BAPTIST MINISTER RETURNS FROM TRIP TO BIG CONVENTION

Rev. Leland W. Smith Reports Pleasant Trip to Chattanooga and Interesting Session

Rev. Leland W. Smith, pastor of the Memorial Baptist church of this city who has been attending the convention of Southern Baptist churches in Chattanooga, Tenn., returned this morning, reporting a fine trip and one of the most interesting sessions in years. Mr. Smith says there were some 10,000 delegates and visitors at the convention, representing practically every church throughout the South, and that interest was at its height from the opening to the concluding session. The convention was held in the Billy Sunday tabernacle, which is one of the largest Baptist churches anywhere in the county, and at the past Sunday's service, the building was crowded to its utmost capacity. The building has a seating capacity of approximately 8,000, but it is estimated that some 10,000 persons were crowded into it during Sunday's service.

Mr. Smith declares he never saw a city so desirous of entertaining the great throngs of visitors as was exhibited by Chattanooga. The city's gates were thrown wide open at the outset and every effort was made to provide plenty of wholesome amusement. That this desire was fulfilled was expressed in the genuine interest prevailing in the general business sessions, in which city clergymen played an important part and did everything possible for the pleasure of their visitors.

Mr. Smith returned via Richmond, Va., where he visited a number of Greenville people confined in hospitals there. He says they were glad to see some one from home, and appeared to be in pretty good spirits and sanguine as to early convalescence.

MASTER PLUMBERS IN ANNUAL SESSION IN CITY YESTERDAY

Number of Interesting Problems Discussed in Meeting at Chamber of Commerce Rooms

The fourth district convention of the Master Plumbers association was conducted at the chamber of commerce rooms in this city yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. The meeting was one of the most interesting of the association in several years, being largely attended by representative plumbers from every section of eastern Carolina and featuring in a business session and addresses of considerable moment to the organization.

Representatives from New Bern, Goldsboro, Wilson, Rocky Mount, Kinston, Wilmington, and many other towns were present and entered into discussions in a way that predicted great things for master plumbers of the State. The principal address of the day, although there were quite a number made, was delivered by Mr. J. H. Slaughter of Goldsboro and Mr. Batey of Kinston.

Mr. Slaughter discussed matters pertaining to the upbuilding of the trade, in which he gave some very instructive and highly entertaining points connected with the industry and the best way the ordinary plumber can go about in better business conditions. He compared price conditions prevailing in various towns and cities showing that there's not such a great difference after all, particularly among the city workmen and business houses. He declared it is imperative for every firm to co-operate as closely as possible during these stirring times of changes and abnormality in business and about the only way adjustment will ever be accomplished is for close co-operation and unionized efforts of the laborer and the general business man.

Mr. Batey discussed in a comprehensive way problems of apprenticeship, showing the great difficulty which the plumber had in the last several years in securing young men at nominal prices. He said very few realize that they must first learn the trade before receiving high wages, and that this spirit caused a severe situation to confront every employer during the inflation period. The time for changing this state of affairs has come, and it is up to all members of the trade to stand by one another in training young men for good jobs at prices to enable them to give value received.

There were a number of other speakers who discussed issues of paramount importance at the present time, and each took an optimistic view of business regardless of the apparent shortage of money existing everywhere. It seemed generally agreed that the present dark cloud has a decidedly bright silver lining and that the man who does his best for himself and fellow-man is the one going to enjoy the best things the future has in store.

In putting thousands of dollars in pockets of the grower which otherwise would have gone to the speculator and middleman will be explained by Mr. Sapiro here tomorrow, and the business man or farmer who fails to attend the speaking will be doing himself a direct injustice. It is an issue in which every person is interested, and the sooner the plan is generally accepted the sooner business will be adjusted and the present money stringency relieved.

Mr. Pace, who has charge of the campaign in this county, will return from Snow Hill this afternoon and get final plans in readiness for the reception to be accorded Mr. Sapiro and other visitors tomorrow. He means to do the thing in a big way, and with co-operation the day will be the biggest the farmer has ever known.

