

FOUR BIG STILLS CAPTURED IN RAID NEAR THIS PLACE

Police Officers Get Three Big Outfits at Simpson And Galloway's

SPLENDID OUTFIT IS CAPTURED IN RAID NEAR COX'S MILL

All Three Outfits Constructed Of Copper, With Exception Of Last One

The whiskey traffic of this section received another disastrous blow yesterday when T. J. Williams, police officer of this city, accompanied by Mr. Swain, police chief of Grimesland, succeeded in capturing four complete stills in this county.

The last still captured had been in operation a short time prior to arrival of the officers. The operators had stored it away in the woods, together with nine gallons of liquor, and a considerable amount of beer.

After the visit to Simpson and Galloway's Cross Roads in the morning the officers returned to Greenville and deposited their first captures in the confiscated cell at the county jail. They then went to Cox's Mill and after a short search were awarded in the capture of a sixty gallon affair with complete equipment.

The two stills taken at Simpson were of hundred and twenty gallon capacity and of the usual type used in the manufacture of contraband corn whiskey. While the officers hoped to capture operators along with the stills, they failed to do so, as these wily gentlemen had evidently been warned of their approach and escaped. That they thought their stills were safe, however, is evident from the fact that they were not removed any great distance from the place of operation.

Officers are making an effort to clean-up the blockaders if possible, and the next several weeks in all probability will see a concerted campaign launched against the traffic. This is the second really disastrous capture made within the last week, making a total of about ten stills, but not by the same set of officers.

KENTUCKY ORATOR TO LECTURE HERE SUNDAY, APRIL 9

Dr. George Hammond to Speak At Baptist and Methodist Churches

Dr. George M. Hammond, distinguished orator of Kentucky, will give his famous lecture, "The Challenge of the Time" at the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, and at the Memorial Baptist church Sunday night at 8:00 p. m.

The Sunday night service will be a union meeting of the Memorial and Immanuel Baptist churches and perhaps others. Dr. Hammond comes highly recommended and will have a live message for those who attend.

Said Attorney General Daugherty: "As a citizen cannot choose what laws he will obey, so likewise those charge with law enforcement must enforce all the laws all good citizens must obey all the laws. Neither can exercise any right of choice in this matter without placing themselves above the law."

ROSE ELECTED TO VICE-PRESIDENCY PARENT-TEACHERS

Supt. of Greenville Schools Receives Notice of His Election

LEXINGTON WOMAN ELECTED PRESIDENT OF ORGANIZATION

Greenville Now Has Two Parent Teachers Organizations Functioning

Supt. Junius H. Rose of the Greenville City schools was notified yesterday of his election to the vice-presidency of the North Carolina State Branch of the Parent-Teachers Association. The board of managers met on April 1 and elected Mr. Rose according to a letter received yesterday from Miss Catherine Albertson, the corresponding secretary of the organization.

Mrs. Frank Spruill, of Lexington, was elected president; Mrs. A. A. Kneen, Charlotte, N. C., treasurer, and Mrs. Burke Hobgood of Durham, N. C., auditor.

The parent teachers association of the state are now doing an excellent piece of work in co-operation with the school authorities. Greenville now has two flourishing organizations. The Model school parent-teachers association, and the Evans street school parent-teachers association. Mrs. W. E. Hooker is president and Miss Louise Goggin secretary of the Model school organization while Mrs. E. W. Harvey is president and Miss Susie Brady is secretary of the Evans Street school organization.

Both of these organizations are working hard for the interests of the Greenville schools and the school authorities recognize in them their best allies.

CAROLINA STAGES SHUTOUT AGAINST WAKE FOREST CLUB

Triples by McLean and Wilson Determines Features in 2 to 0 Victory

Durham, April 6.—Triples by McLean and Wilson in the first and second innings respectively, paved the way for the University of North Carolina to win a 2 to 0 victory over Wake Forest this afternoon in the most closely contested baseball game of the season.

Both teams played in mid-season form on the defense, and only one error was credited to each team. These, however, had nothing to do with the runs scored.

Fred Morris, Carolina's third baseman, was a big factor in the support given Llewellyn whose mound work was of a high caliber.

Stringfield, Wake Forest shortstop, was another defense star of the game, playing in form that would have done credit to a much older player.

The game was one of the best staged between the two colleges in years, and opens way for an interesting season.

