AMERICAN LEGION PLANS CELEBRATION IN CITY MAY 30 TH

Many Interesting Features Enjoyed At Regular Monthly Meeting of Local Post Last Night

The regular monthly session of the Pitt county Post of the American Legion was conducted in the dining room at the Princeton hotel last night and featured principally in the transaction of business, smoker, supper and excellent addresses delivered by Mr. Purdy, of the Raleigh Post of the American Legion and Mr. William Ewing, who is in charge of the expansion program of the Greenville chamber of commerce. Both speakers discussed subjects vitally affecting the organization and complimented the Pitt county Post on the excellent progress which had been made in the past several months.

Tentative plans for the Memorial Day celebration to be conducted in this city under auspices of the Legion May 30 were discussed at length, and it was decided that every effort will be put forward to make the event one of the most auspicious and interesting in history of the organization. Preparations so far provide for a mammoth parade, big dinner and entertainments both afternoon and evening to be produced in connection with the Women's club. It is proposed to make the parade one of the greatest and most brilliant pageants ever before seen in Pitt county, and consequently schools and clubs of every kind will be requested to put forth every effort in making the event the great success planned.

Mr. Purdy, who was principal speaker of the evening, confined his address principally to a discussion of conditions affecting the ex-service men at the present time. He dwelled chiefly on the treatment which former soldiers receive in the various hospitals through out the country, showing that the government is not measuring up to expectations of the organization in the slightest sense of the word. He spoke from experience, as he was confined in a hospital himself and officers and medical attendants failed miserably in the performance of their duty.

He told of an instance where a petition signed by forty men, asking for better care of the ex-soldiers, was sent to government authorities, but failed to receive the slightest attention. The incident is only one of many, he declared, as urgent petitions have been presented from many territories asking for better food and nursing, but the government still continues indifferent and has failed to make any favorable response. Deplorable conditions prevail in practically every hospital operated in interest of the men who fought for democracy, but none of them afforded the service they should and are very careless in providing needs for the suffering heroes.

The proposal for simplifying the three government organizations operated in interest of the ex-service men by merging them into one great institution was taken under consideration by the members, and it was unanimously agreed that the local post should go on record in favor of the plan. Copies of the resolution were ordered sent to headquarters in Washington City immediately so as to have proper time for consideration.

In his address Mr. Ewing expressed his pleasure of being a guest of the club. He dwelled with particular emphasis upon the great record which the national organization had already established, declaring that every post as a part of the one great union would wield as great influence in its individual locality as the combined organization does nationally. He said the Pitt county Post is destined to play a great part in the commercial and industrial development of the community, as its members were ambitious young business men with visions greatly expanded by association and contact with other races while abroad. He urged faith in the cause and in the great principles of that for which they fought.

SETS 500 MEMBERS AS GOAL FOR DRIVE OF CITY CHAMBER

Plans For Civic Dinner Still Under Way On Large Scale

A goal of five hundred memberships was set last night for the membership campaign of the Pitt county chamber of commerce.

Dr. C. J. Ellen, chairman of the executive committee and other members of that committee, after considering the prospects for the campaign and needs to carry to successful conclusions the plans of the workers for a complete reorganization and the selection of a definite program of work for the good of all in Pitt county, decided upon this number as the goal. The teams committee will begin active solicitation of memberships on Monday.

Plans for the civic dinner have been completed and those in charge of the work say that the dinner will be one of the best ever that have been served up to citizens of Pitt county. J. B. Kittrell is chairman of the meetings committee and with others who are engaged in this work with him he is kept busy these days preparing for the feast.

The dinner starts promptly at seven o'clock, said Mr. Kittrell this morning. Guests are urged to be on hand promptly, for we want to join in the singing and hear the speech of Mr. Strong, the principal speaker. Mr. Strong is a well known man in the chamber of commerce field and it will be a pleasure to have him in Greenville.

The dinner will be tendered at Forbes and Morton's warehouse, corner of Dickinson Avenue and Pitt Street. Tickets may be procured at the door by those who have delayed until the last hour to buy them.

