PRISONER FOILED IN PLOT TO BREAK JAIL IN THIS CITY

Sheriff Dudley Relieves Prisoner of Hack Saw, Nine Blades and Large Pocket Knife Who Planned Escape

A plot which doubtless would have resulted in the liberation of practically every prisoner confined in the county jail in this city was nipped in the bud at an early hour last night when Sheriff Dudley and Guy Caton relieved a prisoner by the name of Leslie Smith of a large hack saw, nine blades and a large pocket knife which had been filed down until it contained teeth equally as large and strong as an ordinary saw. The discovery was made shortly before ten o'clock when Sheriff Dudley happened to be at the jail and overheard Smith outlining his plans for escape with another prisoner who has been confined in the jail for some time.

Sheriff Dudley this morning declared if the man had not been apprehended at the time it would have been possible for them to liberate every prisoner in the white compartment. It is not known how Smith became in possession of the hack saw and blades, but it is believed some outsider slipped them through the bars while officers were away. The saw was of a splendid type and would easily enable the men to saw through a window in the course of a few moments, and then do away with bars to other cells in an effort to free anyone desired.

Smith, who is an Irish deserter from the navy, was arrested several days ago on numerous charges ranging from larceny to vagrancy and immediately sentenced to jail. He became a pretty good friend with another prisoner in a nearby cell who is serving a sentence on similar charges, and between them many plots have been formulated for escape. Sheriff Dudley became suspicious of their action for the past few days, and getting wind that something extra was on foot last night, secured the services of Guy Caton, hid in the jail and waited for developments.

Smith got in touch with his confederate and began confiding to him. They talked in an undertone, but by creeping nearer the officers succeeded in hearing the major part of the conversation. They immediately entered Smith's cell and after short search located the instruments that would have brought about the wholesale escape of virtually all white prisoners. The plotters were downcast at being deprived of the precious way to liberty, but failed to divulge how they came into their possession.

If this plot had not been frustrated in time it would have resulted in the escape of the third prisoner within the last year and a half. Formerly, however, prisoners succeeded in escaping through the main door by skeleton keys. The jail is located in such a public place and is so close to the street that anyone could easily throw anything through the bars to prisoners, and it is believed this has been accountable for so many escapes.

DR. SMITH PREACHES SPLENDID SERMON IN BAPTIST CHURCH

"Called, But Not Ready", Subject Last Evening; "Love", Subject This Morning

The revival services which have been in progress for the past ten days in the Memorial Baptist church have been attracting wide attention, and although sinners have not been swept into the Kingdom of God, a sthe Christians would like to see, the services have been far reaching and speed sown which will, in the future bring forth a rich harvest. Dr. Smith has preached as perhaps never before and his sermon will linger long in the hearts of his hearers. Last night he preached on the subject, "Called but not ready", taking his text from Matt. 22-14, "For many are called but few are chosen" In developing his sermon Dr. Smith related four instances not parables, in the Bible where Christ called men to follow him, and they refused to do so. The first three were called by Christ personally, and the fourth was called by Him through Paul. The first offered the excuse that he had to bury his father; the second, that he had to bid his family farewell; the third was the rich young man who was told by Christ to go and sell his worldly goods, and follow him. Then because he loved riches more than Christ he turned away sorrowfully. The fourth was Felix, who said to Paul, "Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee". Dr. Smith showed in a clear, concise way, how God calls to men today and how they allow worldly things to stand in the way.

His sermon conveyed an appeal to the sinner not to put Christ off, because God is not mocked, You cannot trifle with God, declared Dr. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery delighted the audience with a solo, the words of which were found on the desk of an infidel who, before his death accepted Christ.

Dr. Smith, took for his subject this morning "The Love of Christ", showing how Christ loves the sinner, as well as the Christian, and how we want man to love each other. His morning talks are delightful and inspiring to his hearers.

Services this evening at 7:45 and again tomorrow morning at 8. The public is cordially invited.

