AIL FOR SECOND TIME TO RID HIGH SEAS OF LIQUOR

Federal Judge Dismisses Injunction Proceedings Which Prevent Vessels Bringing Rum Into Port Under Seal

New York, July 15.—Legal proceedings have failed for the second time to upset arrangements whereby Americans traveling to Europe on British ships satiate their thirst in a manner forbidden at home.

Federal Judge Mack yesterday dismissed injunction proceedings brought against the Cunard Line and others in an effort to prevent their vessels from bringing liquor into port under seal. Some months ago a similar action involving the Cunard Berengaria failed.

Both suits were brought by the Neptune Association, an organization of deck officers of vessels of American registry. The complaint argued that the rum treaty between the United States and Great Britain was unconstitutional. This treaty gives the United States the right to search British vessels for contraband liquor within an hours steamship distance to shore, and to seize them. In return British vessels have the right to bring liquor into American ports under seal. The complaint argued that this treaty and similar arrangements with this country were violating the 18th amendment and the Winstead Act, and that as a result of the same American vessels might receive what was going to British.

Judge Mack refused to consider the constitutional question, saying it was unnecessary. He dismissed the proceedings on the ground that the courts had no right to compel prosecuting officers to enforce penal laws.

"The remedy for inactivity of that kind is with the executive and ultimately with the people," he said.

NEW MISSION HOSPITAL DEDICATED IN FOCHOV

Fochov.—A well equipped hospital erected in memory of Dr. Kate C. Woodhull has been dedicated in Fochov by the Women's Board of Missions of the Congregational church. Built of gray brick in semi-Chinese style, it is one of the most attractive mission buildings in the city. The plans call for a total investment of about $50,000 which has been contributed almost entirely by women of the New York branch.

The building is located on ground adjacent to the men's hospital of the Congregational Church, making the work of the American Board Mission a complete unit and giving Fochov what it has long needed, a good hospital for women under foreign supervision.

Dr. L. M. Dyer is in charge with Miss Hazel Atwood, R. N., head of the nursing staff. The plant was built by the Fukien Construction Bureau.

FASCISTS BUY, THEN SUSPEND NEWSPAPERS IN OPPOSITION

Rome.—Buying and suppressing opposition newspapers is the newest scheme of controlling public opinion resorted to by influential Fascists who are ever resourceful in their efforts to find ways and means of carrying out their avowed policy of Fascistizing the nation at any price. Initial use of the plan at Parma where the city's two newspapers—Il Piccolo, a Democratic opposition publication sheet and La Gazzetta Di Parma, a Liberal organ—were purchased and then abandoned, has aroused considerable criticism in journalistic circles where the scheme is characterized as an intolerant and unjustified means of choking the liberty of the press.

STRAINING EVERY NERVE TO STRIKE A BLOW AT FRENCH

Riffian Chief Wants Blow Struck Before the Franco-Spanish Co-operation Becomes Effective

Fez, Morocco, July 15.—Abd El Krim, Riffian Chief, is straining every nerve in preparation to strike a blow against the French before the Franco-Spanish co-operation, arranged for the Madrid conference, becomes effective. The information gathered by the French Intelligence Service tends to bear out this assertion.

The Riffian propagandists are especially active and appears to be meeting with success, notably among the Tsouls and Branes in the Taza region. Portions of these tribes have gone over to Abd El Krim. These defections are also beginning to have an effect upon the Tapiatas, a war like tribe, whose abandonment of the French cause would be a serious complication for the French.

Raleigh's Oldest Theatre Destroyed By Fire Last Night

Raleigh, July 15.—Fire of an undetermined origin today destroyed the Almo Theatre, Raleigh's oldest motion picture house. The loss has not been computed, but members of the fire department said it would approximate, if not exceed, $50,000. The building was insured.

Two adjoining stores were damaged, but the blaze was kept under control and its general spread prevented. The fire occurred shortly after midnight, and for a time the situation appeared threatening. The site of the fire is in the heart of the business section of Raleigh.

