DECLARES THE AIR DEFENSE OF NEW YORK AN ABSURDITY

Only 19 Hits Made in 16,000 Shots in Test of Ability of Coast Defenses to Protect New York From Attack By Air

New York, Aug. 18.—Only 19 hits have been made in 16,000 shots which anti-air craft machine guns batteries at Fort Tilden fired during a test of the ability of coast defenses to protect the port of New York from attacking air.

"To observe the pomp, glamor, maps, bugles, bells, signals, and commands with the resulting low percentage of hits," he added, "reminded me of a child chasing a bird on the lawn trying to put salt on its tail and catch it."

"Hypothetical hits are bunk. Enemies are not defeated that way."

"The enemy air planes during the test yesterday were represented by two targets towed by two planes at altitudes from 700 to 10,777 feet, which the Representative said was much lower than enemy bombers would actually fly. The targets were of canvas and colored a deep blue. One plane towed its target back and forth over the land batteries eighteen times while 50 machine guns fired 8,000 shots and scored five hits at an altitude for the target of 900 to 1077 feet. The other target was towed back and forth at an altitude of 700 to 900 feet and 14 hits were registered in 8,000 shots.

Representative Laguardia said on land one of these trips either plane could have annihilated Fort Tilden.

Major General Johnson Hagood, who with more than a dozen officers witnessed the test said the practice showed a tremendous advance in anti-air craft defense since the war. Others admitted that the test bore out the assertion of Colonel William Mitchell, former Assistant Chief of the Army Air Service, that guns on land were virtually useless against hostile air craft.

British Communist Party Calls for Help

London, Aug. 18.—Declaring that "the forces of reaction are determined to crush the workers into subjection" and use the army and navy for that purpose, the British Communist Party has sent letters to the National Labor Party and the General Council of the Trade Union Congress, calling for their help, "to prevent such a catastrophe."

The letters state that "revolution is driving forward to a mighty contest for power between the organized forces of capitalism and the organized forces of the workers."

Officers Search for Negro Charged With Attacking Woman

Asheville, Aug. 18.—Some 25 negro suspects, arrested since yesterday noon in the search for a young negro who is alleged to have attacked a white woman patient of a local sanatorium, have been released. It was announced today by Sheriff Mitchell, when the young woman was unable to identify any of them as her assailant. The sheriff and police are continuing their search for the negro. The alleged attack occurred on a mountain path on Sunset Mountain in a spot not far from the sanatorium where the woman was a patient. She was out taking a walk shortly before noon, when the negro, according to her story, appeared suddenly and seized her by the throat and dragged her into the woods to a spot hidden from the road where she said he carried out his purpose. Her cries, after the negro left her, attracted the attention of persons passing nearby, and she was taken back to the sanatorium and is said to be in a serious condition.

Williamstown, Mass., Aug. 18.—The conviction that Great Britain must give definite guarantee of Central European Frontiers in order to assure world peace, even though these guarantees should involve her in war, is coming home to Statesmen. FUNERAL SERVICES CONDUCTED FOR WILLIAM ORMAND

Young Man Was Shot and Killed by William Cole as Aftermath of Denied Love Affair With Cole's Daughter

Rockingham, Aug. 18.—Tributes having been paid to William W. Ormand, young man of Raleigh, who was shot and killed here as the aftermath of a love affair that was denied, citizens of Rockingham today turned their attention toward the October term of Superior Court when William B. Cole, wealthy mill executive, is scheduled to go on trial on a charge of murder in connection with the slaying. Counsel for the defense already includes a number of leading attorneys of North Carolina. Conferences were held by them with the defendant, and it was apparently decided not to press for the release of Cole on bail. The Solicitor will be assisted by private counsel. Complete denial that the North Carolina Department of the American Legion will employ counsel to aid in the prosecution, was made by Wade H. Phillips, of Lexington, State Commander, in a telegram last night to the Associated Press. He stated in the meantime, however, that the Rockingham Post was free to take any action it might desire.

