MANY TRUE BILLS FEATURE FIRST DAY IN CRIMINAL COURT

Judge Devin Delivered Inspiring Charge at Opening of Court Here Yesterday Morning

The criminal term of Pitt county superior court got down to work in an earnest and determined manner yesterday morning after hearing an inspiring charge to the grand jury by Judge Devin, who will preside over sessions for the next two weeks. The day was probably featured by greater activity than in many months, and as a result a number of true bills were returned with conviction carrying road sentences ranging from four to eight months.

In his charge to the grand jury Judge Devin brought out clearly the importance of the work before its members during the present week. He said it was very imperative indeed that the very highest regard for the rights of everyone should be observed, and that justice be meted impartially even to that great mass of people that compose the criminal element of the county. The duty of a grand jury, he declared, is not to sit merely in judgment and hear argument in defense of some criminal, but to maintain a clear mind regarding the highest principles of mankind and to leave nothing undone in making these principles an actuality.

That the court is the only source by which violators of the law are meted out fair and impartial justice was set forth in a vivid and interesting way, and every member of the grand jury and members of the court too felt better after they had heard the splendid message delivered by one who himself is to sit in judgment over the criminal element during the next two weeks. Judge Devin made a splendid impression upon the court during his first appearance here several weeks ago, and his clear insight into technicalities of the law caused many actions to be continued expeditiously.

Minnie Darden and Ada Coward, colored women appearing on separate charges of larceny, were sentenced to four months in the county jail to be hired out as county authorities deem advisable. Walter Green, charged with larceny, was sentenced to eight months on the county roads at hard labor. Edward Hill was sentenced to six months in jail for receiving stolen goods. Richard Hardee, larceny, fined $25 and costs with provision that he appear before every term of court for a period of one year and answer to good behavior.

True bills were returned against the following defendants: Preston and Lottin and George Long, larceny; Willie Barnhill, larceny; George Long and Will Turnage, larceny; George Long, larceny; Noel Williams and Will Clark, larceny; Jesse Chapman, trespass; D. W. Taylor and Frank Edwards; Riley Wooten two charges of larceny; Richard Tate and Oscar Williams; Mack Werthington and Lester Smith, larceny, two charges; George Jones and Lester Smith, larceny.

No proceedings were taken in the manslaughter charge against Fernando Stancill because of insufficient evidence to produce conviction. The case against Handy Pitt for larceny was continued until the next term. W. H. McLean, colored, charging him with embezzlement and false pretense, was continued until the next term.

BIG REDUCTION OF CROPS NECESSARY TO BETTER PRICES

Proposed Reduction Won't be Sufficient to Better Crop Conditions Throughout Country

Raleigh, April 19.—Every one wonders what the farmers are going to plant this year with high costs and low returns staring them in the face at this their only investing time—the spring planting season.

The Cooperative Crop Reporting Service for North Carolina made an extensive inquiry into this recently and gained some valuable results. The prospects will be altered somewhat by the recent second drop in fertilizer prices and by the some what staidier tendency of finance and industrial activities.

The tendencies of cotton and tobacco were made almost a month ago and so the reader may make allowance accordingly. We fear that these acreage reductions are over estimated. There is a natural tendency or bias toward that kind of report under present conditions. Even if North Carolina's thirty percent cotton reduction represents that of other cotton states, it will not be enough to counterbalance the heavy socks or carry-over hand. The 1936,000 bale crop of North Carolina last year was a big one.

Tobacco's reduction of a third last year's record acreage in North Carolina well illustrates the failure to meet the real situation. Four years ago this state planted 52 percent of last year's tobacco acreage and even this year's decreased area indicates therefore 24 per cent more than then. The exports of leaf tobacco from the United States during 1920 were 38 per cent less than the previous year when 766,000,000 pounds or 52 per cent of the crop was shipped abroad. Foreign cigar sales were increased four per cent last year and cigarettes decreased two per cent with the tendency to further decrease this year. With the bulk of our bright leaf tobacco being exported, we have the prospect of enough acreage to again more than overload the market. The prospects for this year at one third reduction in North Carolina's acreage is still thirteen per cent more than the 1917 crop.