ANNUAL MEETING BUILDING & LOAN HELD YESTERDAY

Report of Secretary H. A. White Shows Institution to be in Flourishing Condition

Though the weather was so inclement that the personal attendance was small, there were 6,126 shares, a good majority, represented in person and by proxy at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Home Building and Loan Association held in the Mayor's office last night. In the absence of the president the meeting was called to order by D. J. Whichard, the vice-president.

After the reading of the minutes of the last annual meeting, Secretary H. A. White made his report based on the last audit of the association showing its condition as of Dec. 31, 1920. In making his report Mr. White brought out the progress of the association from the last audit to the present, showing the organization to be in most satisfactory condition, the best, in fact, since its organization. The aggregate of its business now is close to half a million dollars and still growing. Referring with gratification to the opening of the thirty-first series of shares, which opens next Saturday, 7th, the secretary stated that up to last night 1,214 shares have already been sold for the coming series and he feels confident that the total will reach 2000 share before the books close. This speaks strongly for the confidence and interest of the people of the community have in the association. Besides earning 6-1-2 per cent net for the shareholders, it is doing a wealth of good in helping people to own their own homes.

The entire old board of directors were unanimously re-elected as follows: H. A. White, C. E. Munford, W. A. Bowen, J. B. James, D. J. Whichard, R. W. Moseley, R. H. Wright, R. C. Flanagan, L. C. Skinner, C. O'H Laughinghouse, G. H. W. Hadley and S. T. White.

The directors will meet at a later date to elect officers for the coming year.

MARKETING DRIVE TO END IN COUNTY THURSDAY AT NOON

Campaign Committee Says Over Sixty Per Cent of Cotton and Tobacco Has Already Been Signed Up

The intensive soliciting campaign of the Co-operative Marketing association which has been in progress in Pitt county for the past two weeks will be concluded tomorrow afternoon, according to a statement issued this morning by W. B. Pace, who has charge of the campaign in the absence of A. W. Swain, who is now in Goldsboro in the interest of the same movement. Every cotton and tobacco grower who hasn't signed the contract up to this time is urged to get busy at once and do his proportionate part in making Pitt county's organization one of the strongest of the nineteen institutions already functioning throughout the state.

The principal part of the campaign in Pitt county was concluded with activities last Saturday afternoon, but it was found advisable to continue the work through Thursday owing to delay occasioned by inclement weather. There were four important communities which could not be reached last week, but it is understood that much interest is among prominent planters in the proposed marketing medium and consequently every effort will be made to give them the same showing which has been accorded to other localities.

It is estimated at this time that sixty per cent of cotton and tobacco produced in Pitt county has already been signed up, but the committee is not content with this and purposes to push things along until at least eighty per cent of planters become active members. The beauty part of the issue is that virtually every farmer meaning anything to the industrial development of the county has agreed to become active in interest of the organization, therefore, it is believed the state institution will receive its greatest support from local supporters.

Mr. Swain declared at the outset that there was no reason why Pitt county should not rank higher than any of the nineteen counties already signed up because it produces the largest and best crop of bright leaf tobacco grown in America, and also sells an enormous amount of cotton each year. This fact he declared, ought to cause every business man and planter to seriously consider the principles involved in the new marketing issue and do everything in their power to see that it is a going proposition as early as possible.

The campaign today and tomorrow will be pushed forward in hope of reaching every man possible, but if the weather becomes too inclement it is probable the committee will defer operations until a later date. They want to give every locality the same opportunity of other sections already visited and with this end in view contracts will be placed in the hands of every planter to either be accepted or rejected. Mr. Pace is very optimistic owing to encouragement received during the

MAKES LAST APPEAL FOR CHINA RELIEF FUND

A last appeal is being made to Pitt county in behalf of the China Relief Mr. Crow, who is treasurer of the state work, has written to the Greenville Banking and Trust Co. to act as depository for the fund. Any of the workers in the bank will be glad to receive the funds. I shall be glad to forward the money also. No solicitation will be made. The contributions are to be voluntary. Only eight more days until the campaign closes. Money must reach China by the 15th of this month, which means that the money we send in must reach Raleigh by the 8th. Do your part. If you have given maybe you will give again; if you have not given to be sure you want to add at least a little sum to the great contribution that has gone forward.

