SEARCH FOR BODIES OF LIEUT. G. SELBY AND STUDENT NURSE

Missing Parties Were Attached to Hospital of U. S. Naval Academy; Believed to Be Drowned

Annapolis, May 28.—Attaches of the United States Naval Academy dragged the Seven River throughout last night in an attempt to locate further trace of Lieutenant Gerald Selby, 36, of the Naval Academy Medical Corps, and Miss Lucille Merrill, 25, of Rockberry, Mass., a student nurse. Lieutenant Selby and the young woman embarked on the river in a canoe Tuesday night. Yesterday a canoe identified as theirs was floating bottom up and a coat picked up on the shore nearby contained letters and documents bearing the name of Selby. Persons living in the vicinity of the river bank yesterday reported hearing cries late Tuesday night.

Lieutenant Selby's home was in Atlanta, Ga. Both he and Miss Merrill were attached to the hospital here. Dr. William T. Merrill, father of the girl, is attached to the United States Veterans hospital No. 44 at Rockberry, Mass.

Mrs. Florence Selby, wife of Lieutenant Selby, had been visiting friends in Washington for several days when Lieutenant Selby and Miss Merrill's disappearance was discovered. She was in communication with the Naval Academy by telephone soon after the discovery was made and was reported nearly prostrated by shock and grief.

VETERAN EXPLORERS HALT ORGANIZATION OF RELIEF PARTIES

Opinion Held That the Amundsen Fliers Are In No Immediate Danger; Seven Days Have Passed Without Word From Expedition

New York, May 28.—Although almost seven days passed without word from the Amundsen-Ellsworth North Pole aerial expedition, plans for the organizing of relief parties in Norway and America have been halted on the advice of veteran explorers. The opinion is that the fliers are in no immediate danger.

Knude Rasmussen, the Danish explorer points to the possibility of Amundsen going to Fort Conger or Cape Columbia, in which case nothing would be heard from him until the first mail from Thule about this time next year. Vernon D. Prentice, brother-in-law of Lincoln Ellsworth, finance backer and member of the expedition, says he is ready at any time, in his capacity as chairman, to call the American Advisory committee together to raise funds for a relief party, but that thus far no alarm is felt. He also declared that Amundsen intended heading for Alaska, if conditions were favorable.

Donald B. MacMillan, who will head the all American expedition into the Arctic next month, also said last night that it was too early to become alarmed for the safety of the party.

Mayor Asks Public To Observe Memorial Day

Next Saturday, May 30, has been declared Memorial Day for those who fell in the world war, and on this occasion the Pitt County Post of the American Legion is planning due and proper observance. Among other things there will be a parade and memorial address by Honorable R. Hunt Parker, of Enfield, N. C. While I refrain from issuing a proclamation and asking the suspension of business for this occasion, it does seem only fit and proper that out of respect for those who sacrificed all for America, Democracy and humanity, we should pause in our business endeavors and reverently and patriotically lend our presence to the memorial exercises of the occasion, which will begin at 9 a. m. and conclude at 12 noon. However, if circumstances are such that this can not be done, May I not ask that those who are employed be given this privilege, especially the ex-service men. When our soldiers left for France we asked God's blessings upon them and prayed for a speedy termination of the war and their early return. While the war lasted our hearts were in France with the fighting troops and there was no service or sacrifice too great for us to undertake that

PRESIDENT'S CUP GOLF TOURNAMENT BEGINS TUESDAY

Annual Elimination Contest Between the Members of Country Club Will Consume Most of Next Week

The golf tournament for the president's cup of the Greenville Country Club will begin next Tuesday afternoon and continue throughout the week. The tournament committee has requested that all golfers who have not completed their card turn in at least five complete scores by Saturday in order that the pairings for the elimination contests may be made public Monday. It is the desire of the club president that every golfer in the club compete for the cup and the committee has requested all entrants to register for the tournament before Saturday night. By means of handicaps all the players will have an equal chance to win.

The awarding of the president's cup is an annual event and was won last year by Mr. James S. Ficklen. Much interest is being manifest in the coming event by the golfers and it is expected that the tournament next week will be one of the most interesting ever played on the local course.