OUTLINES PLAN TO MEET INCREASES IN DEMAND FOR FOOD

Drainage of 70,000,000 Acres of Land Along Coastal Plain Would Open Way for Meeting Future Demands

Wellesley, Mass., Mar. 30.—Drainage of 70,000,000 or 80,000,000 acres in the coastal areas along the gulf and Atlantic seaboard and undrained glacial tracts particularly in Wisconsin Minnesota and Illinois, would be one of the surest ways of providing homes and food for a growing population says Professor Elizabeth F. Fisher of the Department of Geology and Geography of Wellesley College.

The statement of secretary Hoover of the Department of Commerce that this country is apparently about to pass from a food exporting to a food importing nation was quoted by Professor Fisher in addressing students today as indicating the immediate necessity of increasing the yearly production of food in the nation.

This production she asserted, could be increased from one seventh to one sixth by general application of drainage methods such as those started already in Florida and Louisiana. Gulf and coastal states from Texas to Virginia have many millions of acres of such land and farther north lie other millions of swamp acres in New England and the Middle West where soil of extraordinary fertility could be uncovered at a cost less than that of irrigation in the far west, Miss Fisher said.

Unfortunately she continued, little of this country's work of reclamation can be undertaken by states, as 90 percent of the wet lands in the country are owned privately.

TUNSTALL'S SALE TO BEGIN IN THIS CITY NEXT FRIDAY

Sale to Be Conducted by Ray Erb and Promises to be Biggest Event in Many Months

The Tunstall store which is Greenville's finest ladies Ready-to-Wear store will be closed today and tomorrow in order to mark down the prices. Ray Erb of Minneapolis Minn., will conduct this sale and he represents the largest sales organization in the world. After 2 days of hard work the store will open its doors to the public Friday April 1st at 9 a. m.

There will be hundreds of free prizes thrown from the roof 15 minutes before opening.

There will be ladies' wear, jewelry live chickens and many other prizes. To the first 25 fortunate enough to gain entrance when the doors open will receive a check for $1 worth, free absolutely no need to buy to get it either.

This is looked forward to and will prove of interest and is a new novel idea.

Mr. Ray Erb has conducted the largest sales in the United States and has just finished three of the greatest sales ever held in Washington.

Mr. Erb says that he deserves no credit for this but that when he gets a sale he makes the prices so low, that it is impossible for folks not to buy.

This makes it interesting as with this promise (the lowest prices ever offered in Greenville) it will be possible to buy the finest ladies wearing apparel at less than pre-war prices.

This is the first sale ever made by Mr. Claude Tunstall in his whole business life and folks can readily believe, and look forward to real bargains.

The store is full of new spring stock but Mr. Erb says it must go, its the money he is after and if low prices mean anything then they sure will go. See ads in today's paper.

RUSSIANS BADLY IN NEED OF FOOD AND OTHER THINGS

Peasants South of Moscow Gladly Sell a Horse for Three Boxes of Matches or Box of Salt

Stockholm, Mar. 30.—Russian peasants south of Moscow gladly sell a horse for three boxes of matches or a kilo of salt. It is declared by persons said to be in touch with conditions in the interior country.

Observers cite this state of affairs as the cause of the counter-revolution in Russia, which they say began to take definite form in January. Unwieldiness of the Soviet administrative machine, the difference among the Bolshevik leaders and the fuel crisis with consequent stoppage of transportation and lack of food are given as the reasons for the subversive movement.

Discontent which was prevalent throughout Russia during the war period, but concealed in the presence of the invading enemy, could no longer be repressed when the fighting men returned home to find want and distress.

The first sign of revolt against the existing order are said to have been apparent at the Russian trades-union congress in Moscow last November. There were further evidences of dissatisfaction in the eighth All-Russian Soviet congress which convened in splendor at Moscow last December. These symptoms of reaction, it is stated, were unapparent on the surface, but made themselves felt among those behind the scenes. Harmonious resolutions were adopted, but the attack came from a quarter whose importance could not be doubted.

