

Following the suggestion offered a few days ago through our editorial columns, a half holiday here during each week of the summer months, committees have been circulating petitions among the business houses of the city in an effort to put the custom into effect.

Reports from the committees this morning stated that more than fifty business houses had already signed the agreement to inaugurate the weekly half holiday and no doubt the proposition will be put over within the next few days. In cities where such a custom has been put into effect it has proved a great benefit and there is no reason why like results should not be obtained in Greenville. If you have not signed the closing agreement do so at once.

CITIZENS HELPING CHATAUQUA COMM. SUCCESS ASSURED

Memorial Baptist and Episcopal Churches, College, Rotary, Kiwanis Clubs, Welcome Chatauqua Sup't.

While a staff of eleven strong men are hauling and erecting the big brown tent under the direction of Chairman George Clark and Crew Captain Joe Jared, Greenville citizens are co-operating with the committee of forty to make this year's Chatauqua the best in the city's history.

Invitations have been extended to Supt. Matthew Wayman to speak in two churches tomorrow. At the Memorial Baptist Church morning service he will take his text from the Gospel according to St. John, Chapter 18, verse 40. "Not this but Barrabas." At the Episcopal Church in the evening his text will be Matthew 28-6, "He is Not Here."

On Monday morning, the Superintendent will be presented to the students of the Teachers College, thanks to the efforts of Professors Leon Meadows and H. E. Austin. The Rotary Club has thrown open its doors to Dr. Wayman, thanks to Rotarian J. C. Gaskins, Register of Deeds for Pitt County.

Last evening at Camp Leach more than thirty Kiwanians listened with appreciation while the Chatauqua superintendent outlined the extraordinary program offered to Greenville this year. T. C. Chairman Guy Smith was Dr. Wayman's host at the Camp Leach Kiwanian picnic.

One day is still available for the purchasing of season tickets. Season ticket holders will be able to hear every play entertainment or lecture for two dollars and fifty cents or less than twenty five cents per session. Single ticket buyers will pay one dollar for each admission to the plays. Moreover all the money coming from season tickets will be used by the local committee. But single ticket money goes to the Chatauqua Association.

Season ticket buyers are helping themselves and the fellow townsmen. There are still a few tickets left. If you can't find one 'phone to Chairman Guy Smith.

Miss Marie Shaw, Junior leader, will reach Greenville on Monday. Juniors are going to have an unusually big time this year. Miss Shaw is exceptionally gifted for her work. One of the crew men wears a sweater with the letters N. C. sewn on—no wonder he feels at home in Greenville. He will assist Miss Shaw with the Junior boys. There is a story told of one man up North who refused to buy his children tickets for Chatauqua. When the children became too insistent he went out into the yard, fired a shot, then told his children that the Chatauqua lady had committed suicide so there would be no Junior Chatauquas that year. Nothing like that can happen in Greenville—Juniors are securing (Continued on page 3)

Habourn Under $1000 Bond Instead of $5000 As Stated Yesterday

In yesterday's issue we stated that R. G. Habourn, who was injured in an automobile wreck last Monday evening, had been dismissed from the local hospital under a $5000 bond for his appearance here at the next term of Superior Court. During today our attention was called to the fact that the bond was only for $1000. We gladly make the correction. At the time of the accident one young man was killed, with another dying a short while later. Haybourn was driving the car.

YUNENESE FORCES HAVE BEEN FORCED SURRENDER CANTON

Declares Full Utilization Inland Waterway Facilities Only Hope Relief From Freight Discrimination

Canton, China, June 13.—The attacking Kwantung and Cantonese forces under Bolshevik officers, after a fierce attack on the defending Yunene forces, today forced them to surrender Canton and imposed extreme penalties on soldiers and civilian population also. The attacking forces landed 2,000 soldiers and cut off the river transport facilities of the defenders who were unable to launch counter attacks. After landing, the Kwantung troops gave the surrendering forces no consideration, although the defeated troops had voluntarily given up their arms. The winning forces began looting homes in the city. This was not confined to streets where there were opposing army forces, but extended to homes of non-combatting citizens. Revolting scenes followed in all parts of the city, many of which were witnessed by Europeans from the foreign quarters. Innocent forces were stormed and beaten severely.