Hon. R. H. Parker Will Deliver the Memorial Address

Hon. R. H. Parker of Enfield, will deliver the Memorial address here on Saturday at 11 o'clock at the court house. It had been announced that Hon. Lindsay C. Warren would deliver the address, but on account of illness he cannot fill the engagement. Mr. Parker is an ex-service man and is considered one of the State's most gifted speakers. The public and especially the ex-service men are urged to hear him on this occasion. Great preparations have been made for the event which promises to be one of the best Memorial Day programs ever given in Greenville.

SPORTSMEN DISCUSS OLD PROBLEM OF DIET FOR ATHLETES IN TRAINING

Berlin.—The age-old question as to whether a meat or vegetable diet is more beneficial for athletes came up for solution at the recent sport exhibition. The answer is still missing. In an exhaustive investigation active sportsmen insisted they could not get along on an exclusive diet and that their systems required fairly large quantities of meat. Eggs appeared to be the most popular article of food with a majority of athletes in training.

BOTH SIDES LINING UP FORCES FOR THE EVOLUTION TRIAL

An Additional Fillip of Interest is Given to the Coming Scientific Struggle by Principals in the Evolution Case

Chicago, May 28.—Principals in the widely advertised Tennessee Evolution case set for trial July 19th, have given an additional fillip of interest to the coming scientific struggle by outlining their views on evolution and the question at stake in the litigation.

In addition a new voice was heard when Wilbur Glenn Volney, overseer of Zion City, and the champion of the theory that the world is flat, came forward with a statement that evolution is one of the most dangerous theories ever propounded. As preparations went forward for the trial, with both sides lining up their forces, word came from Huntington, Tenn., that the Board of Education of Carroll County, had announced its intention to employ no teachers who believed in evolution. The board also condemned Hendrik VanLoons' 'the story of mankind sent to the schools by the circulating department of the State Library.'

John T. Scopes, who as defendant sprang into wide notice in his first year as a school science instructor, explained his views in a statement to Lexington, Kentucky, during a visit to the University of Kentucky, his Alma Mater. "I believe that man and all animals descended from the lower animals, but I have never seen or read any scientific statement that man descended from a monkey, and I do not believe that," he said, "no person could teach even the most elementary courses in biology without recognition of the evidence of man's evolution."

William J. Bryan, who will appear on the side of the prosecution had this to say: "I would suggest that the real issue in the Scopes case is not the teaching of evolution, but who shall control our schools and determine what shall be taught. Some legislators and some courts have excluded the Bible from the schools. If a legislator can prohibit the reading of a Bible can it not prohibit the teaching of a book they call the Bible a lie?"

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRES. CHURCH WILL CLOSE TODAY

Convened in Lexington Last Thursday for the 46th Annual Gathering; Session Proves Successful

Lexington, Ky., May 28.—The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met this morning for its last session of the 46th annual gathering. Next to its business transactions, the church court was expected to act before adjournment on the partial reports of the Bible and Overtures Committees. Reports on men's work, finance and the budget, and a proposed change in the church year. The majority and minority reports of the Montreat Association, near Asheville, N. C., were submitted last night and were before the court when adjournment was taken until today. The two reports advocate different methods of vesting control of the association in trustees of the church.

Convening last Thursday, the Assembly received reports of more than a score of committees and more than 200 overtures from various Presbyteries and Synods. The retiring Moderator Dr. Thornon Whiting, of Louisville, Ky., delivered the opening sermon on "Catholicity of Christ." Dr. George Summey, of New Orleans, was elected Moderator. During its session, the Assembly approved a plan providing for a director of country church work to co-ordinate and extend the work of the church in rural communities. It adopted a benevolence budget calling for $4,750,000 authorizing church wide convention and went on record as being opposed to unauthoritative in any form.

SEARCH CONTINUES FOR MEN ENTOMBED BY MINE DISASTER

Eight Men Had Been Removed From Carolina Company Mine at Mid-day; Little Hope Entertained for Recovery of Other Miners

Coal Glenn, May 28.—Four additional bodies were brought to the surface here at 2:15 o'clock this afternoon, thus bringing the total number of bodies recovered to 12. At the same time, officials of the mine indicated that a further check of their records showed that 52 men had been entombed. Hopes have been abandoned for the 40 still under the ground.