BASEBALL SCOUTS REPORTED BUSY IN ALL PARTS LEAGUE

No New Developments Have Taken Place in Greenville, But the Scouts Are Busy

No new developments have taken place in the baseball situation in this city, except that scouts are in other parts of the State making an effort to get in touch with players who appeared in the line-up of the local club last year. There may be several new acquisitions, owing to the uncertainty of the acceptance of a contract of a number of old men, but the scouts mean to get the best and guarantee that Greenville will make a splendid showing when the season opens June 9th. Reports from other cities indicate that preparations are of an extensive nature, and that they also mean to put out a team to be reckoned with.

Give Typewriter Demonstration

Mr. A. H. Worth of Norfolk and George W. Gaskill of New York, representatives of the Underwood Typewriter company, were in Greenville this morning where they gave a demonstration of the Underwood typewriter before the commercial department of the high school. Mr. Gaskill is considered the leading amateur typist of the country, having a speed of 141 words a minute. His demonstration was one of the most interesting and instructive conducted in this city in sometime and displayed a high degree of skill and accuracy to be obtained from the durability of the Underwood product. Mr. Worth is a traveling representative of the company, and is in Greenville for the purpose of keeping in touch with users of the machine which was first to become a standard make in this country.

Attend Shrine Ceremonial

Several persons from Washington passed through Greenville this morning enroute to Raleigh to attend the spring ceremonial of Sudan Temple which begins with a large attendance of Shriner's from various sections of the State today. There happened to be a candidate in the crowd and this unfortunate passed over the hottest sand of his life while in Greenville. He had a dog chain around his neck and was being led by the other members who seemed to get much enjoyment out of his first experience.

Accepts Governor's Invitation

Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse this morning received the following letter from Governor Cameron Morrison, which is self-explanatory: "Will you render humanity the service to serve on the visiting medical staff at the Central hospital, Raleigh, without compensation other than actual expenses? I will greatly appreciate it and you will be doing our state and humanity a great service." Dr. Laughinghouse has notified the governor that he will be glad to serve and do whatever possible in interest of the issue.

Mr. Slaughter Here

Mr. J. H. Slaughter, former Pitt county man who has resided in Goldsboro for several years, was in Greenville yesterday attending the district meeting of the North Carolina Plumbers association. Mr. Slaughter was pleased with the remarkable progress of Greenville during the past several months and said he noted many changes of advantages to the city.

CHAUTAUQUA TO BE FULL OF INTEREST IN CITY THIS YEAR

Swarthmore Attraction to Open for Week Engagement in Greenville June 10 to 16

The advertising campaign for coming of the Chautauqua began this morning under direction of Professor H. E. Austin and indications point to an intensive drive into practically all surrounding communities. The date of the attraction is June 10 to 16, an entire week, which will be filled with numbers of features of greater interest than ever before. The program which is published in the columns of this paper today, is interesting indeed, and ought to be the means of a heavy sale of season tickets. The Chautauqua is a source of help to every community, and produces a spirit absolutely essential to the advancement of higher principles of civilization.

White to Head Kinston Club

Of interest to people in this city is the announcement received this morning that Jim White, Wake Forest coach, is to head the Kinston baseball club this season as manager. Plato Collins has been sent out by the Kinston club to hire players and reports seem to indicate that he is meeting with much success. Coach White has seen extensive service in college baseball having been connected with Virginia institutions before going to Wake Forest. The information shows that practice for the opening of the Eastern Carolina league will begin at an early date and that some mighty good ball is to be in evidence throughout the entire season.

Mr. Horton Here

Mr. J. Mc. Horton of Farmville, spent several hours in Greenville yesterday afternoon. Mr. Horton is one of Farmville's most progressive business men, and has seen extensive service in the upbuilding of his town and county. He is the father of Judge Lloyd Horton, one of the youngest judges on the bench in this part of the country.

Mrs. Harrington Improves

Mr. J. F. Harrington returned this morning from Richmond where he visited Mrs. Harrington who has been confined in a local hospital for several days. Mrs. Harrington was operated on yesterday afternoon and was getting along nicely when her husband left for Greenville.

One Marriage License

There was only one marriage license issued by the register of deeds in this city yesterday, that being to Joyner Tyson and Sarah Kittrell, colored, both of the Ayden community. The slump in business is not due to recently enacted legislation requiring physical examination before licenses are issued, but more directly to inactivity of Cupid, who evidently has gone back to the farm and is busy up for time lost during the recent weather.

