

Falkland Township Farmers Pledge Cut In Tobacco Acreage

Township Organization Formed at Enthusiastic Meeting of Planters Last Night

The second day's work in organizing tobacco planters of Pitt county to combat abnormal prices in evidence in every tobacco growing district of the nation was brought to a conclusion with a mass meeting in Falkland last night, which was largely attended by representative farmers from every part of the township who exhibited more than passing interest in the great fight to be waged by the State organization in reducing acreage and placing the farmer in position to meet demands of the future.

Mr. Pace declared this morning that planters of the Falkland district were greatly impressed with the movement of the State organization to bring about reduction in acreage next year and that virtually every man of the hundred present pledged himself to stand behind the work of the organization until something definite had been accomplished.

In the election of officers to preside over the township organization J. H. Smith was elected president; J. L. Warren, vice-president; K. R. Wooten, secretary-treasurer.

Messrs Preston Pierce and Joe Duke were appointed members of the canvassing committee. They were urged to make a thorough canvass of the county and get every farmer signed up by next Thursday when the next meeting will be held preparatory to the meeting of all township organizations to be conducted in Greenville December 19th.

Secretary Pace presented the seriousness of the situation facing the tobacco growers from every angle, presenting the constitution of the organization, application of its provisions and the most direct way in reaching the object in view. He showed in a plain way that it is much better for farmers to organize than to go after the matter in a desultory way.

Two hundred killed in Rome earthquake. Thousands homeless. Rome, Dec. 11.—All villages in the Tepelen district, Southern Albania, have been destroyed by a violent earthquake, according to newspaper dispatches. Two hundred killed and fifteen thousand are homeless as result of the shock, it was stated.

NUMBER OF CASES HEARD IN WEEK'S SESSION OF COURT

Week's Session of County Court Concluded Yesterday After Disposing of Many Actions

Averaging from five to six cases daily for the past week the one week's session of Pitt county court was brought to a conclusion yesterday afternoon. The docket was by no means cleared, but the great number of cases were reduced considerably, leaving several unimportant actions to be taken up at the next session.

The final day's session proved decidedly more favorable for court officials than any other day as seven cases were disposed of which set the record for the week. Defendants in virtually every issue were members of the colored race, charged with anything from disorderly conduct to assault with deadly weapon and selling whiskey.

Charlie Brooks, charged with selling whiskey, was found guilty and fined $50 and costs. E. A. Ebron was found guilty of assault, judgment being $10 and costs. Mack Worthington, charged with having liquor in his possession, was found guilty, judgment being withheld. The case against Ben Wooten, charged with assault, was suspended upon payment of costs. Lillian Gray, assault with deadly weapon, was fined $50 and costs.

CHRISTMAS TREES TO BRIGHTEN MANY HOMES THIS YEAR

Between Four and Five Million Trees Will Be Felled Over Nations This Christmas

FOREST OFFICIALS TO ENCOURAGE YEARLY USE OF NATION'S SUPPLY

Over 1,500,000 Trees Will be Used in New York State and New England

Washington, Dec. 11.—Between four and five million Christmas trees will be felled this year to brighten American homes, churches and community centers, and delight the hearts of the children. This is the estimate of the forest service, which says that the total of trees used in this country each yuletide season equals approximately the combined consumption of England, Scotland and Wales and is about 25 percent greater than that of Germany.

Forest service officials are opposed to any movement to discourage the use of the trees for Christmas purposes. To the argument that the cutting and use of the trees is a great waste, they say that the custom is so old, so well grounded, and so venerated that even if it were economically somewhat indefensible, these aspects will and should continue to outweigh economic considerations.

Placed all together, the four or five millions of trees used annually would make a mighty forest, but forest service officials point out that many of them come from fields which are being cleared for farming purposes or from forests which need thinning to protect the more sturdy trees. They also argue that trees are for use and that there is no other use to which they could be put that would contribute so much to the joy of mankind as their use by children on this one great holiday.

Neither would common or widely circulated reports that the conference had to do also with cabinet appointments and other practical questions of administration building. Mr. Hughes has been mentioned many times as a possibility for Secretary of State and his arrival here at the head of the President-elect's list of chosen conferees served to enliven speculation on his advisability for the premier portfolio in the next cabinet.