SECOND TRUE BILL AGAINST J. WYATT QUASHED TODAY

Solicitor Evans Announces That a New Bill Will Be Sent to Grand Jury

Raleigh, July 15.—The bill of indictment returned yesterday against Jesse Wyatt, suspended Raleigh policeman, charging him with the murder of Samuel S. Holt, attorney of Smithfield, was quashed in Superior Court here this morning by Judge William A. Devin. It was the second true bill returned against Wyatt to be quashed, and Solicitor Evans announced that a new bill would be sent to the grand jury today.

The indictment was quashed on the ground that the wrong man was serving on the grand jury. It was brought out in court that William H. Hughes, Jr., was a member of the grand jury returning the bill, while the record showed that his father was the man who should have been summoned for jury duty. Hughes appeared before the court and stated that he sometime left the "Jr." off his name, so that when he was summoned he thought nothing of it, presuming the officer serving the summons knew who was wanted.

The first true bill returned against Wyatt in the case was quashed on the ground that a twelve year old boy drew the jury list in violation of the law which provides a child under ten years of age to draw the list.

Solicitor Evans indicated today after the second indictment had been quashed, that even if the grand jury returned a third true bill, the case probably would not be tried at this term of court, because of delays thus far. He said it probably would come up at the September term of court.

JAP SCHOOLS TO CONTEST HAWAIIAN LANGUAGE LAW

Honolulu.—Revision of regulations adopted by the territorial school commission appears to have no material change in the attitude of the 85 litigant Japanese language schools. The modification which permits an eight year course by eliminating the former requirement that attendants at a foreign language school must first have completed the first two grades of a public school, has been characterized by attorneys for the litigants as a step in the right direction toward bringing about an amicable adjustment of the controversy.

Judge Raulston yesterday announced he would ask the Dayton Pastors' Association to nominate a minister to make the opening prayer each day, this following the protest from counsel of the defense against the custom of having a daily prayer.

The yield of oil which in 1920 was as low as 10,000,000 pounds a month, has now been brought up to nearly 20,000,000 pounds, which is approximately the pre-war standard. There are now in exploitation 21,000 wells.

AMERICA BUYS AN EMBASSY IN PARIS

The New Building is the First Owned Embassy in Any European Nation

New York, July 15.—Nicholas Longworth and Ambassador Herick are back in the United States and agree that American Ambassadors should not have to live in rented houses. They came from Paris yesterday on the liner Paris.

Mr. Herick said the new Embassy, which he had bought for this government in Paris, had far exceeded his expectations. Nearly 4,000 Americans visited it on July 4, and there was not a single complaint. The new building is the first American owned Embassy in any European nation.

Speaker Longworth said that in housing ambassadors "nothing is more democratic than to have all the ambassadors live in the same house, regardless of their private wealth. There should be no distinction on the outside of the building between a poor and a rich ambassador.

SWEDEN EXPERTS TO CUT DOWN IMPORT OF AMERICAN WHEAT

Stockholm.—Preliminary reports from the various districts of Sweden received by the agricultural department show that the crop prospect is better than it has been for the last ten years. The weather has been very favorable and consequently the work in the fields started much earlier than usual. Wheat and rye are very forward. With the continued favorable weather, there is no doubt that the importation of American wheat has shown a steady decrease during the last 16 years.

DENIES MOTION TO QUASH INDICTMENT AGAINST SCOPES

Judge's Denial Upholds the Constitutionality of Tennessee Anti Evolution Law

Court Room, Dayton, Tenn., July 15.—Judge John T. Raulston today denied the defense motion to quash the indictment against John T. Scopes. The Judge's denial upheld the constitutionality of the Tennessee Anti-Evolution Law.

The motion to quash was made Monday and the day was spent in argument. Judge Raulston was occupied all of yesterday in writing his opinion, which was voluminous. The decision took up each contention of the defense and ruled that the defendant would be required to plead further.

Before reading his decision on the defense motion to quash, Judge Raulston consented to pose for photographers with the decision in his hand. After the judge read the grounds on which the defense sought to quash the indictment, he discussed the authorities cited.

