THIEVES ATTEMPT TO BURN LAUNDRY HERE LAST NIGHT

Fire, However, Discovered in Time to Prevent Serious Damage to Building

NEGRO ARRESTED AND DIVULGES NAMES OF OTHERS CONNECTED

Three Other Places Entered With Twenty Suits Of Clothes Missing

Southern Hidgett, colored man hailing from Belhaven, is confined in the city jail today charged with setting fire to the Greenville Laundry and complicity in a series of robberies occurring shortly after 12 o'clock last night.

The fire at the Greenville Laundry was discovered in time to prevent damage further than the burning of a rack of clothes. It is believed the men were in search of money as the office of the laundry was plundered, especially the cash drawer and other places where valuables might have been kept.

The store of H. L. Hodges & Company was entered, it is believed, while the fire was in progress or immediately afterwards. Nothing so far has been recovered and evidence again showed the men were after money.

The Williams & Waldrop market was entered, but nothing but a small amount of change was taken from the money drawer. The largest haul took place at the pressing club operated by Ernest Hall, on Clark street.

After discovering that the fire at the laundry had been started by thieves, members of the police department immediately began an investigation, suspecting the fire was started to attract attention while other robberies could be committed.

The negro disclaimed any knowledge of the fire and robbery at first, but after being closely questioned by the police, confessed complicity, and divulged the names of two others, whom the police were this morning seeking.

Midgett also confessed to participation in the series of robberies occurring at Winterville some time ago, and police believe they have nipped in the bud plans for an extensive campaign in other Eastern Carolina cities and towns.

COMMUNITY SING IS PLANNED HERE ON MOTHER'S DAY

Every Institution Asked to Join In Sing to be Held on Mother's Day

The local Red Cross chapter has been asked by different citizens here to establish a county-wide community sing in Greenville. At the last executive committee meeting the chapter appointed a committee to make definite plans for the sing and to appoint a regular committee to have charge of the work.

The first committee comprised of Mrs. R. Williams, Misses Maude Lee and Louise Hubbard, W. B. Bowen, A. B. Corey, J. H. Rose and N. O. Warren met last week and decided that all organizations in Greenville should be asked to make these sings their own, having them on the second Sunday afternoon in the month, just before dusk, the first to be held on Mother's Day.

W. B. Bowen, chairman, J. A. Applewhite, A. B. Corey, J. H. Blount and Louise Hubbard were appointed a committee to make arrangements for the sing. The meeting was held at the Red Cross office Tuesday afternoon. Miss Hubbard asked to have another woman put on the committee and Mrs. Hugh Ragsdale, chairman of the Woman's club, was unanimously chosen.

The members of the committee are to see the heads of the following organizations and institutions to ask that the join in and make this a regular community sing. All churches, all Sunday school, East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville high school, Evans Street school, Model school, cotton mills, American Legion, Chamber of Commerce, Merchants Association, Rotary Club, Kiwanis club, Daughters of the Confederacy, San Souci club, Round Table club, Woman's Club, King's Daughters, End of the Century, Girl and Boy Scouts and the Carolina club.

FARMVILLE CLUB GIVEN CHARTER IN SPLENDID MEETING

Governor Turner Delivered Keynote Address During The Evening

SEVERAL SPEAKERS PAY TRIBUTE TO PROGRESS OF STATE ROTARIANS

Members and Officials of Other Clubs Included Among Speakers

Approximately a hundred and sixty members of Rotary clubs in this part of the state attended the charter presentation meeting of the Farmville club last night and heard Joe Turner, of Roanoke, Va., governor of the Seventh district of Rotary, deliver probably one of the best addresses of his administration. The meeting was attended by members from Goldsboro, Kinston, Washington, Wilson and Greenville, all of whom entered into spirit of the occasion in a pleasing way.

The meeting was held in the basement of the new high school building at seven-thirty, being presided over by Dr. Paul E. Jones, president of the Farmville club, song was followed by invocation by Rev. L. B. Padgett, after which the program got well under way.