Although Carolina won the game, the score fails to show just how evenly the two teams were matched. Wake Forest drove out five hits but they were all singles. Carolina found Stanley Johnson, the Baptists' star moundsman for only three hits, two of which, however, were triples.

The pitching of both moundsmen was brilliant, but Johnson had the edge on Llewellyn.

PRESIDENT TO ATTEND UNVEILING OF PEARY MEMORIAL MONUMENT

Washington, April 6.—President Harding will attend unveiling ceremonies at Arlington cemetery this afternoon of the memorial monument at the grave of Admiral Peary, American discoverer of the North Pole. Secretary Denby and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt will speak.

SECRETARY MELLON IS EXPECTED TO QUIT CABINET MINUTELY

Administration Row Expected To Result in Disastrous Ending Today

PENDING DISMISSALS IN TREASURY OFFICE UPSETS GOVERNMENT

Rumors of Mellon's Resignation Believed to be Significant This Time

(By International News). Washington, April 6.—An administration family row of such proportions that it may lead to the resignation of Secretary Mellon was in full swing at the capital today.

The retirement of the multi-millionaire of Pittsburgh from President Harding's cabinet has been rumored a dozen times recently, but the reports always proved groundless.

Today, however, the reports revived with such persistence as to convince many of his friends that his retirement is imminent as results of the shake-ups already made and those contemplated in the treasury department.

Following admission that more dismissals are contemplated Elmer Dyer, personal friend of President Harding and Secretary Mellon caused notices to be distributed denying the reports.

FOURTH ARREST IN THE WHITLEY CASE MADE IN RICHMOND

Richmond Authorities Holding Zebulon Whitley on Charge Of Complicity

Richmond, Va., April 6.—Held without bail at the request of Sheriff J. E. Herring, of Greene county, N. C., who is sending an officer here with papers for him, Zebulon E. Whitley, barber, 32 years old, of Walstonburg, N. C., who has been working here for the last six weeks, was locked up tonight. Whitley is a brother-in-law of Will Whitley, a Greene county farmer, who was killed by Wright Rouse in September.

The technical charge against Whitley is being a fugitive from justice, but it is understood here that he is charged with being implicated in the conspiracy with Tom Hayes and Mrs. Will Whitley, both of whom are serving prison terms for the murder of Will Whitley. The warrant for the arrest of Whitley was sworn out by Solicitor Jesse H. Davis, of New Bern, and it is understood that a preliminary hearing will be held at Snow Hill Thursday. The specific charge against Whitley will be that he provided the vehicle to take the old negro, Wright Rouse, back home after the killing.

Solicitor Davis was in Raleigh last week and went to see Rouse, who is in prison there awaiting execution, although the governor has recently reprieved the sentence for 60 days and it was as a result of his conference with the prisoner that the warrant was sworn out. The warrant was placed in the hands of Sheriff Herring, who ascertained that Whitley was working in a barber shop here and directed the police to have him arrested.

The police were informed that Deputy Sheriff Fred Carraway would arrive with the necessary papers tomorrow and take him back to Snow Hill.

THIRD GIRL CHARGES MILLIONAIRE'S SON WITH MARRYING HER

New York, April 6.—A third girl, Polly Lorraine, former actress today claimed Joseph Grafton, son of a Pittsburgh millionaire, as her husband. The other two claimants are Peggy Davis, seventeen year old Folliott's girl and Ellen McIntyre, of Youngstown, who claimed he married them last November and December with only a seventeen day interval. Grafton has vanished.

RELINQUISHES ALIMONY FOR CHILD

Mrs. Ruby Glyn Holloway, above, compromised her alimony claim against Raymond Holloway when she found the first divorced wife of her estranged husband in a San Francisco court asking back alimony for their daughter, Betty. She fell so completely in love with little Betty that she told the judge she would be willing to forego the $80 per month alimony after next August, when she expects to become a school teacher.

WANT HARDING TO GIVE REASON FOR FIRING WORKMEN

Democrats Outline Effort to Have Wholesale Firing Investigated

Washington, April 6.—Senate Republicans and Democrats clashed again today over the question of whether the Harding administration has been observing or violating Civil Service regulations.

Without much fuss or flurry, two Democratic resolutions on the subject were disposed of temporarily, but a third caused protracted debate.

