CHICAGO BANKER BITTERLY ASSAILS REPUBLICAN PARTY

Charles Dawes, Among Those Mentioned for Harding Cabinet, Attacks Recent Critics

FIRMLY CONDEMS MANY MEMBERS RESPONSIBLE FOR BAD STATE AFFAIRS

Former Chief of Procurement for American Army in France Hands Old Guard Hard Blows

Washington, Feb. 2.—Declaring he was not in politics and was not going in, Charles G. Dawes, of Chicago, former chief of supply procurement for the American army in France, bitterly attacked today what he charged were political attempts to discredit the achievements of the people who won the war.

In the course of a five-hour examination by a House war investigating committee, Mr. Dawes struck with sledge hammer blows at critics who had tried, he said, to detract from the glory of the great achievement by picking flaws and parading trivial faults three thousand miles away. At times the air was thick with a streak of oaths for which the witness frankly confessed he had neither apology nor excuse.

Late in the day he reiterated an earlier off-hand statement as to his own part in politics which was accepted to mean that he would not become a member of Mr. Harding's cabinet, a position with which his name has been linked. Even before his views on this subject were expressed, Mr. Dawes sharply denounced the present system of conducting the Federal government an evil of a hundred years' standing, he declared with which investigators might better afford to deal instead of trying to scoop up water already over the dam.

Mr. Dawes was called by Democratic members of the committee to rebut testimony relating to waste and extravagances and particularly with reference to liquidation of American accounts in France and sale of surplus stocks to the French government. Answering charges that food and clothing supplies might have brought more than the $400,000,000 paid by France, Mr. Dawes turned sharply upon one of his questioners, Representative Bland, Republican, of Indiana, and shouted:

"It is just that sort of fool argument that forced Great Britain to hold on to its stock and attempt to drive a hard bargain. The stuff is there today, rotting. You cannot discuss an export question 3,000 miles away. There is no use to try and throw mud when you were not there to know conditions. England lost billions of dollars by listening to that sort of talk—listening to a lot of people who were afraid of muckrakers at home. They are raising the devil in England now because England did not sell its supplies when we sold."

DETAILS OF INDIAN NATIONAL CONGRESS RECEIVED IN U. S.

Text of Resolutions and Addresses
Branch Commissioner of Indian Bureau in New York.

New York, Feb. 3.—Details of the debates in the session of the Indian National Congress held at Nagpur, Central India, in December, have just been received in the mails by the India Reformation Bureau in New York, with the texts of resolutions and addresses, etc., at the congress, which have been briefly referred to in cable advices. Twenty-two thousand delegates from all parts of India, including several thousand women, assembled at the congress, and decided upon an extension of the movement now in progress, including non-payment of taxes as an extreme measure.

One of the resolutions adopted amended the constitution of the congress, so as to secure the attainment of the "swara" (national sovereignty) by all peaceful and legitimate means. A significant omission from the resolution was the clause referring to the use of constitution as methods for the attainment of self-government within the British empire.

Other conferences held at Nagpur took the general attitude expressed by the congress. The All-India Students' Conference passed a resolution in favor of immediate and unconditional boycott of the government and the government-aided schools and colleges. Lalpat Rai presiding at a conference held for the purpose of protecting cattle against slaughter and export, declared that the cattle question could not be settled until national sovereignty was obtained.

The opening speech of the presiding officer of the congress outlined a plan for the immediate boycott of British trade. In order that the ruling power may be gradually exhausted, he advocated a plan by which English planters, merchants, traders and manufacturers in India may be faced with a scarcity of labor. This, he maintained, would produce national strikes of unskilled workmen in the railway, postal and telegraph departments.

OFFICIAL COUNT OF GOVERNMENT CASH COMPLETED TODAY

Total Amount in Treasury Department Amounts to $13,500,000,000 In Cash and Securities

COUNT MADE BY SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF THREE IN PRESENCE OF ARMED MEN

Washington, Feb. 3.—A complete count of the Government's cash has just been made for the first time in twelve years. The total approximated 13 billion, five hundred million dollars and included all cash and securities held as reserves against currency outstanding.

The count was made by a special committee of three assisted by eight accountants and by fifteen laborers who were used to move around the heavy sacks of gold and silver. The haul delved into great vaults in the Treasury building and took stock of gold, silver and paper money and securities many of which had not seen the light of day since shortly after William Howard Taft was inaugurated President and a new treasurer of the United States appointed in 1909.

