MAYOR DECLINES TO BEGIN INQUIRY AGAINST OFFICERS

In Statement to Police Department Last Night Mayor Clark Declined to Interfere

CHIEF JONES TELLS OF INQUIRY STARTED SEVERAL DAYS AGO

Declines Mayor Clark is Convinced Police Are Not Guilty of Charges Made Against Them

The positive refusal of Mayor D. M. Clark to conduct an inquiry into certain charges of improper conduct launched against members of the Greenville police department by Lucile Pollock, woman of the underworld recently banished from the fifth district by a decree of Judge Cramer in a recent session of criminal court, has for the present set aside the probability of "startling developments" and caused a majority of citizens to feel gratified that an issue, which has become extremely objectionable, has been dropped.

The refusal to institute an investigation was contained in a telephone message received by Chief Jones from Mayor D. M. Clark last night, in which reasons were set forth in an interesting way. The mayor firmly declined to take any action whatever until further evidence, fully supported, is presented to him. As result of this members of the department take it for granted that the issue has been dropped, for the present at least.

Referring to the proposed inquiry this morning, Chief Jones said Mayor Clark had reasons for not taking action in the matter. In fact, he conducted a searching inquiry into complaints launched by women of the underworld a few days ago, and found that no statements were without the slightest foundation.

Chief Jones and Mayor Clark visited the women in their homes and carefully quizzed them concerning the charges, but failed to secure a single fact tending to convict members of the department.

The charges are merely an attempt to humiliate the officers and gratify persons who have been associated in the past with the underworld.

Referring to the proposed inquiry this morning, Chief Jones said Mayor Clark had reasons for not taking action in the matter. In fact, he conducted a searching inquiry into complaints launched by women of the underworld a few days ago, and found that no statements were without the slightest foundation.

DARING BANDITS ARE CAPTURED IN SAND HILL SECTION

Claude Bunch and Hobart Anderson Forced C. N. Campbell, Negro, to Long Drive

ROB HIM AND PUT GUN ON HIS BACK ACCORDING TO STORY

Mud Hole Proves Undoing of Desperadoes—Campbell Gets Word to Helpers—Arrests Follow

Kinston, Feb. 2.—Claude Bunch, hailing from Elizabeth City, and Hobart Anderson, said to come from North Wilkesboro, both young white men about 22 years of age, were caught yesterday at a. m. in the Sand Hill section, just across the Oak Bridge on the road to New Bern, after perpetrating the most open and violent automobile highway robbery act in the history of the county, and landed in the Lenoir county jail here in default of $500 bond each. The two men held up S. N. Campbell, a colored jitney driver of Goldsboro at the point of a gun and forced him to take them from near Greenville to New Bern and nearly to this city Tuesday. They were captured yesterday in the Sand Hill section and tried Wednesday before Magistrate K. F. Fossee, probable cause being found.

They applied to Campbell at Green Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 for transportation to Washington, and somewhere between the two cities pulled a gun on him and robbed him of all his jewelry, including a watch and other valuables, and his cash, $8.30 in change. He was told to "keep quiet and not give them away or he would be killed." They mentioned the fact that they had killed before and talked of Suffolk, Va., many times.

