MOCK TRIAL AND BANQUET FEATURES REGULAR MEETING OF KIWANIS CLUB

Many Other Interesting Features on Program at Meeting Held Last Night

E. G. FLANAGAN GIVEN HEARING ON CHARGE OF MISAPPROPRIATING FUNDS

Trial With Complete Jury, Legal Representation, Etc., Featured the Meeting

One of the most interesting meetings of the year was held by the Kiwanis club at the Rotary home on Fifth street last night, being featured by a banquet, Kiwanis trial and talks that literally vibrated with the spirit that has made the local club the powerful factor it is today.

After invocation by K. T. Futrell, President James turned the meeting over to H. A. White, chairman of the program. The program got under way with election of a sheriff, choice falling on Guy Smith, prominent tobacconist and Loyal Kiwanian, who was ordered to fine everybody the sum of ten dollars for violating the rule of addressing members by given names.

Mrs. Arlene Joyner at this juncture rendered two vocal solos, Mrs. J. B. James, acting as accompanist.

The silent-boost, an attractive letter opener, was presented to each member of the club by Moseley Brothers, Greenville real estate and insurance men.

Rev. C. H. Dascom was initiated into the realm of Kiwanis, being garbed in the customary infant attire and required to carry the inseparable bottle and nipple.

Mrs. Luther Herring spoke on the subject "Do Kiwanians make good husbands" and brought out many facts sustaining the reputation of her hearers. The talk was timely and indicated that wives are keeping accurate tabs on the activities of club members.

At this point some one whispered to somebody else that President James had been taking vocal lessons secretly, whereupon the unhappy attorney was called out and asked to demonstrate. He made a brave attempt to satisfy the audience, but was immediately forced to retire amid hisses and every imaginable form of disapproval.

Mrs. Lee McElroy White, of Kinston, rendered two piano numbers which were received with generous applause.

Mrs. K. T. Futrell was awarded the membership prize donated by J. Key Brown. Another prize was awarded to Mrs. C. O'H. Laughinghouse by H. L. Hodges.

Rev. Lee McBride White, pastor of the First Baptist church of Kinston, a guest of the club, talked interestingly of what Kiwanians are accomplishing, and especially by the Kinston club of which he is a member.

The attendance prize of the club was awarded to J. L. Starkey, being contributed by Jack Kilgore.

Dr. C. O'H. Laughinghouse was requested to sing a solo, and started off with "It's a Bloody War." He was joined by the entire club before finishing.

It was during this part of the program that the room was cleared for the trial. In a short time E. G. Flanagan was led before Judge J. B. James, charged with misappropriating funds of the club amounting to five dollars.

H. L. Rivers acted as clerk of court, J. B. Harding, solicitor, Paul Fitzgerald, Bob Fitzgerald and J. B. Harding, council for state; H. A. White, Dr. Laughinghouse and J. F. Harrington, council for the defense.

Considerable time was required to empanel the jury because of the number of objections involved, but eventually Carey Warren, Frank Wilson, H. L. Hodges, Miss Estelle Green, Mrs. C. W. Harvey, Mrs. B. W. Moseley, Miss Mac'e Southall, Mrs. Heber Forbes, H. L. Smith, Mrs. Luther Herring, Ed Batchelor and E. V. Carter were selected.

The trial was slow owing to importance and social standing of the defendant, but after two hours and half spent in examination of witnesses argument of state and defense and charge of the judge, the defendant

MOSELEY PARENTS PLACED ON TRIAL IN A SCHOOL CASE

Parents Charged With Keeping Children Out of School, Dismissed After Hearing

Mrs. Julia Moseley and husband were given a hearing before Magistrate J. T. Smith in this city today, charged with violating the public school attendance laws, and released upon payment of cost and agreement to comply with provisions of the legislation immediately.

The indictment charged that Mrs. Moseley and husband had not made their two children attend school as the law requires. They were warned by probation officer, K. T. Futrell, and even then refused to put the children in school.

It was at this juncture that Mr. Futrell began action against them, with hope of giving their children the same liberties and opportunities enjoyed by others.

Mr. Futrell is making every effort to enforce the school attendance law, as in this way alone can illiteracy be decreased and children given the same advantages enjoyed by others.

was found guilty. Attorneys immediately filed notice of an appeal to a higher court, bond being fixed at $1,000. J. L. Starkey furnished the bond and stood ready to supply even a larger amount had it been necessary.