ALBERMARLE PRESBYTERY TO CONVENE IN CITY TONIGHT

The Sixty-Fourth Semi-Annual Session of Albermarle Presbytery will convene tonight in the Greenville Presbyterian Church. Preparations have been made to take care of all the incoming delegates to this Court of the Presbyterian Church of the South.

The session will be called to order at 8:00 o'clock sharp at which time the Rev. William Cinger of Rocky Mount will deliver the Presidential sermon at the close of which and following the Roll Call the officers will be elected.

There will be many interesting features in the program this year, such as the Popular Meeting at which will be presented to Presbytery the full report of the work accomplished by the Home Mission department, the full report of the Sunday School Committees, and the Foreign Mission activities as they have developed through the last year.

This meeting of Presbytery will elect commissioners to the General Assembly, which will convene in St. Louis in May.

It is expected that there will be a full representation of all the churches of this Presbytery owing to the importance of this special session and the fact that it is always a popular meeting.

We are glad to welcome to Greenville this Court of the Presbyterian Church and proud of the fact that our city is so well equipped to take care of her guests.

Christian Church Revival To Begin On Wednesday Night of Present Week

The revival services which are to be conducted in the 8th Street Christian Church by Dr. Ben Edwards begins Wednesday night and will continue for two weeks. One of the outstanding features will be the music. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pollock, of Nebo, Illinois, Aberlein, Kansas, will have charge of who have just been in a meeting in the music and a sthey are both splendid musicians, a treat is in store for the people of Greenville.

The following is taken from the Pensacola News of Florida, and will prove of interest to the public:

"This is the last week of the revival meeting at the First Christian church. A feature of the meeting about which little has been said has been the excellent music which has been in charge of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pollock, of Nebo, Illinois. Mr. Pollock is a soloist and leader of far more than ordinary ability. His solos have been selected with discrimination and taste, and have been so exquisitely rendered that many times there have been tears in the eyes of the people in the audience. Mrs. Pollock is an accompanist of unusual ability. There has been no effort to call attention to her own part of the work by unusually brilliant execution, which is a well known failing of some accompanists, but instead she has kept her own part of the work constantly in the background, steadily and firmly supporting the voices during the chorus—singing and special numbers. To do this requires not only knowledge of the technique of music, but also requires an appreciation of the literary qualities of the poem which is to be sung.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollock have been engaged in evangelistic work together for four years. They have been in charge of the music in revival services from one side of the continent to the other, and when one hears them, one can readily understand their popularity in this field.

FREIGHT RATES TO BE CURTAILED IN ALASKAN DISTRICT

Freight Consigned to Interior of County Will be Subject to Slight Cut It is Stated

Anchorage, April 19.—Rates on freight consigned to interior Alaska points will be reduced from around $350 a ton, the present price, to within $25 a ton, when the government railroad from midwater to the inside is completed next spring.

As a result, a great deal of mining machinery will be shipped to the interior, it is thought, and many dredge and frozen placer areas will be enabled to resume operation. At present the high freight rates on supplies and machinery make it impossible to operate at a profit.

For years much of the freight for Fairbanks, Nenana, Fort Gibbon, Ruby and other interior points has been sent by team over trails from the seaport towns of Valdez and Cordova. During the summer some shipments went in by the long water route from Seattle to St. Michaels and up the Yukon River system, while other consignments were billed via Seattle to Seagway White Pass railroad and down the Yukon from White Horse.

TAFT AND VANDYKE TO PUT ON FURNITURE SALE

Taft and Vandyke are carrying a page ad in our today's issue announcing a great cut price furniture sale. This sale is said to be a real cut sale, and Mr. Vandyke stated today that it was really going to be a bargain sale. They carry one of the most up-to-date lines of furniture in this section and as this is the first furniture sale conducted in Greenville in quite a while it is expected to attract wide attention.

