BAPTIST REVIVAL SERVICES BROUGHT TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Baptismal Services Last Night Mark Close of Campaign Filled With More Than General Interest

The revival services which have been in progress in the Memorial Baptist church for the past two weeks came to a close yesterday with two strong sermons by the pastor, and with the baptism of six young converts. The services have been a great blessing to our city and although a great number of new members were not added to the church, the Rev. Mr. Smith preached splendid sermons which will long continue to bear fruit. The members of the Memorial Baptist, as well as members of the other churches were strengthened both in faith and love for Christ.

Mr. Smith's sermons yesterday were perhaps two of the strongest of the entire series, and both conveyed an appeal to the sinners to accept Christ. The morning subject was, "Jesus and Judas" or The last appeal to the Ungodly, from the text, Matt. 26-24 "The Son of Man goeth as it is written of him, woe unto that man by whom the son of man is betrayed." Mr. Smith related the account of Judas going with Christ, the supper, Christ's last appeal to him and the warning of the text. His subject was divided into the following parts: Judas' opportunity, his responsibility, his crime, the motive and end. In developing the opportunity of Judas the speaker showed the non-professing Christians that their opportunities were even greater than those of Judas, and that they were no better than Judas, in that they had such wonderful opportunities to be saved and then refused. Judas was not forced to betray Christ because it was written that Christ should pass that way. He was responsible for his crime, and could have turned before it was too late. The crime, that of selling Jesus for thirty pieces of silver, was committed and his end was horrible, in that he turned a coward and hanged himself. He would not repent.

The evening sermon was an admonition to those unsaved, showing them that sin would receive its reward. No one can stand before God, in the great judgment and say that they do not deserve the verdict which is pronounced. God knows every heart, every thought, and every act. No one can say that they had no way of escape because when Jesus Christ died on the cross, He gave every sinner a way of escape. No one could say that they were not warned, because God warned them thru his ministers and the Bible.

The singing through out the revival has been under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery of Williamston, S. C. They both possess wonderful voices and have rendered invaluable service both in the singing and in doing personal work.

The choir has also added to the song service.

PROPERTY VALUE TO BE CONSIDERED BY BOARD TODAY

County Commissioners Take Up Reassessment Question and Sale of Road Bonds This Afternoon

Several important issues are to be taken up for consideration at the regular monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners which convened here this morning with practically every member present. The entire morning hours will be consumed in regular routine, but during the afternoon bids for the disposition of $500,000 in bonds for completion of hard surfaced roads now under construction will be received.

Probably the most important question to be taken up late this afternoon is that involving the reassessment of property. At the last meeting of the General Assembly provisions were made for consideration of this problem today in every county of the state, and as much interest has been centered around the issue the commission rooms were crowded with representative citizens from many parts of the county to present petitions requesting a change in property valuation, especially that valued higher than it is worth.

To meet this situation the commissioners have been empowered to appoint a Board of Reviews, consisting of three members to take the matter under consideration and make whatever corrections and changes deemed advisable. The board of county assessors composed of B. F. Manning, D. M. Whitehurst and T. R. Moore is to act under directions of the Board of Reviews and to go over all complaints and former appraisals to the satisfaction of parties involved.

Considerable time will be required to hear the petitions, and it will probably be late in the afternoon before the commissioners finally determine the most definite way to meet the situation. The sale of bonds and this matter are two of the most important that have been handled by the commissioners in sometime, and consequently it is expected the hearings will be long and tedious. A detailed report of the meeting which was not available at press time this afternoon will be carried in the columns of this paper tomorrow.

CHINA IS MAKING DESPERATE EFFORT TO FEED STARVING

Never Before has the Nation Been Faced by Such Deplorable Conditions As Prevail Today

Peking, China, April 4.—Never before have the Chinese people and their government made greater efforts to meet a national disaster than they are now making to feed the hungry of the famine stricken districts say observers here.

When relief measures began, President Hsu Shih-chang gave the first big impetus to Chinese relief measures with a contribution of $100,000 and he has given $30,000 to the national relief drive which has raised several hundred thousand dollars. The President's wife is a contributor to many funds.

