NEW BERN MAN SHOTS WOMAN AND KILLS SELF

N. M. Cooper Slays Mrs. Corrine Hill and Injures John Alcock

TRAGEDY OCCURRED SUNDAY MORNING ABOUT ONE O'CLOCK

Coroner in Charge of Bodies While Inquiry is in Progress

New Bern, April 10.—Mrs. Corrine Hill, widow of the late William F. (Big) Hill, aged 35 years, and N. M. Cooper, 28, said to be a native of Baltimore, are dead, and Johnny Alcock, aged 25, is probably fatally injured as a result of a shooting, which took place at 1:15 o'clock this morning at the rooming house of Mrs. Hill, No. 103 Craven street, Cooper, according to Alcock and Miss Sue Hill, aged sister of the late Hill, was drinking, and apparently shot with little or no warning.

It is said that Cooper, who was until recently administrator of the estate of Hill, had recently had considerable trouble with Mrs. Hill, two or three days ago having attacked her and beat her severely. He was ordered out of the house and told not to return, it is alleged. He returned Saturday night, however, crazed from drink, and after Mrs. Hill had refused to talk privately with him, he flourished a pistol and began firing, the first two shots entering Mrs. Hill's breast as she sat in a chair. Then Cooper turned the gun on Alcock, who is said to have been a visitor at the house, a bullet entered his stomach. The weapon was then turned by Cooper upon himself, and he dropped to the floor with a bullet in his heart.

Coroner Harfield took charge of the bodies and an inquest was held at 10 o'clock Sunday morning. No arrangements for the funeral have been made.

It is said that some years ago, before his fatal illness, Mr. W. F. Hill went to Baltimore for a serious operation and that Cooper was sent home with him as a nurse. The attachment of Mr. Hill for Cooper was so satisfactory that he made it a provision of his will that Cooper be entrusted with the care of his estate, said to have been quite large. It is alleged, also, that Cooper was infatuated with Mrs. Hill, and it was because of her repulsion of his advances that the trouble came about.

Nobody Alcock nor Cooper were married. Mrs. Hill who is a native of some distant state, leaves two small sons, as well as Miss Sue Hill, the aged invalid sister of her late husband.

LEAGUE MEMBERS TO HOLD MEET IN TARBORO TONIGHT

Delegations From all Towns To Arrange Final Plans Of League Tonight

Representatives of the Greenville baseball club left this afternoon for Tarboro where final plans will be perfected for the Eastern Carolina league. If Tarboro fans decide to enter the league, as they probably will, a six club organization will be an actuality. At the present time there are four clubs comprising the league, with Washington clamoring for admission, and the action of Tarboro at the meeting tonight will definitely decide the matter.

Delegation from Kinston, Farmville, New Bern and Washington will attend the Tarboro meeting tonight, and it is expected one of the most satisfactory gatherings of the season will be in evidence. Tarboro promoters have assured members of the league that they are ready to take definite action tonight, and in that case formation of the league will begin in earnest next week.

In case organization is perfected tonight the clubs will have more time in which to hire players and prepare for opening of the season, and this should enable them to put much stronger clubs on the field. Last year the clubs hardly had time to get their players together before the season opened and consequently the clubs were not as strong as they should have been.

The public is looking forward with interest to the outcome of the meeting tonight, and it is probable many lovers of the sport will join the club members in the trip to Tarboro.

Greenville Club Was Awarded Sweaters and Monograms Last Friday

H. Duncan, coach of the Greenville baseball club, this morning received a message from the manager of the Selma baseball club stating that his team would be here tomorrow in readiness for the game at the fair grounds in the afternoon at four o'clock. This will be second game of the season for the Greenville club, and it is expected a large crowd will be in attendance.

The Greenville boys are confident of winning from Selma after defeating the Washington club so easily last Friday, and if fast playing will win the game it's a safe bet they will get it.

Members of the local club were awarded sweaters and monograms last Friday morning at assembly hour by Coach Duncan, the presentation being made by Superintendent J. H. Rose. The boys receiving the sweaters were also members of the football team the past season. Only one basketball player received a sweater and monogram, that being Richard Williams.

Members of the baseball and football teams included in the award are C. B. West, Jim Barber, Guy Evans, Zeno Brown, Wyatt Brown, Tom Foley, Roy Hardee, Joe Norman, Norman Winslow, Roy Wright, Francis Wilson, Frank Patrick, Joe Moye, Dick Williams.

LARGE AUDIENCES GREETED REVIVAL LEADER YESTERDAY

Dr. Edwards Spoke at Allen's School House and Both Services Here

Yesterday was another big day in the revival at the Christian church in this city, and those who attended were amply rewarded by hearing two powerful sermons by Dr. Ben Edwards, who completed one week of the revival yesterday.