More recently the press of the country has shown signs of greater freedom and has not hesitated to attack policies of the government which it is said, has entrenched itself by appointing thousands of petty officials.

CHICAGO WOMEN ESTABLISH NEW KIND OF SOCIETY

Women's Christian Temperance Union Formed in Densely Populated Districts of the City Recently

Chicago, Mar. 30.—In the heart of a densely populated foreign district in Chicago, women of the country organized in the W. T. C. U. have recently established a center of the W. T. C. U. Neighbors it is announced by headquarters of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union in Evanston, Ill. This makes the tenth Americanization center of the W. T. C. U. in as many cities.

In addition to regular Americanization work, a sort of social center is conducted here with entertainments and gatherings of various kinds to which people of the neighborhood come the announcement adds. A training school for workers is also held for young women who wish to enter this field of W. C. T. U. activities.

It is more than thirty years since the Woman's Christian Temperance Union began its program of Americanization work, says its national headquarters. Early in its history the temperance leaders began the cultivation of the field offered by foreign people who were even then flocking to the United States. They taught English, particularly to the women, and in every possible way sought to educate in American ways the children in the homes of the foreign born. The spirit of friendliness which has characterized the activities of the Americanization department of the W. C. T. U. is evident in the name which is applied to such Centers today, W. C. T. U. Neighbors.

As a party of the Jubilee program, the work of the five years preceding the one half century anniversary in 1924, the W. C. T. U. has intensified its work in Americanization.

SOCIALIST LEADER FAVORS CAMPAIGN FOR HIS RELEASE

Eugene V. Debs in Recent Interview Commends Action on Part of Members in Trying to Effect Freedom

Chicago, Mar. 0.—The energetic campaign of the Socialist party to secure the unconditional release of Eugene V. Debs and all other political prisoners was sealed with approval by Eugene V. Debs himself in a recent interview with Otto Branstetter, national executive secretary of the Socialist party, in a reception room of the Atlanta penitentiary.

Branstetter was the first outsider to see and speak with Debs since the revocation of prison privileges by the Wilson administration.

The plans for a nation wide petition to be presented to Congress on April 13th and 14th, the second anniversary of the locking up of Debs, the visit of numerous delegations from a large number of cities to Washington on those days, who will seek to interview Attorney General Daugherty and President Harding, and all other means to get the attention of the American people upon the matter of amnesty were discussed by Debs, and fully approved, according to Mr. Branstetter.

Upon one matter alone, that of picketing the White House immediately, was there some question and upon Debs' suggestion, it was decided to hold the matter of picketing in abeyance.

The motto adopted for the amnesty drive is Let's get the mail out, and the determination to work for the release of all political prisoners was emphasized by an incident that Mr. Branstetter learned of in Atlanta. He said that Joseph M. Coldwell, prisoner was twice informed that the Prison parole Board was willing to recommend him for a parole. Coldwell, however, refused to permit them to recommend him for a parole.

While Gene is in he said, I will not voluntarily go out.

Mr. Branstetter said that Mr. Debs looks well, and is in excellent health and good spirits.

Gene was never in the hole said the Socialist, executive nor did he suffer any personal mistreatment.

COPPER STILL AND BLOCKADER TAKEN IN RAIDS MONDAY

County Authorities Also arrest Elijah Mills and Colored Man Connected With the Outfit

The illicit whiskey traffic of this community was given another paralyzing thrust yesterday afternoon when deputies Williams and Corbett succeeded in capturing a hundred gallon copper still and 12 gallons of whiskey in the Galloway's Cross roads district. James McCullom, a negro better known in this section as Stew Beef was also taken with the outfit while the arrest of Elijah Mills white, complicity will probably take place sometime today. Another negro was at the still but succeeded in making his escape, but officers were enabled to identify him and his arrest is expected momentarily.

