TAX COLLECTIONS FOR PITT LARGER THAN ANY SECTION

Report of Delinquent Tax Payers Shows Only About $5,000 Worth Property Be Sold for Taxes

Hard times may be staring many a Pitt county man in the face these days, but this has not prevented them from appearing at the sheriff's office and settling their taxes. The report of delinquent tax payers carried in the columns of this paper today indicates that Pitt county has established one of the best records in the collection of taxes of any other county in the State, and as times have been hard and money more elusive than in years the fact is considered something to be proud of, no doubt about that.

It is stated that a total estimate of delinquent taxes only involves about five thousand dollars, compared to fifty and a hundred thousand for other parts of the State. As a result there will not be over five thousand dollars in personal property offered at public sale within the next few weeks, and even the poorest kind of cotton and tobacco grower will not be oppressed by the thought of insolvency. The taxable value of real and personal property of Pitt county is roughly estimated at $62,000,000. This goes to show the extent of operations of county officials and the willing spirit of the people to settle their dues to the county regardless of stringent money.

It was at first thought the sum would be much larger, but for the past several weeks collections have been made more expeditiously than anticipated, and as a consequence the few public sales to occur in the future are considered out of the ordinary. The record is about as good, if not better, than many years when prosperity and inflation were at their height and has been a source of much surprise and gratification among members of the board of county commissioners as well as other authorities. It is attributed largely to the spirit of thrift and enterprise of Pitt county people and shows they have been supporting their county under all conditions.

GUS FORBES PROVING SOMETHING OF A GOOD FOX RAISER LATELY

Gus Forbes, well known trapper of this city is becoming something of a fox raiser these days, as he now has ten small fellows on hand which he plans to keep until they get large enough to furnish some sport for local hunters. Mr. Forbes succeeded in catching five of his captives this morning in a large log a short distance from the river.

He started out at an early hour this morning when his dogs struck the trail of the mother, out instead of following the frightened animal Mr. Forbes called in his dogs and inspected the log where the old fox came out of. He pretty soon discovered that it was her home and much to his joy and surprise, in a few minutes came upon the five little fellows, which had grown almost large enough to be released by the protecting mother.

The five which Mr. Forbes already had at home were captured several weeks ago and were so small at the time that he was forced to turn them over to the protection of an old house cat. Pussy proved an admirable mother indeed, and looked after her adopted children in a way that has created much surprise and fun. She handles them exactly like she would one of her "short-nuff" babies, taking them by the neck with her mouth and transferring them from place to place when she feels the spirit of wander, lest troubling her old soul.

Mr. Forbes told several men this morning that he plans to keep the little animals confined until they get large enough to look out for themselves, when they will be released in the lowgrounds to furnish sport for the hunting season.

FARMERS PLEASED IN PROPOSED VISIT OF CALIFORNIA MAN

Extensive Plans Outlined for Visit of Aaron Saparito in Greenville Thursday, May 13

W. B. Pace, farm demonstrator agent of Pitt county who has been active in the interest of introducing the co-operative marketing association throughout this part of the State, stated this morning that the coming of Aaron Saparito California man who is to speak at the court house in this city Thursday, May 13th is being received with the keenest interest in every part of the county, and indications are that hundreds of farmers will be present to hear the wonderful mass of information which he has in store for them.

Every effort will be made to get as many people as possible here that day, because Mr. Saparito will discuss principles of the new marketing measure. He is well acquainted with every feature, having been legal representative for the association in California and also appearing in number of important cases in interest of the organization. He has found that the plan benefits the farmer because it provides that a major part of every crop be marketed through the association, which sets definite prices and then arranges with the manufacturers as to the amount he is to receive.

Arrangements will be made to secure the services of a band the day the speaker is here and music will be furnished all through the morning and at the speaking. Prominent county growers have already been consulted about the matter and it is possible that an elaborate program will be arranged in order to make the occasion as auspicious as possible.

The co-operative marketing measure has gotten a pretty good start in Pitt county, but campaign members are not satisfied and mean to keep working until eighty percent of cotton and tobacco have been signed up. This will give them complete control over the crop and place the association in position to demand prices in proportion to the cost of production.

SECURITY POLICE IN GERMANY MAKE TO REDUCE CRIME

Organization Plans in Middle Germany Develop Espionage System for Recording Acts of Violence

Halle, Germany, May 10.—The Security Police organization of Middle Germany, which has been the scene of widespread Bolshevik agitation and frequent clashes between Communists and government forces, has developed a system of espionage which enables it to record the daily activities of virtually every citizen and to trace minutely the movements of strangers.

The latter, without exception, are treated as suspicious characters until the authorities are convinced their business is legitimate and their intentions are honorable. Even with the most genuine, official documents, the police are not easily satisfied that a stranger, and particularly a foreigner, is not pondering deep plots and dark deeds against the government.