While supper was being served the address of welcome was delivered by George R. Wheeler of the Farmville club, and was responded to by Ajax (Walter) Edgerton of Wilson. This was followed by a song led by the Farmville club.

Then the meeting was turned over to Dr. C. J. Ellen of Greenville who called on the members of the visiting clubs for brief talks. The following responded Clyde Dunn of Kinston, June Grimes of Washington, Charlie Flynn of Washington, S. B. Underwood of Raleigh made a brief talk, bringing to Farmville greetings of the Raleigh club, the oldest to the youngest club of the state.

The next speakers of the evening were Mr. E. C. Wilkins, of Goldsboro, R. H. Wright, of Greenville, Judge J. L. Horton, of Farmville, J. E. Winslow of Greenville. The main address of the evening was delivered by Joe Turner of Roanoke, Va., governor of the Seventh district of Rotary. Mr. Turner explained that Rotary means to the town, and the fellowship it creates among the business men. He related several instances where bitter enemies had been made friends through Rotary, as examples of what Rotary can do.

This was followed by presentation of the charter by the district governor, this being accepted by Dr. Paul E. Jones, president of the club.

A short talk followed the presentation exercises by Norwood Simmons of Washington, who stated that Washington Rotary and Kiwanis clubs combined had procured a camp site of about twenty acres, eleven miles below Washington on the river, and at the present time were working on this site, building camping shacks and bathing beaches. The site will be used by the Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls and other children for their summer camping trip. This is not for use exclusively by boys and girls in Washington, but invitations will be extended to any Rotary and Kiwanis club in Eastern Carolina for summer camping trips.

Short talks were made by several ladies of Farmville who were present. Miss Annie Perkins, Mrs. Hobgood, Mrs. T. C. Turnage, Mrs. J. I. Morgan and Mrs. Annie Lang each made short talks.

Walter Sheppard of Farmville made an interesting talk, being followed by Maynard Fletcher of the Washington club.

Two selections were rendered by a quartette of the Farmville club, after which a closing song was joined in by the entire club.

Choir Practice Tonight

The members of the Christian church choir are requested to meet at the church for rehearsal tonight at 8 o'clock.

PIANO PUPILS IN SPLENDID RECITAL HERE YESTERDAY

Event at Teachers College One of Most Interesting In Years

SEVERAL SPEAKERS PAY TRIBUTE TO PROGRESS OF STATE ROTARIANS

Members and Officials of Other Clubs Included Among Speakers

The piano recital by the pupils who take lessons under the Senior-student teachers of East Carolina College yesterday afternoon at five o'clock was a credit to the little folks who played and to their teachers. Miss Fanestock, who has charge of the teacher training class in piano, announced the numbers.

William Wright played two numbers, "Rose Mazurka" by Schmall, and "The Tapping Woodpecker," by Gaynor. Blanche Cherry Staton played "Cradle Song," by Smith, and she and her teacher, Miss Mary Brock played a duet, "Grandfather's Chair." Louisa Hooker played "Shepherd's Song," by Behr, Margaret Shields Everett played "Sing Robin, Sing," "Murmuring Brook," and a duet "Evening Song" with Miss Lillie Mae Dawson, her teacher. The program was closed by Rebecca Secville, who played "Sunset," by Paldi, and "Dolly's Dream and Awakening," by Oester.

Those students of the college who select piano during their senior year and are also seniors in piano are required to do practice teaching in piano just as they are in other subjects, so that they will be able to teach music when they are graduated from the school. The regular piano teachers have supervision over these student-teachers. The student teachers who have been doing practice teaching are Misses Lillie Mae Dawson, Marie Lowry, Alma Walkup, Blanche Harris, and Kathleen Jones.

DEMONSTRATION ON TUBERCULAR COWS IS PLANNED HERE

Members of Bureau of Animal Industry Asked to Come To County Soon

Several men have asked me recently about having their milk cows tested for tuberculosis. I took the matter up with Dr. Wm. Moore, State Veterinarian and received the following letter from him:

"I would advise that we are conducting a campaign of tuberculosis eradication in co-operation with the U. S. Bureau of Animal Industry and our efforts are chiefly confined to area work. That is, testing all the cattle within a county. This is done in co-operation with the county commissioners who pay one half of the expense. We are at this time conducting this work in 13 counties.