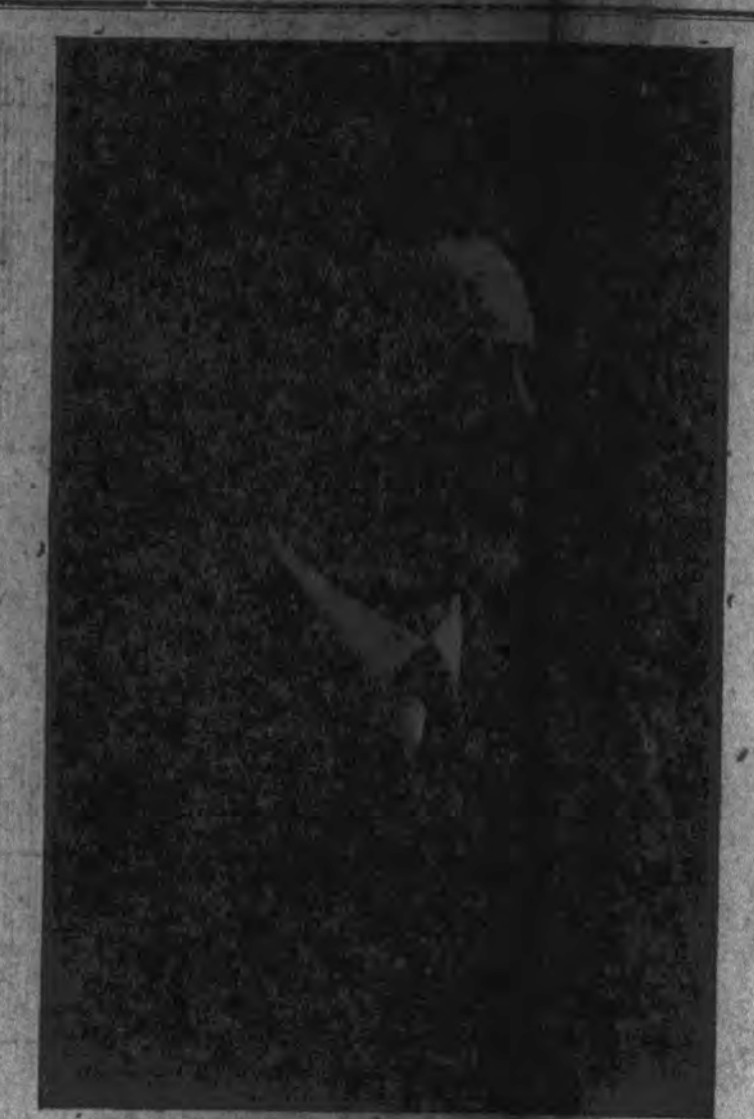

Upon reaching Washington, they decided to keep on to New Bern which they did, then doubled back to Vanceboro. There they found they had gone miles out of their way, and cut in to Kinston towards Fort Barnwell. Some distance from this city the Ford stalled Tuesday night late in deep mud, at Sand Hill. While one of the white men went for aid and got several men to aid him in extracting the car, Campbell was held at the point of the gun by the other.

Dr. Alfred Schultz has been appointed chairman of the Jewish Relief Campaign to be launched in this city from February 6th through the 12th. Pitt county's apportionment for this cause is $1000, according to information received from Lionel Well of Goldsboro, State chairman of the campaign.

Subscriptions are requested to be turned over to Mr. Herbert Wildrop of the Greenville Banking & Trust company, Charlie James at the National Bank, or E. L. Woolard at the Farmers Bank.

It is urged that the public contribute as liberally as possible to this cause, as conditions existing in Europe are the most serious in years. Thousands are starving and thousands of others face deplorable conditions unless American people come to their aid.

The local committee proposes to raise the apportionment as early as possible, and the public is asked to contribute liberally.

CLAUDE WAYLAND WILSON

MID-WESTERN FARMERS TO PLANT FULL YEAR'S CROPS BUT WILL CUT EXPENSES

Necessity of Meeting Debts Forces Planters to Sow Usual Crops—Discouraged by High Freight Rates and Bankers' Credit Grip

By KENNETH HARRIS International News Service Staff Correspondent

Kansas City, Feb. 2.—Like the grounding of tradition, the farmers of the Middle West were due to come out of their quarters of winter rest and headache—figuring on how much they lost on last season's crops, take a look lost on last season's crops, take a look today and see if there is prospect on the horizon. The average farmer in this section is looking to see if the shadow of low prices and poor markets is still clinging to him.

It is the question being asked all through the broad farming belt of the Middle West, the great wheat, corn and hay area.

Reports from leading bankers and produce men sent to this city state that the farmers will not grow less crops this year.

Farmers face a discouraging situation, reports showed, but they plan to meet it with a pronounced retraction of expenditures. They will seek to grow more but at less cost, working on budget systems and making business efficiency count.

E. F. Swinney, president of the First National Bank of this city, himself an agriculturalist, was our authority for this crop prediction, after making a careful survey of the conditions in the Middle West.

Notwithstanding the fact that the farmers' profits were decidedly small last year, Swinney stated, "I find nothing to substantiate rumors that there will be restrictions in the sowing of wheat, corn, oats and alfalfa in 1922."