In the latest rioting here and in other central German cities, when nearly 4,000 Communists were arrested, innocent circumstances often assumed a sinister aspect in the minds of the police. The Associated Press correspondent, who had been many times examined by minor officials and frequently searched, was twice formally arrested and subjected to cross examination by the superintendent of the district police forces.

"We all know you, said this man when the correspondent was taken before him, and from a card he read the record of the Americans' movements for the three days he had been in the district. He knew the contents of telegrams which had been sent in one

MEXICAN LABORER IS PAINFULLY HURT EARLY THIS MORN

Luis Mora Receives Painful Injuries When Load of Rock and Mortar Are Dumped Upon Him

Luis Mora, Mexican laborer employed in the construction of hard surfaced roads between this city and Farmville, received painful injuries early this morning when a load of mortar and rock from a large mixing machine were dumped upon him as he was lying on the ground inspecting the machine. He was immediately rushed to the Smith-Skinner emergency hospital in this city where an examination showed that he had received a dislocated ankle, long gash over the left eye, besides injuries of the back which are not considered of a serious nature.

Mora and several other workmen had gathered at the mixing machine preparatory to beginning the day's work when the accident occurred. Mora himself was employed in firing a load of just in front of the mixer and left his machine to ascertain something under the machine and lay flat on the ground several minutes while making the inspection. It was while in this position that someone called to him to look out, but unthinkingly he failed to realize the danger, and in a few minutes his entire body was completely covered by a large load of rock and mortar released from the machine.

Workmen hurried to the rescue, and in a few minutes had the injured man on the way to the hospital. It was thought his injuries were internal but examination at the hospital showed that the shock had produced a state of semi-consciousness, and that the dislocation was about the most serious of his injuries.

BIG SALE AT ABEYOUNIS STORE ATTRACTS CROWDS

One of the greatest events ever staged in the merchandising world in men's, ladies' and children's apparel is the sale which is being conducted in the store of J. R. Abeyounis at Five Points. The great cut price sale is attracting people in large numbers and they are really finding bargains galore. Mr. M. L. Robbins, sales manager, is doing everything possible to promote the sale, and he states that the goods must and will go. For their prices and bargains read the page in today's issue. The bargains will thrill people with joy as they are a death blow to H. C. L.

Mr. S. G. Wilkinson left today for Salisbury to attend the Funeral Directors and Embalmers Association.

English, had record of conversations held with German officials, Communists, hotel waiters, porters, policemen on the streets and chauffeurs.

He was, however, in doubt about the correspondent's opinions regarding Communism and wanted to know about a certain interview with leaders of Communists who were fighting near Elsieben.

"You made a speech to them and appeared to have been favorably received," he said. "What was your purpose and what did you say?" Assured there had been no speech-making, the superintendent summoned the chauffeur who had been employed by the correspondent in an effort to reach the Communists. The official finally was convinced the visit was only for the purpose of securing information and that no influence, except an American passport as identification, was employed over the rebels.

He then dismissed the correspondent who, however, next day was again arrested as he entered the local police headquarters. There followed another examination which ended only when the American threatened to report the treatment he had received to the proper government official in Berlin. The attitude of the police and their very palpable nervousness, arose, they explained, out of the fact that the Communists outnumber them ten

SENIOR CLASS AT TRAINING SCHOOL WELL ENTERTAINED

President and Mrs. Robert H. Wright Entertained in Honor of Eighty-seven Young Women

President and Mrs. Robert H. Wright entertained on last Saturday evening in honor of the senior class of the Training school. The eighty-seven young women in the class say that the reception given by their president and his charming wife to other senior classes in the past could not have been more delightful than this one in honor of the class of 1921.

Members of the faculty assisted Mrs. Wright in entertaining and serving. Misses McFayden and Goggin met the guests at the door, and Misses White and Lewis presented them to the line. Pres. and Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Jarvis, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Harding, Dr. and Mrs. C. O. H. Laughinghouse, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Underwood, and Mr. Rose were in the receiving line. It was suggested that Miss Blanche Cannon announce the guests in the manner in which she announced them in the senior play when she served as butler. She did this and there was no mistaking the names.

Misses Roos and Harding received the guests in the dining room where refreshments were served by Misses Pearl Wright, Katherine Lister and Priscilla Austin. Mr. and Mrs. Austin received in the living room. Mrs. Hines and Miss McKay assisted by Miss Cole served punch. Misses Wilson and Bartholomew received in the library. Misses Mary Wright and Elizabeth Austin entertained with the victrola. Solo song by Misses Bartholomew, Aileen Jones and Joie Dorsett were very greatly enjoyed.

The house was beautifully decorated with red and white cut flowers and potted plants and vines.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Harrington left this morning for Richmond, Va., where Mrs. Harrington will receive treatment for appendicitis in one of the local hospitals.

