COTTON CROP IS BADLY DAMAGED BY HEAVY RAINS

Great Area will Have to be Replanted as Result of Sunday's Storm

GREAT DAMAGE IS WROUGHT BY HAIL IN LOWER SECTION

Damage by Rain and Hail will Approximate Hundred thousand Dollars.

The hail and wind storm which passed over the lower section of Pitt and Beaufort counties Sunday did considerably more damage than reported yesterday, and it is believed the total loss will go into thousands of dollars from damage done the cotton crop by rain alone.

A wide area of Pitt county was covered by the rain, but only the lower section suffered from the results of hail. Cotton for miles and miles around will have to be replanted as result of the torrential down-pour of rain, and although no accurate estimate is available at the present time it is certain the loss will approximate seventy or a hundred thousand dollars.

Hail wrought great havoc to all crops in the lower section of the county, and many of the most important planters in the county will be forced to replant at enormous expense. The damage by hail, however, was no greater than to cotton by rain and the area affected by the latter is of a much broader scope.

The rainfall in Greenville was the heaviest reported in years, and while no one had the slightest idea that such great damage had been wrought it was believed that some section suffered. The cloud was the blackest and most threatening old observers have ever seen, and produced considerable fear while it lasted. The latter part of the storm was accompanied by terrific thunder and lightning that demoralized light service in some sections of town.

GORMAN PRESENTS FACTS REGARDING MARKETING ISSUE

Replies to Criticisms of "Business Man" in Yesterday's Reflector.

It was unnecessary for the party who attacked the officers of the Co-operative Marketing association in your Monday's issue to sign as he did for anyone reading his article would readily see that he knew nothing of the tobacco situation and furthermore had made no effort to enlighten himself as to Co-operative Marketing. If he will take the time to read up on and post himself, he will find that Co-operative Marketing is not something new but has been working successfully for years in the marketing of other commodities and it has built up farming communities and put the farmer on his feet wherever it has been tried.

It is true that the peanut situation as yet has not shown a success. This was due to inadequate facilities for handling and preparing the nut for market, however, the officers have seen their error and have taken measures to rectify the same. The Co-operative Tobacco Marketing association has employed experienced men to handle and sell the pool tobacco, this insures the association against any such error.

Since the writer of the above mentioned article is a Greenville Business Man he must know by experience that Co-operation of men of any interests is more successful than when each individual or firm is working alone.

I will ask him, if he should be given 80 to 90 per cent of any commodity if he would not be able to dictate the selling price? Also if to insure his success if he would not do his

NEAR EAST RELIEF CAMPAIGN STARTS IN COUNTY MAY 28

Pitt County People Asked to raise $3,960 for Saving 66 Children.

AYDEN QUARTETTE SCORED GREAT HIT IN ITS APPEARANCE

Singing led by J. H. Rose Provide one of the Outstanding Features

Despite inclement weather Pitt county people turned out in large numbers to the community sing held in the auditorium of the Teachers College Mother's Day. The woods were so damp and the weather so uncertain that it was thought best to postpone the sing in the woods and Dr. Wright kindly extended an invitation to the sing committee to use his auditorium.

The Daughters of the Confederacy met everyone with either a red or white flower in memory of their mother. The girl scouts distributed the song sheets and promptly at 4:30 o'clock the sing began. The entire auditorium was packed and it was regretted that so many had to stand. The first number of the program was "Onward Christian Soldiers" and it was a fine hymn to begin with because of its splendid time and the hearty response was instantaneous.

The orchestra composed of Miss Eleanor Bass, Mrs. Savage, Miss Muffy, Miss Bruce and Mr. Rives played "One Fleeting Hour" and every one was delighted when they played through the entire sing with Mrs. M. K. Blount acting as accompanist.

Dr. R. H. Whight extended a cordial welcome to the large crowd and made an appropriate talk regarding Mother's Day. He emphasized the fact that the day was a most happy one on which to stage the first Pitt county community sing of the year.

Then Dr. Wright called on Rev. T. H. Flemmons for invocation. Mr. J. H. Rose, sing leader, kept the program unusually smooth with every number following directly after the other.

The Ayden quartette composed of R. F. Pittman, leader G. W. Prescott, L. E. Turnage, Roy Turnage and Mrs. R. F. Pittman, accompanist, gave two numbers and each one delighted the large audience.

