RECORDS INDICATE CLOSE RACE AS WEEK OPENS

Two Winterville Workers Get Away to Flying Start; Room for Many More Workers

A careful check of the records for the past week, the first real active week in The Daily Reflector's subscription campaign, shows some very satisfactory work being done.

Two workers from Winterville have got away to a flying start and bid fair to give all the anxious ones a hard race for the leading prizes.

Outside workers are especially wanted in The Reflector's subscription campaign. Over $2,700 in prizes and cash commissions awaits those on October 29th who have the salesmanship ability to gather votes.

New workers in the campaign are still being solicited. Perhaps the leading winners have not yet been nominated; perhaps they will be nominated during the coming few days and it may be that all the winners are now listed.

On the list of workers turning for last week there were a good many who had accomplished fine results but just couldn't seem to get it out of their heads that they were doing anything but poor work.

FALL REVIVAL BEGINS FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. L. R. Ennis Will Preach This Evening on the Subject "What Is a Revival?"

Rev. L. E. Ballard, pastor, preached the opening sermon of the fall revival at the Free Will Baptist church last evening on the subject "Prayer."

"In a revival the pulpit is powerful; the personal touch is mighty; co-operation is essential, but the Christian's sharpest sword in the great fight against sin has ever been, and is today—prayer. I want us to think of this great power that is ours for a few minutes this evening.

The preacher then proceeded to discuss the subject of prayer under three divisions: 1. What is prayer, 2. How should we pray, 3. Will God hear our prayers, and if he does not answer them, why not?

A charge of murder has been lodged against Richardson whose condition is reported as critical and an autopsy will be performed to determine the exact cause of his wife's death.

The many friends of Mr. P. G. Luper will regret to learn that he is ill at his home on Eight Street. A speedy recovery is wished for him.

SPECIAL AIR BOARD STARTS LONG PROBE RECENT DISASTERS

Will Conduct Investigation Into All Phases of American Aviation

Washington, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The long investigated air defense of the nation was started on another long probe today with the President's special air board inheriting all the controversial background of accusation and criticism in starting out to find the facts.

The hearing opened at 10:30 a. m. with as its first witness Acting Secretary of War Davis, who first had urged the board's creation after the controversy of air craft started. In calling Secretary Davis, it was the desire of Dwight W. Morrow, chairman and the other eight members of the board to report a broad picture of the situation as regards the army air service in laying the ground for its inquiries into all phases of American Aviation.

Secretary Davis had let it be known before the meeting that he was prepared to present a picture in broad outline of the army air service situation, and for details and developments on the more technical side he would refer the board to qualified military authorities, whom he had selected to accompany him before the hearing.

Smith Declares He Missed Hitting Pres. By Twenty Feet

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Nathan D. Smith, retired business man of Baltimore, whose automobile was reported as having narrowly escaped striking President Coolidge in Washington last night, declared that he did not come within twenty feet of hitting the President.

He said he was driving down a Washington street at a speed of not more than eight miles per hour. As he was rounding a corner, he said he saw a group of men. A young man jumped upon the running board of his car, declared Smith, and told him to watch out because the president was ahead.

"Who are you?" Smith asked. "I am a secret service agent," was the reply. The agent then called a policeman and ordered his arrest, Smith said.

ORDERS INDICTMENT MEMBERS OF MOB STORMING THE JAIL

Assault Make Upon Buncombe County Jail by 2000 Men Seeking Negro Who Was Held for Attack Upon White Woman

Asheville, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Indictment of leaders and members of the mob who participated in the assault upon the Buncombe county jail Saturday night was ordered by Judge John Oglesby in superior court today when he charged the grand jury. J. E. Swain, solicitor, declared he will ask for indictment of those chiefly responsible for the storming of the jail when a mob of two thousand sought to capture Alvin Mansel, negro, arrested Saturday night for an alleged attack upon a young white woman.