Coal Glenn, N. C., May 28.—Beneath a summer sun, the relentless search for the entombed victims of the Carolina Coal Company Mine disaster continued today, stimulated by Federal aid. At mid day eight bodies had been brought to the surface after steady work of rescue workers for 24 hours had cleared the shaft of the mine nearly 2,000 feet in the depth of the earth. It was estimated that from 50 to 60 men still remained entombed beyond this level, and little hope was entertained that the men would be reached alive.

Hope, which through the night had kept hundreds of grief stricken relatives of the entombed men standing near the mine waiting earnestly and tensely at each crew from the lower levels, was virtually abandoned early today when it was found that an almost solid wall of slate had closed the main shaft of the mine, perhaps cutting the men behind it off from the fowl air caused by the three explosions nearer the surface, at the same time effectually cutting off their only avenue of fresh air. Experienced miners were of the opinion that the men would not be extricated before tomorrow at the earliest and then it was not expected they would be alive. Mine officials today were also less confident that the men would be removed alive after the condition within the mine had been revealed. There was no demonstration today by the hundreds packed as closely about the mouth of the shaft, as the guards would permit. Hope of yesterday had been succeeded by black despair today, but there was outward coolness at least. But if there was no outburst of grief, the faces of relatives of the entombed men reflected their inner grief, intensified by a long night of vigil. The American Legion Auxiliary of Sanford and local chapters of the American Red Cross were continuously ministering to the physical wants of the rescue workers.

Through the black hours of the night the women stood by with coffee and sandwiches for the workers and today who had worked all night were relieved by another shift which came from Sanford. Shortly before ten o'clock a car from the Bureau of Mines at Washington arrived at the mine in charge of Thomas T. Read, safety service director of the bureau, and Edward H. Graff, foreman of operations. The experts were accompanied by one or two workers of the bureau, while additional crew was expected late today from Birmingham, Ala., and other points. Immediately after the men arrived they viewed the conditions of the mine with those in charge of the work, and it was announced if a sufficient crew of experienced rescue workers could be obtained the task of going forward in the shaft would proceed today. The men estimated that it would be tomorrow or later before the recesses of the mine, believed to hold the greater number of the men, would be reached. The camp was thrown into a panic early today when two members of an eight man crew returned to the surface and reported that the air was bad and calls to the other six men of the crew had not brought reply. Just before the men ceased to answer, it was stated by Major Henry H. McLeod of the State Highway Commission, who had gone down with the other six as an observer, that a negro miner of the crew had called back that the air was getting bad. The crew had been sent

Wm. H. Stout

Former President of International Lyceum and Chautauqua Association to Lecture Here

Purpose is the most important fact in man's life. It is his spiritual blue print. Early in life William H. Stout determined upon this purpose: To give the latter portion of his life to some cause that at the time should be approved by his mature judgment, his conscience and his experience. The evolution of this purpose he divided into three periods. First—Preparations, consisting of railway and shop life, teaching and studying in various colleges and universities, then graduation. Second—Fifteen years of endeavor for economic freedom, a sufficiency of material sustenance for himself and those dependent upon him. Third—Now the platform, as the ultimate chosen vehicle for the expression of such thoughts, the defense and propagation of such ideas and causes as scholarship, experience and judgment may determine. For years Mr. Stout religiously adhered to this purpose. Today finds him one of the country's most popular and most able lecturers. He was at one time president of the International Lyceum and Chautauqua Association, an evidence of the esteem in which he is held by America's great platform organization. He implicitly believes in his work. His lecture rings true with the same sincerity of purpose which has characterized the life of this big-hearted, four-square man. Mr. Stout's lecture at the Greenville Chautauqua will be "Seeing Life Who's." Some one has said that the life of a great man is like a diamond that is cut with many faces from any one of which the beauty of the stone may be seen and appreciated. Life itself is essentially like the diamond in its unity and the brilliancy of its possibilities, but unlike it in its variety.

MUSKRAT LED IN VALUE FURS PRODUCED CANADA LAST YEAR

Ottawa.—Raw furs valued at $15,643,817, based on prevailing market prices, were produced in Canada last year, the bureau of statistics reports. Silver and red fox, mink, otter, lynx and coyote fur recorded an increase in output over 1923. In point of aggregate value the muskrat was the most important fur producing animal, contributing 2,985

395 pelts worth $5,440,383, followed by beaver with 169,173 pelts valued at $2,542,992, and mink with 219,641 pelts worth $2,111,569. White fox and silver and red foxes ranked next.

