

ROTARIANS ATTEND DISTRICT MEETING AT WINSTON SALEM

SEVERAL MEMBERS WERE ACCOMPANIED BY THEIR WIVES

Farmville and Greenville To Be Represented One Hundred Per Cent Strong

Members of the Greenville Rotary club left this afternoon at four o'clock for Winston-Salem where they will attend the district convention to be held in that city two days of this week.

Both Greenville and Farmville will come near capturing attendance honors. Greenville will go to the meeting with the unique distinction of being the only Rotary club in the world with a horse of its own while Farmville will be known as the smallest town in the world with a Rotary club.

These distinctions will place the two Pitt county towns in the forefront at the convention and it is probable members of each club will take an important part in activities to be crowded into the two days. Greenville members expect to return home some time Thursday.

The following members, many of whom were accompanied by the wives will attend the convention:

Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Ellen, Prof. and Mrs. Robert H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Higgs, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Clodfelter, W. L. Best, J. B. Gorman, Dave Turnage, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hassell, J. C. Gaskins, J. H. Blount, S. K. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Warren, J. H. Rose, Ralph Garrett and daughter, M. L. SPECIAL TRAIN FOR TEMPLAR CONCLAVE AT WINSTON SALEM

Plans Worked Out at Meeting Yesterday of Knights Templar Eastern Carolina

Rocky Mount, Mar. 20.—Positive announcement that the Atlantic Coast Line in conjunction with the Southern would operate a special train from eastern Carolina into Winston-Salem for the Commandary Masons of this section following the meeting here yesterday of upwards of a score of York Rite Masons when in conference with railroad officials all details of the trip were worked out. Under the arrangement just completed a special train will leave Weldon at nine o'clock on the morning of May 9 stopping at Halifax Enfield and Whitaker, arriving in this city before 10:30. Leaving Washington and Greenville about 7 o'clock A. M. of that day two pullman cars will bring York Rite Masons and their families to this city by regular train. A special train will be made up at this point leaving Rocky Mount at 10:30 and at Wilson adding an additional sleeper for Masons of that city and will proceed to Goldboro where the train will be taken over by the Southern leaving Goldboro about noon. The train will make a direct run into Winston-Salem without further stops arriving there about four o'clock in the afternoon and in time for the first meeting of the state Conclave Tuesday night.

The train will be made up entirely of all steel pullman cars with the exception of one steel baggage car which will be used as a dinner and on which picnic lunch will be served on the long trip. The pullman cars will serve as a home for the men during their stay in Winston-Salem and they will be handled as a special train on the return trip leaving there on the afternoon after the conclave is concluded, and arriving at its destination during the night the cars will be distributed to the points from which they originated.

It is the plan of the railroad company to probably consolidate pullman cars from Wilmington, New Bern and Kinston with the train at Goldboro. However, this is a plan of the Southern and was not worked out in the details of yesterday's meeting.

Attending the session yesterday and representing the several commanderies of eastern Carolina who were guests of the local committee at the luncheon at the Woman's Club Cafeteria were:

F. H. Jordan of Washington, H. A. Pike, B. S. Middleton and S. R. Rackley of Goldboro; W. Z. Morton, Bruce Suggs and E. B. Ferguson of Greenville; S. M. Garey, W. P. Dickens and W. N. Sherrod of Enfield; W. B. Singleton, W. I. Ried, C. W. Coghill, T. L. Simmons, newly elected Emergent Commander H. S. Corey and J. L. Horne, Jr.

Bethlehem Commandary of Greenville will take a prominent part in the Winston-Salem meeting, and two of the pullman cars of the special train will be taken up by members from that city.

SUPERIOR COURT BEGINS TWO WEEK TERM HERE TODAY

Court Began Work This Morning With Judge Cranmer, of Southport, Presiding

MANY MINOR CASES TO BE DISPOSED OF DURING THIS TERM

Court Officials Looking Forward To a Most Successful Term

The regular March term of Pitt county superior court for the trial of civil cases convened in this city today with Judge J. M. Cranmer, of Southport, presiding. The term will continue for a period of two weeks during which time it is expected the docket will be greatly relieved if the congestion which has been in evidence several months.

There are some forty or fifty cases on calendar this term, and if nothing out of ordinary happens it is believed the majority will be disposed of before adjournment. Only a few important civil actions are involved in this term and these are not expected to consume more than ordinary time.

Judge Cranmer is a great dispatcher of business, as the past few terms have proven, and court officials are looking forward to the most successful session in months. There are many cases which have been pending hearing two or three years, and it is expected a number of these will be ordered off the docket. Last session saw at least a hundred or more go the same way, and there are still some due the same fate.