We have only a limited number of inspectors to take care of the work outside of these counties and at this time we have a number of applications on hand. If you could arrange for the test of 50 or 75 head of cattle at some convenient point and arrange for transporting the inspectors from farm to farm, we would have the inspector apply the test as a demonstration. You, of course, understanding that we could not afford to send an inspector to test a small number of cows as this would make the cost per head to us very large.

Please ascertain how many cows you can get to be tested and advise us further.

Yours very truly, Dr. Wm. Moore, State Veterinarian.

We are very assured of twenty cows and are quite sure that this valuable demonstration should be conducted here. Anybody having a cow and wanting same tested should write or see me in the near future. W. B. PACE, County Agent.

ACTUAL REMOVAL OF TRASH BEGINS NEXT WEDNESDAY

Chamber of Commerce Announces Change of Schedule in Clean Up Week

CITY WILL BE FULLY INSPECTED AFTER CAMPAIGN IS OVER

Other Cities Said to be Keeping Pace With Greenville in Cleaning Up

The actual removal of the rubbish and trash from the homes and vacant lots throughout Greenville, which was scheduled for today, has been postponed until Wednesday, May 3rd.

The remaining days will give everyone an opportunity of getting their premises in excellent condition. Greenville has always been known to possess a keen desire to have her town as beautiful as possible, and it is confidently expected that this season will be no exception to the rule.

In order to facilitate the handling of the trash, it is desired that same be placed in containers and containers placed on the sidewalks. This will enable the trucks to make rapid progress throughout the city.

A thorough inspection will be made following the clean-up drive to see if every one has fallen in line with this progressive movement. It is not now believed that any one will fail to measure up to the responsibilities of citizenship a matter of so vital importance.

Cities, towns, and villages all over North Carolina and other sections of the country have already conducted successful drives. Greenville must not and will not take a second step in a progressive movement of this kind. With all of the forces of the city uniting, the most eventful clean-up campaign of the state or the south can be successfully waged here.

KIWANIS CLUBS GIVEN KEY TO COLUMBIA, S. C.

Columbia, S. C., April 28.—Representatives of Kiwanis of the two Carolinas were presented a key to the city yesterday by Mayor Black. They were welcomed in behalf of the state by Governor Cooper. The two day session will be concluded tonight. Golf tournament, ball and barbecue dinner were among the many features of the meeting.

MUSCLE SHOALS TO BE CONSIDERED AT GREAT CONFERENCE

National Conference Will Consider Issues in the Next Few Weeks

(By International News.) Washington, April 28.—The national conference on Muscle Shoals project will be held at Muscle Shoals, Alabama, May 22 and 24th under auspices of the Southern Commercial congress, it was stated today by Clarence Owens, director general.

The object of the meeting will be to decide on a plan to assist expediting congressional action on Muscle Shoals legislation. Its members will also discuss the conservation of natural resources of the nation. Assistant secretary of commerce, Houston will be one of the principal speakers of the occasion, it was announced this morning.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER IS 55 FEET AT VICKSBURG

Vicksburg, Miss., April 28.—The Mississippi river here has reached a height of fifty-five feet, the highest record in history. With an additional rise expected, it is believed the water will reach the tenth foot and will then become stationary for a week, according to engineers who report all levees safe.

These are modern times for certain! Mrs. E. C. Tuttle, of Red Oak, Iowa, wanted a "few little things" from Chicago. Forthwith she cranked up her "air jitney" and made a hurried flight to the "Windy City," made her purchases and returned home—just like that!

SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES RICH IN UNDEVELOPED OIL

Virgin Fields Hold Thirteen Billion Barrels, Geologist Declares

Washington, D. C., April 28.—Oil resources to the extent of more than 13,000,000,000 barrels, or about one-fifth of the world's total supply, await development in the practically virgin fields of South America, according to Dr. David White, of the United States Geological survey.

With the possible exception of North America, Dr. White declares, the South American continent is richer in petroleum resources in proportion to its area than any other section of the world.