PROFESSOR WILSON DIES SUDDENLY AT HOME IN THIS CITY

Noted Educator and Beloved Citizen Died Last Night About Ten O'clock of Apoplexy

FUNERAL EXERCISES TO BE CONDUCTED TOMORROW AFTERNOON TWO O'CLOCK

Dr. R. T. Vann of Raleigh to Conduct Services, Interment Be Made in Cherry Hill Cemetery

Professor Claude Wayland Wilson, 52 years of age, a member of the East Carolina Teachers College faculty and one of the most esteemed citizens of the city, died suddenly last night about ten o'clock at his home on Fifth street. News of his death has been received with general regret throughout this and other states where he is well known because of his long and distinguished services with the school here.

Funeral services will be conducted at two o'clock tomorrow afternoon interment being made at Cherry Hill cemetery. Details will not be arranged until after the arrival of relatives.

Dr. R. T. Vann, of Raleigh, will conduct the funeral exercises. Professor Wilson did a full day's work yesterday, and although he was not feeling quite himself because of a slight vertigo, he remained at his desk until his work for the day was completed. He consulted a physician during the afternoon. Sometime later he returned home and retired, feeling well, and found Mr. Wilson dead.

To one who loved his work, who always thought of others, who would find it hard to let others do for him, this was a beautiful way to go. It is believed he suffered a stroke of apoplexy.

Professor Wilson was born in Madison county, near Apex, August 27, 1869. Twenty-four years ago, he married Miss Carrie Josephine Mangum, of Scotland Neck, by whom he survived besides his mother, Mrs. Sidney Wilson, who resides near Apex, and a brother, William Wilson, of Staunton, Va. He graduated from Wake Forest on June 1, 1893, and completed a post-graduate course at Columbia university.

Since locating in Greenville during the fall of 1909, Professor Wilson has taken an active part in the religious and social welfare of the community. He has been at the very heart of the East Carolina Teachers College since it was conceived. As superintendent he caught a vision of the school and became identified with it before there was a building to show it would be. He was a member of the first board of trustees, became its first business manager, and at the same time being a member of the faculty.

He has been secretary of the board of trustees of the school from the beginning. He was the one link that bound together the class room teaching, the work of the board of trustees and the work of the students after they became teachers. He thus bound together with a wonderful bond of sympathy every phase of the school, and was one of the chief factors in the great success of the school.

He always remembered the little children back in the school rooms in the rural districts and villages, never in his teaching getting away from that thought. His marvelous gift of friendship amounted to genius. Today his friends are stricken and every member of the faculty, every student of the school and the community at large feel they have lost an understanding friend.

The deceased was also head of the department of education, director of the summer school, chairman of the appointment committee, secretary of the board of trustees, always acting as president in the absence of Mr. Wright, and a member of a number of important committees in the faculty.

WEEKS TRANSMITS FORD'S OFFER TO CONGRESS TODAY

Secretary Weeks Asks Immediate Acceptance or Rejection With Short Recommendations

FORD'S PLAN WOULD GREATLY BENEFIT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

Modifications of Proposals May Result in Final Acceptance of Ford's Offer is Thought

(By International News)

Washington, Feb. 2.—Recommendation neither acceptance or rejection, but urging immediate consideration, Secretary Weeks today transmitted to congress Henry Ford's offer to develop Muscle Shoals.

Last minute changes merely made strong guarantees of faith. Officials regard Ford's offer as one of value, Mr. Weeks declared. In principal changes, Mr. Weeks said, Ford agrees to continue the manufacture of nitrogen and other fertilizers. Guarantees that fertilizer will be sold for not more than eight percent profit are contained in the provisions, and also that Ford will maintain the plant and manufacture explosives in case of war.

Modifications of the proposal may result in the final acceptance, although lengthy consideration is likely, it was stated by the war department. Secretary Weeks asks congress for provisions to insure carrying out of the contract. Weeks combats the demand for a hundred year contract, declaring it would be better to limit it to fifty years.

If the government Ford may face litigation over conflicting contractual obligations, Secretary Weeks intimated. His statements are borne out by General Williams, chief of the ordinance department. It is probable, however, that lawsuits by companies holding contracts may be discontinued by the judge advocate who holds that the contract is not binding.

