EASTERN LEAGUE WILL BE SIX TEAM AFFAIR THIS YEAR

Tarboro and Washington Are Granted Admission at the Meeting Last Night

SEASON TO BEGIN JUNE 5 WITH TOTAL OF SEVENTY GAMES

Judge J. Lloyd Horton, of Farmville Elected President Last Night

The Eastern Carolina league became an actuality last night at a meeting in Tarboro when Tarboro and Washington were admitted. This makes the league a six club organization, exactly two clubs stronger than last season.

Judge J. Lloyd Horton, of Farmville, was elected president of the league for the year, with W. Stamp Howard, of Tarboro, as vice-president and Harvey Turnage, of Farmville, as secretary-treasurer.

It was agreed to play a series of seventy games and to begin the season June 5. Washington was enthusiastic in regards to this matter, proposing a ninety game season, to begin sometime in May.

The schedule and by-laws will be given publicity within the next several days, and by that time plans for participation of each club will be well under way.

Greenville was represented at the meeting last night by Messrs. Guy Smith, W. S. Moye, Gus Forbes and W. Z. Morison, who this morning reported a splendid trip and much enthusiasm.

The by-laws this season contain several new provisions for improvement of the organization and it is the purpose of officials to get these printed and distributed as early as possible.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO CONFER DEGREE TOMORROW NIGHT

Degrees of Red Cross and Malta to be Conferred Upon Seven Candidates

Members of the local order of Knights Templar will meet tomorrow night for the purpose of conferring degrees of the Red Cross and Malta upon a class of seven candidates.

After the degrees have been conferred the special drill team will begin work preparatory to reception of the grand commander to appear here Friday.

Members of the organization are making every effort to get everything in readiness for attending the Winston-Salem meeting, and the coming of the grand commander will see plans practically completed.

FUNERAL SERVICES MR. HARRIS CONDUCTED THIS MORNING

The funeral services of Mr. G. E. Harris were conducted from the home this morning at ten o'clock, interment following in Cherry Hill cemetery. Rev. V. P. Seville, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by other pastors of the own had charge of the services.

ROTARY CLUB IN REGULAR SESSION HERE LAST NIGHT

Many Visitors Entertained at Interesting Meeting at Club Home

SCHOOLS EXPRESS THANKS FOR TRACK MEET LAST MONDAY

Several Prominent People Make Short Talks During The Evening

Last night was visitors' night at the regular meeting of the Rotary club, and one of the most interesting and entertaining programs of the year was enjoyed.

N. G. Bartlett, formerly of Dublin, Ga., recently elected vice president and manager of the East Carolina chamber of commerce, made a short and inspiring talk on the possibilities of Pitt county and Eastern North Carolina.

H. L. Smith, secretary of the Pitt county chamber of commerce, made a short talk on co-operation and expansion of the community, showing what may be accomplished through the united effort of the citizenship.

Prof. H. H. Duncon, Miss Mial, Joe Taft, Jimmy Barber and Tom Foley made short talks, thanking the Rotary club on behalf of the schools for the great success of the track meeting, the first of the kind held in Pitt county in years.

Other guests of the evening were Rev. W. P. Shamhart, Dr. Ben Edwards, Mr. R. W. Pollock, Dr. G. G. Dixon, E. E. Settle and Dr. W. H. Dixon, of Ayden, Prof. Coltraine, Dr. W. W. Dawson, of Grifton, all of whom made short and effective talks regarding present day conditions.

Shortly after the program began J. N. Hart, baby Rotarian, was dolled up in a baby cap and placed in the center of the room at a small table and given a bottle, as customary Mellin's food was ordered for the infant, and when it failed to arrive he was permitted to take a place at the table with the old members.

The meeting was probably one of the most enjoyable held in sometime, and considerable interest was manifested by the guests who were impressed by the spirit of friendship existing among the Rotarians.

NUDE WOMAN IS CUT TO DEATH BY UNKNOWN FIEND

Body of Helen Tracy Found in Hallway of New York Tenement

New York, April 11.—Slashed to death by a jack ripper, the nude body of a woman, who was later identified as Helen Tracy, was found in the hallway of a double-deck tenement on Catherine street last night.

The body had been dragged into the building, and was surrounded by cheap clothing. The form was found by lodgers who stumbled over it in darkness. Policemen later arrested a man apparently in a mental haze a few blocks from where the body was found. His hands and sleeves were covered with blood, and suspicion was strong against him.