"Geologic explorations have as yet advanced only a little way in South America," said Dr. White. "Thus far only a few regions have been tapped. Geologists have secured evidence, however, of the existence of high grade petroleum deposits in the continent, and these deposits apparently are very widely disseminated."

The American oil expert places the figures for the South American oil deposits at 13,000,000,000 barrels, though he admits that this is a very conservative estimate. Provided the same methods of drilling were employed as those used in the United States, Dr. White believes the southern fields would produce 15,000,000,000 barrels.

The world's petroleum resources are estimated by Dr. White at about 60,000,000,000 barrels, and with figures most of the other eminent geologists agree. It therefore appears that approximately one-fifth of the world's estimated supply of petroleum awaits the exploitation of the South American fields.

Not Aware of Deposits. In many South American countries the inhabitants are not generally aware of the existence of the oil deposits, according to Dr. White. This is due to the fact that the work of exploration has been done for the most part by geologist retained by the great oil companies and that they have reported only to their employers.

Some indications of the presence of oil in paying quantities have been found in practically every country of South America, the doctor says, and he predicts that the whole continent is on the verge of an unexampled era of development.

DECLARE STRIKE HAS NOT CAUSED ANY DEPRESSION

Business Continues as if Nothing Has Happened, Experts Say

LARGE INDUSTRIES HAVE RESERVE COAL IN BIG QUANTITIES

Factories So Far Have Been Able to Fill All Orders Demanded

Washington, April 28.—Government reports made public today disclose that the coal strike has not caused any slowing down in manufacturing industries. The reports also stated that factories and other industries in large cities had large reserve coal supplies.

The majority of these factories are operating under the most favorable conditions, and are able to fill orders promptly. It is not believed the strike will hamper industry for months to come, and officials are not anticipating any suspension of business.

BETHEL WHITE MEN FOUND NOT GUILTY OF STEALING COW

John and Aleck Padgett Are Acquitted by Jury in Criminal Court Today

John and Aleck Padgett, of the Bethel community, charged with stealing a cow from W. A. Taylor, were found not guilty by a jury in today's session of the criminal term of Pitt county criminal court. The case was taken up yesterday morning, and went to the jury shortly after court convened this morning. The jury acted promptly, however, and a verdict was rendered within a few minutes after the charge of Judge Daniels.

Court in all probability will be brought to a conclusion this afternoon with completion of a number of minor actions which have been pending consideration several months. About one hundred cases have been disposed of the past two weeks, and the term in many respects has been one of the most successful in years.

Judge Daniels has done much in speeding up action in many cases which promised considerable delay at the beginning, and it was this fact which caused such a large number of cases to be settled.

The case against the Padgetts was one of the hardest fought and most stubbornly contested heard here in many terms, and required more time than usual from the standpoint of importance. The defendants were white, and the charge against them produced much interest in the community where they have resided so many years.

BEGIN INQUIRY INTO COLLAPSE OF SHIP WRECK

Cincinnati, April 28.—Investigation was begun here today into reports of the collapse of the third deck of the steamer Island Queen which was enroute to the Grant centennial from Point Pleasant. The steamer's captain, believe supports were made insecure by some one who gained entrance to them the past week. The accident resulted in fatal injuries to one boy and slight injuries to numbers of others. The reservation for President Harding who was scheduled to occupy the cabin under the collapsing deck, was changed at the eleventh hour to another boat.

THREE MINERS KILLED WHEN HOUSE DYNAMITED

Apollo, Pa., April 28.—Three non-union miners were killed, one seriously injured and two slightly hurt when their bunk house in the Diskin Valley Coal company where seven men were asleep was dynamited last night.

Friday, April 28th, 1922

Mrs. Astor asserted in a speech the other day that America is badly needed at the Genoa conference. She meant America's money—not American spirit particularly.

The International brotherhood of paper makers overwhelmingly opposed proposed wage reductions in a vote just recently completed. If they had not their case would be one of the most exceptional in history.

Bankers recently in session at Pinehurst expressed great optimism in the future, and appeared to think business is being stabilized daily. This is encouraging indeed, but we would like to see more evidence.