CAPTAIN LORRAINE DIES OF PNEUMONIA WHILE IN RICHMOND

Mason Who Claimed to be Held in Turkish Prison for Years Succumbs to Short Illness

Information has been received in this city of the death in Richmond, Va., of Captain Lorraine, alleged dope fiend and member of the Masonic order, who visited this city several weeks ago, on a speaking tour describing persecutions which he received while held a captive in Turkish prisons for a number of years. The deceased wore long hair which formed a strange contrast with the serious face, and traveled from one section of the country to another, purporting to be a Mason, although this fact was doubted by men with whom he came in contact, especially in Greenville. Facts concerning the death are meager, but state that his death followed a short seige of pneumonia last Saturday, interment taking place in one of the Richmond cemeteries. He was confined in a hospital several days, and when he died hospital authorities notified the Richmond Masonic lodge requesting that something be done about the burial. He had about $20 in his pockets but this was insufficient for burial expenses.

After some deliberation and investigation the Masons decided to give the body a decent burial in preference to sending it to Potter's field, although they were unable to establish his standing with the organization. It was thought, however, that he had one time been a member of a lodge, but was not in good standing at the time of his death.

Captain Lorraine will be remembered by people in this part of the State, as his description of Turkish persecutions was vivid, and his story of coming to this country in search of his lost wife and child created great sympathy among many people, although it was not given much credence among a number of Masons. His style of dress and general appearance attracted considerable attention, especially the long hair, and people who once saw him will have little trouble of recalling his visit.

METHODISTS WIN FROM BAPTISTS IN GAME YESTERDAY

Jarvis Memorial Methodists Win From Memorials in a "See-Sawing" Affair, Score 9 to 8

In a game featured by irregularities in fielding and at the bat the Sunday school class of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church won from the Memorial Baptists yesterday afternoon at the fair grounds in the first game of the season by the score of 9 to 8. The game was filled with much interest, and from the very first inning supporters of both clubs had something to yell about regardless of the discouraging way fielders handled the old pill at times.

Kennedy pitched a good, smooth game for the Methodists, being constantly interrupted by heavy sweating by the Baptists, although the swats failed to produce anything in the shape of runs except in very few hits. Ragsdale did the mound work instances when hit was followed by for the Baptists and fared similar to Kennedy, yielding about as many hits and pitching well in pinches. Starr did the receiving for the Methodists while Leon Kittrell appeared behind the rubber for the Baptists.

The game was pretty well attended by supporters of both denominations, and rooting was all that could be desired at times, especially when the favorite team was in the lead. The game see-sawed, see-sawed and see-sawed some more before they were given a chance of really rooting for the victors, and when that glorious time came one would have thought

PREPARATIONS ARE MADE MEMORIAL CELEBRATION HERE

Definite Arrangements for Event to be Staged Under Auspices of the American Legion

Memorial day, May 30, is to be observed by the Pitt county post of the American Legion in Greenville. All veterans of the war between the States, the Spanish-American war and the world war are requested to participate.

Every service man in the county is expected to meet at the Atlantic Coast Line railroad station promptly at 10 o'clock Monday, May 30, to participate in the memorial day exercises. Cars will be provided for the Confederate veterans. Remember this one thing, be there. Be there on time and be there in uniform. It will add to the parade if you do this. We cannot produce the desired effect unless in uniform. Every man is requested to do his bit.

At a smoker given by the Pitt county post of the American legion about two weeks ago the following committee was appointed to get up a program for the Memorial day exercises.

D. L. Turnage, chairman, Dr. P. J. Chester, Frank Rice, E. G. Joyner, Dr. K. B. Pace, Rev. T. G. Vickers and Vance T. Bunting. Eastern Carolina league was an actuality and Greenville captured the pennant. That is the kind of rooting necessary to good baseball, however, and when the clubs meet again it is certain they will have even a greater number of supporters on the scene, regardless of the uncertainty of spectacular playing in any part of the contest. Guy Lanier developed into an excellent umpire during the game, gaining experience which few umpires are ever accorded.

FINAL PLANS LAID FOR COMING VISIT CALIFORNIA MAN

Greenville Preparing Entertain Aaron Sapiro in Really Big Form Tomorrow Morning

Preparations for the coming of Aaron Sapiro, California agricultural leader, who is to deliver an address before bankers, business men and farmers at the court house in this city tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock, continued today, without interruption and indications point to a large attendance of people from many sections of the State. Immediately after speaking in Greenville Mr. Sapiro will go to Wilson where he is scheduled to deliver an address during the afternoon hours.