Richard Bamish, chairman of the Reportorial investigation committee appointed to inquire into the premature publication yesterday of what purported to be the Judge's decision on the motion to quash, reported that the correspondent did not get the decision from the court's stenographer, and believed the information he sent out to be true.

The court recommended that the correspondent not be removed from court. Judge Raulston asked the source of the information, and was told that it came from the court through deduction. Judge Raulston asked the correspondent's name, and Mr. Bamish reported that it was William K. Hutchinson, of the International News Service.

Mr. Hutchinson was asked to come before the court and Judge Raulston asked if he had a statement to make, explaining that he need not feel obliged to speak. Mr. Hutchinson said he would prefer to make a statement to the court in chambers. Mr. Bamish interrupted with the statement that Mr. Hutchinson was "thoroughly ethical." The court announced that the newspaper man would be given a private audience.

Dayton, Tenn., July 15.—Refusal by Judge John T. Raulston today to quash the indictment against John T. Scopes, prolonged the case in which the 24 year old school teacher is charged with violating the Tennessee law against the teaching of evolution theories in the public schools.

The morning session, in addition to Judge Raulston's extended opinion upholding the constitutionality of the Tennessee statute under which the indictment against Scopes was brought, precipitated another brief clash on the question of having prayer at the opening of the court today.

Prayer as prayer is not objected to by the counsel for the defense of John T. Scopes, Dudley Field Malone said today.

"What we do object" he declared, "is the deliberation in the court room in the presence of the jury of argumentative prayers which might have influence upon the jury."

Court was recessed until this afternoon.

"MEN AND WOMEN" A HUMAN PARAMOUNT DOMESTIC DRAMA

There is no hero, no heroine, no villain in this story—the characters are just men and women.

This title opens the new William de Mille-Paramount production, "Men and Women," which comes to White's Theatre today one day only.

"But they live in New York, the city which makes all incomes too small to live on," adds the next title.

"Men and Women" is a dramatic study of a group of young people who, through weakness and mistakes and not through the inherent wickedness of one or the other, place themselves and each other in acute situations. It is the type of drama, which Mr. de Mille handles with facility and sincerity.

The story centers around a bank cashier and his young wife. His salary is not large enough to allow her all the luxuries she craves. The cashier's assistant also loves her and, in his desire to make her happy, buys her gowns and jewelry and entertains both her and her husband. The two men are friends until the husband, fearing that the gifts of jewelry will make her dissatisfied, asks the assistant not to give his wife any more presents. The assistant frankly contends that he can give her the finery she craves, that he can make her happy and that he intends to marry her.

NEW VARIETY OF CHERRY NAMED FOR KING ALBERT

Yakima, Wash.—A new variety of cherry, as unusual in its origin as in its appearance, has been developed by Edward Remy, an orchardist residing near here. The cherry is a golden yellow in color and is distinguished by a deep crimson stripe that extends from the base of the fruit to the tip. When the fruit is mature, the same dark coloring runs from the skin to the pit.

Remy, a native of Belgium, has named his new variety "King Albert." "It is like King Albert at Liege," he explained, "for it was found where it was not expected."

Remy first noticed the peculiarly marked fruit on a single branch of a tree of Lambert cherries. Undecided whether the light colored cherries bearing the crimson stripe were a true variety, he budded from this branch to an oxheart cherry tree. The branch developed from that bud now is loaded with the "King Albert" cherries.

U. S. FLEET TO DISBURSE $2,000,000 IN AUSTRALIA

Honolulu.—The cargo of $2,000,000 in gold which the United States fleet is taking to Australia, to pay the men and defray some of the expenses of re-fueling and re-provisioning, will be transferred bodily to the Australian government in return for Australian gold coinage at an ounce-for-ounce rate.

The American money then will be melted down and transformed into Australian coinage. The American government will pay a mintage fee of three pence an ounce, but will save $30,000 in exchange on the deal naval officers estimate. If American dollars were exchanged for Australian currency, the rate would be approximately $4.81 to the pound, while the present ounce-for-ounce arrangement plus the small mintage charge results in a saving both to Australia and the United States, it was pointed out.
