JOHN W. LANGLEY DENIED APPEAL SUPREME COURT

Convicted of Participation in Conspiracy to Violate Federal Prohibition Law

Washington, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Representative John W. Langley, of Kentucky, convicted of participation in a conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law, was denied an appeal today by the Supreme Court.

Unless he can now obtain from the courts a rehearing he must begin serving his two-year sentence in the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary. The refusal of the Supreme Court to review the case will be followed within a day or two by a formal order under which the Circuit Court of Appeals in Cincinnati may order the commitment of Langley to the Atlanta Penitentiary. It will be necessary for the Circuit Court of Appeals to defer action pending Langley's next move.

The Kentucky Representative was convicted of being a party to a conspiracy to unlawfully remove whiskey from the Belle of Anderson distillery, in Kentucky. After his conviction he was re-elected to Congress, but has refrained from attending the present session. A House Committee, which investigated the charges against him, decided to take no action so long as the case remained in the courts.

PROGRESS MADE BY THE PITT COUNTY SCHOOLS

(This brief report of the activities of the Pitt County Schools has been submitted by the office of the County Board of Education.)

In the movement taken by the larger schools of the county for cleaner school rooms, more attractive premises, tidier children, and better sanitary conditions in general, Belvoir so far has led all the other schools in the accomplishment of the points as laid down in the score card of the Pitt County Teachers' Handbook.

A great deal of interest and effort has been taken in this movement. Some schools have repainted their walls, some have started a beautifying of the campus campaign, and some have carried on health campaigns, but as yet the schools are not up to the standard of excellence which they desire to reach before the close of their terms. The following scores are based on the 100 per cent graduation plan and reveal a comparatively low record:

Belvoir, 77 per cent; Grimsland, 69 per cent; Bell Arthur, 65 per cent; Bethel, 60 per cent; Winterville, 59 1-2 per cent; Falk-

Changing Woman.
Not "Free," Not "Love."
A Silent Mussolini?
Test Your Vocabulary.
ARTHUR BRISBANE

A young New Englander, accused of trying to start a "free love furore," says it is "an experiment in social science." Such experiments planned to dispense with the "ring and the hook" never go far. So-called "free love" has two serious defects: "It isn't free, and it isn't love."

But such experiments have their good side. They make it clear, to whoever will learn, that matrimony, with its admitted imperfections, all of them man's fault, is a great deal better than any substitute.

The most important dressmaker in Berlin—that isn't saying much, since Paris rules fashion—says women will soon take to knickerbockers and skirts will disappear. "This lady remarks, and there is much in her philosophy, that women can afford to wear knickerbockers now, and no longer need the voluminous dresses that were used to hide ugly shapes, unnecessary fat, etc."

"There are few ugly legs now and waists are slenderer," says that Berlin lady, and polite men will agree concerning legs, with what used to be said before prohibition about whiskey. "Some whiskey was much better than other, but there was no bad whiskey."

However, while women may suddenly change from skirts to knickerbockers, as they have changed with violent suddenness from long hair to short hair, you never can be sure that women will not change back again. Man's clothing represents usefulness, convenience.

Woman's clothing represents mystery, romance, sentiment, heaven knows what. Just when you expect the object of your dreams to rush out in knickerbockers, flat heels and rough stockings, she is most apt to appear with silk, satin or lace skirt dragging on the ground, puffed sleeves twice as big as her head, a hoopskirt eight feet in diameter, and a bustle fastened to the back.

Woman is changeable, because she has not quite attained perfection.

Milan reports that Mussolini will give an Italian imitation of President Coolidge's taciturnity. According to the Popolo D'Italia Mussolini thinks he has talked too much. "Let us keep quiet and let action talk," is his new motto. It is only fair to Mussolini to say that his actions have talked more than he has talked. To start in the uniform of a simple soldier, and work up in a few months to be manager of a great country, restoring it to its ancient power and place among nations, offsets a good deal of talk.

There are two ways of succeeding in this world, the President (Continued on page 6)

LACY'S CONDITION SHOWS A SLIGHT IMPROVEMENT

State Treasurer Still Regarded As In a Serious Condition

Raleigh, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The condition of State Treasurer, B. R. Lacy, regarded yesterday as critical by attending physicians, and improved slightly this morning, Mr. Lacy, however, it was stated by Dr. Albert Anderson, attending physician, might still be regarded as in a serious condition.