PLANS TO CHANGE DAKOTA'S NAME TO THAT OF ROOSEVELT

Campaign Started by Chamber of Commerce of Mitchell Would Change South Dakota

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 19.—A campaign recently has been inaugurated by the Chamber of Commerce of Mitchell, S. D. to have the name of South Dakota changed to Roosevelt. A similar movement started several years ago received only little public support and consequently was dropped.

This time, however, officers of the Mitchell Chamber of Commerce claim they will wage the campaign until it is brought to an issue. The scheme to divorce any possible relation between North and South Dakota has brought forth considerable comment in the editorial columns of the state's newspaper. Opinion is divided, but the majority of the editors disapproved of the plan. It is believed. The Mitchell Evening Republican, backing up the campaign of its Chamber of Commerce, says, editorially:

By all means, the name should be changed to that of Roosevelt. The one great reason why we should get a new name for our state is that because of circumstances for which neither state is responsible, South Dakota, must, so long as named, be regarded as a sort of Extension of North Dakota.

The transcontinental lines run thru North Dakota, with one new one skirting the border between the two states. Travelers back and forth across the continent go either through Nebraska or North Dakota. They never see South Dakota.

All suits and coats greatly reduced $50.00 suits now $24.50, $32.50 suits $18.50.

GREATER LIFE IN CITY PRIMARY IS NOW IN EVIDENCE

Total Registration for the City Has Reached the 600 Mark Up to the Present Time

The entrance of a candidate for alderman in the Fourth Ward and a slight spurt of interest in registration now in progress has produced a decided change in prospects for the municipal primary to be conducted in this city May 2nd. The registration yesterday was probably heavier than any day since opening of the books twelve days ago, and even the women came in for their share of the change.

The total registration for the day approximated 60 of which 14 were women and 46 men. This gives each ward a pretty fair total in which the Second Ward leads with 173 registrations against 136 in the Third Ward. The Fifth Ward comes in for third place with 120 against 111 in the Fourth. The first ward is at the bottom of the list, as so far the books show that 60 persons have entered their names.

The entrance of F. J. Forbes as a candidate for alderman in the Fourth Ward in opposition to B. F. Tyson, the present incumbent has created considerable amount of interest and as a result it is expected the remainder of the week will witness several announcements of a like nature. No further candidates have placed their hats in the ring for the mayoralty contest, but now that the aldermanic race has livened up it is believed the situation will take on an entirely different aspect.

The total registration up to yesterday amounted to practically 600. It is estimated the voting strength of the city will approximate 1100, therefore, it is evident the few remaining days the books are open will have to be filled with greater activity. Registration is necessary this time as former registrations will not make anyone eligible to vote this time.

61,000 AMERICAN SOLDIERS STILL IN FOREIGN NATIONS

Bodies of Men Who Died During the War Still Total Great Number in European Countries

Indianapolis, Ind., April 19.—More than 61,000 American soldiers who died during the World War still sleep on foreign soil. Shall the graves of our fallen be forgotten on this, the third Memorial day since the Armistice? reads a bulletin issued today by National headquarters of the American Legion.

A report to the Legion from Quartermaster General Army Rogers shows that there are 61,429 American graves in seven foreign countries. In France 59,937 men of the A. E. F. still are buried, in England there are 517, in Belgium 751, in Russia 97, in Italy 76, in Germany 43 and in Luxembourg 8. The Legion's record shows that the organization decorated 75,000 graves overseas last year with a fund of 1,000,000 francs raised in America and France.

The bulletin, which the Legion today forwarded to each of its 11,000 posts, emphasized the individual obligation of the Legionnaires and their prompt action.