J. B. Turner, Chairman
last few days, and his work will be brought to a termination with bright prospects of a very notable victory.

SPEAKERS NAMED FOR CIVIC DINNER THURSDAY EVENING

H. A. White to be Principal Speaker, Followed by Howard Strong, of Try ron, N. C.

H. A. White, chairman of the campaign committee, and F. C. Harding, will speak at the civic dinner Thursday evening at Forbes & Morton's warehouse. Hundreds of reservations have been made, but as the hall for the dinner is spacious there will be ample room for all who make application provided they make applications for tickets in time. Reservations can be made at campaign headquarters, N. 304 Evans St.

Howard Strong, of Tryon, N. C., has accepted the invitation of the chamber of commerce to address the residents of Pitt county who will be gathered at the dinner. He will bring a message well worth hearing and those interested in the future welfare of this community should be sure to attend. Delegations will be present from Farmville, Ayden and other towns of Pitt county, and it is the hope of the meetings committee that Greenville will be represented by as many men and women as he other townships combined.

Mr. Strong has made a life study of civic problems and is considered a leader in this field of activity. His work in Minneapolis, Minn., and at Rochester, N. Y., has done much for both of those cities.

There will be singing by all at the dinner, Prof. Rose leading. J. B. Kittrell, chairman of the meetings committee, hints at an excellent dinner for all attending. Ladies are particularly urged to be present. And speaking of the ladies, there was an interesting meeting yesterday afternoon at the Court house, where Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale chairman of the woman's committee and other ladies of Greenville and of Pitt county discussed at length the manner in which women can help by joining the chamber.

MUCH INTEREST IS STILL MANIFESTED IN LOCAL REVIVAL

Another Great Crowd Present at Christ ian Church Here Last Night

Another great crowd heard the service, at the Christian Church here last night, that is being conducted by the Edwards-Pollock Evangelistic team. Even though the night was rainy - especially the kind of night that we would like to sit by the home fire - the crowd gathered early and the main auditorium was filled with folk who are interested in Christ and his teachings. Dr. Edwards brought in a masterly way the message last night and at the close of the sermon two responded to the invitation. The song service was especially good last night and Mr. Pollock sang for his special number The Ninety and Nine. Announcement was made for the service for each night this week except Saturday and that the closing service of the series of meetings would be held Sunday - Mother's Day. All are asked to wear a flower for mother on Sunday - a colored one if she be living and a white one if she is gone. A meeting for men only will be held at three on Sunday afternoon and all men of our community are urged to be present and hear the message Dr. Edwards has for them. On Monday night, following the closing service of Sunday night, a reception will be held for the entire membership of the church and all will want to be present. This on Tuesday night - the 10th - The Pollocks will give a musical program at the church and we feel sure the church will be filled to overflowing that night. A baptismal service was announced for tonight.

Mrs. J. B. Gorman assumed charge of the meeting at this juncture. Rotarians were blindfolded and asked to pin a heart on a lady nearest her heart. D. J. Whichard, Jr. proved adept in fooling with hearts and consequently was awarded the prize. In the chewing gum mand toothpick contest each Rotarian had to chew gum and with the assistance of a toothpick place it in a card form in the shape of a heart. Charles Porter won the prize in this contest which proved one of the most interesting of the entire evening. Mrs. Jobe Hassell made the presentation speech.

Mrs. Charles Porter, in name of the ladies, presented President Sam Underwood with a handsome flow lamp. This is to be used by the organization in memory of the interest of the ladies in their work.