If the proposal is rejected Secretary Weeks recommends that the government complete the Wilson dam. The estimates of army engineers and engineers of Ford vary considerably, General Beach, chief of engineers said. He said the United States would benefit greatly by Ford's plan.

Mr. N. G. Bartlett, secretary of the Dublin & Laurens county Chamber of Commerce, has been selected by the committee that has the big job of putting over the $75,000,000 state bond issue for Georgia, to assist in managing the campaign. If the local Chamber of Commerce will give him a leave of absence, the good roads association will move him to Atlanta and there he will actively connected with the work all over the state, prior to the meeting of the legislature, and also after the legislature meets, until the general election in the fall.

Mr. Bartlett is recognized as one of the best organizers and field men in the state. He has been connected with several big campaigns during the last six years and has always come out very successful. The local Chamber feels proud that her secretary has been selected as one of the key men to put this big project over. The directors of the chamber of commerce, have not as yet, given their consent for Mr. Bartlett to take on this work, because there are so many big projects that are being pushed at this time, they are afraid that a vacation would disrupt the whole program. If the local chamber does not fit to let Mr. Bartlett off, the committee will have an excellent man to aid in carrying this big project to the people of the state.

Mr. Bartlett will speak before the chamber of commerce in Greenville February 14th. He is one of the three being considered as vice-president manager of the Eastern Carolina chamber of commerce.

HERMAN DAWSON KILLED BY TRAIN IN KINSTON TUESDAY

Son of Amos Dawson Suffers Fractures on Skull and Other Injuries

WAS RETURNING TO THE CITY FROM CASWELL WHEN ACCIDENT HAPPENED

Body Found Beside Tracks, is Found by Yard Man and Brought to D. E. Wood's Office

Kinston, Feb. 2.—Herman Dawson, son of Amos Dawson, of this county, died at midnight last night as a result of injuries received in East Kinston last night at about 7:45 o'clock when he was struck by the westbound Norfolk Southern passenger train.

Dawson's skull was fractured, an examination proved. From all the evidence that could be obtained here last night, Dawson had gone to Caswell Station on the afternoon, 4:46 train, and was returning on the evening train from Goldsboro which gets here at 7:59. The train was running on time, and Dawson is thought to have made an attempt to get off of the train at the Bright street crossing. He was evidently hurled prostrate, when he jumped off, the speed of the train being much greater than he had thought. In this act he was thrown against the moving train and received the severe cuts and fractures in his fall. It is thought that the under-parts of steel and iron on the carriage of the coach, struck him.

Found Near Track. The body was found a short time after the train passed near the tracks and reported to police headquarters. Policeman Tom Stroum and others immediately went to the scene of the accident and brought the injured man to the office of D. E. Wood and brought, but nothing could be done for him to save his life.

Immediately following the accident, W. J. Nicholson, agent of the Norfolk Southern here, was acquainted with the facts. He telephoned Goldsboro and asked that the sides of the passenger train be examined as to further clues as to the cause of Dawson's death. Evidently no one on the evening train, when it passed through the city realized that a man had been injured.

DR. SCHULTZ HEADS THE JEWISH RELIEF CAMPAIGN IN CITY

Pitt County Asked to Raise $1,000 for the Campaign by Lionel Well of Goldsboro

Dr. Alfred Schultz has been appointed chairman of the Jewish Relief Campaign to be launched in this city from February 6th through the 12th. Pitt county's apportionment for this cause is $1000, according to information received from Lionel Well of Goldsboro, State chairman of the campaign.

Subscriptions are requested to be turned over to Mr. Herbert Wildrop of the Greenville Banking & Trust company, Charlie James at the National Bank, or E. L. Woolard at the Farmers Bank.

It is urged that the public contribute as liberally as possible to this cause, as conditions existing in Europe are the most serious in years. Thousands are starving and thousands of others face deplorable conditions unless American people come to their aid.

The local committee proposes to raise the apportionment as early as possible, and the public is asked to contribute liberally. Contributions so far received: Dr. A. M. Schultz $50; Mrs. S. M. Schultz $5; Mrs. L. H. Bowling $5; J. H. Waldrop $5; W. L. Hall $5.

