LOCAL TOBACCO MARKET TO SUSPEND ACTIVITIES FOR SEASON FEBRUARY 10; TRIPLE SALES TO BECOME EFFECTIVE ON ALL FLOORS DURING NEXT SEASON

Tobacco Board of Trade in Meeting Last Night Discussed Number of Issues of Vital Interest

BOARD HEARTILY IN FAVOR OF ADOPTING THREE SALE PLAN FOR COMING SEASON

Triple Sales Will Relieve Probability of Congestion and Enable Market to Conclude All Sales Daily

The Greenville tobacco market will suspend activities for the season Friday, February 10th, according to a decision reached at a meeting of the tobacco board of trade last night.

The board also unanimously voted to adopt the triple sale plan next season, which will put in operation three sales daily instead of two.

Adoption of the triple sale plan will completely eliminate the probability of further congestion on the local market, according to consensus of opinion prevailing at the meeting last night.

The plan will mark a new era in the history of the industry in this section of the state, and place the market in position to handle larger quantities of bright leaf in much less time than under ordinary conditions.

The Greenville market has developed wonderfully within the last few years, and today is recognized as the second largest bright leaf market in the world.

The triple sale plan was adopted after a favorable report of the committee appointed some time ago by the board of trade to visit and confer with the heads of the various concerns represented by buyers on the Greenville tobacco market.

Action in Shantung Issue Creates Considerable Interest But Remains a Great Mystery

(By International News)

Washington, Jan. 17.—After sailing along on comparatively smooth water for several weeks with prospects of a quiet landing in January, the armament conference appeared today to be heading for the rocks in the controversy represented by Japan's ambitious program of expansion in the Far East.

Considerable mystery surrounds the conference attitude towards the famous twenty-one demands which Japan forced on China.

In face of announced Chinese determination to present demands, the conference was compelled to announce that they had received consideration, but to what degree remained a mystery only to be solved by the settlement of Shantung controversy and subsequent events.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR WHITE WAY IN THIS CITY MONDAY

Material and Equipment For White Way Purchased From Westinghouse Electric Company

COMMITTEE HAS SECURED PRACTICALLY 85 PERCENT OF TOTAL SUBSCRIPTION

Final Efforts to Secure One Hundred Percent Subscription Be Made in Next Few Days

Contracts for material and equipment for the installation of Greenville's great white way were let by the White Way Committee, Monday afternoon. Bids were received from the leading manufacturers of such equipment, and after lengthy consideration various propositions the orders for the White Way standards and fixtures was placed with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co., of E. Pittsburgh, Pa. The cable was purchased from the General Electric Co., of Schenectady, N. Y.

Shipment of the White Way material will begin in about three weeks while the cable is scheduled for shipment in about six weeks. It now appears that the final stage in the realization of the White Way plans has been reached, only the settlement of a few minor details stand in the way of the successful conclusion of the efforts of the White Way committee.

The plans of the committee call for the erection of the Westinghouse Company's "Arcadian." Posts and fixtures on Evans street between third and Fifth streets, and on Fifth street between Cotanch and Reade streets. The "Sunburban" Post, which is of similar design will be erected on Fifth street from Reade street to the end of the pavement on the north side and from Reade street to Jarvis street on the North side of the street.

The White Way committee has been successful in securing practically 85 per cent of the subscriptions necessary to cover the estimated cost of the White Way installation. This amount has been pledged on the basis of frontage by property owners and merchants on the streets effected.

The members of the committee realizing the great benefits that a modern street lighting system will be to Greenville feel that the refusal of such a small percentage of the merchants and property owners to pledge their quotas should not be allowed to jeopardize the success of a proposition which has been given the unstinted approval and hearty cooperation of the great mass of public spirited citizens who take pride in the development of their town.

The committee plans to make a final effort to secure the 100 per cent of pledge on the streets mentioned, and the deficit that is left after this drive is completed will be placed before the general public, that those who have hitherto progress and up-building of Greenville at heart may be given a chance to help put across Greenville's Great White Way.