North Carolina bankers are exceptionally optimistic concerning the future, and if they want other people to feel the same way they should release a little more money.

Simmons isn't in favor of the tariff measure now before the senate, and expresses his opinion in no uncertain terms. The North Carolina representative is right, and will have many others thinking his way before the tariff issue is enacted into law.

Senator Simmons was absolutely right in his speech before the senate in declaring the tariff measure is intended primarily to maintain high prices. It will be one of the greatest blows American industry has received in years, and it is up to such staunch members as Senator Simmons to prevent its passage.

Registration books for the coming primary will be open for the next twenty days. Women voters should play a greater part in this election than all others as the county officers are to be elected this time, and it is important that they measure up to the expectation of the women as well as men. Good officers are essential to the success of each county, and it is imperative that they represent the very highest type of citizenship. This point should be considered and no one should vote until it is.

All classes of men are represented in the race for the office of sheriff of Pitt county and it is important that the qualification of each one be given due consideration before votes are cast. Women especially should give these men deserving consideration and to some extent be governed by the advice of their husbands. Men are apt to know more about members of their own sex, and women should not be led to believe their husbands are interfering with their political rights by offering advice where they think it is needed.

The way the farmers are planting causes one to believe production this season will be as great if not greater than last season. This is probably justified by the unsettled state of mind existing among the farmers. They don't know what to expect, and are going to take a shot at receiving good prices even if they should lose again. Good tobacco is going to be in demand again this season and those who produce it may regret not receiving prices in proportion to the cost of production. Those who raise only common grades, however, might as well keep it at home and use as fertilizer next year. They will receive as much out of it in the long run, and the trouble of bringing it to the market.

One Pitt county woman has written the Reflector asking us to urge the women to be prepared to show greater strength at the polls during the coming election. This lady says it is the duty of every woman to take advantage of her enfranchisement, and those who fail to do so cannot possibly have proper interest in the protection of her home. This is a mighty commendable spirit and it is hoped no woman will be led to forsake this privilege.

The community sing to be held in Greenville May 14th, which has been designated as Mother's Day, no doubt will be largely attended. The sing has a tendency of drawing the people closer together and should be instrumental in creating a much greater spirit of co-operation. Mother's Day is beginning to have a great significance in America and it is very appropriate that the sing is to be held on this day. Let's pull together in making the day one of the greatest in years.

The drainage convention which opened in Goldsboro today should be able to accomplish great things for this part of the state, and if proper financial support is given its members conditions may be made even more favorable. Drainage is becoming even of greater importance now the land is being put in a high state of cultivation and the public should do everything possible to support future campaigns.

GOD IS ETERNAL LIFE."

Your Moral Wages

They are paid whether you want to receive them or not. And you determine the rate of pay. You can't strike because the conditions under which the wages are paid are likewise determined by you and you alone.

The Bible verse above is worth reading every day. You have already found it true if you stop to think a minute.

If we sin, we suffer somehow, somewhere; usually soon. But if we repent and follow the teachings of the Bible we have the promise of eternal life.

Let the church help you fight temptation. Attend service regularly. Read your Bible and "fight the good fight."

EMPIRE TIRES

Notwithstanding the fact that a great many Agents and Manufacturers have constantly talked of an increased price of Automobile Tires within the next thirty days, the EMPIRE TIRE & RUBBER COMPANY have deemed it proper to make drastic reductions in the price of their tires, particularly CORDS.

We are not cutting the price of EMPIRE TIRES, but are simply saving the consumer the usual Agent's commission and Jobbers handling charges, or a saving of nearly one third on your tire bills. These prices are only possible on account of the EMPIRE system of distribution—DIRECT FROM THE FACTORY TO USER—THROUGH THE DISTRIBUTOR.

REGARDLESS OF PRICE, THERE IS NO TIRE ON THE MARKET THAT IS MORE HONESTLY BUILT AND MORE CARE TAKEN IN ITS CONSTRUCTION.