After completing the case an attempt was made to implicate E. E. Williams, but the effort was denounced in strong terms by Defendant Flanagan, declaring that Mr. Williams had nothing to do with disposing of the sum, if such had really been disposed of.

The program terminated with completion of the case, and it being near the midnight hour adjournment ensued.

COMMUNITY MEET HELD LAST NIGHT AT HOLLYWOOD

Interesting Meeting Held at School House Featured by Many Lively Scenes

Hollywood School House, on the Vanceboro road, about seven miles from Greenville, was the scene last night of a most enjoyable community gathering, in celebration of George Washington and his wonderful spirit which still rests upon his country. The school house was filled to its utmost capacity, and the people had gathered from far and near, to hear the program which had been prepared by the school children under the able direction of the Misses Carroll, their beloved teachers. The program was as follows:

Song—Battle Hymn of the Republic. Prayer—Rev. Sam. K. Phillips. Song—Washington's Birthday, by a group of children. Play—Soldier Boys. Recitation—Miss Sallie Evans. Song—America the Beautiful. Song—Pettie Ross. Play—Bettie Ross. Song—George Washington. Recitation—Mr. William Carroll. Song—Tenting Tonight. Pageant—Our Flag. Address—Mrs. S. J. Everett. Song—Star Spangled Banner. Prayer and Benediction—Rev. Laughinghouse.

Mr. Phillips presided and led the singing, which was enthusiastic and uplifting. Mr. Frank Stox, introduced Mr. Everett, in one of his own, original speeches, which the Hollywood people love so well, and one seldom hears Mr. Stox in better trim than he was last night. His picture of the American Eagle, with "his wings touching the Atlantic and the Pacific, and his great head picking berries off the Alleghenies," will long be remembered, and his reference to the mules of the south, which all put into on great mule, "would kick the top off the North Pole, and brush the Equator with his tail," made one proud to be a Southerner. Mr. Everett spoke in a fine way of the elements of a true community spirit, emphasizing three things in a very forceful way; Education; Church Life, and Agricultural Enterprise. His words were deeply appreciated and warmly received.

The program as rendered by the children, was most excellent. There were no halts and hitches, and the audience showed by their frequent applause, their pride in the efforts of these coming citizens of Pitt county. The only fault that could possibly be found, was with the size of the building. It was not large enough to seat the people comfortably, but one cannot help but predict a fine building for Hollywood, to match the progressive spirit of its people.

Visitors from Greenville, included, besides Mr. Everett and Mr. Phillips, Misses Hatcher and Pilson of the Greenville Schools, Misses McClelland and Bertolo of the Teachers College, and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rowlett.

REPUBLICANS FAIL TO ACCEPT HARDING POSITION ON BONUS

Recommendations of the Chief Executive Not in Keeping With Plans of Committee

(By International News) Washington, Feb. 25.—The Republican House ways and means committee prepared today to tell President Harding that they could not accept his recommendations for the sales tax to pay the soldiers' bonus.

As further instructions to the executive the committee said it hoped the President would retire from his position on the sales tax or no bonus and approve the passage of a bill to be charged against the treasury, and to be paid for through economies of the army, navy and other departments to be mentioned later.

SCHOOL DEBATERS SELECTED IN FINE DISCUSSION HERE

High School Debating Team Chosen in Lively Debate at the High School Yesterday

TO PARTICIPATE IN TRIANGULAR DEBATE TO BEGIN EARLY DATE

United States Should Participate in League of Nations was the Subject Debated

Ten students participated in a lively debate before the student body of the high school yesterday afternoon, the discussion being held mainly for the purpose of selecting debaters to represent Greenville in the triangular debate to be held throughout the state within the next several weeks.

Four of the ten debaters and two alternates were selected, these being Frank Patrick, and Miss Miriam Shamhart. Alternates were William Perkins and Wyatt Brown. The subject under discussion was "Resolved, that the United States should enter the league of nations" the affirmative was supported by five of the ten members, the other five upholding the negative. Splendid argument was presented by both sides, and the judges had much difficulty in selecting the school's representatives.

The debate was in charge of Superintendent J. H. Rose, Joe Moye acted as timekeeper and the following as judges: Prof. L. R. Meadows, Miss Maupin, Miss Davis, Miss Corinna Mial and J. C. Lanier.

Others taking an active part in the debate were Miss Mary Gaskill Flanagan, Miss Mavis Lee Oakley, William Evans and Guilford Smith.

On March 24th Greenville negative team will go to Tarboro; Tarboro negative goes to Kinston; while Kinston's negative to Greenville; the affirmative team of each town will remain at home.