Added interest is given the event by announcement that Dr. J. Y. Joyner of La Grange and M. L. Tomlinson of Wilson will be present to speak immediately after Mr. Sapiro, and as both are prominently identified with the farming industry, it is certain they will prove a great drawing card. Arrangements also have been made for a brass band of twelve pieces, which will furnish the music throughout the entire morning.

The second trip to this State of the noted Californian is being received with the most intense interest in every section, as he is to speak on a subject uppermost in the mind of the public at the present time. California is one of the first States of the country to give the co-operative marketing association a trial. It proved such a success that its business men and leaders in every industry are making efforts to have the principles adopted in other communities which have been wasting millions of dollars annually through an indirect and unsuccessful way of marketing their products.
The plan that has been instrumental

FRENCH BRIDES IN AMERICA DECIDE TO SEEK NATIVE SOIL

Numbers Who Married American Soldiers Decide They Like Sunny France Better

Chicago, May 17.—Many French brides of American soldiers are taking wing back to sunny France, according to the April records of the local passport office.

Presumably they are going back to visit, said Thomas Sells, deputy clerk of the U. S. court in charge of passports here. At least that is the reason most frequently assigned on applications.

Swedish girls, too, are making the pilgrimage to the land of their birth. In fact, the number of women of all nationalities now applying at Chicago for return to Europe decidedly exceeds that of men. American school teachers are also swelling the flow to foreign shores.

The hegia to Sweden, thinks Mr. Sells, is largely traceable to the high some wage paid domestics during 1920, which gave them funds sufficient for the trip.

But by far the largest number of passports now being issued here have Germany as destination," Mr. Sells said. Since we are still technically at war with Germany, however, he pointed out, passports cannot be issued to Germany from this office. Invariably, though, the applicants for German passports come to us first, and in this way we know approximately the number of people going there. We send them, of course, to the local Swiss consul, who has charge of German affairs, pending the declaration of peace; he issues the passports with out further formality.

The flow toward Germany is largely women, who are returning to visit relatives or seek them in case they have not been heard from. Very few men are returning—practically none on business missions.

BUY YOUR COAL DIRECT FROM MINE—BIG SAVING

The high cost of coal is a thing of the past! At least, there are no complaints on this account—since the removal of government restrictions—among those who have learned how to buy coal is to get direct from the mines. This saves several middlemen's profits. It saves hauling expenses. Anyone can now buy at mine prices, whether a carload buyer or one who uses only ten or fifteen tons a year. This has been made possible through a plan evolved by a large and old established concern THE BERNICE COAL COMPANY, with main offices at 587 Como Building Chicago.

This company has thousands of customers in various sections of the United States who receive all of their coal direct from the mines. These customers are pleased not only because of the many dollars they save every year, but also because of the quality of coal they are getting. Many write that they never had coal before that makes so little dust, burns so well, leaving so few ashes. If you are a coal user—whether you use hard or soft coal, much or little—it will be greatly to your advantage to write the Bernice Coal Co., at once for prices, stating kind and quantity of coal you use.—adv. 28 every Thurs. if.

A man is always losing his illusions, but not his faith. Faith is the nature of faith to grow and increase, for faith is a higher knowledge—an advance copy of what will be current knowledge. Illusions are lost because they are outside the man, but faith is inside, a personal, undebatable possession. Faith is a sixth sense which apprehends invisible things that are yet to be brought on to the visible plane. Faith is progressive because it is positive; unfaith is negative and therefore unproductive. Faith is its own guaranty, for while a man may have wrong illusions, his faith cannot take root except in the soil of truth. A man may have many illusions; he can have only one faith.—Henry Ford.

That billion and half dollars furnished for the exportation of cotton will keep things moving for the next several weeks, and maybe by the time it is exhausted another appropriation will be ready. This is one time the corporation has been able to set itself right with the people, despite predictions to the contrary.

Potter's field in New York City has reached its capacity, according to reports from that city. This is not the only cemetery filled up, for Green-Wood seems to be experiencing the same condition. Cherry Hill cemetery has been slightly enlarged, but there are very few desirable locations left. It is about time for city officials to begin looking around for a new burying ground, for if they do not the situation will be very pronounced in the near future.