The man gave his name as Michael Mardeter. The police said a serious charge would probably be preferred against him.

FRANCE DECLINES TO DISCUSS LAND FORCES AT GENOA

Economic Conference Passes to Second Day With Decreased Optimism

CREATION OF NEW SOCIETY OF NATIONS MAY BE DISCUSSED

Lloyd George Champions League or a Society in its Place

Genoa, April 11.—The economic conference today passed into the committee stage. Optimism over results of the meeting has been somewhat reduced because of the refusal of the French government to discuss land armaments.

Either the creation of a new society of nations or expansion of the present league will grow out of the conference here if plans of Premier Lloyd George, of England, succeeded, it was learned today.

The pact was to include both Germany and Russia on equal footing. There is every indication that France will agree to the admission of Russia and Germany if the league will prevent the creation of a rival pact.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET IN CITY THURSDAY NIGHT

Society Will be Guests of Drs. E. P. Spence and G. G. Dixon

Members of the Pitt county Medical Society will be guests of Drs. E. P. Spence and G. G. Dixon next Thursday night in the Baraca room of the Memorial Baptist church at eight o'clock, according to an announcement made this morning.

All members are urged to be present, as many matters of vital importance to the society will be taken up for consideration. The bad pay list, which is being compiled by the society, will be ready for distribution at this meeting.

An interesting program is being arranged for the evening, and those who attend are assured of an enjoyable time.

COUNTER REVOLT THREATENS IRISH TROOPS IN DUBLIN

Coming of Easter Recalls The Sixth Anniversary of Dublin Uprising

Dublin, April 11.—The possibility of a counter revolution against the Irish provisional government hangs threateningly over Ireland today, according to dispatches received here today.

The coming of Easter will be the sixth anniversary of the famous Dublin uprising when violent fighting swept the city and the new Irish republic was declared.

The district commandant of the rebellious faction of the Republican army has been summoned to the conference. Many residents of Dublin are moving out, taking riot insurance on their property.

BARTLETT BEGINS ACTIVE DUTIES IN EASTERN CAROLINA

Manager of Eastern Chamber Spent Yesterday in City Going Over Work

DELIVERS ADDRESS BEFORE STUDENTS OF GRIFTON SCHOOL

Meeting of Organization to be Held at Wilmington On Wednesday, April 12

Mr. N. G. Bartlett of Dublin, Ga., the newly elected manager of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce, arrived yesterday morning.

Mr. Bartlett spent the morning with the organization's temporary secretary, H. L. Smith of the Pitt county Chamber of Commerce, going over different phases of the work.

Yesterday afternoon Secretary Smith and Mr. Bartlett went to Grifton. During the time opportunity was afforded Mr. Bartlett to appear before the Grifton school.

Inasmuch as the boys and girls club work was recently launched here, Mr. Bartlett was glad of the opportunity of speaking along the possibilities of the boys and girls club work, stating that it is through the boys and girls that we are to reach the parents.

Mr. Bartlett was in Greenville on February 14th and since that time he has been studying very carefully the great possibilities that abound in Pitt county and Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce. He comes an experienced man in secretarial work and will enter upon his duties as manager of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce in the greatest of confidence.

A meeting has been called for Wilmington Wednesday, April 12th, for the purpose of definitely outlining the work and taking up a number of details in connection therewith. Secretary Smith and J. I. Morgan expect to attend this meeting.

NAMON THE LEPER FEATURES SERMON HERE LAST NIGHT

Dr. Edwards Delivered Powerful Sermon on the Healings of Christ

Dr. Ben Edwards' sermon in the revival series at the Christian church last night was of especial interest to everyone, as it drove home a great truth in a way that had great impression on the large audience.

In the beginning of his discourse he featured Namon the leper, calling attention to the great warrior and sinner that Namon was. He showed that his disease was a dreaded one, as is the disease of sin to the human soul.

He said that Namon had heard much of the miracles of Jesus and wanted to be healed of his disease. He went in search for Elisha, and after finding him sent a servant in for Elisha. Elisha told the servant to tell Namon to dip himself in the river Jordan seven times and he would be healed.

The leper at first had no faith in such a command and became indignant. One of his servants, however, told him such a thing could do no harm, and why not try it. He did so and was healed.