Bodies of the slain innocent bystanders are strewn along the road. The surrendering Yunene troops in many cases were beaten to death by the Kwantung forces, or thrown down into the river after beaten down with bamboo staves and rifles. Looting was carried on in an extensive manner. The winning troops even taking petty articles in their campaign of pillage. The principal cause of the defeat of the Yunene troops, now driven out of Canton, was the treachery in the ranks of the Kwantung troop, who quit for a cash consideration. The defeated army leaders swore they would return to avenge the wrong done today.

SCOPES INTERESTED IN TRIAL AND NOT IN MAKING MONEY

Feels Trial is Serious Matter Besides Which Nothing Else Matters; Refuses $50,000 to Appear in Picture

Nashville, Tenn., June 13.—An earnest young man, to whom the original copy of the constitution of the United States seemed to appeal more than movies and publicity offers of a small fortune, was on his way to Tennessee today to prepare for the evolution trial next month. John T. Scopes, the youthful science teacher, accused of expounding the theory of evolution to his class at Dayton, Tenn. High School, left New York, the New York Times said, after refusing offers aggregating $150,000. Then stopping over at Washington on his way here after conferring with defense counsel in New York, the defendant showed greatest interest in the glass inclosed document of the American Rights, and in the Chamber of the Supreme Court where eventually the final decision in his case may be handed down.

Scopes refused all money offers which included $50,000 for a motion picture in which he would appear, because it was said he felt the trial was a serious matter, besides which nothing else mattered.

FAILS IN ATTEMPT ATTACK ON WOMAN COMMITS SUICIDE

Joe Slack, Negro, Thwarted in Purpose Fires Bullet Through His Temple

Salisbury, June 13.—Joe Slack, negro, died in jail here this morning from a bullet wound in his temple, and a 30 year old white woman near the city is at a neighbor's home recovering from severe shock and nervousness as a result of an experience through which she went early this morning, when the negro entered her home where she was alone and attempted an attack upon her.

The negro beat and choked the white woman, and threw her down upon the floor, but being a robust woman she kept him from accomplishing his purpose. She ran from the house and was chased by the negro, but he released his hold upon her, returned to the house, and obtained a pistol belonging to her husband, fired two shots at the fleeing woman without effect, and then turned the weapon upon himself and fired a bullet into his temple.

DECLARES FOR PRE WAR FIGURES IN TAX REVISION

Underwood Favors Flat 2 Per Cent Income Tax and Maximum Sur Tax of 13 Per Cent

Washington, June 13.—The subject of Federal Tax Revision is gaining increasing momentum calculated to lead to some action by the next Congress. Senator Oscar W. Underwood who helped to write the first income tax law, in an address at Montgomery, Ala., last night declared for a flat 2 per cent income tax and a maximum sur tax of 13 per cent, the pre war figures. President Coolidge has formed some ideas on the subject and believes a considerable reduction in the tax mood could be effected by eliminating the Federal Tax on inheritances. In this respect he is supported by Senator Smoot of Utah, who has predicted that the next Congress will make an effort towards lowering taxes. The Utah Senator's view that the state should be called upon to quit the income tax field, however suggested to the President to issue a step would present many difficulties. The revenue of some states, he feels would be seriously curtailed if they were forced to abolish their taxes on income tax.

The 13 per cent sur tax maximum advocated by Senator Underwood is about one half of that contemplated in the Mellon Plan, and one-third of the rate under the present law. He also suggested that taxes on estates be reduced to the pre war rate of ten per cent, instead of the present 40 per cent.

Senator Smoot said he believed the sur tax rate should be reduced to 25 per cent, or less. He predicted that increased exemption would not accord small incomes, and that the tax imposed on them would be lower.