Mr. Lacy, who for years has been suffering from asthma, contracted a severe cold last week and developed a toxic condition. Some improvement during the week led friends to believe that he had only one of the recurring asthmatic attacks from which he had rallied so often. But Saturday night his condition became worse and was regarded as critical Sunday.

Attendance upon the aged treasurer and Dr. Anderson is being assisted in treating the case by other physicians.

Principle of Smith Bill Is Approved

Washington, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The principle of the Smith Bill for regional representation on the Interstate Commerce Commission was approved today by the Senate Interstate Commerce Commission.

A sub-committee was appointed to work out details each to the number of regions in which the country should be divided for purposes of making further appointments. Senator Smith, of South Carolina, ranking Democrat on the committee, and author of the bill, is chairman of the sub-committee.

The proposal first was made some months ago when Southern Senators were opposed to confirmation of Thomas Woodlock, of New York, as a member of the Commission on the ground that the South East was being deprived of representation.

BANDITS BOARD TRAIN IN MEXICO ROB AND MURDER PASSENGERS

One of Most Atrocious Crimes That Mexico Has Known in Many Years; Twenty Bodies Are Burned Beyond Recognition

Mexico City, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Mexican bandits yesterday committed one of the most atrocious crimes that Mexico has known in many days.

Boarding a train at Quada ajara bound for Mexico City they murdered and robbed most of the passengers, and a majority of the military escort, who led the train and refused to the debris. Twenty bodies—burned beyond recognition already have been found in the tangled mass of ruins and it is believed still others are in it. Those of the military escort who were not killed were wounded. The bandits escaped on the engine which was drawing the train and which later was found several stations away from where the massacre was carried out. It is said that the outrage was committed because the bandits believed General Ferreira, military commander of the state of Jalisco, was aboard the train. Twenty armed men, who had entered the train wearing disguises, suddenly began using their knives on the soldiers and killing and robbing the passengers. All the military escorts were killed except seven. The bandits were said to be acting under orders of former Colonel Manuel Nunez. Their booty was $200,000 pesos.

Immediately after the news of the crime arrived here orders were issued for federal troops to go in pursuit of the bandits.

Richmond Visited By $100,000 Fire Early Today

Richmond, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Fire, which started at 4:45 o'clock this morning in the C. W. Antrim Co., wholesale coffee and tea establishment on Cary street here, gutted that place and the adjoining structure occupied by the Gun Ellis Company, wholesale grocers, and for more than two hours threatened the entire block before being brought under control. The origin of the fire has not been determined and the loss is expected to run well above the $100,000 mark.

48 Killed and 225 Injured in Traffic Accidents During Last Week

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 11.—(AP)—A sharp decrease in the number of traffic fatalities in the South was noted in a survey for the week ended last night made by the Associated Press today. Forty-eight were killed and 225 injured by trains, automobiles, trolleys and motorcycles, the survey showed. The previous week 61 deaths were recorded and Christmas week 70 were killed in the eleven states covered by the survey.

North Carolina and Florida tied for first place with 14 deaths each. Virginia and Mississippi reported no deaths. North Carolina reported 19 injured while Florida led all other states with 51 injured.

TWENTY TERMS SUPERIOR COURT NOW IN SESSION

Two Special and Eleven Regular Terms Start Today in Addition to Seven From Last Week

Raleigh, Jan. 11.—(AP)—With two special and 11 regular terms of superior court opening today and seven terms continuing from last week court terms will be in session this week in 21 counties.

Regular terms open today in Beaufort, Warren, Chatham, Pitt, Franklin, New Hanover, Cumberland, Anson, Gaston, Catawba and Burke counties. Special terms have been called to open today in Mecklenburg and Burke counties. And courts, previously opened, will continue during the present week in Washington, Duplin, Durham, Forsyth, Guilford, Cabarrus, Henderson and Haywood counties.

Two terms scheduled to open today have been postponed. The two-week special civil term called to open in Johnston county today has been postponed until the week of January 18. And the Surry county regular term, which the calendar showed would open today, has been postponed on account of the bad weather in that section.

The Mecklenburg special term opening today is to be devoted to the civil docket. Judge Thomas J. Shaw, of Greensboro, will preside.

The Burke county term is likewise for the trial of civil cases, and it also, is for two weeks. To preside in Burke, Governor McLean has named R. Lee Wright, of Salisbury, as emergency judge. Judge G. E. Midyette, of Jacksonville, will preside at the two-week mixed term opening in Warren county today. Judge Midyette has exchanged with Judge F. N. Cramer, of Southport. The latter goes to New Hanover county to open a one-week criminal term of court.