PRESBYTERIANS TO OUTLINE EXTENSIVE PLANS FOR REVIVAL

Special Preparations for Ten Days Services Now Under Way Among Members

The Presbyterians of the city are making special preparations for the ten days of preaching to be held at their church, beginning on Sunday morning, March 5th. Rev. George Matthis of Clinton, N. C., will do the preaching, and Mr. Matthis is known as a man who is beloved by all denominations and possessed of a fine personality both in and out of the pulpit. His messages are a delight to all who hear them.

There will be two services each Sunday while he is here, and one every evening at eight o'clock from the 5th to the 15th. Both services at the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be in preparation for the coming of Mr. Matthis, and every member of the church, is urged to be present. Mr. Matthis is no stranger in Greenville, having married a Greenville girl, and having preached in several of the Greenville pulpits.

Judge Cranmer retracted to one of our citizens this week, as he was passing by the Greenville churches, "my friend, no community can hope to have any permanent life worth while, unless its church life is well-developed." Such words ought to carry great weight, coming from a man of Judge Cranmer's experience, and the pastors of Greenville are counting strong on the support of their people in the church campaigns of this spring. Greenville has a hard-working, faithful, efficient set of pastors, and they ought to have the best backing of all those who want to see right prevail and wrong put down and out.

BELHAVEN CINCHES THE CHAMPIONSHIP OF GROUP ONE HERE

Club Defeats LaGrange Here in the Championship Game by Score of 45 to 12

VOLIA STARRED FOR VICTORIOUS CLUB BY SHOOTING TEN GOALS

Ayden to Play Greenville Here Next Tuesday Night, Coach Duncan Said Today

Belhaven won the right to participate for higher honors by defeating LaGrange here last night at Forbes & Morton's warehouse in group one, eastern North Carolina championship series, by the score of 45 to 12. The game was attended by a large crowd of enthusiasts from both Belhaven and LaGrange, featured by wild cheering in every part.

Both teams battled stubbornly for honors, but Belhaven exhibited superior form at the outset and gained a definite lead which LaGrange found impossible to overcome, although they battled determinedly and several times attempted to increase their score.

Volia, playing right forward for the victorious club, was the outstanding star of the evening, scoring a total of ten field goals. Davis also featured prominently in the scoring, being credited with seven field goals.

Newsom played an excellent brand of ball for LaGrange, having three field goals to his credit. Other playing stars also showed up in splendid form, but the most brilliant playing was staged by those making the great end of the score.

Those who saw the game agreed that Belhaven outplayed LaGrange, although the defeated crew put up a stubborn fight at times, and really deserved a better showing.

Coach Mahler, of the victorious club, was gratified at the splendid showing made by his club, and said he believed they would stand a good chance of participating in final games at Chapel Hill. Belhaven will play either Rocky Mount, Fremont, Durham or Benson in the near future.

The line-up of both teams follows: Belhaven—Volia, right forward; Dawson, left forward; Jones, center; Windley, right guard; Davis, captain, left guard. LaGrange—Mooring, right forward; Newsome, left forward; May, captain, center; Creech, right guard; Smith, left guard. Referees, Allen and Kennedy.

Coach Duncan of the Greenville club stated this morning that Ayden would play the Greenville high school here Tuesday night. This game was to have taken place last night but was postponed because of the Belhaven-LaGrange championship game.

MISS RAY TO SING IN THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

GREENVILLE GIRLS LOSE TO TARBORO

The Greenville basketball team was defeated by Tarboro in Tarboro last night, but the score could not be determined because of the fact that the girls did not return from Tarboro until this afternoon.

It was said that the game was very unsatisfactory, being featured by much wrangling and controversy.

EAKES FILES SUIT $50,000 AGAINST RAILROAD COMPANY

Peter R. Eakes Filed Suit Seeking Damages For Bodily Injuries Received in Collision

Damage suit for $50,000 was yesterday afternoon filed against the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company by Judge Lewis G. Cooper, attorney for J. G. Eakes, who received bodily injuries when a car driven by M. L. Lane, in which he was riding collided with a Coast Line locomotive on Twelfth street, killing Lane outright.

The complaint, as filed in the office of J. F. Harrington, clerk of superior court, alleges that Eakes was injured because of negligence of the railway company in failing to protect its crossings, particularly that on 12 street, which it is contended, is one of the most dangerous in the city. The crossing at the time the accident occurred was blocked with freight cars, the complaint contends, which prevented the driver from seeing the locomotive before the crash.