POLLOCKS PLEASE IN FINAL RECITAL HERE LAST NIGHT

On last evening in the Eighth Street Christian church Mr. and Mrs. Pollock, assisted by Misses Aileen Jones, Mary Moye Savage and Miriam Shambart, rendered one of the best and most entertaining recitals ever given in this city. The church was packed to its capacity and every one thoroughly enjoyed the many numbers on the program. Each person participating did their very best, and the recital as a whole was a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. Pollock have been here for the past three weeks, and have had charge of the music during the evangelistic campaign which has been on in the Christian church. They are gifted musicians and have won a host of friends during their stay in Greenville.

The following program was rendered last evening:

- (1) "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," "Dear Old Pal," and "Mother Machree," Mr. Pollock.
- (2) Reading, Miss Miriam Shambart.
- (3) Hold Thou My Hand; The Singing in God's Acres; The Holy City, Mr. Pollock.
- (4) Piano solo, Mrs. Pollock.
- (5) Solo, Miss Aileen Jones.
- (6) Can't You Hear Me Calling; When I Ain't Got You; Eternity, Mr. Pollock.
- (7) Monologue, Dr. Shambart. At this point silver offering was taken.
- (8) Virgin Solo, Miss Mary Moye Savage, accompanied by Mrs. Pollock.
- (9) Piano solo, Mrs. Pollock.
- (10) I Hear You Calling Me; An Evening Love Song, Mr. Pollock.

COPPER STILL IS TAKEN BY COUNTY OFFICERS TUESDAY

Deputy Sheriff Thad Williams Gets Still at Hardee's Mill While Operating at Full Blast

The illicit whiskey traffic of this section of the state was given another effective blow yesterday afternoon when Deputy Sheriff Thad Williams, accompanied by C. T. Wooten, succeeded in capturing a 120 gallon copper still at Hardee's run, about three miles from this city. There were four operators at the still when the officers approached, but they escaped in the dense growth of surrounding woods after the officers had fired and commanded them to surrender.

The still was much superior to the usual type employed in the manufacture of contraband whiskey throughout this part of the country, being constructed entirely of copper, with worm and all accessories. It was first and in operation when the officers arrived, having 200 gallons of beer in the first stages of distillation and four hundred gallons in a state of fermentation, which would have probably been made into monkey rum immediately after the first supply had been produced.

The officers said it was evident the still had been in continued operation for the past several months. This fact is derived from the large supply of whiskey generally in evidence in that immediate locality, and the number of men connected with it. Three of the operators were white men, it is said, while the other was a negro, who probably remained at the still at night maintaining a vigilant lookout for the approach of officers. It is probable they would have been caught had it been suspected that the outfit was in operation at the time. The officers had not been informed of this fact, however, and consequently failed to resort to the usual surreptitious movements before arrival in close proximity to the location.

RUSSIANS APPEAL TO CONGRESS FOR EARLY ASSISTANCE

Chita Constituent Assembly Declares Aid is Needed in Districts Where Conditions Are Serious

Vladivostok, May 11.—(Delayed)—An appeal to the American congress for assistance has been made by the Chita Constituent Assembly. The memorial which is signed by Shilov, chairman and Suhovey, secretary, of the assembly, and is dated, March 4, says: "In this solemn hour in the life of the great American Republic when the new administration and congress take the fortune of the country into their hands, in one of the most critical moments in the life of the civilized world, we, the representatives of the people of the Republic of the Far East, send to you, the representatives of the free and freedom-loving American people, our congratulations and appeal. For years our country, the Far Eastern territories of the former Russian empire, has been the battleground for foreign invasion and internal civil war, kept alive by foreign interference with the internal affairs of our people. The Constituent Assembly of the Far East, elected upon a basis of universal suffrage, representing all classes of society, look up to the great Republic across the sea for inspiration and assistance."

MEMBERSHIP DRIVE IS STILL DRAWING GREAT ATTENTION

Fact That Yesterday Was Holiday Failed to Dampen Ardor of Campaign Workers

BOTH INDIVIDUAL AND PLURAL RECORD STILL GROWING LARGER DAILY

Fifty-four Additional Memberships Reported at Luncheon at Rotary Club in Evening

Additional memberships in the Pitt county chamber of commerce that were reported at one o'clock this afternoon brought the grand total for the first three days to 200. Team workers turned in application cards secured this morning when meeting at the Rotary club for luncheon. There were 28 of these. Major A. L. Blow's division reported 11 new memberships, Major J. L. Clodfelter's division 16 new memberships, and the county division of which Rev. J. B. Turner is commander 1 new membership. Totals reported yesterday were for 172 memberships.

