ARE TO BE INDEPENDENTS

Government of Far Eastern Republic Grants Concessions to Important Regions

Peking, Nov. 12.—A declaration issued by the government of the Far Eastern Republic asserts that the entire territory of Siberia from Lake Baikal to the Pacific including the Amur, Maritime, Saghalien and Kamtchatka provinces and "the territory along the Chinese Eastern railway" to be an independent united country, wherein no concessions will be given to any foreign power.

Somewhat at variance with the above, however, an article of the declaration says: "A people's constituent assembly to work out the principles of the state construction and constitution of the Far Eastern Republic will be convoked as soon as the rest of the Atman's (Semenoff's) power has been put aside and all of the far eastern provinces are united."

The declaration recites that "the institution of private ownership will be preserved and the government of the people and its representatives, in order to protect the interests of the workmen, will make the necessary corrections, based on the experience of all progressive countries." It also states that "having in view the development of the great wealth of the country, the government will call upon private capitalists, Russians as well as foreigners, to take part in it so far as is not contrary to the interests of the country."

This weather is driving people to the coal and wood dealers.

LEAGUED NATIONS PLAN FIRST MEET NOVEMBER 15TH

Assembly of League of Nations to Be In First Session Into City of Geneva, Italy

Geneva, Nov. 12.—The Assembly of the League of Nations which will hold its first session in Geneva, Switzerland, next, November 15, is the popular or representative branch of the double body designed to guide the affairs of that organization as created under the Treaty of Versailles.

While the representative character of the gathering will be impaired by the absence of the United States, Germany, Austria and Russia, yet with these exceptions it will come near to representing the greater part of the civilized world. The session has additional interest as marking the complete organization of the League as provided by the Versailles Peace Treaty.

Forty-two nations, ranging in importance from the British Empire to the Republic of Haiti, are expected to send delegates. Of the 45 states mentioned in the Covenant, only three will be unrepresented—the United States, Honduras and Ecuador. Fifteen more nations have applied for admission, and the question of granting them access to the session as new members will be one of the first items of business to be considered. Among these applicants are Austria and Bulgaria of the former enemy states and a number of small nations just emerged into statehood.

The question of admitting Germany to membership will also come under discussion as it is likely to be raised by several of the former European neutrals, and it seems likely that the admission of Mexico may also come before the session. All the states seeking membership will be required to submit to such regulation of their military, naval and aerial armaments as the League may deem necessary, and the League's Permanent Advisory Commission on Military, Naval and Air Questions has been at work since August collecting the data which will be needed by the Assembly for proper action on this matter.

The acting president of the Assembly, M. Hymans of Belgium, will open the first meeting, as the Assembly has not yet had a chance to elect a president of its own.

EVANGELIST TELLS INTERESTING FACT ABOUT CONVERSION

Cyclone McLendon Delivers Thrilling Message Dealing With His Past Life of Sin SPEAKS OF EARLY LIFE WHEN SIN PREDOMINATED AND HE DEFTED RELIGION Declares He Is Going to Stay in Greenville Until Community Is Really Revived

Greenville last night witnessed the greatest religious demonstration the town has ever known. Baxter McLendon the evangelist, in his own way gave the story of his life and conversion. It was a wonderful message, thrilling and holding the closest attention of the thousands who crowded into the big tent to hear him. Whatever opinion any may have had before none could doubt his sincerity and genuineness of his conversion, after hearing his story of how God changed him from a life that had degenerated to the depths of infamy to a blessed washed soul and in place of the blasphemous oaths his lips formerly uttered, put into his mouth the gospel message of a living Christ and sent him forth to show sinners the way of salvation. His interesting story was free of egotism and he gave God the praise for the marvelous work of Grace that had been wrought in his life.

Briefly, Baxter McLendon, when a simple country boy fourteen years of age, had a close call from God to give his heart to him and become a preacher of His Word. The call was rejected and in the effort to throw it off he went on to live a life of sin, going from bad to worse until he fell about as low in the scale of decency as a man could reach. In all the subsequent of sin God continued to follow him, of sin snatching him almost from the very jaws of death and with every deliverance reminding him that he was called to preach. Finally he came to the point of complete surrender throwing himself upon God's mercy, and instantly was transformed from a servant of the devil to a child of Christ. From that day he has been proclaiming the Gospel, showing people the awfulness of sin and leading thousands to accept Christ and live for Him. Only eternity can reveal the wonderful good he is doing.

Baxter McLendon is a regenerated man, or as he puts it he has been born again, and he preaches a religion that lifts men to a purer life and saves them from endless death. Just before beginning his sermon last night he called Mrs. McLendon (Rena, as he tenderly spoke of her) to the platform and introduced her as the woman into whose heart his changed life brought indescribable happiness. And her countenance portrayed it. Mrs. McLendon had come up from their home in Bennettsville S. C. to spend a few days with him here.