The two resolutions of Senator Carraway, Democrat, Arkansas, relating to President Harding's discharge of twenty-nine executives of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, were referred, with the Senator's assent, to the Senate Civil Service committee. One proposed an investigation of the bureau case by a special senate committee, and the other would ask the president for his reasons for the bureau dismissals.

Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, questioned the right of congress to ask the President about dealing with government employes.

"If the President violated the law there is a way to reach him," said Senator Borah.

"Yes, we could impeach him," interrupted Senator King, Democrat, Utah.

Senator Borah rejoined that a former Democratic President had told congress that his management of executive employes was none of its business.

Prior to reference of the Carraway resolutions, Senator Curtis, of Kansas, acting Republican leader, said he and other Republicans did not object to the requests for information if the preamble were stricken out. This Senator Carraway declined to do.

URGES CHANGE FOR RAILROAD SYSTEMS OF UNITED STATES

Daniel Willard, of B. & O. Says They Can Come Out All Right

Washington, April 6.—Private operation of railroads, promises to solve the transportation problem if the carriers are given a fair chance," Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore and Ohio, stated today before the interstate commerce committee in continuing his statement begun yesterday in reply to government ownership statements of William G. McAduff, former director-general of railroads.

Mr. Willard declared nothing had been developed to show that congress erred in returning the roads to their owners.

"What the railroads need more than anything else at the present time," he asserted, "is an opportunity under the terms of the transportation act to work out their problems without unnecessary and burdensome interference, and I have the utmost confidence that they will successfully surmount their present difficulties if given a fair chance to do so."

"I am also confident that they will provide the people of this south with adequate transportation at reasonable rates and lower rates than are to be found for similar service in any other country in the world. This the railroads did do under the faulty scheme of regulation in effect before the war and how much more should they be able to do so under a better and wiser scheme of regulation now in effect."

Mr. Willard said that federal control of the carriers was not designed to test the relative advantages of private and public operation but to help win the war.

Mr. Willard III. The many friends of Mr. D. J. Willard, Sr., will regret to learn that he is confined to his home on Evans street by illness.

REGENERATION IS THEME OF SERMON HERE LAST NIGHT

Dr. Edwards Delivers Another Sermon on Renewed Life

SONG SERVICES AGAIN FEATURE PROMINENTLY IN EVENING'S SERVICE

Evangelist Tells of Life of Nicodemus in its Relation To Christ

Another large crowd attended the revival services at the Christian church last night, and listened to a powerful sermon by Dr. Edwards, Texas evangelist, who is conducting the services. The singing by the Pollocks again stood out as one of the principal features of the evening's services, and attracted much interest.

Dr. Edwards took his text from the first fifteen verses of the third chapter of John, in which Nicodemus went to the Lord and said "Rabbi, we know that Thou art a teacher come from God; for no man can do these miracles that Thou doest except God be with Him." Jesus answered and said unto him "Verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again he cannot enter the kingdom of God."

The sermon was based entirely on the lesson from these passages of Scripture. Dr. Edwards emphasized the necessity of Christ's teachings of regeneration that a man must be born again in the spirit.

Nicodemus came to Jesus as a great ruler of the Jews, he approached Christ with some hesitancy, because he didn't know He was the great servant of God.

He brought out the fact that we should be like Nicodemus. We should seek to know Jesus, and do everything possible to learn the great truth. When we come to know Him we will experience that renewed life.

Dr. Edwards spoke of the great privileges which we have in using our lives for Jesus, and the necessity for such if we are to live happily. He explained the meaning of the renewed life, showing it comes through one source and that is through Jesus.

He said no man can remain out of the church and claim to be saved, because the bible teaches we are saved only through the blood of Jesus Christ. He closed his sermon by saying that anyone in search of this regeneration in life will always find Jesus ready and willing to instruct them.

GREENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY WASHINGTON HERE

First Game of the Season to be Played at Fair Grounds Tomorrow Afternoon

The first baseball game of the current high school season will be played in this city at the fair grounds tomorrow afternoon at four o'clock between Washington and Greenville. The game promises to be one of the most stubbornly contested played here in quite a while, as Washington is reputed to have an aggressive set of players capable of making a great showing.

The Greenville club has been undergoing strenuous training under direction of Coach Duncan the past several days, and when they meet Washington tomorrow will be able to make a mid-season showing. The boys will appear in the last practice period in new uniforms this afternoon at the fair grounds, and the line-up for tomorrow's game will be selected.