The fact that yesterday was a holiday did not dampen the ardor of team workers in the membership campaign for the Pitt county chamber of commerce and the following plural and individual memberships were reported:

- Plural Memberships
- Greenville Supply Co. 5
 - Home Building & Loan Assn. 3
 - W. A. Bowen 3
 - Home Tel. & Tel. Co. 2
 - Mathews Grocery Co. 2
 - Pitt Shoe Co. 2
 - H. A. White 2

Following are the individual memberships signed up:

- Adams Tailoring Co., M. O. Blount & Son, Carter Motor Co., G. A. Clark, L. G. Congleton, Denton Drug Co., Dr. Joseph Dixon, Frank Gerguson, L. S. Garris, J. N. Gorman, Greenville Storage Battery Co., L. L. Hearne, S. T. Hicks & Co., Hill and Riddle, J. M. Hines, Mrs. T. E. Hooker and J. L. Horne.

N. W. Jackson, C. W. Jenkins, J. L. Kilgo, W. T. Lipscomb, Jr., Rev. Walter Patten, Prevor Hotel, J. P. Rowlett, Adrian Savage, R. E. Sellers, Dr. Jos. Smith, Smith and Spivey, T. H. Tyndall, S. B. Underwood, E. S. Webb and C. L. Kilkerson.

The drive was continued this morning, workers taking to residents of Greenville who had not signed up the invitation to join in this organization for the betterment of their county and town and of themselves. Reports are late coming in from the county, but regardless of this, there are many surprise packages to be opened as the campaign continues.

Yesterday's luncheon at the Rotary club was well attended, workers joining in singing songs and in enjoying the excellent dinner which was served. Of the 54 additional memberships reported, 12 were brought in by team No. 2, J. B. Kittrell, captain. This team is in the lead with 27 memberships to its credit to date, with George Clark's team No. 6 next in line, with 20 memberships. Major P. L. Clodfelter's division, consisting teams 5, 6, 7 and 8 is in the lead, with actual memberships signed up, reporting 67 to date. Major Blow's division, teams 1, 2, 3 and 4, is next, with 59. The Woman's division, Mrs. J. E. Winstow, major, had seven memberships yesterday at noon, and the county division, one actually signed up and accounted for, the bulk yet to be heard from. The special committee's total of 38 memberships brought the grand total yesterday up to 172 memberships.

CIRCLE NO 3 MEETS WITH MRS. K. W. COBB

Circle No. 3 of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church held its regular meeting for May on Monday afternoon, the 9th, with Mrs. K. W. Cobb. There were 18 members present. After all business was transacted the meeting adjourned and a delightful social hour was enjoyed. The hostess served a delicious luncheon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. W. L. Best on June 13th.

LABOR RULES COST ROADS MILLIONS

Directly Interested in Effort to Stop Drain on Carriers' Income.

BIG SUMS FOR WORK NOT DONE

Railways Adding Labor Board to Abrogate Wasteful Agreements Made Under Federal Control.

The entire country, its consumers, its farmers, its workmen, and even the railway employees themselves, are directly interested with the railroads in cutting down railway operating expenses.

This is the keynote of the case presented by the railroads to the United States Railroad Labor Board, now in session in Chicago.

The railroads have submitted evidence to the board to show why the National Agreements affecting railway shop labor should be abrogated, believing that this is a vitally important step in the process of reducing operating expenses.

This step is not only necessary to insure adequate earning power to the railroads, but will make possible an ultimate reduction in rates.

The agreements were made by the Railroad Administration just before the end of Federal control. The sum total of the rules and working conditions provided by the National Agreements have increased the operating expenses of the railroads by hundreds of millions, and have decreased the efficiency and output of the employees in other ways resulting in losses which cannot be calculated in dollars and cents.

For several weeks the railroads have been multiplying instances of the absurd and extravagant results of the labor rules fastened upon them by the National Agreements.

In one case cited before the board a machinist was paid 16 1/2 hours' wages for work all performed within eight hours. This case illustrated the effect of the rule that for each "call" the worker is to be paid five hours' wages even if he works only ten minutes.

The case of a car repairer on the Virginian Railway, who was recently paid over $1,000 for services which were never rendered, and in addition the same amount of overtime as was made by his gang, was another example.

In connection with the rule that none but mechanics or apprentices shall do mechanics' work, the following was cited to indicate its unfairness:

Five Hours' Pay for 30 Minutes' Work
The El Paso & Southwestern Railroad recently had an engine set out at Douglas, and about the time it was ready to go to its train it developed that a window light was broken in the cab. It was necessary for the foreman to call a carpenter to do the work that he could have performed himself in a few minutes. The train was delayed one hour and 30 minutes, and the employee called to do the work was paid five hours for work requiring 30 minutes.

The inefficiency created in inflexible application of the rules contained in the agreements in question was illustrated in the following actual case which recently occurred on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad:

"An engine was placed in the shops for certain repairs. Because of the provisions of the National Agreement, it was necessary that members of five crafts perform parts of this work; formerly, the entire operation was performed by the members of but two crafts."