BOOTLEGGING LIKE LINGERING DISEASE SAYS GIRL MAYOR

Finds Rum Rears Up Head Like St. George's Dragon, Aided by Hypocrites

By WILLIAM J. HUSKE, International News Service Staff Correspondent

Fairport, (Chic. Manch.)—"Bootlegging," said Dr. Amy A. Kaukonen, Fairport's pretty girl mayor, to the International News Service today, "is like a long lingering disease. When you think you have it cured and done for it rears up its head, like the dragon in the legend of St. George, and takes another form and fresh start. It's harder to eradicate than the itch. This country is a hotbed of bootleggers, and whenever you knock one in the head T. L. Simmons, newly elected Emergent Commander H. S. Corey and J. L. Horne, Jr.

"Many a man gets up in prayer meeting and yells 'Down with booze!' then, ten minutes later, sneaks up a back alley to some disreputable resort and ponders down his hypocritical throat some bootlegger's concoction that would make a cigar store Indian do a war dance. I know the superintendent of a Sunday School that is always rooting for prohibition and yet rents his property to the proprietor of a blind tiger. 'Have Home Brew on Brain'

"The fact that liquor is hard to get seems to make it more desirable. People who seldom tasted booze when the country was wet now seem to have 'home brew' on the brain. They forget more receipts of hooch every fifteen minutes than an ex-her keeper could remember if he lived to be as old as Methuselah. Instead of going in for outdoor exercise and sunshine many 'tired business men' are going in for indoor exercise and 'moonshine'.

Mayor Kaukonen is also a physician. She graduated from the Woman's Medical College of Philadelphia with high honors and is the youngest graduate of that institution. She is a petite blonde and cheerfully admitted her twenty-five years. However, the correspondent was gallant enough to say that she didn't show her years. She was elected last Fall over a candidate who had strong backing from all classes, and her battle cry was "Clean up the Bootleggers!" She has named an entirely new police force and other subordinates and is

PLAY LEADING ROLES IN THREATENED STRIKE OF MINERS

Unionized coal mines throughout the country will be closed and about 735,000 miners will quit work on April 1 unless the operators and union officials meet in the meantime and sign a new wage scale and working conditions agreement. Here are grouped the leaders of the operators, miners and the Government. The American Federation of Labor will back the miners if they strike, Samuel Gompers, president, has announced. Secretary of Labor Davis is endeavoring to have the operators and union leaders "get together." The strike is certain, declares John H. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, unless the operators agree on new terms. Lewis is backed by William Green, secretary-treasurer of the organization, President J. D. A. Morrow, of the National Coal Association, leader of the situation for the operators, denies that the mines have earned excessive profits.

TROTSKY CHARGES GOVERNMENT WITH ENCOURAGING WAR

Russian Leader Says United States is Fostering Imperialistic Relations

(International News.) Moscow, March 20.—Accusation that the United States fosters a program for the re-establishment of capitalistic relations which brought about imperialistic war was made by Leon Trotsky in an excessive interview to the International News Service today. "I thought Russia had succeeded in convincing the powers that an understanding with Russia is possible only through acceptance of the Soviet view," he declared.

UNITED STATES IS GETTING GERMAN BUSINESS DAILY

Economic Recovery of Former Enemy Nation to Affect American Conditions

Washington, March.—Germany's recovery, by ability to ship more of her exportable surplus, will mean for the United States a greater proportionate share of business than for any other of the big powers, according to Government officials.

Germany during the present year, and before the year is far advanced, is expected by leading Government experts here to become more stable financially and commercially. Germany's shipments to the United States last year amounted to eighty million, Secretary Hoover" figures showed today. In dollars that was less than in 1920. But in the volume of goods transported it reflected greater export activity by German merchants.

As soon as Germany can see more clearly above the reparations fog, complicated through the unwavering French attitude, a reopening of the trade avenues for tremendous traffic is predicted by American observers abroad.

TWO KILLED BY TERRIFIC STORM THROUGH GEORGIA

Manufacturing Plants Unable To Resume Operation By Destruction of Lines

Columbus, Ga., Mar. 20.—Two negroes were killed in a cyclone which swept through Lee county last night. Considerable property damage has been reported in Alabama, the brunt of which swept through Salem. Wires are down and reports received today were meager.

Mine manufacturing plants at LaGrange and West Point were unable to begin operation until this afternoon when transmission lines of the Columbus Power Company were hit. Many mill towns were in pitch darkness last night. The steel transmission tower on the Alabama side of the Chattahoochee river was swept down, reports said. receiving, she says, the hearty support of the Council elected with her.