The accident occurred November 7, 1921 while Eakes and Lane were going to a lumber yard in that part of the city to get a load of doors. The freight had been shifting on tracks of the Coast Line company sometime and had left a long string of empty cars on the side of the track from which the car approached. Not seeing any signs of a moving train, Lane sped up to cross, and just as he passed the rear of the empty cars the moving train crashed against the car.

HARRY FIELD MAY BE QUESTIONED REGARDING LOS ANGELES MURDER

(By International News) Los Angeles, Feb. 25.—Unless definite proof can be found which will set aside the story told in Detroit by Harry Fields of the slaying of William Desmond Taylor, officers will probably go there to interrogate him. While they are strongly inclined to doubt his presence here the night of the murder, circumstantial confirmation of part of the story will probably necessitate questioning.

Execution Took Place at the Gate of St. Pierre Prison Where He Was Confined

MORBID CROWD PRESENT AT EARLY HOUR TO SEE GREAT CRIMINAL PASS

Execution Required Less Than Three Minutes in the City of Versailles

(By International News) Versailles, France, Feb. 25.—In a raw, misty dawn, Henri Landru, France's arch murderer, was beheaded on the guillotine before the gate of St. Pierre prison here today.

Landru had been found guilty of the murder of ten women to whom he made love, and a boy, son of one of the victims. He protested his innocence until the very end.

A crowd of morbidly curious, including numerous women, gathered before daybreak to witness the execution. Landru, pale, but erect, appeared cool, and while he hesitated before the knife, the chief executioner and assistants forced him forward, bending his head over to the sliding board.

In an instant Landru's head fell into the aperture and the knife fell, clipping his head from his shoulders. The execution required less than three minutes, in which time the most ruthless murderer in the history of France passed to his reward.

SUPERIOR COURT COMPLETED WORK FOR THIS TERM

Judge Cranmer Returns to Home in Southport, But Will Return Here in March

The civil term of Pitt county superior court which has been in progress in this city the past week with Judge Cranmer, of Southport, presiding, completed its work and adjourned shortly before the noon hour today.

The week has been a highly successful one so far as disposition of cases is concerned, as the calendar has been practically cleared. The docket was investigated the first of the week, and approximately one hundred and fifty cases were ordered set aside.

The court was delayed considerably by the hearing of the Tucker will case which was completed yesterday, but despite this fact, great progress was made with minor actions after this was disposed of.

This is the last term of superior court Pitt county will have until March 20th, when a two week session of criminal court will begin.

MRS. EDDY ADDRESSES COLLEGE STUDENT HERE

Mrs. Katherine Eddy, foreign secretary of the national Y. W. C. A., spent yesterday at East Carolina Teachers College, making two interesting talks to the students. At the morning assembly hour she told of conditions in Europe. In the evening she spoke on the far east, giving a wonderful interpretation of the two countries, China and Japan, contrasting the two. She has had rich experiences in foreign lands and speaks from first hand information.

She is a charming speaker and goes directly to the heart of her subject.

CHICAGO FRIGHTENED BY TERRIFIC EXPLOSION OF TONS OF DYNAMITE

(By International News) Chicago, Feb. 25.—Chicago's knees quit shaking and its hair settled back on the scalp today when it was learned that the explosion which shook almost the entire city an area of fifty miles around was not the outbreak of bomb throwing, but resulted from several tons of dynamite at a stone crushing plant near the city. Only one person was injured by the explosion, so far as had been learned today.

It takes as much ability to know what advice is good as it does to think up the solution yourself.

The farmer that expects to make a success this year must confine his attention to the cultivation of more crops than usual. The coming of the boll weevil and congested condition of the tobacco market makes it very necessary to diversify this year, and the farmer that fails to do so will be a big loser in the long run. Food crops are in demand all the year around, and it matters not how the market may be on these others, we will live so long as the smokehouse is chock full of something to eat.

The farm department is making an effort to co-operate with the farmer this year, and it is the duty of every grower to get busy and accept some of the good advice about how and what to plant. Some may say the men in these departments don't know what they are talking about. This is a mistake. They have studied agriculture and know exactly what the market needs. It's their business, and if they didn't know what they are doing, then it is certain the state would never hire them to supervise such important work.

Secretary Weeks evidently favors the purchase of Muscle Shoals by the Alabama power company and if he has his way about it they will get it too. The country has Mr. Weeks to thank for the present delay, and will also have him to thank for anything that happens in the future. He doesn't anymore care what becomes of the south than any other man with interests in the north, and if Mr. Ford fails to get the project it is possible he will realize something out of the deal.