Chinese students and numerous organizations of farmers, business men of works in various industries have contributed their efforts to aid this drive.

Chinese civil employes are giving 20 percent of their salaries. Taxes on railway tickets yield a large sum monthly, all devoted to famine relief. The government is now collecting $750,000 monthly by means of a sur-tax.

Chinese provincial and city governments in the region south of the famine area are providing work for the starving.

The central government is building a highway 80 miles long in Shantung and all victims in that district are given employment.

Towns and villages in every part of Manchuria have organized relief committees, and fund of $200,000 has been taken over by the Manchurians in the famine area has been taken over by the Manchurians for care until the next harvest.

The Chinese government is guaranteeing free transportation of supplies and relief workers, with priority to rail grain shipments for the famine sufferers.

GREAT INTEREST CENTERED AROUND BAPTIST REVIVAL

Large Crowds Attend Opening of Immanuel Baptist Revival in This City Yesterday

The revival of the Immanuel Baptist church began yesterday. Large crowds attended both services. The pastor preached, Dr. Vines not being able to reach Greenville before this afternoon. The theme at the morning hour was, "The Chief Heritage of the Christian," The privilege of bringing men to Christ is the heritage. Angels said the speaker, have not this privilege. Only the man who loves Jesus and tries to follow him can be successful in putting souls in contact with God. There were two additions at this hour.

At night the topic was, "Are You Sure of Your Conversion." The sermon was based on several Bible passages which had been distributed among the congregation and were called at the proper time. The speaker gave evidence of one's conversion, but at the bottom, he said, is belief. It is folly to say it doesn't matter what a man believes just so he does right. Doing right and believing wrong are two diametrically opposing things.

Dr. Vines preaches tonight. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

ROCKEFELLER TO GIVE PROHIBITION UNTIRING SUPPORT

Pledge to Yonkers Plan for Financial Support Announced in New York District Today

Cornwall, N. Y. April 4.—Pledges of financial support of the Yonkers Plan of enforcing the National prohibition amendment were announced here tonight by William H. Anderson, head of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, at the annual state conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Mr. Anderson, in the course of an address in which he formally opened the campaign of the Allied Citizens of America to nationalize the method of law enforcement which has given Yonkers wide publicity, declared that in New York alone 200,000 persons are back of the movement to introduce it into other states.

Explaining that the Allied Citizens of America was incorporated two years ago, to uphold American ideals and the United States Constitution and particularly the 18th Amendment, Mr. Anderson declared that its purpose is to put into operation all over the United States the successful experiment in practical civics, which he said, had been made Yonkers, his home city. In telling of its results he said:

There have been raids, arrests, seizures of large quantities of liquor, expulsion from the police force for connivance with violators, indictments, convictions, fines, and prison sentences. City officials no longer are indifferent or defiant and there has been created tangible majority sentiment for law observance. New York pays $50,000,000 a year for law enforcement and the Allied Citizens of Yonkers have merely insisted that its police and civic authorities shall earn their salaries. The situation is far from perfect but there is motion and in the right direction.

RECENT ABOLITION OF FOOD MINISTRY CHANGES FINANCES

Enormous Amount of Money Turned Over to Government Through Operations of Business

London, April 4.—The abolition of the British Food Ministry during and since the war involved a turnover of more than $1,000,000,000 and the Ministry's net profit on it amounted to less than one tenth of one percent. These facts are announced to Food Controller McCurdy in a valedictory address recently in which he said that for the last six months he had been engaged in liquidating this, as he described it the world's greatest, trade corporation.

Mr. McCurdy said that the Ministry's operation had cost the taxpayers nothing and that the successful food ministers had substantially avoided making a profit at the expense of the consumer.

The Controller said that it had become possible to wind up the affairs of the Food Ministry because of the welcome break in the world's prices of food.

In removing control and restoring every evidence that food prices would freedom to the people, he said, he had continue to fall in Great Britain during the coming spring and summer and that better times were in store for the much harassed housewife.