Judge Albion Dunn, of Greenville, having exchanged with Judge W. A. Devin, of Oxford, the former will preside in Pitt county. The term opening in that county today is for two weeks. The first week will be devoted to the civil docket, while during the second week both civil and criminal cases will be tried.

In Gaston county, a one-week criminal term opens today and in Buncombe, the terms opening today is for two weeks, for disposition of cases.

QUEEN MOTHER IS LAID TO REST

Body of Margherita Entombed in the Pantheon Above That of King Humbert

Rome, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Margherita of Savoy, Italy's first Queen of Italian birth was laid to rest today in the Pantheon, tomb of the nation's illustrious dead, where lies also the body of her husband, King Humbert, who was assassinated in 1900.

The body was brought from Bordighera, where the Queen Mother died January 4th, on a special train. The train made one-minute stops at all the principal stations enroute to the capital, arriving there the body was conveyed through the streets which were draped with mourning to the pantheon.

There a short ceremony was held after which the body was entombed above that of King Humbert.

TRIPLE SLAYER DECLARED SANE

State Board of Mental Hygiene Reports That Rudolph Disse Is Mentally Normal

Richmond, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Rudolph Disse, 20-year-old triple slayer, is sane, the State Board of mental hygiene reported to Governor Tinkle today. The board held that "he is mentally normal." He is under sentence to die in the electric chair on February 19. The members of the board voted by separate ballot and their verdict that the youth, who shot and killed his sweetheart, his rival, and a police detective and seriously wounded an automobile salesman here on July 28th last, was mentally responsible for his act.

In Gaston county, a one-week criminal term opens today and in Buncombe, the terms opening today is for two weeks, for disposition of cases.

WILL INSIST ON DISPOSITION OF MUSCLE SHOALS

Underwood and Norris Think Issue Will Be Settled at This Session of Congress

Washington, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The Muscle Shoals issue will be settled at this session of Congress in the opinion of both Chairman Norris, of the Senate Agricultural Committee, and Senator Underwood, Democrat of Alabama, leaders of the opposing forces of disposition of the property.

Chairman Norris, who for the last five years has prevented Senate action on Muscle Shoals because a government operation bill would not be adopted, today told the committee that he would no longer fight against Senate action, and if the people of the South did not want the "cheapest power in the world developed" he would not attempt "to force it upon them."

He said, however, that he would insist that some disposition be made of Muscle Shoals at this session as the issue has been pending long enough. Senator Underwood also declared that the issue probably would be settled at this session of Congress. Senator Underwood favors private development of Muscle Shoals and the Tennessee River.

"Old Time Fiddle" Be Re-Echoed Thruout Carolinas

Charlotte, Jan. 11.—(AP)—The "old time fiddle" will be re-echoed throughout the Carolinas during the present week. Henry Ford rekindled zeal for the fiddle and the strains of "Yo Arkansas Traveler," "Turkey in the Straw," and the "square dance" will result in more than 200 representatives of the Detroit manufacturer in North and South Carolina holding home warnings on Tuesday and Friday nights of this week.

FEASTS OF LIGHTS A GREAT SUCCESS

The Epiphany Service Proves Most Beautiful and Impressive

The Epiphany service held at St. Paul's Church last night was a complete success, according to the report of the crowded congregation. After the evening prayer and an appropriate sermon by the Rector, candles were distributed to the congregation, and three beautifully robed and crowned Kings, representing the "Three Wise Men," slowly marched up the aisle of the church singing the old carol: "We Three Kings of Orient Are."

Gazpard, bearing a gift of gold, was represented by W. W. Lee; Melchior, with a vase of myrrh, was represented by Jack Edwards; Balthassar, bearing burning incense, was represented by the altar, they presented their gifts, and knelt. All lights were extinguished save one small candle upon the altar. The Rector lit from the altar light a candle for each of the Wise Men, and they in turn kindled the candles of those seated at the end of the nave. Everyone lit his neighbor's candle, and in the subdued light of these candles the final hymn was sung and the choir, the three Kings and Rector passed down the aisle followed by the congregation, everyone bearing his little light out into the darkness of night.

It was a beautiful symbol of the spiritual truth that every Christian comes to the altar of Christ for his light, and must carry it out into the world of sin and sorrow.