HOURS FOR WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

ARTHUR FARMERS FAVOR MARKETING BY NEW METHODS

Sign-Up Campaign Started at Enthusiastic Meeting Conducted in Arthur During Last Night

Seven members of the co-operative marketing canvassing committee carried the sign-up campaign into the Bell Arthur district again last night with marked success, and it is indicated today that the majority of tobacco and cotton growers of the community will be signed up by night fall. The campaign was given additional impetus by a mass meeting conducted in the town of Arthur last night, which was largely attended by both farmers and business men. Virtually every man present pledged to do his part in making the association an actuality, and to help the soliciting committee complete work of signing up contracts in the campaign to be carried into every nook and crook in the township today. The principal speaker at the meeting last night was Mr. J. B. Swain who is among the members sent out by the Agricultural Extension Department. He explained the nature of the contract at the outset and assured his hearers that it would be one of the most binding document ever before presented in history of the industry. That it will prove as effective in the sale of cotton and tobacco as in other products is indubitable, he declared, for it is merely a matter of gaining principal control of all crops so the association will be in position to demand fair prices for its products.

The talk was based on the same principle of others which have been delivered from time to time since the campaign has been in progress, and showed beyond doubt that co-operative marketing is much superior to the old dumping methods which have proven so inadequate in the past. The old plan will be the ruination of the industry if continued, he declared, and it is up to the farmer to take advantage of this opportunity of setting aside the probability of further uncertainty in the price situation.

Mr. A. W. Swain, director of the campaign remained in Greenville today to get every plan perfected before joining the committee, and it is expected he will be in position to direct the work more expeditiously when these plans are fully completed. Mr. Swain will be assisted by Mr. W. B. Pace, farm demonstration agent, and between them things will be kept moving rapidly for the two weeks the campaign is in progress. Several planters have already signed contracts, and pledged to assist the work in every way possible.

All of the trucks will assemble at the city Hall, Thursday morning at 9 o'clock and will be directed by Mr. W. D. Pruitt of the Imperial Tobacco Company.

Similar success has been obtained in the other nineteen counties which have been worked up to the present time. Merchants, bankers and other business men are giving endorsement and lending their aid to this work which accounts largely for the above success.

The campaign for Pitt county opened on the 18th a mass meeting in the court house and a large number of growers called for their contract to which they affixed their signature, and expressed their confidence in the success of the plan, and offered their services throughout the two weeks the canvassing committee is to remain in this county.

There is every indication the plan is to receive splendid support in every community and there is no reason why Pitt county should not equal or surpass the great record established by the progressive people of Lenoir county.

GREAT REVIVAL AT BETHEL

(Reported for the Reflector)

The revival being held in Bethel M. E. Church at Bethel is now in its closing week. Great crowds are attending each service, many being turned away for lack of room after packing every nook and corner.

Rev. K. H. Byrd of Wilmar, Ky., is doing the preaching and Bro. M. V. Lewis of the same town is leading the singing and they are doing it with great power. Great conviction is coming upon the people, many are being saved and many others are seeking the light. Such men have not passed this way before and may never pass this way again. Come and hear them. Bro. Bird preaches no new doctrine but the old unadulterated gospel, without any excuse or apologies for the awful exposition of sin.

Bro. Lewis is singing the gospel in tenderness and love that cannot be resisted.

The most beautiful scene and demonstration of spiritual power was seen Sunday at the morning hour when scores of men and women came out and joined hands and lined up from the altar on down both aisles to the door with the pastor in the center, pledging themselves to stand by and live up to the law giving the tenth to God, and their lives on the altar of service, this being after a great sermon on "God's Financial Plan".

Sunday night the preacher pictured sin and death dealing powers from subject The Black Horse and his Illustrous rider. Men and women were made to quake and tremble. Three points were brought out, Card playing, Dancing and cigarette smoking. Under these heads every type of kindred sins were held up before the gaze of a great congregation.

God is mighty with us. Come and hear this great evangelist and his helper, and you will be blessed and helped. Everyone that hears him once comes again. We wish every preacher in the North Carolina Conference could hear them.

After tonight there will be school audiences for the rehearsals. On Wednesday there will be the rehearsals before the faculty, on Thursday night the dress rehearsal will have the students for audience. These two rehearsals will be given as nearly as possible like the final performance, but the weak spots will be carefully noted and corrected. By Friday night the cast will be accustomed to audiences.