REVIEWS CAMPAIGN AGAINST RADICALS IN UNITED STATES

Attorney General Palmer, in Annual Report, Also Tells of Fight Against Prices

CARD INDEX SYSTEM IS EMPLOYED IN SOLVING RADICALISM PROBLEMS

Says Government Collected Approximately $5,532,000 in Fines During Last Year

Washington, Dec. 11.—The campaign against the high cost of living, efforts to break up trusts and combinations in restraint of trade and the government's fight on radicalism are reviewed by Attorney General Palmer in his annual report sent today to congress.

In a discussion of the radical problem Mr. Palmer discloses that the department of justice has developed a card index system, containing more than 200,000 cards, giving detailed data on the activities of ultra-radicals and their organizations as well as a complete library of reference on the general radical movement.

Nine per cent of the communist and anarchistic agitation during the last year, Attorney General Palmer says, is traceable to aliens. This agitation, he adds, is not confined to the so-called "economic evils" but has been directed also toward the stirring up of racial prejudice. One of the fertile fields, he says, is among the negroes who "have been appealed to directly for support in the movement to overthrow the government of the United States."

The foreign language press has been "particularly noticeable for its strong ultraradical leanings," the attorney general says. He declares that the spread of radical doctrines has been "aided" in 26 or more foreign language newspapers in the United States.

MILITARY AFFAIRS MUCH IMPROVED IN DISTRICT OF HAITI

General Legune Presents Optimistic View of Conditions in Annual Report

Washington, Dec. 10.—The military situation in Haiti and Santo Domingo from the point of view of the marine corps is "extremely satisfactory," Major General Lejeune, commandant of the corps, declares in his annual report to the secretary of the navy made public today.

DON LOUIS DE BOURBON

A dark, slender Latin, styling himself Don Louis de Bourbon, and claiming to be the rightful heir to the throne of Spain, has been discovered in New York after four years' quiet residence in the metropolis. Don Louis says he does not aspire for royal recognition. He says his father was Alfonso XII and his mother was the king'smorganatic wife, and that he was born at Galatz, Roumania, in 1884.

CLAIMS JAPAN HAS NEVER CONSIDERED MILITARY FUTURE

Foreign Critics Invited to Study History of Nation and Note Truth About Conditions

Tokio, Nev. 15.—Denying that Japan is militaristic and inviting foreign critics to study Japanese history to prove the contention, Premier Takashi Hara has written an article entitled "Japanese National Characteristics as Misunderstood by the World" which is published in the Chuwa, an organ of the Seiyukai party.

"It is charged that the Japanese is an aggressive race, bellicose and lacking in civilization other than the art of war," the Premier wrote. "This misunderstanding may be attributed to three defective points of view. First, Japanese history is disregarded; second, Japanese literature and art are set aside; and third, the true conditions of life of the people have not been studied by the critics."

"Japan has no record in her history of having conquered other races, as every one knows. The foreign wars in the Meiji era, especially the Russian war, were simply wars for self-defense against foreign aggression. "If Japan's history is examined closely it is rich in records of warfare to be sure, but it is a great mistake to jump at the conclusion that the Japanese people have been a war-like race altogether, born and reared in the midst of wars. In the days before civilization had advanced, political and military wars were employed for the same purpose by all countries which are now civilized."

OPPOSITON BEATS IN HOUSE FIGHT ON IMMIGRATION BILL

Mann Amendment to Restrict Immigration for One Year Passed Easily by Advocates

OPPOSITION BECOMES STRONGER AS MEASURE REACHES FINAL STAGE

As Amended Bill Cannot be Enforced for Two Months After Actual Passage

Washington, Dec. 10.—Amendment of the Johnson bill to reduce the two-year prohibition against immigration to the United States to fourteen months and charges that foreign governments are "financing the movement of radicals to the United States," marked another day of debate in the House on immigration legislation.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS PROPOSES COMPLETE DISARMAMENT PLAN

Geneva, Dec. 11.—Commission on technical organizations has invited the United States to name members of the international advisory committee to study the question of opium traffic. The committee of armaments recommended disarmament in three stages. First, agreement between powers not to make further increases in armaments; second, gradual reduction; third, complete disarmament except for necessary police purposes.

Saturday Afternoon, Dec. 11, 1920

Now that Turks and Armenians have signed a treaty of peace, the rest of the world may look forward to a short period of rest from wars and rumors of wars.

The self-determination program of Ireland looks like determined trouble unless something happens to bring about a change.

The Greek government has invited Constantine to return to his place on the throne. That should be enough to remove all obstacles, and settle further disputes, for a while at least.

President Wilson has issued an appeal for funds to help starving Chinese people. Fortunately Japan needs no assistance, therefore, California will not be troubled with lending a helping hand.