Wild life no longer is found a lone the frontiers, but in the cities.—Fayetteville Observer.

Oriental Visited By Robbers Early This Morning

New Bern, Jan. 11.—(AP)—$1,000 in cash and almost that amount in merchandise was stolen from two general stores, a drug store and a barber shop in Oriental early this morning by two men and a woman, who made their escape in a large automobile according to telephone messages, received by the Sun-Journal. The safe of George T. Midyette was cracked and $1,000 in cash was taken. The robberies accomplished their work unobserved until Lewis Adams, returning home late, observed a woman and two men from the Smith store, from which the supplies were taken. Adams paid no attention to the robbers, according to his statement.

still a luxury in this country. Books are more often bought with surplus earnings than with savings or money deed for the physical necessities.
One gets an exalted idea of the economic condition of the nation from the large numbers of "serious" works advertised in the literary reviews and magazines at prices ranging from $5 to $20 a volume. Thousands of these books were sold last year to American readers.
If all were purchased by the wealthy, the wealthy are here in great numbers.
If many found their way into the homes of the salaried

THE ROAD TO HAPPINESS

The assertion that there is no great happiness without struggle has been made so often, and has been exemplified in the lives of so many among those whom the world calls its greatest men, that the statement may well pass unchallenged.
Indeed, it is not until we come upon some particular case which supports this contention that a truth like this one forces itself on us.

Great genius, it appears,
is born out of the conflict with misfortune and reverses.
In men of great stature there seems to be something which urges them on the more effectively the more obstacles are put in their way. It seems as if their very weakness became their greatest strength. Most famous of all illustrations of the truth of this principle are the struggles of Demosthenes, today known to every schoolboy. Indeed, as someone has observed, "few of the great orators seem to have succeeded in oratory without difficulty. Neither Cicero nor Burke spoke with the ease of a young man in a Y. M. C. A. debating society."

In the realm of music we may find many examples of heroic struggles against obstacles. Beethoven, child of a consumptive mother and intemperate father, hampered by innumerable obstacles, including in later years even deafness, rose above them all to inspire with his wonderful music the generations that followed him.
The finest poetry of Keats is the outpouring of unfulfilled love. Charles Lamb, it is said, was glad that he stammered, for otherwise he might have become a second-rate clergyman.

Of course, the fact that genius seems to thrive in a hostile environment may be small comfort to the man who is not a genius. Nor even in the case of genius is the story complete without several chapters on those men of genius who succumbed, who were weighed down beyond hope with too many obstacles. But even for the average man it is true in a large measure that happiness is misfortune overcome. Unless the incentive to endeavor comes from within, which is not often the case, better than a total lack of incentive is such which is made by conditions that put obstacles in our way.

How She Gained 10 Pounds in 22 Days

SKINNY MEN CAN DO THE SAME

That's going some but skinny men, women and children just can't help putting on good, healthy flesh when they take McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets.

As chock full of vitamins as the nasty fishy-tasting cod liver oil itself, but these sugar-coated, tasteless tablets are as easy to take as candy, and won't upset the stomach.

One woman gained ten pounds in twenty-two days, 60 tablets, 60 cents. Ask Denton Drug Co., or any druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets and if you don't gain at least 5 pounds in 30 days your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.

Get McCoy's, the original and genuine, and avoid imitations.

600,000 MILES OF CLOTHES LINES IN U. S. BACKYARDS ON MONDAY

Women in 23,000,000 families still do back-breaking labor over the weekly wash-tub, according to Edith McChure Patterson, budget specialist of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Clothes lines strung throughout the United States on Blue Monday every week are 600,000 miles long," said Mrs. Patterson. "Soiled clothes washed weekly at home weigh 275,000 tons. Time spent by American women every week at washing and ironing is estimated at 120,000 years.

These figures speak of tragedy. It is the tragedy of the wives and mothers of the nation and it is altogether unnecessary. If these 23,000,000 laundry bags can be taken out of the way of the housewives, tub,

SOURCE OF RUBBER NOW IN TEXAS

Marathon, Texas, Jan. 11.—(AP)—In this little southwest Texas town domestic rubber is manufactured from the guayule plant, which grows wild all over this section.

The guayule is a shrub three to five feet high, and resembles sage brush. Beneath its outer bark is a sap, known as latex, from which the rubber is made.

The finished product comes from the presses in sheets about three inches thick and 30 inches long and 15 inches wide.