DEFENSE SEEKS TO ERASE TESTIMONY OF SUNSHINE GIRL

Shepherd's Counsel Loses Another Hard Fought Battle Today; Several Witnesses Testify

Chicago, June 13.—The defense of William D. Shepherd, on trial for the murder by administering typhoid germs to his millionaire foster son, William M. McClintock, lost another hard fought battle today. William Samuel Stewart, chief of the defense counsel, sought to have erased from the record the testimony yesterday of Estelle Gehling, Shepherd's sunshine girl, and a quotation from a letter he had written her admitting financial insolvency and an intention of closing his office here and "difting away from it all." Judge Thomas J. Lynch agreed with Robert E. Crowe, State's attorney, that while the letter was highly prejudicial against Shepherd, it was pertinent in that it confessed in his own hand writing that he was bankrupt, and that his outlook was hopeless one month before McClintock died, and left him an estate of more than $1,000,000. It was agreed that only a portion of the letter should be permitted to go into the records and that the parts of the letter which identified it as a "love letter" should not be read.

Gerome Matillo, of Indianapolis, testified that in Texas nearly 20 years ago, he had heard Shepherd remark to his brother "Never mind about Willie. He will come out of this with his pockets full." Lewis Sharbaro, civil service employee, an uncle of Assistant State attorney, testified that nine or ten years ago Shepherd frequently visited

The 13 per cent sur tax maximum advocated by Senator Underwood is about one half of that contemplated in the Mellon Plan, and one-third of the rate under the present law. He also suggested that taxes on estates be reduced to the pre war rate of ten per cent, instead of the present 40 per cent.

LITTLE NEGRO BOY WAS ACCIDENTALLY KILLED YESTERDAY

Stephen Yancey Accidentally Killed by Rifle Shot in Hands of J. R. Suggs

J. R. Suggs, 14, accidentally shot and killed Stephen Yancey, 8, negro on yesterday at the home of Suggs' father, Mr. I. A. Suggs, in Winterville Township. The coroner's jury returned the verdict that the negro boy came to his death by a rifle shot in the hands of J. R. Suggs, purely accidental.

According to reports and evidence the shooting was accidental. Suggs was handling the rifle when suddenly it discharged, the shot taking effect in the body of the little negro who was standing near by.

INGERTRE ARRIVES AT SPITZBERGEN

The rugged head lines and mountain slopes were covered with snow to the water edge, but the Fjord was free of ice.

SENATOR SIMMONS DELIVERS ADDRESS WHOLESALERS ASSO

Kwantung and Cantonese Forces Impose Extreme Cruelties on Defending Forces and Civilians

Morehead City, June 13.—Only through the full utilization of the inland waterway facilities now at hand can North Carolina hope to attain relief from the incubus of freight rates discrimination, Senator F. M. Simmons told 300 members of the East Carolina Wholesalers Association here last night in a two and a half hour speech in which he declared for the establishment of deep water port terminal facilities first at Morehead City and eventually at Lookout Harbor.

There are more than 700 miles of inland water way connecting the ports of North Carolina with the great commercial centers of the North and East, the Senator told his hearers, and these offer to Eastern Carolina the one great opportunity for relief from the injustice from which the State has so long suffered. He compared this water highway, paralleling the trunk line north and south rail systems with the Erie Canal, declaring that it should have the same regulatory effect upon north and south rail rates as the New York waterway has upon east and west rail rates.

The Senator spoke vigorously. It was, he said, a subject close to his heart. In his many years of political activity he had seen the Piedmont and Mountain regions of the State developed to the degree that they took precedence over the once proud east. He loved all of North Carolina, but it was a source of humiliation to him that his own east had fallen behind the rest of the commonwealth in the great wave of progress which had made the name of North Carolina a by-word with all the people of the nation.