LOCAL MEN TELL INTERESTING TALE OF HUNTING TRIP

Judge Cooper and Raymond Moore Return From Ocracoke Where Bagged Much Game

Judge Louis G. Cooper and Raymond L. Moore returned yesterday afternoon from a hunting trip to Ocracoke, North Carolina, reporting a big time and having considerable game to show in the way of ducks and geese. They left Greenville last Wednesday, and had many interesting experiences in what is generally conceded as the best hunting grounds in America.

The game was placed on the sidewalk in front of the Proctor hotel yesterday afternoon and attracted much attention. There were 19 wild geese and about 75 ducks, many of which were distributed among the many friends of the two hunters.

Mr. Moore gave an interesting account of the trip which carried them in the vicinity of Portsmouth as well as Ocracoke. They saw millions of wild geese and ducks, he said, and gave a graphic description of the way the hunter gets within shooting range of the game. Blinds and decoys in the way of live game are used in drawing the game to the hunter, who is forced to lay on a floating battery hours at the time before getting a shot.

There were other features besides hunting that caused the time to pass away pleasantly for the two Greenville men. They had the pleasure of meeting E. N. Garr, Jr., owner of the famous speed boat Garr III, which recently raced the Florida limited from Jacksonville to New York.

They also visited Rex Beach, famous author, who has a hunting lodge and yacht at Ocracoke. Mr. Beach conversed pleasantly regarding his yacht and hunting experiences, but didn't refer to any of his works in fiction.

Judge Cooper and Mr. Moore will be a source of great interest to their many friends for several days to come, and the tales of their experiences will probably cause others to go over the same trail.

DECLARES BODIES OF SOLDIERS ARE IDENTIFIED HERE

Witness in Wilson Hearing Declares Men Killed in France Not Identified Before Burial U. S.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Flat denial of testimony that bodies of American soldiers buried in France are not identified before to relatives, was made today before the senatorial committee investigating Tom Watson's charges of indiscriminate killing in France during the world war.

The witness making the denial was John Flynn, of Cambridge, Mass., who declared that the testimony of Rufus Hubbard, of New York, who said bodies were sent home unidentified, was false.

Testimony tending to show that Benjamin King, of Wilmington, was killed in action and not lynched was given by Varney Wells, of Wilmington, who said he had heard from the company in which King was killed.

GREENVILLE TOBACCO MARKET DISPOSES OF APPROXIMATELY 22,273,295 POUNDS OF BRIGHT LEAF AT AN AVERAGE PRICE OF $29.07, ACCORDING TO STATE REPORT

COMPROMISE CASES FEATURE FIRST DAY IN SUPERIOR COURT

Several Minor Matters Disposed of in Opening Session of Civil Court Yesterday Afternoon

FORD-CARSON ACTION TO BE DISPOSED OF DURING AFTERNOON

Three Divorce Actions Also Disposed of by Judge Crammer in Opening Day of the Court

The January term of Pitt county superior court, for the trial of civil cases, convened in this city yesterday afternoon with Judge E. H. Crammer, of Southport, presiding. Quite a number of unimportant matters were disposed of during the afternoon, including several compromise actions which had been pending final disposition sometime.

At noon adjournment today the case of J. J. Ford against J. J. Carson, which was taken up yesterday afternoon shortly before adjournment, was still in progress, but will probably be completed during the afternoon. The case involves a dispute over $1700, which the plaintiff contends was made over to Carson to be applied to some debts. It was further alleged that Carson misappropriated the money and took immediate recovery. Brown and Everett, represented the plaintiff while defendant was represented by Albion Dunn.

Three negro divorce cases were disposed of during the afternoon, the following parties being involved. Gertrude Dempsey vs. Edward Dempsey; Ferdinand Grimes vs. Lula Grimes and Oscar Haley vs. Florence Haley. Divorce absolute was granted in each action.

The case of the Virginia Machinery and Well company against C. R. Heater was ordered dismissed because of its being settled by compromise outside of court, the plaintiff having accepted $100 in full settlement.

The case of the Baldwin Piano company against D. R. Oliver, involving controversy over a piano, was also ordered dismissed on motion of S. J. Everett, attorney for the plaintiff.

Other cases settled through compromise were: W. J. Brent Construction Company against Pamlico Brick and Tile Company; F. A. Ballance against the Fisheries Products company; Solomon Scott against the Fisheries Products Company; Green Ferrell against the Fisheries Products Company; A. J. Simmons and wife vs. S. T. Carson.