AN APPEAL FOR OLD CLOTHES

Crossmore wishes her many friends a Happy New Year, and wants to remind them that the bills in January are bigger than ever and harder to meet, because fewer clothes are sent for our sale, owing to the Christmas rush, so let us beg you to make an especial effort right after Christmas to send something to us, and send it just as often after that as possible.

Our trade now demands unlimited quantities of what you might call three classes of clothing.

Those for the poorer people to who we sell garments for a few pennies; simple and nice looking clothing, suitable for our boys and girls, especially those going off to college, and a large number of our people who are able to get work part of the time; then we have a trade which if you can cater to would bring in more money to the school than both the other classes combined. They are the people brought into the mountains by the developments occurring within fifty and sixty miles of Crossmore. These people have been accustomed to buy things in town shops and they have the money and are willing to pay for the best clothes that they can get. The handsomer the garment the more money we get for it and the more it helps the reputation of our store and the more popular our sales become.

We would like to remind you that we can sell other things besides clothing; household furniture of all kinds, trunks, suit cases and traveling bags and pictures. Almost anything used in the home.

In packing, please pack the hats by themselves in a box inside the bags or boxes with the other things, so they will not be mashed. Send everything by parcel post to Crossmore, N. C., if possible. Uncle Sam delivers this at our door.

And listen, Some of our friends have been shipping things to Pineola, N. C., and to Spruce Pine, N. C. Please in the future, ship all freight to Asheford, N. C.

Now, do not get this mixed up with Asheville. It will be easy to do. ASHEFORD, N. C., is within fourteen miles of us and we can get our freight much more quickly.

Send any express to Asheford, N. C., but do not send by express if you can keep from doing so unless you can prepay it. The expense is too great.

Please do not send anything to Pineola. We have had the mail route changed and things sent there are apt to be lost entirely or lie there for weeks before we get them. Also, do not send things to Spruce Pine any more. The office at Asheford, N. C., will take care of all our goods and will be more convenient to us. Do not let the agents tell you there is no such place. It is one the C. & O. Railway above Marion, so insist that they send packages there and we will get them, and will thank you for all you send.

"WANDERER" HAS GRIPPING SCENES

Thousands of persons killed in the blinking of an eyelash! One moment taking part in a scene of merriment, the next fleeing the wrath of God!

That is one of the powerful situations which develops in "The Wanderer," beloved parable of The Prodigal Son, a famous Welsh production for Paramount, which opens at the White's Theatre today for a run of two days.

Adapted to the screen by James T. O'Donohue from the famous stage play by Maurice Y. Samuels, Paramount's latest production unites an ideal screen story and a perfect cast under the direction of one of the world's ablest directors.

As "The Wanderer," William Collier, Jr., plays a part in which he blends comedy with tragedy and sympathy with hatred. Seldom has there been a masculine role that has called for the variety of emotions enacted by the prodigal son in "The Wanderer."

The plot of the story is a simple one, simple yet possessing a theme of tremendous force and sweep.

Jesse (Tyron Power) has two sons: Jether and Gaal (William Collier, Jr., and George Hagan).

Jether, the younger, grows weary of the monotony of his sheep herd life and longs to see the city beyond the hills. Despite the pleadings of his mother (Kathryn Williams) and the maiden, Naomi (Kathryn Bell), he takes his portion and leaves for the city. With him is a dissipated spendthrift, Tom (Ernest Torrence).

In the city Jether learns to drink and dice, and he soon falls into the snares of the siren, Tisha (Greta Nissen). Squandering his portion upon her, he soon finds himself without money. Tisha, discovering he is unable to buy her a necklace, turns her affections toward Paris, a giant sea captain (Wallace Berry). Jether leaves her house in anger.

But the hypnotic lure of Tisha is too strong. On a night when the doors of the courtesan's house are lung open that all who will may worship at the shrine of her pagan god, Jether follows the throng that crowds to the feast.

As the crowd worships the God, the curtain behind Jether is rent with a flash of lightning and a prophet appears, and denounces the idolaters. Inspired by Tisha, the mob attacks the prophet. Jether springs to his defense.

In aiding the man of God, the prodigal son, escapes the vengeance of Heaven, as lightning cleaves the sky, the statue of the pagan god crashes to the ground, the pillars of the banquet hall totter and the roof thunders down upon the apalled throng.

