FEDERAL SOLDIERS MAINTAIN ORDER IN COAL DISTRICTS

Miners in Mingo County, Virginia, Are Quiet After Long Struggle With Operators.

ANOTHER BLOODY CHAPTER
WRITTEN THIS YEAR WHEN ORGANIZATION BEGAN WORK

Railroad and Mining Properties Destroyed Before State Asked for Protection.

Williamson, W. Va., Jan. 2.—Since the early days when the first settlers from Virginia fought their way to the western country against bands of hostile Indians, Mingo county, West Virginia, and Pike county, Kentucky, just across its border, have been almost continuous battlegrounds.

Mingo county's latest struggle is between the coal operators and the miners, but after a series of outbreaks which attracted country-wide attention federal troops are maintaining order.

After the early settlers had disposed of the Indians, the moonshiners took the field and for years fought and sometimes vanquished the hated revenue agents, protected as they often were against attack in the high hills and deep valleys that cover the section.
Then came the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud of the 80's and 90's, which resulted in the practical wiping out of the McCoy family, and which caused two state governors to take a hand in its suppression. For some years after the feud the moonshiners again took the field, and although prohibition is now a law of the land, the "making of licker" has never been given up entirely in these hills.

Still another chapter of blood was written in Mingo when efforts were made this year to organize the coal miners. An unhappy climax came about in Matewan, W. Va., on May 19, 1920, when in a fight in the streets ten men were killed, seven of whom were guards of a private detective agency, sent into the district to eject union miners from company homes.

Since the Matewan fight Mingo has been the scene of other disorders and railroad mining properties have been destroyed by explosives. Intermittent warfare between operators' guards and miners and their sympathizers followed in such proportions that recently Governor Cornwell, of West Virginia, called on the federal government for troops. When a provisional battalion was sent to Mingo, martial law was declared here and several other towns and villages.

In the meantime, miners ejected from company houses organized tent colonies, and hundreds of families are living in canvas homes in Mingo. This situation raised a question of sanitation.

MRS. M'LONDON DIES

AT BENNETTSVILLE HOME

Mr. George Clark this morning received a telegram from Evangelist B.
F. McLendon announcing the death of his mother, who passed away at her home in Bennettsville, S. C., last night following a lingering illness. Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.

The news will be received with sorrow by hundreds of Mr. McLendon's friends in this city, for it will be remembered by many that he was called home during the revival here on account of his mother's precarious condition. The community extends its sympathy in this moment of unspeak-able sorrow.

About the most plentiful thing with the people just now seems to be bad colds.

ROBBERS SECURE $40

FROM GREENVILLE CAFE

Burglars entered the Greenville Cafe sometime between midnight and day and secured about $40 in money which was taken from the cash register. Entrance was made by smashing a back window.

KNUT HAMSUN

Knut Hamsun, the Norwegian poet, who has been awarded the Nobel prize in literature. He was born in 1890 and years ago was a street car conductor in Chicago. He has written poems, novels and dramas.

BAPTISTS UNITE IN WELCOME SERVICES TO NEW MINISTER

Immanuel Attend Services at Memorial Baptist Church to Welcome Rev. Leland W. Smith.

Rev. Leland W. Smith, formerly of Richmond, to whom Memorial Baptist church recently extended a call, held the first service of his pastorate here on Sunday morning. To a large congregation he preached a splendid sermon on "God in the Midst of the Church," showing God's watch over His people, that the church is His chosen agency through which to carry on His work in the world, and that God is present with the church when it meets for worship in proportion to His indwelling in the hearts of the individual members.

At night there was a welcome service to the new pastor in which the pastor and members of Immanuel Baptist church joined. The choir gave a splendid musical program during this service, a special feature being a solo by Hon. M. Leslie Davis, of New Bern, assisted in the chorus duet by his sister, Miss Lucie Davis, who also accompanied him on the piano.

