

McLendon Concludes Campaign Here With Fine Sermon To Men

Evangelist Completes Great Work With Plea for the Higher Life to His Own Sex CAMPAIGN HAS RESULTED IN SALVATION OF MANY SOULS AND BIG REVIVAL For Four Weeks City Has Experienced Greatest Religious Revival in Its History

"Cyclone Mack's" extra day here was an eventful one in bringing his campaign in Greenville to a close. Upon urgent request, after having announced that his meeting would close Sunday he remained over Monday to preach his special sermon to women in the afternoon and his special sermon to men at night. And no better service than these were held during all his campaign. A great crowd of women were present in the afternoon. He gave them one of his best sermons, and the service closed with almost a Pentecostal scene.

The final service at night was a marvel. Greenville has not witnessed a larger gathering of men than came together under the big tent, and every man came with expectant interest. "Mack" showed fatigue as he stood before them, but he had not gone far in his great sermon before his vigor returned and he talked like his very soul was on fire with the seriousness of this last message here, for he said he felt like he was preaching the funeral sermon of some who sat before him. His text was "Be sure your sins will find you out, for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap". It seemed that he left untouched no sin of which men are guilty, and he pictured the awful effects of these sins that are handed down to their children. Sin is hereditary, he declared, for blood will tell, and he gave statistics to prove that a large percent of degenerate fathers are followed by degenerate children.

God did not make two standards of morality, Mack said, and the commandments which say "thou shalt not" apply to men as much as to women. A man has no more moral right to go out in the ways of sin than his wife has, yet society receives a sinning man with open arms while it closes its doors in the face of a sinning woman. He again declared that he had never visited a town with better or more loyal people than Greenville, and the good people here can make it the cleanest and whitest town morally on the map if they will come together and say every cess-pool of sin shall be driven out of the community. He pleaded with the unconverted in his audience to forsake sins and make this last service count for God in their lives. His closing invitation met with a large response, many who had held out against his entreaties through the four weeks of the campaign making a complete surrender and pressing forward to take his hand as a pledge from now on to live for Christ.

Mack also made a final admonition to the church members and new converts to attend Sunday school, prayer meetings and the church services, to be loyal to God and uphold their pastors. He asked that all who would promise now to do this to hold up their hands, and it looked like thousands of hands went up to bear testimony to a reconsecrated life.

Soon after the closing service Mr. McLendon left by automobile for Wilson to catch a train there to get him home early his morning to be with his mother in her last hours on earth. Though it has been expected that she would pass away any day, God has spared her until he could complete his campaign in Greenville and then get to her bedside to be a comfort to her. His coming to Greenville has been a great blessing, not only to the town but also to the surrounding country, and many souls are happy that he led them to accept Christ. We hope tomorrow to publish some statistical results of this campaign, although good

PRINCE OF WALES GREATLY ENTHUSED OVER RECENT TRIP

Arouses Desire on Part of His Brothers to Take Similar Trip Sometime Soon

London, Nov. 27.—Enthusiastic account given by the Prince of Wales in the royal family circle, of his experience during his recent Empire trip are said to have raised a keen desire on the part of his brothers Princes Albert, Henry and George, to go on similar voyages.

The prince of Wales is reported to be writing a preface to a book of photographs taken during his trip, which will be sold for the benefit of a blind soldier's hospital.

Since his return to London, the Prince has been given a series of small dinner parties to his intimate friends at St. James' Palace, which is now yet well stocked with souvenirs of his tour. He makes an excellent host and he has a fund of amusing anecdotes about his experiences abroad.

He is fond of playing racket and swimming at the fashionable Bath Club, off Piccadilly. A keen follower of the chase, he has recently bought several new hunters, and he is keeping up family traditions by accepting the chairmanship of the West Norfolk Hounds, a position which his grandfather, King Edward held for many years. He is also coming to the fore as a cattle breeder. At the recent Birmingham Show, he took three prizes with three heads of Aberdeen Angus cattle from his Dartmoor farm near Princetown.

SHERIFF DUDLEY CAPTURES STILL IN SWIFT CREEK TOWNSHIP

Sheriff Dudley accompanied by Officer Jackson, captured a still and four gallons of whiskey in Swift Creek township last night. The still was of a sixty gallon capacity and was located on the farm belonging to Mr. Noah Haddock.

That has been done can never be measured in figures.

The others of his party will be here a few days yet taking down and packing the tent and clearing up the details of the campaign.