PARENT TEACHERS ASSOCIATION MODEL SCHOOL HOLDS INTERESTING MEET

The Parent Teachers Association of the Model School held one of the most interesting meetings of the year on Wednesday afternoon, January 6.

An enjoyable musical program under the direction of Misses Bertollet, Meade and Correll of the College faculty, was rendered as follows:

1. A violin ensemble of three numbers taken from popular music plays of the year—Misses Gorrell, Jennette Wedmore, Jean Morton—Miss Meade at the piano.

Miss Catherine Grantham sang two numbers—

A Birthday—Cowen.

A song from the Persian—Chadwick.

She was accompanied by Miss Bertollet.

Misses Bertollet and Meade concluded the program with a piano duet—Two Spanish Dances—Moszkowski.

Following this program, Miss Fallon of the city library told the parents how to interest their children in good literature. Her discussion of this vital subject was both delightful and inspiring and it is to be regretted that every parent in Greenville did not hear this talk.

You Must Pay Your Debts!

Or Further Credit in Greenville is Gone Forever

SECRETARY OF GREENVILLE'S MERCHANTS ASSOCIATION IS PREPARING A LIST FOR ITS MEMBERS OF ALL PEOPLE THAT DO A CREDIT BUSINESS IN GREENVILLE. THE MANNER IN WHICH YOU PAY YOUR DEBTS WILL BE CONVEYED TO EVERY MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATION, AND IF YOU HAVE FAILED TO TAKE CARE OF YOUR OBLIGATIONS IN DUE TIME YOUR CREDIT DAYS ARE BUT A FEW.

Are You Abusing The Courtesy of a Charge Account?

UNFORTUNATELY there are many people who have a wrong idea about a "CHARGE ACCOUNT." Some seem to think it a Special Dispensation to Pay When They Please. More often people allow the first and tenth of the month to pass by thoughtlessly, forgetting their responsibilities to those merchants who have been waiting for "PAY DAY."

Credit means confidence. It is the basis for the bulk of the world's business. But for you to think lightly of the confidence YOUR MERCHANT places in YOU is a breach of faith. If it were not for a fairly large percentage of buyers WHO PAY THEIR BILLS PROMPTLY on the first or not later than the tenth of the month, selling cost would be higher, consequently increased retail prices.

When a merchant extends to YOU the courtesy of a charge account it is understood that all bills are due and payable between the first and tenth of the month following. Not partly paid, but Paid in Full. Form the habit of PAYING YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY. You owe it to yourself and to the merchant who has "trusted" you with his merchandise. Demonstrate to the merchant that you have the right to a charge account.

The abuse of credit which is one of the greatest enemies of the human race is being more generally practiced now than it has ever been since the beginning of time. The merchants are the sole victims and sufferers. Indebtedness is with a majority of people the least of their worries. They satisfy their desires for pleasure with no thought of the merchant or merchants to whom they are indebted and in many instances heavily. But the doors of the credit chambers of the members of the Greenville Merchants Association which has stood ajar for the reception of, and for the convenience of the general public is now slowly closing against such practices. PEOPLE WHO ARE NEGLECTING THEIR HONEST DEBTS TODAY MAY BE THE SUFFERERS TOMORROW, because when their credit rating is conveyed to more than fifty of the best merchants of Greenville, it means that they have no further credit until their former obligations have been satisfactorily taken care of. The secretary's office of the Merchants Association is now busily engaged preparing a list of this element who are classed as not deserving of credit, and when it is completed which will be in about two weeks, a copy will be furnished to every member of the Association for their protection. A copy of this will also be mailed to the secretary of the Associations of other towns and cities of this state as well as to some of the shopping centers of Virginia.

In closing our rating sheets all people will be treated alike, your social standing may be of the best, but if you have failed in your obligations to our merchants than you must suffer the consequences even though you meet with embarrassment by being refused credit at a time when you are really in need.

IF YOU FAIL NOW YOU ALONE ARE TO BLAME. THIS IS THE FINAL PERIOD OF LENIENCY.

Greenville Merchants Association

Mr. Vitzelly, whose specialty is words; says many professional men know more words than Shakespeare. To add, "Woodrow Wilson in three of his books used 60,000 distinct terms." Many persons go through life knowing three or four hundred words altogether. The average business man's vocabulary is under 10,000, the college graduate about double that, until he begins to forget them.

Comparison between Shakespeare and Woodrow Wilson isn't of importance. Everything depends on what you do with the words in your vocabulary. Any line that Shakespeare ever wrote will last longer than all that Woodrow Wilson ever wrote.