Dr. C. J. Ellen, chairman of the pulpit committee, was master of ceremonies at this service, and after presenting the new pastor and extending a welcome from Memorial church, he introduced Dr. J. B. Turner, pastor of Immanuel church, who, in behalf of himself and his church, also the Ministers' association and other churches of the town, extended to Mr. Smith a most cordial welcome as a co-worker in the advancement of Christ's kingdom in this community. The fine Christian spirit of Dr. Turner's words of welcome was most fitting to the occasion and was no doubt the sentiment of all in the vast congregation.

Mr. Smith responded with feeling to the welcome of the two speakers, his words showing that their cordiality had touched his heart. He said he had already fallen in love with Greenville and the people he had met, and he pledged to give the best that is in him in service not only to the church he had come to lead, but also in co-operating with the other churches and the Ministers' association in every endeavor for the spirit of the community and the extension of Christ's kingdom here.

Mr. Smith made a wonderful impression on his first Sunday in Greenville as pastor. The members of the church he has come to serve and all others who heard and met him, express themselves as delighted with him both as a preacher and a citizen.
His family will come the latter part of the month.

MANY STATES PLAN TO CONSIDER TAX REFORM MEASURE

Legislatures of Forty-Five States Face Formidable Programs of Reform And Legislation.

CALIFORNIA LEADS NATION
IN PROPOSALS FOR NUMBER OF PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS

Establishment of State Constabulary To Be Considered by State of Illinois.

New York, Jan. 3.—Legislatures of forty-five states and territories, most of which open their sessions today or later this month, have before them formidable programs of tax reform, dry law enforcement, election redistricting in accordance with the 1920 census, soldier bonuses, public improvements, revision of constitutions, laws for husband and wife, industrial and suffrage legislation, state aid for farmers, boxing commissions, new financing, retrenchment by consolidation or abolition of state departments, anti-radicals, automobile regulation, reorganization of state militias, relief for public utilities, amendment or repeal of primary laws, commission or "manager" plans for cities and counties and pro and anti-blue law enactments.

California, with its ambitious $750,- 000,000 state-wide irrigation project leads the states in the matter of proposed public improvements and will ask the legislators to authorize a survey of the contemplated enterprise.
Colorado also has a big mountain tunnel in contemplation. West Virginia sessions will be required to pass laws at the session opening January 15 providing for the expenditure of $50,000, 000 for building good roads, for which the people voted a bond issue at the recent election. Missouri also must provide $60,000,000 road building legislation.

HAVANA GIRL WILL BE PRESENTED IN CITY JANUARY 5TH

Musical Comedy Company to Appear For One Night Engagement at White's Theatre.

"My Havana Girl," the musical comedy which Jimmie Hodges will present to the patrons of White's Theatre on Wednesday, January 5th, is one of the best singing attractions on tour. All the way down from Morris Talem himself and Jean Tynes, sometimes called the Texas Nightingale, to the humblest chorister, the voices are excellent. Morris is a rare combination singer and comedian and is more than proficient in both lines. Miss Jean Tynes, who was last season with McIntyre and Heath and the season before with Raymond Hitchcock is not only comely of person and a graceful dancer but her vocal efforts stamp her as a vocalist more melodious than is usually found in the field of musical comedy. There are others in the cast including Pat Faferty, Ollie Hodges and Mary Farrell who are very little if any behind the luminaries as to comedy and also run close to them as vocalists.

"My Havana Girl" carries also an organized singing four of male voices who will be heard in many popular numbers, the male chorus is well worth while, while observation will imply that the little ladies of the chorus have been chosen for their ability as vocalists and dancers as well as for their beauty of face and form.

It is all laid in the most beautiful scenic environment ever seen with a Hodges production and Hilarie Mahelu, America's leading modiste, is responsible for the dressing of the ladies with the company and his efforts in this line surpass anything ever before attempted.

ENORMOUS SUGAR YIELDS EXPECTED IN HAWAII SECTION

Prospects of One of Greatest Crops in Many Years Predicted by Authorities.