DENIES CHARGE OF EXTRAVAGANCE IN BRITISH TREASURY

Captain Frederick Guest Declares He Cannot See Where Government Can Cut Expenses

PRESENTS EXPENSES OF EACH DEPARTMENT HEAD OF BRITISH GOVERNMENT

Declares War Has Seriously Affected Financial Standing of the Entire Country

London, Nov. 30.—A spirited defense against charges of "squandering" the popular term for official extravagance, is made by Captain Frederick Guest, joint Parliamentary secretary of the treasury.

Captain Guest says that he does not see where the government can cut down expenses. In a letter to a political correspondent published in the London Times, he examines the expenses of departments of the state thus:

The navy and army—The personnel of the fighting services has now been reduced practically to pre-war numbers. In 1914, however, the private soldier received one shilling per day. He now receives two shillings and nine pence. There has been a corresponding increase in the pay of naval men. The result is that while the fighting services cost $86,000,000 in 1914 owing to these and other consequential increases, the figure is now $260,000,000 today.

In 1914 the interest of the national debt was $24,000,000; today it is $345,000,000.

War pensions in 1914-15 were $11,000,000 today; $123,000,000.

Education in 1914-15 this cost $10,000,000. (Continued on page 212)

DARDANELLA WILL PLAY GREENVILLE NEXT THURSDAY

Popular Theatrical Production Scheduled for White's Theatre For One Night Only

"Dardanelle," the McGregor company, Inc.'s successful musical comedy production, now making a triumphant tour of the leading cities, has all the necessary essentials that make for popular favor, i. e., a tuneful score, pretty women in abundance, sensational dancing ensembles, a perfect cast and gorgeous scenic investiture. As a matter of fact "Dardanelle" has secured a 100 per cent victory in the amusement world and is acclaimed the liveliest, happy-go-lucky show in current theatricals.

This revelation in melody, frivolity and frills will be the attraction at White's theatre next Thursday, December 2, and will set a new standard in musical comedy. Seats will be placed on sale at 9 o'clock next Monday morning. Mail orders will be filled in order of the receipt. A limit of six seats to any one individual has been decided upon. The management of "Dardanelle" is doing this to discourage the persistent efforts of ticket speculators who have been following the big show.

JIM HASKINS, COLORED MAN, COMMITS SUICIDE

Jim Haskins, a colored man, living opposite the Pitt Lumber company, committed suicide today by shooting himself through the head with a shot gun. Haskins had been in ill health for the past year, and despondency over his condition was the cause of the rash act. His wife had left him for the purpose of getting some milk for his breakfast and while she was away the sick man secured a gun and with the aid of a fire poker succeeded in blowing one side of his head off. He was found sitting in a chair which had been made comfortable for him near the stove.

COUNCIL TAKES UP MANDATE MATTER FOR FINAL ACTION

Plan to Remove Mandates Commission as Far as Possible From All Other Environments

COMMISSION MEMBERS TO BE PLACED ON JOB ON PERSONAL MERITS

Members Will Not Occupy Position of Dependency Upon Any Member or Organization

Geneva, Nov. 30.—Removal of the mandates commission as far as possible from governmental influence was the task undertaken by the council of the League of Nations today. It was decided that the members of this commission shall be appointed by the council on personal merits and competency and that they shall not occupy any position involving dependency upon their government.

The mandates question occupied almost the entire session and necessarily postponed the election of a successor to Sir Reginald Tower as high commissioner at Danzig. M. Viviani represented France, instead of M. Bourgeois, who was obliged to make a trip to Paris and Signor Trittoni also was replaced as his return to Rome for a few days was imperative.

The French government will be invited to arrange for the transportation and sustenance of the league military expedition to Vilna.

Personnel of Committee The mandates commission will include one member named by the international labor organization, who will attend all the meetings in an advisory capacity. (Continued on page 8)

AMERICAN HOCKEY TEAM GETS GREAT HONOR IN ENGLAND

Women's Club Cordially Received and Newspapers Devote Columns to Its Members

London, Nov. 30.—The American Women's Hockey team has been cordially received in England and newspapers have devoted columns to its members, not because of their smartness in play but what writers term their sportswomanship and pleasing personalities. When they arrived they frankly stated they had come to learn more of the game from the experienced Britishers and they proved "good losers" in their early matches.

Much has been written about the American costumes. The English girls wear their playing skirts well above the knee and were surprised to see the Americans come onto the field in skirts far below the knee. The short skirts undoubtedly gave the Britishers an advantage in the early games. The skirts, smart sweaters and "permanent waves", the latter admitted by some of the Americans, came in for more comment from the newspapers than details of the play.

In the first games the Americans showed to disadvantage in "nursing" the ball in which the English girls are so proficient but they have tried to improve their game in that respect.