DECLARES TOWN SHOULD SUPPORT ANTI-FLY DRIVE

Secretary of Chamber of Commerce Declares City's Future to be Determined by General Sanitation

(By H. L. Smith, Secretary, Chamber of Commerce)

The time is upon us when it behooves every public-spirited citizen to look carefully into the health condition of his city or community. No municipality or home is safe so long as the laws of health and sanitation are openly violated.

Confidence is with us that the fires of patriotism and civic pride burns fervently within the hearts of the citizens of Greenville as can be found anywhere. The time is now here for our people to show their colors.

Greenville's future growth, in a very large measure, will be determined by the interest she takes in general sanitation. People who are seeking new locations almost invariably investigate health conditions, and all things being equal, select the city with the best record. Therefore if we wish to attract prospective home seekers we must be able to show where in Greenville's health record is as good as the best, otherwise our progress will not measure up to our expectations. This is a period when communities cannot afford not to be on the alert, as those who are visioned possessed will win the race.

It is now time to act in behalf of the Anti-Fly Campaign. In order to secure the results desired it will be necessary that the citizens of our fair city act co-operatively. Every man and woman, boy and girl can have a part in this movement. Will you do your part?

Every home owner in the city should look well to his surroundings and destroy every breeding place for flies. Breeding places must be thoroughly destroyed or else our efforts will not accomplish much.

Again every home in the city should be screened against this enemy of health. By the proper screening of our homes creditable progress can be made toward a flyless city.

Again go to the hardware stores and supply yourself with fly swatters and make the slogan Swat the Fly a real one.

The pamphlets and literature which you will receive will explain the importance of the Anti-Fly Campaign, and it is expected of every one to do his part.

MANY PROBLEMS TAKEN UP HERE BY AGRICULTURISTS

Control of Hog Cholera and Other Questions Discussed by County Board of Agriculturists

A number of matters of vital interest to the agricultural development of the county were taken up at the semi-monthly meeting of the Pitt county Board of Agriculture conducted in the office of W. B. Pace this morning. A majority of the members were present and entered actively into discussion of problems confronting the farmer at the present time.

Probably the most important matter considered this morning was that of hog cholera control. It is estimated that approximately $100,000 worth of hogs die annually in this county which could have been prevented by inoculations, and the board purposes to begin an active campaign immediately for acquainting the farmer with the most definite way of preventing the disease. Efforts will be made to secure the services of Dr. Owens, who is in charge of cholera control in this state, for a period of two weeks in which time every important community will be visited. Farmers in each of these communities will be permitted to send a representative to Raleigh to study the work, and after that time instruct the farmers in remote districts who it is almost impossible for the county agent to reach.

Another question of considerable interest was that of sweet potato storage warehouses. Two members of the board stated that they intend to erect two such warehouses during the summer months and be ready to preserve the crop immediately after it is harvested. Planters in every community will be urged to do like wise, and it is expected the fall will find many such buildings already erected or under the course of construction. Community fairs were discussed at length, and as a result it is quite probable such attractions will be staged in six communities prior to the opening of the county fair to be held in this city the first week in October. Practically every member of the board believed such fairs will stimulate greater interest in crop production and create friendly rivalry that should be of great benefit to every section of the county.

The necessity of planting greater crops of clover so as to enrich the soil was also discussed in an interesting way and it was deemed advisable to promote such crops in every farming district possible. The corn crop will also be championed by immediate members of the board, and as a result it is expected both crops will be grown extensively this year and in years to come.

A barbecue dinner will be tendered members of the board, Dr. Kilgore and agricultural representatives from Raleigh by Mr. O. L. Joyner May 2. The dinner will be served at his farm, a few miles from this city at which time many problems of present interest to the farmer will be discussed intensively.

The meeting this morning was one of the most interesting since formation of the board several weeks ago, and indicates more than ever that the institution is going to prove of invaluable assistance in the agricultural development of the county.