Honolulu, Jan. 3.—There are prospects for an enormous sugar crop in Hawaii in 1921 with comparatively low prices prevailing, according to a review prepared by the Hawaiian Trust Company and published by the Honolulu Star Bulletin. According to this source, Hawaiian planters will receive an average price of not more than six cents for next year's crop. On the other hand, says the review, there are indications for an increased consumption of sugar next year. The Hawaiian plantations are represented as being on a sound financial basis despite the present depression, but some of them, says the review, will show little, if any, profit next season.

The Hawaiian Trust Company's report says that the Crockett Refinery in California, approximately 90 per cent of the stock of which is owned in Hawaii, has suffered a loss of several million dollars this season owing to inability to dispose of sugar at a price in keeping with the figure at which purchases were made. Consequently, the review points out, while many of the Hawaiian planters seemingly have made large profits in 1920, their losses incident to the situation of Crockett refinery have reduced income considerably.

The report adds:
"We understand that since July 14, 1920, the Hawaiian sugar plantations under the contracts have shipped to the Crockett refinery in the neighborhood of 120,000 tons of raw sugar. We understand also that the carry-over on December 31, as now estimated, will be in the neighborhood of 80,000 tons."

WHISKEY TRAFFIC RECEIVES ANOTHER UNHAPPY SETBACK

County Officers Capture Two Stills and Beer in Raid in Grimesland District.

Saturday proved another decidedly inauspicious day to members of the illicit whiskey traffic of this territory as a raid of county officers in the Grimesland district resulted in the capture of two stills and destroying of four barrels of beer. The stills were located in close proximity to one another and were not in operation at the time of capture.

The raid was participated in by deputies Corbett and Williams who left Greenville early in the afternoon, returning a few hours later with additional supplies for the confiscated cells of the county jail. The stills were located in a stretch of woods land between Boyd's Ferry and Grimesland and showed signs of recent operation.
The officers searched diligently for whiskey and matter used in its making but without result, as the operators probably were experienced enough to anticipate apprehension most any time.

The haul shows conclusively that Sheriff Dudley and his forces are following closely every activity of county blockaders and means to do away with their demoralizing influence at every opportunity. Last year proved a record breaker in the capture of still, but the traffic developed regardless of this fact and there are few localities in which "monkey rum" is not sold and manufactured. It has been almost impossible to apprehend the main promoters, although many distillers have been captured, but it seems generally conceded that conditions will improve pleasingly in the next several months when the courts become more impressed with the seriousness of the situation.

WEALTHY INDIAN TO BE PERMITTED TO KEEP WHITE WIFE

Efforts of Court to Annul Marriage of Jackson Barnett to Anna Lowe in Topeka.

Topeka, Kan., Jan. 3.—Jackson Barnett, aged 72, reputed oil millionaire and said to be the wealthiest Indian in America and his white wife, formerly Anna Laura Lowe, aged 30, have defeated a suit to have their marriage cancelled. By living amicably throughout a month's honeymoon in the Indian's humble domicile near Henryetta, Okla., they swept aside all evidence presented in three months of procedure in the Kansas supreme court and suit to an-null the union has been crossed off the calendar.

The suit was brought by Carl J.
O'Hornett, of Henryetta, Okla., the Indian's guardian, and Cato Sells, U. S.
Commissioner of Indian Affairs. It set forth that Barnette was illiterate and that last May he and his bride eloped with an automobile furnished by the woman, crossed the Kansas line and were married in Arkansas City.
In the original proceedings instituted in the Kansas supreme court, Guardian O'Hornett petitioned that his aged ward be restored to him. It was charged that the bride had kidnapped her husband and that she was an adventu-ress.

Barnett, characteristic of his race, is a man of few words. He made it plain to the court, however, that he was well content.

"The Indian and his bride appear to have stood the test of matrimony," commented Judge A. M. Jackson, commissioner appointed by the supreme court to hear the evidence in the case.
"It was agreed that Barnett and his wife be permitted to go on a honeymoon of a month. The honeymoon over they still maintain they are satisfied, so after conference with all parties concerned, it was greed to recommend to the supreme court that the case be dropped."