$6,500,000 for Work Not Performed
How the railroads of the country were compelled to pay almost $6,500,000 in the first six months of 1920 for service not rendered because of the effects of but one of the 182 rules included in the Shop Crafts National Agreement was shown in the testimony.

This punitive payment for work never performed was required by a clause in the National Agreement, which provides that when employees are required to check in and out on their own time they will be paid one hour extra at the close of each week.

The rigid classifications of labor, when taken in connection with the rule that requires that a man must have four years' experience before being employed to perform any of the work listed in them, result in paying rates applicable to men who are supposed to be fully qualified for work which does not require men of four years' experience.

To illustrate how the inflexibility of many of the rules now enforced operate to mulct the railroads of large sums for services which in the absence of these rules could be obtained for relatively moderate sums, evidence was laid before the Labor Board showing that three men who were employed at a small pumping station in Michigan, performing unskilled work, would, when classified under the rules, receive an excess of pay amounting to more than the value of all the water pumped and current generated at this station.

The Chicago testimony contains literally hundreds of instances such as those all supporting the contention of the railroads that the labor rules under which they have been forced to work are such as to prevent the "honest, efficient and economical management" demanded by the Transportation Act.

How you can measure tire value in 1921

OFTEN it's surprising the number of different tire views that come out in a chance talk at the curb or in the leisure of a friend's garage.

Almost every day you come across the man human enough to believe he can outguess the cut-price tag on "job-lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks."

His opposite is the hard-pan car owner who sticks year in and year out to a standard brand as the only rational economy.

Many will remember the scarcity of U. S. Tires last year.

A hardship at the time, but a benefit now. There are no U. S. Tires to be worked off—no accumulations—no forced selling of any U. S. brand—no shipping of tires from one part of the country to another to "find a market."

There are 92 U. S. Factory Branches. Each one gets its share of U. S. Tires. There is a broad, constant, even distribution of U. S. Tires always going on from these Branches to the dealer.

Buy a U. S. Tire anywhere—in a community of 500 people or even less—and you get a fresh, live tire of current production—with all the original service and mileage the factory put into it.

The owner of a medium or light-weight car stands on equal ground with every other car owner.

Any United States Tire is a universal full money's worth—backed up with a leadership policy of equal quality, buying convenience and price for everybody.

THE DOT RED CROSS
By Clifford Leon Sherman

Doesn't it really seem funny that a girl who was brought up like our heroine could go in for the Red Cross work and make a success of it? Well, she did, and you will hear all about it a little later. I told you how she was frightened by spiders and all such beasts. But she really gave her parents a great fright when they found she had fainted away in her room. They discovered afterward that she had looked out of the window and saw her little brother who had a little cut on his

Congress faces a considerable amount of business during the present session, but if it accomplishes no more than the last body it might as well stop and ponder over what might have been done.

Senator Fletcher thinks the farmers will be disillusioned before the emergency tariff is in effect six months. There's no doubt about that, but like all other issues, they will have to be convinced before believing it.

The chamber of commerce expansion campaign is on in earnest now and reports from campaign headquarters indicate that managers are expecting great things. It is up to the business men to help put it across, for it vitally concerns them and everyone in the entire county.

The New York legislature has passed a line prohibiting landlords from refusing to rent houses to families with children. This is an excellent piece of legislation, and ought to appeal to other large cities where the family man has had much trouble in providing a suitable home for his family.

The Federal Council of churches has proposed an international conference, for the purpose of securing sufficient funds to meet the interference from the churches, and they will save lots of trouble by keeping out. They may advocate peace as much as they like, but keep out of the fight, please—keep out of the fight.

Prominent Japanese women are planning to organize a society tending to promote peace. The plan to cooperate with larger organizations and in that way make the spirit more general. There is much wisdom in the plan, and other countries might adopt the same measure to their direct advantage. However, nothing of any definite nature is assured until America concludes peace terms with Germany, and the women might as well remain quiet until this takes place.

Opinions regarding the sending of an American representative to sittings of the Supreme council appear to have a remarkable divergence in this country. But it cannot be disputed that the action is what has been needed all along. America has remained on the outside too long already, and the sooner she gets in and finds out what the other countries are planning the better it will be for her people.

The fact that April fire losses trebled in 1921 should cause people to consider more seriously than ever the necessity for adequate protection against such loss. Up to April the record had been a splendid one, and it really seemed as if the state was on a permanent road to better prevention measures. The May record may be better, therefore, it is up to the people to do the best they can and assist in all issues to prevent destructive fires.

A California bank has invented a device which it is believed will protect its vault from the most skilled of safe crackers. Huge bottles of mustard gas have been placed inside the heavy steel door and so arranged that the slightest jar will break them, allowing the deadly contents to escape. This does look like a pretty good scheme, but the professional crook will pretty soon invent some kind of way to make himself safe from gas. This is a great old world, especially among the crooked element, and when it becomes so bank robberies may be prevented as will be going same, that's all there is to it.

