

COMMISSIONERS ORDER REDUCTION OF LAND VALUES

34 Percent Decrease Advised Following Petitions From Various Sections Complaining of Valuation

$500,000 ROAD BONDS PURCHASED BY BONDING COMPANY OF NEW YORK

A. B. Leach Company Purchases Bonds At $505,404, Carrying Interests of Six Per Cent Par

Yesterday's session of the board of county commissioners proved by far one of the most eventful in many months as two questions of direct interest to every section of the county were taken up during the afternoon session and permanently settled. The first of these, which consisted of petitions from many parts of the county requesting a general decrease in the valuation of real estate, received favorable consideration when a thirty four percent decrease was granted following a report to be presented by the Board of Reviews after its investigation of conditions. The recently advertised $500,000 in bonds for continued improvements of hard surfaced roads was purchased by A. B. Leach and Co., of New York at $505,404 carrying interest of six per cent par.

The tax problem has been a source of considerable worry to the commissioners every since revaluation became effective. Petitions filed from many sections complaining of being overburdened by taxation and requested that property be reassessed in order to adjust the situation. The pressure was increased yesterday when representatives appeared in person and laid their claims before the board for consideration. Acting under provisions provided by the recent session of the state legislature a Board of Reviews was created to fully investigate the problem and effect a 34 per cent reduction wherever this is found advisable.

The Board of Reviews is to present a report of its findings at the next meeting of the board, and immediately make way for the reduction. The Board is composed of L. W. Tucker, J. A. Mewborn and J. E. Carson. This measure will do away with the services of appraisers, it is understood, and consequently all negotiations will be conducted solely between the commissioners and Board of Reviews. It is expected that sometime will be required to bring about the desired adjustment, but every force is to be placed in action and the investigation conducted as expeditiously as possible.

Four bonding companies and three banks constituted the principal bidders participating in sale of the bonds late yesterday afternoon, but none made it particularly interesting except the company that secured the bid. Sidney Spitzer with Hoofman, Smith and Ebberts bidding as one agreed to accept the bonds at par values less interest to be agreed upon at a later date. R. N. Grant & Company presented practically the same bid. The National Bank and Greenville Banking and Trust Company and Bank of Grifton bidding as one offered six per cent par, less commission of $17,500. Spitzer Roderick Co., offered $473,000 at six per cent with provision to deliver $50,000 monthly.

The bond issue provides for completion of the hard surfaced roads now under construction between this city and Farmville and the Lenoir county line. It is solely a county appropriation not having any connection with funds to be furnished by the state and government. The completion of these two roads has been looked forward to with interest for several months, and this fact causes the commissioners to put forward every effort to complete them while conditions justify building operations.

The disposition of these two matters occupied practically the entire afternoon session. The morning was consumed almost entirely to paying bills and other routine features, and consequently it was after the noon hour before the really important questions were reached.

DR. VINES DELIVERS SPLENDID SERMON IMMANUEL BAPTIST

Large Crowd Welcomes Dr. Vines At His First Service In Immanuel Baptist Church Here

The revival services which started at the Immanuel Baptist Church on Sunday, attracted a large crowd last evening, when Dr. Vines, of Norfolk, Va., who is to conduct the revival preached his first sermon. Dr. Vines is considered one of the strongest preachers of the Baptist denomination in the South. He possesses a magnetic personality and has a splendid delivery. His sermon last evening was based on the text, Romans 8-28, "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are called according to his purposes."

Dr. Vines commented on the certainty and knowledge of the statement "We know" calling attention to the fact that in this day when so many statements are followed by interrogational marks that it is a great comfort when we know that all things will be right. He developed his sermon by dividing it into different divisions, namely Universal Activity, Universal Harmony, Universal benevolence, and Universal purposes. In the first part, Universal Activity, the speaker brought out two points, physical activity and moral activity. Physical activity is ever present, the world is constantly in motion. The winds, oceans even to the smallest bacteria is ever moving. Moral activity, a wave of sin on one hand, and a wave of righteousness on the other. Sin is ever present and always trying to gain momentum, but righteousness is also present. In developing the second division, Universal Harmony, Dr. Vines brought out the fact that Hell came from the word held, which means a holding, binding, a place where there is constant activity on the part of the person held to make their escape. Heaven is harmony. There joy and peace hold complete sway. Universal benevolence. Christ died that all things work for good. We know in Part, and we prophesy in part, but we know that some day we will know all.