JAIL IS SO HOMELIKE PRISONERS BEG TO STAY

Huntsville, Mo.—Prisoners in the county jail at Huntsville receive good treatment. This is proved by the fact that two prisoners recently released after they had served their sentences went back to the jail and asked for quarters for the winter.

"Recently I released two prisoners from the county jail," said Sheriff John Milam. "They both had served their time. One was a white man whose home was in Moberly. The other, a negro who claims Huntsville as his home.

"The negro came back and asked if he could remain in the jail the rest of the winter and then along came the white man, who had walked back from Moberly to beg to go to jail for several months.

The prisoners at the jail, who number five, recently went out on a butchering trip with Sheriff Milam, with the promise that if they worked hard all day he would fry and make arrangements for a "chitlens" feed for them at night. The prisoners, all negroes, worked hard all day and the sheriff gave them the "chitlens" at quitting time and the prisoners cooked them at night.

"But I've got to quit that," said Sheriff Milam, because as long as they can get "chitlens" they are content to spend the rest of their lives in jail. "Chitlens" are a local negro delicacy, concocted from hog entrails.

Local Market Also Makes Higher Average Price Than Any Other, Except Minor Centers

WILSON AGAIN LEADS STATE IN VOLUME OF TOBACCO DISPOSED OF

Sales For Entire State Show Increase of 26 Percent, or Six Cents Per Pound Over Last Year

The Greenville tobacco market sold approximately 22,273,295 pounds of bright leaf at an average price of $29.07 during the present season, according to the December report just made public by the State Crop Reporting service. The average is the highest of any other market of the State, with the exception of one or two small markets that play only a small part in the giant industry that has done so much towards bringing prosperity here to stay.

The market sold 2,504,827 pounds at an average price of $28.33 during the month of December. While Greenville was out in average price, Wilson again took first place in the number of pounds disposed of. In fact, Wilson nearly doubled the Winston-Salem average, selling a total of $1,295,476 against 18,157,789 in Winston-Salem. Winston sold slightly over fourteen million pounds at an average of about $22.30, while Washington fell considerably low this record with eight over three million pounds.

Sales for the entire State showed an increased value of 26 per cent, or six cents per pound over last year's average of $23.28 per hundred. This is largely due to the proportionate crop of only 60 per cent of last year's 433,000,000 pound production.

The poor grades and low priced tobacco appearing on the markets during December, is a good indication that the majority of the 1921 crop has been marketed. The 212 million pounds sold to Jan. 1, 1922, is only 4 per cent of the total production of 294 million pounds forecasted by the departments of agriculture. As this leaves 82 million pounds yet to be sold, it would appear that this estimate was high; the present prospects indicating a 260,000,000 pound crop. The average price of all sales during the season, $28.31, shows $60,220,276 worth of tobacco sold at the end of the year and at that price, the entire crop will be worth $83,334,432.

The 142 warehouses operating in the state during December sold 29,912,346 pounds of producers' tobacco or about 10 per cent of the year's production, averaging $23.72 per hundred. This is about the same per cent of the year's crop that was sold in December 1920 when 80 per cent of it had been marketed.

Fuquay Springs and Farmville were the only markets reporting an average price of over 30 cents during the month. The average on the nine largest markets, which reported over a million pounds, was about 25 cents, or slightly above the state's average price.

The crop during the season was very variable as to yield and quality. Many of the areas producing the best tobacco last year, made the poorest results this season. The acreage was really reduced more than was expected, and the tobacco producers held to the reported reduction much better than the cotton farmers did.

Berlin is making an effort to hurry reparation offers. But it's just the other way with the indemnity.

New York effected a radical reorganization of its police department. If the action results in reduction of crime something has been accomplished.

New York is making a great effort to suppress crime, but instead they seem to have increased it judging by the number of robberies reported recently.

Pitt county cotton growers are prepared to fight the boll weevil and are going to send a delegation to New Bern to study the problem. That's the way to go after it, and the only effective way to combat the pest.

DeValera says the Irish have never bended their knees to Great Britain, as they will do if the Anglo-Irish treaty is accepted. It looks like they would be glad to do almost anything to be free. The fact is, Ireland does not know what she wants, and won't in some time to come.