MRS. E. C. WILLIAMS JUMPS FROM BUGGY AND RECEIVES PAINFUL INJURIES

Mrs. E. C. Williams received painful injuries yesterday afternoon when she became frightened over the actions of her pony and jumped from the buggy. No bones were broken but she is suffering from some internal injury. For several hours after the accident she was unconscious, but is rational today and although in a serious condition was resting quietly at noon. Her many friends are very anxious about her and wish for her a speedy recovery.

DECLARES MEXICO MUST LEAD WAY TO WORLD WIDE SPIRIT

First Methodist Bishop in Country Says Nation Must Give Word to Great Brotherhood

Chicago, Nov. 30.—Bishop Wilbur R. Thirkield, first resident bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church in Mexico, who recently returned from that country, declares that "Mexico, first in neighborhood" to the people of the United States." The bishop traveled extensively throughout Mexico during the last few months.

"Never at any time during the past 10 years," he said, "have conditions been so stable, or the outlook for peace and progress been so hopeful. The country is wholeheartedly behind the new President, General Obregon, to be inaugurated in December and the Provisional President de la Huerta has a strong hold on all classes.

"The aspect of peace in Mexico today is in striking contrast to the bustling and disturbances evinced in my visit of two years ago. Then every trail was guarded by soldiers. During the last two months I have traveled extensively through six states of Mexico and did not find a soldier on guard on any train.

"There is no organized opposition to the present government and no man is in sight, around whom any opposition can center. Just as noticeable and gratifying is the friendly feeling toward the United States.

"This feeling prevails on both sides of the border and was manifested in a striking manner in the recent visit of President-elect Obregon at El Paso.

"The border states have changed entirely their attitude toward intervention. The governors and the press are solid for peaceful co-operation with Mexico. For the first time in 10 years a train has crossed the international bridge. Also for the first time in 10 years officers of the Mexican and United States army are exchanging courtesies across the border.

"The election held during the summer at which General Obregon was elected president was extremely quiet. I could not help noticing its contrast to the primary election held in Chicago at about the same time, at which one man was killed and many were severely injured and attacked. Had such violence taken place in Mexico there is little question but that it would have been widely heralded as an evidence of anarchy.

TWO WAKE COUNTY WIVES SHOT DOWN BY OWN HUSBANDS

Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Shadrick, Both of Wake Forest, Killed by Their Crazy Husbands

HORRIBLE CRIMES ARE TRACEABLE TO DRINKING TOO FREELY OF WHISKEY

Both Men Are Held in Wake County Jail for Preliminary Hearing, Without Bail

Raleigh, Nov. 30.—Three hours after Charles E. Davis, prominent New Light farmer shot and fatally wounded his wife at their home yesterday morning at four o'clock, Sam P. Shadrick, farmer living near Wake Forest, seven miles from the Davis home, shot and killed his own wife.

Both men are in the Wake county jail, Davis rousing slowly from a drunken stupor, and Shadrick, recent inmate of the State hospital for the insane, apparently unable to understand the crime which he has committed. Vann who attended her yesterday declared that there were no hopes for her recovery.

Each crime is traceable to whiskey; and insanity will be the plea of the defense in each case. Davis, who owns the most pretentious home in New Light township and has always been a highly respected citizen of his community, was carried to the Wake county jail yesterday morning in a drunken stupor, from which he did not begin to arouse until 6 o'clock yesterday evening and from which he had not fully recovered at a late hour last night.

Shadrick, who has lived on a farm a mile and a half north of Wake Forest for the past five or six years, was regarded as an industrious and useful citizen until early this year when he developed a streak of insanity. He was confined to the State hospital for the insane in July, where his condition was diagnosed as the result of addiction to whiskey, bromo seltzer and other drugs. He was released on October 5, apparently cured but in the opinion of Coroner J. I. Owens who yesterday committed him to jail for murder after an inquest, he was undoubtedly in a mentally irresponsible condition.

Both of the women, each of whom was between 40 and 45 years old, bore unusually high reputations for propriety and industry in their respective communities. Mrs. Davis, a woman of some culture, was before her marriage a Miss O'Neal and was the sister of W. Niles O'Neal, another prominent New Light farmer. She had spent all of her life in the community in which she died. There has been no suggestion of justification for her husband's act.

CHRISTMAS BOX

Our Xmas box from the Episcopal church school will go to the mountain children within the next two weeks. We are asked to give "a useful gift" and a "joyful gift". For instance, a useful gift would be sweaters, caps, hose, gloves, handkerchiefs, ties, etc. Knives, dolls, books, toys, and games are joyful gifts. Bring your gifts as soon as possible.