The United States may be "fumbling with reconstruction problems" as some seem to think, but the way prices are tumbling among all lines of commodities it is apparent fumbling is getting results. There are more ways of doing a thing than one, and the United States will bring this out clearly before reconstruction is completed. Criticism has a tendency of bettering things, and people would do much to their interest to commend at every opportunity instead of sitting in some corner and hurling the cynic's ban.

People should heed Mayor Clark's request not to throw trash on the streets and obstruct operation of the street sweeper. Large containers have been provided in every section for the normal amount of refuse, and every one should see to it that they are used for their right purpose. This will not only be a help to city authorities, but will help much in increasing general appearance of the streets. Civic pride is essential to the success of every city, and unless citizens observe the ordinary laws of sanitation they need not expect visitors to be attracted by the town's appearance. Mayor Clark makes the request in the very best spirit and it is hoped everyone will respond immediately.

The fact that sixty-five thousand girls disappeared in the United States last year seems to indicate the wave of criminality is on the increase instead of decreasing as some like to claim. In large cities the lives of many women are constantly in jeopardy regardless of the extensive operations of the police. It seems the corruptive forces are gaining ground all the time. In fact, they are enabled to do so because of assistance from city women, whose personal appearance are very deceptive and cause hundreds of young women to find themselves in the grip of sin and despair because of their innocence of ways of the world.

FOOLS AND THE LAW

Seth Thomas says he has quit the law. He and Lige Smith went to the law for a short time. He won the pig, which soon died of cholera and he and Lige each had to sell a horse to pay their lawyers. There's more truth than fiction about this article than one would suppose, as it shows in a decidedly terse way the folly of persons going to law over some trivial matter which could be easily settled by due consideration of the true facts involved.

Some incidents occur in every section of the country, and probably more frequently in Pitt County than any other section. There are hundreds of cases settled at the court house in this county in the course of a year; matters that involve nothing of any importance, but which afford room for much contention. In many cases a farmer lays his neighbor because the neighbor refused to momentarily agree with him on some unimportant issue. The result is that both are forced to pay out an enormous fee to attorneys for settling the matter and cost of action of the court.

The courts would be short of work many a term if people would give their cases mature deliberation before carrying them to an attorney for consultation. Nine times out of ten the lawyer advises carrying the matter to court merely for the purpose of getting his fee. Not that all do this, but there are a great number of unprincipled barristers who haven't built up a lucrative practice and are forced to resort to anything to meet the ordinary living expenses. The public is made the goat of his knowledge of law in thousands of instances; in fact many more times than one would suppose.

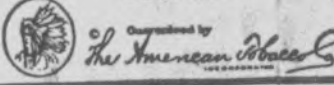

If the farmer and the business man would give contemplated law issues just a little more calm study and thought they would save many a dollar which otherwise finds its way to the pockets of a lawyer who does nothing more for them than increase bitter feeling and resentment. The time has come when people must wake up and realize the folly of carrying everything to the courts; things which out to be settled amicably and in good spirit instead of through malice and ill feeling. The case of Lige Smith and Seth Thomas affords a striking example for contemplation and the ridiculous spirit of rivalry, which, invariably occurs among the ignorant and illiterate class of people who know no better than to believe a lawyer may be counted on for his veracity and infallible spirit of integrity.

Herbert Hoover, who has always been recognized as a critical observer of conditions in this country, says we have "turned the corner" and industry is on the upgrade. This statement should be received with much interest everywhere because it shows the country is better off than many would have us believe. The fact that business is on the upgrade is gratifying indeed, for when the wheels of industry begin to hum with usual degree of regularity it is safe to say better times are ahead. Mr. Hoover has studied American people and industry probably as no other man and what he says may be counted for something.

Business men, bankers and cotton and tobacco growers of this section should not forget to attend the meeting to be conducted at the court house in this city Thursday, May 19th, when Sapiro of California, is to deliver an address on co-operative marketing. Mr. Sapiro is considered one of the best authorities in America on the subject and it is safe to say that what he has to say will mean much to the farming industry in the days to come. The time for action on part of the American farmer is at hand, and when he learns to act intelligently his future will be much better than the past. The message Mr. Sapiro will bring will be constructive and full of timely advice, and the business man that takes advantage of the opportunity will be helping himself and the farmer, too.