GRAND OPENING GREEN WREATH PARK MAY 29, 1925

The new and ideal resort, Green Wreath Park, located on the Greenville and Falkland highway, on the Foreman farm, now in the possession of Mr. W. H. Moore, will have its grand opening Friday, May 29. Mr. Moore has put everything in readiness for the occasion.

Farmville and Pitt County have long needed a pleasure resort. Last spring the Rotary Club of Farmville put on a concerted effort to get some one to establish such a place. In response to this effort, and because he felt that he had the ideal spot for the place, Mr. W. H. Moore began work on Green Wreath Park, and now has one of the best and prettiest places of its kind in Eastern North Carolina. Green Wreath Park is located just off the Greenville and Falkland highway, about 8 miles from Greenville and about 8 miles from Farmville. The spot is ideal. Nature could not have made a better job in planning such a spot, for it is situated right between two beautiful hills about two hundred or more yards from Tar River. The lake is formed by this natural arrangement between the hills, the water being held by a small dam which it was necessary to construct at one end. The lake is fed by springs from the nearby hills, thus making the water clean and sanitary. Beautiful shade trees surround the lake, making it cool and pleasant both in and out of the water. Large and spacious grounds furnish ample room for parking cars, picnic and camping parties, etc., and ample space for tennis courts, baseball parks, etc.

Mr. Moore has erected a large pavilion, bath house and dance hall on the premises near the water's edge. The entire place has been equipped with diving pier, spring boaters' canoes, etc., and will be stocked with fish.

The grand opening will be celebrated, Mr. Moore announces, on May 29, all day, at which time free bathing privileges will be given to all. Barbecue can be had upon the grounds for all who wish it, and at night the first big dance will take place with music by Kollmeyer's "Carolinnians," and orchestra which Mr. Kollmeyer is rapidly getting in shape, composed of some of the best musicians in Wilson and Eastern Carolina. Mr. Kollmeyer has had considerable experience in directing orchestras out west and Mr. Moore feels himself fortunate in securing him and his "Carolinnians" to furnish the music.

The name chosen for the Park, Green Wreath, is the name which was given to the farm years ago by the older set of Foremans, and it has clung to it ever since.

WELL-MERITED SUCCESS

A distinguished citizen, honored politically and professionally, Dr. R. V. Pierce, whose picture appears above, made a success few have equalled. His pure herbal remedies which have stood the test for fifty years are still among the "best sellers." Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a blood medicine and stomach alterative. It clears the skin, beautifies it, increases the blood supply and the circulation, and pimples and eruptions vanish quickly. Beauty is but skin deep and a good blood is beneath both. For your blood to be good, your stomach must be in condition, your liver active. The discovery of Doctor Pierce's puts you in the condition, with all the organs active. Ask your nearest druggist for Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, in tablet or liquid form, or send 10 cents for trial package of tablets to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y.

Floors Never Get a Holiday

YOU know how many times you walk on them—how often the furniture is moved across them—how muddy shoes streak them. They're always on the job. And if they show all this wear they detract from the beauty of the rooms and halls. Folks who use Pee Gee Floor Enamel have no need to worry about their floors. It is so elastic, and yet so hard that heel marks, scuffing and other floor-abuses will not show. It dries overnight with a high-gloss finish, and you have a floor that will not crack or peel, nor does water affect it.

Such popularity must be deserved

AMONG the many factors contributing to Mr. Belasco's success is his knack of anticipating changes in popular taste. And this knack is just as important in other fields. For example, Chesterfield was first made in anticipation of a change in cigarette taste. The change came... how completely Chesterfield met the new demand is proved today by its unprecedented and sustained popularity.

WILLING SERVICE

Judge M. V. Barnhill, who is presiding over the civil term of Superior Court here, has expressed gratification at the unusual occurrence in connection with those called for jury duty for this week. Of the twenty-three summoned for duty all reported and not a one asked to be excused for any cause from service. Such an attitude toward jury service was almost unheard of in judicial realms, stated Judge Barnhill, and these men are to be commended for their willingness to aid in the administration of justice, he said.

Show your interest in those who fought for humanity's sake by wearing a poppy the remainder of this week.