Every effort is being made to relieve unemployment throughout the country, but large numbers are still without work. About the most effective way to relieve the situation, it seems, is to let Henry Ford have Muscle Shoals and employ that one million men he has been talking about.

If the other two men desiring to purchase Muscle Shoals are as capable of producing results as the automobile manufacturer, the government has done the right thing in deferring the matter. If on the other hand, Mr. Ford leads them all in efficiency the deferment may prove costly.

International problems seem to be worrying England and France, according to reports received in the United States. They might get better results if home issues were settled before crossing the water and taking part in something that certainly cannot seriously affect them at the present.

If that rumor about Henry Ford purchasing the Seaboard Air Line railway becomes an actuality, North Carolina people may have cause to feel elated. Ford is strongly in favor of reorganization, and what he would do for the railway might result in the employment of many more men. That's exactly what the country wants these days, and the man that can produce such changes is preferable to all others.

Pitt county cotton and tobacco growers should not forget the importance of planting food crops on surplus acreage this year, as the coming of the boll weevil and lack of demand for tobacco justify such action. No improvement will be experienced in the agricultural situation until the farmer provides something to eat instead of something for which there is no demand. Reduction of acreage will give more time to the cultivation of good tobacco and really cause the grower to receive more for his labor. The food crops will do away with the necessity of buying from other districts. Therefore, it is easily seen why the farmer should abide by suggestions made from time to time.

If a cloth is placed over a basin of freshly-made starch there will be no skin on the top, as is the case when it is left to cool, uncovered.

BETTER FIRE EQUIPMENT.

The fire Saturday night, which resulted in such disastrous loss to the tobacco industry, shows the necessity of another fire department. If a company had been established in tobacco town when taken up for discussion several months ago, it is quite probable the fire might have been extinguished before doing such great damage, although it is true, flames had gained great headway before the alarm was turned in.

Too much can not be done towards increasing the efficiency of fire departments and this particularly applies to Greenville. Our firemen do the best they can with the limited equipment, but how much greater would be their services if the equipment was exactly double what it is. The truck can reach all parts of the city in a few minutes after an alarm is sounded, but two companies could accomplish exactly twice as much under similar conditions.

Millions of dollars have been expended in the tobacco industry here, and all of it is jeopardized because of the inadequacy of fire fighting equipment in that vicinity. Each factory, of course, has a small equipment, but this would be very ineffective indeed in case of a destructive blaze, as has been very well shown in the past.

It is to be hoped Saturday's night conflagration will impress our citizens with the seriousness of the situation, and that concerted effort will be made to improve conditions. We do not mean to disparage the excellent work of our present department, but desire to show how unwise it is to allow millions of dollars in property to be jeopardized when several hundred dollars spent in additional fire equipment might be a means of saving millions.

JUDGE AND THE COURT.

Greenville and Pitt county extend a cordial welcome to Judge Crammer, of Southport, who is presiding over the present term of superior court in this city. This is the first time he has made his appearance in our courts, and his presence will be watched with great interest by those desirous of seeing the law enforced regardless of personalities.

Judge Crammer has won a very enviable reputation in other communities, and it is safe to say his decisions will meet with favorable consideration here. He believes in the strict enforcement of law, and should be a means of bringing about a direct reduction of crime. This is what we have needed, and it is hoped the present term will be very successful.

RURAL CARRIER EXAMINATION

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for the county of Pitt, N. C., to be held at Greenville on Feb. 11, 1922, to fill the position of rural carrier at Greenville and vacancies that may later occur on rural routes from other post offices in the above-mentioned county. The salary of a rural carrier on a standard daily wagon route of 24 miles is $1,800 per annum, with an additional $30 per mile per annum for each mile or major fraction thereof in excess of 24 miles. The salary on motor routes ranges from $2,450 to $2,600 per annum, according to length. Separate examinations for motor routes and wagon routes are no longer held. Appointments to both positions will be made from the same register. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of a post office in the county and who meet the other requirements set forth in Form 1977.

Women will not be considered for rural carrier appointment unless they are the widows of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines, or the wives of U. S. soldiers, sailors or marines who are physically disqualified for examination by reason of injuries received in the line of military duty. Form No. 1977 and application blanks may be obtained from the offices mentioned above or from the United States Civil Service Commission at Washington, D. C. Applications should be forwarded to the Commission at Washington, D. C., at the earliest practicable date.