Dr. Edwards said this was the trouble with sinners today. They think they should be saved their own way, when in fact they must do as they are commanded. The sinner today is a leper spiritually, as he is not willing to obey the commands of God.

Everyone should be more attentive to the teachings of the word of God, he declared. He concluded the ser-

ROCKY MOUNT MAN TO SPEAK IN CITY TUESDAY, APRIL 25

F. S. Spruill to Address The Chamber of Commerce At Annual Meeting

Mr. F. S. Spruill, of Rocky Mount, has notified Secretary Smith of the Pitt County Chamber of Commerce, of his acceptance of the invitation extended to address the Annual meeting which will be held on Tuesday night, April 25th.

Mr. Spruill comes highly recommended and the people of Greenville and Pitt County will receive this information with a great deal of pleasure.

The complete program will follow during the next day or so. Plans are being made to make this the best meeting of its kind ever held.

The Lost Colony Also to be Presented at High School Friday Evening

The moving picture of "The Lost Colony" was shown at East Carolina Teachers College last night, Mr. W. C. Crosby in charge of community work in the department of education exhibited the pictures which were prepared by the state board of education in collaboration with the state historical commission. This is the picture representing the history of North Carolina pictorially.

This is not merely an educational film but a fine, stirring movie show that would interest any audience. Three prints are kept going all the time. More than 6000 people have seen the picture since January. The money taken in for the picture beyond expenses is put into a fund that will be spent for other North Carolina pictures.

Mr. Crosby suggested that East Carolina Teachers College should put on a picture next fall showing the history of this section.

"The Lost Colony" covers the earliest English expedition and attempted settlements in Territory Now the United States 1584-1591. The first picture is that of the little boy Walter Raleigh listening to stories of the new world. Then follows the story of the first expedition by Armadas and Barlow, then the White colony, then making friends with the Indians, later their harsh treatment of the Indians and the harvest of famine and destruction that followed.

The scenes on Roanoke Island are beautiful, showing the sand dunes, the shore line, and the gaarled trees and dense undergrowth.

The students of the college greatly enjoyed the picture. There was no difficulty in discovering which girls were from the Roanoke Island section.

On Friday evening the picture will be shown at the high school building at 8 o'clock under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Model School. Children will be charged ten cents, grown people 25 cents. The charge for the children is just enough to cover what is charged by the state department of education for each admission.

New York, April 11.—Three persons were injured in fire which swept through a Brooklyn tenement last night. All three persons jumped from windows, while the police carried about a dozen down fire escapes.

men by saying that since Sunday several had responded and united with the church.

The singing of Mr. and Mrs. Polard was another big feature of the services last night.

WOMEN'S CLUBS ENTERTAINED BY MRS. R. R. COTTON

Pitt County Woman Hostess to 10th District Federation Last Friday

MRS. BICKETT WAS AMONG PROMINENT WOMEN ATTENDING

Next Meeting of Organization To be Held in Washington N. Carolina

On Friday, April 7th at her home at Cottondale Mrs. R. R. Cotton was hostess to the 10th district of the Federation of the Woman's Clubs. Upon arrival the guests were given a warm and cordial welcome by Mr. and Mrs. Cotton and Mrs. Douglas Wiggins, of Boston, Mass.

After exchanging a few words of greetings, Mrs. Cotton led the guests into the cloak room where they were told to leave their hats and cloaks and make themselves at home.

From this room the guests passed into the drawing room where they were introduced to the invited guests of Mrs. Cotton, namely Mrs. Sidney Cooper of Henderson, N. C., president of the State Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. T. W. Bickett, of Raleigh, N. C., and Mrs. Gilmer, vice president of the State Woman's club, from Winston-Salem.

From the Drawing room the members of the clubs, the delegates and Mrs. Cotton's visitors were invited into the library where the register was placed and one hundred and one registered.

The large and spacious porch was arranged for the business session. Mr. R. R. Cotton was the first speaker of the day and he delivered the welcoming address. In the beginning of his talk he turned over the keys of Cottondale to the guests telling them that they were welcome to his home, where our good old Southern hospitality reigns supreme.

Mr. Cotton is a splendid speaker and possesses a personality which wins the hearts of every one with whom he comes in contact. His address was warmly applauded by every one present. He was followed by Mr. Hugh Ragsdale who delivered a short address in a most beautiful and appropriate manner.