The supreme court acted in accord with Judge Jackson's recommendations.

The Indian for many years lived on his land allotment near Henryetta, his horses and dogs his only companions.
He made little use of his land, his cash allotment from the government being ample to purchase his few worldly needs.

But a few years ago Barnett's farm began to yield oil. Under his state and federal guardians, the Indian's wealth increased from the royalties until, according to O'Hornett, it now exceeds a million dollars.

Boy Scouts of Greenville Win Ford Automobile in Awarding of the Prizes Saturday.

OF ACCOUNTS REPORTED
TRADING AND PAYMENT
PLEASING EVERY WAY

"Pay-Up and Trade Weeks" campaign was brought to a pleasing termination in this city last Saturday afternoon by awarding of prizes and canvas of coupons to ascertain the volume of business of each member while the campaign was in progress. Hundreds of people from virtually every section of the county thronged principal business streets all through the morning and afternoon and at the hour prizes were awarded Five Points was so congested that traffic was interrupted for at least an hour.

Tabulation of figures shows that the event represented in the neighborhood of $400,000 dollars to members of the Merchants' association that participated. The outcome proved decidedly gratifying in every way, as interest was active in every part of the county and resulted in settlement of hundreds of accounts which otherwise would have been deferred to a later date. Circulation of currency underwent an improvement during the two weeks the campaign was in progress and numbers of merchants placed in position to meet accounts which necessarily had to be delayed on account of the "panic scare" which has held sway for several weeks.

The awarding of prizes proved decidedly the outstanding feature of the day, and the large crowd surged about nervously for several minutes as people endeavored to gather near the large hoghead containing the coupons, which had been mounted on a truck at Five Points intersection and surrounded by members of the Merchants' association. The drawing started promptly at four o'clock preceded by a talk by attorney J. E.
James, who explained that the campaign had been a success in every way and resulted in exchange of thousands of dollars which otherwise would have remained out of circulation. The talk was not confined to the campaign altogether as the speaker urged his hearers to forget the spirit of depression which had gripped the entire country so unexpectedly, working injury everywhere and causing people to forget that while there's life, there's hope.

The large hoghead had been rolled up and down Evans street a short time prior to awarding of prizes so that when it landed on the truck everyone was satisfied coupons had been mixed beyond doubt. Knocking out the top and placing Major Herbert Barnett, smallest man in the world, on the inside required only a short time. As the little man, blindfolded, drew each of the ten coupons from the hoghead they were taken by members of the committee and read to the crowd. The messages were short and disappointing to many, but a source of gladness to the lucky ones.

TOBACCO MEETING

Secretary of Agriculture Meredith, former Governor Richard I. Manning, of South Carolina, head of the Cotton Export Corporation movement, and Aaron Sapiro, of California, expert in co-operative marketing, are expected to address and confer with the cotton and tobacco growers of this state at their meeting to be held in Raleigh January 12th and 13th.

The North Carolina Tobacco Growers' Association meets Wednesday, January 12th and the North Carolina Division of the American Cotton Association on Thursday, the 13th. While these are separate and distinct organizations they have a great deal in common. Both are working toward the same end—that proper and most efficient marketing facilities may be provided for the principal agricultural products of North Carolina. Their meetings—and these will be strictly business meetings rather than speed-making occasions—have been arranged coincidentally in order that those interested both in the growing of tobacco and in the production of cotton may participate in the planning of movements expected to be set in motion looking toward the organization of co-operative marketing association for both cotton and tobacco and the reduction of 1921 acreage.

In addition to the farmer delegates—and all cotton and tobacco growers of the State regardless of affiliation with these organizations are invited to attend the mass meetings—the banking and commercial interests are expected to be largely represented. What is done at the Raleigh meeting will have a far reaching effect upon the economic life of the state. Plans are to be laid for the future guidance of the hundreds of thousands of producers of the two chief products of North Carolina's soil.