At the conclusion of this great message "Cyclone Mack" said he would be glad if every one present saint or sinner, who felt he or she had been helped by it and would promise with God's help to lead a better life, would come forward and shake his hand. It seemed that the throng in the tent were moved almost as one man, as the choir of hundreds of voices gave sing after song of praise, men women for half an hour surged forward to grasp the evangelist by the hand.

"Mack" says he is going to stay in Greenville until the community experiences a real revival, if it takes him until Christmas. People from all the surrounding country and neighboring towns are coming in to hear him. We will publish Mack's Sermon in his own words tomorrow.

A Revelation in Baking

She never had made biscuits. Baking was such a nuisance and she never could tell how things would turn out. If she didn't put in just the right amount of baking powder and just enough salt and soda her biscuits might be flat and tasteless or so soggy they'd give you the "colly-wobbles".

And her husband was so fussy about hot breads and biscuits she decided they'd have to do without them.

But one day she bought a sack of Ballard Self-Rising Flour, ready prepared—with the salt, soda and baking powder in the right proportions—and she baked a batch of biscuits so light and fluffy, so rich and tasty, that friend husband then and there elected her the finest cook in seven states.

Ballard Self-Rising Flour will work the same wonders for you. It is the very best self-rising flour you can buy. Use it and you will never buy another roll or biscuit from the bakery.

It is made of the finest winter wheat, four times rolled and sifted through silk to insure purity and cleanliness. It comes to you ready to use, saving time and trouble. And it cuts the cost of baking!

Jews Emigrating Toward Palestine In Great Numbers

Central and Eastern Europe Trying Hard to Conform With Regular Regulations.

Vienna, Nov. 11.—Emigration of Jews to Palestine is increasing rapidly in Central and Eastern Europe, and the new Palestine immigration regulations would allow of a controlled immigration of 17,000 Zionist organization interview.

Mr. Landmann who is now in Vienna on a special mission in connection with Jewish emigrants to Palestine, said the selection of emigrants is being made by the Zionist Organization which has established Palestine offices in the important Jewish centers. Preference is given to young people, strong in body and determined in spirit, who have had actual experience in agriculture or other manual work and know Hebrew.

Several thousands of such pioneers known by the Hebrew name of Cholim have already left and others are waiting in the large centers until proper arrangements for their transport can be made and until new openings for employment in Palestine are reported.

One of the features of the pioneer movement is that it includes a fair proportion of girls well to do families who have decided to devote their lives to the new Palestine. They act as land girls and take care of the domestic arrangements in the Jewish colonies.

FRIDAY EVENING NOVEMBER 12

THE FOURTH ROLL CALL

In an eloquent poster issued by the American Red Cross society for its use in its fourth "Roll Call" the central figure is that of a woman with face
so softly sweet and gentle and compassionate that it suggests both a blessing and a benediction.

Her arms tenderly enfold and snuggle a little cripple and clinging to her garments are the withered hands of an age-weary man and those of a careworn woman, the faces of both lowly figures upturned and bearing expressions of appeal and gratitude.

The picture tells a long story—a story of service, of helpfulness, of succor extended to suffering humanity; of physical nourishment and mental refreshment for the distressed; a story that all can read—yet it is a story that can be condensed into a dozen words:
The Red Cross is "still the greatest mother in the world."

A year ago when the Red Cross entered upon its third "Roll Call" for funds it placed its peace plan in detail before the public—it laid its cards face up on the board, that all might see what was proposed to be done.

Today, Red Cross presents its appeal backed by the record of accomplishment that should fill the heart of every man and woman in the land with confidence, gladness and inspiration.

In both its health service and its nursing service Red Cross has attained results that stand without parallel in the physical and economic development of the nation.

And yet Red Cross has only begun upon greater work that needs to be done for the elevation of the physical status of the American masses.

For instance, three-quarters of a million human beings die annually in the United States from diseases that are preventable; and Red Cross is grappling with that situation with the objective of remedying it.

Through education the society tries to keep people well rather than to cure
the sick; and already health service stations are engaged in active work in more than 15,000 communities throughout the country.

Its nursing service works in with every line of Red Cross endeavor, and practically 4,000 trained nurses—of whom 1,000 are stationed in as many communities—are engaged in this particular activity.

The work that Red Cross has done
and is doing in these two lines of service alone makes impressive appeal to men and women everywhere, whose personal creed is to do for the betterment of humanity.