The accountants entering the vaults passed grimy guards who day and night sit on the lid to prevent any possible attempts at an unauthorized raid on the treasury. The vaults themselves are supposed to be burglar proof and are of massive concrete and steel construction. The storage sections are kept under seal and this was the first time that some of them had been opened in twelve years for when John Burke became treasurer after President Wilson was first inaugurated he accepted the count of cash in the storage sections which had not been opened since the previous count in 1909.

SENATE DEBATES ON TARIFF ISSUES STILL CONTINUES

Closure Motion Finally Voted Down and Republican Unable to Decide Date to Vote

Washington, Feb. 3.—Shoving aside all pending legislation, including a dozen big appropriation bills, the Senate today voted to continue consideration of the Fordney emergency tariff bill. The gates were opened wide for a flood of oratory when a petition for the use of cloture in the tariff debate was voted down 36 to 35, mustering a majority.

In a session marked by political jockeying, debate consisted of short but heated speeches. Attempts were made by each side to lead the other into pitfalls. Republican leaders sought to avoid cloture, but the Democrats challenged that it be brought in and then marshalled their forces, defeating it. Minority members then sought a unanimous consent agreement fixing a date for a vote on the tariff only to have one of their own ranks enter objection.

As it now stands the emergency tariff measure has precedence over all business except during the "morning hours" of session from 12 to 2 o'clock. There were hints thrown out, however that the end was not yet and that demand for displacement of the tariff bill by appropriation measures might come at any time or that an attempt to obtain a vote on the bill might be made. Both Senators Penrose of Pennsylvania and McCumber of North Dakota, Republicans, have made it clear that a vote must be had on the legislation, which they claim will save the farmers of the country from bankruptcy.

PROVIDE PLANS TO RECLAIM FORESHORE OF LAKE MICHIGAN

Reports of District War Department Says 100 Square Miles of Land Would be for Warves

CHICAGO DISTRICT WOULD BE GREATLY BENEFITED BY PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Reclamation of the foreshore on Lake Michigan in the Chicago district would provide nearly 100 square miles of land for wharves, warehouses and ports facilities, according to a report submitted to city officials by Col. W. V. Judson, District War Department Engineer.

The report calls attention to the fact that ocean liners may dock at fifteen years if the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence River channel project is carried out. Such an outlet to the Atlantic routes of the world. The coal mines of Illinois and the cotton belt of the south will feel the touch of Chicago commercial endeavor through an eight foot barge channel to the Mississippi. Never before did it seem as fair to point out in prophecy a region where must in evitably and soon be established the world's greatest port facilities, the report says.

The foreshore of Lake Michigan from the Chicago slopes very gently Lakeward, the report continues so that the seven fathom contour is four miles off shore. This means that in no summer and winter all publicly, the Chicago district possesses nearly a hundred square miles any part of which it is within the power of man to raise into land. This is an asset of almost incalculable value.

Reviewing the sections of Chicago's lake front, Col. Judson points out that Lake Wolf and George lie close to Lake Michigan.

PERSHING WARNS AMERICAN PEOPLE AGAINST PACIFISM

Congress Discuss Disarmament but Goes Ahead With Large Appropriation Measures

Washington, Feb. 3.—Congress Disarmament with consideration of large appropriations for the army and navy and incidentally received the views of President-elect Harding on the national future military policy.

Chairman Kahn of the Military committee told the house today in debate of the annual military appropriation bill that he had been informed by Mr. Harding at a recent conference at Marion that the President-elect favored a regular army of 175,000 men for the present and also legislation providing for the voluntary military training of 150,000 men annually.

Before the house met its naval committee received from General Pershing a warning against fostering a National spirit of pacifism and unpreparedness.

This warning tempered the General's approval of a world disarmament conference and was accompanied by a declaration that until all the world powers had agreed on a disarmament policy it would be unwise and unsafe for the United States to discontinue carrying out its army and navy policies.

Preceding debate on the army bill the House received from the appropriations committee the annual navy bill with its provisions for continuing work on 17 super-dreadnaughts and battle cruisers and other craft. At the same time Senator Gerry, of Rhode Island, a Democratic member of the Naval committee, broke into the tariff debate to oppose Senator Borah's resolution to halt work on these ships for six months while experts decide what type of craft was the best in the light of lessons learned from the world war.

SHORTAGE OF COAL DRIVES POOR CLASS TO STEAL SUPPLIES

Situation in Budapest Assumes Serious Proportions, Causing Wholesale Thievery.