TWO WAREHOUSES FIRED SATURDAY BY INCENDIARIES

Fifteen Warehouses in Liverpool Were Fired by Incendiaries on Saturday

FIRE IS BELIEVED TO BE WORK OF SINN FEINERS BY A LARGE NUMBER

Five Arrests Have Taken Place; One Man Killed As a Result of Fire

Liverpool, Nov. 28.—Fifteen warehouses in Liverpool and Bootle, a suburb, principally cotton warehouses in Liverpool were set on fire last night. Two of the cotton warehouses in Liverpool were burned out. Gasoline cans and paraffin were found about the premises. It was stated in police quarters that there was strong evidence that the fires were the work of Sinn Feiners.

Some shooting occurred after the outbreak of the flames. Constables on the scene were fired at and bullets passed through the clothing of some of them but none were injured. One civilian was shot dead.

Five men were arrested in connection with the incendiary outbreak. Sinn Feiners Start Fires Simultaneously

London, Nov. 28.—A dispatch to the Press Association from Liverpool says:

"An alarming outbreak of Sinn Fein violence occurred Saturday night shortly before nine o'clock. Fires broke out simultaneously both in the south and north ends of Liverpool and also in Bootle.

"There were seven fires in Bootle and eleven in various parts of Liverpool.

"Subsequent discoveries revealed a well planned Sinn Fein plot to spread a holocaust of fire among the warehouses in the dock area. The fires were spread avore almost all of the whole seven miles of the dock area.

Flames Spread Quickly

"Owing to the inflammable nature of the contents of the warehouses, the flames quickly gained a strong hold, and by one o'clock in the morning the whole sky was lit up. The local fire brigades were unable to cope with the situation and were obliged to call brigades from other suburbs. The police commandeered all telephone wires and took all steps to prevent further outbreaks by concentrating policemen along the line of docks.

"Three youths, watching the suspicious movements of two men at the cotton warehouse in Parliament street, warned the police, who challenged the suspects. Thereupon the latter bolted and fired upon the police, who pursued them. The policemen were unhurt, but a bullet pierced the heart of a youth, Daniel Ward, who was among those who had warned the police and he fell dead.

"The fires in some instances, were quickly quenched. Others in cotton warehouses burned fiercely the night long. One in the south end and another in Bootle, at the north end are taken as proving that there was careful organization. It was found that all the locks on the warehouse had been cut with bolt cutter. Many empty petrol cans were found on the scene. Each fire started at more than one place. At one timber yard there were three separate outbreaks."

"It appears that for each building marked for destruction there were allotted gangs numbering from four to five men, one of whom stood sentry while the others cut the locks and applied the inflammables.

"Many fires were suppressed in their early stages, and in these cases there was clear evidence of incendiarism in the finding of rags soaked in paraffin and empty petrol cans and bolt cutters left behind. The most destructive fires were in two large cotton warehouses on either side of Jordan street, which were not extinguished until 7 o'clock this morning when the buildings were completely destroyed.

"DARDANELLA" GREETED BY A PACKED HOUSE

A packed house greeted a large and industrious company which presented the song show "Dardanella" at the Playhouse last night. The features were some handsome new costumes, including a bona-fide bathing girl division, an oriental dancer, Frances Palmda by name, and the favorite, very neat and entertaining comedian, H. C. Overton, who was really the star of the piece.

Elsie Esmonde, in addition to singing "Thou Brilliant Bird" in prima donna style, wore several gorgeous costumes, and Tom Dayton, with a new "Mammy" song, was a blackface hit with spots of gloom.

The plot proved to be more or less ingenious, and the continual blaze of costume color was livened up with some fairly good ensembles. An unnamed vaudeville team contributed the same old-time specialties in the second act, the dancing and the ever-amusing hand-and-arm work of the comedian, standing behind the prime donna and providing her with "expressive" gestures, being well received. Ruthland Herald.

MISS ROSAMOND FLANAGAN ENTERTAINS

On Saturday afternoon at her home on Evans street, Miss Rosamond Flanagan delightfully entertained the members of her rook party complimentary to her house guests Misses Margaret and Ruth Copeland of Kinston. Tables for twelve were arranged in the library and parlor and many spirited games were enjoyed. Miss Frances Moseley making the top score was presented a drinking cup in a sweet grass case. Misses Copeland were presented over kist sets. At the conclusion of the games a salad course was served. Those enjoying the hospitality of Miss Flanagan were Misses Margaret and Ruth Copeland, Clara Louise Moye, Rose Hadley, Frances Moseley, Bet Dixon, Mary Gaskill Flanagan, Marletta Suggs, Willie Skinner, Alice Lee Hooker, Virginia King.