The still was superior to the usual type employed in the manufacture of contraband whiskey in this part of the state, being complete in every way and showed signs of constant operation. Six hundred gallons of beer about ready for distillation were also destroyed together with several empty barrels which had been run a few hours prior to approach of the officers.

It is quite probably Mills would have been captured at the same time of the negro had he not gotten wind of the officers' presence by that natural instinct of the guilty man. He was approaching the still from home when he happened to glance in the direction and saw that everything wasn't right and beat it in time to prevent immediate arrest. The negro made no attempt to conceal anything. He told that the still belonged to Mills and that he was waiting for him at the time. He implored that Mills not be permitted to come to the still while he was there, because he would kill him for letting the outfit be captured.

This evidence combined with that already in the hands of the officials will no doubt bring about conviction of every party connected with the still, and probably will have a tendency of discouraging the traffic considerably in that part of the county. All three men have been prominently connected with the sale and manufacture of contraband whiskey for several months, and it is expected the courts will deal severely in each case.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZED AT RED OAK CHURCH

(Reported for the Reflector)

On Sunday March the sixth the people in our neighborhood gathered at Red Oak Church four miles from Greenville on the hard surface road for the purpose of organizing a Sunday School. As several denominations were represented we decided to have a Union Sunday School.

Mr. Oscar Parker was elected Superintendent and Mr. R. S. Allen as assistant and Mrs. Leon Tyson as secretary and treasurer. The hour to meet was set at nine thirty.

The following Sunday morning, Mar. 13 we had sixty two present. March the 20 we had seventy nine and on Easter morning we had ninety present. This goes to show what a growing interest the good people of this community are taking in religious affairs.

We have a Bible class composed of 40 grown men and women taught by Mr. Parker—Next comes the Junior class composed of twenty young boys and girls between the ages of ten and sixteen taught by Mrs. Leon Tyson—The intermediate class comes next with ten little boys and girls taught by Miss Ella Moyer. The infant class is taught by Mrs. James Allen. Mr. John R. Allen helps us a great deal by his friendly talks and prayers.

We would be glad to have any visitors who would like to come.

Messrs. R. E. Settle and Dixie McLaw horn, of Ayden, were in the city this morning on business

The Ford Motor Company report slightly above three hundred and eighty four billion dollars. No wonder the little Ford rambles right along.

The new Postmaster General is pretty good on talking postal reforms but whether he is capable of doing more than talking has not yet been ascertain- ed.

Frankling K. Lane thinks this genera- tion is given its ideas on economics through fiction. That may be the case, for it is certain economy is more talk- ed about than practiced.

The Charlotte Observer says the G. O. P. program is a disgrace to North Carolina. Why confine it to the state alone. It might be more appropriate if the entire country is included.

H. W. Newell, of Salisbury, says Re- publicans who do not like to be bossed are speaking against the hog combine favored by Marion Butler and other followers of his type. They can afford to for they got the pie.

The London Daily News agrees with Secretary Hughes that Soviet Russia is a dangerous problem to dally with. If destruction to property and general disorder count for anything they are both right.

The British Labor party has declined to become affiliated with the Soviets of Russia. This is mighty good news, but who thought the British were fool- ish enough to get mixed up in so much discontent. The Soviets figured too far ahead this time.

'Humane Sundays' are being urged by reform- in New York. That may be necessary for that section of the country, but down south here where the old country church is well patro- nized every day of worship people are humane enough not to listen to pranting of the reformers too much.

René Viviani, former premier of France, has come to America to talk over the league of nations with Presi- dent Harding. But before he returns home he may have a faint idea that an association of nations is more ac- ceptable to the present administration than anything else.

A Wilson woman had her home searched by the police to see how much of her hubby's liquor could be found. They report several gallons and a road sentence for poor hubby. If all women felt the same way about prohibi- tion there wouldn't be enough men left out of jail to keep production at nor- mal. Certainly not illicit whiskey pro- duction.

Clean up week ought to be observed by every town and city of the state. There is no place any too clean, and people who see to it that their premises are in better condition than the next door neighbor's are in position to en- joy the summer months without fear of sickness.

