CLAYTON TO PLAY BASKETBALL HERE TOMORROW NIGHT

Second Game of Season of Greenville Club Promises to Be Full of Interest For All

The second basketball game of the season will be played in Greenville tomorrow night between the local high school and Clayton. The battle promises to be one of the most interesting staged here in sometime, as both clubs are well prepared for the fray and anxious to claim another victory.

Coach Duncan stated last night that the Greenville club is in prime conditions for the initial skirmish with Clayton, and confident of winning since finding Tarboro so easy in the initial clash. The boys have been going through strenuous practice in preparation for the second game, and if they lose it will be no fault of theirs.

The game will be played at Forbes & Morton's warehouse, on Dickinson avenue, and it is hoped the club will be encouraged by a large attendance. Mr. Duncan said he is desirous for parents to take an active interest in the game also. It's splendid exercise and places both body and mind in shape for problems of the school room.

The boys are going to try to make this a record year in basketball, and the way they've started out suggests that they mean what they say.

The line-up for the game with substitutes follows: Williams, R., R. F.; Brown, Z., L. F.; Barber, J., C.; Foley, T., R. G.; Moye, J., L. G.

Other players: Mayo, R., F.; Gaston, F.; Smith, G., G.; Hardee, R., C.; Winslow, N., G.; Wilkerson, G.

PROPOSED UNION STATION FOR CITY GIVEN GREAT IMPETUS AT MEETING OF CHAMBER OF COMMERCE COMMITTEE

Tentative Plans Looking to Establishment of Union Depot Discussed in Animated Way by Members of Committee Last Night; Greenville of Sufficient Size and Importance to Demand Better Station Facilities Than Afforded by Two Antiquated Depots of Coast Line and Norfolk Southern Railroads.

Tentative plans looking to the establishment of union depot in Greenville were given great impetus at meeting of the committee handling the proposal at a meeting in rooms of the chamber of commerce last night. While no definite action was taken, it is probable this will come about at a later date, or as soon as the matter has been given the consideration which it deserves.

All the committeemen present last night unanimously agreed that Greenville is badly in need of union terminal facilities. It was generally admitted that the stations of both the Coast Line and Norfolk Southern railroads are inadequate, and not in keeping with the rapid progress which the city has made within the past several months. What other towns have done in the way of improved terminal facilities was set forth in a convincing way, showing the necessity of conditions in keeping with the size and importance of the city.

The meeting was presided over by Dr. K. B. Pace, who at the outset explained the importance of the issue under consideration, and urged action looking to establishment of the depot as early as preliminaries have been completed. Every member enthusiastically supported the movement, and the meeting proved one of the best in many months.

Committeemen attending the meeting last night were E. L. Crow, E. G. Joyner, and H. L. Smith, the latter secretary of the chamber of commerce and ex-officio members of the committee.

GOV. REFUSES TO CHANGE FATE OF BONNIE ANDREWS

The governor said he would decline to act to commute, when a case was before the court. The petition for commutation was presented by former Judge H. W. Whedbee, Julius Brown and M. J. Blount, all of the Pitt county bar.

ALDERMEN DECLINE TO CHANGE SUNDAY GASOLINE HOURS

Resolution Proposing Change Defeated at Special Session of Board Tuesday Night

Resolutions recently offered the board of aldermen for changing hours for the sale of gasoline on Sundays, was definitely defeated at a special session of the city fathers Tuesday night. As a result of this action the old hours will remain in force and those desiring to purchase gas on Sunday will have to appear at the stations from 8 to 9 in the morning and 2 to 4 in the afternoon.

The question, however, was not disposed of without considerable argument, and only the timely action of Mayor Clark in breaking a tie vote in favor of rescinding the resolution brought the issue to a conclusion. The deadlock attested the strength of both forces, and was set aside after heated argument on the part of all parties concerned.

Action of the board resulted from a protest of garagemen and citizens, who signed a petition protesting against a change of the old ordinance, regulating the sale of gas on Sundays, and asked that no changes be made.