Burial services for Ormand here yesterday afternoon were attended by what is said to have been the largest number of people ever seen at a funeral of a private citizen in Rockingham county. The romance which existed between Ormand and Miss Elizabeth Cole, 24 years old daughter of the manufacturer, as well as Cole's objection to the match, were matters of general knowledge for months. Only after the shooting last Saturday did it become widely known, however, that a series of letters had passed between Cole and Ormand. Threatening statements were alleged to have been made in these communications. The disagreement was regarded as settled when Fred W. Bynum, attorney for Cole, carried a paper to Ormand to sign. Ormand signed the paper. Bynum is quoted as having told the Reverend Arthur P. Ormand, father of the dead man, that "this ends the matter. Everything is settled and there is nothing more to it." Ormand's friends insisted that the agreement was carried out by him to the letter.

Raleigh, Aug. 18.—Counsel for William B. Cole, prominent manufacturer of Rockingham, who on Saturday shot and killed William W. Ormand on the main street of Rockingham, are not prepared at the present time to state what will be their client's plea before the October term of Superior court at which Cole will be tried. A statement to this effect was made over long distance telephone this afternoon to the Associated Press here by the firm of Bynum and Henry, of Rockingham chief counsel for the defense. Mr. Henry, speaking for the firm, said, "if and when the counsel decides to issue a statement outlining the defense plea of Mr. Cole" a statement would be furnished the press. In advance of further conferences between lawyers associated with his firm, Mr. Henry said he did not deem it wise to issue any statement on the matter.

AGREEMENT ON BELGIAN WAR DEBT IS EXPECTED SOON

Debt Commissions of Two Countries In Most Successful Meet Than at Any Time, Since Work Started

Washington, Aug. 18.—Negotiations looking to the funding of Belgium's $480,000,000 war debt to the United States gave promise today of hearing a close. The debt commissions of the two countries met at three o'clock this afternoon for the first conference since temporary adjournment last week. This conference found both parties better equipped to proceed than at any time since the work first was started.

The interim had been used by both to consult with higher officials of their respective governments, and both were able to approach the task today with a fuller knowledge as to what terms would provide a satisfactory agreement on the one hand to the Belgium Parliament, and on the other to the American Congress.

Secretary Mellon and Senator Smoot of the American Commission, had a conference yesterday with President Coolidge and were prepared today to submit to the other conferees the views of the Chief Executive in the matter, and the course he desired that they would pursue. The Belgium Commission likewise has utilized the interval to take up with its government the progress of the work to date, and were able to enter today's discussion with greater confidence as to the position to take.

Bees Take Charge of Episcopal Rectory

Yesterday afternoon Rev. James E. W. Cook, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, here called upon the editor of The Reflector with an inquiry as to what he must do about the bees. Upon questioning it was learned from the Rev. Mr. Cook that for the past two years a swarm of bees had been inhabiting the large columns to the porch of the rectory. It appears that after having moved their quarters from column to column during their sojourn at the rectory that yesterday the bees decided on another move and this time to a lilac bush at the edge of the porch. This move placed the busy little workers in full possession of the porch and immediately the Rev. Mr. Cook sought relief. After the Rev. Mr. Cook had pleaded his case before the county sheriff and the mayor of the city without relief the editor volunteered to find someone who desires bees and a telephone call soon brought a would-be rescuer. He went to the rectory to view the situation and then went off for a box in which to hive the swarm. Returning a short while later the seeker of the bees found that the swarm had departed but he found the clergyman in smiles that his guests of the past two years had bade farewell.

Now the question of how much honey has been deposited by the bees in the massive columns of the rectory and just how to get it out is furnishing some food for thought for the Rev. Mr. Cook.

COUNTRY CHURCH WILL CELEBRATE 142 ANNIVERSARY

Meadow Primitive Baptist Church Located Six Miles of Farmville to Celebrate Anniversary With Appropriate Exercises

Farmville, Aug. 18.—On the coming Saturday, the Meadow Primitive Baptist Church, about six miles west of Farmville, will celebrate its one hundred and forty-second anniversary.

This venerable church is among the oldest active religious organizations in Eastern Carolina and probably the most ancient in Pitt county which is still actively functioning.

Its organization date was the fourth Saturday of August, 1855, just a few years after the stormy American Revolution. The old church thus boasts a history almost as ancient as that of the Republic itself.

Through the trying days of our five great wars and through the horrors of the Reconstruction period it still opened its doors.

Today, one sees it as a neatly painted, commodious wooden structure, situated in a beautiful and spacious grove of oaks. Its venerable pastor, Elder D. A. Mewborn, first conducted services there fifty-one years ago.