Anti-tuberculosis seals are mighty appropriate for Christmas packages, in fact, they do double mission for civilization. Millions are suffering from dreaded tubercular troubles, and money derived from the sale of seals is expended in their interest. Do your part. Buy now.

Don't forget to do your Christmas shopping early. The time is short and bargains many. Get busy.

Declining meat prices are mighty acceptable during this time of the year. In fact they will cause many homes to have spreads which otherwise would have been abandoned.

The high cost of living plea has been abandoned for the present time in favor of "hard times". And the plea has become more expressive, too.

Mrs. MacSwiney, wife of the late Lord Mayor of Cork, is probably getting more publicity than sympathy in America.

Hard times here; hard times there, in fact, hard times seems to be holding supreme sway everywhere. Otherwise somebody must be fooling.

The saving habit probably has been instituted in many homes of late. To tell the truth depression on the money market is causing people to appreciate the value of their earnings more than ever. If the situation continues as it is for any length of time, one may rest assured that savings will play a big part in every part of the country.

It is pleasing to note that the bill prohibiting foreign immigration to this country has won its first fight in the House for this in itself assures the public that the fight hereafter will be waged more determinedly than ever. Increased foreign population would have no good effect with the masses during this period of reconstruction. Ideals are different, ambitions are far apart and nothing good can possibly result from association. The country needs an intelligent class of workmen as never before. Changing conditions bring about new issues that demand American thought and American action, and unless they get this the country can not expect to recover the way people desire. Immigrants must be trained into the American way of doing things. We need immediate production, and time spent in training unskilled labor could be diverted into other channels in a more profitable way. The nation needs production. It has enough unskilled labor to supply demand and that alone is sufficient to Campaigns of tobacco and cotton growers of the South to bring about better prices for their products are attracting attention of the entire country, and people are impressed by the determined spirit behind each and every movement. The situation is one of the most serious in a number of years, mainly because of unexpected declines and cost of production. Yet, in many cases, the planter is bearing the burden cheerfully, although unable to meet just obligations. Time merchants seriously affected are standing behind their customers to the limit, and many have gone beyond the limit. In such cases the planter is urged to meet his obligation so far as possible, although the near future may not hold out promises of immediate relief. The future must bring about a decided change, especially since organization work is proceeding so rapidly in every community. The fight must necessarily be a determined one, and those who endure to the end will be well rewarded.

If Secretary Houston's annual report were taken seriously in the country the public would be completely snowed under by problems of taxation. Congressman Kitchin thinks the secretary would switch the burden of taxation from the manufacturer to the consumer, and it really looks like he has raised considerable stir in criticisms direct against the report. The North Carolina representative is fully informed on all matters of public interest such as they put across in the capitol city, and the public may rest assured his intention are the very best. The country is completely appalled by taxes as it is, and if that of the manufacturer should be imposed upon the consumer, as Mr. Kitchin charges, conditions would become as severe as ever. The recommendations are deserving of earnest consideration, and it is safe to say they will get it.

President Wilson's failure to name a delegate for the league of nation's disarmament commission proved disappointing to delegates. But we can't see why it should. Mr. Wilson is an American. America is not a member of the league, and it is right he should remain on the outside until his country takes some definite action in the matter. He, of course, accepted the mandate over Armenia, but that is a duty entirely out of the hands of the league now, and rests solely with the President. His position has been clearly defined by his attitude to keep out of world affairs until the nation gives some sign of recognition of his efforts. He has been foiled in ambitious attempts to place America in front ranks of civilization by becoming a leading member of the league, and it is natural that he should decline any honors intended for him alone.

Three and a half million children of Europe are starving and looking to the American people for relief until next harvest season when they will be able to provide for themselves. Relief commissioners are asking for $33,000,000 to carry on this work, and unless the public responds quickly and generously thousands will die from pangs of hunger and cold. North Carolina has always done its part in every campaign of benevolence. Pitt county, as a part of the State, has contributed liberally in all issues, and it is to be hoped that when funds are sent away they will be large enough to pass beyond the quota. For humanity's sake contribute now and do it liberally. Civilization demands this much of you.

City and county merchants are offering the public reductions that are mighty appropriate for the holiday season. People who buy, and buy early, find themselves in far better shape to meet demands of Christmas than others who wait until the last minute. Bargains are plentiful, prices have been cut to meet the pocketbook, and those who take advantage of the opportunity will have no regrets later.

High food prices in Berlin are driving the laboring class to demand higher wages, so reports say, but as this affects Berlin alone the rest of the world that suffered as result of Germany autocracy won't worry very much.