A BIG LEADER COMING

Pitt county cotton and tobacco planters should consider themselves fortunate in being able to hear such a distinguished agricultural representative as Abram Saprio, who will appear in his initial address here Thursday, May 13. The noted Californian comes under auspices of the State extension department and what he will have to say regarding the future of the American farming industry should be of vital importance to every man in Pitt county.

Mr. Saprio is a staunch advocate of the co-operative marketing association, in fact, he initiated the movement at a meeting of representatives from various parts of the state who gathered in Raleigh some months ago to discuss the issue. In that address he explained the advantages of the organization, particularly its working principles, and outlined a program ambitious indeed compared to those of the past. He also explained what had been done in California, of the success of the fruit growers in marketing their products and the adoption of the contract, showing the great things which had been realized since that time.

Pitt county has made enough progress in organization to be vitally interested in what the other parts of the country are doing in this direction and as Mr. Saprio is possibly better acquainted with these facts than any other person in the country it is safe to say he should be an interesting figure. Tobacco and cotton growers of this section have rallied to the call in a very gratifying way, but still they are not strong enough to realize the true greatness of the plan. Fifty percent of the total crop is necessary to make this possible, but greater the control of the crop the association has the better it can do in its prices in proportion to the cost of production.

Is it not advisable then that the campaign committees continue operations until they have signed up from eighty to ninety percent of the crop? We think it is, and others believe the same, therefore, it is very evident the idea should not be relinquished when they are at the brink of success. The time for action is here, and the man that fails to measure up to the responsibility will not only be doing his community an injustice, but his loved ones as well.

Borah's proposal for disarmament will be pressed by the Senate, so Washington correspondents say. That's nothing unusual, for if we see things as they are it has been pressed now until it won't stand up under many more attacks.

That ghost story sent out by Byron Ford from Dunn sounds like some of those fish narratives that originate in various parts of the state from time to time, except Byron must be competing for honors of being the biggest liar among state newspapermen. His a good story, one is bound to admit, but it wouldn't do to question Byron too closely about the matter, that's a settled fact.

The league of nations seems to be a pretty dead issue so far as the American government is concerned, but the way it is functioning in the interest of other countries causes many to believe we would be better off on the inside than standing on the outside peeping in. President Harding favors some kind of a world alliance, and maybe in the course of a few months he will become sufficiently reconciled to accept the league. At any rate, it is becoming a powerful medium in other large nations and the United States ought not delay too long.

Many New York people, we are told, are planning to eliminate rent bills during the summer by erecting tents in state and municipal parks which are thrown open to campers. For the sum of two dollars a week one is permitted to erect and live in a tent not larger than 10 by 12 feet and containing not more than four persons. This scheme no doubt will be considered favorably in many other large cities which have been oppressed by extortionate rents the past several months, and it would not be surprising if rents do not take quite a tumble before the winter months roll around again. The plan is as applicable to small towns the size of Greenville as to large cities, and if people could afford to set aside personal pride long enough to give camping a try, it is certain it would be appealing. It would not only reduce the cost of living, but tend to make people healthier. There's nothing like plenty of fresh air the most time of the year, and if housewives would take advantage of this new scheme they might raise a neat little sum with which to purchase new clothes for the winter.

Concerted attack upon the constitutionality of section 35 of the Volstead act has been started by a score of citizens in North Carolina against J. W. Bailey as collector of internal revenue, restraining him from collecting and levying penalties against them for alleged violations of the liquor laws of the United States, according to information made public this morning. Whether this will be received with any degree of favor by the courts goes without saying, but it's safe to say the public won't tolerate any tampering with laws which have become a part of the constitution and consequently may be considered unalterable. The whiskey interests have been watching for an opportunity to attack prohibition interests, and now they have showed their feathers no one need be in the dark as to their intentions. The only trouble is that the courts are not quick enough to recognize the surreptitious movements behind such charges and when they become more interested in public welfare conditions will be noticeably changed.

IMMANUEL BAPTISTS TO CROSS BATS WITH LOCAL METHODISTS FRIDAY

The baseball teams of the Immanuel Baptist church and the Jarvis Memorial Methodist will play the first game of the season at the fair grounds Friday afternoon. The contest promises to be one of the most interesting in something as much rivalry exists between the two teams, which represent the young men's Sunday school class of each institution. Dr. J. B. Turner, it is said, will do the mound work for the Immanuel Baptists while Willis Fleming will appear for the Methodists. Both twirlers are old at the game and promise their spectators something really interesting.

ENTERTAINS ROUND TABLE

Mrs. Nannie Jeter and Miss Weyman delightfully entertained the Round Table club on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. E. Austin. The program of the afternoon was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Person gave an interesting sketch of the lives of several of the "Makers of American Art", followed by Mrs. Fulford on "Famous Women in Art". Mrs. D. J. Whichard gave a very appropriate reading on "Memorial Day".