On Saturday an immense gathering of its friends and lovers is expected. As the mother of Tyson's, White Oak, and Farmville churches, it has a great circle of adherents. Some of the leading ministers of the Primitive faith have been engaged for the occasion.

Ex-Judge Lloyd Horton and Family Moves to Raleigh

Farmville, Aug. 18.—Attorney Lloyd Horton has completed his removal to Raleigh where he expected to locate permanently. Ex-Judge Horton is already connected with prominent legal firm in the Capital City.

In losing Attorney Horton, Farmville lost a leading citizen and a son in whom she took great pride. For as the youngest judge in North Carolina, he made a distinguished record indeed, it was a cause for profound regret on the part of his many adherents that he resigned from the bench, where a brilliant future, seemed assured. Lawyer Horton's departure is likewise a loss to the entire county, especially in legal and political circles where he has been a leading light for years.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 18.—Detectives have been sent to Branchville by Governor McLean to investigate the death of Edward J. Thomas, Commander of the Branchville American Legion Post, who was found hanged last night.

Request for the detectives was received from Harry Mack, Vice Commander of the Branchville Post and Edward K. Melver, of Florence, S. C., State Legion Commander. Details of the discovery of Thomas' body received at the Governor's office were meager, it was stated.

FARMVILLE BOOSTS STRONG AMATEUR BASEBALL TEAM

Farmville, Aug. 18.—Farmville boosts the strongest amateur baseball team this summer in many years, having gained wide recognition as strong dominants of the amateur title in Eastern Carolina.

Every regular on the nine is a home talent product either of the city or vicinity. Not a single hired player or college varsity man is used.

A great record of thirteen triumphs in seven recent starts has been chalked up—a record which is probably unequalled in many miles. Among the vanquished aggregations one Kinston, Pinetops, Snow Hill and Fountain.

NO SPECIAL PRIVILEGE

Rightly declaring that there is no justice so long as the scales tip to either side and that no prisoner being held in custody for crime, despite his wealth or social position, is entitled to privileges that prisoners less fortunate are not permitted to enjoy, the News and Observer with reference to the imprisonment of W. B. Cole, of Rockingham, for the killing of W. W. Ormond, says: "There are enough miscarriages of justice and special privilege to men without property to cause people to question whether justice is administered with an even hand. The symbol of justice is a blindfolded goddess, holding the scales evenly. When the scales tip either side, there is no justice.

A special from Rockingham in yesterday's paper had the following, referring to W. B. Cole, who shot young Ormond:

Plans are being made by his friends and family to make his stay in jail as comfortable as possible. Last night a bed was brought from his home to his cell in the county jail. Tomorrow a telephone will be installed in his cell.

This prisoner is entitled to the same consideration of every other person placed in Rockingham jail—no more, no less. It is the duty of the authorities to provide comfortable beds for every person incarcerated, and if such beds in the jail are not what they should be, they should be procured. As to installing a telephone for this prisoner, he is entitled to it if it is the custom in the Rockingham jail to permit prisoners to install telephones. Otherwise, not. His attorneys and others, who have reason to confer with W. B. Cole, should be given the usual privileges—no more, no less.

No person in jail charged with crime should be afforded any privilege or consideration not granted to others. The fact that W. B. Cole is said to be a millionaire and is the head of big industrial plants should not have the slightest weight with the authorities."

Wednesday. "Tarnish" is an adaptation by Frances Marion, well known scenario writer, of Gilbert Emery's Broadway stage success. It is a story about youth, dealing with the tragedy that threatens young love when a young manicurist intrudes upon the blissful courtship of two lovers. In its structure there is revealed a fine, neatly woven drama, in which the fast of the young man turns up and shakes and illumines the young girl. How the tarnish is finally cleaned away forms the basis of a devastating chain of relationships, poignant, highly dramatic and entertaining. The leading roles are portrayed by Marie Prevost, May McAvoy and Ronald Colman, who scored so heavily in the leading male role opposite Lillian Gish in "The White Sister." Also prominent in the cast are Norman Kerry, Harry Meyers, Priscilla Bonner, Albert Gran and Mrs. Russ Whytall.

EUROPEAN BEGGAR MAKES APPEALS IN 10 LANGUAGES

Vienna.—Rudolf Hruby, known as the "king of beggars," has learned to ask for alms in ten languages and when arraigned in court recently for fighting with a brother beggar he said, "I would rather earn my bread honestly by begging than become a lout."