Dr. Edwards addressed a Sunday school class yesterday morning, after which he delivered the usual morning sermon. In the afternoon he spoke at Allen's School House, a few miles from Greenville, where he was greeted by a large audience. He returned to Greenville and delivered the evening sermon at the local church.

This morning Dr. Edwards delivered a short address before students at the high school. He spoke at the cotton mills at the noon hour, and tonight will address the Rotarians as well as conduct the revival services.

The evangelist was greeted by a large audience at both services here yesterday, and those who heard him were well awarded for attending. The music at both services was out of the ordinary and helped to convey the great messages of the day.

CRAZED MAN KILLS HIS OWN CHILDREN AND THEN HIMSELF

John Helms Slays Three Children in Deranged State Of Mind

Charlotte, April 10.—Ruby Lee-Helms, 13 years old, today saw her father, John Helms, 40, slay three of her little brothers and sisters in succession with a wood axe, and then saw him deliberately blow off the top of his own head with a shot gun, according to the story she, the only witness, told Coroner Frank Hovis.

The quadruple tragedy occurred at the home of Helms, who occupied a tenant house on the farm of Robert Rice, eleven miles east of Charlotte, about 6:30 this morning.

Coroner Hovis said the evidence indicated that Helms had become suddenly insane, probably as a result of ill health as he had been suffering from a chronic stomach disease and had appeared deeply depressed when talking with a brother a day or two ago about his "hopeless condition."

According to Ruby Lee-Helms she was walking about in the yard with the nine months old baby, Hazeline, while her mother prepared breakfast, when her father approached with an axe and with the handle knocked the baby from her arms, then he went into the house and, with the axe, brained two children in bed, while she looked on through a window, the two being Broncho, aged 6, and Bleeker, aged 4.

He then grabbed a shot gun, went out into the yard, placed the muzzle against his cheek, the gun standing on the ground, reached down and pressed the trigger, with his thumb, the load blowing off the top of the head.

Mrs. Helms and a child in addition to Ruby escaped and gave the alarm. The baby was taken to a hospital in Charlotte, where it died about two hours later.

COLLEGE TEACHER SPEAKS TO AYDEN SCHOOL CHILDREN

Miss Muffly Talks to Ayden While H. L. Smith Speaks At Farmville

Mrs. R. Williams, chairman of Mortor Corps, sent her own car to Ayden yesterday to take Miss Muffly who delightfully lectured to the students of high school. Her subject being "Musician as a Profession."

Miss Muffly explained to the boys and girls that so many people spent years of labor and thousands of dollars trying to become musicians and after all this toil and expense bitterly discovered that they were not successful. That she was delighted to say that this was no longer necessary. Music was a wonderful profession, those who were wealthy might follow the same even though untalented just for the pleasure they derived from same, but all boys and girls who wished to really follow the vocation of musician should take the regular test prescribed and taught in the University of Iowa.

Miss Muffly gives these tests to all of her pupils and said that the findings was a regular "Book of Revelation." She then demonstrated the tests by having the children try out their ear on the records she had with her. The children were very responsive and as a group showed up well in recognizing intensity, pitch, etc. Miss Muffly was generous enough to say that she would be glad to give any child in Pitt county a free test if they were considering studying music and that then they could truly know whether or not they were suited for the same.

If any children in the county wish to avail themselves of this opportunity and will notify Miss Hubbard, Red Cross secretary. She will arrange all applicants in a class and make an appointment with Miss Muffly.

STRIKE FUNDS WILL BE PAID TO THE MINERS

Thirty Million Dollars Available For Strikers Throughout Nation

Indianapolis, Ind., April 10.—Idle coal miners of the country, starting today and continuing next week, receive their last pay, estimated at $30,000,000, by union officials, and regarded by them as a strike fund.

The big wage distribution, an importation factor in the miner's ability to continue the general suspension of work that began a week ago is for final half of March—in all, 15 working days. The big sum is several times the total cash of the union organizations—national, state and local and comes to the miners with in indefinite period of idleness ahead of them. It is the only big cash payment that will come during the suspension, the union war chest not permitting any general strike benefits.

From both the union and operators sources here, it was said that the miners would receive on an average of $50 or $60 each, with some operators estimating as much as $75 a man.

GOVERNMENT MAY TAKE ACTIVE PART IN MINERS STRIKE

Attorney General Daugherty Leaves For Coal Fields in Some Interest

(By International News).
Washington, April 10.—The federal government took a hand in the coal strike today for the first time.