The first number was a hymn, particularly appropriate for the day, the second "Jerusalem Morning" was applauded again and again. Rev. R. F. Pittman, accompanied by Mrs. Pittman, gave as a solo Mother Machree just before the last number and all realized how fortunate the Ayden quartette is to have Mr. Pittman as its leader.

The Red Cross Sing committee expressed sincere thanks for the hearty spirit of co-operation. There was much regret from all that the sing could not be out of doors because all had hoped to hear the songs which were to be sung by the colored people. The Methodist choir had prepared a special number and all were to join in an old negro folk song afterward.

Prof. G. R. Whitfield, superintendent of Pitt county colored schools had given wide publicity among the people and Prof. C. M. Epps had announced the same at school.

It is hoped that the weather will be more favorable next month so that everybody can attend the sing.

CIVIL WAR AGAIN THREATENS CHINA

Another Outbreak - Hangs Threateningly over South Eastern Section.

Paotingfu, China, May 16.—Another outbreak of civil war, this time in the southeastern section of the country, hung threateningly over the people this morning, and an accentuated situation is expected to arise within the next several hours.

While no actual warfare had been reported large forces were gathering in the southeast, and clashes are expected to occur in a short while. The situation is the most serious that has faced this immediate section in years, and immediate action on part of the government is necessary if the war is averted.

YOUNG PEOPLE FROM STOKES ENJOY THE DAY AT THE PARK

This morning nearly a hundred young people from Stokes came over to spend the day at the Park. Prof. and Mrs. Rogerson were in charge of the picnic. The Methodist church had two classes and the Christian church the same number from their Sunday school. Needless to say, plenty to eat, and fun for all.

BITTERLY ATTACKS REPUBLICAN PARTY

Cordell Hull Declares a Tremendous Reaction is Occurring Against Party.

(By International News.)
Nashville, Tenn. May 16.—Bitter criticism of the Republican party and declaration of a tremendous reaction against the present administration was apparently contained in a statement issued by Cordell Hull, chairman of the national democratic committee on eve of his trip to New England.

Sharpest shafts of the statement were directed towards tax schedules, national and state, where republican governors and legislatures are in power. There is a tremendous revolt occurring throughout the country against measures of the administration, he declared, and this includes every class of voters, from the farm laborer to the business man.

ECONOMIC CHAOS BEING OVERCOME

President American Chamber of Commerce Sees Business Revival Today.

(By International News.)
Washington, May 16.—Closer cooperation between American and European business industry is essential if the industrial and economic chaos of Europe is to be successfully overcome, it was declared in a keynote address at the convention of the United States Chamber of Commerce by Joseph Defrees, president of the organization.

He said he believed conditions were much better in the United States at the present time, and predicted a general revival of business in the near future.

INQUIRY STILL IN PROGRESS AT TAMPA

Inquiry into Alleged Graft of County Offices Makes Con-Headway.

(By International News.)
Tampa, May 16.—Hillsborough county members of the grand jury continued their investigation into alleged graft and bad condition of the county offices, but further arrests threatened by the county solicitor have not yet materialized.

The investigation into disappearance of records against Frank McSherry, alleged confidence man who has been held in New York under five thousand dollars bond is also being continued in Sheriff McSherry's quarters and he will be returned if records are not found, it was stated.

MEDICAL SOCIETY TO HOLD MEETING IN BEAUFORT CITY

Interesting Session of Tri-County Society Scheduled for Tonight.

The Tri-County Medical Society, comprising the counties of Pitt, Beaufort and Martin will be entertained in Washington tonight by members of the Beaufort County Medical Society. This meeting promises to be one of the most interesting in years and contains a program of greater importance probably than every before.

Principal speakers of the meeting will be Dr. Hugh York of Williamston, Dr. John C. Nicholson of Washington, Dr. C. J. Ellen, of Greenville, Dr. Paul Fitzgerald, of Greenville and Dr. G. M. Cooper, of Raleigh, member of the state board of health.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Lindsey C. Warren, Dr. John D. Biggs, of Williamston, former president of the society, will respond.

The meeting will be held at the old Elk's Hall, Baughman building, and supper will be served by ladies of the city. The menu as contained on the program issued last week is a most tempting one.