Michael Angelo chiseled out his Moses or David using only a mallet and a stone chisel. But did more than other workmen do with their complicated sets of tools.

To test your little boy's or girl's vocabulary, see how many words they can construct out of these seven letters:

A-I-E-R-G-L-P. No word should contain fewer than three letters, and any word with more than four letters counts as three words. No letter in the list to be used more than once in any word.

A twelve-year-old child with the gift of words should make at least twenty words out of these letters in five minutes.

Take pencil, paper and try it.

Various members of the Vanderbilt family at various times built seven elaborate dwellings on the west side of Fifth Avenue, New York.

The seven dwellings, including the land, cost perhaps eight million dollars, not more. Five of the seven have been sold for fourteen million dollars, which proves that you can have your cake and eat it, if you buy real estate in the right place.

As showing how rapidly things change socially, financially and otherwise in America, it is interesting to observe that Mr. Winter a Jewish immigrant who came here twenty years ago, is now buying and juggling with the Vanderbilt houses.

"He hath put down the mighty," or at least they have been compelled to move farther uptown.

Princess Mary of Great Britain

now wears a "dinner coat" which is fashionable, and the woman's dinner coat for cold evenings silk lined with velvet, will appear simultaneously in New York, Seattle, Boston, New Orleans, Portland and San Diego.

It will cover up the low necked short-sleeved part of the evening costume, and probably save a good many lives.

"The hands are washed before eating lunch and dried with paper towels, a paper napkin is spread upon the desk and here the child places his lunch. A blessing is then asked by one of the children, by all of the children or by the teacher. During the lunch period sometimes attractive conversation is carried on, again music may be played upon the Victrola, while at another time some other form of entertainment is enjoyed."

Mr. Page also reported that many good results had come from the practice of the supervised lunch period. "The children do not throw their lunch paper on the ground as they did formerly, neither do they eat while running and playing as they did last year. The contents of their lunch baskets have greatly improved for they take more interest in telling Mother that they saw Mary Jones with fruit and milk in her lunch yesterday and it looked so good. They take more time to chew their food which, of course, affords them better digestion." A last result that he reported but not one of the least was that some of the children were carrying the blessing into their homes which was the first to be said by any member of the family in those respective homes.

Several other larger schools are securing beautiful results in this project and it will be interesting to have a report from each of these schools at the close of the school year.

Fountain Leads Quality of Instruction

When standard tests were given in April 1925 on the important subjects taught in the consolidated schools of the county system, it was found that Fountain ranked higher than any other school, while Grifton ran a close second. Bethel had the lowest rank and Grimesland next to the lowest, while Falkland, Belvoir, Arthur and Winterville achieved rather medium rank.

These same schools will be measured again next April, thereby determining just how far they fall short of reaching the standard in reading, arithmetic, spelling and English.

Rather high interest is being taken by the class-room teachers of Pitt county to so teach their children that they may reach their respective grade, ability or standard. Several of the Parent-Teacher Associations are also doing a big share in promoting the type of teaching which will make the county child measure favorably with the child of a city system in those fundamental subjects. Supplementary books are being bought, libraries are being increased, and other manifestations of interest are being shown by these associations.

It can be suggested here that Farmville, Ayden, Greenville and all the schools of the county may decide upon the same battery of achievement tests to be given in April and should they do so, it will be interesting to compare the results of all the large schools of the county. The County commencement organization has been changed and from it and from the group center contests there will be another expression of the quality and type of work being produced within the county schools.

The chairman of the county Board of Education in the Teachers' Handbook says: "We want the teachers of Pitt county to believe in Pitt county and its future will be determined largely by what the teachers do for the coming generation." The teaching force of Pitt county will not fall short of this high hope, expressed by their board of education. They themselves are radiant with hope that Pitt county children may have just as good schools, just as interesting instruction, and just as attractive ideas as that afforded by other communities.

Gossip of Staff Correspondents at World Centers of Population.

By WALTER DIETZEL, I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

Berlin, Jan. 11.—Germany, at present, is literally swamped with publications on America by German authors who have gone to the States, made a tour, returned after staying a few months, return to their country and pack their experiences in more or less voluminous books.

A regular crusade for a new discovery of America has set in and nothing better illustrates the tremendous growth of the political and economic power of the United States since the end of the war.