A BROAD VIEW OF THE DEBTS

Italy and Belgium, it is reported from Washington, have taken the position that they should not be asked to conclude debt agreements till France has made definite arrangements to pay us. This report harmonizes with Mussolini's speech last week. The Italian Premier indicated that Italy would like to see what terms France obtained and then, as a poorer country, ask for gentler treatment. But the same dispatch declares that the Administration refuses this request and demands that each nation begin its own negotiations, without thought of its neighbor.

In one sense it is right that each national debt be considered by itself. The United States cannot present the same flat demand for payment on the British terms to all nations. It must consider the economic, financial and social conditions existing in each nation and make adjustments accordingly. This principle applies with particular force to the speed of liquidation. Belgium, for example, occupies a position entirely different from France's with regard to receipts from both export trade and Germany, and these receipts will govern her payments. If Washington means that it is asking each nation to make clear its financial position and its claims to special consideration; Washington is acting correctly.

But in a larger sense all the debts will have to be considered together, as interrelated parts of one great problem. Italy owes Great Britain several hundred millions more than she owes America. Belgium owes France a much greater sum than she owes us. Nobody can expect Great Britain to let Italy arrange for paying London. Nobody can expect France to see Belgium pledge payments to the United States without some question in Paris of France's own claims. As a practical problem the United States will have to regard the debts not as isolated but as integral parts of the huge interlocking structure of post-war finance. American opinion should realize that we shall have to make concessions and cancellations in the light both of individual necessities of nations and of the character of this interrelated fabric.—N. Y. World.

BILIOUSNESS

Retired Minister Tells How He Keeps in Good Form With the Assistance of Black-Draught.

West Graham, Va.—The Rev. Lewis Evans, a well-known retired minister, now past 80, living here, has a high opinion of Black-Draught, which he says he has taken when needed, for 25 years. "For years I had been suffering with my liver," he says. "Sometimes the pain would be very intense and my back would hurt all the time. Black-Draught was the first thing I found that would give me any relief. "My liver has always been sluggish. Sometimes it gives me a lot of trouble. I have suffered a lot with it—pains in my side and back, and had headache, caused from extreme biliousness. "After I found Black-Draught, I would begin to take it as soon as I felt a spell coming on and it relieved the cause at once. I can recommend it to anybody suffering from liver trouble. A dose or two now and then keeps me in good form." Made from selected medicinal roots and herbs, and containing no dangerous mineral drugs, Black-Draught is nature's own remedy for a tired, lazy liver. NC-166

MISS MILDRED MANGUM ENTERTAINS AT "THEATRE PARTY"

On Tuesday evening the 26th Miss Mildred Mangum entertained sixteen of her young friends at a theatre party. The guests assembled a short while before 9 o'clock at the home of her parents on W. Fourth St., and after greetings and best wishes were extended Miss Mildred, (as this chance to be her birthday) the young folks proceeded to the theatre accompanied by Mrs. G. T. Sikes of Creedmore, grand mother of the hostess. The picture "Forty Winks," was much enjoyed by all.

After the picture the charming young ladies and their gallant escorts repaired to the home of the hostess, where they were welcomed into a living room beautifully decorated with pink sweet peas, Dorothy Perkins roses and larkspur. The chandelier was festooned with pink maline and fern.

Tempting punch was served by Mrs. C. W. Shuff, from a bowl entwined with sweet peas and greenery, emphasizing the motif of pink.

From the living room the guests passed into the dining room. On the table was a lace center over pink, on which rested a large cut glass bowl filled with sweet peas and larkspur, beneath a maline draped chandelier and a shower of pink ribbons and sweet peas. Concealed beneath the lace centre were cards, attached to ribbons, bearing fortune of each, and on the other end was a tiny nosegay. The guests matched fortunes by corresponding numbers found on the "fortune cards."

Mrs. Mangum presided at the serving table, while a large birth day cake, with seventeen burning candles, rested on a silver tray. A candle was removed by each guest, a wish was made and then the lighted tapers were extinguished.

After the cake was cut by each guest, they passed around to the dining table where an ice course in pink and white was served by Mrs. Sikes.

Much fun and excitement prevailed during the cutting of the cake, as each vied with the other in securing the ring, the thimble or dime. At ten o'clock the hand on the dial pointed to the hour of twelve and reluctantly the young folks departed.