The meetings of the Tri-County society are becoming of more than usual interest to physicians in this section of the state as they have a tendency of establishing a closer spirit of co-operation. This society in connection with county societies has been able to accomplish many things, and the future is very bright indeed.

GREAT INTEREST CENTERED AROUND KIWANIS CONTEST

Ball Game with Rotarians to be One of most Interesting Features of Year.

Considerable interest is centered around the baseball game to be played between members of the Greenville Rotary and Kiwanis clubs within the next several days, and it is likely a large crowd will be in attendance. Both clubs have players who have been active service on the diamond in past years, and they should be able to make a commendable showing with the strenuous training they are now undergoing.

So confident are members of the Kiwanis club that they have issued a challenge to other Kiwanis clubs in this section of the state. Such cities as New Bern, Kinston and Washington are included in this challenge, and the public is assured of something out of the ordinary in the way of the national sport.

The two clubs put out pretty strong teams last season, but they have given more time to training this season and will be able to make a much better showing. In fact, it is their purpose to have real ball clubs and if hard work means anything they are likely to realize this ambition.

The exact date for the first game of the season has not been definitely decided upon as yet, but training has been progressing nicely for several days and it is likely that material could be whipped into shape within the next few days. At least, it is the intention of the fellows to crowd in as many games as possible before the opening of the league season and it is certainly probable they will begin playing as early as possible.

MISS RENNER TO ASSIST ORGANIZING CHAMBER AT SELMA DURING THE WEEK

Miss Ella R. Renner, secretary of the Greenville Merchants' Association received word to join a party at Goldsboro Wednesday to leave for Selma for the purpose of organizing a Merchants' Association there. The merchants association is an organization that is needed in every place no matter the size or population.

SAYS CROP LISTING WILL NOT BE BOON FOR SPECULATORS

Dean C. B. Williams says Farmers should Give Acreage when Listing.

TWO DEFENDENTS IN WHISKEY CASE HEAVILY FINED

Larceny and Carrying Concealed Weapon Case Occupied Remainder of Session

Dean C. B. Williams of state college says that listing crop acreages will help the farmers, said W. D. Jones in the city today. Now that tax listing time has again rolled around it brings with it the annual bugaboo that the law requiring the tax listers to list the number of acres to be planted to the various crops this year was passed for the benefit of the speculators in these crops, or to enable the taxing authorities to find something else to tax. There has of course, never been a more erroneous idea for the law requiring the listing of acreages planted to cotton, tobacco, wheat, corn, and other crops was passed at the instance of the department of agriculture, and is of direct benefit to the farmer. This reliable data which is secured by the tax listers tends to stabilize the market and helps to protect the farmers from losses that might otherwise result from the manipulation of the market by the speculative interests.

After a conference with the county auditor, Mr. Jackson, and the tax listers of the county today, Mr. W. D. Jones, Jr., census assistant for the state department of agriculture states that the biggest obstacle in the way of this important work is the fact that many farmers do not know that this listing of acreages is required, and not having prepared a list of their acreages considerable delay and confusion is caused.

In a signed statement Governor Cameron Morrison endorses the efforts of the department of agriculture in this work and urges that since the correct analysis of the tabulated county and state results tends to stabilize the market and protect the interests of the farmers it behooves them to give their county officials the most vigorous co-operation in securing this data.

Insure the success of this work by bringing prepared lists of your acreage when you come in to list your property for taxation.

TOWN BOYS WILL PLAY FARMVILLE THIS AFTERNOON

Interesting Game to be Played at Fair Grounds at P. M.

A baseball game of more than ordinary interest will be played at the fair grounds this afternoon between a picked team of town boys and a similar aggregation from Farmville. The game will be of more than ordinary interest for the reason that a number of league players of both clubs will be seen in action.

While training season of the Eastern Carolina league will not begin until the latter part of this month, a number of players have already arrived and getting in readiness for the opening of the season June 8. Greenville and Farmville, it is understood, have already gotten together complete teams but only a few of them will be seen in action in the game this afternoon.

There are a number of good players in town and with the assistance of the league men they should be able of putting up a fight of interest to everyone. Attendance no doubt will be fairly large because of the desire for a good ball game, and quite a neat sum of money should be realized. Proceeds in all probability will go to the general funds of the league team.