With a peace period record of achievement that is incomparable in its bigness in its broadness, in its efficiency and in the extent of its ramification—achievement in the form of ministrations to humanity's ills,
whether these ills arise from disease,
disaster or dire need—the American Red Cross society comes to every man, woman and child in America, not as a mendicant, not as a seeker for dollars to enable it to fatten upon your largness, but solely as every citizen's personal agent of mercy and good will toward mankind.

It has kept faith with you; and its appeal pointedly implies the question:
Will you keep faith with it?
There can be only one answer: Will you.—Atlanta Constitution.

You make your own life brighter by throwing out a few rays to somebody else.

Resolutions are good, but living up to them are better.

TRUE AMERICANISM

Henry Van Dyke

What is the true Americanism and where does it reside? Not on the tongue nor in the clothes nor among the transient social forms, refined or rude which mottle the surface of life. True Americanism is this:

To believe that the inalienable rights
of man to life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness are given of God.

To believe that any form of power
that tramples on these rights is unjust.

To believe that taxation without representation is tyranny; that government must rest upon the consent of the governed, and that the people should choose their own rules.

To believe that freedom must be safeguarded by law and order, and that the end of freedom is fair play for all.

To believe not in forced equality of conditions and estates, but in a true equalization of burdens, privilege and opportunities.

To believe that the selfish interests of persons, classes and sections must be subordinate to the welfare of the commonwealth.

To believe that the Union is as much a necessity as liberty is a divine gift.

To believe that a free state should offer an asylum to the oppressed, and be an example of virtue, sobriety, and fair dealings to all nations.

To believe that for the existence and perpetuity of such a state a man should be willing to give his whole service in labor and in life.

Pity that the start was made to late that Greenville and Pitt county could no have a proper observance of Armistice day yesterday. While other communities were paying creditable tribute to the anniversary of the ending of the great world tragedy and honoring the memory of our boys who gave their lives to the cause of humanity, the only appreciable attention the day received here was by the schools next year let a start be made in time so that such non-observance may not be repeated to our discredit.

With big enterprises like the Roper
Lumber Company in New Bern Shutting down indefinitely throwing a thousand men out of employment, and the same thing hapening with other manufacturing enterprises in various parts of the country, it looks like the wage earners may have hard sledding
while the readjustment period is on.
Such things happening right at the beginning of winter and just before Christmas may have its effect on the holiday spirit.

Though the leaves on the trees have for many days worn the gorgeous tints that always precede shedding, they have been hanging on their stems later than usual this season but with the colder weather drawing near they will be falling like a shower.

The prediction of an approaching cold wave may be taken to mean that the delightful weather that has pre-valled for some weeks, even to this far in November, will be displaced by something akin to winter.

The devil puts every obstacle possible in the way of evangelistic work in a community, and his agents are quite active just now in Greenville.

Solicitors of the Red Cross membership campaign made a busy start yesterday.

Majority wins, ask the men the best meidum price car today, at least 8 will say Dodge.

A LUMP O' CLAY

Anonymous from "The Optimist's Good Morning", compiled by Florence Hobart Perin and published by Little, Brown and Co., Boston.

A Persian fable says, one day a wanderer from a lump of clay so redolent of sweet perfume its odor scented all the room "What art thou?" was his quick demand:

"Art thou some gem from Samarcand. Or spikenard in this rude disguise. Or other costly merchandise?"

"Nay I am a lump of clay." "Then whence this wondrous perfume, say?"

"Friend if the secret I disclose I have been dwelling with the rose. Sweet parable! And will not those who love to dwell with Sharon's Rose Distill sweet odor all around, Though low and mean themselves are found?

Dear Love, abide with us, that we may draw our perfume fresh from thee.

IRISH PARLIAMENT TO BE SET UP FOR EASTERN SECTIONS

(Continued from page one.) mers who have purchased their holdings with government advances. This sum is in the future to be divided between the two Irish parliaments.

One suggestion has been made that the Ireland's contribution to the Imperial funds shall be limited to the Irish income tax and super tax which at present amounts to $10,000,000 or 11,000,000 a year.

Outside of Ulster, however, none of these points is being discussed at all. Complete separation and an independent republic is the Sinn Fein policy, while even the moderates demand a government for all Ireland or dominion lines as completely free in finance as Canada. The government's bill does nothing to meet this view and its creation of two separate parliaments in politicians in the south and west.

MR. MAYO. DIES. SUDDENLY. IN STORE

Mr. L.A. Mayo, one of Pitt county's most prominent and successful farmer and merchant was found dead yesterday at noon, in his store about three miles from Greenville.

Mr. Mayo had been having chills for the past few days, and yesterday was his chill day. He felt better about ten o'clock and told some one in the store that he believed he was going to miss the chill.

