NEGRO SCHOOL IS DOING GOOD WORK

Superintendent and Board of Trustees of City Schools Invited to Annual Dinner

Yesterday the superintendent and board of trustees of the city schools were invited to the annual dinner of the domestic science department of the negro graded school. The dinner which was prepared and served by the students in the domestic science department of the school was of surpassing excellence and would have done credit to a professional chef. The superb quality of the various dishes served, and the menu was varied and large, reflected credit both on the students and the instructor of the domestic science department.

After enjoying the repast the guests had the pleasure of inspecting other work in the domestic science department, such as fruit and vegetable canning, basketry, garment making etc., and the specimens in each line were exceedingly commendable. It showed the lines of usefulness along which the students are being trained.

The guests were also invited into the assembly room where the school gave a most enjoyable program of songs. In the midst of this there were short talks by each of the visitors and a response by a member of the faculty, all being most appropriate and well received.

Principal C. M. Epps gave the visitors some facts as to the growth and work of the school. From a small beginning a few years ago with an attendance of hardly a hundred, it has grown until the enrollment of the present term reached 639 and the average attendance about 500. Wherever specimens of the work of this school are placed in competition with other schools, the premiums come to the Greenville institution. Prof. Epps has gathered to his assistance a faculty that cannot be surpassed in any colored school of the State, and they are doing excellent work for the uplift of their race in this community.

Perhaps the people generally of the community are not as well informed as they should be of the good work of this colored school and its needs. They owe it to themselves to go out sometime and look the condition over, and they will be convinced of the need of more room and better equipment for the useful work they are doing.

DR. SHAMHART TO DELIVER SERMON TO THE GRADUATES

Commencement Exercises City Schools Will Formally Begin Tomorrow Evening at 8 O'clock

The Greenville city schools will formally begin their commencement exercises tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the high school auditorium. At that time there will be preached the annual baccalaureate sermon to the members of the graduating class. The Christian church has the privilege this year of selecting the speaker, and they have chosen their well known pastor, Rev. W. P. Shamhart to deliver the sermon, hence the public is assured something good. At this time there will be special music by the high school glee club, and those who have heard this club before know that the music will be good. The members have worked hard for weeks under the direction of Misses Howell and Lay.

In the senior class this year there are twenty one members and as a class it is one of the best that the school has ever turned out. Practically every member of the class is going off to college next year. Numbered among its members are a number of excellent students and it goes without saying that they are going to uphold the high standards previously set by graduates of the Greenville high school. The class has published this year a very creditable issue of the high school annual known as "The Tau". This book shows the result of much effort, well directed.

The other exercises of the commencement season will be held Monday night, Tuesday morning, Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday night. On Monday night the pupils of the Evans street school will present a pageant entitled "The Light". On Monday afternoon and night and on Tuesday afternoon the Arts and Home Economics departments will have their work on exhibit in the library of the high school. On Tuesday morning at 10:30 the graduates of the seventh grade will be received into the high school. On Tuesday night at 8 o'clock will be the graduating exercises of the senior class and the address to the class by Dr. Edgar W. Knight of the university of North Carolina.

MRS. LLOYD GEORGE PROVES SHE IS FINE AT CAMPAIGNING

She Invaded Opposition Territory Unintimidated by Hostile Gestures During the Campaign

London, May 26.—Mrs. Bessie Lloyd George, wife of the British Premier, prides herself on the personal management of her home at No. 10 Downing street, but she can also make a political speech with telling effect.

Not only has she campaigned in Wales, the balliwick of the Lloyd Georges, but she has invaded opposition territory unimpaired by the hostile gestures of strong labor sections.

Perhaps her greatest personal triumph was her tour of the Bedford district where a hard fight was being fought between Coalition-Liberal and Labor candidates. She was acclaimed everywhere.

The Labor party sent cats and speakers in her wake, but they had a chilly reception.

At Eilatow, the birthplace of John Bunyan, Mrs. Lloyd-George received a gift of a copy of "Pilgrim's Progress".

School children at Wilmington gave her a huge lock, emblematic of Wake and she promised to boil it for her husband on election day.

The tour was completed by a visit at Wilton to a father one hundred years old and his son, aged 81, both staunch Liberals and now supporters of the Coalition.

MAY ELIMINATE RENT PROFITEER

City Council in Cuba Considering Building and Selling Homes on Partial Payment Plan

Havana, Cuba, May 28.—Bitter complaints are being made here against rent profiteering. Attacks are made almost daily in the newspapers on profiteering landlords. Numerous cases of high rents with one month's rent in advance and two months' rent as deposit, are cited.

One relief project being considered for submission to the city provides for the appropriation of $1,000,000 yearly for a number of years to construct four-room homes for the poorer people at a cost of about $3,000 each.

By selling these homes on a partial payment plan, it is declared that the proceeds, turned into the construction of more homes, would soon solve the housing problem, and incidentally eliminate the rent profiteer.

