NEEDLEMAN TRIAL WILL BEGIN ON MONDAY MORNING

Bill of Indictment Will Also Be Presented Against Score of Others Charging Them With Conspiracy and Jail Breaking

Williamston, N. C., May 2.—Martin County Superior Court will convene in extraordinary session here Monday for the trial of cases involving penalties ranging from two years in the State's Prison to death by electrocution. The special term, called by Governor A. W. McLean, who commission Judge N. A. Sinclair to preside, grew out of the alleged attack on a 17-year-old white girl by Joseph Needleman, tobacco salesman from Kinston, and the consequent mutilation of Needleman by a masked mob that took him from the Martin county jail in Williamston on the morning of Sunday, March 29.

Needleman stands charged with a capital offense. Solicitor Dinnell Gilliam will present a bill of indictment against him to the grand jury. Against more than a score of others he will present bills charging them with conspiracy and breaking jail, in violation of Section 4376 of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina; and against probably seven of these, he said, he will present bills of indictment charging them with having mutilated Needleman following his forcible extraction from the jail here.

The statute provides for a fine of $500 or imprisonment of from 2 to 15 years in the State's Prison for any person convicted of conspiracy and breaking jail. Mutilation calls for a prison sentence of from 5 to 60 years.

Those against whom the Solicitor will send bills to the grand jury charging violation of Section 4386 of the Consolidated Statutes are: Henry D. Griffin, Julian Bullock, Roy Gray, Edgar Johnson, Grady Smith, Sparrow, Robertson, James Gray, Louis Johnson, all of Robersonville; F. W. Sparrow, Sr., F. W. Sparrow, Jr., Claro Heath, all of Kinston; L. A. Croom, Tom Harrell, and Lester Edmundson, of Gold Point, Martin county; E. C. Stone, John Gurkin, John Smithwick, John Gray Corey, Tom Lilly, James H. Coltrane, Clarence Gurkin, Allen Griffin, Ben Lilly, Alfred Griffin, Albert Gurkin, and John A. Gurkin, all of Griffin township Martin county.

"Indictments charging violation of Section 4376 of the Consolidated Statutes—conspiracy and breaking jail—will be sent against all of the above named parties," said Solicitor Gilliam. He added that in addition to these, indictments charging mutilation would be sent in "against probably seven of them." He said it had not been determined definitely just which of these parties would be charged with mutilation, "but," he continued, "it is safe to say that this number will not be under seven."

Joseph Needleman, charged with attacking a 17-year-old white girl, was arrested on March 27 and placed in jail in Williamston, to await a hearing when the young woman he is charged with having attacked should be able to attend. On Sunday, March 29, he was taken from jail by a band of masked men who, according to the story he told following the incident, gave him three options: death by shooting, hanging or mutilation. He is quoted as having said he chose the last named punishment. Whereupon, the alleged offense was committed.

Following this, Needleman was taken to a hospital at Washington, N. C., where his condition for a time seemed extremely serious resultant death seeming not at all improbable. However, he did not die as the result of his wounds.

The crime and its consequent results, including the alleged mutilation of Needleman caused considerable feeling in Martin county. Some expressed the opinion that Sheriff Thad Roberson, who had served eight years, should resign. Others pointed out that the sheriff had, two years prior to that, held at bay a mob of 50 men who were trying to take a prisoner from the Martin county jail.

REV. L. R. O'BRIAN ACCEPTS CALL TO LOCAL CHURCH

Will Take Up His Duties With the Immanuel Baptist Church On June 1

The Immanuel Baptist Church, which has been without a pastor since the resignation of Dr. Plemons in December 1924, has recently called as its pastor Rev. L. R. O'Brian of Mount Olive. Mr. O'Brian will come to Greenville and take up his work June 1. The church is fortunate in securing the services of such an able man. Mr. O'Brian has been remarkably successful in his work heretofore, and it is predicted that he will carry the work forward in a most satisfactory manner here at Greenville. The church at Mount Olive would not, at first, accept his resignation, and it was only after he insisted that he felt specially called to the Greenville church that the Mount Olive congregation agreed to release him.

Vanderbilt's Yacht Damaged by Fire

Marseilles, France, May 2.—Fire broke out today in the Yacht Aelan, owned by General Cornelius Vanderbilt, of New York, and caused considerable damage, necessitating several weeks for repair.