The members of the mob tore down the gates of the jail yard and went through the jail breaking locks looking for Mansel. Several ex-convicts were said by a deputy sheriff to have been in the mob and these offered liberty to several prisoners confined in the jail.

Indictments will be asked on the counts of inciting riot, destroying public property and assault. One negro prisoner led to the steps of the jail for identification was struck two or three times by members of the mob. Judge Oglesby charged the grand jury on the statutes covering mob violence and instructed the jury to do its duty to uphold law and order.

Will Not Attempt to Calculate What French Payment Might Be

Washington, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Dispatches representing the French Debt Commission as prepared to propose a funding settlement with the United States that contemplates the reduction without delay of the principal of the French debt, have been received with obvious satisfaction by officials of the Debt Commission.

While the overnight dispatches from the liner Paris, which is bringing Finance Minister Caillaux and his associates on the French commission to this country, gave no indications of the amount of the principal payment which he may propose. There was no concealment of interest in the report that he was prepared to offer as the first of these a substantial payment in 1926.

What was probably received with most satisfaction here by the Debt Commission, was the word that the French proposal would not be tied up with either reparation payment of the tentative French-British debt agreement. The construction placed upon this by some observers that France was prepared to negotiate solely on the nation's capacity to pay was regarded as the first importance in clearing the way for a settlement.

The amount of the installment which the French are prepared to pay was said to be the most closely guarded secret of the mission. Officials here would not attempt to calculate what the French payment might be. With the reports of the French program construed as meaning that France would not seek a moratorium as had been expected in some quarters, it was assumed that for the immediate beginning of annual amortization payment, and the increase over the period of years, M. Caillaux also expected as a concession a minimum interest charge. This, however, would raise a question as there is expressed opposition in Congressional circles to granting France any more favorable terms than were extended to Great Britain.

Immediately upon convening, the court went into executive session. At 1:35 p. m., the court was thrown open to the public.

DIAGNOSTIC CLINIC FOR TUBERCULOSIS TO BE HELD IN OCT.

Specialist Will Be Here Wednesday, October 7 and Saturday, October 10; Clinic to Be Conducted by Health Department

The Health Department has arranged the dates for the Tuberculosis Diagnostic Clinic, and the specialist will be in Greenville on Wednesday, October 7 and Saturday, October 10th. If you wish an examination be sure to call the Health Department or have your doctor make an appointment for you.

Statistics show that nine are effected with Tuberculosis in North Carolina for every death. If you have any doubt you should by all means make arrangements for an examination. Tuberculosis is like a house on fire, it can only be put out when discovered early. Hence the necessity of an examination if you are the least bit suspicious.

Any of the following symptoms should make you suspicious of having tuberculosis: Loss of weight, loss of strength, lack of energy and endurance, feeling tired and "run-down," especially in the afternoon or evening, poor appetite, indigestion or dyspepsia, and a temperature of normal or below normal in the morning and 99 or above in the afternoon or evening, night sweats, shortness of breath, and persistent huskiness of voice or hoarseness should also make one suspect tuberculosis.

There were in North Carolina in 1923 2,545 deaths from tuberculosis. A great many people do not know that they are effected, because the symptoms of early tuberculosis are indefinite. The disease in the early stage does not made one feel very sick.

Mitchell Relieved From Active Duty On September 19

San Antonio, Texas, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Colonel William Mitchell, Air service critic and air officer of the Eighth Corps area, was relieved from active duty September 19 by order of Major General Ernest Hinds. It became known here today.

"I don't want to talk about it," Colonel Mitchell declared today. "Please say I have nothing whatever to say."

"We have nothing to say" General Hinds said today. "Please say there is no comment from the Eighth Corps headquarters."

Following the Shenandoah disaster Colonel Mitchell, who at one time during the world war commanded the entire allied air fleets, issued a statement in which he declared recent air disasters were due to the "almost criminal negligence of the United States Air Service."