Primitive Baptist Service.
Elder L. H. Hardee will preach at the Universalist church, Wednesday morning, May 17th at 10 o'clock. The public is invited.

ROAD SENTENCES FEATURE COUNTY COURT YESTERDAY

Thomas Vincent Given a Year on the Roads for Immoral Relations Charge.

TWO DEFENDENTS IN WHISKEY CASE HEAVILY FINED

Larceny and Carrying Concealed Weapon Case Occupied Remainder of Session

Thomas Vincent, white man hailing from over the river was given 12 months on the county roads in yesterday's session of county court by Judge Louis G. Cooper, charged with alleged immoral relations and living with a colored woman by the name of Susie Barfield. Judgment was suspended for a period of two years in case of the woman providing she appears before the court for a period of two years to answer to good behavior.

Vincent and the woman were arrested last week by Sheriff Ernest Dudley following complaint of their intimacy from a number of colored people of the neighborhood. Sheriff Dudley went to the woman's home one night about nine o'clock, knocked at the door, and when refused to be admitted, knocked the door down and entered.

With the aid of a flashlight he located the room in which the two were staying, knocked another door down and placed them under arrest. They were brought to town where the woman gave bond for her appearance at yesterday's session of court. Vincent was held in jail in default of bond.

This case was the most important taken up during yesterday's session, although there were a number of others of minor interest. However, one complaint pending since customary and adjustment means possible before the session hour.

Joe Parker, colored man of the county charged with larceny was sentenced to twelve months on the county roads at hard labor.

Charlie Harris and Nathan Johnson, recently arrested on a double charge of manufacturing, receiving and transporting whiskey, were found guilty of the latter charge and fined $25 each and cost of action.

Willie Swinson, charged with carrying a concealed weapon, was fined $50 and cost of action.

Judge Cooper is making an effort to reduce the whiskey traffic as much as possible, and in practically every case where charges of manufacturing and transporting are involved either heavy fines or road sentences are imposed on the defendants.

BRITISH PREMIER NOW PESSIMISTIC

Refusal of America to Attend Hague Causes Lloyd George Uneasiness.

(By International News.)
London, May 16.—Refusal of the United States to participate in the Hague meeting looking to the appointment of a commission to study the Russian problem turned Lloyd George from his accustomed optimism to pessimism, according to Genoa advices.

The premier is reported to feel that the Genoa conference will be a partial failure and that the Hague meeting will be useless as result of aloofness of the American government.

YOUNG MEN'S BIBLE CLASS TO HAVE LUNCHEON TONIGHT

Rival offers for Muscle Shoals will be submitted to the committee. Still that's not accepting Mr. Ford's offer as the Alabama public desires.

Henry Ford is being asked to alter his offer for Muscle Shoals. Alabama people don't care what he does just so he gains control of the nitrate plant.

American exports exceeded imports during the month of April, which goes to show that things are on an improvement in this country. This assures us conditions are much better than in past months and means a greater future.

The British and French had cause for disagreement over the Russian question, but that doesn't mean they will remain that way. In fact they can't afford to and the sooner the situation is improved the better the public will feel about it.

It is very appropriate that Greenville people should have selected Mothers' Day as the time to hold the community sing, and it is the duty of the public to attend in large numbers. Parents could not possibly desire to be honored more signally than through song and should be gratified at the effort to be made by Greenville people.

It is gratifying to note that the government is making an effort to further develop existing fields of foreign markets to combat foreign trade. This is something that should have been done long ago, and Herbert Hoover shows that he has the country at heart in taking such action. The department of commerce should be one of the best developed in the whole country and this action predicts better things.

Of course everyone of those candidates for sheriff in Pitt county think they are going to win out, if not in the first primary, but it begins to look like there are going to be more disappointed than pleased. We wish the county might have all twelve of them as officers of the law, but since that is next to impossible we trust the best man will win, as he certainly will.

Woodrow Wilson has been humiliated enough to kill the ordinary man, but the taunts of the embittered have had little effect upon him. In fact, he seems to be more securely fixed with the public now than ever, and those who have attempted to ruin him have realized very little from their campaigning. Mr. Wilson is truly one of the greatest statesmen this country has ever known and the American public is beginning to realize it more than ever.