MR. J. C. OATS HOLDS TRAINING SCHOOL SERVICES

Mr. J. C. Oats conducted the Vesper services of the Y. W. C. A. at the Training school, Sunday. His text, "Service," centered around two ideas. Service to God and service to mankind.

Through illustrations Mr. Oats brought out that service to God can be rendered through consecrated Christian life and through Friday school work in compensation for every service rendered to God, there is a sense of satisfaction in one's life.

Monday Afternoon, April 4, 1921

The cooperative marketing association is being greeted with general favor in many parts of the state, particularly in the eastern section where cotton and tobacco is grown more extensively than any part of the country. The past has proved beyond doubt that the old way of dumping products on the market is not going to prove effective in the future. The new plan has been tried out successfully in many other sections of the country and proved conclusively that is it a paying proposition. There is no doubt but that it would be equally as beneficial locally, and the farmer that remains on the outside is doing his community an injustice.

In order to learn at first hand employment problems confronting his city the mayor of Boston spent a night in the Wayfayer's Lodge. He witnessed a situation that was anything but pleasing, but like all large cities, Chicago is at this time hard pressed in providing for its destitute and jobless. The unemployment situation is becoming rather accentuated in practically every city.
It seems to be more decidedly acute That's because so many people moved from the farm to the city during the inflation period and find themselves unable to meet the change brought on by adverse conditions. The farm is beginning to become more inducing than ever now, and before the year is over the grower will have all the help that could be desired.

WOMEN AND POLITICS

Now that the women have something to say about the government of their respective cities it is natural to expect that lively scenes will feature the usual municipal election occurring in the spring.
The general run of have more constructive form of government, but they are so far undecided which way to start about getting it. They viewed the ordinary politician without contempt and aversion several years ago, but now that they have a permanent say in politics it is likely this opinion may be changed considerably.

There are many things connected with the government of every town requiring greater consideration than the ordinary observer thinks, and not until they have some important issue brought to their attention do they even momentarily realize what running a municipality's affairs involves. This is a great era in development just at this time, and it is probable the influence of the woman voter is going to be instrumental in solving problems for the betterment of their respective communities. That there is plenty of room for improvement politically and socially is unquestionable, and if the uplifting spirit of woman hood cannot better conditions then it is high time for people to wake up and take careful survey of the environments.

It is not absolutely imperative that women hold some public office to do their part in creating improved moral conditions. This may be accomplished directly through women's clubs at the polls where the most fitting candidate may be elected to carry out their ideas of government. The day has come for this great period of rejuvenation which the world has been anticipating for years and years, and it is to be hoped that now they have been given the prerogative of voting they will use every influence to do away with every demoralizing influence in social and business life. They can do it if they

ASSEMBLY OPENS ANNUAL SESSIONS IN CHINA SECTION

Constituent Assembly Representing People of Siberia Plans to Discuss Great Problems

Peking, April 4.—A constituent assembly purporting to represent the people of Siberia east of Lake Baikal, has just opened its sessions in China seat of the government of the Far Eastern republic. Sixty percent of the delegates are communists. The next strongest element is the peasant.

According to a statement of the election committee, says the Delta News agency, there are in attendance as deputies 256 Great Russians, 23 Little Russians or Ukrainians, one Pole, five Jews, three Lithuanians, one Esthonian, six Buriats and five naturalized Koreans.

Describing the educational qualifications of the members the agency analyzes them as follow. Sixteen college graduates, nine under-graduates, 69 middle-school graduates, 15 undergraduates, 69 municipal school graduates and 84 self-educated.

There was one woman delegate elected by the Diagovestchensk Trade Unions and several so called reactionaries including Generals Verzhitsky, Mol-chanoff and Polzoff.

Approximately 350 out of 424 delegates elected are said to have attended the opening session, which was presided over by M. Krasnoschekvo, head of the Far Eastern government.