ROBERTS—PRICE

Reported for The Reflector.

A very interesting marriage occasion took place on the evening of Dec. 8th, when Mr. Arthur C. Roberts of Charlotte and Miss Katherine E. Price of Lenoir appeared at the pastorium of the Memorial Baptist church to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. A. P. Pugh, the pastor supply of that church, of Tampa, Fla. Mr. J. R. Freeman was the best man and acted gracefully through that happy occasion. Several other young ladies and men of Charlotte were in attendance. The whole party left on the morning train the next day, the bride and groom for some extended visits, and then for Charlotte, their future home.

LADIES AID SOCIETY ENTERTAINS BARACA CLASS

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Immanuel Baptist church entertained the Baraca class and a few friends at an oyster supper last evening in the Sunday school rooms. The rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers. Rev. Walter Patten delivered a short address on "The Result of the McLendon Meeting as Regards the Men of the Town". Dr. A. P. Pugh and Rev. N. D. Wiggs also made short talks which were enjoyed by all present. Mrs. Goods, of the high school faculty and Miss Gorell of the Training school, entertained the guests with readings and a violin solo. The feature of the evening was the music furnished by Rev. George White, pastor of one of the colored churches, and his choir. Their singing was beautiful and thoroughly enjoyed.

The banquet will long be remembered by the fifty-three guests who enjoyed the hospitality of the aid society.

SEVERAL DEEDS TRANSFER FILED SINCE YESTERDAY

The following deeds of transfer have been filed in the office of the register of deeds for registration since the report of yesterday afternoon:

G. S. Porter to J. B. Hardee, consideration $1.00.

W. W. Dawson et al to Roscoe and Mamie Dawson, consideration $350.

W. L. Smith and wife to W. R. Bullock, consideration $3000.

Addie Hardee to C. R. Hardee, consideration $2000.

L. W. Wilson to Maggie Wilson, consideration $3000.

ONE MARRIAGE LICENSE ISSUED HERE YESTERDAY

Applicants for matrimony failed to break the record in this county yesterday, only one license being issued for the entire day, that being to Helen Smith and Raymond Windley, colored of Ayden township.

NEW BERN NOW HAS A ROTARY CLUB

New Bern now has a Rotary club. It numbers twenty five charter members and last evening "Buck" Perrin, district governor, from Spartanburg, S. C., delivered their charter to them. The occasion will never be forgotten in New Bern, nor will the visiting Rotarians ever forget the splendid dinner which was served, the fun that was present, and the determined speeches that were made. Good delegations from Wilmington, Kinston, Washington, Wilson, Raleigh, Goldsboro and Greenville were present, Rotarians Ellen, Clodfelter, Kittrell, Winslow, Hassel and Phillips representing the Greenville club. Rotary never exhausts its resources; sleep is not one of characteristics; service is its burning, inspiring, enriching motto; and always in the midst of a Rotary meeting, where its members become boys again in their fun and frolic, there are serious periods in which definite action is taken to start something for the happier welfare of mankind. Every Rotarian considers himself a pupil in a great school where he is learning in the spirit of Christ, to see service and put self in the background in order to do service.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION BREAKS THE LOCAL RECORD

Today the civil service examining board of the local post office had by far the largest number of applicants for examination in the history of the office. Three examinations were scheduled for today—for railway mail clerk, for clerk-carrier and for rural mail carrier. For the first no applicants were present, for clerk-carrier there were two, while for rural carrier the number reached thirty-five.

So many being present for these examinations made it look like a big school and as the number, overtaxed the capacity of the civil service room in the postoffice building a change had to be made to rooms in the high school building which Superintendent Rose kindly turned over to the local board. This large number of applicants for places in the government service is a striking example of the changed conditions in the labor world causing many to be seeking employment and while it has not been long since positions were having to seek persons to fill them and then found it hard to do.

Gentry & Gorman

All houses finished Friday.

The market has sold to date around twenty three and a half million pounds, averaging $23.51.

Gentry & Gorman has sold to date seven million three hundred and eighty four thousand pounds.

We sold this week 615,551 pounds averaging $18.03. Our Monday's sale averaged $25.24. The Friday's sale of 107,948 pounds averaged $15.66. What we sold Friday before dinner was very discouraging, while the part of the sale that was sold after dinner was much stronger and our customers were better satisfied.

We believe the sales the coming week will be lighter; however unless you are compelled to have cash before Xmas we advise holding and selling after Xmas.