Court martial charges, which are said to be under preparation in Washington, have been expected in San Antonio for some time. Action of Major General Ernest Hinds in relieving Colonel William Mitchell from active duty at San Antonio is understood to have been based on the feeling of General Hinds that language used by Colonel Mitchell relative to air service matters amounted to insubordination to his superiors.

Waukegan, Ill., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Arthur Holt, 50, and his daughter Mrs. Clara Hare, of Chicago, are charged with the murder of Mrs. Arthur Holt, wife and mother of the accused, in warrants issued today. Mrs. Holt was shot to death yesterday at the family's summer home at Fox Lake.

DAVIS OUTLINES THE POLICY OF THE ARMY AIR SERVICE

Witness Before Air Board Says There Is No Reason to Be Panicky About Air Service

Washington, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The American people were assured today by acting Secretary Davis that there is no reason to be panicky about the condition of the army air service.

Testifying as the first witness before the president's air board, Mr. Davis outlined the policy of the Army Air Service and pointed to the successful world flight by army planes as one achievement which has proved its right to the public's confidence. The amount of equipment is inadequate but this is controlled by the funds available, he said, while the personnel, although somewhat limited, is unexcelled by any air service in the world.

Mr. Davis, who first urged the appointment of the board pledged the full co-operation of the War Department in the inquiry and said if during the investigation charges were made against its administration he would welcome the opportunity to appear and answer them.

"The War Department" said Mr. Davis, "welcomes this inquiry into the air defense of the country by this board of disinterested citizens. National defense is a sacred trust of all the people. They have the right to know whether the appropriations are being wisely and economically expended in the most effective manner."

"And studies, records and reports whether public, confidential or secret are at your disposal. Officers, enlisted men and employees will appear before you if and when they are desired and will testify fully, freely and frankly. There has not been a not now and will not be any muzzling of army officers in their expression of their individual opinions. In your constructive program the War Department will cordially cooperate. I personally have long felt that such an inquiry was essential in order that public opinion may rest assured that national defense is being wisely safeguarded in the hands of officers of ability, loyalty and vision and not of mere bureaucrats. At this hearing I will confine myself to a general statement of policy and leave the details to be elaborated by military and technical experts."

As to the proposal for the establishment of the separate department of aeronautics to provide for an unified army and navy air service, the acting secretary called attention to the previously expressed views of Secretary Weeks as presenting the attitude of the department on the subject. Explaining that the Secretary was prevented by illness from appearing before the board, Mr. Davis quoted Mr. Weeks' testimony under a congressional committee in opposition to the proposal.

In the testimony Mr. Weeks described the present organization under the National Defense Act providing for an air service as an integral part of the army is sound and should not be altered.

JUDGE DECLARES NOEL SANE ENOUGH PLEAD INDICTMENT

Prisoner Refuses to Answer Indictment and Plea of "Not Guilty" Entered in His Behalf

Newark, N. J., Sept. 21.—(AP)—Harrison W. Noel, Montclair youth, charged with the kidnaping of six year old Mary Daly and the killing of Raymond Pierce, negro chauffeur, is sane enough to plead to the indictment the judge ruled today.

The court fixed Thursday as the date for the opening of testimony on the question of whether or not board of directors of the Standard Oil Company, New Jersey, died this morning at his home in East Norwich, Long Island. He was 61 years old. The prisoner refused to answer in court today to other indictment and a plea of "not guilty" was entered in his behalf.

THE IDLE YOUNG

It's not the idle rich but the idle young that is raising the devil with the country. On every hand you see young people shying from work and trying to get by without it. It scarcely ever wins. Too much pampering and too little enforcement of discipline by parents is largely to blame for the present overflowing of jails, reformatories and penitentiaries. Any child not brought up to work and obey his parents will sneer at the law when he gets out into the world for himself. If you have a child and would make him a good citizen, teach him to work and make him obey.—Ayden Dispatch.