MARKET REPORTS SENT BY WIRELESS IN MANY SECTIONS

Considerable Information Broadcasted by Agencies Over the Wireless

Washington, Jan. 12.—The wireless is now being used by State and Federal agencies to broadcast national and local agricultural market reports throughout virtually the entire country. Reports on the national markets are dispatched daily by the United States department of Agriculture from wireless stations of the Post Office department at Cincinnati, Omaha, Washington, North Platte, Nebr., Rock Springs, Wyo., Elko, Nev., and Reno, Nev. These reports are received by hundreds of amateur operators. National market reports are also received by State bureaus of markets and agricultural colleges, supplemented with local market reports, and relayed by wireless telegraphy and telephone to farmers, shipping associations, newspapers, banks and other agricultural interests.

The St. Louis University at St. Louis, Mo., was perhaps the first among educational institutions to broadcast market reports by wireless. These reports are received by hundreds of farmers, shipping associations, banks, and other agricultural interests, and a telephone company in eastern Illinois which receives the reports telephonically the news regularly to its 5,000 subscribers.

At Lincoln, Nebr., the University of Nebraska and the Nebraska Wesleyan University are co-operating in broadcasting crop and market reports furnished by the State bureau of markets. Both radio, telephone and telegraph are used. At Wisconsin the State department of markets broadcasts national and local market reports from the University of Wisconsin wireless station at Madison. At Minneapolis, crop and market reports are broadcast from the university of Minnesota radio station. The Minnesota college of agriculture has also assigned an extension representative to instruct the farmers in the use of wireless receiving apparatus. The college of Agriculture of Cornell University has assigned an expert

SUPERIOR COURT TO BEGIN TERMS IN CITY MONDAY

Annie Smith Case Heads Calendar, But is Probable It Will be Continued or Abandoned

The regular January term of Pitt county superior court for the trial of civil and criminal cases will convene in this city Monday morning at 10 o'clock, with Judge E. H. Crumr, of Southport, presiding for the first time in Pitt county. The docket for both terms are probably more congested than in many months, although no cases of any great importance are to be taken up either term.

The civil calendar is headed by the case of Annie Smith against trustees of the Greenville public schools for not admitting her children to classes, but it is considered very likely in court circles that this issue will be continued until another term or definitely abandoned. This fact was made known the earlier part of the week, but up to the present time the plaintiff has not appeared before the clerk of court and asked for continuation.

The case was to have been the outstanding feature of the civil term, as mandamus proceedings recently instituted by the plaintiff against the school trustees created unusual interest in every part of the county. The school authorities refused to admit her four children because of alleged negro ancestry, whereupon notice of suit was filed by the mother. In reply to the complaint the trustees firmly maintained their position and based their contentions upon facts dealing, it was said, with history of the case.

Just what action will be taken is being watched with interest, and should the case be opened Monday it is probable large crowds will be in attendance.

Other cases to be disposed of during the week are:

Monday, January 16. Re. Smith vs Trustees of School; Ford vs Carson; Hooper vs. Amos Byrd; Randolph vs. Sam Edwards; Simons vs. Carson. Judge

Tuesday, January 17. Va Well Co. vs. Heater; Ed Stocks vs. Heber Tripp; Mills vs. Cobb; McG. Ford vs Randolph & Ford; Maggie Bell vs. Atlantic Coast Line; Thrower vs. Munford; W. J. Manning vs. R. D. Harrington.

British Bonds, Underwritten by the British Government of America, May be Offered For Sale to Provide Bonus in Event Present Plans of Administration Leaders Are Decided Upon; Leaders Believe the Plan is Practical Enough to Insure Popular Approval in Every Part of the Country.

(Copyright by International News) Washington, Jan. 12.—Four billion dollars worth of British government bonds, underwritten by the United States government, will provide for the soldiers bonus if present plans of administration leaders are decided upon today and carried out.

It is understood that administration leaders are prepared to go before the country with such a plan at once to take care of adjusted compensation for American ex-service men and British indebtedness to the United States.

It is proposed that the four billion dollars worth of British government securities, guaranteed by the United States, will find ready market in this country if offered for general sale, and will lead to an early and speedy solution of difficulties confronting the administration relative to the soldiers bonus and foreign debt.

As a practical business proposition, administration leaders believe the plan will meet with popular approval throughout the entire country.