Attorney General Daugherty slipped out of Washington and arrived at Indianapolis today. The purpose of the trip was not explained officially, but it is believed to be in connection with the government's move to solve the situation which is becoming more serious with each succeeding day.

It is expected Mr. Daugherty will endeavor to assuage the fears of operators of prosecution in event of a conference with the miners. The outcome of the visit is being watched with considerable interest here, and the first report of the attorney general will be received gladly everywhere.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS LARGELY ATTENDED YESTERDAY

Yesterday was certainly a gala day for the Sunday Schools of Greenville. Everyone reporting one of the largest if not the largest attendance in the history of the churches. Some of the Sunday Schools doubled their usual attendance record and others reported every seat in some of their class rooms were taken. This is a splendid report and now that Spring is here every Sunday School member should make an effort to carry one or more new members to Sunday School.

TOBACCO MARKET TO HAVE GREATER FACILITIES IN 1922

Triple Sale Plan to be in Evidence When Sales Begin Here August 8th

EARLY OPENING OF MARKET TO ALSO BE BENEFIT TO GROWER

Hard Surfaced Roads to Play Big Part in Quick Delivery of the Product

That the Greenville tobacco market, which will open this year on August 8th, will be in better position than ever to benefit the farmer is evidenced by the fact that for the first time the market will have three sets of buyers and greatly increased factory facilities capable of handling sixty million pounds of bright leaf this season.

Last year it was quite noticeable that a number of farmers from a distance brought their tobacco to the Greenville market, and this year the number should be even greater. Because of the increased facilities they should be able to dispose of their product get their money and return home the same day, even though they should come from a great distance. By the market opening a month earlier the farmer will be able to realize cash from his crop sooner than formerly. The improved highways of Eastern North Carolina will also be a big help along this line, and as soon as the Roanoke river bridge beyond Williamston is completed, which will be in the near future, farmers from distant counties of the state and adjoining counties of Virginia should find the Greenville market easily reached.

These improvements are a direct benefit to the tobacco growers of Eastern North Carolina and show to what extent Greenville tobacco men are preparing for expansion of the industry. The triple sale plan alone is something that should readily command attention of the grower, as it will eliminate delay and absolutely set aside the probability of congested floors, even though the market should be flooded during early days of the season.

The Greenville market today is the second largest bright leaf center in the world, and with increased facilities should become even greater during the coming season. Hundreds of farmers living miles and miles from Greenville will be able to reach the market, sell their tobacco and return home much earlier than customary because of the long link of hard surfaced roads, some of which are already completed and others soon to be.

Pitt county alone will spend nearly two million dollars in the improvements of her roads, and this is going to be as much an advantage to the farmer as anyone. In fact, regardless of what kind of vehicle may be driven Greenville may be reached more easily than formerly, and everyone will directly benefit.

From now until the opening of the season tobaccoists will be busy preparing for what is destined to be the greatest season in history of the market, and when warehouse doors are thrown open everything will be in readiness to receive the offerings of the hundreds of farmers who are planning to sell here.

Attention is called to the announcement of the tobacco board of trade appearing in this issue.

President Harding evidently thinks he has autocratic powers judging by the way Democrats have been fired from office. That he has something to learn is evident.

They sent a young farmer to the toms in New York because he asked a bank for the loan of a million dollars. That's a curious way to loan money.

Mellon wants the public to believe he has no intention of quitting the cabinet, but before this cleaning up business is over he may be glad to get some sympathy from the public. He may want the public to believe he isn't at loggerheads with the president, but will have difficulty convincing them.

A federal commission is recommended as the only permanent measure for relieving the strike diseased coal fields. That being the case we propose that they get busy and see how quickly the commission can be organized. We are for anything that even tends to provide relief for the serious situation.

The Democratic senators were justified in criticizing President Harding for disregarding regulations of the civil service department in his sweeping plans to replace Democratic postmaster with Republicans. He has gone to any lengths in accomplishing his mission, and now that he is on the verge of victory he boys are holding him up. The president should set better examples for the public. If he can tolerate such infraction on his own part, then the public might do with most anything.

The county commissioners can make the court house one of the finest in the state by making proposed improvements to the sidewalks and lawn. The place is in such a shape now that it presents an unsightly appearance. By lowering the walks and rolling down the lawn the entire building will have much better appearance. It is up to the commissioners to do everything possible to beautify the public property and it is hoped they will spare no effort to do so.