PUBLIC WELFARE BOARD IN SESSION IN CITY MONDAY

Several Important Issues Discussed at Regular Monthly Meeting

MONTHLY REPORT OF SUPT. FUTRELL OF GREATEST INTEREST

Thirty-six Children Called to Attention of the Board During April

The county board of public welfare met in regular session yesterday at the court house in the county superintendent's office where a report of the work for the past two months was submitted and the work discussed and items of interest brought to the attention of the board.

The report showed that thirty six children had come to the attention of the Juvenile court during this time and of this number fifteen were delinquent while the others were neglected, dependent or both. The following disposition was made of these children: two boys ordered to Jackson Training school, two cases transferred to other counties, one case sent up to superior court under $1000 bond, one child adopted, two girls ages 10 and 11 placed in homes in Greenville, three admitted to Caswell Training school and ordered to Oxford for colored delinquents.

The other delinquents were placed on probation to make regular and frequent reports to probation officer. Parents and guardians, in some instances are required to make reports on children under their control adjudged neglected by the court.

The report showed in school attendance that 18 warrants had been issued for violations of the compulsory attendance law and in 10 cases of those trials had been held under the minimum fine $3.50 together with costs, was imposed in each case.

The fact that number of families had been assisted to place their children in school without a prosecution was very attractive to the board and showed the need for funds for this purpose. It was pointed out that very few children are reported out of school now unless they have a legal reason. Where sickness is offered for an excuse and doubt exists a doctor's certificate has been required.

Twenty-one investigations for assistance have been made according to the report, ten of this number applying for county support, and of this latter number six were approved, the other four being assisted from charity funds.

The board was interested to know of the many things referred to the welfare office and some items were noted of interest. One worthy girl assisted in being admitted to Orthopedic hospital for training, two insane negro women taken to Goldsboro, two white patients assisted in being admitted to Dix Hill, Raleigh, N. C., arrangements effected for four crippled and defective children to receive treatment, one of whom has been sent to St. Leo's hospital in Greensboro.

In co-operation with the farm department a survey has been made of about 1500 rural school children where it is found that less than 35 per cent drink or have milk in the home, in some communities as low as 20 per cent get milk to drink. To boost the idea of having milk in the home, using moving picture machine two reels were obtained from department. Education showing the "Value of Milk as a Food," these have been shown to several thousand people. Other reels showing better home conditions have been run also, the latter being obtained from the International Harvesting Co. The board was very much pleased with the report and stressed the fact that a great many of our neglected and delinquent children was caused by improper nourishment.

Before adjournment the board changed its regular meeting time for 3rd Monday in each month instead of 2nd Monday as heretofore.

In the spring a young girl's busy lightly turns to fancy-work.

Cotton planting has started in this state, and from all indications the crop will not be decreased to any great extent. The coming of the boll weevil or anything else won't have any effect on certain classes of farmers, who are content to plant as much as they can and trust to luck to save them. Hundreds of farmers work blindly, hoping against hope to come out at the big end of the horn, and it is these who make up the large percentage of unsuccessful. The farmer that farms intelligently in variably makes a success of his work, and it is to those the county must look to for support.

New York women are busy endeavoring to convince the public that "obey" should be left out of the marriage ceremony. They argue the changed status of women makes this very advisable, and that they should enjoy the same liberties and prerogatives as the men. So far as the word is concerned, it might be left out without anyone knowing the difference, as it is very evident women have no more idea of obeying their husbands now than they ever had. If they want the word left out, let them have their way. It certainly won't improve conditions of life anywhere.

FRANCE TO SELL RAILWAYS.

The government of France, according to cables just received, has decided to sell the railways which it owns. The railroads of France comprise six great lines, of which the last and longest is the Western system. It operates more than six thousand miles of railway, and is owned by the government.

The experiment which France made in owning and operating the western system has been very fair and thorough. Nearly twenty years ago this system was consolidated with the Old Lines which serve Paris in an interurban capacity.

Prior to 1904 the Old Lines had been prosperous; within a period of four years after the government had taken over the western railway a deficit was shown, and the balance has been on the wrong side of the books ever since, in spite of the fact that the other railways under private operation showed profit up to 1914. During the war these private lines were under government control and the state guaranteed their earnings.