Ayden is to be congratulated on the campaign for street improvement. This is a sign of progress that should have been in evidence years ago, but since it has been delayed, it is very gratifying even at this late hour. Paved streets are essential to the development and progress of every town and thrifty Ayden will be able to make even greater progress with such improvements. $1225,000 spent in this way is about the best way to spend it and we predict Ayden people will never regret the money they have so generously voted for the work.

Those Alabama people insist that Henry Ford should be given a trial at Muscle Shoals and if he isn't there's going to be some mad people in that state, and that's all there is to it. Alabama, however, isn't the only state that takes this view of the issue, as many people in other states think the same way about it and feel almost confident Mr. Ford would come nearer living up to expectations than anybody else. He is one of the best informed men in the country regarding industrial conditions, and if he can't put Muscle Shoals on a paying basis there are very few others who can.

Proposed reduction of appropriations to the navy is going to be a more serious matter than people at the present time anticipate, for if several thousand men are thrown out of employment at this time the country will be in far more serious condition than it has been in years. The government should cut expenses at some point where such a great number of men won't be involved. This can be done by carefully considering each department, and it's up to the administration to get busy and see what can be done to prevent the laying off of so many men at this time.

It is gratifying to note that the committee having the widening of Dickinson avenue in charge is sticking to the work, for if there was ever an improvement needed it is this one now under consideration. The improvement will not only make traffic better in the street, but increase the value of property also. Therefore the property owner who has been called on to pay a small amount of money for the improvement will be realizing more than he puts into it in an indirect way. Times may be hard, as some like to claim, but they never get too hard to make improvements so essential to the progress and development of the city.

BANK FAILURES.

The failure of so many banks throughout the country doesn't necessarily mean that times are hard. In fact, getting down at the bottom of such failures it is generally found that they break from influences on the inside.

In most cases some unprincipled employe finds himself in hard luck from bad speculating, and taking a long risk secretly appropriates money of the banks. Eventually, they find themselves deeper in debt, and as a last means of saving themselves from ruin use more of the bank's money. In a short time the inspector comes around and finds the shortage, and closes the doors of the institution.

In more cases than one imagines the failure of banks is caused in this way and not by tight times, as numbers like to have us believed. The trouble with things is not the money market. We have too many unscrupulous men ready to sacrifice principal and everything else at the expense of someone else, and it is through such misguided individuals that the public has to suffer as well as the institution which they so unfortunately represent.

The Alabama power company is one of the greatest forces trying to prevent the senate committee from turning Muscle Shoals over to Henry Ford, but they haven't fooled the public in the slightest sense of the world. Everybody knows the power company is working from a selfish standpoint, and if they continue to hold the government project it is certain they will do exactly like the want to about everything. Mr. Ford has assured the public that he is going to make the south prosperous by producing the things its people need, and that he will live up to what he says no one doubts in the least. If anyone can make Muscle Shoals a paying proposition, it is he, and the more the Alabama company talks about it the more the public will believe in Mr. Ford.

Indian dishes 800 years old and supposed to possess the "magic" property of breaking in bits if touched with poison, have been sold at auction in London recently.

W. L. BEST

Pitt County's Leading Jeweler

A Record Breaker in a Newly Launched Feed, Seed and Provision Business by W. H. Allen Thirty Days Ago.

With uncovered head I wish to make my most humble acknowledgements of the highest appreciation and extend to each and everyone my heartfelt thanks who has favored me with their patronage since opening business just thirty days ago. The liberal patronage given me at home and the volume of business received from the adjoining counties of Martin, Beaufort, Craven and Greene has passed the most sanguine expectations. The record I have made in just one short month has been encouraging and given inspiration to aspire to be of greater service to the people of eastern North Carolina. I realize that I am not located in the most public place on the commercial centers of Evans St. and Dickinson Ave., but be it to my credit and to the use of good judgment and wisdom on the part of my customers. Many have already made a "beaten pathway" to my door and profited thereby. Others are on the "trail".

