METHODIST PLAN TO RAISE MONEY FOR EDUCATION

Local Methodist Church Will Subscribe $16,000.00 To Be Used For Education

Next Sunday the Methodist Episcopal church, South, opens its purse for the education of the youth who choose to attend the academies, colleges and universities under its control. This denomination has built and now maintains two universities, twenty six A grade colleges, twenty eight junior colleges and thirty academies. This is a total of eighty six schools. To care for the young people who are knocking at the doors of these academies and colleges a careful survey shows that the church dares not delay longer asking that this amount of money be provided to meet the urgent need. The week from May 2 to June 5 has been set aside as the time to make a church wide appeal for the support of these educational institutions.

The North Carolina conference is asked to raise $1,322,700. All of this money except $205,000 is to go to the colleges of this conference. The Washington district has been asked to raise $100,000. The local church, Jarvis Memorial, is requested to subscribe $16,000.

This is the first time in the history of the church that a great church wide movement has been entered upon in behalf of the educational institutions. Notwithstanding the financial depression that has settled upon the southland, it is inspiring to see how men and women in all walks and positions in the life of the church, realizing that here is a way they can translate some of their material wealth into human personality, are rallying to the support of this movement and pledging their hundreds and their thousands of dollars. Five years are allowed in which to make the payments. In cases where it is impossible for the subscriber to make the initial payment this year the privilege of extending the time is allowed.

The money that Jarvis Memorial church will subscribe will be distributed as follows:

- To the connectional interests: Edinboro university, Atlanta, Ga., $1350; Southern Methodist university, Dallas, Texas, $1320; Scarritt Bible and Training school, Kansas City, Mo., $80; Christian Workers Educational Aid Fund $410; Vahti Industrial Institute, Thomasville, Ga., $45; Brevard Institute, Brevard, N. C., $30; Total $3205.
- To North Carolina Conference colleges: Trinity college, Durham, N. C., $4233; Greensboro College for Women, Greensboro, N. C., $2843; Carolina College, Maxton, N. C., $2541; Lonsburg college, Lonsburg, N. C., $2541; Trinity Park school, Durham, N. C., $631; Total $12,795. Grand total $16,000.

The subscribers to this fund have the privilege of directing to which college the money shall be applied. Special memorials and scholarships can be taken out in any name designated.

This is one of the significant movements for higher education in the southland and anyone participating in this work may be assured that they are bestowing an untold blessing upon the rising generation.

EFFORTS TO INCITE A REVOLUTION CAUSES A PROTEST TO OFFICIALS

Berlin, May 24.—Repeated efforts of the Rote Fahne, Berlin organ of the Soviet, to incite German workmen to another revolt against the government have caused conservative newspapers to protest to the administration against the continued publication of the paper as inimical to law and order.

The Rote Fahne has been suppressed a number of times, some of its issues confiscated, part of its presses taken away by the authorities, but it has always been able to issue succeeding editions, in a manner which its opponents assert is confusing and mysterious.

Since the March uprising in Middle Germany, the Rote Fahne has conducted a campaign against the government and the special courts which President Ebert appointed to try the workmen who raised the red flag in Saxony and the Ruhr. It has urged the workmen to prepare for another uprising, which it has recently said should now be launched.

APPEALS TO THE U. S. FOR PROTECTION OF THE CHRISTIANS

Appeals to the U. S. for Protection of the Christians

New York, May 25.—The United States congress has been asked to exert pressure on the allies and upon Turkey to stop the "state of anarchy" in the Near East and avert impending disaster to the Armenians under control of the Nationalist Turks.

The appeal is made in the form of a memorial addressed to congress by a committee of the board of trustees of the Near East Relief "in behalf of at least 20,000,000 of the people of the United States who have contributed to American relief work in the Near East."

The committee is composed of Dr. James L. Barton, secretary of the American Board of Foreign Missions; Dr. Stanley White, secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Missions, and Walter George Smith, of Philadelphia.

They ask that congress and the United States government take immediate action and insist that England, France and Italy shall restore the Christian minorities in Asia Minor to their homes and protect them.