THE TOBACCO FARMER

Every individual, as well as every business in the Bright Tobacco Belt should actively support the movement of the tobacco farmers to organize to control production and secure a living price for tobacco.

With this object in view we contemplate the publication of a weekly paper, "THE TOBACCO FARMER," beginning about Jan. 1st, 1921. The object of this paper will be to publish letters from farmers and other interested business men, and information from whatever source that will help farmers form correct conclusions as to what to do, when to do it and how to do it to protect their interest.

We have assurance from Mr. O. L. Joyner, one of the best informed men in the state on this question, that he will help in the editorial work of this paper.

Every one who is interested in this vital question, affecting the happiness and prosperity of all the people of this great bright tobacco country, should fill out and mail at once the attached coupon.

D. J. WHICHARD.

(Cut this out and mail it.)

MR. D. J. WHICHARD

Owned by Willie Williams

At Auction

ON COX MILL ROAD TO BLACK JACK, 3 MILES OF BLACK JACK

Friday, Dec. 3rd

AT 10:30. A. M

The T. C. Cannon Home Place owned by Mr. and Mrs. Willie Williams is located on the Cox Mill road to Black Jack, 2 1-2 miles from Cox Mill, 3 miles from Black Jack and 11 miles from Greenville. A very good section with store within 2 1-2 miles, schools within one mile, churches within 3 miles. Good roads makes Greenville easily reached. The farm consists of approximately 150 acres with about 60 acres cleared and about 90 acres in woods. The soil is of a chocolate loam top soil with a clay subsoil which produces abundantly good crops of all kinds adapted to this section. On the woodland is sufficient cord wood and timber for farming purposes. Improvements consist of one good 2 story dwelling, seven rooms with gas lights, one tenant house, two tobacco barns, and other outbuildings, all of which are in first class condition.

Wells and pumps supply the entire place abundantly with water. All tracts vary in size will enable you to purchase most any size tract you desire. Practically all tracts will have both cleared and woods land. Inspect today these beautiful small acreage tracts. Your price is going to buy them at the sale on terms of 1-5 cash, balance 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 years. Possession to purchasers immediately.

Do not fail to attend this sale. It is going to be conducted on the property at 10:30 A. M. on Friday, Dec. 3, regardless of weather conditions. In case of inclement weather the sale will be conducted in some suitable building on the property.

Old age pensions in 1914-15 these cost $13,000,000; today they cost $26,000,000.

Unemployment grants to the ex-soldiers $27,000,000, Railway and housing subsidies $25,000,000.

These Captain Guest states, are the most considerable items in the government expenditures for the year. No liberal in the country", he declares, will retrench on education. As for the other items, no fruitful suggestion has so far been made as to how they can be reduced and no specific case of extravagance has been made out against the administration.

The more the financial commitments of the government are examined, the more it will be realized how profoundly the war has effected national finance how difficult it is for the government, with the best intentions in the world, to keep down the national expenditure. Captain Guest declares.

COUNCIL TAKES UP MANDATE MATTER FOR FINAL ACTION

visory capacity only when questions of interest to labor are discussed. Mandatories will be required to submit annual reports through duly authorized representatives setting forth the situation in the territory under their jurisdiction. These reports will be examined by the mandates commission, which will decide what points therein shall be called to the attention of the council. The mandates commission will sit in Geneva.

Blockades Commission
The sub-committee on blockades today passed a resolution proposed by Lord Robert Cecil, delegate for South Africa, that the council be asked to name an international commission non blockades whose duty it shall be to report to the assembly the measures it finds necessary to put an economic blockade into effect. This regarded as quite likely to put off a definite solution of the blockade until the next meeting of the assembly.

Russo-Polish Matters
Delegates to the meeting of the assembly as awaiting with keenest interest the probable discussion of a motion promised by George Nicoll Barnes of Great Britain, regarding the conflict between Poland and Russia. It is reported Mr. Barnes may attempt to put the league in a position of defending its activity in that war, but there is a disposition on the part of the delegates not to permit the subject to reach any decisive issue.

The sales are large today and will "block". Prices are much lower than they have been and there is much dissatisfaction. Tight money is the only cause we see for conditions as they are with both Tobacco and Cotton and we see no chance for improvement until after the New Year. We do not advise selling at this time but if you are bound to sell drive to Gorman's and we will do our best for you.

The block sales will disarrange the sales card of all the warehouses.