M. Briand's plan is that the allies shall guarantee the German indemnity loans, and then American capital shall buy them. The plan may appeal to the French, but the American financier who has placed so much money in the rehabilitation of Europe is not over anxious about it. America has already placed more money than is visible in helping that section tide over to better times, and it's about time they were showing up.

THE GREY FRIEND
He lies at the top of the stair for hours.
His eyes on the front hall door.
Awaiting a step, and lifting a latch
And a call he shall hear no more.
His mistress a moment her grief may cheat,
On a mother's cares intent,
And the children romp on the playroom floor
As they did ere their father went.
But the grey dog joins in their glee no more.
And rouses alone to rise Again to go searching the house—in vain—
And the prayer in his dumb brown eye.
Is a piteous thing; for men have a heaven,
And healing for every smart,
But where in the earth or in heaven is help
For a dog with a broken heart?

ABEYOUNIS SALE IS TO CLOSE SATURDAY

Numbers of Bargains Remaining Will be Offered to Public at Sacrifice Prices
The Reflector wishes to call attention of its many readers to the page advertisement of J. R. Abeyounis carried in today's issue, in which great bargains are offered in the sale which has been in progress for the past several days.
Crowds of interested shoppers have thronged the store from time to time since the sale has been in progress, and as a consequence a considerable amount of goods has been disposed of. However, there are plenty real bargains remaining and people hun-ging full value for their money will not be mistaken in purchasing while the sale continues.
Mr. M. L. Robbins, who has charge of the sale, stated this morning that the sale will close Saturday, and urges that people intending to buy had better do so as soon as possible.
The match for this unusual May weather may have occurred sometime in the past but we doubt it.

BATHING SEASON SOURCE OF MUCH INTEREST HERE

Hundreds Daily Stand on Sands and Enviously Watch Bathers, Unable to Join in Sport Know how to swim?
If you don't it would be a good idea to learn.
It's great sport and the season will soon be here.
Beach resorts will soon be open and the crowds will be there.
Thousands will take to the water while you stand on the sands and envy them.
If you learn to swim it will not be necessary for you to remain on shore and watch the human fish.
You can get in there and enjoy the sport. It's healthful and invigorating and you can learn if you will take the trouble.

Summer—the season for all out of door sports—is so near you can almost feel it. Within the month it will have arrived, and then—O, boy! watch the beaches!
It's the season for swimming and the population, or the best part of it, will swim. And there's the whole of Chesapeake Bay and the Atlantic Ocean to cavort in.
The season for baseball, tennis and golf has been here for several weeks and the fields have been alive with followers of these sports. But for swimming, a little more than warm weather is exacted. The water must be at an even temperature and the suns of June get the temperature just about right. And it stays right until late in September.

Of course there are few hardy fellows who do not wait for summer to go in swimming. They take their daily plunge every morning from the beginning of the year until the end.
To those few the mere act of exercising the arms and legs does not figure in the sport. They like that plunge and they take it and they claim it makes them "fit" for the rest of the day.
The above article, taken from the Norfolk Ledger-Dispatch shows to what extent people are enjoying bathing these days. While Greenville has no ocean or sound to brag about, it has a splendid place in Amuzu park, which is already open and will continue to be open to hundreds of Grenville and Pitt county people during the summer months.

NEW RELIGION SPRINGS UP IN JAPAN SECTION

Arrest of Three Priests of Mysterious Cult Bring About Practice of Religion Again

Tokio, May 17.—The sudden arrest of three priests who presiding over the mysterious Japanese cult known as Omotokyo, founded by an elderly woman named Deguchi, has again brought into public practice this religion which aroused interest throughout the empire because it is regarded as a strange mixture of extreme chauvinism and revolutionary radicalism.

Many extraordinary reports have recently been circulated concerning the mysterious influence of the cult. For instance, some people attributed the recent curious murder of a wealthy Osaka business man while he was traveling on a train from Tokio to that city, as an act of vengeance of Omotokyo.