In delivering the last point, namely Universal purpose, Dr. Vines showed the divine side and the human side. God loves his children, and his children in turn love God. Throughout the entire sermon the speaker used illustrations to explain his statements but he never departed from his text, always going back to show that everything will be right some day, for those who love God. Trouble and suffering will someday be explained.

The singing under the direction of Dr. Turner was a pleasing feature of the service. Services will be held every day at 4 o'clock and at 7.45. The public is cordially invited to attend.

INDUSTRIAL COURT BEGINS OPERATION UNDER NEW RULING

Kansas Institution Limited to Powers for Settling Controversies Arising in Labor Centers

Topeka, Kan., April 5.—Under enactment of the 1921 legislature which adjourned March 21 the Kansas court of industrial relations becomes solely a tribunal for settling industrial controversies, including disputes between employers and employes in essential industries. The supervision over public utilities rates which heretofore constituted a large share of the industrial court work, is to be taken over by the newly created public utilities commission of three members.

In carrying out the administration plan to divorce the industrial and utilities branches of the court, the state department of labor and the state industrial welfare commission were taken over bodily by the industrial court and will continue to operate as subsidiaries of the court. Reason for creation of the new utilities commission, as given by Gov. Harry J. Allen, was that quite unexpectedly, the large volume of utilities rate cases coming before the court tended to submerge its activities as an industrial tribunal and demanded the court's attention at the expense of the industrial matters before it.

Furthermore, the governor pointed out, the necessity to increase rates charged by utility corporations, as approved by the industrial court brought it an undesirable unpopularity, while on the other hand, its operations in industrial cases appeared to be in strong favor of the public. The two tribunals—industrial court and utilities commission become operative upon the appointees qualifying.

PEACE PREVAILS IN MANY SECTIONS OF IRISH REPUBLIC

Galway Quiet Following Activities of Soldiers in Practically Every Part of Country

Galway, April 5.—In comparison with Cork and other southern counties where the operations of the Irish Republican army are most vigorously carried on, Galway is a fairly peaceful spot. This is true also Mayo and the West generally, everywhere in Ireland are the forces of the British crown more in evidence and more active than in this city.

One looks from Galway harbor straight out to the Atlantic. It is the nearest European port to the United States and some day, hopeful citizens will tell you, lined from New York will dock here. In anticipation of that eagerly awaited event, Galway some years ago built out of the biggest hotels in Ireland. It is now being used as quarters for military officers, only one floor being reserved for civilian trade. The stranger arriving at Galway enters this hotel at the railway station, running the gamut of secret service agents who inspect arriving and departing trains and scrutinize with great care every person on the platform.

The hotel is barricaded with barbed wire like a barrack, and as the guests mount the stairway to his room he is stopped by a sentry who examines his luggage. But all this espionage is the usual thing one encounters throughout Ireland.

Sinn Feiners in Galway explain why they say, is that the people have been the district is quiet. The chief reason living in a state of semi-poverty for so many years that they are easily cowed by repressive measures. Second the young manhood of the country doesn't develop leaders of the ability required to carry out the work of the Irish Republican Army. Third, the topography of the country is unsuited for guerilla warfare.

ROAD SENTENCES FEATURE COUNTY COURT SESSIONS

Three Defendants Yesterday Sentenced to Roads for Periods of Four to Eight Months on Liquor Charge

The regular Monday morning session of Pitt county court proved decidedly perilous for offenders of the law yesterday, and as a result three defendants of the six cases considered are today confined in the county jail to be later transferred for active work on the county roads for periods ranging from four to eight months. Heavy fines predominated in practically all other issues with the exception of one of two where insufficient evidence failed to bring about conviction.

Tom Tucker, Banks Barber and Isiah Edwards, colored men of the Farmville district charged with having liquor in their possession for sale were sentenced to the county roads, with the exception of Edwards who was adjudged not guilty. Tucker drew six months and Barber four. They were captured by members of the Farmville police department several days ago, and confined in the county jail following preliminary hearing.

Robert Atkinson, colored, was also sentenced to eight months on the county roads for transporting contrabands from the Farmville vicinity was hand liquor for sale. Evidence produced tended to show that he had the goods on him when apprehended, and as a consequence little time was required in bringing about his conviction.