Budapest, Feb. 3.—Many of the poor people of this city are being driven to wholesale thievery by the fuel shortage. The recent theft of 25 carloads of wood from one train of 100 carloads as it entered the city shows the extent to which the stealing is going on.

Wood is so scarce that when a kagon load is driven through the streets people stop and gaze after it until it is out of sight.

During small boys are ever on the alert for a stray piece of wood or anything that will give heat at home. They scamper after every passing wood wagon but are soon frightened away by long whips in the hands of two women who sit on guard astride the load.

The operation of unloading a ton of Hungary's inferior brown coal before a house attracts many neighbors who make a pathetic picture as they watch basketful after basketful disappear into the coal bin of the more fortunate one.

Because of the urgency to obtain fuel by dishonest means, if honest ones are of no avail, the juvenile courts were never so crowded with youthful offenders.

The scarcity of fuel arose more acute daily as winter advances. The street railway service has been sharply curtailed and people wait for hours exposed to the bitter cold. The worst operated American street car never tolerated such crowding.

Gas factories are provided with coal for only 24 hours at a time and the gas is turned on now only at noon and after 6 o'clock. Only one light is permitted in a room and not more than three rooms in a house or single apartment may be lighted at the same time. Even at the most expensive hotels there is no running hot water. Saturday is bathing day. On other days baths can only be had at the public baths for which Budapest is famous.

BANDITS ROB BANK AND

O. C. L. RAILROAD STATION

Largo, Fla., Feb. 3.—Thirty thousand dollars from the State bank here, and several hundred dollars from Atlantic Coast Line station, were taken this morning by bandits who escaped in an automobile. Two men held the cashier at point of guns while companions blew the safe and looted the vault. All wires coming into town were cut previous to the hold-up.

SENATE DEFEATS SALARY INCREASE IN LONG DEBATE

Bill for Relief of Stage Officers Will Come up Later for Consideration During the Day

BILL TO PASS HOUSE AFTER STIFF FIGHT

Another Day's Argument Over Medical Practice Act Seems Unavailable for Present

The Senate yesterday after a strenuous debate voted down the bill carrying increased salaries for heads of departments and judges, by a vote of 21 to 20. Senator Taylor, who was chairman of the Committee on Salaries and Fees, was in charge of the bill changed his vote from aye to no and lodged a motion to reconsider which will be acted upon today.

The Senator later expressed confidence that the Senate will reconsider its action and pass the bill, stating that a number of Senators who were not present yesterday are expected to vote for reconsideration. In any event the proposition to increase salaries of the judges seems sure of favorable consideration at the hands of the Senate. The entire minority strength was cast against the measure yesterday but three of the Republican Senators, Ramsey, Rayner, and Byrd, stated that they would vote for the bill if it affected judges only. Senators Burgwyn, McCain and Brassfield expressed similar views.

The debate yesterday was confined almost entirely to friends of the measure, Senators Taylor, Verser and Long of Alliance, author of the measure, speaking at length in its behalf. Senators Dunlap, and Bumgarner were the only ones to make formal speeches against the measure, but a number of Senators took occasion to explain their votes, stating that they were bound by the wishes of their constituents.

The Record vote follows: Ayes—Brown, Burgwyn, of New Hanover, Carpenter, DeLaney, Erwin, Gallert, Griffin, Hamilton, Hartell, Long, of Alliance, Long, of Halifax, McCulloch, Mendenhall, Nash, Oates, Sams-Varner, Walker and Woodson—19.

Noes—Blue, Brassfield, Burgwyn, of Northampton, Byrd, Carlton, Cox, Dewar, Dunlap, Hargett, Jones, of Edgecombe, Jones, of Stokes, Kanipe, Lambeth, McCain, Patton Rayner, Rheinhardt, Stubbs, Taylor and Williams—22. No voting—Kinsland, McGowan, McKinnon, Outlaw, Robinson, Scott and Swain—7.

Paried—Cameron (for) with Wimburne (against)—2.

The only other impending storm was averted by the temporary absence of Senator Burgwyn of Northampton. The Senator's bill for the straight out abolition of the office of Superintendent of Public Welfare in Northampton county came up with a favorable report from the committee on Propositions and Grievances and passed its second reading. Senator Delaney rose to speak in opposition to the bill but when reminded of the absence of the Senator from Northampton contented himself with objecting to the third reading of the bill. Senator Burgwyn later had the measure made a special order to be taken up immediately after the morning hour today.

Thursday, February 3, 1921.