HAPPY PARENTS POUR OUT THEIR THANKS TO TANLAC

That Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the cases of the three children shown in this picture. Little Blanche Blair of Providence, R. I., age 13, gained 10 pounds; Regina McCabe, at right, aged 9, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; Little Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine, robust health. The statements made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atwood street, Providence, R. I., said: "We are just as happy over the change that Tanlac has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tanlac, she has already gained 10 pounds, her color is better than it ever has been and she looks and acts like a different girl."

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickens Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The 'flu' left my little Regina in such a bad condition that I have no idea she would be with me now if it hadn't been for Tanlac. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and was so lifeless she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas. Since taking Tanlac she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2342 Palothorpe St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind but that Tanlac saved my little boys life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to have seen him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest until his heart palpitated so I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more gasps. But Tanlac gave him back to us strong and well and we will praise it to our dying day."

NOTE—Tanlac Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Tanlac treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Tanlac without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from calomel and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.

Tanlac is sold in Greenville by the Greenville Drug Company and leading druggists everywhere.

Silver Tea

On Thursday eve at eight o'clock, we hope that you surely will be seen in the library rooms when a silver tea will then be given for you and me. There's surely a need for good library books. To fill these dusty and vacant nooks, so bring fifty cents, a dime or a dollar. And watch the results that are bound to follow. Music and games and fun a-plenty will make you feel as if you were twenty.

FILM SCENES MADE IN WASHINGTON SQUARE

Corinne Griffith Made Part of "Moral Fibre" in Greenwich Village.

An interesting scene in "Moral Fibre," the Corinne Griffith production which will be shown at White's theatre Wednesday, was filmed from one of the windows of a residence in Washington square, New York city. This is on the outskirts of the famous Greenwich Village and contains the Washington arch, a famous memorial and a Mecca of many sightseers.

In the park across the street from the house in which the scene was taken an organ grinder, with his monkey, was busy grinding out popular music. The children at play surrounded this man, doing hand springs and the like. A few bench sitters were seen watching the children at play. The Vitagraph Company landed in the park early one morning and discovered the children dancing about the organ grinder engaged by Vitagraph especially for the scenes. These children were enjoying a game of ring-around-the-rose. One of them, a little taller than the rest, was doing hand springs, and a small boy on a velocipede was riding around the ring. The type of individuals upon the benches in the neighborhood were suitable for the scene, and without any rehearsing Director Webster Campbell shot the scene that met his gaze, and it was included in the picture.

CAN RUN THE FLIVER ON OLD 'MOONSHINE'

(By International News) Mountain Home, Ark.—One of those popular "rattlers" will run on the stuff, don't ever doubt it, and if you run out of gas and can't find a kerosene tank handy sit down by a tree and howl like a dog, or give three knocks on the smokehouse door, and you'll get it. Bill Kelsey, who was making an overland tour through the Ozarks, drove into this place with an odor coming from his exhaust pipe that made a lot of people thirsty. He ran out of gas in the mountains and had to fill his tank with moonshine. Attention was attracted to the flivver on account of its actions. It had a musical note in its cough and was doing the highland fling. After it had been filled with gas it had to be coaxed before it would run.

Unemployment in France has sunk to about 0.1 per cent of the population.

PRESENT YEAR TO BE BEST YET FOR AMERICAN LEGION

State Commander of New York Looks Forward to Future for Greatest Achievements in History of the Organization. Many Constructive Plans Under Way in All Sections.

(By International News) New York.—The year of 1922 will be the biggest the American Legion has yet experienced, announced William F. Deegan, State commander of the legion, in his New Year's greeting message to the posts from State headquarters. We face the year stronger than ever had we find ourselves facing problems bigger than ever. We are now going to roll up our sleeves, cast aside petty details and head straight for the goal. "The disabled man is still entangled in red tape. Hospitals are still needed in this State and others for the care of tubercular and mental cases. Thousands of our comrades are still out of employment and facing privation with their wives and children. The ex-service man is still without properly adjusted compensation. "The radical un-American is still working hard to undermine the institutions of our democratic government and to substitute the Soviet form of misgovernment. More and more tolerance is encouraging the foreign bred agitator to greater and more open violations of our hospitality.