WOMEN ENTERTAIN ROTARY MEMBERS HERE LAST NIGHT

Members of Club Guests of Wives and Sweethearts in Most Interesting Event of the Year

Wives ... of the local Rotary club entertained in interest of the organization last night at the beautiful Rotary home on Fourth Street, the occasion proving by far one of the most interesting and enjoyable in many months. The reception hall and dining room were beautifully decorated with potted plants and brilliantly colored lights, and as each Rotarian entered he was taken in charge by a reception committee which paid special attention to seeing that they felt perfectly at home. Many amusing features were pulled off during the evening, and hilarity was at its height from supper time to adjournment.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. S. B. Underwood, wife of the president, who called upon Mayor D. M. Clark to ask the blessing. The entire assembly then sang Auld Lang Syne, after which the dining room was entered. As the Rotarians entered they were requested to find their classification cards at each place. This feature was a novel one, each business being represented in an unique and interesting way.

Immediately following the roll call each Rotarian was requested to repeat some popular nursery rhyme, and when there were many young members who were rather bashful about testing themselves out along this line, there were others however who showed great talent and brought forth a continued scream of laughter.

The address of welcome by Mrs. Underwood was one of the outstanding features of the evening's happenings. She brought out clearly the interest which the women are taking in progress of the club, believing that it is one of the greatest mediums in the city for bettering social and moral conditions. She cordially welcomed everyone, declaring every wife and sweetheart likes to provide enjoyment for loved ones when they know it is for the promotion of a better element of manhood, which in turn is bound to encourage a nobler boyhood.

Immediately preceding the address the meeting was turned over to Mrs. S. K. Phillips, wife of the affable 'Sky Pilot' of the organization, as he is designated in Rotary. Messrs. Burney Warren and J. B. Kittrell were requested to tell something about their trosses and the recent trip to Norfolk, which they did in a way that brought forth unrestrained laughter. Mark Turnage was called on to explain a few things in connection with managing a wife. Having had considerably experience in matrimonial felicity, Mr. Turnage proved well prepared to handle the subject, much to the relief of his brother, Dave, who appeared afraid he might be requested to do the same thing.

Mrs. W. L. Hall presented what she termed a few echoes of the Seventh district meeting in Norfolk. She was followed by Mr. S. B. Underwood, who spoke on the same subject. Both pointed out the pleasant and profitable features of the occasion and showed that Greenville played a mighty important part because of owning its own home and the largest attendance. Mr. Underwood later brought forth the beautiful loving cup won at the convention, declaring it was something to be proud of. The trophy was lined with gold and large enough to adorn the club rooms just like they wanted it. It was presented by all clubs of the Seventh district.

Mrs. J. B. Gorman assumed charge of the meeting at this juncture. Rotarians were blindfolded and asked to pin a heart on a lady nearest her heart. D. J. Whichard, Jr. proved adept in fooling with hearts and consequently was awarded the prize. In the chewing gum mand toothpick contest each Rotarian had to chew gum and with the assistance of a toothpick place it in a card form in the shape of a heart. Charles Porter won the prize in this contest which proved one of the most interesting of the entire evening. Mrs. Jobe Hassell made the presentation speech.

Southern Baptists have raised one million dollars for foreign missions.
The record is one to be proud of and deserves the consideration of other denominations which haven't been giving to eliminate the ignorance blighting the happiness of millions in foreign nations

The German government may protest all it likes about allied troops taking possession of the Rhine territory, but that doesn't worry the allies themselves. What they are after is fulfillment of the reparations demand, and when this comes about they will be prepared to talk favorably of removing the troops back to their own countries.

Secretary Hughes declares the new German proposals are unacceptable.
That's the way the Allies think about it, but they are at a loss to know where the United States comes in. We are preparing separate peace with Germany therefore, it is hardly probable allied terms should be of interest to us. The situation is tangled beyond hope of relief, and there is no one to blame but that stubborn bunch of irreconcilables who did their best to defeat the highest principles of the democratic party while they had the chance. That they did it is unquestionable, but when they will become able to remedy the situation is another question altogether.

Admiral Benson sticks to it that the fifteen per cent wage reduction for marine workers is not too much, and the way he has started out to settle the issue assures the public something is going to be done. The wage question is receiving just consideration in every line of industry, and when workmen realize it is necessary to readjustment there won't be quite so much complaining. The ordinary American laborer has been accustomed to inflated conditions so long he is having a hard time waking up. The period of awakening however, has come and the sooner reductions are accepted the better off the entire country will be, no doubt about that.