Governor McLean, to whose attention the condition existing here was officially called, ordered a special term of the Superior Court of Martin county to convene on Monday, May 4. This term was called not only for the trial of Needleman, but also in order that the results of the investigation into his mutilation might be officially reported to the grand jury and indictments presented, if necessary.

Special deputy sheriffs and others immediately began an investigation. Arrests followed. The young woman against whom Needleman committed the crime laid to his charge married a young man shortly after the alleged mutilation of Needleman.

Needleman, a resident of Kinston, is said to have gone there from Philadelphia about two years ago. He was a tobacco salesman at the time of the alleged offense which, it is charged, was committed during an automobile ride. Needleman is alleged to have threatened the young woman's life.

During his confinement in the Washington hospital to which he was taken, Needleman was under guard to prevent his escape. He made no move toward that end, however, being in a very weakened condition.

NEGRO CHARGED ATTACKING GIRL IS LODGED IN PRISON

Temple Peace, According to Information, Has Confessed to Crime Committed in Moore County

Raleigh, May 2.—Temple Peace, a negro of Moore county, was lodged in state prison here today on a charge of attacking a white girl near Carthage about two weeks ago. State prison authorities said they were informed that the negro had confessed to the crime. Two other negroes are in state prison as suspects in the case, which aroused a great deal of excitement in Moore county, where at one time mob violence was feared. Governor McLean named a date of a special court to try the two negroes, but in the face of the confession of Peace, and the absence of the Governor from the city today, it was not known the course that would be pursued. It was believed however, that Peace would face trial at the same special term.

Also at Barwell are two Percheron horses presented to the late Sir Francis Barker by M. Clemenceau, who himself owns one of the finest Percherons in France.

NORTH ATLANTIC HAS TAKEN HEAVY TOLL SINCE THURS.

Five Lives, Two Steamers and One Three Masted Schooner is Toll of Ocean in Last Three Days

Halifax, Nova Scotia, May 2.—The North Atlantic, heavily mantled with fog and lashed by driving easterly wind and rain, has taken toll of five lives, two steamers, and one three masted schooner since Thursday afternoon. The crew of one steamer, at the last report, was still in eminent danger.

The Nova Scotia schooner, Cape D'Or went down Thursday night three minutes after being rammed by the steamer Clackamas, of Sambro Light ship. Mrs. Margaret Wilkie, wife of the captain, and four of the crew went down. Captain Wilkie and two other men were rescued.

Two steamers, the Azon, ashore off Southern Cape Breton Coast, and the Moldegard, a Norwegian boat went ashore off Penant Point, and were expected to be total losses. According to the last reports last night, the men aboard the Azon managed to reach shore in their boats, but the crew of the Moldegard was unable to do this, and seas were running too high to permit the Dominion government steamer, Stanley, to approach. Hopes were held out that rescue might be effected today.

Captain in Ralf McKenzie, of the fishing schooner, McKenzie, reported last night that about 85 miles South east of Liverpool Automatic Buoy, he had sighted what he believed to be a schooner of about 300 tons bottom up, and drifting. This is believed to be the wreckage of the Cape D'Or, as no other vessels have been reported lost.

Tobacco Grading Conference Be Held Raleigh May 12

Raleigh, May 2.—Standardization of grades for flue cured tobacco will be the subject of a conference to be held in the State Agricultural Building at Raleigh, May 12.

The conference was announced by James P. Brown, in charge of the administration of the United States Warehouse Act in Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina. It will be conducted by Lloyd S. Tenny, H. S. Yohc, F. B. Wilkinson and J. V. Morrow, of Washington.

"This is something new," said Mr. Brown when he made the announcement. "There will be a similar conference held in Richmond on May 11. The Raleigh conference will follow the next day, May 12. Each of these will commence at 10 a. m. and will be attended by leading warehouse men.

"I might state," continued Mr. Brown, "that while the Department of Agriculture of the United States Government has worked out permissive grades for twenty of the leading types of tobacco covering approximately eighty per cent of the American production, and while these grades have been in actual use by various tobacco associations, these will be the first public hearings to be held by the Department on grades. As a result of these hearings, the Department will publish for the first time tentative standard grades for the four types of flue cured tobacco.

"This information," continued Mr. Brown, "should be of interest to all tobacco producers, dealers and manufacturers as well as to bankers and warehouse men. It will be of especial interest to the men connected with the various phases of the tobacco industry in the following States in which these types are grown: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida.