THELMA LEE JONES DIED EARLY THIS MORNING

Thelma Lee, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, died at her home this morning at 7:00 o'clock after an illness of several days. The interment will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, with the services being conducted by Rev. V. P. Scoville, pastor of the Methodist church.

The sympathy of the entire community goes to Mr. and Mrs. Jones in their sorrow.

TOBACCO GROWERS TO BEGIN ANOTHER SIGN-UP CAMPAIGN

Association to Begin Second Drive to Sign-up Farmers As Members

North Carolina tobacco growers are to have one more chance to sign up for co-operative marketing, according to an announcement by J. B. Lawley, who was in Greenville Saturday conferring with W. B. Pace, farm demonstration agent of Pitt county. The campaign for signers re-opened this week in North Carolina with the state divided into five sign-up districts in charge of experienced campaigners.

The association now has a combined membership of more than 65,000 growers and many of these have volunteered to assist in the final effort to add 75,000,000 pounds of tobacco to the total signed up in North Carolina.

Reports show how the Kentucky burley growers have solved all their problems and made large sales at satisfactory prices, have stimulated interest in co-operative marketing in North Carolina, and several counties which were not active in the past are now anxious to "sign up for prosperity."

This sign-up district is in charge of J. B. Lawley and includes the following counties: Carteret, Pamlico, Jones, Lenoir, Craven, Pitt, Martin, Greene and Beaufort.

Monday, March 20th, 1922

It is gratifying to note that food prices are declining in the United States. The public should keep informed concerning prices and trade with firms keeping pace with the decline. There are many who wouldn't cut prices at all unless forced to, and it is such who must be watched all the time.

Washington has raised nearly four thousand dollars towards support of its baseball club this season. This is fine and if nothing happens the town will have one of the best clubs in the whole league if the same liberality is exhibited the rest of the season.

The Pitt county part of the American Legion is composed of a thrifty bunch of members, and promises to be one of the most influential organizations in the section. The boys are using the influence for public good, and will be able of doing great things with proper co-operation of the public.

Pitt county farmers will do the right thing to reduce acreage this year, and it is hoped they won't fail to do so. Conditions are entirely different from what they were a year ago, and if crops aren't reduced things can't be expected to improve. Both cotton and tobacco crops must be reduced. They are the main crops of the section and certainly must be reduced if we are to reap any great benefit from the future. Planting season should see all farmers ready to reduce. Otherwise conditions will be everything but what expected.

A four city league won't be so hot but still we would like to see Washington come in. The town was one of the first to for the league and it would be a pity for them to be denied membership the third year. Tarsors should get busy and join with Washington. This would make the season much more interesting, and create a greater spirit of competition.

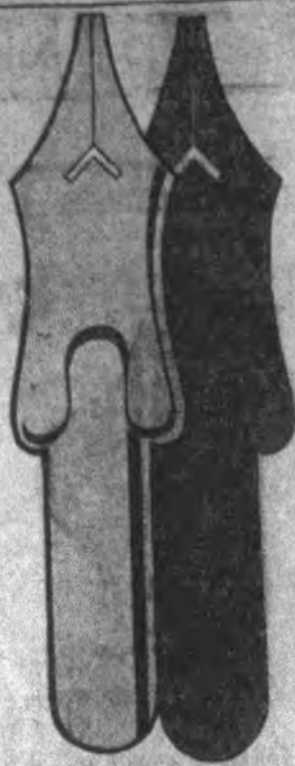

The Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce should be a great force for advancement of this section, still the proposed state chamber of commerce isn't such a bad thing. The State Institution would represent everyone, and should be even a greater influence for public good. The Eastern organization would work for this section exclusively, whereas the state would be served by the larger body. The proposition isn't such a bad one, and if it can be put across, someone think it can, the public should lend its support.

The "Live at Home" program will be given great impetus in Pitt county today and tomorrow and farmers that take advantage of the information furnished them by speakers of the committees to canvass each community should be able to face the future with greater confidence. The campaign is launched mainly for the purpose of convincing the planter of the advisability of diversifying crops, fight the boll weevil and reduce acreage of cotton and tobacco. The social and moral welfare of the grower will also be touched upon by the speakers, and each community should derive great benefit. By living at home and confining his attention to the development of his farm the grower is destined to enjoy a greater prosperity than ever before. He is his own master, and must mould the future as others have done.

PROS AND CONS OF UNEMPLOYMENT.

Unemployment to a very large extent is due to the fact that our tremendous industrial organization, expanded and built up to meet extraordinary demands from the outside world during the war, is now faced with a situation where the outside demand has ceased, partly through lack of power to consume in the outside world, and largely due to its lack of money or credit with which to buy.

