

PAY UP AND TRADE WEEK TO CLOSE IN CITY FRIDAY NIGHT

Prizes to Be Drawn From Hoghead At Five Points by Midget Cigar Salesman

Definite arrangements are rapidly taking form for awarding of prizes at the conclusion of "Pay-Up and Trade Weeks" campaign which has been in progress in this city for the past several days...

It is expected hundreds will be present when the prizes are awarded as keen interest has been manifested in movement for several days and people have shopped and paid accounts in a way that has been gratifying indeed.

Merchants so far have reported splendid business, particularly before the Christmas holidays. Settlement of accounts has been gratifying, although in many instances not so good as anticipated.

STOUTLY OPPOSES TEACHING ITALIAN IN BRAZIL SECTION

Brazilian Government Officials Strenuously Oppose Recent Proposals from Italy.

AGREEMENT PLANS TO REGULATE FUTURE SETTLEMENT OF ISSUE

Objection Made On Grounds That Obligatory Teaching Would Effect National Progress

Rio de Janeiro, Dec. 28.—Some Brazilian government officials oppose the Italian government's proposal that the Italian language be taught in Brazilian schools in districts largely occupied by immigrants from Italy.

The agreement planned to regulate the future settlement of Italians in Brazil, where they already form an important part of the population.

Objection is made by Brazilians on the ground that obligatory teaching of Italian would increase the difficulty of assimilating the immigrants to the national life of the country.

KING ALFONSO AND PRINCESS RECEIVE CORDIAL WELCOME

Spanish King Met With Popular Favor While On Recent Visit to London Territory

London, Dec. 28.—King Alfonso and his Queen, formerly princess Ena of Battenburg, England, were the objects of much attention and popular favor during their two weeks stay in London just ended.

Alfonso beaming smile became as famous as his big blue car, and his consort's magnificent gowns and furs, were the envy of the crowds of women who daily besieged the hotel on Piccadilly where the royal couple stayed.

Their second son, Prince Jaime, is remaining in England for a time to continue a treatment for his ear trouble which is understood to be well on the way to a permanent cure.

Alfonso bought two automobiles and quantity of toys and miscellaneous articles for the royal nursery in Madrid.

The Spanish King is very anxious to bring the English polo teams that will meet American next summer to Madrid for practice this winter.

He is also intent upon developing many beautiful spots on the Spanish coast as pleasure resorts.

One of the incidents told here of the royal couple is that the Queen recently asked her husband if he thought the fashionable evening gowns designed for youthful silhouettes were in keeping with her age and her dignity as mother of six children.

It is thought that the matter is worthy of reflection. A few days later a large case was delivered addressed to the Queen.

There will be a meeting of the Carolina Club tonight at 7:30. Several new members to be voted on, you are urged to be present.

PROPOSES STATION TO BE USED FREE BY TWO COUNTRIES

America Turns Over Lafayette Wireless Station to France With Purpose of Gratitude Use

Paris, Dec. 28.—In turning over informally the new Lafayette wireless station to the French government a few days ago, the American government has proposed that the station receive and send official messages, both French and American, gratuitously for an indefinite time.

These would include, first, messages from the departments of the American government, particularly War, Navy, State and Commerce, to their representatives and bureaus in France.

In return the United States promises that the Annapolis station will perform the same service for the French government, free of charge.

This suggested innovation, which originated with the Navy department, is being seriously considered by the French government although it believes it would carry by far the larger load, and although planned to leave the station entirely free during peacetime to handle only commercial business.

The Lafayette station, which is 20 miles from Bordeaux, is now actually being operated by the French Ministry of Posts and sent to North and South America most of the press reports of the meeting of the League of Nations Assembly at Geneva.

The station was started during the war by American Navy department and at the armistice the French government arranged with the navy to finish it, agreeing to pay the entire cost of construction.

New York, Dec. 28.—Holdups in the financial districts of this city which last year were of costly frequency, are reported by survey companies to be decreasing.

In assigning these for the fewer Holdups, William A. Griffin, vice-president of the National Surety company, said his concern and similar ones had spent several hundred thousand dollars in ferreting out and prosecuting men connected with the dishonest practices.

At police headquarters it was said the services of retiring patrolmen and firemen have been at premium since the surety companies advised brokers to hire them.

PRESENTS COST OF PROPOSED SOLDIER BONUS TO COUNTRY

Provisions of Bill Would Entail An Expenditure Over Two Billion Dollars

Washington Dec. 28.—Approximately $2,300,000,000 was the estimate submitted today by Secretary Houston, of the Treasury, as the cost of carrying out provisions of the soldier bonus bill.