COTTON FARMERS TO HOLD MEETING HERE ON MONDAY

Delegates to Attend Conference of Growers at New Bern Wednesday to be Feature

W. B. Pace, farm demonstration agent of Pitt county, said this morning that a meeting of cotton growers will be held at the court house in this city Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The purpose of the meeting, Mr. Pace stated, will be to elect delegates to attend a district conference of cotton growers to be held in New Bern Wednesday.

Eight counties will be represented at the New Bern meeting, and one man from each district will be elected director of the co-operative marketing association.

Pitt county should have a large delegation at this meeting, Mr. Pace declared, as it is the first of the kind held since the new marketing measure was given consideration in this section. The election of directors is one of the most important part connected with organization work, and it is very necessary that each county send fourteen delegates, and as many more as possible, although they may not participate as active directors.

This will be the first meeting of cotton growers exclusively held in Pitt county since the co-operative measure came into being, and it is urged that as many farmers as possible be present to do their part in the organization's success.

Ireland hails the evacuation of British forces with delight, according to press dispatches reaching this country. If it will have anything to do with stopping warfare, then we are delighted at the change also.

President Harding says he favors a sales tax to pay the soldiers bonus. That isn't necessary. The thing to do is to reduce expenses of other departments and pay the bonus with that.

Senator Newberry declares he didn't do anything illegal in the election that defeated Henry Ford. No one supposed he would admit it. The greatest crimes committed are mild to some people.

Tarboro is planning a bond issue for public school improvement, and indications point to success. The people of that town are going ahead and doing things, and if they continue like they've started the future is very promising indeed.

Men who violate the law to such extent that they are willing to fire upon officers are dangerous to every community in which they reside, and if the courts do not deal severe with them condition will become worse. Pitt county right recently has had something of the kind to endure, but it is very evident the courts are going to do the right thing. Such disregard for law and order can be stopped only through court action and it is hoped officials will consider the seriousness of the problem and deal out sentences in proportion to the seriousness of crime.

The Men of Peace, British ship captured by prohibition officers with a large cargo of whiskey, has caused considerable controversy in this State the past few days, but the order from the prohibition director branding it as a rum smuggler definitely sets aside further indecision. The vessel is of the usual type plying the waters between Nova Scotia and the United States and when they are all done away with the traffic will be more severely crippled than since prohibition went into effect. The officers are gaining experience in handling the traffic, and in course of a few months practically every illegal loophole will be stopped up.

It is gratifying to note that government agencies are concentrating their efforts for a reduction of retail and wholesale prices. That the price situation is far from fair has been the more evident in the past, and the sooner the government rights the wrong the earlier real prosperity is to be enjoyed by the nation. There are gougers in every line of business, and if they cannot be impressed with the necessity for price reductions the government should place them behind the bars until they are. The situation has continued so long until it is intolerable and the public feels it is justly entitled to better conditions.

The south is demanding tariff equal to that of the north, and if she doesn't get it the administration will have the question before it every day in the year. This part of the country should not be discriminated against because it is the south and in prosperous condition, and when the administration equalizes the tariff conditions will be better in both sections.

The coming of the boll weevil is not causing any great worry in Pitt county as the majority of farmers are determined to reduce cotton acreage and plant surplus acreage in food crops and high grade tobacco. If this means averting the impending disaster is generally observed next harvest season will find the country in the most prosperous condition in years.

Transportation in consolidated school district is improving in almost every county in which education has advanced so far, and the future is promising indeed. The automobile truck is proving of great value in eduation, and the more every county has the greater its chances of enlarging educational programs. Pitt county fortunately is well fixed in this way, and the future is brighter than ever before.

The co-operative marketing association says it will not hinder farmers not desiring to sell their tobacco by that method. That's the right course to pursue, as there will be hundreds of growers to sell by the old way, believing the warehousemen are going to do everything possible in their interest.

As many farmers as possible should attend the conference to discuss the boll weevil at Raleigh, as many facts of interest will be brought out by men well acquainted with conditions in sections already ravaged by the pest. North Carolina must prepare for the weevil's coming now while we have the opportunity. After he is already here damaging crops will be too late.

NEED FOR ECONOMY.