The political race in Pitt county is becoming rather exciting at this time and as election draws nearer canvassing becomes more intense. The rest of the boys show up rather small beside the candidates for sheriff, but just so they come out at the big end of the horn they will feel all right. The offices of register of deeds, clerk of court and county treasurer so far have gone undisputed, and from all indications they will continue to. Those in charge are about as competent and agreeable as the public would have and as long as they remain that way a change really won't be necessary.

Baseball seems to be coming into its own in Greenville at the present time and it is likely quite a number of games between city organizations will be pulled off before the league season opens. These games, especially those between members of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs will prove of more than general interest, and it is certain the public will turn out in large numbers. The opening of the real show, however, is being awaited with interest as everybody is anxious to see what kind of a team Greenville is going to be able to place in the field.

NOT FOOLING THE PUBLIC.

Success at the Genoa conference would hasten rehabilitation of Europe and members of the Republican party in this country cannot get the public to believe it is accomplishing things only of a political nature.

The conference involves many of the most important issues confronting Europe at this time, and it is absurd to say that nothing good may be expected. Because President Harding failed to send an official representative from the United States isn't any indication the conference will not succeed.

In other words indifference of this country will cause the allies to strive more than ever to accomplish the mission before them. Woodrow Wilson sees something good in the meeting, and it's a safe bet his vision isn't so warped by selfishness and personal interest that he can't fathom the real depth of the conference's activities.

The economic conference is waiting patiently for Russia to decide what is best for her, and in doing so had won the admiration of the clear minded people of this country. The conference met for the purposes of relieving the ills of Europe and by settling those of Russia a big start will have been made in this direction.

JEOPARDIZING PUBLIC SAFETY.

We regret to learn of the erection of a livery stable on Evans street, between the Evans street school and the Turnage residence, as this is no section of town for such an enterprise. In fact the laws of sanitation should be most carefully observed in a school district, and they cannot be with a livery stable within a stone's throw of the school.

The question of sanitation is not the only one involved, however, as the lives of the several hundred small school children will be constantly in danger with horses in such close proximity. There is always a number of horses and vehicles going and coming from a livery stable, and who can tell what time one will break away, dash through the school yard and either kill or injure one or more children.

Another thing to consider is the importance of more desirable enterprises in this part of town. It is one of the principal business and residential sections, and every influence should be used in the erection of buildings suitable to the section. A livery stable is the last thing in the world to consider, and it is to be hoped the lives of the small children attending Evans street school will be taken in consideration before further action is taken.

Settle Replies to Lady Voter.

My conception of the duty of a sheriff is for him to live up to the oath he takes when he holds in his hand the Sacred Book which contains the teachings of the Man of Galilee. When he has done this his task is complete, so far as the whiskey traffic is concerned. I respectfully request all the ladies to investigate each candidate thoroughly and vote for the one in whom they place the most confidence. As to my character will state the past fifteen years of my life have been spent serving state and National banks as cashier. I have worked in three banks in Pitt county: bank of Grifton, First National Bank, Ayden, and the Bank of Ayden. Ask any officer of either bank as to my character and ability and if I do not measure up, then turn me down.

I am identified with no faction and no ring, have formed no "entangling alliance," but am making this race solely on merit and will appreciate your support. The report has been circulated that I am opposed to women holding positions in our offices. Nothing could be further from the truth. As a matter of fact, a most estimable lady has already consented to accept a position under me in the event I am elected sheriff. She will have her duties to perform and I mine. To the opposition I would say: "Boys, don't misquote me. Fight it out on the level. Don't hit below the belt. We are in the stretch and it's the finish that counts."

THE FOLLOWING LETTER WAS ADDRESSED TO THE BUSINESS MEN OF HOPKINSVILLE, KY. AND IS APPLICABLE TO OUR OWN SECTION; THEREFORE IT IS REPRODUCED IN FULL:

Hopkinsville, Ky.,
May 4th, 1922.

"Dear Sirs:—

"Although I have already outlived my allotted time and nothing that you can do one way or another will have any effect on the short time I have left, but for the love I have for the old town and my fellow man I want to give you the benefit of my sixty-five years experience in the tobacco business. Read it, then damn it or take it as you see fit. But, what I want to know is, are you business people going to stand by and let a lawyer from California and a professional organizer from the state of Washington come into this community and gather around them a few LITTLE men who are looking for BIG jobs? Destroy all the effort, time and money that has been spent for many years in making Hopkinsville the largest Tobacco Market in the world, and drive away from it two-thirds of the industry that has made it the best town in the country.