CLERK ADMINISTRATION FORCE

The re-election of Mayor Clark showed conclusively the majority of people are in favor of the way he has conducted affairs of the city in the past, and mean to do everything in their power to assist him. There is no doubt but what he has been actuated by a strong personal desire to serve the city from the standpoint of the very highest principles, and this fact had much to do with his sweeping victory at the polls Monday.

Many people attribute the victory to support of the women. While this is true, it cannot be said that a majority of men did not support him for they did, as the vote indicates. It is to be hoped this unequivocal assurance of cooperation will strengthen the administration in its future endeavors, and be instrumental in bringing about results which heretofore have not been accomplished. There is a great future before Greenville, and the re-election of Mayor Clark and competent aldermen bespeaks fulfillment of ambitious programs in interest of the people.

There are always certain demands made of public officials which the general run of people are not able to appreciate, but to these things the administration has always measured up to in an interesting way. This was one reason of the great victory, a victory in which the majority of voters had opportunity of expressing their choice.
They did so in an unspeakably plain and determined way, therefore, the future of Greenville cannot remain in doubt. The administration has public support and there is reason to believe it will make good of the faith and confidence which the people have reposed in it.

Textile workers in Tennessee threaten to walk out on a prolonged strike if their wages are cut. Employers should let them go, for starvation starving them in the face will work wonders.
Not so very long ago most any person could quit a job and find another waiting anywhere. Not so now. Readjustment has brought with it greater unemployment than noted in history of the country, and the independent workmen who says he won't do this or that finds himself in position where it is either work or starve the alternative rests entirely with him, too, for the American people are tired of abnormal ity and mean to bring about adjustment as early as possible. Wage reductions are necessary if this is accomplished, therefore, workmen who oppose such issues simply cut their own throats in the long run, that's all there is to it.

President Harding has launched a campaign against what he terms a dangerous tendency of government departments to live beyond means provided by congress. He is perfectly right in doing so, for the American government has been far too extravagant in the past, although abnormal conditions brought on by the war was chiefly responsible for this. The quitting time has come, however, and it is to be hoped the president will wage an eternal warfare against reckless spending of funds until he has produced the desired change. Economy is very necessary at this time, and if it is not practiced in government offices we are unable to determine where it should begin.

YOUNG'S PREPARING TO BECOME LARGE DEPARTMENT STORE

The Young's store has purchased the store adjoining it on the north side and will in the future conduct a men's department store in the building which they now occupy and will use the recently purchased building for a ladies department store. Both stores will be separate and distinct with a door connecting them. Mr. and Mrs. J. K.

Young have just returned from northern markets where Mr. Young says he bought an up-to-date line of both ladies and men's ready to wear.

Young's store celebrated its first birthday in February of this year, and although it is too young to walk it is talking and has grown so rapidly, almost by leaps and bounds, that it has established an enviable reputation in this section of the state and won many friends.

With the addition of more room the store will be in a better condition to accomodate the large crowds and will be better for the customers in that they can see what the store has to offer without being crowded.

MISS LEE NOW IN LOUISIANA
The following clipping taken from the Greensburg, La., will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Maude Lee who is with the Radcliffe Chautauqua.

The Little Echo has had delightful company this week in the person of Miss Maude Lee, advance agent of the Radcliffe Chautauqua of Washington, D. C., of course she is very highly entertaining, as she represents a concern that doesn't employ boneheads.

What we do for homes that buy The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

AFTER you've bought, what then?

Will you be able to get the selections you like best? Will you have an expert to look after your instrument regularly and keep it tuned year after year? Will you have a music organization interested in helping you get every enjoyment out of your instrument?

You will,—if you buy your New Edison from us.

Our business is helping people find true musical enjoyment. Equipping their homes with New Edisons is only one step in the process. Serving their homes with Edison after-service is the other step.

We give this service, every time we sell a New Edison. Remember,—the two together bring the music you want in your home.