Mrs. Harding has succeeded in purchasing clothes to wear after she becomes mistress of the White House. If time means anything to selections, she certainly has something gorgeous.

It is quite probable every member of the legislature thinks he is earning his four dollars a day. No doubt many are, but there are numbers who may be listed among the doubtful.

Reports from Florida say Harding has proven himself an excellent fisherman. That's good. He will certainly need his experience for landing "suckers" after returning to Washington.

The tariff bill continues to meet with disfavor in the senate, and it really looks as if it might be defeated. That's the way all unnecessary measures go, and in this instance it is very appropriate.

The fall of the Lenin-Trotsky regime is imminent, according to authority in this country. That may be, but similar reports have been circulated so much recently that people are still doubtful enough to believe bolshevism will have another skirmish before the fall becomes evident.

Immediately after his inauguration President-elect Harding will call for a special session of congress to confirm some of his nominations. It would not be surprising if he didn't call for many other "special" sessions before the year is over.

All members of the United States Shipping Board are going to retire after March. They can't be blamed after making such a complete farce out of the charges against Schwab.

Private detectives were responsible for bomb outrages in this country, according to information given out by a prominent New York attorney. The outrages, however, were mild to what they would have been if the plain clothes men hadn't been on the job. The very idea that they were responsible for disturbances is an plausible as some important labor party promoting bolshevism.

There are thirteen million people on the verge of starvation in Russia, fifteen millions in China and about four millions in Central Europe. Pleas for funds to provide for the suffering people have been issued by committees in this country for the past several weeks, but so far only a few sections have raised their apportionments. The demand should be one of the most appealing since ending of the war, for among the millions in distress there are some over four million children unable to take care of themselves until the next harvest season, and many of them too small to do anything at all in their own interest. American people should give freely. The world should go to work and raise the greatest harvest in years in order to provide for starving areas. There is no fear about over-planting of food crops. The demand is sure, and it is difficult to see just how the situation may be met. Relief is absolutely necessary, and the planter who over-plants along other lines will be doing civilization an injustice. Conditions demand careful consideration of everyone and if you neglect to do your duty the starving areas will have been grossly neglected.

Law enforcement with special reference to liquor traffic will be taken at a conference of leading North Carolina citizens, prohibition agents and county officers which opened in Greensboro yesterday. The question is of sufficient importance just at this time to afford lively discussion, and the conference should be able to outline plans for an effective campaign against violations of the law. Criminality has increased to alarming proportions in many parts of the State from an extensive whiskey traffic, and unless the situation is taken in hand the outcome is inconceivable just at this time. District conferences might bring about a direct improvement, and this fact should be considered earnestly by members in Greensboro.

A big road meeting is being planned for the State, according to advices received from the capital city. That's just the kind of meeting the State has needed for several months, and the sooner it is held the better off people will be. The road issue is one of the most important before the people just at this time, and will demand much thought and consideration. Pitt county, like many other sections, is badly in need of improvements and if the meeting is to affect 'em all, then it is certain delegations will be large and numerous.

The price of fertilizer is another good argument in favor of reduced acreage this year, especially in tobacco growing areas. Prices at this time look several times larger than ever to the planter who failed to raise good tobacco and didn't even get cost of production out of his crop. The situation is not altogether pleasing, but it may have a tendency of making the farmer realize that it is better to plant less and produce a better crop than to plant the usual acreage and not receive cost of production. The few acres planted may be well fertilized at practically half cost, labor will be considerably better, prices better, and at the end of the season, conditions will have been improved considerably. Curtailed crops is the only way to make this possible, and the farmer who fails to do so is not treating his community right.

After his long outdoor trip President-elect Harding will no doubt begin his new work at the White House with unusual zeal, much revived from various sources of diversion. He has a long trip before him in handling government affairs and it will be entirely different from golfing, fishing and other forms of sport indulged in while away. The game is one that has made many strong men weak and weak men strong at times, and requires patience, endurance and impartiality, regardless of political affiliation. The country is expectantly waiting to see the first move of the new executive, and after that his fate will be an open book to everyone.

Bonuses for increased production have caused British miners to smash all former records, according to information reaching this country. American miners might have done the same thing several months ago, and for the simple fact they would not it is quite probable they may be faced by an inevitable wage reduction much sooner than anticipated. Prices for coal have been tumbling in a pleasing way for the past several days, and local dealers it is pleasing to observe, have met the situation in a satisfactory manner. Prices are still much higher than they should be, but before the year is over readjustment will effect many changes the public has been desirous of so long.