The necessity for production of more food crops in this county was never greater than at present time and it is to be hoped that farmers will give this matter the attention instead of planting a much tobacco and cotton. There is always a demand for the right kind of food crops, but cotton and tobacco is an uncertain crop. It has always been then, too, the fact that tobacco is going to exist largely in the life of practically every woman and unless she prepares for the emergency there is no one to blame but herself. The good old days are gone and the coming life will come this year along with the new and other crops for numerous production at present.

H. L. SMITH SPEAKS TO FARMVILLE JUNIORS
Yesterday morning during chapel the regular schedule was followed, Mr. H. L. Smith, secretary of chamber of commerce, went to Farmville speaking to the boys and girls there in "Commercial Secretaryship," as a vocation. Mr. Smith outlined the breadth of field and the unusual opportunities not only in the chamber of commerce field, but in many other organizations for competent and well trained secretaries. He urged them to be sure and finish college as there was such a demand and necessity for well educated men in all professions of today. Mr. Smith spoke of the recently organized Rotary Club in Farmville and urged the children to remember the International Rotary Motto "Service Before Self," in closing their vocation, and personal satisfaction would be assured. The faculty and children were much pleased with Mr. Smith's talk and all interested in the Red Cross work feel most indebted not only to Mr. Smith but to Miss Lil Wilson, member of Red Cross Motor Corps, of which Mrs. R. Williams is chairman. The train does not get to Farmville in time for the scheduled talk and Miss Wilson made it possible for Mr. Smith to be there exactly on the minute.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

Exercises Recommended for Busy Men and Women.
(By DR. CHARLES H. BARKER.)
Breathing Exercise.

1. Bend body forward, feet together, arms extended forward as far as possible while inhaling, and exhale while returning to position.
2. Knees should be straight, raising shoulders and vice versa.
3. Clasp hands behind back, throw chest out and upward, shoulders back and limbs and vice versa.
4. Breathing exercise.
5. Feet apart as far as possible, keeping knees stiff, bend body from side to side, raising arms alternately over the head.
6. Gladstonian exercise.
7. Lying Down Exercises for Stomach and Intestines.
8. Arms at side—raise chin to chest and push hands along the limbs vice versa.
9. Throw body to sitting position, keeping hips, knees and feet on floor.
10. Draw both knees back to chest and return to floor.
11. Raise both legs from the floor at the same time, keeping knees stiff.

Important Suggestions.

1. Drink plenty of water in between meals. Eight to ten glasses per day.
2. Get into the habit of following the exercises with cool or cold bath. If one has plenty of blood a cold bath is best, otherwise only take a cool bath after exercises.
3. The best time to take these exercises is upon arising in the morning. However, they can be taken the last thing before going to bed at night, or during the day, but not immediately following any meal.
4. If you have any suspicion that your heart is not in good condition, before taking these exercises you should be examined by your family physician and follow his advice as to the way in which these exercises should be taken.
5. Remember that the only way to test the value of these exercises is to follow them regularly every day for about two months. By that time you will see the great value in performing them daily.

New Victor Records for EASTER

"Eili, Eili"
 by ELMAN
 Like an echo through the centuries is this extraordinary Hebrew melody—the same anguished cry that Christ himself set up in his dying moments on the Cross. Elman makes a remarkable record of this ancient despairing strain.
 Victor Red Seal Record 74735

JOURNET
 sings "Hosanna!"
 one of the most sublime of French Easter songs—which will permanently enrich the family's collection of devotional music—frequently melodious, superbly resonant.
 Victor Red Seal Record 74735

Four splendid Easter Hymns
 by Trinity Quartet
 "The Strife is O'er, the Battle Done" is one of the most glorious and familiar of Christian hymns, with its triumphant "Alleluia" at start and finish. On the reverse of this record is that grand old tune "Duke Street" to which is set "Our Lord is Risen from the Dead," by Charles Wesley, one of the great 18th century English hymnologists.
 Victor Double-Faced Record 18560

"God So Loved the World" on the second record, is from Sir John Stainer's well-known oratorio, "Crucifixion," devoutly and artistically sung. All the jubilation of the Easter tide is in "Christ the Lord is Risen Today." On the other side is Charles Wesley's word-setting to Mozart's inspired melody.
 Victor Double-Faced Record 18873

IT'S SATISFACTORY

THE STAFF OF LIFE

"Bread is the staff of life," said Dean Swift. And good old Matthew Henry told why, for, said he: "Here is bread, which strengthens man's heart, and therefore is called the staff of life."
Bread is WHAT LIFE LEANS ON. And if the staff be unsound and weak, life shall fall.
Get GOOD bread. Get BLUE RIBBON BREAD, for it is good.
And your life shall have a stout, sound staff.