The tobacco growers' meeting will begin at 10:00 o'clock on Wednesday morning, January 12th—both meetings to be held in the city auditorium—with organization for business, the basis of representation being one delegate for every one hundred members in each county. Words of welcome and of greeting will be heard from the outgoing and the incoming governors, to be followed by a round table discussion.

At the recent meeting held in Richmond certain recommendations were made looking to the organization in North Carolina of a tobacco growers' marketing association modelled somewhat along the lines of the California organizations. Aaron Sapiro, who is attorney and the guiding hand of fourteen of the most successful of these, and who has been retained as attorney for the Organization Committee of the Interstate Tobacco Growers' association, will explain in detail the plan of operation.

The meeting Thursday of the cotton growers will be, in point of fact, the annual convention of the North Carolina Division of the American Cotton Association. It will open with a word of welcome from Governor Morrison. The recommendations of the Southern Cotton Conference, held in Memphis, December 7th and 8th, having to do with such important matters as reduction of acreage, credits and advances, diversification and warehousing and classification of cotton, will be considered.

RED CROSS GIVES FULL ACCOUNTING. War Council Tells How Millions Contributed by Public Were Used For Relief.

BIG TASK IS DESCRIBED. In Twenty Months $154,000,000 Was Spent Overseas and $119,000,000 in the United States.

Washington, (Special.)—Through a complete report of the work of the American Red Cross in the war by Chairman Henry P. Davison, on behalf of the war council, the organization on the eve of its annual enrollment of members during the Third Red Cross Roll Call, November 2 to 11, has rendered an accounting of the many millions given it by the American people to help our fighting men and our allies. The statement is, in part, as follows: "The war council of the American Red Cross is now prepared to make a complete accounting to the American people of money contributed and expended, as well as the work done by the American Red Cross during the period in which the war council was in control of its affairs. The war council was appointed May 19, 1919, and went out of existence February 28, 1919. "It was the practice of the war council to give complete publicity to its policies and finances, but it is only now that a picture of the war period as a whole can be presented. It is the feeling of the war council that a report in this summarized form should be made directly to the public which provided the money and gave the effort which made the American Red Cross a success. "A statement of the American Red Cross effort and finances since the war council relinquished its control will be made to the public through the executive committee, and it is important, therefore, that the fact that this report covers the period only until March 1, should be carefully noted." Following are certain round figures covering American Red Cross participation in the war, as revealed by the war council's report:

NEW YEAR

Into the family of years last night A blustering infant appeared—Most promising child of the numerous brood

That yet Mother Nature had reared.
While gray Father Time looked agedly on She wrapped him in swaddling clothes

Whose warp and woof were the moon's broad beams,
With the radiance of new-fallen snows.

The youngest son of a lineage long, His days would be numbered, howe'er,

So the gusts and the gales to his chistling came To wish him success for a year.
Many and bright were the blessings they blew.

Some wished him political fame;
Some augured a business boom, and a few
With literature linked his name.

The bells and the chimes announced his birth,

And the watch parties, listening still Resounded his praises, and foolishly made

New vows that they'll never fulfill.
The shivering stars looked down and blinked,

And the winds blew taunts at the moon, While the lusty babe in the cradle of time

Was rocked to other boisterous tune.

tiful home on Fifth street, Mrs. James Hines delightfully entertained about twenty-five couples at a pretty New Year party, complimentary to Miss Martha Best, of Warsaw, the house guest of Miss Frances Whedbee. The house was artistically decorated for the occasion and was in perfect keeping with the New Year season. Music and conversation made the time pass very quickly. Punch and sandwiches were served at different times throughout the evening.

It was an enjoyable occasion and Mrs. Hines proved an ideal hostess.

FACING THE FACTS

North Carolina Stands Today Educationally Bankrupt, BUT—

Is North Carolina Bankrupt In Purse

No other excuse should be offered if we continue as a State to deny our sons and daughters the right, the privilege and the opportunity of every educational advantage; if we deny to the helpless of our State, who are as little children, the comfort and the care that is their due in the name of humanity.