It was by utilizing the advantages nature had given them, he said that the more western portions of North Carolina had attained the supremacy now nationally recognized. They have, he said, profited from their climate conditions and have harnessed the great water powers to the business of manufacture. With infinitely greater potentialities the east, he declared, had lagged behind. Eastern Carolina, the Senator declared (Continued on page 3)

Edenton-Mackey Ferry Co., Puts On Fast Ferry Boat

The Edenton-Mackey Ferries Co., Edenton, today put on a fast ferry boat with regularly advertised schedule and with capacity of from 12 to 14 cars per trip. This boat, a Von Nyvenheim, is a running mate steamer of the Pilot, which has been handling high traffic by itself. The need for another boat was the cause of the Von Nyvenheim being put on the Edenton-Mackey Ferry Line. The new boat is now equipped with high powered new oil burning engines and makes the trip in less than an hour. The regular schedule leaves Edenton 8, 11 and four. Leaves Mackey's 9:30, one and 5:30. The mid-day trip is not run on Sundays. The best and shortest way north and south for traveling salesmen and tourists are numbers 32 and 342 on north side of Albemarle Sound, connecting the northeastern North Carolina and Virginia with Greater North Carolina. The company is now in a position to give better service and is striving to improve same for the convenience of the public.

DISPLAY YOUR FLAG

While tomorrow is Flag Day, Governor Angus W. McLean has proclaimed Monday as Flag Day in North Carolina and urges all citizens of the state to display the Stars and Stripes on that day and show the flag and the nation it represents due honor and respect.

Each year the observance of Flag Day is becoming more universal signifying the ever growing love for this emblem of Liberty.

It is fitting that a day in each year should be set aside for the teaching of the principles for which our Flag stands and Flag Day is a day for the display of patriotism.

HALF HOLIDAY CERTAIN

With the committees who are endeavoring to secure a weekly half holiday for Greenville reporting a majority of the business houses already having signed the agreement to close it seems that for this summer at least Greenville employers and employees will be able to get away for a while from their daily tasks to enjoy a few brief moments of needed recreation.

To those business men who have not yet definitely decided to take part in the observance of a weekly half holiday we wish to call attention to the fact that the custom has been practiced for a number of years by cities of this and other states and instead of a loss of business the merchants have been more than repaid by the better service rendered by employees as a result of the time off. In this connection we quote the following letter from the Secretary of the Kinston Merchant's Association to Mr. J. J. White, head of the committee here:

"Referring to our conversation on the telephone this afternoon, I wish to state that our merchants adopted the half holiday last summer and again this summer, beginning June the third, and continuing through the summer, or until the Wednesday prior to the opening of the Eastern Carolina tobacco market.

"All our department and general merchandise, supply—with one exception—shoe, most of our grocery, including 'A. & P.' and 'Pender's,' our '5 & 10' stores, and our insurance and realty companies offices have co-operated heartily with us in this movement, realizing that it is truly helpful to all concerned—the entire community.

"New Bern has adopted Wednesday, the same day as ours, for closing and judging from reports they are as enthusiastic as we over it.

"Sincerely hoping that Greenville will join in this too."

If the committee is successful in its efforts to procure the proposed half holiday the custom will be put into effect next Wednesday. It is hoped that every merchant and other business man in the city who has not already signed the petition will do so at once in order that the public may know that Greenville business houses are willing to co-operate 100 per cent strong for the benefit and welfare of the community.

Showers fell yesterday in South Atlantic and Gulf States. Galveston reported 24 hour rainfall of 10.26 inches and Mobile at 12 hour fall of 3.18 inches. Showers are indicated for practically all sections of the cotton belt today and tomorrow except fair West Texas.

Local cloth market steady, mills turning down many bids because of buyers low price ideas. Of 11 cotton opinions six are bullish and 5 non-committal. Week-end Commercial Reviews report irregular trading with buying cautious. Most industries quieter than in May.

Fall River cloth sales for week estimated at 100,000 pieces; continued heavy curtailment indicated for balance of month. Liverpool says: Easier under American selling. Some trade calling. Local selling. Small demand from spinners and exporters. Cloth demand limited. India yarns accumulating. Cotton on shipboard 58,905 vs. 47,200 last year.