When the mail man passed he went in the store and made a search and found Mr. Mayo behind the stove with the chair in which he was sitting turned over him and a letter which he was reading in his hand.

He had just died as his body was still warm.

This is a great shock to his many friends throughout the county.

Besides being a merchant and a farmer he was also Justice of the Peace. He is survived by five children, his wife having died two years ago.

The interment will take place this afternoon at the family burying ground. The sympathy of the entire community goes to the grief stricken family.

LAND COMPANIES CONDUCT

TWO SUCCESSFUL SALES

The Atlantic Coast Realty Co. and the Greenville Pitt Land Co., conducted two successful sales yesterday and both purchasers and land owners were highly pleased. The sales were conducted for Warren Bros., and the J. D. Evans farm and Washington Mills farm, both divided into two parts were sold. These farms are some of the most productive in this section and the Land Companies pushed the sales to the best advantage for all parties concerned. Mr. K. W. Cobb, of the Greenville Pitt Land Co. conducted the advertising campaign for the sale, and the splendid sale was due in part, for the efforts which he put forth.

These companies are going to put on another sale on the 24th of Nov. when they will sell a farm near Grimesland and also sell a large lot of new farm machinery. This sale promises to be as successful and pleasing as the two sales of yesterday. These companies are always interested in their sales, and always get the highest dollar.

DECLARES FATE OF LEAGUE

PLACED UPON THE PEOPLES

(Continued from page one.) doctrine, represents a higher degree of the evolution of law based on a higher unity than that of the state. The creation of a League of Nations aims at securing the integrity of its members and maintaining international peace. It does not therefore exclude the hypothesis of war; it excludes it as the supreme right of the strongest, as the supreme appeal of violence as an event abandoned to the caprices and vicissitudes of fortune; it admits it, on the contrary, as an affirmation of the moral power of right for re-integrating the community of states broken by the disturbances of international peace, and thus its function comes to correspond to the penal function of each state within its own borders.

Italian diplomatic agents abroad are informed that it is the duty of Italy to promote knowledge of the league. They are requested to report all manifestations regarding the league to the special department for the League of Nations in the Italian foreign office.

A BELATED GIFT FOR COX-ROOSEVELT FUND

Robert L. Humber, Rhodes Scholar, Sends Subscription to State Chairman

A belated subscription to the Cox-Roosevelt fund was received by Chairman J. M. Broughton from Oxford University England. It was sent by Robert L. Humber a Rhodes scholar from North Carolina. From the tone of Mr. Humber's letter he was one of those deeply disappointed by the outcome of the election in this country. In view of Mr. Humber, England accepted at one hundred per cent value the challenge of Woodrow Wilson that the campaign should be a solemn referendum of the League of Nations.

Mr. Humber wrote that the United States need not seek world leadership for it was thrust upon this country.

"The bankrupt condition of the European exchequer, the economic debilitation of the people and the absence of even the necessaries of life's" he wrote "create circumstances from which they must look to some nation in which they have confidence and the United States is that Nation."

City of Warsaw

Mourns Death of Poland's Heroine

Funeral of Sergeant Sophie Poukweiz — Draws Hundreds of Interested People

Warsaw, Nov. 11.—All Warsaw turned for the funeral the other day of Sergeant Sophie Poukweiz, a member of Poland's Women Battalion, who was called here "the heroine of Plock". She died from wounds inflicted with a Russian sword and the "Nahaja" or Cossack's whip which she received at Plock during the drive against Warsaw. As a final tribute the American nurses who attended her in the hospital and the entire personnel of the American Red Cross in Warsaw went to her funeral.

All Warsaw knew her story and there were many moist eyes that gazed at the plain white painted pine board coffin containing the girl-soldier as it was borne through the streets on the shoulders of her fighting comrades, all girls from the Women's Battalion.

Sergeant Sophie was a veteran of Poland's great war, which in the mind of most Poles began when the world war ended in November, 1918. She was 22 years of age and was one of the original members of the Women's Battalion which was formed late in 1918 for the purpose of defending Lemberg against the Ukrainians. She was wounded three times, first at Lemberg again at Vilna and last while leading her company against the Russians at Plock.

She typified the spirit of Poland today. There are 600 like her in the Women's Battalion. Officers in the army from Pilsudski down admit that the mere existence of this battalion exercised a wonderful effect upon the popular imagination, upon recruiting and even upon the soldiers in the recent heavy fighting.

The age limits for privates in the battalion are 17 and 33. Most of the women who have joined are of humble origin, and come from semi-stagnant industrial centers such as Lodz. The economic problem has had something to do with their continued existence as soldiers but they have shown great enthusiasm and bravery. They have had many casualties.