In addition the three trustees of the Near East Relief have sent an appeal to about 110,000 contributors to American relief work in the Near East asking them to bring pressure upon congress to obtain the action urged by the committee.

In explaining the action of the committee Dr. Barton said, that the Near East Relief had disbursed over $60,000,000 in money and supplies contributed by the American people and he added, "we now see that enormous humanitarian investment of American nothing on account of continued anarchy in the Near East. We have, therefore, decided to try to bring the force of those who gave this money to bear upon our own government and the governments of our allies in the late war to put an end to the present state of affairs in the Levant."

POLAND ARRANGING TO TAKE CHARGE OF HER OLD KEEPSAKES

Warsaw, May 25.—The Polish government is arranging to return to Warsaw about 150,000 national keepsakes removed to Switzerland in 1772 to prevent their falling into enemy hands.

When the partition of Poland between Prussia, Russia and Austria became eminent patriotic Poles began to transfer collections of national relics to Repperavalle, Switzerland, where they have been preserved for nearly 50 years.

Individuals who managed to get articles of particular historical interest out of the country made valuable additions to the collection from time to time, even long after the Russians were in control of what is known as Congress Poland.

Among the relics of olden times is a sceptre of one of the Polish kings. The keepsakes are to be added to the national museum in Warsaw which has been established now that Poland regained her freedom.

VON HINDENBURG IS STILL ADMIRED BY THE GERMANS

Affection Manifested by Throngs Who Gathered to Attend the Funeral of the Empress

Potsdam, Germany, May 6.—(By Mail)—The affection and admiration which German people still entertain for Field Marshal Von Hindenburg was manifested by the throngs who gathered to attend the funeral of the Empress Augusta Victoria.

The German princess passed virtually unnoticed through the crowds but wherever the popular field marshal went there was a murmur of admiration which frequently swelled into prolonged applause. Even the Communists, who could be distinguished by their remarks, were silent before Von Hindenburg, although they spoke loudly about "tin soldiers" as other high officers passed.

There was an amusing incident when "hero of Tannenberg" arrived before Wildpark station, where the services for the princess were held. As he descended somewhat heavily from an automobile, the great string of medals about his neck was disarranged.

A silk-hatted, white-whiskered man and a policeman rushed to rearrange them and met head-on. The silk hat was dislodged and rolled upon the pavement, and the policeman stood in a daze.

In the meantime half a dozen officers in full dress of generals had gathered about the "old man of the Masurian lakes" and carefully arranged the medals, while others helped the field marshal put on his high, tasseled cap, which he had been unable to wear in the confines of his closed car.

When Von Hindenburg appeared at the station to depart the streets for many squares were packed with excited crowds which raised a tumultuous cheer and again and again, until the "hoops" resounded from thousands of throats.

A short time previous Prince August appeared on the station platform and was received with a few lifted hats, but without cheer.

PROBABLY BE TRIED IN JULY FOR THE MURDER OF ELEVEN WOMEN

Paris, May 25.—It now seems fairly certain that Henri Desire Landru, for the past 30 months has been awaiting trial on charges of murder growing out of the disappearance, without trace, of 11 women to whom he had promised marriage, will come before the Versailles Assizes in July.

Landru has become a great favorite with the warders owing to his unflinching good humor.

NOTICE TO PARENTS OF THE BOY AND GIRL SCOUTS

It has come to my knowledge that some of the parents of the Boy and Girl Scouts are afraid for their children to take the boat to the lake to be unsafe. In regard to this I to state that we are going to make the trip on the large boat belonging to the Virginian Carolina Chemical Co. This boat ordinarily brings 500 bags of fertilizer from Norfolk to Greenville, each bag weighing 200 pounds. We are going to carry only 120 folks whose weight will not average more than 100 pounds, making a total of Also the boat will be completely equipped with life preservers, one for every person on board, and the boat will be piloted by Capt. Teel, whose business it is to run this boat the year round, and who is licensed by the United States government. He will be aided by a competent engineer. Also there will be a number of grown ups on board who will keep unceasing watch over all things. A rail is being placed around the deck of the boat making it impossible to fall overboard. On the trip that we are going to take, we will never be more than a hundred yards from land.