A RECORD BREAKER ON THE SALE OF WASEO FLOUR

I have made a record on the sales of flour in this short time that has probably astonished and far surpassed the old profiteers and all competitors by disposing of and selling carload containing 210 barrels in twenty days. Not a single whisper or a single murmur have I heard against Waseo Flour by those who have tested it and used it. On the other hand hundreds of satisfied customers have come back with their happy smiles praising Waseo Flour and calling for more. During the year 1916 when I was in business I sold 2500 barrels of this same Waseo Flour without a single come back. I find that since I resumed business this time it still stands the test of the highest quality by giving satisfaction to the most exacting. In giving a definition and explanation of the quality of a brand of Flour I would say that Waseo Flour is a clean, unadulterated pure wholesome Flour that contains the cream and essence made from the heart of the best pure winter wheat easily digestible to the most delicate system, wholesome enough to comply with the king's relish and palatable enough to give a joyous smack to the queen's taste. Waseo Flour is good enough for anybody. The most highly polished, the most refined, the most fastidious, the most exquisite and the most exacting. The only thing about the quality part of it Lyon & Greenleaf, millers and manufacturers of this Flour have not yet polished it with skyward prices beyond the reach of the people's pocket book, nor have I given it an extra coat of varnish making the consumer pay an exorbitant profit and thus cut off the biscuit supply of four down to three. It is town talk and country chat, too, that "Bill Allen's Waseo Flour gives perfect satisfaction; his prices are right and his store is the place to trade."

Abraham Lincoln never uttered wiser or truer words than when he said you can fool all of the people part of the time, you can fool part of the people all of the time; but you can't fool all the people all of the time.

Try a sack or a barrel of Waseo Flour and you will be pleased, satisfied and gratified. I am unloading a car load today fresh from the mills. While the prices of wheat have soared aloft and flour has advanced more than a dollar a barrel since my last advertisement, I am advancing only 60c per barrel, quoting prices as follows:

Good for ten days only if present supply should last from date of Feb. 24. Differentials as follows:
 Waseo Flour—plain (48 lb. sacks) -----$7.60 bbl.
 Waseo Flour—self rising (48 lb. sacks) -----$7.95 bbl.
 48 lb. sacks plain ----- $1.95
 48 lb. sacks self rising ----- $2.00
 24 lb. sacks plain ----- $1.00
 24 lb. sacks self-rising ----- $1.05

LARD

50 lb. cases pure hog lard ----- 13 3-4c lb.
 25 lb. cases pure hog lard ----- 14c
 10 lb. cases pure hog lard ----- $1.60
 90 Day Burt Oats ----- 60c per bu. — $3 per bag as long as they last.

As I have predicted in my last advertisement old profiteers that have waxed rich on your hard earnings when they saw my prices would squirm, fuss, cuss and chafe as I brought them toppling down with their heels up on an unwilling rough ladder from the perch of their soft and downy beds of high prices. While I am not a prophet nor a son of one, yet my predictions seem to have been verified as I understand they have become very much alarmed over my future welfare in business by saying that I am selling goods below cost and for less than they can buy them. Doesn't it look like they would take advantage of it by buying from me and save money, but no. In my opinion they are not so interested in my welfare as they would have us believe and still have their hearts bent on and their faces turned to wartime prices and wartime profits and the following picture consoles their nightly dreams—

Almighty Dollar, your shining face
 Bespeaks your wondrous power,
 Come fill my pockets every day,
 I need thee every hour.

And what disturbs them most I have turned my back on this ideal and beautiful picture of theirs and painted on the other side of the wall my slogan "A desire to give service, small profits, volume of business, peace and plenty and a full dinner pail instead of a small lunch basket to appease and satisfy a gnawing and hungry stomach." I am fully aware they cannot compete with me in prices, quality considered. There is a reason: Buy for cash, sell for cash. My running expenses are less. Own my own buildings and storage room. Everything new and fresh—no old stock.

Yours to serve,

Popular Hit Fans!

Here's SPEED!

At the exclusive Club de Vingt, New York

How can you be first with the hits, in your set? Listen! On a Wednesday, "April Showers," a new fox-trot, was introduced to New York. Its haunting rhythms took Broadway by storm.

On the following Monday, a New Edison Re-CREATED the original Broadway performance at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago.

From New York debut to Chicago dance floor—in 5 days!

This breaks all previous speed records by weeks.

The NEW EDISON

This marvelous demonstration of speed proves that Edison has the fastest "hit-service" there is.

Mr. Edison has perfected both an organization for spotting the hits, and a system for lightning-manufacture of them into Re-CREATIONS.

As a result our hit department is scoring "scoop" after "scoop." As one delighted Edison owner told us, "You are getting us the hits so far ahead that we're gaining the reputation of being the liveliest and most-up-to-date home in our neighborhood."

If your family likes the bright and tuneful music for which Broadway is famous, that's another reason for coming in now, and investigating the New Edison.