Reports from Mexico indicate that the Oregon government is ready to fall. The faith may be placed in such news, for Mexico undergoes so many changes that it's hard to tell when its people are doing the best they can. Oregon is about the best president they have had in sometime, and if his principles are adhered to the country's future is assured.

THE KAISER ON THE WAR

The former kaiser of Germany at- tempts to place the blame of the world war on England. That's what might have been expected from a criminal of his type, but since the public is more familiar with the incident than he evi- dently believes, he will have a difficult job in convincing it that the responsi- bility for the horrible conflict rests upon any other than Germany.

England may have deliberately pre- cipitated the war as the kaiser asserts but if so, she did it with an army and navy so pitifully small that they were greeted derisively by German hordes. But this is not the case by any means. England and France were not prepared for the conflict. They had no intention of declaring war, and what is more would have remained quiet and peace- ful until today if German hordes had not swept down upon Belgium in one supreme moment to conquer the world. This brought about a declara- tion of war on all surrounding coun- tries, and hardly before the world had time realize what happened all Europe was engaged in one of the most bloody and ruthless conflicts in history.

If England had really anticipated war it is reasonable to believe she would have prepared for it by having all Allies in position to present stern resistance. Would not her army have taken the offensive instead of the de- fensive, and would not Germany have been forced to protect its own border instead of battering at the gates of Belgium where thousands of patriots were killed and millions of dollars in property destroyed.

It is indeed singular that the kaiser should make such a statement when he is wanted by practically every nation in the world to answer to a charge of committing one of the greatest crimes against civilization. If he is innocent of the crime, why didn't he go before the tribunal and exonerate himself in- stead of fleeing to Holland for pro- tection. He did so simply because he realizes he is guilty and that his great scheme for world supremacy has failed.

Many opinions have been advanced concerning the war, but this is the first time any individual has had the auda- city to charge any other than the kai- ser with the crime. In fact there is no other to blame. From the very begin- ning he had an irresistible desire to extend his dominion over entire Europe and probably received some inspiration from Theodore Roosevelt, who after viewing the German army in company with the kaiser, declared he could con- quer the world with such an army. Whether that had anything to do with the war is not to be said but in the course of a few years the kaiser tried the experiment had failed because the very country which Roosevelt represent- ed intervened in time to save Europe from German occupation.

It's a bold attempt for the kaiser to present such a charge against Eng- land for his position even at this time in insecure. The Allies haven't forgot- ten the thousands of dead that lie in untimely graves in France and nei- ther has the treaty of peace been made a permanency. It might be to his ad- vantage to remain quiet and in later years try to remove from his shoulders the crime which makes the whole world shudder even at this hour.

Four thousand employees of short line railroads in the Chicago district have asked for an increase in wages, but like all the rest, they'll get just opposite to what they expect. This is no time to even momentarily consider high wages and prices, and if railroad companies haven't sense enough to deal with the situation they ought to go in- to bankruptcy. There's plenty of labor of every description, and it is not like- ly the impending strike will continue for any length of time. Conditions bring about wonderful changes. Last year the workingman could demand and get what ever he desired because of the labor shortage but can't do that now and has to accept what he can get. It's only fair that reductions become effec- tive now. Prices for practically all commodities are declining daily, and the average laborer can live much cheaper than formerly. There's no ar- gument to sustain pleas for higher prices but it seems that stern necessity must force him to recognize the fact.

Dr. William E. Dodd, of the Univer- sity of Chicago in speaking before an audience in Kinston, declared Wood- row Wilson will be a much greater man after he is dead. That may be, but to the thinking people of America to- day, he is just as great as he ever was. The fact that there are a few persons like Secretary Lansing against him doesn't cut any ice with real Ameri- cans. They believe in the true greatness of the former president and realize the time is coming when he will be uni- formly acknowledged the wisest lead- er of them all. It's a pity that even members of his own party should have repudiated him in the last moments of administration. But that doesn't mean anything by any means, as the gen- eral run of the people know that he is vindicated by past great work alone.