While any Automobile tire is liable to be defective in the event you get one, or fail to get satisfactory mileage, adjustments are promptly made in our store, without any red tape for our decision on adjustments are made on the basis of 8,000 miles for CORDS and 6,000 miles for FABRICS.

Ficklen-Myers.

(Greensboro News.)

One of the most beautiful weddings ever witnessed in Greensboro, was solemnized Wednesday night at 8:30 o'clock in the ballroom of the O. Henry hotel, when Miss Lucy Warren Myers, one of the most popular members of the city's younger set, became the bride of James Skinner Ficklen, a popular and prominent young business man of Greenville. Rev. Father Vincent Taylor officiated, followed the impressive and beautiful ceremony of the Catholic church.

Promptly at 8:30 the bridal party entered the ballroom from the foyer and proceeded to the improvised altar at the west end. First came the ushers, who formed an aisleway with streamers of white satin ribbon on either side of which thronged relatives and friends of the contracting parties. Then came the groomsmen, followed by the bridesmaids and maid of honor. Miss Myers entered with her father, Maj. E. W. Myers, who gave her in marriage, and was met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man.

The bride was beautiful in a gown of white brocaded satin, pearl incrustated with a court train. She wore a tulle veil with coronet of point lace and orange blossoms. The lace was worn by her great-grandmother as a bride, and has been an adjunct of the bridal costume for four generations. Her slippers were of white satin embroidered with pearls. Her only ornament was a platinum and diamond pin, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a shower bouquet of white Killarney roses, lilies of the valley and orchids.

The maid of honor, Miss Jessie Myers, a sister of the bride, wore green chiffon and lace and carried a shower bouquet of pink Russell roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids, Misses Eva Stainback, Lillian Brandt, Mary Jordan, Frances Whedbee, Kathleen Price and Elizabeth Armstrong, wore gowns of pink chiffon and lace and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas and Columbia roses.

Leo Hart Harvey, of Kinston, was best man; and the groomsmen and ushers were Ficklen Arthur, Fielding Jeter, William Blount, F. S. Worthy, R. M. Garrett, Dr. Donnell Cobb, Dr. D. T. Taylor, J. L. Little, William Stainback and E. H. E. Taylor.

There was a beautiful program of music by the O. Henry orchestra, and just preceding the ceremony L. J. Duffy sang "Oh, Promise Me." Fred C. Odell was master of ceremonies.

The ballroom of the O. Henry, where the ceremony was performed and the subsequent reception took place, presented an appearance of fairy beauty. A trellis entwined with greenery formed a background for an improvised altar of palms, ferns and Easter lilies. Tall baskets on either side, filled with lilies, lent a note of exquisite beauty. The entire room was paneled with Southern sassafras, and a seep more beautiful would be difficult to conceive.

Guests were greeted in the foyer by Major and Mrs. Edward C. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen and other relatives and close friends of the two families. Mrs. Myers was dressed in a beautiful dress of black lace and wore a corsage of lavender sweet peas and Columbia roses. Mrs. Ficklen wore a gown of black and blue sequins, with a corsage of red roses and lilies of the valley.

A reception followed the ceremony Refreshments consisting of ice cream frozen in the form of lilies and roses, fancy cakes and mints, were served by Mrs. Douglas Conkright and Misses Maurine Moore, Frances Shaw, Jessie Brandt and Katherine Lee Long. Mrs. Herman Cone, Mrs. Charles Kistler and Mrs. W. H. Thompson presided at the punch bowl.

Both the bride and groom of last night are prominently connected in North Carolina and Virginia, with a host of friends throughout the two states.

Mrs. Ficklen is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Myers of this city. Major Myers organized a company of engineers in Greensboro at the outbreak of the recent world war and later served with distinction in France. Mrs. Ficklen was educated at Georgetown convent and is a young woman of unusually winsome personality and rare beauty. She is a granddaughter of the late Judge Edward Warren, of eastern North Carolina, and is closely related to the Blounts and Rodmans of the eastern part of the state. On the maternal side, she is a granddaughter of the late Judge Robert M. Douglas, and a great-granddaughter of the late Stephen A. Douglas and of the late Judge Robert P. Diek, who for many years distinguished himself on the federal bench.