Hruby has made all Europe his hunting ground and, somehow, has been able to solve the obnoxious passport problem. Although he has gone from one country to another at his pleasure he never has carried the official document which most international travelers are obliged to have.

Kerns Interference May Delay Dempsey's Bout With Wills

Los Angeles, Calif., Aug. 18.—If Jack Kerns persists in his efforts to represent Jack Dempsey in negotiations for the bout with Harry Wills, negro contender, for the title, the heavy weight champion will cast aside his gloves and forget about fighting until his present contract with Kerns expires. Dempsey made this clear in a statement today to the Associated Press.

Highway to Washington Is Temporarily Closed

The hard surfaced highway to Washington is closed to traffic just east of this city to permit the hard-surfacing of the short portion of road adjacent to the Smith's run bridge. The work of pouring the concrete on this section of the road will be completed late today and those in charge have issued a statement that the road will again be open for traffic before the opening of the tobacco market on September 1st.

While the road is temporarily closed traffic from this city to Washington and points east are advised to follow detour signs via Evans and Fourteenth streets, up the red hill and follow dirt road for a distance of about two miles to the hard surfaced highway at Speight's store beyond the part of the highway that is under construction.

SCHOOL DAYS

By DWIG

Marie Prevost and Ronald Colman in "Tarnish"

Allen Naive, 31, as a newspaperman. Naive, city hall reporter for The Gary Post-Tribune, accepts all assignments and, according to fellow workmen, gets more than his share of news. He turns out "clean copy" on a regulation typewriter.

Naive was given a place on The Post-Tribune more than five years ago, upon completion of a course in a school for the blind. He showed natural aptitude for using a typewriter and for writing, and made good from the start.

He never has asked special consideration because of his physical handicap, and has accepted every assignment given to him, including his share of night meetings. His cane is his only companion on his beat.

One of his recent accomplishments was the writing of a feature story on a circus which came to Gary. His story was as bright and colorful as though he had been able to see the gayety of which he wrote.

"TARNISH" A PLAY OF YOUTHFUL EMOTIONS AT WHITE'S WEDNESDAY

An exceptionally large group of celebrated screen players are to be seen in the George Fitzmaurice production, "Tarnish," which was made by Samuel Goldwyn for First National Pictures, and which will be the main attraction at White's Theatre

NEW FEATURES AT WHITE'S THEATRE

White's Theatre showed a feature bill to its pleased audiences last night who witnessed a form of motion picture never before exhibited in this city. This new attraction was the "Stereopik" which furnished plenty of thrills as well as much merriment for the theatre goers. With their eyes covered by special glasses furnished by the management the theatre patrons saw the objects come from the screen to the audience and return again

REPORTER MAKES GOOD ON BEAT THOUGH BLIND

Another added feature of the program was the playing of Miss Virginia Earle who has just come from New York to accept a position as organist at the theatre here. Her organ solo rendered following the orchestra selections was greatly enjoyed and her organ accompaniment for the pictures added much to the reality of the unspoken drama.

"How do you know you've plenty of oil?"

"Your float doesn't know the difference between gas and oil. For all you know you may have a quart or two of unburnt gas in that crank case. High readings on the oil gauge don't mean anything either. You'll get a high reading when the oil is cold and thick and a low reading when the oil is flowing freely.

"It isn't just pressure you need in an oil system—it's floods of clean, cool oil. There's just one way to be sure of giving every bearing surface plenty of oil and that's to change your crank case oil regularly."

The experienced Fleet Boss ought to know. He has seen the damage done by the filthy and diluted stuff that many engines have to depend on for lubrication. The damage could have been prevented by using enough of good, clean oil. "Standard" Motor Oils are reliable products, based on fifty-five years' experience in oil refining, and experience counts just as much in making oil as it does in keeping a big fleet of cars in perfect running order.

TREND U. S. PRISON REFORM OUTLINED TO INTERNATIONAL BODY

LONDON, July 18.—The trend in America prison reform is toward individual attention for wrongdoers in courts and prisons. Dr. Amos W. Butler of Indianapolis, Ind., declared in a paper prepared for the International Prison Congress, in session here August 3-19.