NAVAL SEA PLANE P. N. 9 IS NOW ON NON STOP FLIGHT

Demonstrating the Capability of the Great Plane to Make Trip From Washington Coast to Honolulu This Summer

Philadelphia, May 2.—After having flown without a stop for 28 hours and 36 minutes, the Naval sea plane, O. N. 9 landed on the Navy Yards at 2:58 p. m. today.

Philadelphia, May 2.—With 24 hours of continuous flight recorded, the Naval Sea Plane P. N. 9 was still sweeping up and down a forty mile course above the Delaware River today. The engine was droning in perfect harmony as it propelled the big ship through the air at 80 miles an hour. Early in the day a message was dropped as the plane soared over the Navy Yard, stating that 240 gallons of gasoline were still in the tank, and that everything aboard was running smoothly. "The object of the non stop flight is to demonstrate the capability of the great plane to make the long trip from the Washington Coast to Honolulu this summer.

Start was made yesterday at 10:22 a. m. with 1,300 gallons of gasoline and 150 gallons of oil, and a crew of four men. Already the craft has shattered the non stop seaplane record of 14 hours, 53 minutes, 42 seconds, made in Washington in July 1924.

MATCH MAKERS TO THE WORLD

Jonkoping, Sweden.—A match a day for every man, woman and child in the world is now being turned out by the factories owned or controlled by the Swedish Match Corporation, according to a report issued here.

The average output now amounts to 30,000 matches a second, or 10,000,000,000 boxes a year. If placed in a single pile the match boxes made in eight months would reach from the earth to the moon, it is alleged.

Practically all the raw materials used for match making in Sweden have to be imported; the aspen wood comes chiefly from Russia.

NATIONAL BALLOON ELIMINATION RACE UNDERWAY TODAY

Left Rosecrans Field Late Yesterday to Contest for Honor of Representing U. S. in International Balloon Race

St. Joseph, Mo., May 2.—Day light saw five balloons in the National Elimination race headed south eastward today probably over south of south eastern Missouri. National Aeronautic Association Officials anxiously await word from the big bags that left Rosecrans field here late yesterday to contest for honor of representing the United States in the Inter-National Balloon Races.

Each pilot was to drop a message today telling of his position, speed, and experiences. The messages are to be delivered to N. A. A. officials here, and to the Associated Press. The bags were taking off heading towards the south east, and the Weather Bureau predicted they would follow a coast until in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., where they would head eastward with the wind toward the Atlantic Coast. The last report from the balloons last night was that three of them had passed over Liberty, Mo., and another over Kansas City.

St. Joseph, Missouri, May 2.—Disqualification of Captain Henry E. Honeywell and Herbert V. Thaden, as contestants in the National Elimination Balloon Race because of their failure to take gas with other balloons, is possible, it was learned here this afternoon.

Major Arthur B. Lambert, referee, had left town and could not be reached for a statement but it was said that the local contest committee's decision in the matter would have to be approved or rejected by Major Lambert.

When Honeywell and Thaden were not ready to start with other balloons late yesterday, officers of the race wired Russell B. Shaw, Chairman of the Contest Committee. Mr. Shaw replied to them that the referee had the power to make decision.

Honeywell piloting the St. Joseph, and Thaden, in charge of the Detroit, refused to inflate their balloons with the others yesterday because of wind. As a result, according to officers, they gained about an hour's advantage in fresh gas over the other entries. Honeywell was nearly an hour late in starting, and Thaden was more than an hour late.

MR. DAWES ENCOUNTERS TWO OBJECTIONS

Before Mr. Dawes changes the Senate's it is evident that he will have to convince not only the irregulars but some of the regulars as well, and some of the regulars on the Republican side of the Senate, that his proposed reforms lead in the right direction. A week ago at Boston, when Mr. Dawes had Senator Butler at the table with him, and an audience to applaud a spirited attack upon the Senate rules, he was able to bring Mr. Butler to his feet and enroll him as a volunteer. Since that time, however, the Dawes proposal for a new cloture rule has been attacked by two republicans not ranked as rebels, Mr. Fees of Ohio and Mr. Moses of New Hampshire.

Mr. Fees objects that cloture rule as drastic as the rule which Mr. Dawes apparently desires will have as its chief result the speeding up of the whole lawmaking process. It will be easier than ever to "pass a law," and Mr. Fees believes that the country is already "suffering from a lawmaking mania." Laws would come through under a strict cloture rule without as much second-thought and third-thought as they now receive. "As a matter of fact," Mr. Fees believes, "we want to put a stop to the increase in laws."