Supplementing this, Colonel Arthur Woods, who heads the working committee of this President's conference on Unemployment, says:

"It seems to me that business men as a body feel that the great difficulty at the present time is what we might call the disjointedness of industry; that some things have been forced to liquidate very much and other things not quite so much and the thing is out of balance and out of proportion. Business men, looking at the thing from the point of view of business men, see the tremendous difficulty of carrying in business under those conditions. They see certain restive points which seem to jut themselves up roughly and jaggedly in face of the attempt of the march of progress toward a re-balancing of these various factors which are now out of proportion. Employers feel that perhaps the most useful thing that could be done would be a clear, impartial ascertainment of these restive points and an education of the public—particularly of the parties which are the principal supporters of these restive points—so that they could be removed and we should be enabled to move toward a balanced condition of industry where everyone could feel that it was safe for him to go on that basis and march forward."

HAMS! HAMS!

GOOD PEOPLE OF GREENVILLE, I am still on the job, and ready to take pleasure in giving you my best service to supply your wants of the best and most wholesome and relishing eatables in the provision line. Haven't had time to say anything in the newspaper for the last few days. So many have gotten on the "Trail" and found my place. I have been too busy to keep posted, those who are patronizing others of how many dollars and cents they are losing. But having drilled and broke in to some extent for the last 60 days in my business Jim T. Corey, I decided to entrust it to his hands and take a day or two off and go out on the highways and into the byways and hedges in the interest and for the benefit of my customers. I have no hesitancy in saying that I have succeeded in obtaining and brought to my store the best, the most selected assortment of Hams, Shoulders, Sides and Bacon, (smoked) ever brought to Greenville. It is true that I am selling Kingham F. F. V. Hams @ 38c lb. I understand that my competitors are charging 40c per lb. and they have to lug it home at that after paying this price. I understand they also charge 57c for Smithfield Hams: If you would throw aside the aroma to enter your nostrils and a flavor to appease your appetite. These selected country hams I have in stock smoked with hickory and sassafras wood that gives them a golden tinted color and you don't say that a rose by another name (You can call them Bill Allen's selected specials if you want to) and smell just as well and its flavor is fine enough for the King's relish and to give a joyous smack to the Queen's taste. Then I feel almost like saying I am willing to pay a doctor to diagnose your case and find out if he can, what is the matter with your taste and system. I am selling these Hams at 34c per lb., and sides and shoulders at 22c. Could ship or express it to other towns at the same price in job lots if I desired to do so. Wanted to give the people of Greenville an opportunity to buy a high grade quality of smoked bacon and Hams at a reasonable price that they can afford to pay. I know that I am selling goods, quality considered from all information that I am able to gather, below my competitors. If you don't buy from me you are fattening the other fellow's bank account and only a question of time he can plant a fat pocketbook in the face of your own lean flat poor purse strings.

I am still making record breakers on the sale of "Waseco" Flour and Beauty Rose, hundreds of satisfied customers are still coming back with their happy smiles and calling for more. I am quoting a few specials as follows:

- GOOD FOR 10 DAYS
- S. K. Hams, a very good grade @ 32c per lb. By Wm. Schludersberg—T. J. Kurdie.
  - Bill Allen's Onslow County Selected specials, smoked country Hams @ 34c per lb.
  - Shoulders (Smoked) @ 22c per lb.
  - Sides (Smoked) @ 22c per lb.
  - Kingham's F. F. V. Hams @ 38c per lb.
  - 50 lb. Cs. Pure Hog Lard @ 14c per lb.
  - 90-Day Burt Oats @ $3.00 per Bag

What's behind the fertilizers you buy?

The rule for getting the most for your fertilizer money is simple and sensible: Buy the goods backed by the widest experience, the greatest manufacturing facilities, the best materials the world's markets can offer.

A A C Quality Fertilizers measure up to this rule in every respect. Behind them are the discoveries, not of one man, but of a whole group of the foremost authorities in the history of the fertilizer industry.

Bradley, Bowker, Stockbridge, Liebig, Coe, Wheeler, Lister, Crocker, Detrick, Zell, Hess—think what these pioneers have contributed to the world's knowledge of plant foods, soil fertility, crop requirements!

All are names that have helped to build A A C. All the vast experience they represent is at the command of those who today make fertilizers bearing the A A C brand—or the brand of any of the subsidiaries in this great organization.

Why take chances when with A A C Fertilizers you know you are right?

An important part of this organization is its Agricultural Service Bureau, conducted by Dr. H. J. Wheeler, formerly Director R. I. Agricultural Experiment Station. This Bureau carries on practical experimental work in all sections of the country, to determine just what fertilizers are best adapted to each crop and locality. WRITE to this Bureau, in care of the office nearest you, for suggestions on your particular crop problems. No charge or obligation.