Mr. Ficklen is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen, of Greenville. He is a graduate of the University of North Carolina and a young business man of marked ability. He is associated with his father in Greenville, in the firm of Ficklen Tobacco company. He is a grandson on the paternal side, of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ficklen, a Virginia family of aristocratic lineage; and on the maternal side is a grandson of Charles Skinner, of Eastern Carolina. He is a nephew of T. G. Skinner and Col. Harry Skinner, both of whom have served as members of congress, and have been prominent political figures in the state's history.

Immediately following last night's ceremony and reception, Mr. and Mrs. Ficklen left for an extended wedding trip to Atlantic City and New York, after which they will be at home in Greenville.

U. D. C. Regular Monthly Meeting.

The Geo. B. Singletary Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy held a very interesting meeting on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Ed. Harvey, at her home on Latham street. At the invitation of the president, Capt. J. J. Laughinghouse, one of our own confederate soldiers, addressed the chapter, after the business meeting was over. His subject being the Ku Klux Klan and conditions which brought about its organization just after the civil war.

His tribute to the Daughters of the Confederacy was such as to inspire the organization to renewed efforts in the way of service to "The Men Who Wore the Gray," and his expressions of appreciation in their behalf were most sincere.

Born.

To Mr. and Mrs. John Edward Whitchard, April 26th, nine pound son, Judson Erick.

WILSON'S POSITION ON CO-OPERATIVE MARKETING

To the Editor: For lo these many, many years Richmond, Va., has been using Eastern Carolina as her meal ticket and since the discriminatory freight rate imposition on which Richmond grew fat has been adjusted the denizens of the once Capital of the Confederacy have been living in fear of the wolf that might be soon scratching at their doors.

The Co-operative plan of pooling the crops of tobacco, seemingly, to Richmonders, presented an opportunity for them to continue to live on the fat of the land at the expense of Eastern Carolina and they thought they had beaten Raleigh to it to make the big F. F. V. town headquarters to handle the millions of dollars that have been paid out for the enormous crops of the golden weed grown in the Old North State.

The fact of the matter is—Richmond struck out Raleigh for headquarters, but W. T. Clark, a Wilson tobaccoist, was playing first base for Eastern Carolina, and being assisted by the warehousemen of the big tobacco town, stopped the Richmond Colts in their efforts to break up the auction plan of selling tobacco, especially in Wilson.

Wilson county planters, warehousemen and buyers are of the opinion that the old plan of selling is the only satisfactory way to all parties. They are very much skin to true blue Missourians—telling them that a certain thing is so and so means nothing—show them that they are wrong and they'll surrender without a murmur.

Until convinced they'll fight to the last ditch to protect the interests of the fillers of the soil and every interest in the county—and in contending that the old plan of selling be perpetuated, they are only showing their loyalty to the citizenry of the county.

Since Wilson county took her stand for the old system, other large markets, one by one are falling in line, and the credit is due to W. T. Clark and his loyal supporters, who threw a monkey wrench in the machinery of those who were endeavoring to hang crepe on the doar of Wilson as a tobacco market. Wilson is the keystone—to have removed the keystone the whole tobacco structure would have tumbled down like a house of cards.

Mr. Farmer Think

When You Are Asked to Sign The 5 Year Contract of The Co-operative Marketing Association, It Will Be Well To Get The Party Who Tries To Sign You To Answer The Following Questions:

1. What per cent of the Kentucky crop, delivered to the Association has been sold by the Association?
2. What per cent of the tobacco sold, was the best tobacco delivered to the Association?
3. What per cent of the tobacco now in the hands of the Association is common tobacco?
4. What per cent of the 1921 crop of Burley tobacco, that has been delivered to the Association, is still in the hands of the Association, unsold?
5. When will the Association sell this tobacco, that is still in the hands of the Association?
6. When will the Association pay the farmer in full for his 1921 crop of Burley tobacco?
7. When will the Association be able to tell the Kentucky farmer what his 1921 crop of tobacco averaged?
8. What per cent of the value fixed on the Kentucky tobacco, did the Association advance the farmer?
9. Does the Association require you to deliver your tobacco crop at one time or can you deliver it one load at a time?
10. Is the Association liable to you in case the tobacco you deliver to them damages, before it is sold or redried?
11. When will the Kentucky farmer know what it has cost him to sell his tobacco through the Association?
12. What per cent does the Association agree to advance the North Carolina farmer on his tobacco when delivered?
13. What per cent did the contracts signed by the Kentucky farmers agree to advance?
14. Who places the value on the tobacco delivered to the Association?
15. Does the farmer see his tobacco sold?
16. Can the farmer refuse to accept the price the Association sells his tobacco at?