Miss Mildred was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

The following guests, partook of the hostess' hospitality: Misses Polly Fulford, Nell Savage, Lucy King, Effie Mae Winslow, Elizabeth Austin, Elizabeth Andrews, Louise Dickinson and Elizabeth Morton, Messrs. Luther Moore, Fred Forbes, Jr., Lindsay Wilkinson, Wilbur Madrin, Tom Ricks, David Evans, William Taft and Wayland Hart.

NEW SANITARY HOUSES FAIL TO ATTRACT SLUM DWELLERS

Edinburgh. — Slum dwellers in Edinburgh and other crowded Scottish cities have showed in more ways than one that they preferred had environment, and all its attendant evils to new houses fitted with every modern convenience, it was asserted recently by Dr. William Robertson, medical health officer for the city, in addressing a meeting of the municipal council.

Dr. Robertson declared that today when new houses were being provided, he had found it very difficult to convince slum dwellers that the slums were not a place for decent existence. Once people become accustomed to the tenements and crowded districts, it was a hard task indeed for the authorities to get them to feel at home in new and more sanitary quarters. The way to solve the problem, he believed, was to provide decent houses in the outskirts of the cities for all, and in this way prevent families from ever acquiring the slum dwelling habit.

CLAIMS FOR KARNAK TOO MILD, SAYS CAPT. MOODY

"I Would Call It the 'King of Medicine,' Declares Popular Charlotte Fire-fighter.

IS PERFECTLY WELL AFTER TWO BOTTLES

"I Feel I Am the Youngest Man on the Floor Today, Although I am 53 Years Old," Says Capt. Al.

Capt. A. E. Moody, known all over Charlotte, N. C., affectionately as Captain Al, comes out and declares that Karnak, the sensational new medicine, is undoubtedly the greatest medicine that has ever been known. "I would call it the 'King of Medicines,'" declared Capt. Al. Yes, sir, I tell the boys at the fire hall that since I have taken Karnak I am the youngest man on the floor, even if I am 53 years old."

Capt. Moody is probably one of the best-known men in Charlotte. He has lived here since 1885 and has been connected with the Fire Department since that time with the exception of 11 months in 1899. Capt. Al used to drive the hook and ladder in the old days of the horse, and he can relate some interesting anecdotes of those times.

He is one of the most splendid characters in Charlotte, beloved by the entire Fire Department and all who know him. His statement regarding Karnak is intensely interesting. He says:

"I have had dyspepsia and indigestion for the past five years and it certainly kept me feeling miserable. Soon after eating, my stomach would feel all upset. My food would sour and cause gas to form that would blow me up until I could hardly get my breath at times. And I would belch up my food, leaving a nasty, greasy taste in my mouth. "I tried all sorts of medicines, but nothing did me any good and I finally got to the point where I didn't enjoy anything to eat—just lost my appetite, but those spells of indigestion would come on just the same, no matter how little I ate.

"A friend told me about Karnak and I got some of the first that came here before it was put on sale. Well, sir, that Karnak certainly worked wonders for me and the quick way it brought me relief was the surprise of my life.

"Why, I hadn't taken Karnak any time before every sign of indigestion and dyspepsia was gone and I was eating and everything I wanted without any distress afterward. Such food as embargo that I wouldn't dare to eat before I took Karnak I now eat any time and enjoy it—why, everything tastes good. I took Karnak Pills, too, and I want to tell you, they are splendid.

"Yes, sir, it is a genuine blessing for me to recommend such a wonderful medicine as this Karnak, and I hope what I say will cause a lot of others to take it and get back to feeling right like I did. It certainly is some medicine."

Karnak is sold in Greenville exclusively by B. S. Warren's; and by the leading druggists in every town.

Stock Letter

The stock market has withstood the selling of the past two days in a satisfactory manner and shows no sign of any further reaction. The buying is still better than the selling and we look for higher prices. A generally firm market is expected in today's session with new buying offsetting realizing sales by those desiring to close out commitments prior to the holiday.

Cotton Letter

Liverpool due ten down on July and down on July and Oct. by New York. Trading in cotton was light yesterday and prices fairly steady until the late afternoon when a selling flurry developed based on reports sent out from New York to the effect that Texas was getting general rain. The information received here was that rain had fallen in a number of places in northwest Texas and central Oklahoma but they were not general by any means. Indications were however, that other parts of Texas may get rains overnight. Sentiment at the close was strongly bearish and shorts inclined to become aggressive again. Spot 12 to 25 lower.