After the custom of European association, the paper translated into French and reprinted, is handed to a committee which will summarize it and submit it to the whole congress as a basis for discussion. Mr. Butler is former secretary of the Indiana board of state charities.

The same movement toward individual care and instruction which has been accepted by hospitals and schools is now manifest in the treatment of prisoners. Mr. Butler showed, and courts and prison officials are considering wrongdoers individually and prescribing thus for disposition of their cases instead of treating them by formula or in a mass. The movement, however, is a gradual one and its general acceptance as a policy will not immediately entail its universal practice.

Tracing the progress from congregation to the individualization in prison work, Butler outlined the handling of prisoners from the time when William Penn replaced harsh treatment in the Pennsylvania colony with more humane methods, substituting prison for the galleys; labor for bloody punishments and workhouses for the debauchery and idleness of the jail yard.

The high points in American progress in dealing with criminals, he found, were establishments in Virginia and Kentucky in the late eighteenth century of the penitentiary system, with reduction of the crimes known as capital offenses and enactment by the Indiana legislature in 1899 of a "good time" law, enabling prisoners to shorten their sentences by good behavior and evidence of a desire to reform.

He noted the founding in New York in 1876 of a reformatory, marking the beginning of the present reformatory system; establishment by Indiana in 1873 of the first separate prison for women; adoption by Massachusetts of the probation system in 1878; and finally physical and mental examinations for prisoners, with hospitals for the criminal insane and clinics for the treatment of criminals with less marked mental incapacity.

Summarizing the progress in criminal treatment, Mr. Butler found the forward steps in America falling into eight divisions. Employment of more humane methods was followed by gradual grouping of prisoners in special institutions for juveniles, women, young men who were first offenders, the criminal insane, and defective delinquents. Indeterminate or indefinite sentences were the next forward step, followed by the establishment of juvenile courts and the inauguration of the probation system, first for juveniles and then for adults. Physical and mental examinations, first in juvenile courts, then in reformatories and prisons and finally in courts for adults brought the treatment of the criminal to a higher plane, and finally routine mental examinations for prisoners, inaugurated in Massachusetts, and a movement for uniform criminal records in courts, have made modern methods of dealing with wrongdoers the most effective in history.

WASHINGTON BUILDS GOOD ROADS FOR STATE

Tacoma, Wash.—The highways of Washington have received $6,175,399 from the state gasoline tax since Aug. 31, 1921. The tax now is two cents a gallon, having been raised from the original one cent levy. At present the yield from the tax is close to $250,000 monthly, a sum sufficient to pave 10 miles of highway that already has been graded.

All money from the gasoline tax is used to build roads. This fund and the license fees from automobile drivers have been largely responsible for the improved highway system in the state.

Saar to Have New Stamp

Berlin.—A new postal stamp with the picture of the Virgin Mary will be issued in the Saar district, the Catholic German reports. The engraving will be a reproduction of the famous painting in the chapel of Rliescasted on the Saar.

Similar stamps previously have been issued on different occasions by Bavaria, Hungary and the Duchy of Liechtenstein.

JOURNALIST, TO SAVE OTHERS TROUBLE, PENS HIS OWN OBIT

Poznan, Poland.—Tadeusz Gubrynowicz, a Polish journalist, literally "died in harness" recently. Among his belongings in the hospital was found his own obituary written by himself a short time before his death.

It recounted the devotion of a real journalist to his work, and on behalf of those for whom he wrote. It contained this paragraph: "Now, just before his death, he has at last found a moment for himself, which he devotes to penning this obituary, so as to take an additional burden from the shoulders of his colleagues, who also never have any time to spare."

Concluding the obituary, Gubrynowicz asked his readers, if they felt that he deserved to rest in peace, to say a brief prayer for him. Answering those who might say it was a clever way to solicit thousands of

The Secret of Those Wonderful English Complexions

Grandmother's Recipe — Kept Her Youthful Looks and Clear Creamy Complexion. With Common Everyday Buttermilk and Cream.

Every woman reader of this paper who prizes a clear creamy white complexion and snow-white hands and arms will be glad to know that while preparing this old-time recipe at home was always messy and troublesome they can now obtain at any drug store the ready-to-use preparation called "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream.

The directions are simple and the woman who has hitherto refused to "indulge in such so-called 'vanities'" might well be excited for using "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream since beauty simply thrives on buttermilk. No pimples or ugly sallowness, no wrinkles or lines around the eyes and mouth, but just that creamy delicious color that makes even a good-looking woman still more beautiful.