TOWNSHIP GROUPS IN CHAMBER NOW INCREASED TO TEN

Farmville Has Pledged Eight Memberships Tying With Bethel Township

Announcement was made this morning that the preliminary group of members of the Pitt county chamber of commerce from Farmville had been secured. This increased the township groups now in the chamber to 10. Farmville yesterday pledged eight memberships, tying with Bethel township. Efforts in Farmville will be continued next week when it is expected that more than a score of the leading citizens will join in the county-wide movement. Those who pledged membership yesterday are: Bank of Farmville, J. R. Davis, J. W. Holmes, J. I. Morgan, John T. Thorne, T. C. Turnage, G. R. Wheeler and W. R. Willis.

There was an informal conference last evening at the store of J. W. Holmes. It was decided that the cooperation of Farmville with the other townships in the better development of Pitt county and all its interests would be a splendid thing. This decision was unanimous.

The sentiments of the entire group were expressed by Mr. J. R. Davis when he said, "Our differences in Pitt county have been due to lack of intimacy. I don't think the jealousies between towns are as serious as some pretend but what there are I believe are due to the fact that we don't get together and know each other well enough. I am going into the Pitt county chamber of commerce because it offers a chance to remedy this condition."

Another sentiment regarding the chamber of commerce which is being heard all over the county was brought out last night by Mr. J. I. Morgak when he called attention to the necessity of having a large representation of farmers in the membership. He heartily approved of the intention of some of the firms taking rural memberships to assign them to representative farmers all over the county.

The action that has now been taken by leading citizens of Farmville, Ayden and Bethel as well as many smaller towns gives promise that Pitt county will soon be one of the most united and progressive counties in the country.

Full Day of Pleasure

There will be enough to interest every visitor to Greenville next Monday. Beside the Memorial day exercises under the auspices of the American Legion, there will be horse racing at the fair grounds beginning at 1:30 o'clock, followed with a ball game at 4 o'clock and a dance at Amuzu park in the evening.

APPEALS FOR THE OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY

Confederate Veteran Asks the South to Join in Honoring World War Veterans on May 30

Atlanta, Ga., May 27.—The appeal of a veteran of the Confederacy that all the South join in observance of May 30th as World War Memorial Day, in honor of the memory of the valiant young Americans who lie amid the crosses of Flanders Field, comes with an endorsement of the project by Joseph T. Derry, who fought the war between the States, and who now is one of the leading spirits of the North Georgia Brigade of the United Confederate Veterans. Mr. Derry is an attaché of the Georgia State Department of Commerce and Labor.

Mr. Derry's appeal follows nationwide plans for observance of world war memorial day which project, with its general wearing of crimson poppies as the central feature, has won the approval of the national headquarters of the American Legion, the Daughters of the American Revolution and other patriotic organizations, Mr. Derry said:

"As an ex-confederate soldier I appeal to the people of the South, whether in the sixties of the last century they fought under the Southern cross or under the Stars and Stripes, or are the descendants of those who in those years of fratricidal strife wore the Confederate gray or the Union blue, to unite with one heart and one soul in wearing the poppies made of silk by French orphans and widows to be distributed everywhere in the South for wearing by the general public May 30 as a world war memorial in honor to the men who fell overseas and as an evidence; also that we appreciate the heroism of the brave boys who laid themselves as a sacrifice upon their country's altar to die, if need be, for liberty and civilization.

"In wearing these poppies we honor those who 'fought and lived' and also those who 'fought and died'. Every veteran of the sixties, regardless of the side on which he then stood, feels his heart swell with pride for his sons and grandsons who beneath the folds of Old Glory fought in France or Flanders for the safety of democracy and the freedom of the world, under the marvelous leadership of a man who used the automatic powers conferred upon him by the congress of the United States for the glory of America and the rescue of the world from the most relentless tyranny that despots ever sought to lay upon all the nations of the earth for all time. Thousands of crimson poppies, flowers of immortal associations, will be distributed throughout the South under auspices of the American-France Childrens League. They are the handiwork of French widows of the world blossom, that 'grew between the crosses, row on row'.

TWINS TOO MUCH ALIKE FOR THE JUDGES GOOD

San Francisco, May 27.—Twin brothers, Elmer and Lauren Henry who look and act and run alike, recently represented their military unit, the Fourteenth Balloon company in a military track meet here and so confused the judges that, it was said, the latter, in order to play fair, gave them first and second place alternately in the six events they won. The boys were born August 8, 1907, at Chilo, Cal. They are one of the few pairs of "identical" twins in the nation, according to records here.

LOCOMOTIVE AS MEMORIAL TO RAILWAY WAR HEROES

London, May 28.—A locomotive has been selected as a memorial to the employees of the Great Central railway here who fell in the war. The engine which is a modern one and in use on the main line has been christened "Valor" and beneath the wheels has been placed the inscription in large letters: "In memory of the employees of this company who fell in the war 1914-18."

Thomas A. Edison suggests that substituting motion pictures for books in elementary would greatly advance civilization. But there are too many people who disagree with Mr. Edison for his suggestion to be adopted.