No auto driver as yet has written to Washington demanding an investigation into the the cheaper price of gasoline.

If the weather is a bit unusual you may recall that it is usually that way.

Presumably, that fundamentalist college to be started at Dayton, Tenn., will not need laboratories for the study of biology.

That Indian university which forbids students having automobiles is severe on them. What'll they do if they can't put in their time riding?

A NEW NATIONAL ROAD SYSTEM

The recent action of the Interstate Highway Board in designating a national system of roads covering the United States and touching every state capital is a reminder that an even more ambitious project is being considered. The Pan-American Road Congress, which is to meet in Buenos Aires October 3 at the invitation of the Argentine government, has for one of its objects the construction of a Pan-American highway which will unite the countries that compose the Pan-American Union. The United States and a score of other American republics will have representatives at the meeting.

These plans for highway systems connecting points thousands of miles distant direct attention to the long journeys that are now taken in automobiles. It has become a commonplace matter for motorists to cross the United States. The network of roads mapped out at the Washington meeting provides eight transcontinental routes from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific and nine from the Gulf of Mexico to Canada. Even in the Old World, where progress in road building is far behind that in America, long automobile journeys are being taken, one of the current magazines, for example, describing a motor trip from Western Europe to India.

The Washington committee did well in arranging to mark the interstate routes designated with uniform signs. Some private associations of highway promoters have done this in the case of such interstate roads as the Lincoln Highway and the Susquehanna Trail, and it has served a good purpose, guiding motorists through towns and past intersections and making it unnecessary to stop and inquire directions.

The plans prepared at Washington will not be carried into effect, of course, for some time. It is not to be imagined that in a few months there will be eight unbroken ribbons of pavement extending from coast to coast. Not even the Lincoln Highway has been paved in its entirety, although it has been a well-traveled trans-continental route for a number of years. Only a program has been prepared by the Interstate Highway Board, but in its adoption a step forward has been taken in the facilitation of long distance motor travel.

THE KIND IF TOWN YOU LIKE

Something like a decade ago the idea took hold all over the country that aspiring towns should advertise. So universally boards of commerce and citizens' committees and town councils began to think up slogans and the world was exhorted to "Watch Winkville Win," and "Boost for Bingtown."

For a long time the making of the slogan seemed to be about all that was done in these local advertising enterprises. It never seemed to occur to anybody that people don't rush to a town and plead to be permitted to stop there because of its slogan. Many of the places having the most enticing slogans also had the most wretched hotel accommodations. It was the common remark among those who attempted to drive an automobile through the country that the improved roads of the township were vastly safer and better than the main streets of the villages. These were frequently left so full of holes and ruts and so cut up with elevated crosswalks that to drive a motor car over them faster than 10 miles an hour was a perilous performance. Nevertheless at the entrance to nearly every village was the hostile warning that anyone driving faster than a certain speed would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. And village constables and justices of the peace were frequently in a league of watchful waiting to make good the threat.

All this has changed now. A new spirit of hospitality is spreading. Nearly every town and village likes to be known for its courtesy to tourists. Pavements are of the best. Signs at the city limits welcome the stranger and hint without offense that his self-restraint in observing the local speed regulations will be appreciated. The slogan is not necessary in such towns. The stranger not only watches but wishes the growth of a community in which he has been so kindly treated.

CORINNE HAS SURPRISE ROLE IN NW FILM AT WHITE'S THEATRE TODAY AND TUESDAY

Star Abandons Hothouse Types for Action in "Love's Wilderness." Theatre-goers will meet a new Corinne Griffith when this star appears in her latest First National picture, "Love's Wilderness."

No longer is she the frail orchid of the exclusive ballroom or the frayed rose of poverty. For the first time, Corinne's scenario writers have steered her up against the primitive side of life. As an abandoned wife in the wilds of Canada, she is given drastic action to augment her tense emotional acting.

The story, by Evelyn Campbell, was Corinne's own selection. As the head of her own producing company she exercises this unusual right among film stars.