You can get it at any pharmacy or department store simply asking for "Howard's" Buttermilk Cream and remember it's only sold on a positive guarantee of satisfaction or money back. Pitt Drug Co. can hardly keep it in stock there's such a demand.

ROYAL AERO CLUB DESIGNATES PILOTS FOR SCHNEIDER CUP RACE

London.—It has been decided to send Henri Baird and Hubert Broad by America to represent the Royal Aero Club as pilots in the Schneider Cup race at Baltimore in October. Baird will fly a Supermarine-Napier monoplane and Broad a Gloster III Napier biplane.

As a result of recent tests it has been decided to fit Broad's machine with metal floats. On the question of speed, the waters of the British planes realize that America is aiming at fast machines and their efforts are also being concentrated on speed as well as strength.

AGAIN TODAY, "THE DRESSMAKER FROM PARIS"

The Dressmaker from Paris," a Paramount picture featuring Leatrice Joy and Ernest Torrence, which opened yesterday at White's Theatre is a story of Fifi, little French "midnette" who becomes Paris' foremost fashion designer.

The story opens with the accidental meeting of Fifi and Billy Brent, American army officer. They fall in love, only to have Brent ordered to the front.

The scene shifts, Brent is now junior partner in the Emporium, a department store in Clarion, Ill., owned by Torrence, playing Angus McGregor. Brent's ideas on selling are radically different from those of McGregor, and he sends for the famous Madame Louise to stage a fashion show in the Emporium and bolster up trade.

Imagine Brent when Fifi puts in an appearance. He is glad enough to see her, to be sure, but messes things all up trying to explain to her that he is engaged to Joan. McGregor's daughter. Both Billy and Fifi manage to misunderstand each other perfectly, and it's a truly laughable situation, for every one, that is, but Brent and Fifi.

For years my skin would break out every once in a while—and ointments did very little to help me.

I read a doctor's article stating that pimply skin usually comes from the stomach—and bowels not getting rid of the poisons.

I tried Carter's Little Liver Pills for a few days—and since that time my skin is smooth and clear. Now I tell my friends the right way of getting rid of a broken out skin—and also of steering clear of upset stomach and sick headache. Carter's are all you claim for them.

FOURTEEN POINTS GUIDE TO SUCCESSFUL MOVIES

Hollywood, Cal. — Through a recently established system of selecting plots that conform to the covenant of 14 dramatic points, motion picture producers here now practically assure the success of a photograph before it is made. Of thousands of films produced in the past many were failures from the standpoint of audiences.

Irving Cummings, director, under whose direction several productions have been filmed through this new method, declares that in the future failures will be almost completely eliminated. In this manner more pictures that appeal to the audiences will be turned out, he said.

The photoplay when adjudged by this method should contain a majority of the fourteen following dramatic ingredients: ambition, conflict, conspiracy, devotion, eternal triangle, greed, intrigue, love, mother love, the quadrangle, retribution, reconciliation, sacrifice, feminine appeal.

NEW BRITISH WIRELESS STATION NEEDS HIGH MASTS FOR SERVICE

Rugs, Eng.—Six times as high as the Nelson monument in Trafalgar Square, London, are the 12 masts of the new British government wireless station here, through which it is anticipated telephonic communication with the United States as well as wireless communication with all parts of the British Empire will be effected.

There is an electric lift inside each mast to carry four men to the top in 15 minutes. There is also a ladder up which the top of the mast can be reached in half an hour. The masts are supported on porcelain insulators and can rock slightly on a joint at the base. In a high wind the top of the masts swings to the extent of eight feet.

BULGARIA FACES NECESSITY IMPORTING SUGAR THIS YEAR

Sofia.—Due to a smaller harvest of beets, Bulgaria's sugar crop is expected to fall far short of that of last year, when the country had sugar to export. The reason is said to be due partly to the refusal of the factories to furnish beet seed to the peasants.

Last year there was such a bumper crop of beets and so much sugar manufactured that the price dropped. The manufacturers are said to have guarded against a similar situation this year with the result that many beet raisers withheld the seed from the farmers. Thus the beet acreage was greatly reduced and it is predicted that Bulgaria will be obliged to import sugar from Czechoslovakia.