SIX MARRIAGE LICENSES ISSUED DURING SATURDAY

The first days of last week passed without a single marriage license being issued by the register of deeds in this county, but the situation changed matterially when six applicants appeared fully armed with clean bills of health.
The daily average for the past several months has been from one to two a day, but since the eBlamy legislation requiring physical examination came into effect a slight slump in business occurred. This continued for only a short period, however, and before register of deeds Gaskins had time to get accustomed to the new law candidates appeared rapidly, showing conclusively that it takes something more than an examination of the physical condition to cause any decided depression. The following couples appeared Saturday, with exception of the last who made it one day earlier: Frank Culbreth to Miss Mary Stubbs, both of Greenville; Adrain Smith to Miss Bertie Culbreth, both of Greenville; William H. Anderson to Miss Katheline McLawhorn, of Greenville.

Colored
James Barrett to Rena Smith, both of the Grimesland community; Heber Gorham to Lucinda Clark of Greenville; W. T. Stafford to Carrie Foreman, both of Greenville.

MRS. FICKLEN GOES ONE BETTER ON MR. FICKLEN'S CHICKEN STORY LAST WEEK

In one of last week's issues of the Reflector there was a clipping telling of a four legged chicken that had been hatched in Mr Ficklen's poultry yard. This is a performance that has been long desired by poultry raisers, and we hope Mr. Ficklen will send us a setting of eggs at an early date.

While we admit that Mr. Ficklen is a noted chicken fancier, we would like to tell what Mrs. Ficklen, (who by the way is an ardent Suffragist and famous horticulturist) has been doing. She has had tomatoes growing and ripening in her conservatory for three weeks.

Can any one beat this?

SENIOR PLAY WILL BE NEXT FRIDAY

April 22, on Friday evening, is the time for the annual Senior Play at East Carolina Teachers Training School.

The Senior Play has made a state wide reputation. Every year people come from far and near and every year people go away saying, 'This is the best they have ever had'. The Senior class of 1921 is determined to keep up the high standard set by classes in the past and even go beyond them.

The play this year is different from any other given at the school. It is a French play in that it has a very charming Frenchman as the hero but the play is set in England with the other characters English people and all speaking perfectly good English. The play has mystery and interest from the beginning, but unfolds so gradually and simple that even a child can follow it.

The admission will be 75c and $1.00.

CENTURY CLUB NEWS

The End of the Century Club held its regular meeting with Mrs. Travis Hooker. Mrs. Cotton was with us and we discussed for sometime the possibility and the probability of a Public Library for Greenville and what club meant to do to make it more possible. After a short business session the Club was delightfully entertained by Miss Lewis with readings from O'Henry and by Miss Gonella who rendered several wonderful violin selections.

Among the visitors for the afternoon were Mrs. Chester, Mrs. Tom Moore, Mrs. Tunstall, Miss Dorris and Miss Gonella.

The club adjourned to meet in two weeks with Mrs. F. C. Harding.

Right at the Time Everyone Wants to Take a Good Medicine to Clear Out the Blood and Build Up the System Dreco Goes Back to Before the War Prices

Right when it is most needed is the time that your old favorite remedy Dreco drops back to before the war price. Thousands take a good blood purifier and system cleaner at this season of the year who never take medicine at any other time. Therefore this announcement will be hailed with delight as Dreco is now economical enough for every member of the family to take a full treatment.
Dreco is the medicine of which Mr.
Howard Aiken a prosperous farmer, said 'My stomach has been in such bad condition, I couldn't bear to smell food cooking. My liver was lazy allowing excess bile to go through the system instead of throwing it off, which made by head swim and I felt like I was going to fall. My bowels were clogged up and I had to be continually taking something to move them.
I have taken two bottles of Dreco and there is a great change in my condition. I don't avoid the kitchen and I am always hungry and enjoy every mouthful I eat and nothing seems to hurt me. My bowels move regular as clock work. I have no more dizzy spells and am better in every way.
Dreco has proven an ideal tonic for elderly persons also weak sickly people and children. It builds them up, creates a healthy appetite; induces sound, refreshing sleep; keeps the bowels moving, the kidneys active and clears the bile from the liver. Dreco is pleasant to take and the action is prompt, pleasant and efficient.
Dreco is being specially introduced by Warren Drug Co., in Greenville and sold by all druggists.