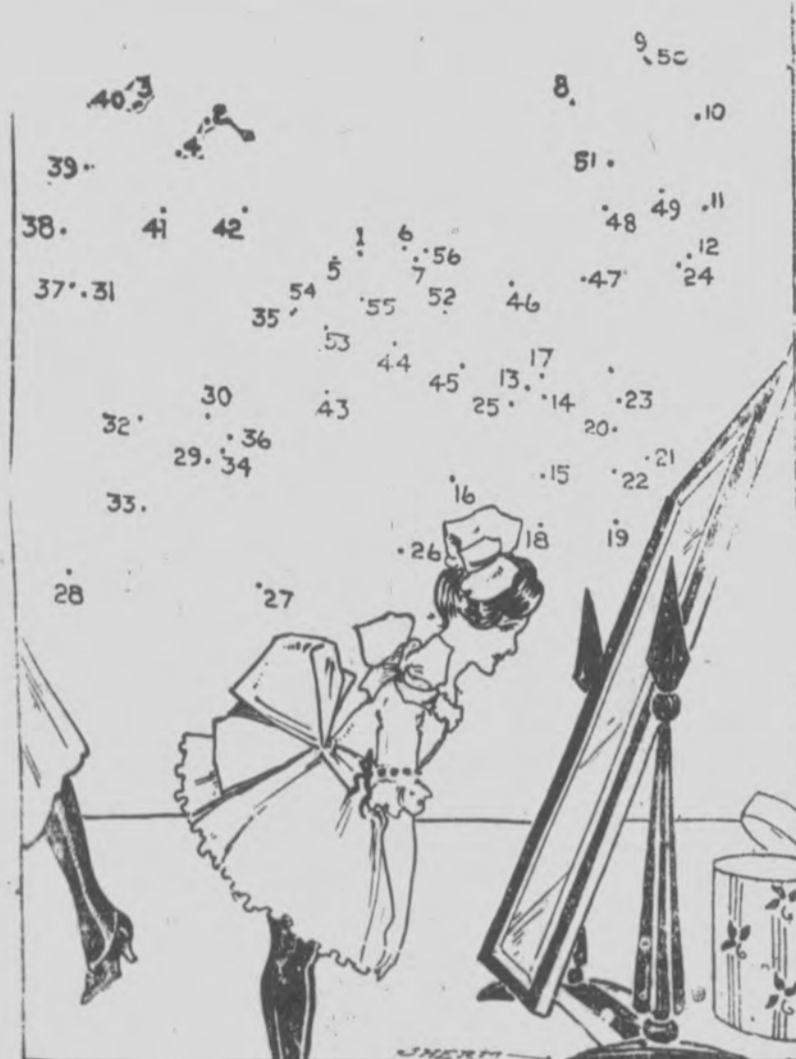

Many wealthy people who became interested in the cult are alleged to have been forced to make large contributions, and it is even charged that some people who obtained intimate knowledge of the secrets of the religion mysteriously disappeared. Some who went to Ayabe, a small village in the province of Tamba, Kyoto prefecture, where is located the headquarters of the religion for the purpose of detecting the real nature and scope of the cult have failed to return and are entirely unaccounted for.

The charge upon which the three priests were recently arrested is unknown and the Japanese newspapers have been forbidden to publish any news concerning the arrest. A girl of 14, Naohi Deguchi, the daughter of the founder is supposed to be the presiding priestess of the temple and it is declared that other priests have explained the disappearance of their leaders by telling the Omotokyo worshippers that they have been hidden by some unseen deity in accordance with divine will.

One of the attributes of the temple at Ayabe was professed to be a sacred well in the compound of the temple and this water was supposed to come from a spring of holy origin. Mining engineers from Kobe working on a concession near the temple uncovered two big water pipes which fed the well from a nearby pond. The engineers will excavate the ground of a subterranean hall below the famous golden pavilion of the temple. The story is that the founder of the cult buried a million yen worth of pure gold in the floor of the temple and that ten carpenters who were employed in the construction of the hall never returned to their homes.

THE DOT RED CROSS
By Clifford Leon Sherman

Our heroine was brought up so beautifully that she didn't know there were any rough things in life. She was carefully shielded if ever a little girl was. And her manners were certainly perfection. She knew exactly what to do and when to do it. She had a French teacher and a dancing teacher and I don't know what. And she didn't have to do anything for herself. Why, you may not believe it, but, when she used to go to the class in department twice every week a maid went with her just to carry her.