"Fifteen years ago when your town lay in ashes and riddled with bullets and your business all gone, I opened up a Loose Leaf Floor, raised over my door the American Flag and said to farmers bring your tobacco to Hopkinsville, and you will have a market. What was the result? A few brave but uneasy farmers began bringing in their tobacco, most of them traveling at night, and many of them with shot guns, and rifle for protection. As time went on more Loose Leaf Floors opened until now there are eight and those few straggling loads of tobacco have grown into a great procession, coming from all directions.

"As the Loose Leaf Floors grew and prospered just so did the town, and I want to say right here that the Loose Leaf Floors of Hopkinsville have done more towards making your town what it is today than all other enterprises in it combined. Yet, your Chamber of Commerce got together a little handful of men and endorsed the Sapiro plan of co-operative marketing, designed to tear down this great industry that has made your town what it is, and demands of these Loose Leaf Floor Men to quit business, sign over to the Association their property which means a life time work to them, without one dollar in money or even retaining a lien on their property. Just say here is my property, value it at what you see fit and give me some stock for it in an organization that has nothing behind it but a few Spellbinders' Speeches.

"Why all this upheaval? Do you think that any organization in the world can overcome the law of supply and demand? That law is just as inevitable as the law of gravity and when you go against it you WILL Fall. They talk of stabilizing price' please send me a sample of a commodity that you either buy or sell that has a staple price year after year. "In my days I have seen many organizations come and go; none of them ever made a success. This same kind of method for pooling tobacco, is losing its identity, and every man sharing alike, according to grade was tried out in the Stemming District several years ago and failed like all the rest.

"I have either been buying or selling tobacco for sixty-five years and in all my experience I have never seen any way as fair, as economical or as satisfactory to the grower as the Loose Leaf Floor method and when you break up this method you are going to set the hands of the clock back twenty five years.

"It is time for thinking men to talk. By your silence you are letting the men put over a proposition that nobody wants, not even the farmer himself, just to get a big commission for themselves, that is going to bankrupt the town and country, divide neighbors and play hell in general.

"Respectfully yours"

May 13th, 1922

Dear Friends:—

As per your request for a general outline of the operations of the tobacco pool in Kentucky herewith is the opinion of one, who, by operating a ware house next door to the co-operative marketing associations warehouse headquarters in the heart of the strongest pool belt in Kentucky, had under close observation the actions and sayings of the farmers.

In signing up the farmers in Kentucky for the pool they were made to believe that their tobacco would be graded in at a 30c average and that fifty to sixty per cent of this amount would be advanced as initial payment. Furthermore, they were told that if they did not sign the pool contract they would have no place in Kentucky to sell their tobacco.

Contrary to their statement, the pool authorities have to this time advanced only between seven and eight cents per pound initial payment. This representing the first payment on the cream of the Burley Tobacco that was pooled. For the past two months the pool has promised another payment to the farmers but up to this writing, this payment has not been made.

I sold a great many divided crops; that is, half of the crop was pooled and half marketed. The pool advanced from six to eight cents first payment on the half that was pooled, while the half that was sold on the auction market brought from twenty-two to twenty-eight cents around.

This sort of arrangement has brought dissatisfaction to the farmer, merchant, banker, and business man. It is pictured in the fact that there have been more farm lands and personal property signed over to wives and more crops being managed by wives and minor sons for the coming year in this particular community than ever before in any one year in the whole of the state of Kentucky. If there were a new canvass for signers of the pool contract, I am confident there would not be 25 percent of the present members of the pool who would re-sign.

I am bringing this information at the solicitation of my farmer friends, both in and out of the Eastern Carolina pool. It is fair and unbiased and I leave this with you for you to digest "As you like it"

Signed,
NAT B. SMITH

RICH MEN CONTROL HOUSE COMMITTEE LEADERS DECLARE

Eleven Millionaires Members of Committee on Ways and Means

(By International News).
Washington.—The House of Representatives—long associated in the popular mind with shirt-sleeve democracy and "main street" simplicity—has developed a formidable rival to the famous "millionaires' club" of the Senate.