OVER 16 MILLION RAISED TO DATE

BAPTIST 75 MILLION CAMPAIGN MAKING GOOD PROGRESS, COMMISSION REPORTS.

CASH ROUND-UP IN SPRING

Effort Will Be Made During March and April to Secure Cash on All Pledges Due to May 1, 1921.

DR. J. B. GAMBRELL, President Southern Baptist Conven- tion, who will tour the South.

Up to December 1, 1920, Southern Baptists had paid $16,851,100.65 in cash on their subscriptions to the 75 Million Campaign, according to an an- nouncement issued by the Conserva- tion Commission, which is looking af- ter all the general interests of the campaign. This sum has been ap- portioned among foreign missions, home missions, state missions, Christ an ed- ucation, hospitals, orphanages and ministerial relief, in accordance with the original campaign program.

While the receipts from the cam- paign have enabled all the agencies of the denomination to greatly enlarge their work the returns have not been as large as the best interests of the work demand, it is said, and the local churches throughout the South are asked to join in a movement to bring up the payments on all subscriptions due by May 1, in order that the dele- gates can go to the Southern Baptist Convention at Chattanooga, May 12, with a clean slate and all the gen- eral work adequately provided for.

Will Hold Day of Prayer.

Inaugurating this spring cash round- up campaign, February 27-March 6 has been designated as intercession week by the Baptist women of the South, while the entire membership of the Baptist churches is asked to join in spending Wednesday, March 2, as a day of prayer for God's blessings and guidance in the further campaign work.

After this special period of prayer the remainder of March will be given over to enlisting all the members of all the Baptist churches in the South in the matter of completing the cam- paign program by paying that por- tion of the subscriptions due by that time, and in bringing the members to see their obligation to support God's work through the dissemination of the doctrine of stewardship. April has been designated as loyalty month and during that time effort will be made throughout the South to bring Ba- ptists to realize that their loyalty to God and His work demands the pay- ment, where at all possible, of their pledges to the campaign.

Southwide Tour is Planned.

In order that the subscribers to the campaign may be fully informed on what has been accomplished with the money they have contributed so far and as to the needs for the comple- tion of the campaign program, a se- ries of informational and inspirational meetings that will reach into every state in the South has been planned for March and April. These meetings will be featured by addresses by Dr. J. B. Gambrell, president of the South- ern Baptist Convention, and Dr. E. Y. Mullins, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, who have just returned from a six months' tour of the mission fields of Europe, and who will tell of conditions they found there; Dr. L. R. Scarborough, general director of the campaign, and other persons of prominence. These meetings will be held at central points in the various states, and from these central meetings associational and dis- trict rallies will be formed in the hope of taking the campaign message to all the people.

Large Relief Work Done.

Secretary Love of the Foreign Mis- sion Board reports that Southern Ba- ptists, within the last few weeks, have contributed $147,284.20 in cash for the relief of suffering peoples in Europe and China, above their campaign con- tributions, and that the Baptist women of the South have contributed $100,000 worth of first-class clothing for the needy families of Hungary.

For Whom Will You VOTE

When you go to vote for the next Mayor of Greenville, I believe that you will vote for the man that you think will make the best Mayor, and the one that most deserves the place. From present indications, the coming mayoralty election will decide by the mass of independent vot- ers, who, uninfluenced by personal friendship or political affiliation, or social ties, will cast their ballot for the man who can fulfill these qualifications.

Why I Ask Your SUPPORT

I ask your support and your vote because I feel that I can serve you better than the other gentlemen who are candidates. I have never been in politics before. Therefore I am a party to no political faction, nor am I "linked up" with any certain group of men, and in the event that I am elected, I will be in a position to serve all with equal justice, whether they be rich or poor, great or small. The best interest of the town will be my guide-post, and toward that I will work, unfettered by prej- udice or partisanship.