Tom Atkinson, colored, charged with carrying concealed weapon, was fined $50 and costs. Charlie Evans, lanky dusky individual, was fined $10 and costs of action for being drunk on the public highway. Absolute judgment was returned in the case against Roy Dixon, Alonzo Joyner, Alfred Edwards, colored men of Farmville districts charged with having liquor Boyd and Aaron May, charged with gambling.

William Johnson, for assault with deadly weapon, was sentenced to four months on the county road at hard labor.

A two week session of criminal county court will convene next Monday morning with a docket that will furnish the court with plenty of work for both weeks. The calendar has been congested for many months, but rapid progress of late has done away with many issues of the old date.

IMPORTANT ISSUE FACES OPENING OF FLORIDA ASSEMBLY

Legislation to Carry Out Provisions of Woman Suffrage Amendment Probably Greatest Subject

Tallahassee, Fla., April 5.—The Florida legislature convened today for the sixty day biennial session with indications that the solons would face one of the heaviest calendars in many years.

Legislation to carry out provisions of the federal woman's suffrage amendment was the only subject of more than state wide interest in prospect at the outset. Elimination of the word male in the state election law wherever it occurs is expected to be accomplished with little difficulty but one clause of the statute presents a problem which while not regarded as insurmountable is expected to be discussed at length. The present law contains a provision that no person shall pay the poll tax of another and it has not been settled just what interpretation the lawmakers would place upon this as relating to a man and his wife.

Reapportionment or representation in the legislature is regarded in the state as one of the most important subjects to be disposed of. Nothing toward this end has been done since ratification of an amendment to the constitution in 1887 providing that membership should be reapportioned.

PITT COUNTY BAR ENDORSE EFFORT OF JUDGE HORTON

Resolution Pays Splendid Tribute to Ability of Youngest Judge in the Country

At a meeting of the Pitt County Bar Association, held in the Court house at Greenville, on Saturday the 2nd day of April, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

That whereas, Hon. J. Lloyd Horton, Resident Judge of the 5th Judicial District, has been holding the March Term of Pitt Superior court for the past two weeks, and whereas, he has evinced by his courtesy to both the profession and the laity his eminent fitness for the high position which he holds and has displayed marked judicial temperament, the members of the Bar desire to give suitable expression and testimonial of the high esteem in which Judge Horton is held and their confidence in his ability.

Therefore, be it resolved:

First: That we recognize in Judge Horton superior attainment that we have found him possessed of marked judicial ability and of that temperament so necessary to success upon the Bench.

Second: That we have found Judge Horton both courteous and impartial in his rulings eminently fair and free from bias, yet at the same time, swift in the dispatch of business.

Third: That we extend to Judge Horton hearty appreciation for his work among us, and predict for him a brilliant career.

Fourth: That a copy of these resolutions be sent to Judge Horton, a copy spread upon the Minutes of the court, and a copy sent to each of the local papers.

PUBLIC WELFARE BOARD IN MONTHLY SESSION MONDAY

Report of Probation Officer Shows School Attendance Above the Average for the Month

KEEPING FIT HEALTH PROGRAM RESULTS IN IMPROVING CONDITIONS

Report of Activity of Juvenile Court Tells of Work Among Delinquent Children

The county board of Public Welfare held its regular meeting in the office of the Supt. yesterday afternoon. Report of the Work for February was submitted and a number of ideas discussed looking forward to another year. With the closing of the schools in the rural districts this month the department suggests an Educational campaign for the benefit of the children who heretofore have not been able to begin school early. The fact was pointed out that a great many children have been kept out of school not only for work on the farms but because the value of keeping them in school had not been forcefully brought to the attention of the parents. The department expects to reach as many of the rural schools as possible this month.

The school attendance for the month has been reasonably good. Very few parents have kept their children out to interfere with their school work. The report of attendance of boys and girls in the larger schools in the county above 13 years of age showed 90 per cent as many boys in school as girls with Bethel and Farmville with more boys than girls of that age. In the small school communities very few of the larger boys have remained in school. The consolidated school has maintained a better attendance record by far than the small school.