During the last few years many prominent Germans packed their trunks and sailed to the States to find out about that miraculous growth of power and influence. They came back—and they are still going to and fro—to tell their countrymen the story of unparalleled wealth, unheard-of possibilities for expansion, almighty capital swaying millions, tremendous influence of the press and an all-round happiness of the citizens breathing the lofty atmosphere of free democracy.

Indemnities in the amount of approximately three billion marks, that is about two and a half to three times as much as the total amount of the loan granted to Germany under the Dawes Plan, are claimed by former German potentates for "personal" property confiscated by the various German states after the revolution. These claims, put forward at a time when millions of Germans live at a minimum of food, clothes, and communists, and Democrats, who denounced them as "The Princes' robbery raid."

The Reichstag after a lively debate turned the matter over to the Juridical Committee for further investigation.

Prussia, after losing several suits in which it disputed the claims of the Hohenzollerns, now proposed an "amicable agreement" to settle the claims of its former dynasty. According to this agreement, which has been submitted to the Hohenzollerns, Prussia is prepared to return to the Hohenzollerns, or compensate them with, the following properties: land and forests in the amount of 42 million marks, real estates (13 millions), castles and parks (81 millions), funds (1 million), movables (10 millions), art treasures (5 millions), family jewels (3 millions), and amount of 30 million marks in cash. Apart from this agreement, the Kaiser hitherto received 50,000 marks in cash a month ever since he fled to Holland.

Veteran Divorce Judges Commend Proposed Laws

Chicago, Jan. 11.—AP—Five Cook county judges, in a state which had the second largest number of divorces, are unanimous in commending the federal divorce bill, inasmuch as it attempts to introduce uniform divorce laws throughout the nation.

The bill, introduced by Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, allows only five causes for divorce—unfaithfulness, cruelty, desertion, for a year, insanity and conviction of a felony.

The Chicago jurists, who have heard approximately 75,000 divorce petitions filed in this district alone in the last five years, suggest modifications and amendments to the Capper bill.

Judge Harry A. Lewis, who astounded feminine divorce seekers some time ago by declaring he would grant no alimony to women in good health who had no children, went into some detail in proposing improvements on the Senate bill.

"The strongest proof should be required for the charges of cruelty and insanity, which are causes for divorce in the bill," he said. "Fraud is likely to creep into such cases."

Judge Joseph Sabath expressed approval of an amendment which would require the prospective bride and bridegroom to give two weeks' notice before they could obtain a marriage license. The plan has worked out successfully in Europe, he said.

The other judges are John L. Sullivan, Thomas J. Lynch, and John R. Caverly. The latter presided at the Loeb-Leopold murder trial.

Illinois, with 13,658 divorces in 1924, according to a compilation by the department of commerce, was exceeded only by Texas, which had a total of 15,375 divorces. Total divorces for the United States for 1924 were 170,867, an increase of 3.5 per cent over 1923.

Reductions in Income Taxes Approved

Washington, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Reductions in income taxes as provided in the House Revenue Bill were approved today by the Senate Finance Committee.

It reduced the normal income tax rates and the increased personal exemptions were unanimously approved, but the proposals of Democrats to increase the reduction on sur-tax rates over that provided by the public measure was defeated. Senator Simmons, Democrat of North Carolina, led the minority fight for the increase of the reduction.

Lepers in Paris Estimated at 200

Paris, Jan. 11.—I.N.S.—Lax quarantine regulations at French ports have failed to halt the infiltrations of victims until today it is estimated there are more than 200 lepers in Paris alone, freely walking about the streets and capable of contaminating every one with whom they come in contact.

This is a note of warning sounded by Professor Janselme in a session of the Academy of Medicine. "Not every one of these 200 is equally contagious," explained the Professor, "because many of them are what we call 'exotic' lepers whose virulent, malady only becomes active in tropical climates."

Among the sixty-one cases of the disease he reported to the Association are rich and poor; his clinical notes have instances of wealthy cotton and rice planters from Indo China, export merchants from the Near East, escaped criminals from French Guiana, the penal colony, three university students, professors, teachers from colonial schools, a cook, three butchers, two waiters, and a nursemaid.

In the port cities of France like Bordeaux and Marseilles city hospitals have often reported cases of leprosy. Sailors pick up the disease in the tropical islands of the Pacific and unknowingly bring it back to France, where the medical examination at the port of entry are often perfunctory and neglected.

"Against this peril we are absolutely helpless. Persons afflicted with this contagion whether of medical or administrative in-