The club was glad to have as guests Mesdames Chaney and Hester D. May of Northfield, Vermont, Mrs. Davis of Providence, Rhode Island, and Mrs. Walter Patton. A delightful luncheon was served.

FARMVILLE DEFEATS AYDEN IN FIRST GAME

OF THE SEASON HERE

The Farmville baseball club defeated Ayden at the fair ground in this city yesterday afternoon by the score of 15 to 3. The game was played immediately following the termination of horse races, and proved interesting even though Farmville found their opponents easy prey.

Ayden played pretty good ball notwithstanding the heavy score. It was just a matter of hard hitting on the part of Farmville. This old ball was swatted from one part of the lot in a terrifying way, Ayden proving absolutely unable to curb the invincible batting spirit.

This is the first time the two aggregations have met this season and it was a pretty good test of strength. Farmville exhibiting considerably better form both in the field and at bat. Ayden displayed fairly good form, but it must be said that if they had been able to hit when hits meant runs the tide of victory would sound entirely different. As it was, Farmville made it a regular gala day event, and carried the laurels of the day home with only slight opposition.

NAVY REQUIREMENTS

HAVE BEEN REDUCED

Instructions have just been received by the local navy recruiting agent whereby the weight requirements for minors is greatly reduced. If you have been kept out on account of your weight, now is the time to make application for enlistment.

There is also good news for ex-service men. For further information apply at the navy recruiting station, court house building, Greenville, N. C.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Clark are spending the day in Washington.

Mr. J. W. Hays of Raleigh spent Tuesday afternoon in this city.

Mr. J. H. Barnes of Greensboro spent several hours in Greenville yesterday.

Messrs. J. T. Ross and H. E. Stewart of Washington were visitors in Greenville Tuesday evening.

Mr. F. R. Swindell of Beaufort spent Tuesday afternoon in this city on business.

Messrs. R. G. Gandy and C. F. Jones of Wilmington made a short business trip here yesterday afternoon.

Mr. J. O. Everett of Plymouth was in the city this morning on business.

Rev. Leland W. Smith left yesterday for Chattanooga, Tenn., to attend the Southern Baptist convention as a representative from the Memorial Baptist church of Greenville.

Evangelist Ben Edwards of Texas, who has been conducting a series of revival services at the Christian church in this city for the past several days, left this morning for Windsboro, Kentucky, where he will begin another revival.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Pollock, who have been in charge of the singing at the Christian church revival, left this morning for Windsboro, Kentucky, where they will again be connected with Dr. Ben Edwards in revival services.

HALL—NOBLES

On yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Pender in Hobgood, Miss Glennie Nobles of Greenville and Mr. L. P. Hall of Hobgood were solemnly married by the Rev. W. H. Holwell, the Baptist minister of Kelford. The parlor in which the marriage took place was beautifully decorated with ferns, cut flowers and burning tapers.

The bride wore a going away suit of Harding grey tricotine with accessories to match and carried a shower bouquet of brides' roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Hall is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Nobles of this city. She received her education at Durham conservatory of music and for the past year has been music teacher at Hobgood. Although she has only been in Greenville a short while she has always lived in Pitt county and possesses a host of friends.

Mr. Hall is a native of Kelford. He holds a position with the A. C. L. Railroad in Hobgood.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hall left for a bridal tour of Northern Virginia.

The out of town guests attending the wedding were: Messrs. Allen and Belle Jones of Bechel, Miss Lena Whitehurst, Greenville; Mr. Bose Noble, Greenville; Mrs. F. S. Hitch, Williamston; Miss Bess Edwards, Galesville, and Miss Helen Mattocks of Greenville.

"Tableaux of Old Familiar Songs" will be given tonight at White's theatre between pictures. Several of Greenville's most attractive young ladies and gentlemen will take part in the tableaux, dressed in costumes to fit each song. Old familiar songs such as "Annie Laurie," "When You and I were Young, Maggie," and "Love's Old Sweet Song," will be posed while the song is being sung. Brilliant costumes and scenic effects will add to the beauty and attractiveness of the entertainment. The tableaux are being given for the benefit of the Daughters of the Confederacy.

MISSIONARY MEETING

The Missionary Society of the Memorial Baptist Church held their regular monthly meeting on Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Holloman. The meeting was very large attended. Mrs. L. A. Stroud led the meeting in a most interesting manner, her subject being "The Word." Mrs. L. W. Smith made an appropriate talk on Prayers of the Old Testament.

After the program was given the meeting was turned over to the president, Mrs. Lula Fleming, and a business session was held. The treasurer reported that $102 was collected and donated to mission objects during the month of April and the social service committee also gave a gratifying report. After other matters were discussed the meeting adjourned to meet on the second Monday in June.