Grain

There has been heavy covering by shorts in wheat and corn and while trade is mostly bull'sh, disposition is to take advantage of all sharp bulges to obtain profits. Houses that have been bull'sh sold out on yesterday's advance and later became good buyers on the breaks. At the close last night traders predicted a lower opening unless there is a decidedly strong tone to foreign cables today.

The Weather

Slightly warmer over left but still cool at night. Light rainfall reported in Abilene and Oklahoma districts. Forecast Thursday eastern and central belts generally fair. Western belt part cloudy and unsettled. Texas weather part cloudy, cool. Rain Paducah and Memphis.

Cotton Summary

Of 10 opinions 7 bullish, 1 bearish, 2 non-committal.

A study of cotton production and marketing in La. and South Miss. is being made by the United States Department of Agriculture, cooperating with the state organizations. No rain fall in South yesterday, and indications are for fair today and tomorrow east of Miss. Part cloudy with probable showers forecast for southwest.

Special canvass by Journal of Commerce says cotton doing well in central states, where much needed rains have improved outlook. Cool nights retard growth in the North, but little damage done. Boll weevil scarce. Increase larger. Situation one which encourages hope for excellent crop in La., Ark. and Miss., Tenn. and Miss.

New York commercial estimates average increase 5 per cent, condition 77. Crop from one to two in most sections with cultivation progressing well. Mills operating more than 1,000,000 spindles have already agreed to curtail operations at least for one week between June 1 and Aug. 15, according to Southern Yarn Spinners Association.

Liverpool says market easier in consequence of Manchester, and continuing selling. Fair spot demand from spinners and exporters. Spinners and manufacturers losing ground. Indian outlook poor. Indian spot quotations in Liverpool 15 points lower at 10:35.

MAYOR ASKS PUBLIC TO OBSERVE MEMORIAL DAY

(Continued from page one) ones, they are asking our bounty, that they might have an equal chance in the world with our children and the children of that soldier who did not go across and who going across was spared to return to his family. "For as much as ye did it unto one of the least of these he did it unto me." The American Legion does not seek large contributions from any one, but feels that no more fitting welcome could have been given to those who gave their lives for America and no more splendid monument erected, than a moderate contribution by every appreciative American, for the establishment of an Orphans Home, into which these little children left without a daddy and without means, will be welcomed.

Respectfully,
D. M. CLARK,
Mayor.

SEARCH CONTINUES FOR MEN ENTOMBED BY MINE DISASTER

(Continued from page 1) down for an hour shift and it was then overdue at the top of the shaft, but fears were allayed when the six men came to the surface shortly thereafter. They had located the bodies of two men and had delayed their return in order to extricate and bring them to the surface. These were George Samuel Anderson and his brother Shubert Anderson, both white men.

Following is a list of the bodies recovered up to noon today from the mine after the 2,000 foot level had been reached:

White: George S. Anderson, Shubert Anderson, Hollis Richardson, Will Byerly, and Archie Holland.

Negro: Will Irick, Edward Wright, and James Williams.

Lorain Oven-canned Fruits Look Better, Taste Better

WHEN the now famous Lorain Oven Heat Regulator was invented to eliminate baking-failures and enable women to cook Whole Meals in the self-regulating oven while miles away, it was decided to find a way in which the magic of the Red Wheel could be used to make home canning easy, efficient and economical.

This has been accomplished and thousands of happy owners of Lorain-equipped Direct Action Gas Ranges now can all their fruits and tomatoes in the oven. Exact temperatures are measured and automatically maintained by the celebrated

LORAIN OVEN HEAT REGULATOR

Direct Action Gas Ranges have greater oven capacity because of the "Elastic" oven which can be increased in size on an instant's notice to accommodate a big baking or a large number of fruit jars. This feature is to be found on no other make of gas range.

Direct Action Gas Ranges are more convenient. The broiler is above the baking-oven and is provided with a separate burner. You need not heat the oven when you broil or toast. Direct Action ovens are more economical because they require no pre-heating. There is no waste of time or gas in getting the oven ready.