I am in favor of rigid economy in the expenditure of public money, to the end that the town's finances may be placed on a sound basis and remain so throughout the year. I believe that public money should be so spent that value shall be received for every dollar, and if elected Mayor it will be my purpose to see that no money is spent unless value is received.

I am unqualifiedly in favor of good schools and good streets. On these questions, and on the question of morality and civic cleanliness, I stand four-square, and pledge myself to them. In the past, as editor of a newspaper and as a citizen, I have fought the liquor traffic, and if elected Mayor, will use every means in my power to curb this evil, and others of kindred nature

The police force and the fire department deserve the support and encouragement of the town, and it will be my earnest purpose to co- operate with them in every way, so that we may build up both to the point where they will be an object of pride to the citizens of the town, and a trained body in time of danger.

I have lived in Greenville all my life, and all my interests are here. Because of my two years service in the army, I have had to build a new my business. I submit that my being in France at the last election, should at least not be a handicap to me when I ask for your support in this campaign. I ask that you give my candidacy fair consideration, ir- respective of the fact that the present incumbent has been in office one term.

My campaign is clean cut. I am asking the honor of being next Mayor, on my own merit. If you think that I will best represent you and the average citizen of the town, then I ask that you make up your mind and vote for me.

Respectfully,

J. C. LANIER

A Riot Of Value Giving That Will Arouse Your Sense Of Economy

I Have A Vital Message For You

"I'm The Man"

Read This!

That has come here to sell this stock, and sell it I will. Nothing can stop me, for I have been given the full power to demonstrate the power of low prices. "Go the limit," I was told; and bare walls and empty shelves will soon leave evidence that I did.

I am going to say to you plainly that high quality and low prices is my only way of appealing to you... Don't buy a nickel's worth at this sale unless you can buy it for less... here than you can buy at any store in the country... It's a bold challenge but I'll make it bolder by saying I'll make such prices that this will be the scene of the greatest bargain feast you ever attended.

Yours for economy,

RAY ERB, Sales Manager

I have been in business here for years and expect to be for years to come. Understand, this is not a closing-out sale, but I have more merchandise than I can carry and manufacturers are calling for cash; to raise this cash quickly, I sent for Mr. Ray Erb, the well known merchandise expert, of Minneapolis, and have given him full authority to go the limit. You have my word that there will be no fake or no bombast here, everything as advertised.

FRANKLY, FOLKS:-

I believe in true value giving, I never knowingly misrepresent or mistake a value. When I state a former price, as in this four-page advertisement, it means that it formerly was sold at that price. I do not exaggerate values. When I offer you an article at a sale price it means that the reduction is genuine and that the original price tag has not been tampered with. This store has built a reputation during the last years on the foundation of honest dealings and the handling of first class goods.

I therefore believe that honesty is the best policy and I am truly going to try and give you the best values you have ever bought in these goods anywhere at any place.

Mr. Claude Tunstall's
STATEMENT TO YOU

Although I was the last one to raise my price—I am going to be the first one to lower them in my line, and in order to do it thoroughly I have engaged Mr. Ray Erb, of Minneapolis, Minn., to inaugurate a sale that will be a revaluation to the merchandise world. Every thing in our store, now full of the best merchandise in the world, will be sold to my customers at startling, amazing unparalleled prices. I would advise you to buy all your purse will afford, for never again will you get another chance like this. This time we are going over the top and real bargains is our means of doing it.

I want you to read every item in this four page advertisement as its of vital importance to you. Everything in our stock will be swept out at prices that will stagger and amaze you, let your eyes be the judge. Come.

COMPTROLLER OF CURRENCY IS OLD DEMOCRAT LEADER

Member of Harding Administration Life-Long Friend of President and Lawyer and Banker Too

Marion, Mar. 29.—The new comptroller of currency in the Harding administration D. R. Crissinger of this city is a life long friend of President Harding and a well known Democrat, lawyer and banker.