COUNTY FARMERS INSPECT POTATO HOUSES IN NASH

Number of Farmers Return From Trip to Rocky Mount Where Potato Industry Was Inspected

The sweet potato is bound to play an important part in diversified farming, according to the report brought back yesterday from those inspecting the Rocky Mount Sweet Potato Curing House. The Pitt county party was composed of the following: W. B. Pace, County Agent and Chairman of the Diversification Committee of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce; Jno. T. Thorne, of Farmville; J. B. Corey, of Bethel; W. O. Manning, of Bethel; W. M. Taylor, of Grifton and Secretary Smith of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce.

Upon arrival at Rocky Mount the party was escorted to the storage house where a close inspection was made, after which the chamber of commerce rooms was the assembling place where the party was given details as to organization and where questions were asked about various angles of the proposition. Every courtesy was extended by the officials of the storage house and the chamber of commerce.

The Rocky Mount business men made this venture possible and are thoroughly sold to the idea as to its soundness from a business standpoint as well as it being a veritable community developer. The bankers and leading business men of Rocky Mount quickly subscribes for the $11,000, of preferred stock, which bears 8 percent interest, and one fifth of said stock retired each year. At the end of five years the house belongs to the thirty-two growers, who belong to the growers association and who have pledged themselves to grow a given acreage for a period of five years.

Pitt county should take a forward step in this direction and launch one or more houses over the county. People from Farmville, Bethel and Ayden are much interested in this movement and no doubt will take a step in this direction at an early date.

Since a small acreage devoted to the growing of sweet potatoes will produce a sufficient quantity to fill a curing house and since the amount needed for the erection of the house is small, there is no reason why Pitt county should not have two or three houses for next season's crop. The proposition will be placed definitely before the communities interested and every assistance given

City authorities should demand a complete investigation of charges made by the former inmate of the underworld, and those found guilty should suffer the consequence.

Tobacco growers should not forget that Greenville will have triple sales next season and that selling tobacco here will be under conditions far more favorable than ever before.

That twenty years ago news carried by the Reflector should appeal to people who have been living here all their lives, and bring back to them in a vivid way the great progress the city has made.

Pitt county growers should not forget the vote to elect directors for the co-operative marketing association and that H. V. Staton, of Bethel, is one of the candidates for election.

The proposal to widen Dickinson avenue which is to be considered by the board of aldermen tonight deserves the earnest consideration of all members.

Additional fire fighting equipment for Greenville has been advocated from time to time, but not until right recently has it become an actual necessity.

While war taxes are being removed the government might find it advisable to lighten the burden of that great mass of people forced to use telegraph wires in the regular pursuit of business.

The entire world will be glad to learn that the armament conference has at last completed the five power treaty, and that for the next fifteen years each nation involved will be guided by its provisions.

GREAT LEADER PASSES.

The sudden death of Professor C. W. Wilson, of the East Carolina Teachers College faculty, comes as a distinct shock to the community, and there are thousands of friends who will condole with the family in this moment of grief.

Professor Wilson was one of the most beloved citizens of the community, having served the public well and faithfully in the performance of duties as instructor at the Training school, and only those who have been intimately acquainted with him realize the loss the school and community have sustained.

He has been prominently identified with the religious development of the community, serving the Emmanuel Baptist church faithfully in different capacities. He was as active in leading young women to God as in educating them for life's work, and it was this great spirit which caused his success to be even greater than under ordinary circumstances.

THE DRIFT FROM THE FARM.

It is rather shocking to be told, and to have the statement strongly supported, that 9,000,000 bales of cotton, raised on American plantations in a given year, will actually be worth more to the producers than 13,000,000 bales would have been.

There is the appeal for this experiment. Why not try? No one challenges the right of the farmer to a larger share of the consumer's pay for his product, no one disputes that we cannot live without the farmer.

It required much time to perfect it, but now it is completed the five power naval treaty should be of direct benefit to all parties concerned.

GENERAL GRANT GOLD DOLLARS BEEN AUTHORIZED

Special Coins to Be Minted in Aid of Memorial Building to Son of Ohio

(By International News) Washington.—The coinage of $200,000 worth of gold dollars and silver half dollars, as General Grant Memorial Coins, has just been authorized by congress to enable the old friends, neighbors and descendants of General Grant in Clermont county, Ohio, to erect two memorial buildings and a Grant memorial highway, five miles long, in commemoration of the anniversary of his birth, April 27.