So thinks Mr. Fees. Meantime, Mr. Moses objects that a Dawes cloture rule would give the majority too absolute a power in the Senate, for the reason that the majority might not always be from his point of view or his party's point of view, the right majority. "Had we been operating in the Senate under cloture," Mr. Moses says, "we would have had free silver in 1893, ship purchase in 1925," etc.

There can be no question but that a thorough-going cloture rule would operate in the fashion which these two Senators describe. That is why a drastic change in rules is likely to be opposed not only by those minority Senators who use the present rules to filibuster but by those members of the majority who either fear the consequences of making it oversimple to pass laws or else foresee a day when their own majority is gone and a cloture rule hits back at them.—N. Y. World.

The building will be one hundred feet long and twenty-five feet wide and in it nothing will be grown but roses. Dr. Spence stated this morning that he had secured the services of a "man from Missouri" to plan the building and look after erection of same, and that "he will show" the people of this city that Mrs. Spence can grow just as pretty roses as any florist in this section of the state. The "Rose House" will be a beautiful addition to the already splendidly equipped green houses and promises to be one of the most attractive features of the Greenville Floral Company.

HERBERT WHITE LEE ENTERTAINS IN HONOR OF SECOND BIRTHDAY

Upon arrival the guests were given a cordial welcome by the little host and invited into the library where several games were enjoyed. The birthday cake with its two candles was arranged on a beautifully decorated table in the dining room. Herbert White was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and useful presents. He proved a charming little host and the guests wished for him many happy returns of the day.

GRANDMOTHER AT 66 STILL IN FRONT RANK OF WOMEN GOLFERS

Philadelphia. — A silver-haired grandmother who qualified for the first women's national golf championship held in the United States in 1895 still must be reckoned among the first 32 women golfers of this country. Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, of the Huntingdon Valley Country Club holds no national title, nor has she ever held one, but her consistently steady play over a span of 30 years is without a parallel in golf or perhaps in any other sport. In that time Mrs. Fox has won sectional and local championships many times, and is still capable of winning them.

It was at the Meadow Brook Club, Reading, Mass., in 1895 that Mrs. Fox first qualified for the national championship. That was a comparatively easy achievement then for there were only 100 or 200 women golfers in the country. In subsequent years, however, when the number of players increased to thousands, Mrs. Fox continued to qualify. Since 1895 she has failed only four times, in 1911-12, '23 and '24, to gain admission to the select

MISSES CANNADY, WORTHINGTON AND SYLLIVANT ENTERTAIN

Falkland, N. C., May 1.—A most enjoyable social event took place at Falkland last evening when Misses Cannady, Worthington, and Syllivant entertained a number of their friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marslander with students of the High School as honor guests. The living room and dining room were decorated with roses and snapdragons in a color scheme of pink and white. Progressive Hearts was played, with score cards in heart shape and decorated with hand-painted roses serving in a most attractive manner to carry out the "Hearts and Flowers" idea appropriate to a May-time party. Miss Ida Mae Gregory was presented with a diminutive paper parasol as a prize for top score. During the evening Misses Bertollet and Mence, of the East Carolina Teachers' College, played a number of piano duets that were a happy addition to the general enjoyment of the guests. A pink and white ice course proved a fitting conclusion to this delightful party.

Blank forms of proposal and specifications may be obtained from the engineer or at the office of the City Clerk. A certified check for at least two (2) per cent of the bid must accompany the bid.

32. In 1923 she suffered an injury just before the championship.

Mrs. Fox has been national finalist once and semi-finalist twice. She penetrated to the final round at the Philadelphia Country Club in 1899, losing to Miss Ruth Underhill, 2 and 1, after a spirited struggle. She reached the penultimate round in 1908 and 1909.

Mrs. Fox won the Philadelphia championship five times, 1902, 1908, 1910, 1911 and 1917. Two years ago in a tournament that attracted the country's leading stars to Belleair Heights, Fla., where Mrs. Fox spends her winters, she astounded the golfing world by defeating Miss Glenn Collett, who was then the seemingly invincible national champion. Miss Collett, young and strong, was at the pinnacle of her ability and fame. Mrs. Fox was just a veteran, one who had qualified for the national championship before her youthful opponent was born, yet she triumphed fairly and incontrovertibly.

Although 50 years of age, Mrs. Fox does not look it. She is rather stately and robust. Her hair is gleaming white and no tournament of note is complete without her. She is extremely popular and her counsel is eagerly sought by young players.