The Treasury Secretary presented his estimate to the Senate finance committee without comment other than to urge that no legislation be enacted which would lay an additional burden on the nation's finances.

The maximum possible cost of the vocational training aid and the far and hoe development plans were placed at $1,880,000,000, each while the Secretary said the fifth provision a plan for land settlement, held so any uncertainties that it was impossible to estimate the possible expenditure.

Submission of the estimates total cost had an apparent impression upon members of the committee, which is considering the bonus bill as passed by the house at the last session.

MASS MEETING OF TOBACCO GROWERS HERE WEDNESDAY

Members of Eastern Carolina Tobacco Warehousemen Association to Discuss Reductions. RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED NOW FEATURE ACTIVITIES AT MEETING IN WILSON

MASS MEETING OF TOBACCO GROWERS HERE WEDNESDAY

Members of Eastern Carolina Tobacco Warehousemen Association to Discuss Reductions.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED NOW FEATURE ACTIVITIES AT MEETING IN WILSON

One-Third Reduction Advocated by the Growers' Association Considered Insufficient.

A mass meeting of tobacco warehousemen and tobacco growers will be conducted at the courthouse in this city tomorrow at 11 o'clock in the interest of promoting proposed plans of North Carolina Tobacco Warehousemen association for one-half reduction of tobacco acreage.

The following resolutions regarding proposed reductions were adopted at a meeting of the association conducted in Wilson several days ago:

"WHEREAS the normal supply of bright tobacco is approximately three hundred million pounds annually and whereas it is evident that there will be carried over from the 1920 crop fully 300,000,000 lbs., enough to supply the needs of the world if not a single pound is raised in 1921, and

WHEREAS the interests of the Warehousemen and the Farmers are identical in respect to the amount of tobacco to be planted and we feel it our duty to give the Growers the facts in our possession that they may be saved from bankruptcy which may follow the planting of even a normal crop in 1921.

THEREFORE it is resolved by the NORTH CAROLINA TOBACCO WAREHOUSE ASSOCIATION

1. That the proposed reduction of one-third in acreage as recommended by the Tobacco Growers' Association is not in our opinion a sufficient reduction—that the reduction should be at least 50 per cent, and that any amount planted in excess of normal crop will invite disaster.

11. That we feel it is the duty of the Tobacco Warehousemen to reach the tobacco growers in person and to urge them,

1. The absolute necessity of cutting their tobacco crops at least one-half—and that if they plant tobacco at all they should not plant "Make All," "Big Gem" and Pinkney Arthur," but should confine themselves to the staple varieties which have given Eastern Carolina its reputation in the past.

2. That they abandon the west as their "SMOKE HOUSE and CORN CRIB" and pledge themselves honestly to make an effort to live at home in 1921.

11. THAT the Tobacco Warehousemen of North Carolina pledge themselves in co-operation with the Tobacco Growers Association to form committees of their strongest men who shall visit every grower and landlord in their respective territory and secure pledges to carry out the recommendations herein submitted. And that the week beginning January 3, 1921, shall be set aside for this purpose.

N. C. Tobacco Growers Assn. S. H. Anderson, Pres. B. H. Cozart, Sec.

Table with 2 columns: Crop Year, Weight (lbs.). Rows include 1915-Bright crop (358,438,965 lbs.), 1916-Bright crop (290,926,000 lbs.), 1917-Bright crop (363,650,000 lbs.), 1918-Bright crop (449,375,000 lbs.), 1919-Bright crop (487,894,000 lbs.), 1920-Estimated (600,000,000 lbs.).

Tuesday, December 28, 1920.

An association of nations might work all right with one member, but it is difficult to see what it would do with more than one.

It is said President Wilson will not extend executive clemency to Eugene V. Debs. That's not surprising when no one asked him to.

In making your new Year's resolutions be sure to swear off talking hard times. Your community demands this much of you.

A man in Paris is to be placed on trial for murdering eleven wives. That is going some, and his record is one no other will likely try to eclipse.

Three thousand Germans want to settle in Brazil. But Brazil probably doesn't think much of the new kind of citizenship, if past experiences count for anything.

President-elect Harding plans to take up home problems. He might get more out of life by taking up government problems first and others when he gets more permanently situated.

India is seriously affected by social unrest. But since the rest of the country has been similarly disrupted it is not surprising that India should get its share. It is an aftermath of the war which every country must experience and India is fortunate in getting its part now.