President Harding, the latest of the long list of Ohio Presidents, of whom Grant was one gave valuable aid to Senators Willis (R.) and Pomerene (D.) of Ohio, in securing the passage of this legislation and lost no time in signing the bill after both houses of congress had passed it.

The act authorizes the coinage of $10,000 in gold dollars and $250,000 in half dollars to be delivered to the Grant Memorial association of which Hugh L. Nichols, a former chief justice of Ohio, is president.

This association is to buy the coins outright from the government and also to provide for the entire expense of making them. The intention is to sell them at a premium for the purpose of erecting community buildings, as Grant memorials, at Georgetown, Brown county, Ohio, where Grant spent much of his youth, and at Bethel, Clermont county, near Grant's birthplace.

It is also intended to build, from the proceeds of the sales of the souvenir coins, a Grant memorial highway, five miles long, from New Richmond, Ohio, to Point Pleasant, Clermont county, the birthplace of Grant.

foundation for the allegations the woman would certainly have presented them to Judge Cranmer recently when she knew she was sure of protection of the court.

The public has become nauseated by an insistent desire of persons to force such contaminating stories upon the public, officials said today, and action of the mayor in declining to call an investigation until assured the officers are guilty, is received with gratification throughout the city, especially among readers whose children are given the liberty of perusing the columns of the daily papers.

"I have in the past instructed the women living in the First street section of the town to be sure and report to me at once any police officer who should go to their homes and mistreat them in any way, and I have asked them many times and right recently, if any member of the police force had been visiting them other than in the line of duty and their replies have been that no officer of the police department came to their homes except in the line of duty as an officer.

"I cannot understand why they have been telling me this and now come out and tell me something different at this late hour. I shall have to have further supported evidence before I believe the statement to be anything more than false and for the purpose of humiliating the officers who prosecuted the said Lucile Pollock, in the lat esuperior court."

Chief Jones reported that Mayor Clark would probably return to Greenville tonight. Chief Jones let it be known that the mayor would conduct an investigation, providing any witnesses to the alleged malpractices of the accused officers come forward and offer to testify in corroboration of the statements made by Lucile Pollock.

NORTH CAROLINA PRODUCES TENTH OF COTTON YIELD

State Makes Splendid Record Despite the Drought and Other Hindrances aleigh, Feb. 2.—The severe 1921 drought in the central and upper Piedmont area of the State seriously damaged all crops. It has resulted in relatively high prices for most farm commodities in North Carolina. Cotton alone made a good yield in view of the growing conditions. The tobacco prices, averaging over 25 cents were better than expected last spring.

Corn
While corn is the State's universal crop, our rank is only 13th in value and 21st in production compared with the larger western States. The two States leading in both production and value were Iowa, 444 million bushels at 133 million dollars, and Illinois' 306 million bushels at 116 million dollars. On December 1st, 1921, corn was selling at an average of 42.3 cents per acre value. The 2,552,000 acres of corn harvested for grain in the State produced 49,232,000 bushels valued at $3,418,000.

Cotton
North Carolina produced one tenth of the cotton crop and holds 5th rank in both production and value of cotton, getting ahead of both Oklahoma and South Carolina. This was due primarily to the ravages of the boll weevil in those two States. Mississippi ranked seventh in 1920, but she moved up to third place for last year. North Carolina stands first in the per acre value of cotton among the main cotton States, but California, Arizona and Missouri were better. The production and value in the five leading States were Texas 2,200,000 bales, $177,100,000; Mississippi 870,000 bales, $72,210,000; Georgia 840,000 bales, $69,720,000; Arkansas 800,000 bales, $69,230,000; North Carolina 800,000 bales with $45,000,000 for the last crop. The sixteen cotton States have produced about eight million bales, which, at the December price of 16.2 cents per pound was worth 677 million dollars.

Wheat
This State's present wheat crop shows a reduction in acreage of one percent below the 1921 crop, and the 4,500,000 bushels produced last year was 53 per cent below the previous crop and was worth 6,480,000 at the December price of $1.44 per bushel. Our rank in both production and value is 26th compared with other wheat States. The two States leading in production and value of this crop were Kansas 128,606,000 bushels worth $119,687,000 and Nebraska 59,875,000 bushels worth $49,696,000. The national crop was 975 million bushels, which at 92.7 cents was valued at 737 million dollars. There are 42 States producing wheat on a commercial scale.