Tuesday Afternoon, April 19th

Cotton prices seem to be holding their own, but that doesn't mean they are holding very much, even at that.

Hertford is preparing an intensive good roads campaign. That's about the best thing that could be done at this time, for good roads pay when other things fail.

Statements say politics are warming up in Wilmington territory. That may be so, but the same situation doesn't prevail in Greenville.

Congressman Kitchen says the emergency tariff measure under consideration by the senate is pure hypocrisy. That he is mighty near correct, goes without saying.

The municipal primary in Raleigh seems to be attracting considerable attention. That's the way it ought to be for when people take interest in election of town officials, it's a safe bet the town is a good place in which to live.

Southern senators will carry the fight for credit to southern farmers before President Harding. That will amount to very little, for if he doesn't show more sympathy than heretofore, there is little chance of anything being accomplished.

The clean up campaign to be inaugurated in this city should receive the attention of every person interested in the future. There is nothing that appeals more to visitors than clean streets and pretty homes, and invariably the impression of cleanliness is carried into other towns.

It is said president Harding is "up a tree" in the matter of the appointment of a Commissioner of Internal Revenue. This is not the only case he has been up a tree in, if we see things from the right angle. He happened to get among the trees during the campaign, and since that time hasn't felt much like coming down.

If Greenville people abide by the clean-up proclamation issued by Mayor D. M. Clark in yesterday's edition of this paper the town will be one of the cleanest in the state after the campaign is over. It is to be hoped they will do so, for cleanliness means much to every city, particularly to one developing along all lines like Greenville.

Greenville has a population of over six thousand but so far about 150 of its women have registered for the municipal primary. This is a mighty poor showing, and doesn't indicate proper interest. It is to be hoped the closing of books will see a much larger registration, for it will mean the town government will be composed of men of integrity and ability.

Farmers are advised to raise alfalfa on surplus acreage this year. If this advice is heeded, it is certain good results will be realized. Last year they raised large crops of cotton and tobacco. In many instances they received prices below the cost of production, therefore, it is plain they would have been much better off with a splendid crop of alfalfa for stock improvement. Other states have found it pays to no extent, and North Carolina ought to be affected likewise.

The co-operative marketing sign-up campaign to be conducted in this county for the next two weeks should receive great consideration from both the farmers and business men. It is an issue in which every person is vitally affected, and unless they do what they can the future falls to promise anything better than the present or the past. There are very few farmers who did not suffer as a result of the slump in prices this year, and if he doesn't take some measures of protecting himself from the future occurrences then it is plain there is no one to blame. Leading men of the farming industry have found a definite way of bettering conditions in the co-operative marketing plan and if it is accepted everyone ought to realize a direct benefit. The next year or so is to be the turning point with the farmer, and if he doesn't organize and prepare to combat a treacherous market indications point to a continued spell of financial depression.

Improved seeds are to be used by Johnston county planters. The idea is a good one, and they ought to realize splendid results. The future of the farming industry will be much better if the planter endeavors to raise better crops. This is so both in cotton and tobacco, particularly tobacco. There was practically no demand for inferior grades of bright leaf this season, which goes to show it will be wise to produce grades such as demanded by the market all the year around. Something must be done to better the present price situation, and if the farmer produces better stuff it is natural to expect better prices.

A large shoe manufacturing concern recently declared a 25 percent common stock dividend besides a three percent cash dividend declared quarterly. This doesn't seem to indicate the country is going broke or that business is faring badly by any means. In other words it indicates hard times are more imaginary than anything else, and that the man failing to pay his debts is doing so simply because he has the old hard time plea to fall back upon as protection.

The baseball spirit seems to be developing rapidly in every section of the state at this particular time, but it seems Greenville and other Eastern Carolina towns stand poor chance of getting any of it. The league last season dispelled the gloom of many a hot summer day, and it's a pity we can't have it again this year.