Mr. Crissinger, long prominent in the business, financial and legal life of Marion, was born on a farm in Tully township Marion county, December 10, 1860. He was in the public school of Caledonia, Marion county.

He was graduated from Buchtel college at Akron, where he took the honors of his class. Subsequently he was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School and then entered into a law partnership with Judge William Z. Davis here under the firm name of Davis and Crissinger.

Early in life Mr. Crissinger entered politics and was elected prosecuting attorney on the Democratic ticket in 1888 and was reelected in 1893 and 1895. He was the Democratic nominee for Congress in 1904 and 1906.

President Harding and Mr. Crissinger have been close friends since boyhood and Mr. Crissinger took an active interest in the campaign of Mr. Harding for the presidency, both before and after his nomination, which was organized shortly after the nomination last June. He is president of the Marion Civic association, which was organized shortly after the nomination for the entertainment of visitors to Marion during the campaign and delivered the address of welcome to the homecoming exercises when Mr. Harding returned to Marion from Washington after the nomination.

NO MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED HERE MONDAY

Another slump hit the office of the register of deeds yesterday, and consequently not a single applicant for marriage license appeared during the entire day. This was viewed with considerable concern by members of the office, as it was not expected that business would experience a set back quite so soon after the unusual demand last Saturday. It is very probable, however, that today will make up for yesterday's depression as marriage licenses are invariably always in demand regardless of state, national or world conditions.

HOSTILITIES WITH COSTA RICA BROKE AT RIGHT MOMENT

Question of Border Right Precipitated At Time in Favor of Administration of President Porras

Panama, Mar. 29.—The hostilities with Costa Rica over disputed border territory, which began last month and evoked an admonition from the United States government, broke just at the right moment for the administration of President Belisario Porras to attempt to utilize them in its campaign to assure the isthmian republic the right to conduct its affairs without foreign interference. A national spirit has been developing in Panama since November 3, 1903 when for the fifth and last time, Panama declared her independence. It was hardly perceptible during the first decade of the republic's existence, but in his New Year's message of January 1, 1921, President Porras gave utterance to the belief of his administration that the time was ripe for Panama to stand alone.

Protests to the State Department at Washington over the taking over of land by the American government for canal defense purposes was the first step in the independence program. The Porras administration asserted that the occupation of territory under the Hay-Varela treaty should be consummated through regular diplomatic channels and that, if the United States government continued its present policy to its logical conclusion, it could swallow the entire republic without pausing to notify the victim.

These protests, aimed at the utilization of points on Taboga Island, on the Pacific side and on the Bahia de las Minas, on the Caribbean shore, were almost simultaneous with a protest against a written opinion by Judge John W. Hanan of the United States district court of the Canal Zone in which the court stated Panama occupied the position of a protectorate of the United States. President Porras declared that counted upon the support of Latin-American republics in this protest.

AMERICAN LEGION MINISTREL TO BE HERE ON APRIL 6

Kinston Post to Visit City and Present Show at White's Theatre For One Night Only

Dr. Chas. O'H. Laughinghouse, Greenville, N. C., Dear Sir:-

On Wednesday April 6th the American Legion Minstrels, organized and staged by the Kinston Post, will show at White's Theatre, Greenville, N. C. as a local talent production it will stand second to none.

As a Legion member we are asking you to give us support and help in any way you can.

The profits from the show will go to a worthy cause. Our post has been assigned a ward of T. B. patients in the Oteen Hospital and we are expected to furnish these little sick boys with the little things of life that will make time pass more pleasantly. Games of different kinds, Victrola records, little articles of wearing apparel, books and magazines, fruits, nuts, cakes and many other things to make the weary hours of these unfortunate boys go by quicker and easier will be provided. We do not intend to go out and pass the hat to get money to provide the nicer things of life for these boys who have sacrificed their health—many of them as you know will never be cured—for their country. We want the boys in our ward to know that we fellows down here have gone out and worked a few days for them with the proceeds of our labor we have been enabled to send them the things they need. We want to send them comradeship, not charity.