"Our answer must be simple, direct and forceful. We must insist first, that our wounded and disabled comrades are cared for. We continually hear the cry that 'Nothing is too good for the wounded and disabled and yet we find nothing being done beyond perfunctory aid from inadequate bureaus. We must insist that economic conditions of those who lost two years of prosperity through their service be bettered. We insist that America be kept wholly American in its form of government. "We cannot accomplish these results without solid and steady growth in our membership. Renew your dues at once; bring in your buddies; talk the legion wherever you go; make the ex-service man outside the legion see that this is his own organization for the expression of his feelings; encourage the women's auxiliaries to greater strength as our valued right arm in the fight for justice."

FITZGERALD CONDUCTS SERVICES AT COLLEGE Mr. Fitzgerald conducted the Y. V. Vesper service at E. C. T. College Sunday evening. He gave new meaning to the parable of the good Samaritan which was read as the scripture lesson. The words that Mr. Fitzgerald paid most attention to were "The Other Side" which occur twice in the parable. He compared it with the school-teachers of today. Some do no more than they have to and pass by on the other side leaving the children perhaps worse off in many ways. There are others who bind up the wounds of their pupils, as it were, and lead them to higher and better things. They are good Samaritans. They do not pass on the other side.

Mr. Fitzgerald's theory was "Whatever you do is your religion, for you live your religion." It was not the Samaritans duty to help the wounded man anymore than it was the duty of the priest and the Levite. But he delayed his journey, gave the man shelter and money, not even knowing his name. It was his religion. He did it unconsciously. The message was altogether inspiring and many of the girls will not forget it. Miss Lillian Edwards played "Slumber Song" by Schumann, Misses Hazel Kennedy and Lucy Goodwin sang "Come, My Soul," before the talk. Both were very much enjoyed.

DAMAGE SUIT OVER A BOTTLE OF LIQUOR

(By International News) Scranton, Pa.—An unusual suit for damages as a result of the enactment of the prohibition law was filed in Federal court here by Mrs. Irene Dauberman of Lewisburg, Pa. Heppolit Sautowicz of Milton, Pa., is the defendant. Mrs. Dauberman charges that last August her husband, Clarence Dauberman, purchased a quart of whiskey from the wife of the defendant and then lost control of his reason and shot Sheriff Remor of Lewisburg in the wrist, and John P. Teemler in the chest. Dauberman was later convicted and sentenced to six years in the penitentiary on charges of assault with intent to kill. Mrs. Dauberman asks for $30,000 damages from Sautowicz because of the humiliation and disgrace brought upon her and for being deprived of the society and financial support of her husband.

ST. LOUIS WOMEN TRY TO KEEP OFF TROLLEYS IN RUSH HOUR (By International News) St. Louis.—Tired St. Louis business men and women were going to have an opportunity at last to get a seat on the street cars in the evening, thanks to a group of thoughtful-minded St. Louis club-women, the Women's Chamber of Commerce. The organization is three years old and boasts an affiliated membership of individuals and clubs around 70,000. It represents 900 clubs and is the largest woman's organization of its kind in St. Louis. Mrs. J. Alex Goodwin heads the organization, which has civic work as its reason for being. Each year it looks around for some civic enterprise to take part in that is peculiarly a woman's work. Many of its meetings are held downtown, causing its members to go home when the cars are most crowded, between the hours of 5 and 6 p. m. St. Louis does not have the subways and elevated roads of other cities and its transportation problem is a serious one, with its large suburban population, dependent upon surface cars alone. So it was this year that the members hit upon the idea of doing its bit in a civic way by urging its members to go home before 5 o'clock from shopping tours or club meetings and give clerks, stenographers and others seats instead of causing them to hang on to car straps after working hard all day. The idea met with excellent response according to Mrs. Goodwin and pledge cards are to be sent to all the membership to be filled out for the new movement. The Men's Chamber of Commerce and Men's Advertising Club have become interested and promise their support. The railroad officials are pleased to say the least, and promise the women free advertising for their scheme. Resolutions to the effect that the members will support the enterprise have been formally passed. Mrs. Goodwin said recently that several members of the Woman's Chamber of Commerce hit upon the scheme when they remained down town too long one day and were compelled to strap hang all the way home. "Then they were made to see that it was just such people as they that made people who must wait down town suffer on the homeward bound cars. We all took up with the suggestion eagerly and both ourselves and business men and women will benefit from our resolution. Other cities could do likewise. We have no patent on the idea."