This is the first season Greenville has attempted to put a high school baseball team in the field, and Coach Duncan stated this afternoon he hoped the public would support the boys as liberally as possible. In fact success of the season will be largely determined by the support in evidence during the first few games, and it is hoped this will not be lacking.

DR. BARKER WILL LECTURE IN CITY DURING FRIDAY

Noted Lecturer to Speak Three Times During His Stay in the City

PUBLIC URGED TO ATTEND LECTURES IN LARGE NUMBERS

All Lectures to Take Place at The High School Auditorium

The people of Greenville and the surrounding country are urged to remember that on tomorrow, Friday, April 7th, Dr. Charles Barker, of Battle Creek, Michigan, will deliver three addresses in Greenville. All of the lectures will be delivered in the high school auditorium at the following hours: 10:30 to the high school student body and the general public, 4 p. m. to the women of the town, subject "A Mother's Responsibility to Her Daughter," 8 p. m. to the men of the town, subject "Father's Responsibility to His Son." There are some men in Greenville who have already had the pleasure of hearing Dr. Barker. About one year ago he appeared in Wilson under the auspices of the Wilson Rotary Club and made a number of men want to hear him on that night were unanimous in saying that Dr. Barker should be brought to Greenville to deliver the same lectures.

While Mr. William Howard Taft was president of the United States Dr. Barker was in charge of his general health. It is a known fact that Mr. Taft left the White House in better physical condition than any other president has ever left it. President Taft says that a great deal of credit for his splendid condition at the expiration of his term of office was due to the care that he exercised over him. This proves that Dr. Barker is a recognized authority on the care of the human body, not only as it affects the present generation, but also as it affects the future generations.

Dr. Barker is touring the United States under the auspices of the International Rotary. The Greenville Rotary club is bringing him to Greenville, and is bearing all the expenses of the event, in the only hope of the men and women, and boys and girls of the city may secure a definite, vital and correct information on the problem of how to make the most out of life now and in the future to come.

The fact that Dr. Barker is lecturing under the auspices of the International Rotary is evidence enough that he will bring to the people of Greenville a very wonderful message.

Thursday, April 6th, 1922.

First disorders have been reported from the mine districts where strikes are in progress. And we hope it will be the last.

England should call on Germany to pay up some of the indemnity. They might at least have the consolation of getting some paper in return.

That two-legged hog on exhibition in this city is fortunate in having any legs at all. And judging by the way he gets around he means to make them count for four.

Plans are under way in Florida for removing the capitol from Tallahassee to some peninsular city. And right here is where war starts in Florida.

Colonel Nutt is satisfied with progress of the prohibition campaign in Florida. Probably some of the traffic members are convinced he's a hard nut to handle.

Congress continues to insist that the navy must reduce expenses. If they will do something more than insist results might be considerably better.

The British government has called upon debtor nations to pay up, as they have got to meet obligations to the United States. It is to be hoped France and other countries owing in large sums will do likewise.

The Republican party continues to make great claims about its accomplishments the past year, but about the only thing we see they have done is to cause several thousand men to lose their job. If this can be classed as an accomplishment, then we admit they have succeeded admirably.

Raleigh people are to be congratulated in supporting the million dollar bond issue for school improvement. This is one of the greatest strides the city has taken in years, and the educational forces making success of the election possible are to be commended for the splendid spirit.

Fly swatting time is here, and the housewife that neglected the screen door home against the pest is subject to troubles to numerous to mention. If you haven't screened as yet, get busy swatting until the screens are placed.

The coal barons want congress to investigate the mine strike. How about investigating the enormous profits the operators have been receiving from what the miners produced. Congress has plenty room for an extensive probe here, if they will only begin soon enough.

A few women voted against the issuance of bonds for school improvement in Raleigh, but only a few, it was very noticeable. The mothers, however, voted solidly in favor of the issue, and insured the future of some five thousand children who attended the various schools in the capital city.

The anti-malaria campaign will be of great value to the city this year, and the public should urge the city authorities to continue it indefinitely. Mosquitoes are not only troublesome pests, but invariably have much to do with the spread of disease. The campaign proved a great success last year, and there is no reason it should not be the same this year. It can be made of even greater benefit by proper co-operation of the public.