"A woman may tire of her gowns and jewels; she may tire of everything else in the world. But she never tires of love."

Such was her explanation of the values she saw in "Love's Wilderness" as screen entertainment.

Mr. Marcus has arranged in addition to the regular program at White's Theatre for Monday and Tuesday a prologue fitting to the picture an "Old Southern Mansion" with a local colored quartette rendering old southern songs. This is an extra added feature to the Monday program. A Pathe News, Aesop's Fables and Topics of the day complete White's Theatre presentation.

CIRCUS MEN ARE BUSY IN WINTER

A big organization of the caliber of the Walter L. Main show does not run its season, dissolve and disperse. In the winter the entire establishment is maintained. Only the performers and the working men are dropped, and with the former this is generally a mere suspension of service, for contracts are frequently made for several years. Owners, managers, contracting agents, treasurer and bookkeepers and others find no idle moments.

Railroad cars, suffering from the hard effects of a season's campaign, need painters and carpenters; new acts and novelties must be secured to keep abreast of the times; a new route must be laid out and considered and to this the management must know the population and character of every town, have information of the business conditions, vicissitudes of the year, etc.

The question of transportation is the most careful one involved. For instance up in agricultural Vermont, Windsor County, nestles the village of White River Jet. It boasts of a weekly newspaper, a public school and a national bank. Its population does not exceed 1,500. Yet, the Walter L. Main Shows, and a few other of the big tented organizations make an annual pilgrimage thither because it is local trade center, three railroads converging upon it, in addition to two rivers. Ordinarily the town would not afford enough patrons to pay for the feed of the horses and elephants, but the throngs converted there by train and boat always fill the tents.

Not in anyway does the Walter L.

Main show of the present season resemble the show of other years. Men, women and horses with the great institution number almost 700. Ten acres of ground is utilized for the tents. At night the big show is transported from town to town aboard two special trains. The Walter L. Main Shows will give performances at 2 and 8 p. m. in Greenville, Friday, September 25.

Wyatt Trial Postponed On Account Illness of Mem. Defense Counsel

Raleigh, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The trial of Jesse Wyatt, former Raleigh chief of detectives, charged with murder of Samuel S. Holt, of Swain County, was postponed in Wake County Superior Court because of the illness of a member of the defense counsel. It is regarded as unlikely that the trial will come up at this term of court.

Wyatt shot and killed Holt on the Smithfield road on June 1 when he said he thought the latter was a rum runner. An examination of Holt's au-

Negro Lynched and Burned at Stake for Attacking Girl

New Albany, Miss., Sept. 21.—(AP)—No arrests had been made early today in connection with the lynching of J. P. Ivey, negro, who was burned at the stake in a farming community 18 miles from here yesterday evening. Sheriff John W. Roberts, from whom the negro was taken by a mob of approximately one thousand men, declared he did not recognize any of those in the crowd. The mob dispersed after the lynching and the negro's story that three others were implicated with him in the attack upon the daughter of a farmer. Friday, was discounted when the girl, who is in a serious condition in a local hospital, declared that Ivey alone had attacked her.

Ivey was a member of a timber cutting crew working near the field in which the young girl was attacked. He was arrested Friday and the mob began to form in New Albany and later when the negro was on his way to be identified by the girl he was seized and burned at the stake.

United States Navy Band Will Appear Here October 19

Various committees of the local Kiwanis Club are busily engaged in the completion of plans for the appearance here on the afternoon and evening of October 19th of the United States Navy Band, and Mr. R. G. Fitzgerald who is in charge of the ticket selling committee stated today that the sale of seats would begin within a few days.

These performances will excel that of any musical organization ever before appearing in this part of the State, and the local Kiwanians, who have fixed the admission prices at a figure that will enable them to break even should there be capacity audiences at both performances, are to be commended in their efforts to give the people such a treat. While the band is making a tour of the State, Greenville is the only city near its size that has made an effort to have the organization to include it in its itinerary.