When young Ogden Mills, soon of the multi-millionaire, blue blood New York family of that name, became a member recently of the powerful house ways and means committee he made the eleventh Republican on it with well-filled pockets.

The eleven Republicans more than enough to control the committee for all practical purposes—are multi-millionaires, or those whose private fortunes approach the million mark.

Their combined influence is enough to direct the moulding of important tariff, tax and similar legislation which the committee is called upon to originate and report to the house.

The list of them follows:

Joseph W. Fordney, of Michigan, chairman, multi-millionaire lumberman.

Nicholas Longworth of Ohio, millionaire by inheritance, with large banking and manufacturing interests.

Allen Towner Treadway, of Massachusetts, millionaire hotel man.

Ira C. Copley, of Illinois, multi-millionaire owner of public utility corporations and of coal mines.

Luther W. Mott, of New York, millionaire banker and former president of the New York Bankers' Association.

Isaac Bacharach, of New Jersey, millionaire bankers, lumberman and broker.

Charles B. Timberlake, of Colorado, millionaire banker, farmer and stock raiser.

George M. Bowers, of West Virginia, millionaire banker, with banking connections with the coal interests of his State.

Henry W. Watson, of Pennsylvania, wealthy retired manufacturer.

Thomas A. Chandler, of Oklahoma, millionaire oil magnate.

Ogden Mills, multi-millionaire railroad director and corporation lawyer and director.

betterment of the farmer's interest. I believe Co-operative Marketing is such a movement.

County Agent.

WHAT IT MEANS TO BE A MEMBER OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

To be a member of the Woman's club is to have the privilege of meeting with and working in the biggest organization of women in our town. The club stands for civic improvement, promotion of public health, educational advancement and all measures that tend toward the betterment of the community in which we live. Through the organized effort of our women in the club, each member is able to make effective in the community as a whole, those ideals she is working out in her home. Through it every woman in the town can aid in creating and establishing a public sentiment that demands the best town ordinances and officers to enforce them.

Not only does its membership imply influence and work, but also many privileges. Within its organization each woman comes to know other women of the town and enjoys meeting with them in a social way. In the local meetings and in the bigger district and state meetings, a club member gets an inspiration for bigger things. In the Forum of public news questions and answers given the club by the Review of Reviews, its members are acquainted with the important topics of the world.

Then too, the children of the club members are entitled to all of the entertainment in the Fine Arts department. They will have a treat in the services of the young woman employed in this department for the summer weeks. Then for their sakes it means a great deal to be a member of the Woman's club.

Your Attention is Respectfully Called To The Following Endorsements

From Superior Court Judge William M. Bond.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is to say that Hon. Jesse H. Davis was appointed solicitor while I was holding courts in the Fifth Judicial District; that I found him to be a capable lawyer, a vigorous prosecuting officer for the state, a young man of the highest integrity and character, and one of the brainiest young men in Eastern Carolina.

WILLIAM M. BOND.

From Superior Court Judge C. C. Lyon.

Kinston, N. C., April 10, 1922.

Hon. Jesse H. Davis,
New Bern, N. C.,
My Dear Sir:

It affords me pleasure to testify to your efficiency as an officer of the law.

J. PAUL FRIZELLE.

From Superior Court Judge E. H. Cranmer.

Southport, N. C., May 6, 1922.

My Dear Davis:

I shall be away from your District for a while, having exchanged courts with Judge Daniels. The exchange will give me a few days at home.

Having presided over the courts of your District in four of the six counties, and observed your conduct in your office as Solicitor of the Fifth Judicial District, it is due you that I tell you that your work in all the courts was efficient and faithful and you prosecuted for the State vigorously, but fairly. You did not hesitate to recommend mercy, when conditions justified, nor to refuse to proceed when the interest of the public did not indicate prosecution.

I hope you are well, and that this good old world is using you finely. With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

E. H. CRANMER.

GORMAN PRESENTS FACTS REGARDING MARKETING ISSUE

(Continued from page one) utmost to make it a 100 per cent thereby doubly assuring his success. I would also like to ask him that if he had been employed to handle a business which he had thoroughly investigated and knew could be made a success, if he would sit idle when the same was being attacked by opponents who were seeking to disorganize and demoralize this same business?