If reports of law enforcement members in Florida count for anything, whiskey smuggling must have assumed enormous proportions along the coast of that state. Capturers have been of a startling nature, but even then we don't believe the worst part of the situation has been divulged. Florida is too near Cuba to expect the traffic to be discontinued, and not until Cuba goes dry can we expect to see any noticeable change.

Mogridge, Who Has Faced Both, Thinks Jackson Looks 'em Over Better

By DAVIS J. WALSH.
New York, April 6.—Just for the sake of passing an idle hour in Tampa, Fla., where idle hours abound in great numbers, some one started an argument as to the relative merits of Babe Ruth and the lamented Joe Jackson as pinch hitters. To the average mind there seemed to be no occasion for the discussion in that Ruth has broken all records for run scoring and driving in runs during the last two seasons. Yet the argument persisted.

Some few reckoned Ruth the most dangerous of the pair, with men on the runways, but singularly enough the majority held out for Jackson. Joe, they declared, carried the verdict without a dissenting vote.

There was exactly one baseball player in sight at the time, and to him rushed the heated orators, because they knew him as one of the best left-handers in the American league and a man who spoke with authority. Many times had he faced the men in question, and all too often the occasion was one of those diverting moments known as a pinch

What Mogridge Says:
The man appealed to was George Mogridge, one-time portsider of the Yankees, now the valued property of the Washington Senators via a trade that since has caused New York no little anguish.

"Jackson would be my choice," was Mogridge's unhesitating verdict. "I know the Babe is one hitter that you cannot figure to fool. You might fan him with a slow ball or a curve, and the next time he will hit either or both so far that you couldn't find the ball with a special delivery letter."

"But"—here he paused for emphasis—"for pure, undiluted, downright danger there is no hitter I ever saw that was in a class with Jackson. That statement includes Cobb, Speaker, Stiller and all the other stars. They might out-hit Jackson in the season average, but when Joe really set his mind to getting a hit he was the toughest bird to pitch to of the lot."

AUTHORITIES PROMISE STARTLING DISCLOSURES IN BECK MURDER CASE

Oklahoma City, April 6.—Authorities promise disclosures threatening to rock the entire army post in the probe of the shooting of Lieut. Colonel Beck by Judge Day.

Prosecutor Hughes today announced the trailing of a series of gay parties in which the glamour of uniform was mixed with brew bottles. Brother officers visited the morgue and stripped Beck's body of all insignia of rank and decoration. Judge Day and wife are to tell their stories on the witness stand at the coroner's inquest, it was stated today.

AMERICANS LIVE TOO HARD AND TOO FAST, DOCTOR SAYS

Columbia, Mo., April 6.—"Americans live too hard and too fast. The chances of death after fifty years of life are increasing instead of decreasing. In the last twenty years the death rate during the first five years of life has been greatly lowered, but for the later years of life it has not. It is poor economy to educate and train business men and women only to lose their services to the community and State when they reach middle life."

These are some of the deductions made by Mr. M. P. Ravenel, Professor of Preventive Medicine in charge of the Public Health Service Laboratories at the school of Medicine of the University of Missouri. The Bureau of the census has recently sent advanced information on new life tables, which are soon to be issued. This will be the second official publication on life tables ever issued in the United States, and figures are now available for the last twenty years. "People are interested in health largely because they are afraid to die," Dr. Ravenel, who is also president of the National American Public Health Association, continued. "The true motive for health should be efficiency and not the mere prolongation of life."

"The results obtained by our census bureau show that the death rate at practically all ages is higher for men than for women, and the women showing the lowest death rate are those living in rural communities. For both sexes rural dwellers show a lower death rate, age for age, than for persons living in cities."

CHURCH SPLIT OVER PASTOR.

Bookline, Mass., April 4.—Rev. Edwin Curtis, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Brookline, sat in the congregation yesterday, listened to a sermon by a minister assigned by the Boston presbytery and heard one of the church trustees read from the pulpit a call for a congregation meeting an April 12 to decide whether the church would withdraw from the Boston presbytery.

The meeting also will consider changing the name of the church to First Independent Presbyterian church of Brookline. The church has been split for some time over the question of retaining Mr. Curtis as pastor and recently the Boston presbytery directed him to retire from the church at the end of his year's probationary period, which expired yesterday. At the meeting of the presbytery at which this vote was taken witnesses told of the pastor having baptized a dog and having asked what they considered frivolous blessings on food served at the lodging house where he was boarding.