The publicity program in the county has reached two places to date, namely Grimesland and Bethel. These two places good attendance and much interest marked the meetings. Mrs. C. M. Jones was elected by the Grimesland community as Welfare secretary while Miss Mabel Barnhill was selected for Bethel community work. Ayden and Grifton meetings on April 7th and Farmville and Fountain on April 15th. People living near these points will do well to report work coming under this department to these secretaries in their immediate communities that they may report to this office.

During the month a number of facts taken from the daily sheet will show the items covered for the month: Office calls 22, visits 32, physical examinations 3, Juvenile court cases 5, children placed in homes 4, official letters 72, admitted to insane hospital at Raleigh 1, telegrams and long distance calls 9, new cases 30 and old cases 49. $2.00 raised for completing a charity case of orthopedic work.

During this month a keeping fit health program was presented to boys and girls in the largest schools in the county. This program was prepared by the United States Health Department and sent to us through the endorsement of the State and county health Department. It is a live message and we were fortunate to give the youth of the county the value of the information contained therein. Miss Anne Simpson from the State Health Department, a trained and efficient lady in this work, presented the work for the girls in the county. 771 girls and boys have been reached in the county with this work.

One or two cases in the Juvenile court are interesting to note. A small colored boy was reported and locked up for stealing. Investigations proved that the child locked up was not guilty but that another boy, somewhat smaller and similar in appearance, was the guilty boy. The accused was found to be an orphan boy in need of a good home, which he was immediately given and is getting on fine. The 11 year old boy who really did the stealing, admitted his guilt and all the particulars, and he was temporarily placed in the custody of his mother on probation.

Tuesday Afternoon, April 5th

Winston-Salem seems to be vieing with Fayetteville for honors of progressiveness. Fayetteville recently raised funds for the erection of a Y. M. C.
 A building, and voted bonds for school improvements and now Winston-Salem has put over a campaign for 1,000 Y. M. C. A. members. The activity of these two cities ought to inspire others to get busy and improve every way possible. This is a period for improvement and not hard time talking.

The United States still owes twenty-two billion dollars, although its obligations are generally reduced. This is the reason so much exaction is in evidence, and so much inharmony. When the debt is lifted and taxes are reduced prosperity will be as great as it ever was, and people will be free of some of the tax burdens. The debt combined with economic conditions is another good reason for believing peace should have been made with Germany months ago, but congress can't see it that way and has subjected the nation to social unrest through its inactivity.
 Wars may be the means of settling territorial claims sometime, but when costs are added little is gained after all.

The county board of agriculture may be made a powerful factor in development of the industry in this section of the state if farmers do everything in their power to cooperate. The board is in position to furnish much information of great value, and the planter that needs this information will be the one to enjoy greater prosperity in the days to come. Members of the board are well acquainted with needs of individual communities and plan to study these requirements in such way as to be of direct benefit to every farmer.
 It is not surprising that an intensive campaign against hog cholera be started, and as the county loses approximately $100,000 annually this way it justifies the belief that the drive ought to be successful. The erection of potato storage warehouses is another question of considerable importance because it will do away with enormous loss caused by improper care of the potato crop. These two matters show conclusively the board means business and is going to prove of great value in extending the industry to greater proportions than ever before.

Fifty percent of the cotton growers of Oklahoma have signed up as active members of the co-operative marketing association. This goes to show that the plan is being generally accepted as the only advisable means of meeting the present situation confronting the farming industry, and ought to be instrumental in bringing about greater activity in other states. Pitt county is just beginning to organize and if the planter doesn't take advantage of the opportunity to better his future he has no one to blame but himself. The future demands a better way of marketing, and if North Carolina provides the necessary fifty per cent of farmers to make the association possible prices ought to undergo a favorable improvement in the course of a few months. It will be impossible to adjust the present situation without definitely formulating plans such as those advocated by cooperative marketing, and unless the farmer does his part the industry will be years in recovering. There is no alternative. It's either organize, or continue disorganized and reap ruination.

THE FARMER'S PROFIT

That some measure is necessary to bring about an improvement in the price of farm products is set forth very forcefully in a statement issued to the public yesterday by J. Y. Joyner, president of the Tobacco Growers Association of North Carolina. In this statement Mr. Joyner says the farmer last year only received eight cents out of every dollar for the total value of his crop and that there is no way of improving the situation only through some definite plan as embraced by co-operative marketing.