I have answered the above questions and am willing to go before a Notary Public and swear they are answered correctly to the best of my knowledge and belief.

AYDEN NEWS... Means Ray Stokes and Jack Blount are back after a week absence, due to the fact that their car got wrecked in the mountains of the Blue Ridge. They were unable to continue their trip to the Pacific Coast. Ray, locally, is known as the "sign fiend" and he was to keep down the "incidentals" by the use of his brush while on the trip. The boys say they spent some time in a hospital and both brought back some evidence that showed they had been in a wreck. They refused an offer of ten dollars for the car, saying they would just leave it alone before selling it so cheap. Both say they may start again soon with a Ford. The car lost being a Studbaker. Street Paving Continues... The street paving work is getting under good headway in our town, scores of hands are employed and by the end of another week the curbing will have been finished and paving on the streets will be begun. Those who live in this section of the county are watching also the progress being made on the Greenville-Ayden road which is now between Winterville and Ayden and coming on at the rate of six hundred feet per day. This road will put us in close touch with Greenville but we are still anxious for the finishing of this on to Grifton where the Lenior county roads reach so the entire road from Greenville to Kinston will be hard surface. We understand this seven miles between Ayden and Grifton will not be built soon, if that is the case the Kinston to Greenville road will not be a dependable road due to this unfinished link, which in a measure weakens the other part of the road. Pitt county can probably boast of more candidates for sheriff than any county in North Carolina. So many are in the field that they do say they meet up with each other and solicit votes and support before they learn to whom they are talking. At the closing of a school in the southern part of the county last week there were four candidates for sheriff present, and it is said the broad smile worn by the mothers who had their babies out was due largely to the compliments paid their baby by the would-be sheriffs of the county. Flesh-colored stockings are popular because holes don't show.

FACTS FROM REFLECTOR EXACTLY 27 YEARS AGO... Mr. Jesse Brown, one of the oldest subscribers to The Reflector yesterday afternoon called to our attention a copy of The Reflector printed Friday, December 20, 1896, or nearly 27 years ago. The paper contained only two pages then, and the town was not much larger, but there were many interesting features presented in the ten columns of reading matter and advertisements. An interesting paragraph of this issue was headed "A joke on us" and no doubt will be read with considerable amusement by those who are acquainted with the principals. The paragraph reads: "Any of us will make mistakes sometime, and by a slip of the pencil yesterday The Reflector had Miss Martha O. Forbes married when it should have been Miss Mary O. Forbes. We understand that about a half dozen boys have declared war on us, so we hasten to set this matter right. Miss Martha is not married." Another article was headed "How Thieves are Trained." This would go pretty good today, as many citizens would like to know something more about the class of fellows who last night fired the steam laundry and robbed three or four other buildings while people responded to the alarm. This town has certainly had its interesting days and is still having 'em.

SAYS FREIGHT RATES MUST BE REDUCED IMMEDIATELY... New York, April 28.—Readjustment of agricultural production, involving the country's entire industrial structure will have to take place unless freight rates are reduced in proportion to the prices of farm products, secretary of agriculture Wallace declared today. After a man finds a wife he has to keep on hunting her.

BLAMES COAL OPERATORS FOR GREAT COAL STRIKE... Washington, April 28.—Upon the coal operators rests sole responsibility of the strike, Chariman Nolan of the house labor committee charged. He declared the strike was called due to united effort to prevent a lowering in the price of coal. He denied, however, there was evidence of any conspiracy among the operators to this end.