A Correction and an Announcement

By J. W. FERRELL
Now in Miami, Florida

I HAVE had numerous letters, telegrams and inquiries since I have been in Miami asking if I had severed my connection with the Atlantic Coast Realty Company. This is the reason for this announcement.

I have not severed my connection with the Atlantic Coast Realty Company and NEVER EXPECT TO. My association with them is the same that it has always been, and every transaction that I make in Miami will be for the ultimate benefit of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company. My policy will be the same as it has always been, which is to deal in real estate for them only.

My friends in North Carolina and Virginia will be glad to know that the business of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company is being conducted now as heretofore and is enjoying a splendid business. The policy of the Atlantic Coast Realty Company is now as it has always been—to give to their clients a real estate service of the highest order.

The reason that we are operating in Florida under the name of J. W. Ferrell, Inc., is due to the fact that there was an Atlantic Coast Realty Company already in this State and it became necessary to use another name. Another reason for this name is because Dr. C. S. Hassell and Mr. Thos. O'H. Dupree, two gentlemen formerly of Greenville, N. C., who compose the firm of the Hassell-Dupree Company, wished me to use my name in the Company organized.

The Hassell-Dupree Company has been one of the outstanding successes in Miami.

These gentlemen from North Carolina have succeeded in building one of the finest and strongest organizations in the South. They have made millions of dollars for themselves, and for their clients. They have bought and sold many millions of dollars' worth of property in Miami, and have the reputation of having made money for every person who has bought property from them. Their reputation in Miami in every respect is as good as that of any Bank in the city, and I am delighted that the Atlantic Coast Realty Company can be associated with them. This association will mean much in many ways to my friends and clients "back home."

J. W. Ferrell, Inc., is a real estate selling organization and is the sole selling agent for all the Hassell-Dupree properties. The opportunities in Florida, and especially in Miami, are so great I felt that to overlook them would be to overlook the most astounding developments imaginable. The growth of Miami is simply without parallel, and the future of this city is assured beyond all doubts.

If any of my friends in North Carolina and Virginia wish to make an investment in Miami, the J. W. Ferrell Company, and the Hassell-Dupree Company will be glad indeed to look after your interests to the very best of our ability, and you may be assured that we will protect your interests in every possible manner. Our service and our sense of obligation will not end with the purchase or the sale of property through our offices. No transaction will ever be closed until all parties concerned are entirely satisfied.

normal or above. Spot sales Saturday were large 51,175 against 54,008 Friday. Quotation unchanged. New Orleans has 32,301 bales on shipboard against 11,381 and Galveston 27,700 against 32,750.

Coffee
Despite the reaction on Friday from the declines during the latter part of last week, we believe it is temporary and that Brazil is anxious to sell coffee, and as there appear ample supplies for the time being the trade will await better values before purchasing. Therefore would defer long commitments until the market has a healthier decline.

Sugar
Believe the market last week absorbed more liquidation from long interests than will again prevail as longs have materially reduced their commitments and that prices are more apt to react than work lower.

Stock Letter
We look for a big market this week with several new highs to be established. Rails and specialties should be bought. Follow the individual movements as the market as a whole can hardly be judged correctly. Do not overload as natural reactions might cause you to part with perfectly good stocks if you are carrying too much.

Cotton Summary
The cotton belt on Saturday was practically rainless and on Sunday there were a few widely scattered showers in Texas. Indications are for showers today and Tuesday in the South-Atlantic and East Gulf states, and today in Ark., Oklahoma and West Texas.

Weather Bureau forecast for week: South Atlantic and East Gulf States mostly fair, except for period of showers about middle of week; West Gulf States, showers at beginning, mostly fair thereafter. Temperatures normal or above. Temperatures equaling or exceeding the highest this late in the season are reported from points in the East Gulf States and Tennessee. No official mention is made of any tropical disturbance.