Mr. Joyner may be considered an authority on conditions in existence in practically every section of the world, and what he has to say should have considerable weight with every person realizing that something must be done to better prices for farm products in the future. North Carolina has suffered no more than those in other parts of the country, but the fact that they have suffered irreparable losses cannot be disputed. The total value of last year's crop was insignificant indeed compared to that last year, and shows that irregularities exist somewhere which should be corrected as early as possible.

In his statement concerning the price situation, Mr. Joyner says: "A careful computation by Dr. Taylor, expert economist of the State College of Agriculture and Engineering, shows that out of every dollar spent for chewing and smoking tobacco, the grower gets eight cents, others get ninety-two cents. What further proof is needed that the producer is not receiving his equitable part of the value of his crop?
 How long will he submit to such injustice?"

How long he will submit to this injustice is to be determined by the way plans for co-operative marketing are accepted. The past should have proved beyond question that the old way of "dumping" products on the market and accepting whatever the market happens to offer at the time will mean disaster to the farming industry if permitted to continue any longer. There is no argument against the truth of the situation, and there is no way to bring about relief unless the farmer organizes and, under direction of well informed men, markets his products through the co-operative marketing association.

The time has come for the change.
 This year must witness either a transformation for the better or an inspiring stage of ruination. The fate rests entirely in the hands of the grower himself. If he isn't willing to follow in the pathway blazed by pioneers and broad thinkers his cause is lost and he has no one to blame but himself.

IMPROVED CONDITIONS

Taxation is unquestionably one of the greatest problems confronting the American people at this particular time. It ranks first because in every community it has increased to such enormous proportions that it becomes a source of constant regret and worry to the man who finds meeting ordinary expenses of paramount consideration.
 That there is little relief from taxes in the near future may be derived from the fact that war debts still remain unpaid, although the government has been paying steadily since the close of the war.

Commenting upon the really big problems of the day, David F. Houston Secretary of Agriculture, declares that a country wide survey of industrial, financial, agricultural and other economic conditions shows that the "big national question is taxation with peace settlement and international trade ranking next."

This survey, Mr. Houston continues, "also points to certain favorable domestic conditions. The cost of living has appreciably diminished. Building operations in a number of districts tend to increase. There have recently been no strikes of consequence. Greater productivity of labor per man is reported from practically all districts.
 Raw materials are plentiful, and physical transportation conditions are good

There have been no business failures of moment. The crop outlook is satisfactory, and the banking situation has improved."

This summing up of the national situation is sufficiently optimistic to be of inspiration to every community, especially those recently affected by depression. It ought to cause the business man, banker and general working class of people to forget to talk of hard times and go to work and produce as they never produced before.
 If this is done the future will be all anyone may ask for, and with it will come that great period of industrial and commercial activity which was abnormally increased during the war.
 These statements from well informed men are worth consideration, for they come from true knowledge of national and world conditions and carry more than usual weight.

Mr. Brooks was born and reared in this county, and was one of the county's most influential and prosperous farmers. He was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. He is survived by his wife, four daughters, Mrs. Edward Boyd, Misses Bessie, May and Helen Brooks, six sons, Messrs F. E. J. W. Jr., H. F., D. W. and R. L. Brooks of this county, and T. L. Brooks, of Chicago.

BLACK BEAUTY MINSTRELS AT TRAINING SCHOOL

The Black Beauty Minstrels gave their minstrel show in the auditorium of the Training School last night. The proceeds were divided between the Greenville High School and the Edgar Allen Poe Literary society as it was at the invitation of this society that they repeated their performance.

The boys entered into the fun and seemed to enjoy doing their parts. They had a good collection of jokes and their audience appreciated especially the songs and dancing. The camp fire scene in the second part was particularly effective. The boys were quick to pick up anything that gave them the opportunity for spontaneous action, as when the lights winked at ten o'clock each one instantly responded with some comment or action.

TREE PLANTING EXERCISES HELD AT TRAINING SCHOOL

The tree planting exercises by the Senior Class of the Training School were held on Saturday afternoon, during the last period of the school day, according to the annual school custom stopping the routine work of the school to impress upon the students the importance of planting trees and beautifying the campus.

The school, with every student dressed in white, filed out of the Administration Building led by the Seniors, each of whom carried a small white pitcher. It was easy to guess that the little tree was going to start life well-watered.