Establishment of central markets for perishable foods would meet the country's demand in a pleasing way and help considerably in preventing waste. This idea should have been considered long ago. The country would have saved several millions dollars by the venture.

An impending break is expected in Republican ranks over the league of nations. Mr. Harding probably knows more about that than he wants the public to learn just now. Conferences with master minds have learned him something he didn't know before probably.

If holiday spirit prevails in congress during consideration of the tariff measure, as paper claims, then, advocates have nothing to hope for. The spirit is all right if they have the right kind, but if it's the kind everyone experienced yesterday, there's no hope.

D'Annunzio may be pretty good in handling verse, but when it comes to saving Plume, looks like he's playing a losing game, unless in verse.

American tables this Christmas show signs of declining food prices and as long as this continues the average person has little to grouch over.

Senator Harding may find more in home problems than in those of a foreign nature. To tell the truth, he might confer for another year without being too fully acquainted with domestic matters. There's plenty room for work, and should he accomplish what is expected of him, it is probably well that he has facts from leading minds to fall back on.

There seems to be plenty of blotto in the Christmas, but little evidence of drunkenness. It is gratifying to note the drunkard at last has learned to maintain order, but it would be much more pleasing if a holiday season could pass even the odor of whiskey. This seems to be impossible, yet time may work wonderful changes.

America is preaching decreased reductions in cotton and tobacco acreage while other countries are crying out for food products as fast as they can be produced. It seems the only thing for foreign countries to do is to get down to work and produce instead of looking to the country that supported them during the war for continued protection. The situation is one of the most unusual in history and certainly must improve before another year. It is true several small countries in Europe have been in sore plight, and while it is natural to seek aid from a more prosperous people it is not fair to continue asking for necessities any longer than recovery becomes possible. American people are faced with necessity of cutting down expenses until its own economic conditions become more normal and this cannot be done as quickly as could be if foreign financial strain were eliminated. It is mighty fine to do for suffering humanity, but let us not forget the millions at home who suffer untold hardships as well as those afar.

People in this part of the country have become impressed with the fact that the tobacco industry is in great danger unless crops are reduced to one-third next year as recently proposed. In fact, organized effort seems to be realized as the only direct way in solving the problem, and leading tobacco and business men are working with that end in view. Several feature dealing with proposed reductions will be discussed at a mass meeting here Wednesday morning. Planters will do well to attend and help plan in a determined way to insure greater demand for their products in the next several years. Foreign demand will not improve until this is done and it is up to every tobacco man in Pitt county to stand solidly in favor of the project for their own benefit.

HAPPINESS

On a mountain crest a Joy was born,
In the valley below, a Care;
The one was kissed by the sun at morn,
The other by shadowed air.
Without the mountain no valey could be,

Without the vale no hill;
Without the Care no good can live,
Without the Joy, no ill.

The summers came, and smiled, and fled;

The winters frowned between:
And Joy grew up as a frivolous maid
On the breast of the lofty green.

Below, in the cool, gray dews of dawn
And the twilight murky and dank,
Was nourished the Care—a sorrowful lad—

Whose pages of pleasure were blank.

The frolesome maid with a curious step

At length penetrated the vale:
And the carefree girl with the joyless boy

Lived again in the world's old tale.
Her sunshine melted his clouds of gloom,

Then fell a shower of cheer:
In regions immortal as 'nectar' 'tis known,

But we call it Happiness here,

TEA FOR THREE TO PLAY ONE NIGHT IN WHITE'S THEATRE

Popular Attraction for One Night Engagement in City Tomorrow Night

When "Tea for Three" the brilliant comedy which played one entire year at Maxine Elliott's Theatre, New York and which is to be seen at White's Theatre on Wednesday evening December 29 on following its extraordinary success in Norfolk, opened to instantaneous success, theatregoers, after the first flush of the opening remembered that Roi Cooper Megrue, the author, was also the author of "Where Popples Bloom", another of last season's popular successes. And comment was general.

Shortly after it was made public that Mr. Megrue was also credited with a third play being shown with great success in New York, at the same time. That was "Under Orders" the two persons play at the Eltinge Theatre. True, it is only an adaption by Mr. Megrue but his work and the credit were there for all that.

Off hand, it is hard to recall another instance where one play wright has had three of his plays in New York Theatres the same time. Incidentally it may be announced now that Mr. Megrue not only has another of his own inimitable comedies ready for production but that, in addition, he is fast completing the book for a musical play his first attempt, by the way at this style of work.

Seats at White's Piano Co. Monday.