And that excuse—poverty—can no longer be offered; we, as citizens, must face the responsibility of providing out of our almost inconceivable wealth the equipment necessary to carry forward our various projects of education and benevolence, or face before the world the charge of being civic slackers.

North Carolina's Farms, Forests and Factories Have Created Five Billion Dollars of Brand New Primary Wealth in the Past Five Years Alone!

North Carolina was poor once, but it is poor no more. We have grown suddenly rich and apparently are innocently unaware of it. Our rise to wealth has not been through a gain in value alone, but in quantity production—in vastly increased crops of wheat and corn, tobacco and cotton; in the doubled and quadrupled output of our cotton mills, tobacco factories and furniture establishments; in trade and bank resources; in material good things in multiplied abundance in and around our town and country homes. We are rich, RICH—by far the richest State in the South. And, despite the momentary depression of market prices, our farmers are less in debt and have more money in bank today than ever before in the two and a half centuries of our existence as a State.

We have two hundred and fifty million dollars laid safely away in Liberty Bonds, War Savings Stamps and bank account savings; and last year we enjoyed from this source alone a minimum income of ten million dollars—wealth just piling up. North Carolina has experienced nothing like it in her history. We have passed from the old period of deficit-economy into a new era of surplus-economy; and we need to learn that present-day problems and future necessities must be considered in the light of wealth, not poverty. We are rich beyond question in material things. If we are bankrupt in anything besides the equipment provided for our institutions of higher education and benevolence, it is in courage. And who has the temerity to say that North Carolinians are poverty-stricken in spirit?

Compare This Tremendous Wealth of the State With the Bagatelle We Have Invested in Our Colleges $14,000,000 Divided Among 31 Institutions!

That is our total investment in higher educational equipment after passage of 250 years—an investment of $5.50 per inhabitant. Yet, in the past ten years we have spent ten times that amount for automobiles. If every college in North Carolina was burned to the ground tonight, our sweet potato or peanut crop would replace them tomorrow. Compared to the poverty of bygone days, when North Carolina was battling for it industrial life, fourteen million dollars might appear as a colossal sum. But how large does it appear to you in comparison with our untold wealth of today? Does it express our measure of the worth of the higher things of life?

Again—in the days gone by North Carolina was crying to her sons and daughters to seek education; to lift themselves from the slough of illiteracy. Today the sons and daughters of the State are crying to North Carolina for education. Witness the fact that 2308 of them who sought admission to our colleges last fall could find no room, no accommodations—no opportunity for preparation to meet the responsibilities of citizenship in its highest form of which they had been dreaming and seeing visions: They have found their mother State unprepared. Who is to blame? THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA. Will we let the blame continue to rest upon us if these conditions are not remedied?

Our Institutions of Higher Education and Benevolence Need and Are Asking For $18,000,000 For a Six Year's Building Program--Will They Get It?

They will if the men and women of North Carolina awake to their responsibilities—their individual responsibilities—in the matter and urge the necessity of immediate action upon their representatives in the General Assembly. They will if the leadership in North Carolina's thought and action rises to the heights of statesmanship and relegates to the limbo of forgotten things the political calamity howler, the reactionary, the non-progressive, the man who has stood as a bar between the State and a future of brilliant accomplishment and service—a future ever more promising in riches, in spirit, in happiness.

The future of our educational system and of our institutions of mercy rests in YOUR hands—in the hands of every man and woman, every voter who reads these lines; every other voter whom you can influence to immediate action. North Carolina is YOUR State; its institutions are YOUR institutions. The legislators are guardians of YOUR rights and are anxious to follow your desires in any progressive cause. Write them—TODAY—your wishes in this matter. Dependent upon YOUR action is the future of YOUR boys and girls. It is a PERSONAL matter. What are YOU—WE—ALL OF US—going to do about it?