The deficit incurred by all the railroads of France cost the government more than five billion francs.

The experiment of the French government in railways operation cost the government in all about 365,000,000 francs during the ten years in which it owned them before the war. There must be added to this the interest on the purchase price of the railways, and this is not included in the earnings statement of the State railways.

DISREGARDING THE SABBATH.

Greenville should have an ordinance prohibiting shows and carnivals from unloading and hauling their paraphernalia over city streets on Sunday, if such attractions are to be permitted to come here. The way the various shows that have come here in past years abused the Sabbath by such practices has attracted attention of many of our citizens, who believe it should be stopped.

The past Sunday a carnival unloaded its cars and hauled material over some of our principal streets. In fact, many wagons passed in front of the homes of ministers and other God fearing people, who were powerless to have a say so in the proceed-

THIEVES MAKE $5,000 HAUL AT OETTINGER'S STORE AT WILSON, N. C.

Wilson, April 11.—Some time during last night parties unknown entered the store of Messrs. J. and D. Oettinger in this city, making entrance through the coal chute in the rear and as far as can be ascertained at this time took therefrom goods from the men and women's ready wear department to the value of $5,000.

It is evident that the thieves escaped in a Ford sedan, the property of Mr. Van Sharpe who left the machine in front of his residence, when he returned about midnight last night. The car was missing this morning. The State license number of the car is 111,255. An inventory of Oettinger's store is now being taken by the firm to ascertain the value of the goods taken, and at the same time the police department and the Messrs. Oettinger are making every effort to trace the thieves who are believed to have gone north.

Sometime through last night Mr. W. T. Clark, Jr., heard a noise in his chicken coop and on going to the window looked out in the direction of Jerry's garage which is located on Pine street. He saw Officer Williams shoot at a couple of men who ran away. The impression prevailed this morning that the thieves who it is believed took the Sharpe car were endeavoring to secure another car from the Perry garage to make a getaway.

PAID UP CERTIFICATES in denominations ranging from $100 to $5000, yielding 5 per cent interest per annum, absolutely non-taxable, with interest payable semi-annually (January 1st. and July 1st) can hereafter be bought from us.

SECURITY—These certificates are secured by nearly 1-2 million dollars assets, loaned on 1st mortgages covering Greenville Homes.

LIMIT to any one person $5000.

WITHDRAWAL can be made at any time by giving 60 days notice.

DIVIDENDS NON-TAXABLE—The United States Government exempts the earnings on these Certificates from INCOME TAXES until 1927.

WHAT BECOMES OF YOUR MONEY—We loan it to somebody in Greenville Township to build a HOME.

WHAT IS THE RESULT—You make a safe investment and your money stays at home to help develop the community.

WHAT OTHER INVESTMENT can you make that will yield 5 per cent where both the principal and earnings are exempt from taxation?

Don't forget you can buy these CERTIFICATES, today, tomorrow or any other time you have money to invest.

Expert Corset Fitting Service

The methods employed in our corset section to insure your satisfaction will appeal to you in many ways.

You will find here an unusually high standard of fitting service. Our fittings are made by expert corsetieres whose experience and special training qualifies them to give reliable advice on all matters pertaining to the care of the figure.

These fittings in turn are passed upon by our head fitter for their correctness in every respect.

To maintain these high standards of service involves larger investments in corset stocks than most stores care to make in these days. We feel, however, that the satisfaction of our customers warrants such investments, which are larger this year than ever before. You will find here an unusually high standard our expert corsetieres and the fact that we are sure of having in stock the exact model that will best serve the figure requirements of each individual figure adds to the attractiveness and value of this service.

appropriate manner. She called attention to the fact that the hostess, of the day, was the mother of the Greenville Woman's club and paid her several beautiful tributes. Her speech was inspiring and helpful and created an atmosphere of friendliness and love which always predominates at these gatherings.

Mrs. J. W. Joyner of Farmville, N. C., read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll to which the following clubs responded; Pantego, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Washington; Mrs. Respess, Farmville Magazine Club; Mrs. J. W. Joyner, Greenville Round Table Club, Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Mrs. H. E. Austin made the following report from the Woman's club of Greenville:

"The revised roll shows 149 members.

Mrs. H. S. Ragsdale is serving her second year as president and is elected for third. The club machinery consists (besides the regular officers) of committees on Education, (embracing civics and health), Fine Arts, Home Economics, Ways and Means, Library and Membership.