J. H. ROSE, Scoutmaster.

BUY A DINNER FOR A RETURNED SOLDIER OR SAILOR MONDAY

It is necessary to raise about five hundred dollars to defray expenses memorial day. Five hundred dinners are to be paid for besides the band, advertising, etc. To do this instead of asking for subscriptions the citizens of Greenville are going to be asked to buy dinner tickets for $1.00 each and write their name on them. They will be turned over to the soldiers and sailors, who will then know who has paid for their dinner. Do your bit. If you want to buy the dinner for that soldier or sailor friend Monday buy a dinner ticket from R. L. Crow at Pitt Shoe company.

N. C. BANKERS HOLD MEETING IN GREENSBORO

President W. A. Hunt Is Encouraged Over Improvement in Business Outlook

Greensboro, May 25.—North Carolina bankers, hundreds of them, from every community in the State, crowded with Greensboro citizens into the county courthouse here last night for the opening meeting of the twenty-fifth annual convention of the North Carolina Bankers association. Bankers from other States helped to swell the assemblage.

The main feature of the evening was the address of the president, William A. Hunt of Henderson. Mr. Hunt discussed the financial and business situation without offering any guaranteed cure. He made no attempt to underestimate the effects of deflation, but was sure "our problems are well in hand. Confidence, prudence and a faith in "great people of a great State with unlimited resources," was the keynote of the address.

Times are better, Mr. Hunt declared, but we are not out of the woods yet. Times will be better if we keep the sober lessons learned in the months of depression. He blamed the lack of functioning on the part of the law of supply and demand. If things people need to eat, to wear, to house them could be bought with the assurance that the price was governed by the law of supply and demand our economic trouble would soon adjust themselves, he said.

The cold weather is anything but good on the crops, and it makes poor prospect of what the harvest will be.

Just as the ice man gets ready to open up, the coal man comes around for another inning. It is great weather we are having.

Reports say divorces are rapidly increasing. That sounds bad, but if they've got anything on America's record, they're going some, no doubt about that.

Mr. Hays says "the good of the service" and not politics will be the determining factor in selecting postmasters by the present administration. That being the case it looks like the entire administration will be compelled to have a "house cleaning" itself before experimenting in this matter.

That convention of Southern Baptists recently completed at Chattanooga, Tenn., shows that the denomination is making remarkable progress in all lines of religious endeavor. Such denominations are the greatest things the country could have, and deserve to receive the heartiest co-operation of the public, it matters now of what denomination. Differences of opinion concerning religions is rapidly disappearing in almost every part of the country, and in the course of a few years, it is believable the country will be firmly convinced of the foolishness of denominational opposition such as has been in evidence from time to time.

OUR NEWS SERVICE

The Reflector is making an effort to give its readers the very best service possible, both in a news and advertising way. The only way this can be successfully accomplished, however, is by an enormous outlay of money and work, in which every reader is vitally concerned. We are endeavoring to make our daily news service superior to any other paper in this section of the State. It is, from a local standpoint, imperative that we have the hearty co-operation of the public. If you know of anything which you think would be of interest to your friends, advise us of it, and we shall be glad to have it appear in our regular news columns. This increases the value of advertising because the paper will be more directly demanded by that great number of people who like to keep in touch with local happenings. Some days it is an easy matter for our reporters to fill up the paper with live matter, but there are other times when it is very dull indeed, and news is difficult to get. We member is daily, and if you know of anything, either phone it in or write us. We shall be grateful to you and endeavor to show our appreciation in an unmistakable way.

The railroad labor board has decided it is advisable to curtail wages. If this is going to have anything to do with a reduction in rates, it is hoped they will get busy immediately.

Statements from Washington City say the various railway systems are at the very highest point of efficiency. That may be so, but the service of a number of lines down in this neck of the woods is mighty poor evidence of it.

Some of those tax authorities so anxious of increasing taxation several months ago seem to be convinced now that the public is more in favor of reductions. The fact that quite a number of them are politicians may bring about desired changes, although they will keep them at the highest notch possible on account of revenues.