MASONS INVITED TO CELEBRATION NEW BERN LODGE

St. John's Lodge, New Bern, to Celebrate One Hundred and Fiftieth Anniversary

TO COMMEMORATE VISIT OF GEORGE WASHINGTON TO THIS PART OF STATE

Event to Be One of Great Importance to Masons Through This Section of the State

Masons in this city have received the following invitation which will be of interest to everyone:

St. John's Lodge, A. F. & A. M. New Bern, North Carolina

Esteemed Sir and Worthy Brother: St. John's Lodge No. 3 extends you a most cordial invitation to be present at the celebration of its one hundred and fiftieth anniversary.

The occasion will also commemorate the one hundred and thirtieth anniversary of the visit of Brother George Washington, the first President of the United States.

Fraternally yours,
C. WHIT GASKINS,
Worshipful Master

This is an event not to be approached in importance in New Bern by one save the celebration in 1910 by the city of the 200th anniversary of its founding. Elaborate programs have been prepared and visitors, who are expected from far and near, will see the New Bern of 17 years ago as it enjoys the hospitality and entertainment of the New Bern of today.

Primarily the episode is a purely Masonic one and will be of widespread interest to the fraternity. But it does not stop there for it is something that should have interest for the public since it is intimately connected with the life and history of colonial North Carolina and America. Citizens of New Bern are cooperating with the Masons in the event. The local committee gives out this information:

Not since it celebrated the 220th anniversary of its founding has New Bern witnessed such a celeation as will be staged here on January 19 when St. John's Masonic Lodge observes its sesqui-centennial. Committees of this venerable body have been at work for several months on an elaborate and colorful program for this day's celebration.

On the nineteenth of January New Bern will turn back a hundred and fifty years and live for one day in the colonial atmosphere of that time. Masons and townspeople are expected to appear in the costumes of their colonial forefathers to lend the touch of realism that will be carried out in the pageants of the day.

And once more the figures of George Washington, Isaac Gulon, Martin Howard, Joseph Montfort, and other notables who were conspicuous during the first days of St. John's lodge, will mingle among the populace. Local characters who seem particularly fitted to represent these personages will come forth on the big day garbed in wig and stockings.

Indications are that the St. John's celebration will be more largely attended by out-of-town people than any similar event ever held here. From all parts of North and South Carolina and Virginia will come Masons representing scores of lodges. Unformed bodies of both Sudan and Oasis temples in this State and those of temples in other States are expected. From big Masonic bodies all along the Atlantic seaboard and from central and western States there will be representatives.

The program which was given out follows:

- Opening Pageant

Is Your Throat Too Sore To Swallow?

(Tuesday Health Talk No. 1)
(By J. B. Ball, D. C. Ph. C.)

This is the time of year when sore throat is prevalent. When the body cannot quickly adjust itself to changes of temperature and is a bit rundown, the cold settles in the weak places. In tonsillitis or sore throat there is a quick rise of temperature, backache and headache and more or less general aching. Swallowing is painful and difficult.

UNCLE BEN SAYS:

"When you are going to get married, Navy, get down on your knees and pray for Common Sense and a few Homely virtues as well as a pretty face."

The chiropractor finds tenderness of spinal nerves beginning at the spine and leading to the tonsils. Chiropractic spinal adjustments at the point of tenderness, at stomach place and at "kidney place" in the spine are given in the average case. The adjustments for nerves leading direct to the tonsils reduce the heat and inflammation, and the adjustments at kidney place and stomach place help restore normal digestion and elimination to get rid of the suppurative poisons and wastes.

ENLARGED TONSILS CORRECTED

"My oldest boy aged eight years had enlarged tonsils and could not breathe at night, except with his mouth open. He was badly run down and ordinary remedies did him no good. I started him taking chiropractic spinal adjustments and the boy now is all right and has picked up weight."