Liverpool wheat opened 1 to 1-2 lower, closed 1-2 lower. Texas weather cloudy warm, scattered showers.

Grain
Tribune: A change in sentiment to the bull side was noticeable among a few houses who have been bearish for several days. They were large buyers of September wheat at the last after being good sellers early. Their change was said to be due to the development of an export demand as a result of the break. Export sales, however, were larger than for several days. The short interest was increased on the late upturn.

CARD OF THANKS.

As it would be a physical impossibility for me to individually thank the hundreds of friends who showed their tokens of affection, upon me during my long weeks of sickness I take this method of saying to all: "Thank you, and may God bless you."

In answer to the thousands of prayers offered for my recovery, I sincerely believe God has blessed the skill of my physicians and surgeons to the prolongation of my life; and these "added years" I hope to spend in the service of the whole community.

To my vestry, for their generous consideration and to my devoted Lay-readers and officers who have held the services of the church during my absence. I tender my profound gratitude.

Returns from New York.

Prof. R. G. Slay, a member of the faculty of the Teachers College has returned from New York to assume his duties at the College.

Senator Simmons Delivers Address Wholesalers Ass'n.

(Continued from page 1) clared, is the most naturally blessed of all the sections of America, possessing as it does a climate incomparable, wonderful diversity of soils and a potential water ways system not equalled by any state in the union. He spoke of the wonderful resort possibilities of the Morehead City region, pointing out that it has innumerable advantages over Florida as a winter resort and that it is the equal of any as a summer resort.

For many years as a member of the Rivers and Harbors Committee Senator Simmons has striven for the development of the waterways of the nation. He had seen waterway legislation develop over the opposing railway propaganda, which characterized every appropriation as "pork barrel legislation," to the point that all of the major political parties of the nation had declared for the development of waterways as a safeguard against the imposition by railroads of an unbearable transportation tax upon the people.

Ports cannot be developed, the Senator pointed out, unless shippers use them. Creation and use of a water transportation line by the assembled merchants was advised.

Senator Simmons prefaced his speech with the assertion that there can be no permanent relief from the present general conditions throughout the country until such time as the nation understands that there can be no permanent prosperity until justice is given to all. No class can profit at the expense of another, he said—equality must be the rule; equality of opportunity, equality in all things.

Senator Simmons was introduced by his life-long friend, Calvin Woodard, of Wilson, who reviewed the great service the Senator has given to his State since first he became a candidate for congress in 1886.

Major Oscar O. Keuntz, district engineer, and Harry T. Patterson, engineer for the department, spoke of the possibilities for waterway development in North Carolina.

Both Senator Simmons and Congressman Charles L. Abernethy declared for a thirty foot channel from Beaufort Inlet to Pier 1 at Morehead City.

Citizens Helping Chautauqua Comm. Success Assured

The Rev. James E. W. Cook, rector of St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church who invited Dr. Wayman to preach tomorrow night brought out the fact that the Chautauqua Superintendent is an Episcopalian, born in Canada forty one years ago—served as scout in the world war, was three times wounded and has four decorations. He was educated at Westmont High School and McGill University. Post graduating with Ph.D., in the class of 1908. He is a newspaper writer connected with a Metropolitan daily. The United States government selected him to travel with the senate party in 1918 after his return from Flanders. He has been with seven Chautauquas; devoting his summer months to lecturing. Redpath, Standard, Ellison White, White and Myers, Radcliffe Bureaus have directed him. This year he comes to Swarthmore as a superintendent. He declares that Swarthmore lecturers are superior to any he has been connected with and that it will be an education to him to superintend the work of these great men.

The honor of being first to dispose of all his tickets goes to committee man J. H. Taft with Mayor Clark a good second. Mr. Taft went one better than his fellow committeemen by selling a number of another man's tickets.

Chairman Guy V. Smith uses this means of asking all ticket salesmen to meet him at the court house Monday morning at 10. Bring unsold tickets and prepare for a special campaign.