Mid Western Farmers to Plant Full Years Crop

(Continued from page 1) will certainly have to be reckoned with in the future, Swinney declared. Conditions Far From Normal. The crop prospectus which was forwarded to the clients of a well-known brokerage house in Kansas City this year indicates conditions among the farmers to date are far from being normal and are not reassuring, to say the least. Almost every farmer, according to the prospectus, is planning a year of retrenchment in expenditures, and a period of unprecedented economy in agriculture was forecast.

"The farmer will be reluctant to sow his crops this spring, albeit competition will gradually force him to prepare for his harvest this fall.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results From an Excess Hydrochloric Acid

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices. Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salt is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.

TAYLOR-HINES

(Reported for The Reflector.) A quiet marriage took place on Tuesday morning Jan. 24th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hines when their daughter, Miss Irma Griffin Hines became the bride of Mr. Benjamin Bryan Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Taylor, of Williamston, N. C. The ceremony which was witnessed by only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends was performed by Rev. L. C. Larkin, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The couple entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march and Trimmer was used during the ceremony. The music was softly rendered by the bride's sister, Miss Wonna Hines. The bride who was unattended wore a traveling suit of navy blue perle with gray accessories. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Taylor amid showers of rice left for a northern wedding trip. Mrs. Taylor, nee Miss Hines, is a lady of unusual charm and Mr. Taylor is a young man of popularity. On their return they will make their home with the groom's parents.

The good wishes of the community accompanied both Mr. and Mrs. Taylor on their journey.

GALLOWAY-BUCK.

Popular Young Couple Married in Grimesland This Week.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Buck in Grimesland on Tuesday when their daughter, Miss Gladys Buck became the bride of Mr. W. F. Galloway.

The library and drawing rooms were beautifully decorated with palms and potted plants carrying out the color scheme of green and white. Miss Bernadette Sumrell at the piano played the wedding music.

The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Guy Buck, of Portsmouth, Va., who gave her in marriage. She wore a coat suit of blue tricotine, with gray accessories and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was met at the improvised altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. Fred Jones. Rev. Perry Case, performed the ceremony.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Galloway left for a bridal tour of northern cities. Upon their return they will be at home in Grimesland.

Mrs. Galloway is one of Pitt county's most beautiful and attractive young ladies. She and Mr. Galloway both possess a host of friends throughout eastern Carolina.

Mrs. Galloway was the honor guest at many parties and showers prior to her wedding.

Bridge Club.

Mrs. Earle V. Carter was hostess to her bridge club yesterday afternoon. The library in which two tables for the games were arranged was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. The tables each contained a bon bon dish filled with candies. Mrs. Lewis Cooper making the top score was awarded a piece of lingerie. Mrs. Oscar Greene, of Kinston, was presented the visitor's prize a guest towel. At the conclusion of several interesting progressions refreshments consisting of "Blushing Bunny" and Budweiser was served.

Mrs. Oscar Greene, of Kinston, Mrs. S. E. Gates and Miss Pattie Wooten were guests of the club.

"LISTEN IRENE" IS PLEASANT SURPRISE

Musical Comedy Scores Unlooked for Hit at Grand—Nyra Brown and Johnie Gets Star.

(Greenville, S. C. News.)

Greenville theatregoers, yesterday, matinee and evening, received an unlooked for treat when "Listen Irene" was presented by George A. Wintz in three acts and four scenes with Nyra Brown, and Johnie Getz in the leading roles.

The two audiences, both in the afternoon and evening, came into the theatre chilled, but ere long the surprise musical comedy of the season warmed them to a comfortable temperature and the all-New York cast headed by Miss Brown and Mr. Getz kept the two gatherings in a fervor of anticipation, which was quite enjoyable.

Ace Brown and his tenor voice pleased immensely, vying with Miss Brown and Mr. Getz for leading honors, while Harry Brown, as St. Higgins also received copious applause. Smiles Rodgers, a dainty, sly bit of femininity, who was on the extreme left in the chorus and characterized as "Ida Hoe" also was unusually good.