MISSES ERNESTINE FORBES, CHRISTINE JOHNSON AND MRS. J. L. SAVAGE ENTERTAIN

A most delightful party was given at the home of Mrs. J. L. Savage Thursday evening in honor of the bride-elect, Miss Wilda Shambart. The hostesses for the occasion were Misses Ernestine Forbes, Christine Johnson and Mrs. J. L. Savage. The guests were cordially received at the door by Mrs. Savage. They were then invited into the dining room where tea was served by Misses Forbes and Johnson. The entertainment of the evening consisted of several delightful contests. The first contest was extremely interesting. It was called "the Tangled Letters Contest" composed of a number of tangled words under the head "Things Wilda Has to Look For." The interest did not end when the words were untangled for when fixed the letters favored to form such words as "heartaches," "sighs," et. The winner of this contest was Miss Virginia Suther. The prize, a box of delicious kisses.

After playing the Magic Circle for a while the only serious number for the evening was announced. This proved to be an original oratorical contest. Miss Gussie Williams very seriously and sedately gave a most humorous talk on "How to be Happy, Though Married." This brought forth from the crowd peals of laughter. "How to make a Maltse Cross" was the subject of the next oration which was most charmingly delivered by Miss Helen Tomlinson. Miss Virginia Suther displayed her poetical talent as well as her oratorical ability with a most original poem on "How to Train a Husband."

Music always adds its charms to the occasion. This time the charm was added by Misses Eupha McKenzie and Anne Parker, who with ukulele accompaniment, beautifully sang "Sweet Ivory Soap." This song brought forth more merriment from the crowd than any other number of the evening. The guests were now deeply interested for Miss Wilda Shambart was asked to tell how an engaged girl should act. Some very good advice was given by Miss Shambart, along the line, with emphasis on the "should."

After much meditation the Judges awarded the first prize an attractive gown, given to Miss Gussie Williams. The trophy prize was awarded to Miss Shambart. This prize was unannounced, however, for it was a lovely silver creamer of very dainty design. The rest of the program consisted of a Floral Wedding and Words of Advice to the Bride.

Those enjoying the hospitality of the evening were the guests of honor and Misses Eva Keeter, Eupha McKenzie, Sallie Rowell, Vera Ayers, Marie Reid, Lillian Purvis, Helen Tomlinson, Dorothy Chamberlain, Virginia Suther, Evelyn Smith, Gussie Williams, Mary Willis, Lillian Cartwright.

Y. P. S. L. NEWS.

Don't Forget the Entertainment We Are Going to Have at an Early Date.

On April 19th the league held a very unusual but enjoyable meeting. When we assembled together we found out that we did not have our parts up like they should be. So rather than having them half done we used the same subject the next Sunday. Each person present was asked to contribute something in the way of a song, story or poem. A few of the children stood up and gave their poem, or story very well.

We opened our meeting with a hymn prayer and collect then after another hymn the minutes and roll were read. After which we had a very helpful business meeting. The following took part when called on: Charlotte Butler, a story, Pearl Laurens, a poem and story; Louis and Ed Skinner, a poem; and also a story by Cotton Skinner. We were also glad to have Miss Elizabeth Skinner as a member, and a visitor, Mary Phelps. After singing one other hymn and the motto we closed with a prayer for our beloved Rector who is taking treatment in a Baltimore hospital.

Lady Says Her Back "Hurt Night and Day"—Least Noise Upset Her. Better After Taking Cardui.

Winfield, Texas.—"My back hurt night and day," says Mrs. C. L. Eason, of R. F. D. 1, this place. "I ached and ached until I could hardly go. I felt weak and did not feel like doing anything. My work was a great burden to me. I just hated to do up the dishes, even. I was no-account and extremely nervous. "My mother had taken Cardui and she thought it would do me good, so she told me to take it. My husband got me a bottle and I began on it. I began to improve at once. It was such a help that I continued it until after the baby's birth. "I took eight bottles and I can certainly say that it helped me. It is a fine tonic. It built me up and seemed to strengthen me. I grew less nervous and began to sleep better. "I can certainly recommend Cardui to expectant mothers, for to me it was a wonderful help. ... In every way I felt better after taking it and I think it is a splendid medicine." Cardui is purely vegetable, and contains no harmful drugs. For sale everywhere. NC-162

AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN, ARTHUR HADLEY, MARIE PREVOST & GOV. DONAHY