Business is better and sentiment throughout the country reflects courage. Such progress as has been made by the business community toward normal conditions results from a realization that artificial levels of activity will not again be reached in any period near enough to affect the problems of today, and from a determination to practice economies of operation more rigid than heretofore thought possible. The need of personal effort and economy is also being increasingly recognized in giving a day's work for a day's pay and in care as to personal expenditure. Business men and executives now recognize that henceforth they must give the most thorough personal attention and application to their enterprise.

Some part of the recent gain in business is unquestionably a result of seasonal demand. Permanent improvement depends to a large extent on foreign buying power, and even more on the adjustment of conditions under which the farmer operates. The last three years have clearly shown that the European situation can be stabilized only by the political and economic efforts of the countries concerned. Domestic conditions can be bettered by steady determination on the part of corporations and a desire to practice greater economy. This will result in gradual adjustment of the burden of price

The unsatisfactory situation in agriculture dominates the business outlook. In the cotton states the relatively high price of cotton has encouraged the farmer, but uncertainty both as to demand for cotton goods and as to the size of the admittedly small crop has minimized the beneficial effects of better prices. Farmers in the grain states will hardly break even on 1921 operations at current prices of corn and wheat. While it is true that the prices of goods used by farmers have fallen, they are still well above the 1914 level. Grains are all close to or below prewar prices. In the face of these facts, the contention is not well founded that the farmer is wilfully refusing to buy, thereby delaying the return of better times.

CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her."

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since. . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

When Burke obtained his Arizona rattlers he notified physicians and after the poison fangs had sunk into his arms he was treated for snake bite. The man was dangerously ill for several days from the effects of the poisoning.

According to physicians, several months must elapse before it is determined whether his improvement in health is permanent.

COLUMBUS FORMS PLAN TO MEET UNEMPLOYMENT

(By International News) Columbus, Ohio.—In connection with plans for relieving the local unemployment situation, announcement has been made by city officials that out-of-town idle workers will not be given work here.

In an effort to give such work as may be available only to idle Columbus residents having dependents, a committee has been organized to investigate the place of residence and eligibility of each applicant for work. Private citizens are joining with city and county authorities in making a survey to determine what construction work can be performed during the winter season so as to afford employment for as many as possible of the more than 15,000 idle workers of Columbus.

Raincoats sacrifice—they must go. Only two prices. We say $1.98 and $2.98. McKay, Washington & Co. 1 11 t

SPLENDID MEETING HELD BY CIRCLE OF KING'S DAUGHTERS

Interesting Session Held With Mrs. J. L. Wooten

(By MRS. ADA CHERRY) The Patient Circle of the King's Daughters held their first monthly meeting for this new year Tuesday evening, January 10th, at the home of Mrs. J. L. Wooten, Fifth and Greene streets. Had a fine attendance and a most enjoyable meeting, and a hearty welcome given our new president, who presided with ease and most graciously addressed the circle in a fine talk, giving an outline of her plans for the year's work ahead of us, especially emphasizing the importance of the deepening of our spiritual lives and strengthening Christian activities.

Fine reports were given from all toes but especially the Christmas committee who served so faithfully, and we as a circle desire to heartily thank every one who helped to make it possible to send Christmas cheer to so many who otherwise would have been made to feel that even Santa Claus had overlooked the little children. Blessed privilege, blessed work for hands and hearts.

The program for the evening was both interesting and inspiring and condensed reports of the work done in 1921 were fine. The circle report which was read at the State convention at Concord was read, also the report of our State recording secretary, Mrs. Richard Williams, was given by request. It's good to know that during her term of office of nine years of faithful and efficient service the circles in the State have given $116,230.18. This does not include the silver offering always given at the State convention.

Our State work this year is the liquidation of the debt on the Memorial bridge which we have built at the Stonewall Jackson Training school in memory of the North Carolina boys who died in France. Our next work we hope to be to help build a chapel at Samarstrand.

Four new members were welcomed into the order and into our circle, and we most heartily extend a cordial welcome to any Christian woman to join us who desires "not to be ministered unto, but to minister in His Name".

Suits, coats and dresses greatly sacrificed. They go before the new goods come in. McKay, Washington & Co. 1 11 t