The show possessed a number of good voices. The chorus was good looking and graceful and although the song hits were few, the selections were unusually well rendered. The scenic effects, especially in the second act, were the equal and surpassed those of any production which has appeared here this season.

The hearts of Greenville theatregoers always have a place for real shows and the artists in "Listen Irene" will be welcomed back here. Manager Whitmore, of the Grand, is endeavoring to bring Miss Brown and Mr. Getz back here this season.

The chorus of 16 "cute" cuties was one of the best seen here this season and the costumes were many and elaborate.

The new electrical scenic effects were superb.

"Listen Irene" will be presented in White's theatre Feb. 13th.

MISS KENDALL'S CONDITION REMAINS UNCHANGED

A telegram was received this morning by friends stating that the condition of Miss Dora Kendall who is critically ill with pneumonia in Kansas City remains unchanged. She is now in a semi-conscious condition, but rallied enough last night for some letters from friends and relatives to be read to her.

Miss Kendall has a host of friends in this county who are anxiously waiting for favorable reports from her bedside. She occupies an enviable niche in the heart of everyone who knows her.

MR. WASHINGTON'S CONDITION IS GREATLY IMPROVED

The condition of Mr. C. Washington, who suffered a stroke of paralysis while shopping in New York, has improved to the extent that he has regained the use of the affected side, also his speech. He expects to be able to return home in a few days. During his absence Mr. G. D. Bernmedy, Jr., of the Suffolk store will have charge of the business.

MR. SIMMONS' CONDITION STILL REMAINS UNCHANGED

A report received from the bedside of Mr. J. L. Simmons, who is seriously ill at a Rocky Mount hospital, stated that his condition remained unchanged.

STATON IS CANDIDATE FOR MARKET DIRECTOR

H. V. Staton of Bethel is one of the candidates for director of the co-operative marketing association in this district. He is opposed by a Craven county candidate, therefore members in this vicinity are doing everything possible to elect their candidate.

Mr. Staton is a successful business man and knows what the farmers of North Carolina need to be successful. He has been an ardent supporter of the co-operative movement, and it is believed he will get a large vote.

Red Men will meet tomorrow night in their hall at 7:30. Something interesting to all members is scheduled and a good attendance is desired.

Prof. Wilson Dies Suddenly at His Home in City

Professor Wilson was superintendent of public schools at Scotland Neck, and was previously engaged in a similar capacity at Rocky Mount and Williamston.

He was also moderator of the Roanoke Baptist association, chairman of the board of deacons of the Immanuel Baptist church, of this city, a prominent Mason, having been a member of Sharon lodge No. 78, A. E. and A. M., and Greenville Chapter No. 50, Royal Arch Masons.

Professor Wilson was one of the most enthusiastic and devoted members of the local Kiwanis club, and it was only at the last meeting of the club that he presented it with the silent boost in the shape of a small memorandum. The book contained an inscription that peculiarly fitted into the life of the giver, the lines containing a sentence that has played an important part in the club's life, "We build for the childhood of Pitt County."

The death of this distinguished citizen and educator removes one of the foremost workers of the city, as it is men of his type who constitute the foundation of every thriving community.

A faculty representative went to Raleigh this morning to meet Mr. Wilson's mother and come with her to Greenville. Relatives from Scotland Neck and other places have been arriving during the day and others will come in on later trains. The school assembled this morning and made tentative arrangements for the funeral exercises tomorrow.

Circle No. 8, of the Methodist church will give you a good time February 8th at the home of Mr. D. D. Overton.

NEW SYSTEM FOR CONTROL OF TRAFFIC

New York.—A traffic "dictator," headquarters in the center of the city, will control traffic on all New York's principal streets within the near future, according to plans worked out by Dr. John F. Harris, special deputy police commissioner.

Under the new system, work on the installation of which has already started, the "dictator" at his central station will press a button turning on powerful red lights on many thoroughfares at one time, stopping tens of thousands of vehicles at once, and allowing as many vehicles and hundreds of thousands of pedestrians to proceed in the opposite direction. Headquarters will probably be in the Times Square district.

A similar system, originated by Dr. Harris, has been thoroughly tried out on a section of Fifth avenue with complete success. Traffic on the entire length of the avenue moves at the same time and stops at the same time. When traffic on the avenue is stopped traffic on cross streets proceeds.