U. S. CHAIN TREAD
One of the few tires of which it may be said that they deliver economy year in and year out and tire after tire.
The U. S. Chain Tread gives sufficient traction on all ordinary road surfaces. It is probably the handsomest, and by all odds the most popular, of the whole U. S. Fabric Tire line.

Economy rides on U.S. Tires-

If you could get together all the car owners you know, you'd probably find that their tire experiences had been much the same.

Most of them have taken their fling at "job lots," "discontinued lines" and "surplus stocks." Soon or late, nearly all settled back on quality first as the one sound assurance of tire value.

As soon as a man forgets the cut-price tag, and comes to the dealer who concentrates on a full, completely sized stock of U. S. Tires—he learns what it means to get fresh, live tires—not once in a while but every time.

Not merely in the big cities, but in his own home town.

Not merely for the heavy car, but for the medium and light-weight car—a full selection of size, tread and type.

Your U. S. Tire dealer can give you this service because of the service he gets from his neighboring U.S. Factory Branch. There are 92 of these Branches. Each gets its share of U. S. Tires, so that the dealer is always supplied with fresh, live stock.

U. S. Tires sell as fast as they are made. There is no over production. No surplus piled up waiting for a "market."

Wherever you buy a U. S. Tire—you buy a tire of current production, as full of life and value as the day it left the makers.

On yesterday afternoon from five to seven o'clock the Junior B. Y. P. U. of Memorial Baptist church greatly enjoyed a picnic in Forbes & Morton's warehouse on Dickinson avenue.

The picnic was to have been held at Red Banks, about three miles from town but owing to the inclemency of the weather it was decided to change the place and Mr. W. Z. Morton very kindly tendered the Forbes & Morton warehouse for the occasion.

Games, races and other amusements were indulged in until the tables were laid out on tables already provided before the picnic party arrived. There was plenty to eat and every one greatly enjoyed this part of the program.

The union under the leadership of the pastor's wife, Mrs. L. W. Smith, and Miss Dorie V. Burnette as president, has made splendid progress in the past few months and great good is being accomplished in this work.

Time Tests Plumbing Work

GERMAN INDUSTRY HARD HIT LATELY BY INFLATED PRICES

Deterioration of Mark Also Has Something to Do With Severity of Conditions in Hunlad

Berlin, May 23—The high cost of living, coupled with the deterioration of the mark and low salaries, has hit German government employes such a blow that a number of them say frankly the only way in which they can exist is "to go deeper into debt every day". Some of them have borrowed money on their salaries for months ahead and must borrow more.

One government official on a salary of 2,000 marks a month, which before the war was a reasonable wage, said he had been unable to buy any clothes for four years, that his garments now were threadbare, his shoes worn out, and he had contracted debts with his grocer which he could not pay.

"There is nothing to do but to keep on going deeper and deeper into debt," he said. "I do not know where it will end, nor what will become of me. I earn 2,000 marks a month; a suit of clothes costs me 3,000, a pair of shoes 500, a good meal nearly 100—cigars, cigarettes, wines—they are out of the question."

Another official said he had set aside one-fifth of his salary for tobacco, but that this only permitted him a few cigarettes daily.

"I feel justified in spending this money for tobacco because smoking keeps the appetite down," he declared.

It is not uncommon for men who were once wealthy or held high-salaried positions to ask foreign acquaintances to remember them in case they have an old suit of clothes or a pair of shoes "to throw away".

EMPEROR CHARLES STRENGTHENS HIS PARTY IN HUNGARY

Effort to Retake Throne in Hungary Meets With Apparent Approval

Budapest, May 20.—The attempt of former Emperor Charles to retake his throne as King of Hungary has strengthened the position of his party here in the opinion of well-informed politicians. Recent events in the National assembly of Hungary seem to justify that claim.

failure to retain his crown, the camp of the anti-Hapsburg deputies was clamoring for the scalps of those who participated in the abortive coup or who supported it. But their voices grew fainter and they forgot to move for the punishment of the plotters for Charles' restoration. The leader of the party of small landowners, Stephen Szabo de Nagated, minister of agriculture, advised moderation.

The followers of Charles grew bold and loud. They abused the anti-Hapsburgs as cowardly traitors for driving away the lawful sovereign in obedience to the command of the Czechs and Jugoslavs.