A circle was formed around a spot in the triangle between the Dinner hall and the Power House, just where any one could see that a tree was needed. The tree planted is an evergreen oak that is a descendant of a tree that was brought to this country from Scotland; there are only a few of this variety in this country. President Wright says it is the prettiest shade tree that grows.

The class song was the first number on the program and then Miss Josie Dorsett, the president of the class of 1921, gave the message of the Trees. The planting of the tree followed the class filing by and with the sacred spade throwing dirt around the tree, singing as they filed, Planting the tree, and again passing by and pouring the contents of pitchers on the tree as they sang Watering the Tree.

Miss Camilla Pittard read the poem "The Heart of a Tree", and Miss Mary Summer "Woodsmen Spare That Tree". Then came the dedication of the tree, and presentation to President Wright, who accepted the tree with a few gracious words, commenting on the significance of the occasion and telling the story of this particular tree.

The spade as been used for all occasions from the time the ground was broken by Governor Jarvis in 1908 and which is carefully guarded by each Senior Class. It was then delivered to the president of the Incoming Senior Class, the guardians for the year 1921 and 1922. Miss Leah Cooke, president of 1922, graciously accepted the spade from the president of the class of 1921, assuring her that the spade would be carefully kept and that the class would carry on the custom of planting something on the campus that would add to its beauty. The Junior Class then sang their song, thus for the first time stepping out into the place of leadership that will be theirs another year.

Three small colored children were reported for stealing and since this was the second offense they were sent for and brought to Greenville until the facts in the case could be learned. Investigation revealed the parents were allowing the children to steal and the stolen goods were being concealed in the home. The children were placed with a reliable colored woman until good homes could be found. They are now in some of the best colored homes in the county for training and care.
One case of neglected children ages 2, 6, 8 and 11 of interest to the public is noted. The mother in the home was insane and controlled the home. She would not let the children even go out to play. The house was very unsanitary, the children dirty and unkempt and all in a miniature prison. The husband was unable to better the circumstances in the home while the mother controlled the life of it. Arrangements were effected for the admittance of the woman to the insane asylum at Raleigh where the county sent her on March 12th. A visit to this home since the removal of the mother found the home in good condition, the children at play in the sunshine.
The Welfare Department especially commended the fine spirit of the Woman's Club in their district meeting when they went on record as having child welfare work major work for the year. The neglected dependent and delinquent children in the state and county invite the interest and support of the best people. It was pointed out that a few people not understanding the child welfare work had been passive to the opportunity for constructive citizenship building and even had criticised the effort being made for the work.

FARM LABORERS BEGIN STRIKE IN CHILEAN DISTRICT

First Organized Strike in History of Country Begins on Extensive Scale

Santiago, Chile, April 5.—The first farm laborer's strike in Chile was called recently by several hundred workers on the 20,000-acre estate of an English woman near here. While the actual movement was confined to one led recently by several hundred workmen, it attracted widespread interest and has been pointed out as marking the beginning of a new era in the existing regulations between the land proprietor and the Chilean agricultural laborer.

The immediate cause of the trouble, it is said, was the refusal of the laborers to continue working until sunset during harvest, according to long established custom and announced there had been a current of propaganda passing between the Chilean federation of labor and workers on various farms in the department. The workers also demanded increased wages, dismissal of the overseer and the right to organize. The latter was granted and the dispute finally was settled after President Alessandri had admonished the men to return to the fields.

The Inquilina system prevails on most of the large estates from a characteristic feature of the farming region of central Chile. Under the system the worker is given possession of a plot of land for purposes of cultivation, a house and rights of pasturage. On the estate where the strike took place, the daily wages were 80 centavos (about 18 cents at normal exchange).

The owner of the estate where the laborers went on strike said the walk-out was the direct result of action of subversive elements. She declared she had provided her employes with good homes, schools and medical attendance.

HOT WATER FOR SICK HEADACHES

Tells Why Everyone Should Drink Hot Water With Phosphate In It Before Breakfast

Headaches are caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head, producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilid, aspirin or the bromides, which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of the headache, but will cleanse, purify and freshen the alimentary canal.
Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar.
If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons. Greenville Drug Co., Special Agent.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of sage tea and sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandma's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied, with wonderful effects.

But brewing at home in mussy and out of date, Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of 'Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound', you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautiful and glossy. Greenville Drug Co., Agent.