He tells you to wait and see the auction sales before pooling when he should know full well that the success of the association depends upon having the bulk of not all of the crop signed up, and further more that every pound sold on the auction floor weakens the strength of the association just so much.

The Kentucky Co-operative Marketing association has proven itself a success although the same propaganda was used there by its opponents as is now being used here. What the farmers of Kentucky have done, the farmers of North Carolina can and will do.

We the tobacco people have tried the auction system and have seen its evils. Unless the farmer wishes to keep himself and family impoverished, making a profit on his tobacco only about three out of five years as he has under the auction system, he will not be slow in joining the Co-operative Marketing association.

The success of the association, I believe is assured eventually and that the same can be made a grand success this year if the tobacco farmers will stick together.

What would be future for his tobacco if he should sell at auction and get a good price this year, at the expense of his fellow men who have signed up? If the present tobacco acreage yields a normal crop and pays the planter a profit, he will surely have the Co-operative Marketing association to thank for said profit whether he sells at auction or through the association, for the acreage is much larger than last year and a large crop under the auction system in the past has always meant small prices.

I judge this Greenville Business Man believes in Insurance? Co-operation is Mutual Insurance, and when the farmer joins the Co-operative Marketing association he insures himself of a sure profit on his labor each and every year.

HER RECOVERY IS TALKED OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Richmond Woman Had Been In Bed Three Months From Five Pounds and Hasn't A Trace of Old Troubles Left. Rheumatism—Gains Thirty

"From the bottom of my heart I can recommend Tanlac as it is entirely responsible for my present splendid health," states Mrs. Cora Hudgens 422 N. Tenth St., Richmond, Va.

"When I began taking Tanlac which was four years ago I had been in bed for three months with rheumatism so bad that even the weight of the bed clothes hurt me and I couldn't turn over without help. Before that I had been waiting away for months from stomach trouble. Even treatment in a hospital failed to help me and I had fallen off to a mere shadow weighing only seventy five pounds. Nobody thought there was a chance for me to last much longer.

"My condition was truly desperate when I began taking Tanlac but to everybody's amazement I was able to get up out of bed and walk about the house within ten days. Four bottles of the medicine built me up to 110 pounds and from that day to this I have been in splendid health and

HEALTH And Where to Find It

Tuesday Health Talk No. 24 (By J. B. Ball D. C.)

What happened yesterday is forgotten in what happened today. Yesterday the tallow can dle and kerosene lamp were used. Yesterday the electric light is used. Yesterday we rode in horse carts. Today we ride in automobiles and airships. Yesterday the surgeon's knife was supposed to be the only remedy in certain diseases. Today Chiropactic adjusts the CAUSE of the same diseases and there is no cutting. Yesterday has given place to today. The Drugless Health Science of Chiropactic

UNCLE BEN SAYS: "The more I hear about these beauty parlors, Navy, the more I feel that it is a skin game."

HEALTH FOLLOWS CHIROPRACTIC CORRECTS PRESSURE ON SPINAL NERVES IN DISEASES OF THE FOLLOWING ORGANS: HEAD, EYES, EARS, NOSE, THROAT, ARMS, HEART, LUNGS, LIVER, STOMACH, PANCREAS, SPLEEN, KIDNEYS, BOWELS, APPENDIX, BLADDER, LOWER LIMBS. THE LOWER NERVE UNDER THE MAGNIFYING GLASS IS PINCHED BY A MISALIGNED JOINT. PINCHED NERVES CANNOT TRANSMIT HEALTHFUL IMPULSES. CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTING RE- MOVES THE PRESSURE. THE UPPER NERVE IS FREE AS NATURE INTENDS.

is fast taking the place of medicine and surgery. It adjusts the CAUSE and the effect disappears. If you know very little about this great boon to humanity it is high time you knew more. If you have spent much money and time in an endeavor to find relief from some disease which is worrying you, and have found no relief, we would advise you to try Chiropactic. This science is not a cureall. The Chiropactor is not a miracle worker. It is a proven fact, however, that thousands of suffering men and women have found relief in Chiropactic when all other methods have failed. It's surely worth a trial. See your Chiropactor now, and it is very possible that you will get such results as will make you wish you had tried this wonderful Science long ago. Consultation and Spinal Analysis Free.