The majority of the stormy incidents which have since taken place in the house of deputies were provoked by the Charles' supporters, notably by George Szurechanyi, chairman of the Awakening Hungarians, and the erstwhile minister, Beniczky, who ostentatiously remained sitting when the behavior during Charles' attempt to win back his crown.

The partisans of Charles use every opportunity to cavass for the dynasty. In a sitting a few days ago Count Julian Andrassy praised his courage and declared the king was justified in fleeing from Hungary in the turbulent autumn days of 1918 because the revolutionaries attempted his life and the life of his children.

WELL AND HAPPY
SHE DECLARES

Richmond Woman's Gratitude Is Unbounded Toward Tanlac For Restoring Health

"Tanalac has certainly brought health and happiness in our home," said Mrs. R. L. Davis of 308 North Twelfth street, Richmond, Va.

"At the time I began taking Tanlac," she continued, "I was in despair of ever finding anything to do me any good, but now I am in splendid health and Tanlac is what did it."

"About sixteen months ago I began having trouble with my stomach, and four or five months after that my whole system just seemed to go wrong. I don't believe anybody ever suffered worse than I did from indigestion. I also had splitting headaches and blind spells of dizziness and was so nervous even the noise made by the children playing would upset me. I was confined to my bed for three months, unable to bend my knees, with rheumatism. I just lost faith in anything helping me, and it looked like my end was near."

"Well, a friend prevailed on me to try Tanlac and after taking it a while I began to feel better, so I kept it up until now the last one of my troubles is gone. I have gained twelve pounds in weight, I haven't a trace of rheumatism or a pain of any kind left and in fact, I am so well and happy that my gratitude toward Tanlac is unbounded."

PARENTS VS. CHILDREN

Most parents will be offended when we charge them with being their children's enemies, but we want to ask a few questions: Were your children accidents or products of deliberation on your part? Did they have anything to do with the selection of their parents? Do you know that you are duty bound by law to take care of them? Feed, clothe and educate them.

Have you pride enough in your soul to conform to a higher law than the State can pass and take a pride in the development, mentally and physically, of your offspring so that they will be a credit to your family.

There are two divisions of the care of the body which are paramount importance, one is the body chemistry and the other is body mechanics. These two are represented in the composition of food and in the application of nerve forces through various muscles to the performance of physiological work as well as manual labor. The eyes of children are like the rest of the body not developed up to normal; but unlike the rest of the body the eyes are called upon to perform the work of adult eyes. This necessitates an enormous strain on the nervous system and it not only stunts the growth of the eyes, but often that of the child.

Even when the defects are corrected in early life, say at the age of five years, they rarely develop up to normal and when the eyes are grown under the best condition they cease growing at about the twelve year while the rest of the body continues to grow until about twenty years or more. It is a statistical fact that less than one percent of all eyes are normal or approximately at least ninety percent are under developed. The latter being known as near sight and as it is a hypertrophy condition hence a freak eye comparatively few of them can be given normal vision. The ninety percent are hypermetropia eyes usually known as far sight. Some of these instead of having a spherical cornea have one shaped like a segment cut from an automobile tire that is a short sharp curvature in one meridian and a longer one at right angles to it with a result that rays of light passing into the eye in different meridians are focused at different points and the retina being only at one point circles instead of points. The word Astigmatism means without a point hence the name is applied to the condition and it is an effect, not a cause.

Some of the effects of the eye strain is directly on the eyes, cross eyes are one exhibit, inflamed lids is another, styes, granulation, tumors of the lids, itchy eyes, winking eyes, and etc. All internal ones, such as pain in the eye ball, retina inflammation, atrophy and etc. are signs of eye strain.

If you have eye trouble and have been unable to get relief from other doctors you should try a McCormick Graduate.

Signed,

DR. GEO. B. KIRKMAN,
Eye-Sight Specialist, Kinston, N. C.,
Graduate McCormick Medical College.

Dr. Kirkman will be at the Proctor Hotel, Greenville, N. C., Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28 for the purpose of examining eyes and fitting glasses.