The new Spring clothes are such a temptation to every woman who loves pretty things—and sometimes she cannot afford quite all she wants. So we are suggesting a real economy—a corset which is dependable in style and fit and which gives wonderful service in long wear.

The prices of Warner's are not only unusually low, but they are even lower when you consider how long one of these corsets will last and that it can be washed again and again to be just as good as new. We are showing plenty of styles from which to select your model.

BUY YOUR COAL DIRECT FROM MINE—BIG SAVING

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal is to get direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a car-load buyer or one who uses only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old established concern THE BERNICE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 587 Coma Building Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never had coal before that makes so little dust, that burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernice Coal Co., at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.—adv.

THE DOT RED CROSS
By Clifford Leon Sherman

The girl we are telling about really became violently interested in the Red Cross work the year before we went into the war. I hadn't seen her for a long time, but used to talk to her over the phone. It seemed she was dancing a lot for foreign charities which seemed a ridiculous thing for any one to do. But she made up her mind about her career one day when she received a letter from a London hospital. It told her that her favorite cousin who went to France to drive an ambulance had been wounded by a German — which just missed his

LOUIS VAN IERSEL

Louis Van Iersel of Passaic, N. J., was the most decorated war veteran attending the convention of the American Legion in Cleveland. He won 19 medals of valor during the World war, one of them being the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest award of Uncle Sam to his heroes. Van Iersel is here showing some of his medals to Mayor Fitzgerald of New York.

COVINGTON WOMAN HIGHLY PLEASED

Says a Number of Her Friends Took Tanlac After Seeing Wonderful Good It Did Her

"If I could talk to everybody suffering as I did I'd certainly tell them to take Tanlac, for it has relieved me of troubles that made life miserable for six long years," said Mrs. Margaret Hutchins, of 511 Bakewell street, Covington, Ky.

"About six years ago my back, limbs and joints got to hurting and I gradually got worse until I had to use a stick in getting about the house. Nearly two years ago my stomach became disordered and whatever I ate pained me for hours and much of the time I was badly bloated. I could hardly stoop over in doing my housework and finally I got so weak and nervous I just had to give up trying to do anything. I suffered tortures from cramps and pains all over my body and was so miserable I thought I'd never be well again."

"My husband got me a bottle of Tanlac and by the time I had finished my second bottle I was fast getting better. I have just finished my tenth bottle and have no more aches nor pains and am no longer troubled in any way. I am so delighted with Tanlac that I've put my little girl to taking it as a tonic and have also persuaded a number of my neighbors to take it."

NOTICE

Beginning this week I will inspect all back yards and lots in the town of Greenville in interest of the malaria campaign which is now being waged in this section for the eradication of the mosquito. I take this method of asking everyone to co-operate with me in the campaign so it can be the great success which we anticipate.

J. G. Bowling, S. C.
Mgr. Malaria Campaign.

Time Tests Plumbing Work

THE house built upon sand looks as good as the one founded upon a rock—at first. But time determines the worth of the plumbing fixtures and the skill and care with which they are installed, just as it tests the foundations.

If you are interested in having honest, capable plumbing service call upon us. Those whom we serve will give all the testimony you want as to our ability.

Playing Mother and Father to His Baby Brother

This is a common sight in Poland today, eight and ten-year-old children mothering and fathering their baby brothers and sisters. This photograph, secured by an American Jewish Relief worker at Brest-Litovsk, shows an eight-year-old boy feeding his little brother from a bowl of hot soup just secured at a feeding station supported through American funds. The relief workers found 10,000 children, mostly war orphans, living in deserted dug-outs at Brest-Litovsk.

It is to aid such waifs as these that the European Relief Council has been formed by merging the relief activities of the American Relief Administration, the American Red Cross, the American Friends' Service Committee (Quakers), the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, the Knights of Columbus, the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

The NEW EDISON

Artist Recording an Edison RE-CREATION

Same Artist proving the RE-CREATION by Direct Comparison

Only the NEW EDISON sustains the Direct Comparison Test

This means that the New Edison is the only phonograph that gives you exactly what the artist or artists sing or play into the recording horn when making a RE-CREATION.

This means that no other phonograph or talking machine can give the life-like realism you have a right to expect for your money—the absolute realism that Mr. Edison spent three millions of his dollars to develop.

And finally, this means that, if you are interested in buying a phonograph, your good judgment should bring you to this store to ask us to prove the above claims. We shall welcome your visit.

Quinn-Miller

GET a copy of that newest Edison Booklet "What Edison Likes in Music." It's free for the asking. It tells you lots of things you want to know,—what Mr. Edison's 25 favorite tunes are,—what he thinks about selecting music for home use. It also names 6 selections he believes every one should own. Our supply of these booklets may not go around,—better act promptly to get your copy.