Out in Minnesota they have passed a law making it a misdemeanor for a person to furnish a newspaper with false information for publication. Such a law down in this section would put a check on the snake and fish stories if nothing else.

The statement of Judge H. G. Connor that hereafter all persons convicted of selling liquor before him in the Federal court will be given a prison sentence, the minimum six months, should be a warning to those who persist in the moonshine business. Fines do not put a stop to violations of the prohibition laws, and the decision of Judge Connor to hand out prison sentences is the best way to break it up.

WEAR A POPPY ON MEMORIAL DAY

In keeping with a newly-inaugurated custom, every American is urged to wear a red poppy upon his or her breast on the national memorial day, May 30, as a mark of loyalty and respect for the memory of the boys who sacrificed their lives on the fields of France during the world war.

This is a beautiful custom, patriotic, idealistic and worthy in every respect.

It was in a moment of inspiration that the late Colonel John McCrea fixed forever in the mind of mankind the poppy as the sacrificial symbol of tender respect for those who died in the world war—as he did.

His noble poem "In Flanders Fields" has achieved universal popularity and the crimson flowers which nod between rows of crosses in the soldier cemeteries of northern France have been brought home to us as the appropriate token of the blood and the peaceful sleep of the heroes who gave all for civilization and human liberty.

In an annual convention at Cleveland, Ohio, last fall the American Legion gave formal acknowledgement of the fitness of this symbol by officially adopting the red poppy as the memorial flower of the organization, to be worn by legionnaires everywhere on memorial day in silent tribute to their dead comrades.

Other patriotic organizations and societies, notable among them being the Daughters of the American Revolution, have officially taken similar action.

Therefore it is urgently suggested that on May 30 all patriotic citizens shall wear a poppy.

No matter whether formal observance of the day is planned, or whether such observance may have been held on our own Confederate memorial day, a poppy in the buttonhole will bear witness to the hallowed memory in which our recently fallen heroes is held and will connect up the wearer with Americans everywhere in a universal expression of gratitude and veneration.

Millions of silk poppies have been made during the last year by the war orphans and widows of France to be sent to America for this occasion.

The very life blood of Flanders Fields have gone into their manufacture and they will be distributed here through the American Legion Child Welfare League and the proceeds returned to France to benefit the war-made men.—The Constitution.

WHERE WE WENT AND WHAT HE HEARD

By J. Richard Allen Sunday last was a feast day for many people who went to church praying and were in a receptive mood. We do not know what others heard, but we know what we heard and of what we purpose to write. We worshipped in the morning at the Red Oak Christian church. The pastor, Rev. W. L. Saunders, preached. The whole discourse moved on a high plane of thinking. It had power, it had light, it had driving force, it was absolutely pleasing in its perfect simplicity. We attempt no analysis or report of the very impressive scope of discussion. It was forceful, earnest, uplifting, thoughtful all through. Bro. Saunders' manner is peculiarly attractive to us. He makes no great physical effort, but the results are fine. He compels attention. His countenance draws yours. His simplicity wins you. His earnestness without vociferation impresses you. Bro. Saunders is a young man not in his mental prime. He has excellent preaching gifts and it is not too much to say that greater things may be expected from him in the years to come. We write without design to "heckle" anyone, but our words are words of truth and soberness.

The Red Oak Christian church was most fortunate in having him called to preach the blessed gospel of the Son of God to the membership and the strangers within its gates.

No PLACE FOR FEAR

Most every day brings some grace situation,
 Not to be feared, but faced,
 Alternatives offer, in State and nation,
 Not to be feared but faced,
 Dilemmas confront us each hour of the day,
 Presenting both right and erroneous ways,
 These quandaries shouldn't depress us, for they
 Aren't to be feared, but faced.
 Each day of our life brings a problem or two,
 Not to be feared, but solved,
 We've off with the old one, let's on with the new—
 Not to be feared, but solved,
 The puzzles involving the right and the wrong:
 The question how not to be weak, but be strong;
 These "sums" in life's school-day come bobbing along,
 Not to be feared, but solved.
 Each day in the field there arises a foe,
 Not to be feared but fought,
 Hes not to be dodged or avoided, you know—
 Not to be feared, but fought,
 There's nothing on earth unmitigably right,
 That we may maintain without strenuous fight,
 Inrenched we find always iniquitous might—
 Not to be feared, but fought,

DAVIDSON COUNTY CLAIMS TO HAVE LARGEST FAMILY

According to a news story in the Lexington Dispatch, Davidson county takes the banner from Martin county in having the largest family. Recently the papers of the county were having much to say about Mr. Ruben L. Bland who is the father of 34 children and the publicity given him made him quite famous. The story in the Dispatch told of the death of a colored man, Calvin Holmes, aged 83 years, who had been married four times and was the father of 28 children, four more than are credited to Mr. Bland. As Mr. Bland has been married only twice, however, and is yet only 65 years of age, there is a chance for him to catch up or pass the Davidson county record.