The most interesting meeting of the year was an afternoon with famous pictures, held at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hines.

The exhibit was from the Purnell Collection of Baltimore. A delightful and interesting program had been arranged, consisting of short sketches of the artists' lives, descriptions of the pictures, anecdotes concerning them, and poems relating to the subjects.

Mrs. L. C. Skinner, chairman of Fine Arts committee, also conducted a Junior department of Fine Arts, the children's meeting in the homes and studying pictures.

In recognition of her success in this line of work, Mrs. Skinner was elected State chairman of Junior Civics.

The club united with the American Legion in bringing to Greenville a Redpath Lyceum Course of five numbers.

A musical comedy "The Microbe of Love," netted the club $131.50.

On memorial day the club assisted the American Legion in preparing and serving dinner to 300 ex-service men and their families. The club float, representing "Our New Home" still a pipe dream, won second prize of $5.00. By the way, our club meets, and intends to have a club home. During this current year we have held our meetings in four different places.

Children's Book week was observed by a story telling hour which 35 children, enjoyed and a donation party which netted the public library 12 books and $21.75 in money.

The club was represented in the Armistice Day parade by two floats, one a club automobile, and the other "The Red Cross in Peace," a part of the Red Cross pageant on wheels.

We took part in the Red Cross Roll Call.

Sold Red Cross Christmas Seals, retaining for local work $178.58.

Sent 10 Christmas sacks to soldiers at Otten, $10 worth of magazines, and two nurses' boxes.

Sold $60 worth of stamps for Near East Relief fund, contributed $20 to the Sallie Southall Cotton Loan fund, contributed $1.00 to the Social Service scholarship at Chapel Hill.

Contributed $7 to Welfare board for special case. Contributed $20 to Greenville Public Library.

Mrs. Lula Fleming went as our delegate to the Federation meeting at Wrightsville, and brought us home an inspiring report of the meeting.

Mrs. Outlaw, chairman of Education, visited Samarcaud in January. She gave us a glowing account of her visit, describing the institution, the pupils and the modus operandi.

The object of this club is to promote through united effort the health, happiness, beauty and efficiency of the community."

Mrs. Clarence Johnston of Raleigh, president of the state board of Charities and Welfare work gave an interesting talk on the work which is being done by these organizations.

Mrs. T. W. Bickett, of Raleigh, delivered a short address on "Materinity and Infant Welfare." Mrs. Gilmer, of Winston-Salem, vice president of the State Federation of Women's clubs and Mrs. Sidney Cooper, of Henderson, both made short and inspiring talks on important topics of the day which are of vital importance to the clubs at present.

Mrs. Simon Sitterson, of Kinston, N. C., and Mrs. Hollaway, of Goldsboro, told of the work which is being done at Samarcaud and of the wonderful things which are being accomplished through the Woman's clubs and other clubs of the state, for this year.

After these inspiring lectures the guests were invited to the lawn where large tables had been arranged for dinner. The dinner which was prepared in a most unique manner was a picnic dinner each guest carrying their own lunch. The boxes, however, were opened and the dinner served in Cafeteria style by Mrs. Cotten's trained waitresses and butlers.

A king never sat down before such a spread and with the tempting lemonade and punch which was served, every one did ample justice to the delicious spread. Truly it was a Southern dinner and served in a style which only prevails at Cottendale.

After dinner the guests returned to the porch where another business session was held for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year. All the present officers were unanimously re-elected. It was decided that the next meeting would be held at Washington. Lunch is to be served at Washington Park in the picnic style.

At the conclusion of the business session resolutions of respect were read expressing regrets that the former president of the Greenville club, Mrs. Mark Quinley, was unable to be present at this meeting. She with Mrs. Cotten was a prime promoter in organizing and making it possible for Greenville to have a Woman's club. A hope for her early recovery was expressed by the clubs.

On account of Dr. Barker's address in Greenville the guests departed at an early hour after dinner. Each was loud in their praise of Cottendale and of the hospitality of Col. and Mrs. Cotten, and their charming daughter, Mrs. Douglass Wiggins. It was a day that will linger long in the memory of the members of the 10th district of the Federation of the Woman's clubs.

MRS. O. F. CLARK, Reporter Greenville Woman's Club.