Additional guards have been assigned to protect Foreign Secretary Austen Chamberlain, following discovery of a Communist plot against his life. President Emeritus Arthur T. Hadley, of Yale University, speaking on "Law Enforcement" at New Haven, Conn., declared the dry laws are an infringement on personal liberty, dangerous to democracy. Marie Prevost, motion picture actress, was among thirty-five persons injured in the wreck of a Santa Fe train near San Diego, Cal. Declaring religious teaching in the homes, Sunday schools and churches is much preferable to compulsory teaching of religion by the State, Governor Donahy, of Ohio, vetoed a bill providing for compulsory Bible reading.

drama, operetta or otherwise. "The Merry Widow" early in the season started the ball rolling, so far as revivals were concerned, and within a few weeks was being whistled over all the town, just as it was 16 years ago when brought here from Vienna. Then came "The Dollar Princess," which had its first performance here in 1909 when it ran for 428 nights.

"Sumurun," which, to some extent, set the fashion which in after years brought forth the Eastern pageantry and magnificence of such productions as "Chu Chin Chow," was another revival, this having its premiere here some 14 years ago. "Chu Chin Chow" is perhaps the most successful play ever produced in London, having run continually at His Majesty's Theatre for more than five years, and since has been playing the provinces and the London suburbs without a let up. "Charley's Aunt" and "It Pays to Advertise" are other successes which still hold the stage in the suburbs and boroughs of the English metropolis.

But of the dives into the past to revive old favorites, by far the most successful play this season has been "The Ware Case," which drew splendid houses for months. A list of the others includes "Old Heidelberg," "A Kiss for Cinderella" and "The Thief." And then too, there is Sheridan's "The Rivals," which was first produced in London at the Covent Garden Theatre in 1775.

As a whole London appears to take kindly to all the revivals of other years, for a short time at least.

LONDON PRODUCERS DRAW PROFITS FROM POPULAR OLD PLAYS

London — Revivals in the theatrical world of London came in with a rush early this spring and held the stages of various houses until they were pushed into the discard late in the season, when a number of brand new plays appeared from the other side of the Atlantic. In the eyes of theatrical managers, revivals have been the order of the day for some months for a number of reasons. There has been no dearth of new plays, operettas and other pieces to select from, aver the managers, but in bringing old favorites to life again it has been found that they can always be counted upon to take fairly well with the theatre-going public, and in addition save little fortunes so far as royalties are concerned. They also spare the managers' pocketbooks in many, many other ways.

Revivals this year, in one case a manager went back 150 years for his material, might be called stop-gap pieces and were brought out to fill certain houses which otherwise would stand idle while new pieces were in the course of preparation. It is nearly always safer to put on a favorite of some years ago, say the London managers, especially where a play is desired for a short run, than it is to attempt to introduce a new piece, pan make the country a ripe field for

JAPAN ENACTS DRASTIC ANTI-BOLSHEVIST LAW

Tokio.—The new law for the "bain tenance of public order and peace," popularly known as the anti-Bolshevist act, probably is the most drastic legislation of the kind in existence in times of peace. It was fought by the radical elements from the time of its inception. Tremendous mass meetings were held by the laborites under heavy police guard and clashes between them were frequent, while the debate in the dit was turbulent to the point of disorderliness.

The law is admittedly a direct result of the recent Russo-Japanese agreement, and the government openly has declared it necessary to combat Red propaganda. It is felt that existing economic conditions in Japan make the country a ripe field for

TO THE VOTERS OF THE TOWN OF GREENVILLE.

One week from today (May 4th) you will have to make a choice for Mayor. Your present incumbent a young attorney with a good practice with 10 years experience has been honored by you for three terms.

The other Candidate J. J. Laughinghouse served one year as a Confederate soldier. After the war followed the passage of the 14 Amendment and the disfranchisement of thirty thousand of North Carolina's votes? The Carpet Baggers, deserters and traitors took charge and under their training made a hell of this South Land.

General Forest of Tennessee organized a Klan. It worked so well that it spread like wild fire through the entire South. I was the first to organize a Klan in the east in Beaufort county. We drove the Carpet Baggers out of the county, silenced the deserters, and traitors; and closed the Union leagues in thirty days. I moved into Pitt county in January 1869 and organized a Klan of 80 Ex-Confederates and duplicated what had been done in Beaufort.

We saved the civilization of our section and blazed the way for White Supremacy in the South, which began in 1870 and was perfected in 1876. The work of the Klan was the greatest boon to the South since Salvation was made free to the human race.
